No more than one tract or parcel must be valued or taxed on the same line. Two descriptions must not be joined in one valuation or tax. Personal estate must be valued, and taxes entered, on a different line, as well as columns from Road, Schools, Non-resident lands must be entered in numerical order, beginning with section one. Enter the amount of any re-assessment with Road Tax, in the column of taxes to which it belongs, above the tax for the year for which this Roll is used, and in the column for "Remarks" state opposite each parcel for what year the re-assessment was made. The City of Oakland, or other town or city, may be assessed as one parcel, but the fact must be noted that they are so assessed. The special attention of Assessors is directed to pages 104, 105, and 106 of the Revised Statutes of 1850, concerning their duties and other taxes for township purposes, in the column headed "State, County and Township Tax." Any special tax not specified in Sec. 54, Chapter 23, Revised Statutes, and required to be put in one of the three columns there mentioned, may be put in the blank column next to the one headed "State, County and Township Tax." - A. W. G. GENERAL'S OFFICE, APRIL, 1851.

Note: No more than one tract or parcel need be listed on the same line. Two descriptions must not be placed in one notation or tax. Personal estate must be valued, and taxes entered on a different line, as well as column, from Real Estate. Non-resident lands must be entered in one column, and the amount of any assessment or tax, in the column of the owner's name. The special and additional taxes for additions and amendments to the Revised Statutes, where any money highway tax is voted in any township, under Sec. 4, Chap. 22, Revised Statutes, should be put with the other taxes for township purposes, in the column headed "State, County and Township Tax." Any special tax not specified in Sec. 25, Chapter 20, Revised Statutes, and required to be put in one of the three columns there mentioned, may be put in the blank column, next to the one headed "Total of Taxes."

No more than one tract or parcel must be valued or taxed on the same line. Two descriptions must not be joined in one valuation or tax. Personal estate must be valued, and taxes entered on a different line, as well as column, from Real Estate. Non-resident lands must be entered in numerical order, beginning with section one. Enter the amount of any re-assessment with Real Estate, in the column of taxes to which it belongs, above the tax for the year for which this Roll is used, and in the column for "Remarks," state opposite each parcel, of the amount of any re-assessment, and the date on which it was made. Two or more City or Village Lots owned and occupied as one parcel, may be assessed as one parcel, but the tax must be paid that they are so occupied. The special extension of Assessors is directed to parties, who, under Sec. 22, Revised Statutes, are required to be put in one of the three columns there mentioned, may be put in the blank column, next to the one headed "Real Estate." - Auditor General's Office, April, 1851.
