Parking kiosk coming to downtown

BY PHIL CUSTODIO
Clarkston News Editor

The city will soon be the owner of a paid-parking kiosk after a contentious, split-decision vote of City Council, Monday.

"Is this the only option? Yeah, it's the only option," said council member Rick Detkowski, the swing vote in the 4-3 decision. "I don't see any other choice."

Detkowski, Mayor Steven Percival, and council members Eric Haven and Sue Wylie voted "yes" at the Aug. 28 meeting.

Voting "no" were council members Sharron Catallo, Jason Kneisc, and David Marsh.

Marsh said the vote could lead down a slippery slope to paid parking in the entire city, as other private lot owners switch over to preserve parking for their customers.

"This is a difficult decision," he said. "We obviously need revenue. But by this one vote we could change Clarkston forever. How much money is it worth to do that?"

The city Parking Committee met last Wednesday, but was not ready to propose a recommendation to council, said Detkowski, who is a member of the committee.

Kneisc, who is also a committee member, said the council should wait for the committee's recommendation.

"Voting 'yes' is a slap to Rick's face, the committee's face," Kneisc said. "This is not a dictatorship. Do you trust the parking committee or do you trust the chair?"

"That's not what's happening," Percival said. "For 18 months, we've allowed the process to work."

The mayor said the committee has done and continues to do a phenomenal job, but it's time for council to make a decision.

"We probably need to move on this sooner than later," he said. "The funds we're losing on a monthly basis – $60-70 thousand we could have had generated."

"I'd like to see things move forward," Haven said. "I see one glaring truth here. We need revenue – let's go and get some revenue for this village, not from residents but from people coming into town because they love it."

Curt Catallo, owner of Union Joints in Clarkston, said paid parking in the city lot would mean more people who aren't customers parking in his lots, looking for free parking.

"Unfortunately if you go with paid parking we will have no choice but to go into the parking business," Curt said.

The restaurateur said the plan makes the city into a "money vampire," sticking a "blood funnel into anything smelling like money." Percival called for proper etiquette.

"Let's have a little bit of decorum and order," the mayor said.

Sharron Catallo, Curt's mother, said they should delay the vote again to give the parking committee more time to research ways to increase parking, and refer the revenue issue to the budget committee.

According to the resolution, the city will purchase the parking kiosk from Harvey Electronics and Radio for $8,500. With delivery and installation, the total cost is $9,775. Included in the vote to buy the kiosk was a provision that all parking revenue would be used to pay for parking lot maintenance.

A proposal by City Manager Jonathan Smith for paid parking at Washington and Main includes $1 per hour for the lot's 58 spaces, with all other parking in the city remaining free.

A part-time parking enforcement officer would be employed for safety and parking space turnover, Smith proposed.

The parking committee will discuss the details at future meetings.

Briefly

Labor Day

The Clarkston News offices will be closed for the Labor Day holiday, Monday, Sept. 4 – classified deadline is Friday, Sept. 1.

No Labor Day parade in downtown Clarkston this year. It was cancelled after no organizers could be found to replace the Clarkston Rotary Club, which dropped it to focus on its other community projects.

TIF extended

The Independence Township Board approved the extension of the Corridor Improvement Authority's Tax Increment Finance (TIF) at its Aug. 22 meeting.

Businesses and residents in the TIF district will not have a tax increase – the tax-diversion program has been extended to end in 2029 instead of 2020.

The extension will help pay for the last phase of the Corridor Improvement Plan, the widening of North Sashabaw Road to five lanes from Flemings Lake Road to Clarkston Road.

More funds for seniors

Budget amendment 34 was approved by the Independence Township Board, increasing funds for Parks, Recreation & Seniors Senior Division Donations and Travel budgets.

The donation account will add $2,093 from contributions from Friends of the Senior Center. The funds will go towards a new flag pole for the center, $155; lunch bag purchase for the Volunteer Appreciation Luncheon, $938; and $1,000 for the Meals on Wheels Program.

The Senior Travel Program budget will have an increase of $30,000 due to increased registrations in the program in 2017. The program covers travel for senior day trips.

New athletic trainer

A new face on the sidelines joining Clarkston's athletic faculty is Shane Kerbelis, the new athletic trainer at Clarkston High School.

Kerbelis recently graduated from Saginaw Valley State University where he graduated with a Bachelor of Science Degree in both athletic training and exercise science. While he was in college, he worked as a personal trainer and had an internship at Oxford High School, where he went to school. In his spare time, he enjoys running and mostly focuses on 5K and 10K distances. Welcome to Clarkston!

Too much Free Press

BY JESSICA STEELEY
 Clarkston News Staff Writer

For many residents around Clarkston, receiving pink bags every Sunday with a free Detroit Free Press, mostly advertisements, is a nuisance.

Independence Township trustees Jose Aliaga and Andrea Schroeder said they've been receiving complaints from residents about the paper and questions on how to stop receiving them.

The newspapers are an annoyance to pick up, especially for older and handicapped residents who have trouble getting around, and they've been piling up in driveways of residents who are travelling.

Chris Nicholos, a representative of the media company Gannett, which owns the Free Press, said residents wishing to not receive the free mailing can call their customer service department at 800-395-3300.

"It's just best to go through our customer service department. That way, it gets routed out to what particular route it's on and what area," Nicholos said.

This problem isn't unique to the Clarkston area. Orion Township Supervisor Chris Barnett said he was also getting several complaints from residents about the papers, an issue they resolved this past spring.

Barnett said they warned the Free Press to stop delivering the papers to residents who had already opted out, otherwise the township would ticket them for littering, which they did. The paper then sued.

"Of course they have the right to the free press and free speech, but if a resident says they don't want the paper, that doesn't trump their right to throw stuff on people's yards and driveways," Barnett said.

They settled the lawsuit with the Free Press and all charges were dropped against Orion Township.

"What they did is they gave us a specific contact person that our residents could call and speak directly with the same person—who's a manager—and cancel the paper," Barnett said. "Or if they cancel and it comes again, they can call the same person again."

He said since then, complaints have decreased dramatically. The manager's phone number was set up directly for Orion, so Clarkston residents should use the customer service number, 800-395-3300.

Barnett stressed he wasn't telling anyone to stop delivering papers to residents, just to have a better system for it, such as putting them in the mailbox instead of just throwing papers in yards.

Another option for local residents is to fill out an online form to remove their house from the mailing list. Trustee Schroeder has an active google doc for residents to do this. For the link, you can email her at andreaschroeder@sbcglobal.net.

Should Kids Help Fund Their College Savings?

To say there are a lot of opinions on teaching children how to save money is an understatement. This includes the debate over whether kids should help fund their college education.

Financial experts tend to agree on the benefits of teaching kids to save their money. If you start when your children are young, they benefit from learning good saving habits. And when children help to pay for their own college, the rewards increase. Not only will the student loan balance be lower, but working hard to save for their education will instill accomplishment, gratitude and a strong work ethic that will carry well through adulthood.

How to Start Saving & the Benefits:

The expectation to attend college is there.

How often do you talk to your child about college? For some, it's a conversation that isn't brought up until high school. But when you begin talking about and saving for college in grade school, students begin to see college as something they are going to do – not as something they may or may not do. Plus, they'll start deciding on a career path and work toward their goal.

Students have more accountability.

When it's their hard-earned money going toward their education, the student is more likely to study hard and, as a result, get more out of the degree.

Graduation may come sooner.

If they're footing their own bill – whether through savings or working while in school – college students may step it up a bit with a little larger credit load and graduate without any delays.

School choices may be more reasonable.

When students look at the price tag of their dream school, they may choose to look at more affordable options if they're spending some of their own savings. They may choose a community college for the first two years before moving to a 4-year university or staying in-state versus paying more for out of state tuition.

Even if you will contribute to their college savings, encouraging children to start saving early so they can also contribute financially to their education is a great start to their future.

A Genisys Credit Union youth certificate is available for children ages 8-18 and structured to encourage and reward long-term saving.

Present this article when opening a new Youth Certificate and we will add $10 to your initial deposit.

A column by Jessica Steeley

Thankful for Labor Day

Anyone out there have fun Labor Day plans? Maybe going on a weekend-long trip or spending the day with family?

Before this weekend, I want to inform you all of the origins of Labor Day, because, as a child, I thought it was about expectant mothers rather than the American Labor Movement.

First established as a public holiday in Oregon in 1887, Labor Day wasn't an official federal holiday until 1894. The day is meant to celebrate worker's contributions to the country.

The majority of states observed Labor Day before President Glover Cleveland had it recognized federally. The legislation he signed was in response to the Pullman Strike of 1894, where strikers were killed by the United States Army and Marshals Service.

In the 19th century, that strike marked a turning point for the direction of labor in this country, and I think the country is at the crossroads of a similar systematic labor shift now.

Around the country there are debates about minimum wage, parental leave and paid time off for workers in all positions.

Unfortunately, these discussions aren't as prominent as they should be, nor are there enough of them.

It shouldn't be a controversial statement that everyone deserves to be able to afford basic needs such as food, shelter and water. Raising the minimum wage could only help with that, as plenty of families live off it.

America has one of the worst policies when it comes to parental leave. In most cases new parents can't afford to take time off if their workplace doesn't have paid parental leave. This forces them to come up with other arrangements for their baby and means they hardly get any time with their newborn.

Vacation time is also sorely undervalued. American workers think they'll be viewed better by higher-ups if they take less time-off, and maybe they will, but that undermines the positive health benefits of vacations, both physically and mentally. Time-off allows rejuvenation and increases employees' happiness and productivity.

I encourage you to think on these views as you celebrate Labor Day weekend and remember the origins of its existence. Have a great vacation, Clarkston!

Thanks for community support for Rush for Food

Dear Editor,

We would like to thank the Clarkston community for their support in the 20th Annual Rush for Food on Saturday, Aug. 19.

Every year at this time, our Clarkston football players enjoy the opportunity to give back to the community that faithfully supports them.

The Varsity and JV players canvased over 40 neighborhoods while the Freshman team worked all afternoon sorting and stocking the pantry of Lighthouse North. The teams collected over 7,500 pounds of food!

Special thanks goes to the Clarkston Athletic Boosters, and Kopeski's McDonalds of Royal Oak for donating supplies for the pre-Rush breakfast.

Thanks also go to the Clarkston Chiefs, Clarkston Dance Team and Clarkston Cheerleaders for contributing donations. Thanks to the many other parents and coaches who pitched in and volunteered at the event and provided additional donations!

Thanks go to my partners on the 20th annual Rush For Food parent committee which included Erika Heaton, Karen Nicklin, Kathy Kerrigan, Trish Newblatt, Steve Spears, Lisa/ Joe Jones, Jen Septer, Jen Ladd, and Chris Lenardson for their time and commitment in organizing another successful year!

Finally, we would like to thank the Clarkston News, St. Daniels Catholic Community, Mt. Zion Church, Pine Knob Urgent Care and the Clarkston Library for hosting community drop-boxes and the Clarkston citizens who generously donated to make this event, the 20th annual Rush For Food, such a great success! Together, we once again proved what a wonderful community Clarkston is to live in! Thank you.

Reader predicts President Trump will live in infamy

Dear Editor,

Voter remorse. My sympathy for the voters who foolishly fell for the lies of Trump.

"Are we great yet?" No, absolutely not.

How sad to learn of his admiration of the KKK. His obsession with Obama is the fact a black man was successful and more popular.

Obamacare will endure while Trump's destiny will be infamy.

Clarkston for Life kicks off new year

BY JESSICA STEELEY

Clarkston News Staff Writer

Clarkston residents and educators kicked off the new school year last week with the Clarkston for Life well-being campaign.

"It was a dream of mine to bring these people together, and this event was just the start of some exciting conversations we will be having as a community," said Superintendent Dr. Rod Rock in an email interview.

Attendees included Clarkston faculty and staff, township and village representatives, members of the Chamber of Commerce, Clarkston Coalition for Youth, Clarkston Optimists, Clarkston Foundation, Board of Education members, and many others, totaling nearly 1,000 participants.

Board of Education President Elizabeth Egan, a piano teacher, emphasized the continuation of learning and student growth.

"I want you to remember that learning is a lifelong endeavor, I did not start playing [piano] until I was 40," Egan said, after demonstrating the difference between someone playing the piano for two weeks versus seven years.

Rock began Clarkston for Life to prioritize the social, emotional, physical and intellectual well-being of not only Clarkston kids, but the entire Clarkston community. This event served as a Clarkston for Life kick-off.

The full-day event included the screening of "Passion to Teach" with teachers-turned-filmmakers Bart Nourse and Sandria Parsons, facilitated breakout discussion sessions, and an interactive workshop on resilience, optimism, and gratitude with Positive Psychology expert Dr. Gabe Paoletti.

Paoletti is a part of the University of Pennsylvania's Positive Psychology Center. He showed the audience methods to stay optimistic with positive thinking and he commended Clarkston for Life.

"This is a major red thread opportunity to connect the community," Paoletti said of the initiative, referring to the "Red Thread Theory" Dr. Rock has adopted.

The theory states that once someone comes into your life and makes a significant impact, they are forever connected to you by a red thread.

Rock hopes Clarkston can be connected as a community focused on well-being to build partnerships, develop programs and expand the Clarkston for Life reach.

"Research shows that an individual's well-being relates directly to a healthier life, achievements in school and in life, and stronger labor market success - all factors will work to benefit each resident of Clarkston as a whole, from birth throughout life," Rock said. "We don't just hope this initiative will help our community, we know it will because of the proven links that exist between well-being and positive outcomes."

For more information and a list of future events, check "Clarkston for Life" on Facebook.

You can be a hit with these marketing secrets!

As a member of the human race blessed to live in these here United States, you are bombarded with thousands of marketing pitches every day. On TV, radio, billboards and whenever you log on to your favorite website, social media forum or check your e-mail, marketers of all stripes are vying for your attention. (Actually, I'd be surprised if we are not all becoming numb to this constant "LOOK AT ME!!" barrage of electronic ads - now, I am no researcher, so I do not know if this is true or not. (If you know of any studies on this subject, please pass them on to me. Thanks in advance.)

One of the bonuses for us in the print medium (both newspapers and magazines) is our readers do not see our customers' ads as an annoying hindrance - which is good. This cannot be said for advertising most anywhere else, particularly online.

In May of this year, Forbes reported in an article headlined The End of Advertising As We Know It, by James McQuivey, "...major advertisers like GE and JP Morgan Chase have been re-examining their digital display advertising spend and threatening to cut significant dollars . . . Forrester released new research on the backlash of these ad networks - including Google and Facebook - and found that consumers are increasingly finding ways to avoid digital ads, while advertisers are investing less in online advertising . . . Put simply, the end of advertising is coming because interruptions are ending."

Conversely, a blog by Jenna Bruce on MediaSpaceSolutions.com states, "Advertising in a newspaper is not seen as an interruption. In fact,

Don't
Rush Me

A column by

numerous surveys have shown one of the reasons people buy newspapers is to view the ads for their local stores and businesses. Consumers do want and need to be exposed to advertising; they simply want ads on their own terms . . . When a person reads an advertisement (in a newspaper) it's because they choose to do so. They give their full attention to your message and will remember you when they need your product or service."

Yay for us!

That said, we (and by that I mean the advertising and ad design staffs at your ever-lovin' community newspaper) still need to be cognizant of our customer's ad on these pages. We need our customers' ads to be effective if we want our customers' continued trust and support.

For years I have heard (from many sources so I believe it to be true) the average person will spend about three seconds scanning a newspaper page looking for something to grab their attention. In a split second, a reader may look to an ad, story or simply turn the page.

Ad Design Is Critical.

All elements of a good print ad - the headline, graphic, copy, offer, contact info - need to work in harmony to stop the reader, engage the reader and move the reader to act.

So, what goes into designing a good ad? Well, a number of things. First, you need to know who you're targeting and what your expectations are for the ad. For example, if your target market is hungry men wanting a good burger for lunch, you would not design your ad to entice women. If you expect the phone to ring off the hook, or folks to bust down your doors after your ad has run, you need to have an exceptional offer in an ad that is bold and stands out. This is a Return on Investment - ROI - ad, versus a two column by two-inch branding ad which does little more than remind readers a certain business is open.

And, you need to understand one of the basic rules of marketing. Marketing is not about reasoning with potential customers. It is not rational. Marketing is emotional.

In general, people buy to fulfill two things: a solution to a problem; or to feel good.

In his 1943 paper, A Theory of Human Motivation, Abraham Maslow proposed a hierarchy of needs most people require to feel good, healthy, safe and loved. To illustrate his theory, he created a five-stage pyramid. At the base of the pyramid are a person's basic life needs - things like air, food, water, shelter, sex, warmth and sleep. From this foundation, everything else is built upon.

Next stage up is safety (feelings of security, protection, law, order, social limits and stability).

Further up is the stage of belonging, or love (this is where the feelings of family, affections, friends and community come into play).

The last two stages are esteem and self-actualization needs. Your esteem needs are met by your reputation, achievement and status within your relationships and community. Self-actualization deals with personal growth and self-fulfillment.

In marketing, you put any one of these needs in question and then offer a solution - whatever goods or services your business offers. A simple example of this would be, "Hungry For a REAL Good Hamburger?" "Don's Hamburgers Have Been Voted Best in Town for 5 Years Running! Whether you've tried a Don Burger or want to taste what all the love is about, stop in and mention this ad for $2 off your next $5 burger!"

Now that I have shared some secrets, I hope all our local businesses will do better with their ads! If you have any questions, give me a shout via e-mail. Send your questions to: DontRushDon@gmail.com

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, That at its Regular / Budget meeting on August 22, 2017, the Charter Township of Independence Board of Trustees approved a second reading and adoption of an ordinance to amend certain provisions of the Independence Charter Township Code.

A true copy of this Ordinance is on file and available for inspection between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday at the Independence Township's Clerk's Office, 6483 Waldon Ctr. Dr., Clarkston, MI 48346 and available on the Township's website at: www.indtwp.com.

STATE OF MICHIGAN
COUNTY OF OAKLAND
THE CHARTER TOWNSHIP OF INDEPENDENCE
ORDINANCE # 2017-30-001

PREAMBLE

The Charter Township of Independence has determined it is appropriate and necessary for the health, safety and welfare of the citizens of the Township to amend Chapter 30, Offenses, of the Code of Ordinances, Charter Township of Independence, Oakland County, Michigan, by repealing Article III, Offenses Against Persons, Section 30-62, Harassment, and adding a new Section 30-62 entitled Stalking and Harassment and to provide penalties for violation thereof. Therefore,

THE CHARTER TOWNSHIP OF INDEPENDENCE ORDAINS FOR INCORPORATION INTO THE TOWNSHIP CODE:

Section 1. SHORT TITLE.

This Ordinance shall be known as and may be cited as the "Stalking and Harassment" Ordinance.

Section 2. AMENDMENT TO CHAPTER 30.

Chapter 30 of the Code of Ordinances, Charter Township of Independence is hereby amended by repealing Article III (Offenses Against Persons) Section 30-62 and adding a new Section 30-62, which shall read as follows:

Section 30-62

Stalking and Harassment; Misdemeanor

a. Definitions

As used in this Section, the following words and phrases shall have the meanings set forth herein.

- "Course of Conduct" means a pattern of conduct composed of a series of 2 or more separate non-continuous acts evidencing a continuity of purpose.
- "Emotional distress" means significant mental suffering or distress that may, but does not necessarily, require medical or other professional treatment or counseling.
- "Stalking" means a willful course of conduct involving repeated or continuing harassment of another individual that would cause a reasonable person to feel terrorized, frightened, intimidated, threatened, harassed, or molested and that actually causes the victim to feel terrorized, frightened, intimidated, threatened, harassed, or molested.
- "Unconsented contact" means any contact with another individual that is initiated or continued without that individual's consent or in disregard of that individual's expressed desire that the contact be avoided or discontinued. Unconsented contact includes, but is not limited to, any of the following:
  - Following or appearing within the sight of that individual.
  - Approaching or confronting that individual in a public place or on private property.
  - Appearing at that individual's workplace or residence.
  - Entering onto or remaining on property owned, leased, or occupied by that individual.
  - Contacting that individual by telephone.
  - Sending mail or electronic communications to that individual.
  - Placing an object on, or delivering an object to, property owned, leased, or occupied by that individual.
  - Striking, shoving, kicking, or otherwise touching a person or subjecting a person to physical contact.
- "Harassment" means conduct directed toward a victim that includes, but is not limited to, repeated or continuing unconsented contact that would cause a reasonable individual to suffer emotional distress and that actually causes the victim to suffer emotional distress. Harassment does not include constitutionally protected activity or conduct that serves a legitimate purpose.
- "Victim" means an individual who is the target of a willful course of conduct involving repeated or continuing harassment.
- A person who engages in stalking or harassment is guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment for not more than 93 days or a fine of not more than $500, or both.

- In a prosecution for a violation of this section, evidence that the defendant continued to engage in a course of conduct involving repeated unconsented contact with the victim after having been requested by the victim to discontinue the same or a different form of unconsented contact, and to refrain from any further unconsented contact with the victim, gives rise to a rebuttable presumption that the continuation of the course of conduct caused the victim to feel terrorized, frightened, intimidated, threatened, harassed, or molested.
- A criminal penalty provided for under this Section may be imposed in addition to any penalty that may be imposed by Township Ordinance for any other criminal offense arising from the same conduct or for any contempt of court arising from the same conduct.

Nothing in this Ordinance shall be construed to limit the remedies available to the Township in the event of a violation of this Ordinance.

State law reference MCL 750.411h, as amended.

Section 3. BALANCE OF ORDINANCE REMAINS IN EFFECT.

Chapter 30 Article III of the Independence Code of Ordinances is hereby affirmed and remains in full force and effect, except as specifically modified herein.

Section 4. SEVERABILITY.

If any Section, subsection, clause, phrase or portions of this ordinance is for any reason held invalid or unconstitutional by any court of competent jurisdiction, such portion shall be deemed a separate, distinct and independent portion of this ordinance and such holding shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this ordinance.

Section 5. SAVINGS.

All proceedings pending and all rights and liabilities existing, acquired or incurred at the time this Ordinance takes effect, are saved and may be consummated according to the law in force when they were commenced.

Section 6. REPEALER.

All ordinances or parts of ordinances, or Sections of the Charter Township of Independence Code of Ordinances in conflict with this Ordinance are repealed only to the extent necessary to give this Ordinance full force and effect.

Section 7. NOTICE TO BE PUBLISHED.

The Township Clerk for the Charter Township of Independence shall publish this ordinance in the manner required by MCL 42.22

Section 8. EFFECTIVE DATE.

This Ordinance section will be in effect as an Ordinance of the Charter Township of Independence immediately upon its publication.

CERTIFICATION

It is certified that the ordinance set forth above was duly adopted by the Township Board of the Charter Township of Independence at a meeting duly called and held on the 22nd day of August, 2017.

Vehicle break-ins

Residents reported three vehicles were broken in to on Michigamme Road on Aug. 17. An additional vehicle had an attempted break-in but the vehicle's alarm sounded and awakened the owners. Neighbors spotted three individuals on Tuscarora, looking into vehicles at about 4-5 a.m. At about midnight on that same day, a person was spotted next to his bicycle in the trees on Hilltop Estates Drive. Deputies were notified by the local neighborhood watch, residents said.

July report

Oakland County Sheriff's deputies issued 54 traffic enforcement tickets in July in the City of the Village of Clarkston, including 35 for prohibited parking; five for other parking infractions; five for speeding; two each for impeding traffic and weighmaster truck violations; and one each for expired plate, failure to use due care, failure to yield, traffic signal, and expired plate.

Work continues on Gregg's

Clarkston residents are still missing the signature pizza special from Gregg's Gourmet Café, which was damaged in a fire next door in May. Owner Jeff Ryeson said renovations are taking longer than originally expected.

"It's just a slow process, but we're coming back," he explained. "By the end of September, hopefully."

Ryeson says the hold-up is mostly due to delays with insurance. The insurance company has to approve every decision, which makes everything take around three times longer than it would with a private company, he added.

"We're getting closer, I'm hoping in another month or so we should be close to opening, but it's hard to say," Ryeson said.

In the meantime, Gregg's is still doing catering out of Ryeson's Lapeer restaurant, E.G. Nicks. Gregg's will also be at Taste of Clarkston on Oct. 1.

"Hopefully we'll be open by then, that's my goal," Ryeson said. "The biggest thing is just to reinforce the fact that yes, we are reopening."

Sewer rates passed on from water authority

BY JESSICA STEELEY
 Clarkston News Staff Writer

Township residents complain sewer rates are too high, but it's out of local control, officials say.

"Really what drives sewer charges is the sewage disposal fees that are not under our control," said Dave McKee, director of Independence Township Department of Public Works. "We're given the new rates every year from the Great Lakes Water Authority on what our charges will be for sewage disposal and we just simply pass that increase up to our customers."

During board member comments at the end of the Township Board's Aug. 22 meeting, Trustee Jose Aliaga thanked McKee for responding to residents' concerns about the sewer bill.

Talking with McKee later in the week, he explained what factors raise sewage cost in the township. The director said the DPW only controls the operating costs paid by residents, which he estimates to be around $26 per Residential Equivalent Unit (REU), while the sewage disposal cost is around $76 per REU.

"We pass the cost on of the rate increase that we receive from the Great Lakes Water Authority, which is 100 percent separate from our operating cost, which we have not raised in close to five years," he said.

He explained sewage from Independence, along with many other Oakland County communities, goes into the Clinton Oakland Interceptor Pipe controlled by the Water Commission of Oakland County. Most of that goes to the Great Lakes Water Authority, but some is diverted to Pontiac.

"Thirty percent of that flow can be diverted to Pontiac," McKee said. "Everybody benefits from the savings, and it does kind of help to keep the rate increase from Great Lakes down."

Big win at Big House

BY WENDI REARDON PRICE
Clarkston News Sports Writer

Clarkston's gridiron heroes celebrated on the sidelines at University of Michigan as the clock counted down.

For the second year, the Wolves were victorious in the Battle at the Big House, with a 42-7 win over Lapeer.

"We played pretty well all the way around," said Kurt Richardson, long-time head coach for Clarkston Varsity Football.

Clarkston opened with possession of the ball and scored their first touchdown just over six minutes into the game off of Josh Cantu's first of three touchdowns for the night.

Lapeer tied the score after a snap went over the Wolves and the Lightning recovered it to run the ball with two minutes left in the first quarter.

"The snap was kind of ugly," Richardson admitted. "They are a good football team. They are going to win a lot of games."

Cantu broke the tie at the beginning of the second quarter with a 10-yard run. On Lapeer's next possession they didn't gain much ground before the ball went back to Clarkston.

Keagan King caught the punt and in the next play Wolf Tieler Houston made a 43-yard run into the endzone on his only rushing attempt, putting the score 21-7.

The Wolves closed the first half with one more touchdown off a 9-yard run by Michael Fluegel.

Quarterback Nate Uballe was 4-for-5 for 27 yards and one down in passing. Houston caught two of the passes for 14 yards and Conner Heaton caught two passes for 13 yards.

Uballe rushed the ball eight times for 81 yards. Cantu rushed the ball 140 yards on ten carries. Fluegel rushed the ball 61 yards on ten carries and Jake Billette carried the ball three times for 73 yards, scoring one touchdown.

"We have three good backs and then Tieler broke that one run - it was nice to see," Richardson said. "Nate played a tremendous game - throwing the ball, running the ball, and general command of defense."

Tristan Mattson was 5-for-5 on PAT attempts and Jermaine Roemer scored on his lone PAT attempt.

Cody Hughes led defense with five tackles and one assist. Maxx Brennan and Gino Paese had three tackles each. Brennan also recovered a fumble with 4:53 remaining in the first half.

"They did not break," Richardson said about defense. "We didn't turn the ball over. We maybe had one, two penalties. We did some good things. We have some things we need to work on."

The Wolves host Southfield Arts & Technology this Friday. The Warriors lost their season opener to Davison in triple overtime, 56-54.

"They are a really good team, and you always want to get off on the right step," Richardson said. "It gives you a little momentum going in there."

Kick off is 7 p.m., 6093 Flemings Lake Road.

ATHLETES OF THE WEEK

The Clarkston Boys Varsity Tennis team finishes the Grand Blanc Invitational in first place. Photo provided

Strong start to season

The Wolves walked off the court with the crown for the first time since participating in the Grand Blanc Invitational, Aug. 19.

Three points made the difference for the Clarkston Boys Varsity Tennis team for the first through fifth places and the Wolves came through scoring 18. Detroit Catholic Central was right on their heels in second place with 17 points; Port Huron Northern and Grand Blanc tied for third with 16 points; Walled Lake Northern, fifth, 15 points; Rochester, sixth, 10 points; and Grosse Pointe North and Holly tied for seventh, eight points.

The Wolves swept all four singles flights with Luke Baylis, Frankie Piana, Jacob Burkett and Noah Fasczewski taking home gold medals.

The double teams of Charlie Lussenhop and Jason Richards; Brendan Aughe and Max Meehan; and Ike Yeloushan and Adam Zentner finished with bronze medals for winning two of their three matches.

They followed it finishing third at the Northville Quad with 13 points, Aug. 23.

Baylis, on Singles No. 1, and Burkett, Singles No. 3, won their flights. Piana and Fasczewski won silver medals as runners-up at Singles No. 2 and Singles No. 4.

Shane McArthur and Logan Knowlson, on Doubles No. 2 Court, earned their first win of the season.

Northville finished in first place, earning 24 of 27 possible points. Ann Arbor Skyline finished in second place with 16 points.

The boys finished in second place in the Clarkston Invitational on Saturday with 16 points. Baylis, Burkett and Fasczewski won all their flights and earned gold medals. Piana and the doubles team of Nicholas Rouman and Ike Yeloushan won two matches and also won medals.

The boys head to Traverse City on Friday and Rochester Adams on Tuesday.

Learning from losses

The Lady Wolves are using time before their next set of games at Oxford to tweak a few things their recent losses exposed.

They went 1-2 in both the Lake Orion Quad and Rockford Quad last week.

"It was very tough competition," said Kelly Pinner, head coach for Clarkston Varsity Volleyball about going against top teams in the state. "The good thing playing great teams like those is we see where our weaknesses are so we know what we need to continue to work on. If you play teams you beat all the time, you don't discover your weaknesses. It's definitely good for that."

During the Orion quad on Aug. 22, the Wolves defeated Oxford 25-15 and 25-10. They lost to Notre Dame Prep, 25-19, 25-15; and Orion, 25-17, 25-19. They won the first match, 28-26.

Abbey Malinowski had 35 kills and 29 digs and Jennifer Chupinski had 33 digs.

Clarkston defeated Rockford in three games on Aug. 24, 25-17, 15-11 and lost 25-20.

"It was a big win for us," Pinner said.

They lost to Mercy 25-18, 25-18, and went 1-2 against Portage Central winning the first game 25-19 and lost the next two 25-18 and 15-10.

Malinowski had 37 kills and 38 digs, and Kayla Luchenbach had 14 kills and four blocks.

UNSIGHTLY, PAINFUL LEGS? WE'VE GOT YOU COVERED.

Americans who are suffering from unsightly, swollen, painful varicose veins might want to take a closer look at their insurance," says Dr. Charles Mok, at Allure Vein Center.

"What most people don't know is insurance covers treatment for varicose veins" he adds

"We're seeing more and more people for this condition. Why wouldn't you have it treated when it's an easy procedure with little to no out-of-pocket costs?"

Forty million people suffer from varicose veins, which can result in substantial pain and complications if not treated. Symptoms may include:

- Bulging veins
- Restless legs
- Aching, Throbbing, Cramping

"Early detection with free leg exams is essential" says Dr. Mok. "Wait too long and you could experience unwanted skin changes including swelling and skin ulcers."

"At Allure Vein Center, we make it easy to heal leg pain, with less risk."

Dr. Charles Mok,
Allure Vein Center Founder

Julie Meredith leads a discussion about what Depot Park is for.

Boardwalk, new playground among ideas for park

BY PHIL CUSTODIO
Clarkston News Editor

Residents had their say on the future of Depot Park at a community conversation meeting at Clarkston Independence District Library, Aug. 15.

Hosted by Friends of Depot Park and led by Library Director Julie Meredith, they learned about development possibilities for the park, including bench and lighting improvements, new playground equipment, and boardwalks or trails through its wetlands, which make up 80 percent of the park's area.

Clarkston Optimists Club member Ken Ermer described new playground features under discussion as safer and more inclusive, able to accommodate children with disabilities.

Existing wood playground features need replacement because they are splintering and their flat tops can be dangerous, Ermer said.

Emily Duthinh, president of North Oakland Headwaters Land Conservancy, said a trail or boardwalk could connect the park with Deer Lake beach.

Emily Duthinh, NOHLC president, points out how much of Depot Park is wetlands. Photos by Phil Custodio

There are three streams through the park, including one heading to the Clinton River, flowing under Clark bridge, the Mill Race flowing by the gazebo, and a drainage stream from Deer Lake across from the beach, Duthinh said.

City Council voted unanimously, Monday, to approve a contract for a community recreation plan to Carlisle and Wortman Associates for $5,705.

Bids were also received from McKenna Associates of Northville for $9,500 and Rowe Professional Services of Flint for $11,000.

The city budgeted $6,000 for the recreation plan, which is needed to apply for state DNR grants. Community support has been strong, through the Depot Park Giving Fund and Clarkston Area Optimist Club, which donated $10,000, said committee member Eric Haven.

"We're really excited about the next step," Haven said.

Showcasing the reasons this is a great area to live and work!

A view of downtown Clarkston from the north.

Plane view of town

Two hundred feet in the air at 115 mph over north Oakland County, pilot Bob Redner wanted to know if his plane was approaching the Clarkston area.

The two light-blue water towers of Independence Township fit the bill, and soon downtown Clarkston came into view, then Clarkston High School with its brand new football field.

"It looks great," said Redner, West Bloomfield resident and a member of the Oakland County International Airport Open House and Air Show Board of Directors.

He owns and flies a North American T-6 advanced trainer airplane, and was giving demonstration flights to media representatives to preview the air show, which was on Aug. 27.

The T-6 was among the warbird aircraft on display at the open house at the main terminal in Waterford.

Redner flies for fun, having learned from his dad about 45 years ago.

"My dad had one of these before I was born," he said. "I enjoy old airplanes. They're easy to work on over and over again."

The T-6 was the last airplane pilots flew before going to their final assignment during World War II, he said.

"All the World War II pilots flew it during training," he said. "What makes it cool is it was designed to be their last trainer plane. It has all the bad habits of fighters designed into it so pilots become familiar with what to expect."

For one, visibility on the ground is blocked by the engine, so pilots have to weave left and right while taxiing if they want to see anything.

"It's an honor to fly it," Redner said.

Cause close to player's heart

BY WENDI REARDON PRICE

Clarkston News Sports Writer

Antoine Gilder, Jr. is playing in his first Football for a Cure at Clarkston High School next Friday.

It's a special game for the Bloomfield Hills Blackhawk and his family as he plays for his dad, Antoine Gilder, Sr., who is going through his second round of chemotherapy after being diagnosed with lymphoblastic lymphoma, stage three.

"Now that my dad has been diagnosed with cancer it means a little bit more," Antoine said.

It's only been a little over a month since his dad was diagnosed after noticing he was short of breath. His wife, Candace, encouraged him to go to the emergency room. He had a collapsed lung, a pleural effusion and the cancer was discovered, July 21.

"It's just been a blur," Candace shared. "You are running on whatever it is today. It's been hard having to run from home to the hospital especially now I am picking back up school and football. It's hard to get to different places and make appointments for his chemo and treatments."

Candace discovered Clarkston was hosting the Blackhawks for Football for a Cure when she walked into McLaren Karmanos Center Institute in Bloomfield Hills and noticed the T-shirts for the event.

"We have been so busy, I didn't even know about the Sept. 8 game," she admitted. "I walked into the office and was like 'wait a minute.'"

Antoine, Jr. is excited to play for his dad because he loves football and used to play for Pontiac Northern and would enjoy the games against Clarkston. He also coached Antoine, Jr. and they would practice some plays.

"They argue about plays sometimes. It's funny to hear them or hear 'do it over, do it over,'" Candace smiled.

"It's nice to share that same love for the sport and have a cause at the same time," Antoine, Jr. said.

"When playing for a cause he is always supportive and focused on who he was playing for," Candace shared.

Antoine, Jr., his teammates and the Clarkston Wolves invite the community to come out for Football for a Cure on Sept. 8.

"It would be nice for both communities to come together for this one time because it is a bigger cause," Antoine, Jr. said. "It's bigger than just football."

Proceeds benefit Karmanos Cancer Institute Clarkston and Bloomfield offices to assist patients with non-medical expenses.

For more information or to volunteer for the event, please email ClarkstonFootballforaCure@gmail.com or call 248-922-6606.

Kick off is 7 p.m.

Still time to swing into SCAMPs 30th annual Golf Classic

There's been plenty of golf balls driven, laughter and money raised over the last 29 years for one of Clarkston's favorite organizations — SCAMP. And next week golfers will hit the links again to have fun and help kids.

The 30th Annual SCAMP Golf Classic is Sept. 8, at Fountains Golf & Banquet. All proceeds from the outing benefit SCAMP's five-week summer camp for over 200 kids with special needs.

"Each year we need to raise $450,000 to send these kids to camp," SCAMP executive director Aimee Baker said. "Fifty-six percent of them need financial help to attend. It's a wonderful experience for the SCAMPers and their families."

According to the SCAMP board of director and Golf Chair Al Kuhn there is still time to participate in the outing either as a golfer, volunteer or sponsor. "There's a full breakfast, lunch and dinner. It's a great outing."

He should know — he's golfed it for about 25 years. "SCAMP is known all over North Oakland County. People in Clarkston have really come together to support this group."

According to third generation supporter, Andrew Wint of Lewis E. Wint and Son Funeral Home, his family wanted a meaningful way to support the community and SCAMP met the need.

"Bob Brumback and wife Pat were instrumental for starting the actual SCAMP program. My grandparents, Lew and Diane helped with initial funding and they also hosted SCAMP meetings at the funeral home. They, along with other local Clarkston folks like Mel Vaara and Buck and Joan Kopietz, were also there from the beginning. Buck golfed in the first outing," he said.

Andrew is continuing the tradition started by his grandparents and carried on by his father Bill Wint.

Clarkston SCAMP was established over 40 years ago. According to their website, ClarkstonSCAMP.org, when it started the program helped 75 kids a year and has grown to help over 200. "The program began with just a small amount of seed money and a determined group of individuals. Several fraternal organizations and a few influential Clarkston residents were the first to support the program financially. They continue to support the program with annual contributions and/or endowment funds. While a tuition amount is in place, no child is ever turned away for financial reasons," the website states.

The outing started as the L. E. Wint SCAMP Golf Classic. At that time half of the proceeds went to the Lewis E. Wint Nature Center (Independence Oaks Park on Sashabaw Road) and half went to Clarkston SCAMP.

After Lew Wint's death in 1992, the name was changed to Lewis Wint Golf Outing. Eventually it changed to just SCAMP Golf Classic with 100% proceeds benefiting SCAMP.

The 2016 Golf Outing winners were: Men — Curt Ilg, Dan Stencil, Aaron Bush; Women — Courtney Berry, Laura Clark-Brown, Kris Miller, Jennifer Thames; and Mixed — Sue Welker, Dawn Horner, Myles Mosher, Al Kuhn.

The 30th Annual SCAMP Golf Classic starts with breakfast at 7:30; shotgun start at 9. Cost to golf is $500 per foursome ($125 per person). Registration information is available at www.ClarkstonSCAMP.org.

Run for Your Life

The Amyloidosis Foundation of Clarkston is hosting the Run for Your Life Zombie Run, 5K and 10K walk and run at Independence Oaks County Park on Saturday, Oct. 21.

The 10K starts at 9:30 a.m.; 5K starts at 9:45 a.m. Entry fee is $45 for the 10K; $35 for the 5K, for a Run for Your Life long sleeve tech shirt, finisher's medal, prizes for top performers and costumes, food and drink at the finish line, and Chronotrack timing by Newton.

Both events start and end at the Twin Chimney pavilion in Independence Oaks County Park, 9501 Sashabaw Road. Entry fee is $5 unless you have a yearly pass.

All profits will go toward amyloidosis patient support and research programs. The non-profit at 7151 N. Main St., Suite 2, in Clarkston has two local events a year, including a golf outing.

For more information, call 877-AMYLOID, 877-269-5643, or check www.amyloidosis.org.
