Extension Groups To Hear Dr. Mauch Talk About World Trade

Trade—or Aid? What are our choices? Should the United States increase its trade barriers or lower them? What would be the effects on our living standards and our economy if we did not trade with other countries?

Home Demonstration groups of Wayne county are looking forward to finding some answers to these questions. Eleanor Mullikin, the Wayne County Home Demonstration agent, announces that leading speakers will hear Dr. Arthur Mauch speak at "Our Stake in World Trade".

Dr. Mauch will speak at the Northville Community Center on Jan. 3 and at St. Paul's Evangelical church in Taylor Center on Jan. 4. Meetings are held from 8:30 to 9:00.

Thelma Isengerg Named Teacher of the Month

Miss Thelma M. Isengerg

Miss Thelma M. Isengerg, 40220 7-Mile Rd., was named the December teacher-of-the-month by that group and the Detroit Historical Society at a reception in the Hall of Citizenship of the Detroit Historical Museum.

For many years, Miss Isengerg has made allowances of the little children in her kindergarten room of the Burns Elementary school as Christmas gifts to mothers. This pleasing tribute to parents has made her a beloved teacher in her community and school. Numerous other thoughtful deeds have long in the memory of her friends and co-workers.

The warmth and friendliness of this teacher's personality not only influence the children in her classes, but leave an everlasting imprint of benevolence wherever she goes. A fellow teacher's words express the quality of her teaching in this manner: "I love to get students from the Burns school in my class because many of them have had the joy of being a pupil of Miss Isengerg. They are truly wonderful children."

Miss Isengerg lives with her parents in Northville. She is of Pennsylvania Dutch descent and received all of her education in Detroit schools. Outdoor activities and travel are her main hobbies. She is an active member of the Detroit Teachers Assn., The Michigan Education Assn., and the Detroit Association for Childhood Education.

Our Creed . . .

The word "Customer" has always had a pleasant connotation, but I am afraid that during the past some people have rather lost sight of its full significance. So by way of reminder, I give you a few brief answers to the question . . . "WHAT IS A CUSTOMER?"

A Customer is the most important person in this store—in person or by telephone.

A Customer is not dependent on us—we are dependent on him.

A Customer is not an interruption of our work—he is the purpose of it. We are not doing him a favor by serving him—he is doing us a favor by giving us the opportunity to do so.

A Customer is not an outsider to our business—he is a part of it.

A Customer is not a cold statistic—he is a flesh and blood human being with feelings and emotions like your own, and with biases and prejudices.

A Customer is not someone to argue or match wits with. Nobody ever won an argument with a customer.

A Customer is a person who brings us his wants. It is our job to handle them profitably to him and to ourselves.

The Teens Speak Up . . .

Teen Talk

REBA BEARDEN, 15, thought for a minute and then, with firm conviction in her voice said, "No, I think that they should show more respect towards girls. When they go out on a date and later decide that they don't like the girl, they shouldn't talk about her—which they do."

JUDY THOMPSON, 17, responded immediately. She thought that the majority were well-mannered and considerate, but said, "I don't believe that they have enough respect for the teachers, in or outside of the classroom."

JEAN MOBARRAC, 15, blurted out with a definite "No." Her reason: "When a girl likes a boy and he doesn't like her he just laughs and makes a joke of it."

SUSIE RATHBURN, 14, wasn't sure and said, "I guess so." As an example of what she meant Susie said, "If they ask you for a date and you say 'no', they don't stand around asking the reasons why." Commenting further she said, "Most boys try to flatter girls and find out their interests, but some 9th grade boys are dull."

ELSA COUSE, "It depends on the situation," was what Elsa said a ter concentrating awhile. "When you drop your books in the hall they won't pick them up—they generally do open doors though. As I said it depends on how formal the situation is. The majority of the boys are o.k."

GERALDINE BOSCOKEY, 14, thought that most of the boys are considerate. "They talk nice to the girls," she said, "and they offer their seats to girls when a room is crowded, and they pick things up when girls drop them. I can't think of any examples of bad manners."

JANET ROBERTSON, 17, thought that boys know how to be considerate, but just don't keep it up after they get to know the girl. "Most boys are considerate on the first date," she said, "but about the third date things start to change. They call a girl they you'd drive up to her house and honk the car horn; and use slang language. Just a lot of little things, but . . . gosh," Janet said, "they shouldn't do that — you know, little things mean a lot to a girl!"

DONNA GERALDINE JUDY

NEXT WEEK the boys will answer and their provocative, frank opinions will, we promise you, cause considerable comment.

From "Life in These United States" My son in college had been dating a pretty, vivacious young blond and had even brought her home one week end for us to meet. Then, suddenly, the whole thing was off. When I asked him what happened he showed me a letter she had written him setting forth what she expected of marriage: a beautiful home, trips abroad, a convertible, and more.

"How in the world did you answer the letter?" I asked. "Oh," he replied casually, "I merely told her that when I married I hoped

ELAINE BUTLER, 17, bluntly remarked that, "Some boys expect to be waited on and that doesn't go. I expect them to wait on me." She concentrated for awhile and then decided that if a

Exchanges Enjoy Venison

The Exchange club had a special treat at the Dec. 21 meeting when Harold Bloom supplied venison for the noon luncheon.

The Harmony choir of the Methodist church, under the direction of Mrs. Ivan Hodgson, sang Christmas carols of foreign lands. The 16 girls presented carols from eight foreign countries with background information about each carol explained by individuals in the choir.

Club members brought gifts which were wrapped and labeled for several patients at the Northville hospital who were without relatives or friends in nearby localities. Leo Malnville and Dr. Hugh Godfrey delivered the gifts to the hospital after the meeting.

Guests were Carl Johnston and four boys from the senior class of Northville high school; Dave Hamilton, Dave Waterloo, Charles Hawes and Joe Hayes.

 How lasting peace and harmony

from the PASTOR'S STUDY

The Darkness Precedes The Dawn
 A few years ago, as I was driving home from Lansing, I was listening to Bud Guest giving his news from the valley of the Ganges. He was trying to find scientific confirmation for the well-known phrase, "The darkness just precedes the dawn." He called the Weather Bureau and it wasn't long before he had a confirmation in the realms of the spirit. Man, in most every age, assumes that he is in the dark and brighter days are just ahead. A short time after the close of World War II I met a young clerk in a store who had been in the service for five years. Upon his coming back he felt that golden days were ahead. The post-war period had disillusioned him until he held little hope for the future. To him it was dark with not too much assurance as to the dawn. The theme does have a historical and spiritual confirmation. Let us look at it.

Our first parents, clouded in the darkness of sin, looked through the storm and beheld the promised righteousness as the light of dawn. Noah, in the darkness of despair and loneliness, saw the dawn of a new era of opportunity may be gained through trust in God's goodness and power will be brought out at Christian Science services Sunday, Jan. 1.

The Lesson-Sermon entitled "God" will consist of readings from the King James Version of the Bible and correlative selections from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, the Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science. Isaiah's promise of peace for those who rely on God is included in the Scriptural readings (28:3): "Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee: because he trusteth in thee."

Also emphasizing the availability of God-given harmony and goodness are correlative passages to be read from Science and Health including the following (51:22): "All that God imparts moves in accord with Him, reflecting goodness and power."

10,000 Hunters To Participate In Deer Survey

Lansing, December—More than 10,000 Michigan hunters will be asked to participate in the annual post card survey of the 1955 firearm deer season.

First mailings of the Conservation Dept. questionnaire will go out early next month as hunting license lists are compiled.

A statistically-based cross-section of hunters will be asked about their success—or lack of it—and hunting activity. Information obtained in the survey provides a close estimate of the total kill, hunting distribution and other basic data used in establishing hunting regulations and in other aspects of deer herd management.

The former practice of asking every hunter to fill out a report card on his deer hunting results

Count Your Blessings

As we count the blessings of the old year, it is good to pause for a moment of quiet retrospection to count our many blessings.

We, in America, are especially fortunate to have freedom of enterprise—the system that has given us the highest standard of living in the world.

A vital part of our way of life is an abundance of power—power that turns the wheels of industry—power that relieves men and women of drudgery and slavery. Power that helps to provide the necessities and luxuries as we alone know them and appreciate them.

Natural gas service is another "modern blessing" that is all-too-often taken as a matter of fact.

No other modern service in the home today, does so much, yet costs so little.

Think of the time and labor, the comfort and convenience that today's modern automatic Gas appliances provide.

Yes, one of our extra blessings in this accelerated tempo of modern living is extra leisure time, more hours for relaxation, recreation and rest.

Spend a moment of that extra time each week to consider and count your blessings.

Ownership Changes At Local Hardware Store

E. Nirider Is New Proprietor

"I am very happy that a man as qualified as Essie Nirider, with his mechanical experience, is going to take over this business," said George Clark this week.

Essie Nirider, former manager of the D & C store in Northville, (his resignation is effective Jan. 1), will assume the hardware business Jan. 2. Nirider was with the D & C company for 16 years. The only immediate change that Nirider is planning to make is in the name. The store will be changed to the "Northville Hardware Store".

According to Clark, this hardware store was one of the first self-service stores in Michigan and one of the first in the country.

When questioned by the Record in regard to his future plans, Clark said, "I'm just not ready to announce my plans. I'm working on a business venture now, but things are still unsettled and I don't expect anything to materialize before spring."

Clark did say, however, that the business he is planning would be located in Northville.

Supervisor Lawrence announced that the decorating of the Waterford school is under way and will probably be completed soon after the end of the year.

The next meeting will be held at the Northville library Jan. 3. Further meetings will be scheduled in the township hall.

LYKE QUILTS; STARK NEW TWP. CLERK

FUTURE MEETING PLACE of the Northville Township Board is the Waterford School which is being leased by the township for $25 per month. The township hall is located at Franklin, just north of Mill Rd.

Statement By D. J. Stark

After Notification of Twp. Appointment

"I feel very humble and grateful in the trust placed in me in this appointment and will do my very best to serve the people in Northville Twp. in a satisfactory manner. As I have a good many hours of vacation time accumulated, I have set up my retirement date at the Post Office to include this vacation time and the necessary time to help Postmaster Smith to prepare the many details of my present work. During this period I will perform the duties of Twp. Clerk by being at the Twp. office part of the day and at my office in my home at other times and evenings as the needs of the Twp. may require.

My work at the local post office has always been a pride and pleasure to me. In leaving, I want to express my grateful thanks to the whole crew I have supervised for these many years for their whole-hearted cooperation. They have been a wonderful bunch to work with and without this cooperation this office could never attain our outstanding status in the postal district. We will continue to enjoy the various Postmasters I have worked under have been fine men to work for and a privilege to do so.

Last but not least—To the many fine friends who have greeted me these many years, it will not be a sad and sorrowful Good-bye from my present work but rather just a new and happy Hello from my new office. I have always been a pleasure for me to serve the people in this community in my work at the post office and I am sure that these same friendships will continue in the new work of Twp. Clerk."

Dr. W. L. Howard, superintendent at Maybury Sanatorium, said this week that 89 children were given gifts by anonymous Northville "Santas".

"We want to thank everyone who accepted a letter from a child," Dr. Howard said. "We are grateful to all of those persons who took up the spirit of Christmas, along with the letters, extending it to the institution and (Continued on Page 6)

Lawrence Appointed To Replace Trustee Hay

Vacancies To Be Filled for Unexpired Term Ending in April 1957

The resignations of Fred W. Lyke, Northville Township clerk, and Ralph Hay, Sr., township trustee, were accepted at the Township Board meeting Thursday, Dec. 22. The board appointed Daniel J. Stark to succeed as clerk and Alex M. Lawrence as trustee.

Stark was sworn into office Saturday noon, Dec. 24, by Mrs. Mollie Lawrence at her residence.

At the start of the Dec. 22 meeting, Supervisor Lawrence advised the board that by reason of the incorporation of the city of Northville and adoption of the new city charter, which is now an accomplished fact, residence in the city by the township clerk and one of the trustees, provided a vacancy in two township offices.

The following resolution of commendation was then presented by Supervisor Lawrence and read by Robert Merriam, trustee: "By the adoption of the charter on Dec. 12, 1955 by the city of Northville it automatically means the loss of two valued members of the township board, by reason of not residing in the township."

"We regret the loss of these two good members, Fred W. Lyke as clerk of the township which served the community for the past 15 years, many times beyond the requirements of his office. Ralph Hay, Sr. has also served most faithfully as a trustee. His ability, business experience, and good judgment has been a real contribution to the township."

The township board wishes to express our sincere thanks to Mr. Lyke and Mr. Hay for their service and loyalty.

The resolution was signed by Supervisor Mollie Lawrence, Trustee Robert Merriam and Treasurer Roy M. Terrill.

Appointments Legal Township Attorney Listell said that the law permits the remaining township members to appoint a clerk and trustee for the period of the unexpired term, which in this case is April 1957.

Treasurer Terrill made the motion to appoint Stark as the city clerk, and Trustee Merriam made the motion to appoint Lawrence as trustee. Both motions were (Continued on Page 6)

Possession Of Stolen Tire Nets Car Owner 30 Days; $25

Thirty days in the Detroit House of Correction and a fine of $25 was the price that Billy Wayne Spears, 46100 Neeson St., had to pay when Judge Bogart found him guilty of possession of stolen property. ... and in default of payment of the fine, Bogart said, "an additional 30 days will have to be served."

Friday, Dec. 23, Spears and four of his friends went to the Marr Taylor bump shop, 198 E. Dunlap, to get Spears' car which had been repaired. When the five men left the shop, Art Wilson, an employee, noticed that a white-wash tire valued at $25 was missing.

The police were called and found the men and the car nearby. The men with Spears were identified as Ray Caldwell, 129 W. Main St.; Roy Lawson, 917 Vinton, Detroit; Sherman Horton, 827 Gladstone, Detroit; and Sammy Crook, 2768 Clement, Detroit.

All were questioned but none would admit taking the tire or seeing anyone put it in the car.

A check was made of Spears' car and he did not have the keys, but Caldwell did. When the police (Continued on Page 6)

Chevrolet's taught dynamite good manners!

With its frisky "Turbo-Fire V8," this Chevrolet is pure dynamite, all right. But it's beautifully mannered, too—quiet, well-behaved, instantly obedient to your slightest signal!

Nudge the accelerator and you're aware of the split-second elastic reaction of your foot to the "Turbo-Fire"! There's your dynamite— with horsepower ranging up to a high of 205. The car is built for its power, too—with a low, low center of gravity, well distributed weight and wide-spaced rear springs. There's your stability, and safer handling! All doors have safety latches—and instrument panel padding—and seat belts, with or without shoulder harness, are available at extra cost. Directional signals are standard. Come in and try a new Chevrolet!

At 50—it's using less than 10% of its power

It's practically no effort at all for a sprinter to walk.
It's a breeze for a weight-lifter to pick up a child.
And so it is with the 1956 Buicks in cruising—for these are the mightiest powered Buicks yet built.
Take the '56 Buick Century pictured here. It's almost a loaf for this beauty to cruise a superhighway at a legal 90 mph. At that point it's using less than 10% of its pedal-to-the-floor power.
And that's just the reason for the record-high power and compression ratio in your big 322-cubic-inch V8 engine. You and your engine can take it easy so much of the time.

You have no qualms about the response at your command. Your power plant has no need to breathe hard—so it saves gas, stays young, lasts longer.
So when you take the wheel of a '56 Buick, you take it easy, and still lead the parade. You know you can call out the reserves with a touch of your toe.
And you find you skip through a whole day's driving with the flowing ease of today's new Variable Pitch Dynaflow.*
For not only does this advanced new Dynaflow give you stepped-up gas mileage and brilliant new getaway response at only part throttle. Not only does it permit you to switch the pitch for full-power safety-surge take-off.

It also gives you absolute smoothness in acceleration and deceleration like you get in no other car in the world.
Drop in on us this week for a sampling of the best performance yet—and for a first-hand look at what else goes with the best Buick yet.
*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflow is the only Dynaflow Buick built today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special.

THE PLEASANT DOCTOR

Doctor Smith was a fine old country doctor. For years he served the community faithfully. No wind, or rain or snow, no hours of the night could keep Dr. Smith from answering the call of his patients. But as Dr. Smith grew older he permitted his medical knowledge. As a result when Aunt B. came for examination and Dr. discovered cancer, he did not want to disturb her emotions, so he did not tell her the truth about her condition but patted her gently on her shoulder, smiled and gave her something to relieve any distress.

Then Bobby X broke his arm, Bobby began to cry when Dr. attempted to set the bone, so the good man merely put on a splint and sent him home. Yes, he was a good fellow, with a great humanitarian heart—but so many of his patients died. Preachers of the Gospel must make up their minds whether they would spread soothing salve on the worlds of sins or cause some sorrow and pain which may lead to an effective cure. The preaching about sin and the hell that goes with it may cause concern in the beginning, yet it alone opens up the way for the cure through faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. (Look up 2 Cor. 7:10) shrinks in places (you know, like around the waist, and in the seat) and shoe laces are so short they are impossible to reach.

Even the weather is changing—winters are colder and summers are hotter than in the good old days. Snow is heavier when I attempt to shovel it and rain is so much wetter that I have to wear my rubbers. I guess the way they build windows nowadays makes drafts more severe.

People are changing, too. For one thing, they are younger than they used to be when I was their age. On the other hand people my age are so much older.

I realize my generation is approaching middle-age, but there is no reason for my classmates tottering into senility. I ran into my old roommate the other day and he had changed so much that he didn't recognize me. "You've put on a little weight, Bob," I said, "It's this modern food," Bob replied. It seems to be more fattening.

I got to thinking about poor Bob this morning while I was shaving. Stopping a moment I looked at my own reflection in the mirror—they don't use the same kind of glass in mirrors anymore.

MICHIGAN'S BITTER FIGHT over facilities to care for mentally retarded children is not over.

Major groups already are getting ready with ammunition to fire in the legislature toward a permanent solution following the anti-climatic struggle over an emergency program.

As a single phase of the many-sided mental health problem, it created a sensation of bitterness and strife which deadlocked the legislature for six weeks.

"At least the people now know that we have a problem in mental health," said Rep. George W. Sallade (R-Ann Arbor).

He and others are forecast as the leaders of a continuing fight over the issue. Already a 2,500-bed hospital for mentally retarded children is planned in southeastern Michigan.

But how was this deadlock resolved and who were the players in one of the roughest legislative dramas in history? It was Senator Elmer R. Porter (R-Blissfield), a 73-year-old farmer and chairman of the Senate appropriations committee who came up with the solution.

Porter merely repeated the decision he made weeks ago on the final night of the first special session, Nov. 4.

It was to rent the controversial Farmington Children's Hospital and the beds needed for the children. There was no promise to buy the hospital.

"That's as far as I can go," Porter said.

He made the decision Nov. 4 and it took more than a month to get agreement among the widely-split factions of the legislature which had split both Houses and both parties.

The legislature ended with this program:

The state will obtain 1,150 beds, slightly under the original request of Gov. Williams, and at a cost of $1,214,222, almost $4,000,000 under the request of Democrats.

On the program, 150 beds will be leased at Farmington, 150 in private hospitals under contract, 800 at a reconverted Fort Custer station hospital, Battle Creek and the rest at expanded facilities at Coldwater and Mt. Pleasant Home and Training Schools.

"It represents a respectable compromise," said Williams.

But the program strikes others as something less adequate.

There will be a strong campaign to stop the march toward institutionalizing trainable and educable mentally retarded children and a campaign to provide local schools and other facilities.

Too, there will be a hurry-up campaign to build the proposed new 2,500-bed hospital in southeastern Michigan, in Macomb county near the Wayne county line.
