No more than one tract or parcel must be valued or taxed on the same line. Two descriptions were not entered on a different line, as well as columns, from Real Estate. Non-resident lands must be entered in separate column. For the purpose of valuation, the value of land is estimated for the year for which the tax is levied, and in the column for "Remarks," enter opposite each parcel the value of the land for the year for which the tax is levied. The value of the land for the year for which the tax is levied is entered in the column headed "Total of Taxes." Any special tax not specified in Sec. 34, Chap. 20, Revised Statutes, and required to be put in one of the three columns there mentioned, may be put in the blank column next to the one headed "Total of Taxes." A. D. WOODRUFF, CHIEF CLERK, JANUARY, 1852.

No more than one tract of land may be valued or taxed on the same line. Two descriptions were not set out in one valuation or tax. Personal Estate may be valued and taxed entered on a different line, as well as column, from Real Estate. Non-resident land must be entered in numerical order beginning with section one. From the amount of tax assessed on the land in the column of taxes the amount of tax assessed on the personal estate must be deducted. The special amount of tax assessed on the personal estate must be entered in the column of taxes. Any special tax not specified in sec. 24, 25, 26, Revised Statutes, and required to be put in one of the three columns there mentioned, may be put in the blank column, next to the one headed "Total of Taxes." - ALBION GENERAL'S OFFICE, JANUARY, 1852.

No more than one tract of land may be valued or taxed on the same line. Two descriptions were not an error in one explanation or tax. Personal Estate must be valued and taxes entered on a different line, as well as column, from Real Estate. Non-resident lands must be assessed in the same manner as if they were in the township. The special attention of Assessors is directed to the fact that the column headed "State, County and Township Tax" of the Law compiled by the Auditor General during the last year. Ch. 23, Revised Statutes, and required to be put in one of the three columns there mentioned, only be put in the third column, next to the one headed "Total of Taxes." - Auditor General's Office, JANUARY, 1852.
