BOOKS AT GLANCE

From Northville Wayne County Library If you haven't gotten around to that reading you planned to "catch up on" during these summer evenings, these new books at the Northville library are worth looking into. Especially if you're hiding from that national epidemic, Red Over Green, by Robert Henriques. Mr. Henriques looks back at World War II in this novel about a man in the ranks of the Commandos. "Red over green" was the flare signal used by the Commandos to signify "operation concluded; going home." We leave it to you to find out which operation — and where home is.

Texas Tradition, by Ross Phares. This collection of true - not "tall" - tales of wit, wisdom and courage of Texas and Texans could well be part of Texas national literature. You'll enjoy it if you're not from the Lone Star state. You'll cherish it if you are!

Always A River, by Drayton Mayrant. Those who enjoy Historical Romance should find this novel of Puritan Dorchester, Mass., highly entertaining. The Scene Before You: A New Approach To American Culture, edited and with a preface by Chandler Blossard. Arthur Schlesinger, Jr., Reuel Denny and Lionel Trilling are only three of the many critics in this volume who look upon the American scene with an eye to distinguishing the real from the pseudo-real in our cultural pattern. Lawns and Landscaping, by Thomas H. Everett. This complete guide to planting and maintaining beautiful lawns includes diagrams and photographs covering all aspects of lawn care from soil to surface dressing.

Youth — The Years from Ten to Sixteen, by Arnold Gesell, M.D., Frances L. Ilg, M.D., and Louise B. Ames, Ph. D. Based on first hand study of a selected group of normal adolescents, this volume analyzes the sometimes bewildering behavior of today's teenagers.

CHILDREN'S BOOKS

author's mother. Gettysburg, by MacKinlay Cantor. (grades (6-10). The Pulitzer prize winning author of Andersonville, civil war novel for adults, brings to life the battle of Gettysburg for Meat From Ranch to Table, written and illustrated by Walter Buehr. (grades 4.6). Just what the title says - the journey of the dinner-time staple. All About the Atom, by Ira M. Freeman. (grades 5-8).

This easily understandable explanation of the atomic theory will be especially interesting to a science-bent youngster. Mrs. Rhea Wilcox, head librarian, and Miss Kathleen Sprenger, assistant librarian, will be happy to help you locate any of these books at the library.

NO DEFROSTING?

That's right. No more messy, irritating weekly defrosting sessions. The wonderful Two-Zone Gas Refrigerator-Freezer defrosts by itself automatically. You'll love the modern design and the spacious freezing compartment of this refrigerator. You'll be thrilled with the amazing ice-server that makes and feeds non-stick ice cubes into a basket without being touched! No costly repair bills for there are no moving parts to wear. Only a tiny gas flame to do the tremendous job that you depend on so much. The Servel Gas Refrigerator-Freezer will leave the oldfashioned drudgery of kitchen work behind and give you more carefree, worry free, leisure time.

interested students, especially those new to Northville, will be welcomed at the practices, coachs said.

Parents of team members ar invited to a pot-luck dinner in the community center meeting oom at 5 p.m. next Thursday At that time, coaches will explain training rules, discuss insurance needs and inform parents about the coming football season. Northville's first varsity game will be against Plymouth Sepember 14, giving the team three weeks to get in shape.

Home modernization in the Northville area may enjoy a healthy increase as a result of more liberal terms on loans insured under FHA's Title I program. This was pointed out this veck by Harold C. The Carol Ann Story Retold . .

(For those who may not know the moving story of little Carol Ann Donnelly, we reprint here the story that appeared in our June 14 edition, telling for the first time of Carol Ann's fight with leukemia.)

Carol Ann Donnelly is a riny 3-year old girl with fair skin and golden curls. Her eyes are big, blue and searching. She has dimples when she smiles, but smiles do not come easily anymore. Carol Ann has leukemia.

Carol Ann bas leukemia.

Three weeks have passed since Carol Ann's condition was first known to her parents, Rene Sandusky, O.; an engine plant in structing a new 12-story centre and Lorene Donnelly. Wixom Petitions To Incorporate

The community of Wixom's move to incorporate into a village picked up speed this week as residents filed incorporation tions with the Oakland county clerk's office. In the meantime, Novi township officials were still looking for a way to stop the incorporation. Indications were strong that nothing short of legal technicalities would stop the move.
