

E. LAVERNE DAVIS.

Democratic supervisor from Springfield, was born in Springfield, April 28, 1870, and has lived there all his life. He is the son of James Harvey Davis. He is a live stock breeder and farmer, and the manager of the Michigan Premium Stock Farm Company, also general manager of the International Live Stock and Lumber Company of Mexico. He is a member of the M. E. church, and held the office of supervisor in 1889, 1900, 1901, 1902, 1903 and 1904, and served on the building committee of the court house.