AN $80,000 FIRE destroyed the interior and roof of Lake Theater at Walled Lake Friday morning. Discovered by an employee coming to work, the fire gutted the entire front of the theater and stage before being brought under control by Walled Lake firemen. Upholstery was burned off the seats (above) and debris from the ceiling and walls littered the floors near the front exit of the theater.

Walled Lake Theater Badly Damaged By Fire

Early Estimate Sets Damage At $80,000, Building To Be Rebuilt Immediately

Fire raged through the empty interior of the Lake Theater just north of Walled Lake Friday morning doing an estimated $80,000 damage.

Walled Lake firemen fought the blaze for over an hour before bringing it under control. The front end of the theater and the roof suffered heaviest damage, firemen reported. The stage area was completely gutted.

Building In Flames
Mrs. Geraldine Graham, 108 Coalmont, Walled Lake, discovered the blaze. She had left the building about 8 o'clock Friday morning and returned several hours later. Upon returning, she found the front of the auditorium in flames.

Ford To Close Milford Plant
Ford Motor Co. parts plants in Milford and Manchester will be closed in the summer of 1957 and their operations will be transferred to a new 800,000 square-foot parts plant soon to be built at Rawsonville, four miles southeast of Ypsilanti, a company spokesman announced last week.

Roof Destroyed
Although the fire did little apparent damage to the exterior of the building, one contractor estimated that the roof would have to be entirely replaced. Upholstery had been completely burned off most of the front seats and debris from the ceiling and walls littered the floors. The lobby and rear of the building suffered extensive smoke damage.

To Be Rebuilt
The theater will be rebuilt immediately, a spokesman for the owners said. Cause of the blaze has not yet been determined.

THE MORAL

Let A Specialist Do It

Mrs. Richard Swenson of Willowbrook Village had a stinking time last Tuesday afternoon when a nearby skunk came visiting. Mrs. Swenson, who lives at 24383 LeBost Drive, was informed by her five children that a new little kitty was sleeping in their cat's vacant bed in the carport.

When Mrs. Swenson saw that the new "kitty" was black with a white stripe, she herded her children inside and fervently hoped their new visitor would hit the road soon. Mr. Skunk, however, was quite content in his new bed and settled down for the night.

Frantic calls to the Farmington police for help brought only chuckles from amused cops. Novi police sent a patrolman to investigate. His activities were strictly limited to investigation, however, for fear of disturbing the intruder.

The Humane Society offered the ideal solution. They said that they had a skunk specialist, a man who had intimate knowledge of skunks' likes and dislikes. This specialist, the society said, would remove the unwanted visitor without fuss or muss. They would send him out early the following morning.

When morning came, however, the Swensons' uninvited guest had gone. The moral of the story... if somebody in your neighborhood threatens to create a big stink about something, call the Humane Society. They're specialists.

Halloween Party Attracts Over 300 Novi Children

Boxes of candy were won by Ann Thorn for her fancy Top Hat costume; Ginger Cheeseman, who was dressed as a fancy batoon; Melanie Simenton, dressed like a small angel; Claude Carle, in a corn husk costume, and Richard Ritter, dressed like a girl.

Teen-Age Dance Set for Saturday Night

A Teen-Age Dance is to be held Saturday night at the Oddfellow hall, Novi Rd., just north of Grand River. Sponsored by the Novi Oddfellow lodge, the dance is from 7:30 to 11. All Novi teen-agers are welcome.

UNCLE SAM SEEMED TO BE SURROUNDED by a rather motley crew of witches, pirates, spooks, cannibals, and even the devil himself (upper left) Monday morning when Mrs. Celia Sharpe and her kindergartners staged their own Halloween party. Dressed as Uncle Sam, Mrs. Sharpe did her best to maintain law and order among her crew members whose only thought was how much loot they would be able to get hold of in the evening's prowling.

LUCKILY, THE DRIVER LIVED. James D. Fox, 19, of Wayne escaped with only minor bruises, cuts and shock when his car collided with a dump truck at Novi Rd. and Nine-Mile Rd. Friday afternoon. The dump truck, driven by Vincent Schneider of Wayne, was going north at a low speed when the accident occurred. Fox was approaching from the opposite direction. He told Novi police he swerved to avoid hitting a car making a left turn in front of him and his car went out of control. Fox's car did not fare as well as the driver. It was totally demolished.

Scouts To Help Goodwill, Nov. 26

Goodwill Industries trucks will be in Northville Monday, Nov. 27 for the regular pickups. Contributors are asked to call Miss Edith Sorenson, local representative, at Northville 571, to arrange a time schedule.

Miss Sorenson said that traditionally the winter months are slow at Goodwill Industries, endangering steady employment. For this reason, the Boy Scouts in this area have completed plans for a Good Turn Day for Goodwill Industries.

The scouts will distribute Boy Scout Goodwill bags on Nov. 26. The drive is not aimed at regular contributors but at new people to acquaint themselves with the work that Goodwill does in offering jobs to handicapped employees.

The bags will be left by the Boy Scouts, but the contributor will be asked to call Goodwill Industries when the bag is filled with useable discards.

County May Give Local Land for Institution Site

One possibility of land the County might provide is in the Wayne County Training School area at Northville. The school, with a population of 750, has more than 1,000 acres of grounds.

Some legislators have reported that some of the 1,000 acres might be used for a new facility to be built by the state.

It was pointed out that about 900 of the 1,210 retarded children on the waiting list for admission to State institutions are in the Detroit area.

The resolution called upon State officials to follow temporary measures with "development and projection of a long-term comprehensive program in the whole field of mental health."

Got Kids? The V.F.W. Is Your Best Insurance Buy

This is a true story. The man whose name is changed, could be YOU, your neighbor or anyone you know. After reading this short narrative, you feel confident that you will wish to get your 1955 dues in the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

JOHN LARRAMIE was a veteran of World War II. He had served overseas with an engineering outfit in the Pacific. John's record was not studied with war medals but he had served honorably overseas and was eligible for the VFW. He was discharged in 1945. After taking two years in his GI bill training, he quit school and got a job in an engineering firm as an apprentice draftsman.

JOHN LARRAMIE was dead. His family was left without anything. But it took John's wife to get the Veterans of Foreign Wars, which would have applied for admission to the VFW National Home. The family would have been accepted and the children would have been brought up and cared for at the Home. The mother would have been close to her children.

JOHN LARRAMIE did not have enough money to invest in private life insurance. But he certainly had enough money to invest in VFW LIFE INSURANCE. So his widow and children would not need to worry about their future in the event the breadwinner was suddenly taken from them.

HE COULD have obtained these services by merely paying his dues—about $5.00 each year—into our organization. In addition, he would have had the help of our organization services as well as a knowledge that he was a member of a fighting organization which has fought for veterans' rights since 1889.

SO FOR ABOUT $5.00 a year, YOU CAN INSURE THE FUTURE OF YOUR FAMILY. Each youngster who gets into the National Home stays for an average from 10 to 14 years. At $25.00 per child per year, some of the large families at the home receive more than $100,000 back in tangible investments. All of this for a few dollars each year.

IS IT WORTH IT TO YOU? If it is, then renew your membership in the VFW TODAY. Don't put it off another day. If your membership is due, renew it. THE INSURANCE IN YOUR FAMILY'S FUTURE WOULD BE LOST.

No man who continues to add something to the material, intellectual and moral welfare of the place in which he lives, is left without proper reward. —Booker T. Washington

"Accordingly, I told Mr. Cummings the proposed meeting for 9 o'clock this morning would be cancelled and I sent notices to this effect to the home of each commissioner Friday afternoon by public messenger.
"I am not calling a meeting this morning to pass on the rezoning and I feel they have had plenty of time in the past so there is no such rush at this time.
"I would like suggestions as to when we should take up the rezoning."
Commissioner Earl Reed mentioned the next regular commission meeting Nov. 7 at an appropriate time and the mayor ruled it would be taken up then.
The mayor did not disclose publicly who had called the meeting after he had cancelled it, but Commissioner Reed said later it was he who had telephoned the other commissioners Friday evening to be at the city hall at nine o'clock Saturday morning.
"I had been told by the mayor Thursday afternoon to get the commission together Saturday. The mayor's notice of abandonment of the Saturday meeting which I received Friday afternoon, attributed it to the inability of one commissioner to be present. economics have been entirely eliminated in specific grades because of inadequate facilities; and that the cancellation notice said anything about underrating or holding it from the public's standpoint. I would not have gone ahead with it. The mayor had worked until midnight Friday so I did not attempt to contact him until the following morning.
That day I was badly upset by what had happened was obvious when he immediately called the Northville Record to notify it that his Friday cancellation had been nullified and that the commission was to meet at nine o'clock.
That the city commission gathered Saturday morning without giving thought to the possibility that it might be rushing into a change of zoning without having the public fully informed was evident from the freedom with which they discussed the circumstances under which the meeting was called. All agreed that there was no need for the haste and that it would have been wise to take action without giving the public and neighboring property owners a chance to express their views.
Another unfortunate aspect of the hasty meeting was the implication that it was dictated by the Northville Driving Club. This implication arose from the fact that at least one commissioner had received his notification from Reed over the private telephone line of Dr. Snow, president of the Driving Club. Reed had been fined his job Thursday evening with a cold and had gone to

A motorist reported that some children threw a pumpkin through his windshield. Commissioner Peters had the same experience driving between Northville and Plymouth. Luckily the flying glass caused no body damage, but it could have been responsible for a killing had these motorists lost control while driving.
The regular police force and the auxiliary force patrolled the city until after midnight protecting property of the city and private residents and trying to curb any vandalism ready to bid in "gangs" walking the streets.

Record's Position Towards Racing
Two events that have occurred recently make it in the public interest that the Northville Record state its attitude toward racing at Northville Downs.
One of these occurred Oct. 23, when the publisher refused to sign a petition being circulated by a friend in protest against rezoning the St. Lawrence property so it can be used for horse barns needed by Northville Downs.
The second event occurred last Saturday morning, when the publisher was told at 8:30 a.m. that the city commission was to meet at 9 a.m. to vote on rezoning the property. Because of the publisher's vigorous protest, the meeting was called off and action postponed until the commissioner's regular meeting Nov. 7.

Amerman Elementary School

It is neither instance did we wish taking the stand we did. It is much easier to agree with everything and certain by a great deal more popular. So that the Record's position may be fully understood, we cite briefly the following facts.

1. We believe the residents of the City of Northville want racing at Northville Downs and that they, and the city government, realize very substantial financial benefits therefrom.
2. We do not agree with Northville township residents who object to racing in Northville. If they were residents of the city, and paid city taxes, they would be entitled to vote against racing and to urge the city commission to do likewise. As township residents, who pay township tax of only $1 per $1,000 compared with the $14.90 per $1,000 which city residents pay, we feel that they are not looking at the facts squarely in the face when they argue that Northville residents shouldn't want racing.
3. We feel that the City Planning Commission acted wisely last week when it listened to objections of township residents and then dealt with the rezoning application on the basis of its relative advantages to the city and its disadvantage to individuals who are so unfortunate as to own property that probably will be depreciated by the erection of horse barns. We gave the Planning Commission to come up with a compromise plan that would give Northville Downs the barn site it must have, and at the same time cushion the depreciation to adjoining property which these barns will cause as a goodwill move that should not be shrugged off lightly.
4. We believe that the public should have an opportunity to learn about the planning commission's recommendation, and other pertinent facts about the background for the Northville Downs request for rezoning; also that the city commission should hear at least one representative of the planning commission before the final vote is taken on rezoning. It would also seem both courteous and fair to give the two property owners who will be directly affected by the rezoning an opportunity to ask for such protection as the city commission can make available without sacrificing the city's interests.

Commission Members Agree Saturday Meeting Would Have Prevented Public Knowing About Planning Board Restrictions
Members of the Northville City Commission gathered briefly at the city hall last Saturday morning to discuss rezoning the St. Lawrence property for track purposes, but did not hold a formal meeting. Instead, they dispersed in less than five minutes after deciding not to take up the rezoning until the regular meeting at 8 p.m. next Monday.

Ford Co. Announces Expansion Program

A 20,000 square foot expansion program for Ford Motor Company's Northville valve plant was announced Wednesday by John S. French, general manager of Ford's parts and equipment manufacturing division.
Plans call for construction of a one-story addition to be located on the west side of the plant. Construction will start late this year and completion is scheduled for late 1956.
French said machinery for the production of engine-intake valves will be installed in the new addition. The plant now produces exhaust valves.
Employment at the expanded plant, French said, will increase approximately 30% by 1957.

Pumpkins & Pranks Give Local Police The Run-Around

"Pumpkins to the right... pumpkins to the left... and pumpkins to the rear. Everywhere we looked on Halloween night we saw pumpkins," Police Chief Joe Denton said this week. "and when we were through confiscating the darn things we had a pick-up load at the city hall."
Halloween day was celebrated in Northville not only on Monday, but during the entire preceding week. In fact, it was a week of pranks.
"These young rascals really pulled some Halloween pranks," Denton said. "They were just pranks and not serious acts of vandalism."
What happened? Besides waxing every window in town?
Three people reported that hub caps were being taken out of cars. Signs were put in the middle of the road on Edward Hines Dr. and the lights put out several times.

Twp. Officials Give First Approval To Subdivision

The Northville Township Board gave tentative approval Tuesday evening to a proposed 56-acre subdivision in the Clement-Pomer area.
The land, owned by Gerald Tate, is now being considered for rezoning. The zoning board will decide on their recommendation to the township board Tuesday night.
The change being asked is from R1E to R1.
The road commission has given tentative approval of the road set-up, but final approval will be considered if and when the township board accepts the plan.
Tate has plans to build 29 homes, immediately and 72 homes eventually.

State Veterinarian Lee Davison said in a letter dated Aug. 9, 1955: "... an inspection report dated July 29, 1955... makes reference to the manure situation and drainage of water from fixtures which are badly contaminated with flies and mosquitos, and outhouses in their vicinity which have a very distinct odor that was said to smell to high heavens... If some contagious and infectious disease were to break out as a result of this type of filthiness, I believe that the race track association could be held responsible."

"You can't invest money in something you don't own," said Township Attorney Little said. "If you have any possession in the township has no further use for the building under which the meeting is held for its maintenance cannot be justified."
"We have a moral obligation," said Mollie Lawrence.
"If you feel that way," said Attorney Little, "you can make a monetary contribution to the Boy Scouts of America and instruct them to spend it locally."

Reed told the Record that both Northville Downs and Dr. Snow wanted the meeting held Saturday to approve the zoning change so foundations for the barns could be poured last Monday. Reed quoted Dr. Snow as saying when he was told the Saturday meeting had been called off.
"It doesn't matter too much if the Downs had been on the job they could have got this whole thing settled two months ago."

Letter to the Editor
To the Civic-Minded Residents of Northville: After carefully investigating the zoning ordinances of Northville and Northville Township, I purchased four months ago, a home on Sheldon Road immediately adjacent to the St. Lawrence property next to me. Upon inquiry, I was told this was a temporary arrangement pending the erection of new barns at the race track. I therefore made no permanent arrangement pending due consideration, I felt the slight deduction from my location was overcome by the advantages of living in a city such as Northville. The citizens and merchants welcomed us warmly and I and my family were happy to have had realized a dream of long standing - to affiliate with a fine moral and progressive community like Northville, one that was not likely to become commercial.

For the Record . . .

Such statements by state officials certainly should be given considerable weight by the city commission when it hears objections to building barns for 300 horses adjacent to what otherwise would be a high class residential area.

The St. Lawrence property is the only available area in the city that is large enough for the barns, and therefore it will undoubtedly be re-zoned for them. However, the city commission cannot shrug off lightly the fact that flies and mosquitoes can carry contamination and disease from manure piles during the warm months before and after the racing meet, nor that odors can be equally objectionable during early and late summer if 100 horses are stabled on the property the year around, as Northville Downs proposes.

It also should be heard in mind that the city will get no more money from Northville Downs in the future than the law allows if Mr. Carlo has his way. Carlo has already said Northville Downs will no longer pay the city $500 per night of racing for water, special police and fire protection, as was the Downs' policy for the past nine or ten years. The city might as well make up its mind that its revenue from the race track is quite likely to be limited to its share of the state's tax on pari-mutuel betting, which is assured by law. This tax amounts to $200,000 for the 1955 racing season and was a welcome addition to the city's budget.

Northville' Downs' arguments for using the new barns to stable 100 horses the year 'round were not impressive. Mr. Carlo said it is just a goodwill gesture toward horsemen who can't afford to take their horses south for the winter and that he won't make any money on the deal. George Zerbel, of the Planning Commission, pointed out that year 'round use of the barns to stable 100 horses would be a year 'round nuisance to neighboring property owners. Zerbel's opinion makes sense to us.

Getting back to the original purpose of this editorial — to state the Northville Record's position toward racing — it can be summed up this way:

First, the Record is published for all the people of the City of Northville, Northville township and Novi township. It is a newspaper just for city residents, not for township residents, nor will it attempt to serve the interests of any individual or organization unless it believes those interests are identical with those of the majority of persons residing in the territory it serves.

Second, the Record believes that the people living in the City of Northville want racing to continue at Northville Downs, and as long as they feel that way, the Record will support their right to deal cooperatively with Northville Downs and the Driving Club.

Third, the Record takes the position that the city should regulate racing to hold within bounds certain aspects which can become a public nuisance. Even though the city derives substantial income from the track, it should be treated the same as any other company or individual.

Fourth, the Record takes the position that what Northville Downs does in the city, its plans for the future, and its dealings with the State Racing Commission are matters of public concern locally and should be published in considerable detail.

In the present instance, we feel that the public interest will be served if the city commission gives consideration to testimony developed by the Planning Commission, and to the latter body's recommendations for holding use of the barns to the racing season only and keeping the Sheldon Rd. frontage zoned residential.

Planning Commission Votes Limited Re-Zoning of St. Lawrence Property

The Northville Planning Commission voted Wednesday, Oct. 26 in favor of limited re-zoning for truck use of the St. Lawrence property on Sheldon Rd. at the south edge of the city.

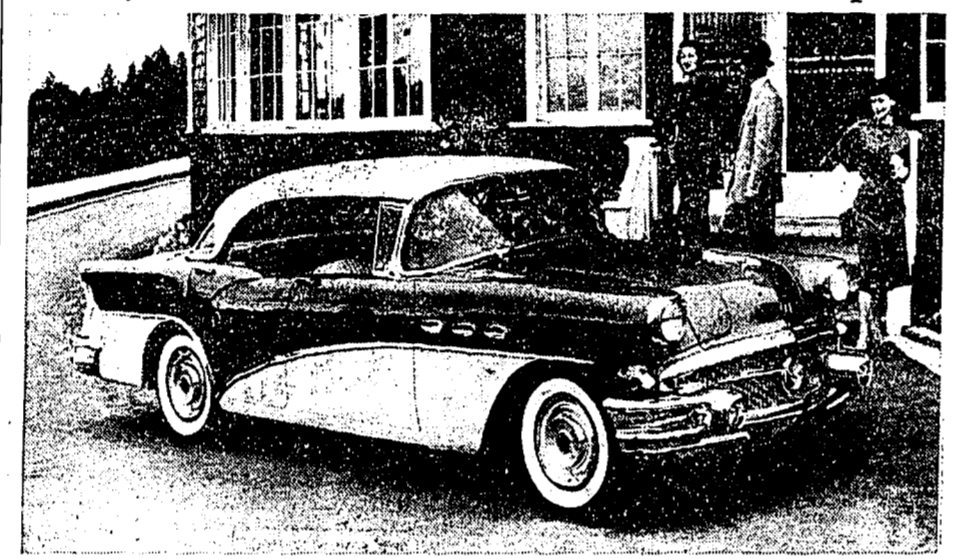

Before doing so, several members of the Planning Commission explained that they believed it was in the best interests of Northville to build barns for 300 horses. They also said they hoped the property so Northville Downs can build barns for 300 horses. They also said they hoped the property so Northville Downs can build barns for 300 horses.

The Planning Commission also voted to amend the zoning ordinance to allow the use of the property for truck use. The amendment will allow the use of the property for truck use.

That use of the re-zoned property is limited to a period of 15 days prior to the race meet and extending 15 days after it closes.

Other Planning Commission members pointed out that their duty was to weigh all the factors, including the Racing Commission's ultimatum that barns containing 300 stalls must be constructed, the unavailability of any suitable alternative site for the barns, the revenue which the city receives from racing each year.

CHILDREN LEARN WHILE HAVING FUN IN KINDERGARTEN

SINGING can be fun and is fun for these tots. The children raise their hand and name a song. Miss Pollock, the teacher, plays the song on the piano and the children sing loud and sweet.

First Teacher Important For Childs Impressions

Every year the school bells ring for the first time for a select group of this country's population — the new kindergartners. Thousands of five year old children from all parts of these United States start a new chapter in their lives when they skip along to the school house with their older brothers and sisters, or take tiny halting steps, squeezing their mother's fingers, not quite convinced that school is the happy place they heard about.

FREE ACTIVITY play is one of the most popular periods in kindergarten. In this picture, students in Mrs. Sturmont's class do what they enjoy: build, paint, play with clay, and . . . just have fun.

Some people think that kindergarten is not necessary. . . they don't learn anything there, it is an oft repeated remark. The people who say that usually think of school as a place where children first learn to read and to write, but as in most things, there are basic fundamentals that have to be learned first. Starting in kindergarten makes the transition from home to school a pleasant one.

Exhibitors have long realized that a kindergarten teacher must be carefully chosen, for it is from the teacher that the child gets his first impressions about school. The teacher must be a disciplinarian, kind and patient, smiling and soft-spoken, instructive with a flair for explanations, and a believer in equality.

Kindergartners at the Northville Elementary school are enjoying their first school experience. They are learning to read and write, and to follow instructions. They are also learning to play with their toys and to work with clay.

COMES upon the heels of the most successful Buick in history—and beats it on every score.

In shimmering steel and solid sinew, it's Buick for 1956—and there's never been anything like it for pure automobilism.

You get a good hint of what we mean when you take in the sweep-ahead styling of it—from the air-splitting prow of its V-front grille to the robust rake of its cantled rear profile.

You get an even better hint when you open the doors and see the dazzle there—in the decorative fabrics and décor—in the jewel-like finish of the fittings—in the precisely shaped steering wheel and controls—in the rich new instrument panel with soft-padded top and glowing dials that detail your progress in changing colors.

But it's when you put this beauty to the city streets and the open highways that you learn the best of it.

Performance Without Parallel

A new advance in Variable Pitch Dynaflo® goes airplanes one better—steps up your gear away in normal driving without switching the pitch. But when you need that extra surge, it's there, instantly—and in extra abundance.

The might of big 322-cubic-inch V8 engines in every Series brings new record high power to all Buicks—Roadmaster, Super, Century, and the bedrock-priced Special. Yet this is such high-compression power, such dynamic driving power, such completely usable power at the rear wheels—the whole rear end has been endowed with extra brawn and heft and solidity to handle it.

We could spread before you an acre of blue-prints on the engineering gems that spark the spectacular performance and ride and handling and roadability of these great Buicks for 1956.

We could tell you about a new double-Y manufacturing of the engine for more usable power. And about a brilliant new "sense of direction" to the car's travel. And about massive new direction shock absorbers that move three times more oil to cushion your all-coil-spring ride that much more buoyantly.

But you can get the full story right now, at our showroom, in a face-to-face meeting with the best Buicks yet—now on display, and setting a dazzling new pattern for 1956.

*Now Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflo is the only Dynaflo Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special.

Couple of the week: A blonde couple around Northville High is Jim Allen and Pat White. These two, both seniors, have been going together for over two years.

The popular items around school this week seem to be "hair-rides" and "cooning apples". The latter is rather unmentionable, but the preceding are two in number. They are: the Girl Scout's hair-ride, and Phyllis Banton's. This is pretty good assurance that most of all the kids went on at least one, if not more.

Some of the couples who will be going to the J-Shop are Sandy Strussen and George Rameau, Betty Coolman and Lynn Metzger, Mike Willis and Nancy Morrison, Lois Rody and James Tambo, Linda Smith and John Schwartz.

Jesus volunteered, saying, as it were: "I'll go for you. I'll drink the bitter drops of the cup of suffering. I'll be accused falsely and be condemned for you. For you I'll be mocked, jeered, spit upon, scourged. For you I'll bear the cross. I'll climb that grim hill of Golgotha. I'll hang on the accursed tree. I'll die that shameful death and on the third day rise again for you and for all!" And he did. With but one purpose in mind: that by believing in him we might have eternal life and now and forever live into Him and serve Him. The Gospel we are told the story of the cross.
CHRIST DIED FOR ALL
 In one particular Bible passage the story of the cross is related in four simple, monosyllabic words: "He died for all." (2 Corinthians 5:14). A few examples will help us understand this brief statement.
 A farmer was found kneeling at the grave of a soldier. He was asked why he paid so much attention to this grave, whether perhaps his son was buried there. He answered: "No, rather a neighbor." He continued to explain: "During the war I was drafted, but everyone in my family was sick. I knew not how to leave them. Then one of my neighbors came over and said: 'I will go for you. I have no family.' He went. He was wounded, carried to the hospital, and there died. And, sir, I have come a great many miles that I might write over his grave these words: 'He died for me.'"
 A poor widow had been threatened to be ousted from her highland home. With her son she set out to walk the ten miles over a mountain pass to the home of her brother.

Bell Runs For 3 Touchdowns Biery & Holman Up The Score

By Thomas McGuire and Patrick Healy
 After our Mustang's three resounding setbacks, they came through with flying colors to defeat Holly at their homecoming.
 Northville receiving the kick from Holly showed right from the beginning their determination to win. Play after play of first downs, Bell succeeded to go over for our first touchdown. Extra point went over and the score stood at 7-0.
 On the kickoff Holly fumbled the ball. Northville recovering it sent Bell down for a second touchdown. This time the extra point for Holly for Northville and 0 for Holly. At the end of the first quarter, Holly was not able to get a hold on the ball.
 The second quarter opened with Northville again pushing. Holly came through them on our Mustangs fourth down and took the ball.
 On Holly's first play Biery "stole" the ball and our Mustangs were off again.
 Fighting hard Northville was able to score another touchdown on a pass from Bell to Biery. The extra point was converted.
 The second quarter closed with the score Northville 20 and Holly 0.
 The third quarter went scoreless. However, Holman made a spectacular plunge through the line for a 32-yard run which gave our Northville spectators the assurance that the game was really ours.

Winning Streak Zooms To 3 As Jr. High Gridders Win Again

By Philip Jerome
 The Northville Junior High football team had its winning streak to three games by defeating Ford Junior High of Inkster 21-0. The game was played at Henry Ford field.
 Northville scored late in the first half on a 20-yard pass from Gary Morgan to Kent Fritl. Joe Jolly made the extra point to give Northville a 7-0 lead at halftime.
 In the fourth quarter, Northville drove deep into Ford territory. Joe Gotra went across from the five yard line for the touchdown. David Ford skirted around end for the extra point.
 Gary Morgan completed the scoring with a 13-yard run around end for the tally. Fred Mitchell then rammed across for the extra point and the 21-0 victory.
 Northville dominated play throughout the game. In the first half, Northville scored on a pass play, but an extra point nullified the score. Another Northville drive failed when the team lost the ball on a fumble on the opponents 5-yard line. Ford was unable to gain consistently through the Northville lines and the alert defensive backs of the home team intercepted two of the Ford passes attempted by this visitors.

TOO FEW SEATS HERE

On the top you see an overcrowded school classroom—unfortunately all too common in these days of rapidly growing enrollments. Below is pictured a citizens' meeting on schools—not too well attended, as you can see. There's a cause-and-effect relationship between these two pictures. When citizens are "too busy" or too indifferent to take an active interest in school affairs, their children suffer. And when a child is short-changed on education, he can be hurt for life.

Let's make sure that these two pictures are never true of this community. Let's keep our educational standards high, by joining our neighbors in community educational conferences... in PTA meetings... at school board meetings.

Want to know how other communities have solved their school problems? Enlightening "case histories" of local school improvement campaigns that worked are yours for the asking. Please indicate the nature of your local school objectives so that we may send you the material that's best for your needs. Write: Better Schools, 2 West 45th Street, New York 36, N.Y.

News... About Salem

Your Correspondent Mrs. Carlton Hardsley Phone Northville 1410-1411

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Raynor, Sr. were honored with a party given by their children recently to celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary. There were 40 guests present including Mrs. Mark Raynor, mother of Mr. Raynor, his brother, Harold and daughter Sandra, all from Lowell. A wedding cake decorated in silver, sandwiches and coffee was served. Many beautiful gifts were received. Gerald Raynor, who is stationed at El Paso, Tex., called to wish his folks a happy anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Sweetman and Mrs. L. Sweetman went to Birch Run to attend the 50th American school dedication ceremonies, Nov. 7.

Isbister and Russell H. Amerman, for whom the school is named, did graduate work together and have been associates for approximately 20 years.

Isbister received his bachelor's degree from Michigan State Normal; his masters degree from the University of Michigan, and did extensive post-graduate work at Wayne university.

He was employed in the Center Line school system as teacher, principal and superintendent. He was also a principal in River Rouge. In 1951 Isbister accepted the position of superintendent of the Plymouth schools. For the dedication program see page 1.

Automatic Phone, New Screen, Added At Penn Theatre

A new type screen and an automatic telephone answering device which will tell the day's program, are two new additions announced last week by Margaret Wilson, manager of the Penn Theatre.

By telephoning 1009, the automatic answering device will tell patrons what is playing and the starting hours. Until now, the theatre had no listed telephone.

The new high intensity screen was installed last week. Made of plastic, it is of seamless construction and will be the same size as the former screen, 16 by 32 feet. It will show a marked gain in depth, detail and definition, according to its manufacturer.

Polio Vaccine To Be Distributed

The following note was presented to the Record this week from the school nurse, Miss Knapp:

The first dose of government supplied polio vaccine for the five to nine age group of children is now becoming available. Unfortunately insufficient amounts are released at present to allow an unlimited distribution to all physicians. To meet both the requirements of Federal and State governments, the following method of distribution will be followed in Detroit, Wayne, Oakland and Macomb counties:

1. A number of cards equal to the number of doses of vaccine available will be distributed to children in the five to nine age group.
2. Each family is instructed to bring or send these cards to the family physician and make an appointment for the administration of the vaccine.
3. The physician or his messenger can exchange the cards for an equivalent amount of vaccine at any of the three counties or Detroit's distribution points. Cards will have significant coloring so that any necessary relocation of vaccine can be made between the counties.

While polio vaccine remains in short supply the following must be observed:

1. No vaccine can be given to any child not receiving a card from the school indicating eligibility.
2. Dosage from the 9 cc vials must be carefully measured so only 1 cc is given to each child. Vaccine must be kept under refrigeration.
3. If through error a child received a card who had previously received vaccine under the M.P.I.P. program, additional injection should not be given at this time.

If God be for us, who can be against us? He that spared not His own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall He not with him also freely give us all things? -Romans 8:31,32.

If you think flying is particularly dangerous, note these casualty figures as reported by Sam Radak in the current Reader's Digest. Last year 678 Air Force men were killed in automobile accidents during their off-duty hours, while 700 met death in airplane crashes.

Eastman Lecture Scheduled for Nov. 3 Camera Club Nov. 3

The Adult Camera club Eastman Kodak lecture for this evening, Nov. 3 will be "Practical Christmas Cards by Photography." Dr. W. J. Steininger from Maybury studios will narrate this slide illustrated talk directed to the novice or experienced picture maker to guide both in learning and making photographic greeting cards for every occasion. The illustrations throughout the lecture are examples of greeting cards made by various photographic methods; each card suggests an idea for subject matter and for carrying the message. The ideas for subject matter are classified as seven types: portraits or informal pictures of family or friends, home, architecture or outdoor scenes, abstract design, hobby, table top, and cartoon. There are examples of putting the greeting or message into the setup to be photographed, editing the greeting through the multiple negative method, or by copying the message photographically. How to copy this material, as well as continuous-tone subjects, is explained, and a copying setup is shown in diagram form. To produce a card which looks like a pen-and-ink sketch is also explained.

Events of the Past in Northville News Items Taken From the Files of the Record

ONE YEAR AGO— John A. Boyce, president of Depositors State Bank, was killed in an automobile accident last week. Traffic lights on the corner of Main and Center were changed after the accident to W.E. Forney. Mrs. Norman Partizan was installed as Worthy Matron of the Eastern Star. No cases of vandalism were reported over Halloween.

FIVE YEARS AGO— Mrs. Judith Lowe spoke to the Business and Professional Women's club last week on "Can There Be One World?" Governor Williams will speak at Ford Field Friday. Lois Chapman and Robert Houghton of Massachusetts, and Damascus, were married Oct. 13 at Irish Presbyterian Mission church in Ann Arbor. Mr. and Mrs. Worthington F. Chapman, the bride's parents, flew to Damascus to attend the wedding. The William G. Williams were honored guests at a housewarming party.

An added feature of interest will be slides depicting Christmas scenes indoors and out, to be shown by Dr. Howard of Northville, and Dr. Thama and Matt Forester of Plymouth. Club President Mrs. R. Deering wishes to announce that from here on the club will be open to any type camera enthusiast. The meeting will be held at the Recreation Bldg. on Durant and Hutten St. at 7:30. Guests are welcome.

Pastor's Study... (Continued) passage quoted here continues: "that they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto Him which died for them and rose again."

LIVING UNTO CHRIST "not... unto themselves, but unto Him..." The unselfish love of Christ, which knew no bounds, creates in the believers a desire to live unto Him and no longer to serve only themselves. They realize that their life is no longer their own but that they owe it to Him who redeemed it. Their aim, purpose, and motto in life is but one, that of the Apostle Paul: "For me to live is Christ, and to die is gain." (Philippians 1:21). Gratitude to Jesus for His sacrifice causes the Christian to exclaim, as did the poetess Hevelgel:

"Take my life and let it be consecrated, Lord, to Thee; Take my moments and my days; Let them flow in ceaseless praise." How beautiful is the life that is dedicated to the Crucified and Risen Lord!

How beautiful is the life that is dedicated to the Crucified and Risen Lord! Let us see what the story of the cross does to one. It can do the same to many more. We are happy that the good news of salvation is available to all in this community.

NEW SCHOOL BUILDING DEDICATED NOVEMBER 14

More than 200 people crowded the Novi Community Building Monday night to attend the dedication ceremonies for the new $200,000 10-room addition to Novi school.

Charles W. Lans, Ann Arbor architect, officially turned over the keys to the new building to Mrs. Louis A. Larson, representing the Novi Board of Education. Following the presentation of keys, Supt. William Medlyn introduced the speaker, Dr. Lester A. Anderson, professor of school administration at the University of Michigan. Members of the Walled Lake high school girls' chorus, under the direction of Mrs. Ronald LeMontagne, furnished the music for the program.

An open house throughout the entire school was held just before the dedication. Parents and visitors were given a chance to examine first hand the many unusual features of the new building. Each classroom in the new building has individual heating and ventilating controls. Light- ing in the rooms is controlled by a special purple-hued low transmission glass, fluorescent lighting and skylights with light control louvers.

Police Handle Record Number of Calls in Oct. The Novi police department handled more cases during the month of October than during any other month since its formation. Chief Lee BeGole announced Monday night. The total number of cases where a call for police assistance was received totaled 151 for the month, an increase of almost 50% over the previous month, BeGole noted.
