Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hollis

Patricia Curtis Weds Earl Hollis

A candlelight double ring ceremony Saturday evening, August 19, united in marriage Patricia Ann Curtis of Wayne and Earl Hollis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hollis of Northville road.

The bride, gowned in floor-length chiffon laffeta with champagne lace insert on the circle neckline and skirt, carried a cascade bouquet of white roses, stephanotis and ivy, centered with a white orchid, down the aisle of the First Congregational church.

Her fingertip illusion veil was held in place by a seed pearl tiara.

She was attended by her sister-in-law, Mary Ann Curtis of Perry, Florida, as maid of honor wearing a yellow gown and carrying a cascade bouquet of bronze Fuji poms and ivy.

Attendees Jane Maurer of Cleveland, Ohio, Penny Robbins and Barbara Brennan, both of Wayne, wore matching gowns of Nile green tissue taffeta with cascade bouquets of yellow Fuji poms and ivy.

Mr. Hollis chose as his best man Floyd Curtis, brother of the bride. Seating the guests were Robert Lermon of Northville, Robert Kirkey of Lansing and Lon Galbraith of Wayne.

The bride's mother wore aqua blue lace with white accessories. Her flowers were pink rosebuds, as were those of the groom's mother, who wore powder blue chiffon with navy accessories.

Two hundred and fifty guests attended the reception held in the church parlor. At the guest book was Peggy Gates, cousin of the bride.

For traveling in northern Michigan the new Mrs. Hollis wore a turquoise suit highlighted by black patent leather accessories.

Mrs. Hollis attended Hillsdale college, where she was a pledge of Pi Beta Phi. Mr. Hollis attended Dearborn junior college. The young couple will make their home in Lansing where Earl will attend Michigan State university this fall.

What's Cooking?

(What's your favorite dish? If you will share it with other Northville housewives, please call The Northville Record's society editor, telephone 200.)

The eager on-lookers are Beth, 7 months; Putty, 2; David, 7, and Gregory, 4, as mom — Mrs. Eugene King of South Rogers St. — prepares cream puff shells for a tasty salmon dish.

The many variations of this cream puff recipe submitted by Mrs. Eugene King of South Rogers street make it a handy one to have on hand — whether you're planning a main dish for the family or a special dessert for a luncheon or shower.

As the mother of four active children, Mrs. King finds it a quick as well as attractive dish to prepare.

PUFFS
 1/2 cup sifted flour
 1/4 t. salt
 1 t. cup shortening
 1/2 cup boiling water

Sift together flour and salt. Melt shortening in boiling water. Add dry ingredients to boiling liquid all at once, stirring constantly. Cook until mixture leaves sides of pan in a smooth, compact ball, stirring vigorously.

Remove from heat and cool for about one minute. Add eggs, one at a time, beating vigorously after each addition until mixture is smooth again.

Drop by rounded tablespoonsful 1/2 inches apart on a greased baking sheet. Bake in a hot oven (450 degrees F) for 10 minutes, then at 400 for 15 to 20 minutes. Cut opening in the top of the puff and fill with a creamed sea food. Salmon is suggested here, but tuna, shrimp or any seafood combination may be substituted.

CREAMED SALMON
 1/2 cup chopped celery
 1 t. chopped green pepper
 1 t. shortening
 6 t. flour
 3 cups milk

Melt shortening in top of double boiler over direct heat; add flour and mix well. Add milk, stirring constantly. Cook until thick and smooth. Place over hot water.

Drop by rounded tablespoonsful 1/2 inches apart on a greased baking sheet. Bake in a hot oven (450 degrees F) for 10 minutes, then at 400 for 15 to 20 minutes. Cut opening in the top of the puff and fill with a creamed sea food. Salmon is suggested here, but tuna, shrimp or any seafood combination may be substituted.

DESSERT CREAM PUFFS: Fill puffs with ice cream, berries, custard or sweetened whipped cream. Top with berries or sauce if desired.

TIDBIT PUFFS: Make puffs very tiny (1/4 t. batter for each). Fill with deviled ham, fish or chicken salad or cream cheese.

PRACTICE AHEAD — Alan and Gary Wakenhut look ahead to the practice in store for them as members of the Northville high school band. Seated with them in front of the fireplace at their home on 761 Thayer are their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wynn Wakenhut and pets, "Honey" and "Pixie"

Marching Band Looks Ahead To Another Football Season

Northville's fast-stepping marching bandmen and women soon will take to the practice field to begin work on the intricate formations and rousing fight songs that they hope will spark the Mustangs to victory this fall.

Marching Band Director Robert Williams expects at least 65 students to turn out for the band. Williams soon will begin work on formation diagrams and musical arrangements. Practice will start sometime after school opens.

Northville, Northville school Music Director Leslie G. Lee has announced a tentative schedule of fall band activities.

The band will kick off its season Monday at the Michigan State Fair at 11:45 in the fairgrounds bandshell in Detroit.

When school starts, instrumental lessons will be offered at Northville schools. Amerman school will have lessons for the first time this year.

Later this fall, the Northville band will hold tryouts for the 1956-57 season. Competition will include a series of exchange concerts with other schools in the league.

Lee said he expects that Northville's band once again will be invited to the University of Michigan high school band day, when more than 100 state bands will attend.

Available by mid-November, the manual will detail township board powers, duties, methods of procedure, and parliamentary rules, according to Prof. Norton D. Long, acting director of the Michigan State University research Bureau at MSU.

D. Dale Brake, president of the Michigan Institute of Local Government, and William D. Dunlop, secretary-treasurer of the Michigan Association of Township Supervisors, are participating in the project.

State Hunting Fees Same As Last Year

Lansing — All license fees for Michigan's 1956 hunting season remain unchanged from last year.

Proposed increases in fees would not affect licenses for the upcoming hunting seasons or the fishing seasons.

The state Conservation Commission voted at its June meeting to ask the legislature to boost license fees to meet rising costs of operation.

Resident license fees for the upcoming hunting seasons are: small game, $2; deer and bear, $3.50; and camp permit for deer, $3.50.

Nonresident hunting fees are: small game, $15; deer and bear (firearm), $35; and deer and bear (archery), $10.

Teachers' Ideas Now Realities

Last May, Northville's elementary teachers concluded a unique experiment in educational planning by presenting to the school board a list of ideas on how to improve teaching methods and facilities.

Today many of these ideas are realities. The experiment was a 10-week teachers' workshop on "Local School Curriculum Planning," directed by Wayne county deputy school superintendent, Carroll Munshaw.

With near-unanimous participation, Northville's elementary teachers grappled with three educational problems: curriculum; marking report cards and parent-teacher relations; and individual differences in children.

Their efforts have continued over the summer, and a number of their suggestions have been incorporated into plans for the coming school year.

On this page are told the stories of what the teachers' efforts will mean in terms of new facilities and methods for Northville's children.

Unique Program To Begin Year For 35 Teachers
A novel orientation program will begin the school year for Northville's elementary teachers next Tuesday.

The 35 teachers and principals will spend a 24-hour session at Haven Hill lodge near Brighton, arriving Tuesday afternoon and returning to Northville on Wednesday.

The program will be devoted to orientation sessions, group discussions, and planning periods during which the teachers will lay final details for the coming school year.

An entertainment program is scheduled for Tuesday evening to help acquaint new teachers with their fellow-teachers.

New teachers will report tomorrow to be oriented in the school system's physical plant, methods and facilities. The bulk of teachers will report Tuesday morning for a session of general announcements before leaving for Haven Hill.

School Superintendent R. H. Amerman has stressed that the program is a new effort in educational administration. It resulted from teachers' conferences last year and was carried out by last spring's teachers workshop.

THE NOVI NEWS

SERVING A GROWING COMMUNITY Thursday, August 30, 1956-9

APPLE POLISHING may not carry much weight with the teacher, but there's no harm in trying. At least that's what is going through the minds of the Twesbury children—Sue, 11, Ray, 9, and John, 8, of 905 North Center street — as they get ready to go back to school after their summer vacation.

New Book Rental Program Will Save Parents Money

Parents of Northville elementary school children will pay out less money for school books this year.

Instead of buying books at the beginning of the year and selling them at the end, elementary students will rent books directly from the school.

Rental fees range from $4.20 to $5.00 for each student.

Based on a suggestion made by the teachers' workshop last year, the new method will cut down on cost and preserve books for future students.

Last year first, second and third graders rented books, while fourth, fifth and sixth graders bought them.

School officials also plan to save parents' money by reducing the number of workbooks used by students.

Also eliminated will be the need for standing in line at the school book store, for students will find books waiting in the classrooms when they report to school.

Many people could retire comfortably on what their experience has cost them.

Amerman School Tackles Problem Of Too Much Light

School leaders at Amerman school are studying the problem of almost-too-much-light in the school's classrooms.

The wide, high windows and half glass hallway walls meet ideal reading and studying requirements. But they have been a problem whenever teachers have tried to darken rooms for movies and special programs.

School officials hope to solve the problem with special darkening facilities in the school's multi-purpose room which would serve all grades. Main hope is that curtains will provide the desired darkness.

The plan for providing curtains has been studied by the teachers' workshop last spring and soon will be presented to the board of education for approval.

$1,000 Damages In Oil Heater Fire

A fire started by an oil heater caused $1,000 damage Monday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Willis, 1258 East Lake drive, near Walled Lake.

No one was injured. The call was answered by Commerce township firemen. A woman who reported the fire inadvertently forgot to tell the operator the fire was in Novi township, though close to the township border.

The house is owned by Mrs. Ailie Gross of Detroit.

The pancake breakfast sponsored by the Novi Rebekahs and Oddfellows Sunday morning was a huge success. They served 159 breakfasts at the George Kahrl home in Walled Lake.

Tornado Strikes Near City; Uproots Trees, Ruins Fruit

A small but destructive tornado swirled down to earth near Northville last Thursday just long enough to uproot dozens of trees and cause upwards of $8,000 in crop damage.

News of the tornado came as a surprise to most Northville residents. In the city, torrential rains fell during the afternoon, but nowhere was there an indication of a tornado.

The high-velocity twister apparently dropped to earth only long enough to strike a half-mile square area near Nine Mile road between Napier and Garfield roads. Onlookers said the sudden storm came and went in only two or three minutes.

The tornado shredded 80 acres of corn on the property of Zolie Visnyak, 50265 Nine Mile road, leaving the corn practically worthless.

Halfstones riddled 10 acres of choice fruit on Visnyak's land. Altogether he estimated the whirlwind caused $6,000-$8,000 in crop damage.

"I had just made a deposit on some fruit crates," Visnyak said. "How it looks like I'll have to cancel them."

A large corn crib behind Visnyak's home was ripped from its foundation and tipped on its side. A feed rack was blown 50 yards across a field until it dug into the ground against a tree.

Across the road, Wallace West-erfield, 50888 Nine Mile road, reported that several dozen large trees on his property were blown down. A 100-foot tree in his front yard was splintered from its base.

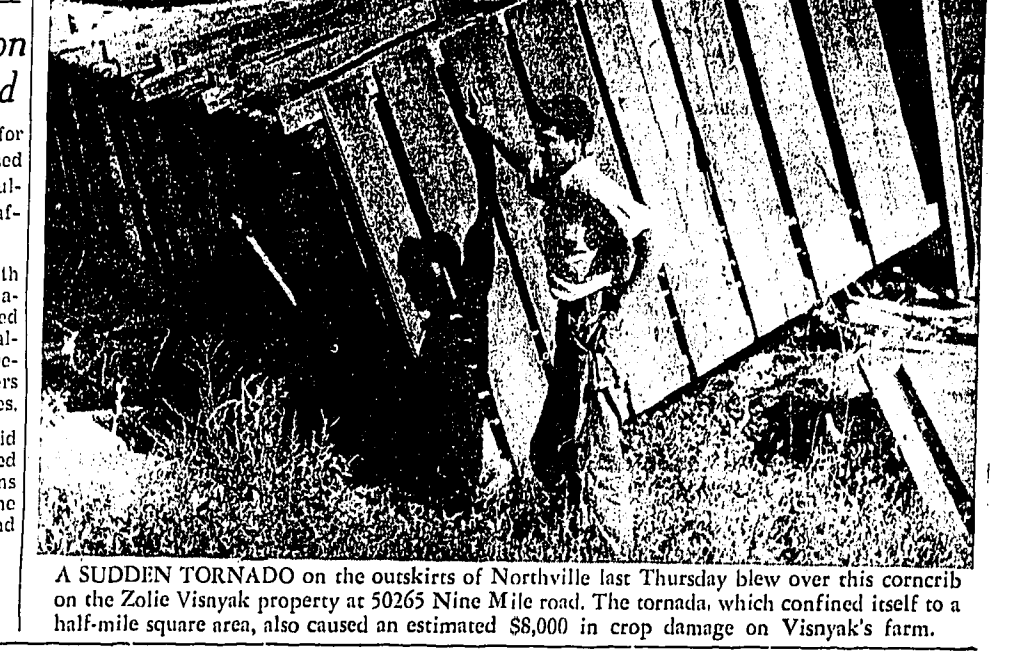

Nine Mile road was scattered with branches and leaves from Napier to Garfield, but further on there were no signs of a tornado whatsoever.

Mrs. Westerfield said she had been dozing in a chair when a sudden crash of lightning awakened her.

"I went to the window," she struck down.

Visnyak said his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Visnyak, saw the ominous grey cloud shaping and with them, said their stove was burned out in the storm and tele-

A SUDDEN TORNADO on the outskirts of Northville last Thursday blew over this corncrib on the Zolie Visnyak property at 50265 Nine Mile road. The tornado, which confined itself to a half-mile square area, also caused an estimated $8,000 in crop damage on Visnyak's farm.

Accidental Poisoning Kills Many Tots, But Can Be Avoided With Precautions

Accidental poisoning kills more young children than polio, diphtheria and scarlet fever combined, Selwyn James reports in the September Reader's Digest. Poison Control Centers in 33 cities are now working to reduce this toll.

"Every year in the United States more than 200,000 poison victims are rushed to hospitals and doctors' offices," Mr. James writes. "The great majority are children who have swallowed common household pills, powders, pastes or fluids. Some 500 of these children die before aid reaches them, or because neither parent nor physician knows the identity of the poison in the offending substance. Thousands of others suffer injuries to the throat and stomach or develop dangerous secondary ailments like bronchial pneumonia."

Under federal law, labels on foods and drugs must warn of dangerous ingredients, but the law does not apply to many common household substances. It's important to know the chemical contents of a product swallowed by accident because first aid measures vary. If the poison is a strong acid or alkali, vomiting may burn the esophagus.

The first Poison Control Center was set up in Chicago in 1950 by a committee of the American Academy of Pediatrics working with the Chicago city health department in order to provide a quick source of information on the contents of substances most frequently swallowed by children. Manufacturers of branded products helped by disclosing secret formulas.

Chicago visiting nurses who investigated cases of poisoning referred to the center found that nine times out of ten the acci-

Special Deer Season Permits to be Issued

Lansing — Applications for permits for Michigan's proposed special deer seasons are scheduled for distribution to hunters after September 15.

The applications, together with detailed information on regulations and areas, can be obtained after that date from license dealers or from Conservation Department district headquarters and other selected field offices.

License officials in Lansing said the department has received many requests for applications but will be unable to supply the blanks until they are printed and delivered in mid-September.

There are more than 200 book publishing firms in the United States with a total volume of more than $1 billion dollars annually.

It's the original noise that counts; most people are merely echoes.

Ford Trucks prove their dependability on the biggest construction job since the Panama Canal!

Not in 42 years has the world seen such a massing of construction men and machines. They're clearing the way to the heart of a continent—in the mighty St. Lawrence Power and Seaway project.

The going's rugged and the completion date allows no delay. That's why you find tough, dependable Ford trucks at work everywhere.

How those Fords can take it! It's a proven fact Ford trucks outlast every other building market. And their day-out dependability is a major reason why Ford trucks cost less. It means less downtime, lower repair costs, more work output.

Ford's first cost is low. The gas and oil economy of modern Short Stroke engines keeps running costs low. And longer-lived Ford trucks bring top dollar on resale. To get lower truck costs all around, take a tip from America's biggest truck users—the men who know truck costs best.

The Wisdom of the Night or of The Light?
After listening to the recent political conventions one wonders how much of the verbosity was graded in wisdom. It is an irresponsible virtue for the teacher or promoter of any movement. Whether it is dealing with people, or ideas, it is most essential. No writer has contrasted wisdom so greatly and defined it so clearly as did the writer of the book of practical Christian living (3:13-18).
"What is wisdom? One may say that it is the power of true and just discernment. The New Standard Dictionary gives us this helpful definition: "The wisdom that is powers acting upon the materials that fullest knowledge gives in the most effective manner." In answering the question "Who is a wise man and endowed with knowledge among you?" a consistent Christian living when he says "By his good life let him show his wisdom in the meekness of wisdom" (RSV).
The writer glories in contrast. In his presentation of false and true wisdom one can appreciate this theme "The Wisdom of The Night or of The Light."
The wisdom of the night characterizes the activity of blind militarism, the heartless liquor traffic, cut-throat gambling or even the wilful short-sightedness of the ungenerous worldly heart. Its teachers as well as its followers are headed for doom. There are three steps or degradation suggested in the passage: "But if ye have bitter envying and strife in your hearts, glory not, lie not against the truth. This wisdom descendeth not from above, but is earthly, sensual, devilish. For, where envying and strife is, there is confusion and every evil work." Envy, strife, and self-glory. Envy comes from the heart, and if God is the source of wisdom he is a liar. An envious spirit does not teach; it destroys. Strife involves a party spirit. "If a contentious man boasts of his wisdom he is a liar." Self-glorying is virtually a lying against the truth for true wisdom leads to meekness, humility and repentance.
The source and character of the Wisdom of the Night is marked by human limitations and infernal inspiration; it is earthly, sensual and devilish. It doesn't come from the "Father of Lights" but from the realm of darkness mov-

Men liberally, and upbraided not and it shall be given him. But let him ask in faith, nothing wavering. What a fountain of endless supply for trail children of dust—the teacher, the doctor, the lawyer, the politician, the administrator, the scientist, the laborer, the custodian of the home, and the dispenser of eternal truth. Shall we ask in faith and make it our very own? Do not delay in the adventure for the Wisdom of the Light will take the darkness out of the Night.

Forest Fire Season
Near Danger Period

Michigan heads into the most critical stage of its forest fire season with a "very favorable record" so far this year, according to M. M. Bergman, head of the Conservation Department's forest fire control section.

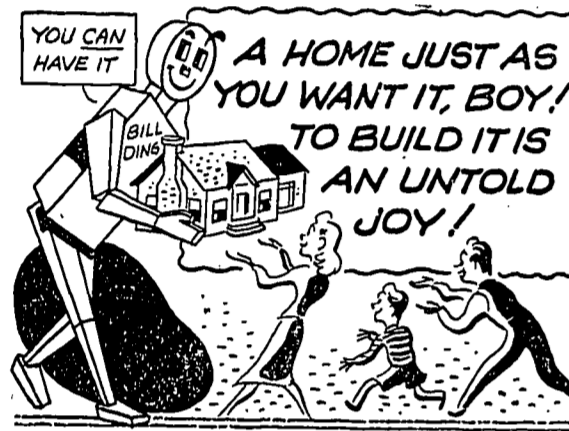

To date, 433 fires have damaged 2287 acres of state and private forests and grasslands. Last year at this time, more than 5000 acres had been damaged by fire.

Bergman pointed out that autumn presents a serious threat to forest because hunters greatly increase the number of persons using the outdoors. Autumn fires are more destructive because they often burn into the soil and also are more costly to control.

Last week, only four fires were reported throughout the state, with damage to about two acres.

Turnpike Group on Ropes After Battle With Ziegler

A LONG BATTLE seemed nearly over when the Michigan Turnpike Authority conceded at its August meeting that it has no buyers for revenue bonds and there is likelihood for state toll roads in the near future.

The Authority announced decisions to cut its staff to a skeleton crew, and adjourned without fixing a date for another session. These moves greatly reduce the group's ability to continue its fight for "pay as you drive" roads.

A climax came to the conflict between the Authority and its opponents, which include State Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler. The decision also ends a policy fight that cut across party lines.

The argument between the two groups started with the organization of the Authority on a bipartisan basis in 1953. Ziegler and his supporters claimed that the State Highway Department could build the same roads as the Turnpike Authority with existing funds.

Charges of obstruction were leveled at Ziegler in return by the Authority. They contended that the major block in issuing revenue bonds was Ziegler's refusal to cancel plans for highways parallel to proposed toll roads.

No bonding firm was willing to risk the needed capital against the Authority's revenue bonds. Ziegler's refusal to cancel plans for highways parallel to proposed toll roads.

Modern Isaac Walton's know the importance of their bait when going after the "big one".

It seems that minnows are becoming scarce in Michigan, and the Conservation officials aren't sure of the cause.

Ralph Hille, biologist of the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, says that the shortage could be due to one of several factors: a poor hatch of minnow eggs, unusual weather conditions, or a long-term downward trend in minnow population.

The Familiar Ring

When Junior sits down at his desk next week to begin a new school year, he'll probably be thinking of only one thing. His vacation days are over for another year.

Everything will look very much the same. A few new teachers, perhaps a new girl in his classroom, but otherwise things will be pretty much as he left them in the spring.

Hidden will be all the preparations that have gone into the task of readying the schools for its yearly occupants. Teachers must be hired, or rehired. New schedules arranged. Tuition students must be considered. Adding new facilities, repairing old ones — all must be given attention.

The job of opening the schools is a tremendous one, yet most have its rewards. For those who can remember a few short years ago when they, too, were answering the ring of the bells the first day of school is still something "special".

Worth Repeating

NORWALK, CONN., HOUR: "Michigan State university announces that of 140,000 college scholarships with a value of $31 million available in the United States, 17,000 went begging last year. The list of unclaimed scholarships should go to the principals of every high school in the land, with requests to recommend candidates for them. It also should encourage every qualified boy and girl to go get them. Lack of money is no bar to higher education."

BOONE, IOWA, NEWS-REPUBLICAN: "More and more of America's cooking is being done, not in the family kitchen, but by food processors. Even on the farm, where good home cooking is traditional, easy-to-prepare foods from the supermarkets and grocery stores are making substantial inroads. ... Much has been made of the do-it-yourself rage in this country. But the trend in the nation's kitchens is exactly the opposite."

Books at Glance

From Northville Wayne County Library

Savola, by Winston S. Churchill. Published in 1900, this is the first and only novel by the British statesman. The plot deals with a revolution in a mythical republic, and in it the hero states the social and political principles which governed the author's career.

The Voodoo Queen, by Robert Talbot. Built around the amazing life of Marie Laveau — described as the last great American witch and the greatest of voodoo queens of New Orleans — this historical novel only guesses at the hidden truth.

Susanna, by Margaret Truman. The autobiography of a girl who was thrown into the glare of world publicity, and how she reacted to this new light.

The Last Hurrah, by Edwin O'Connor. What could be more appropriate for 1956 than this novel of a dynamic man who dominated the political machine in one city for 40 years.

The Cases Beyond — The Story of Floyd Collins Crystal Cape, by Joe Lawrence, Jr. and Roger W. Brucker. A quarter a century ago, Floyd Collins was lost forever in an episode that made headlines. The documented adventure story presented here is of men who made an expedition into the same unknown caverns — but lived to tell about it.

The Rhine, by Felizia Seyd. For arm-chair travelers, a panoramic trip is waiting in this guide to one of the great rivers of Europe.

CHILDREN'S BOOKS

Doctors and What They Do, by Harold Coy. (grades 5-8). Some of the mystery children connect with the word "doctor" is removed in this story of a doctor's day.

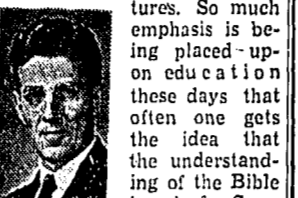

Jump-Shy, by Joan Houston. (grades 5-8). For the boy or girl who loves horses.

Slim Green, by Louise Dyer Harris and Norman Dyer Harris (grades 3-4). Slim is a snake — a friendly one, who introduces his friends in the animal and insect world to young readers.

Mr. Petersen's Cats (and Kittens), by Louise Slobodkin. (grades 3-4). If you have a cat, you'll like this story about a lot of them left to fend for themselves.

Educational Requirements

You do not need a College degree to understand the essential meaning of the Scriptures. So much emphasis is being placed upon education on these days that often one gets the idea that the understanding of the Bible is only for Seminary trained students and the laymen is not expected to understand the Bible anyway. The first requirement, as we have written before, is that we have spiritual life. Along with spiritual life comes spiritual insight into the secret things of the Word of God. The knowledge of the scriptures then is open to every child of God and not just a handful of specialists. Time and again a Christian is urged to get a knowledge of the Word of God. His very growth in the Christian life is dependent upon it. Acts 20:32 — "I commend you to God, and to the word of His grace, which is able to build you up and again in 1 Peter 2:2 "As new born babes, desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby." The average Christian with the average share of intelligence and effort can, with the help of faithful sound Pastors and the Electronic Institute in Detroit, obtain from reliable book stores (Beware of most peddlers), a n e e r s a n d the meaning of the majority of passages in the Bible.

Novi Highlights

Mrs. Danny Laskey (nee Kay Kreger) of Dearborn celebrated her 21st birthday Thursday evening, August 23 at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kreger on Clarke street, Novi. After the birthday dinner, which included Mr. Laskey and son, Charles, several other guests came from Northville, Wayne, Dearborn and Royal Oak.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Rix of Williamston were the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Rix, at their Pretty Lake cottage in Macomb county over the Labor Day week end.

Last Wednesday, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Trickey, Jr. entertained at a family picnic at their home on Ponda street. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bertschinger of Detroit, Dr. and Mrs. Marvin in Bless and daughters of Grosse Pointe Woods, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Trickey, Sr. and Mr. and Mrs. Duane Bell and children.

Novi township police kept an especially close watch for traffic violations and accidents over the Labor Day week end but found highways and roads in the township surprisingly lightly traveled.

According to Police Chief Leo BeGole, major highways carried less traffic Monday night than they ordinarily do on an average week night.

Only a smattering of minor accidents marred the week and motorists apparently heeded warnings to take it easy over the holiday.

Carol Ann Given Check For $331 from Dinner

The recent Carol Ann Donnelly benefit dinner brought $331 to help pay medical expenses for the pretty little leukemia victim.

That was the total after expenses were taken out, according to Mrs. Helen Robertson, president of the Northville Eagles Auxiliary Aerie 2504, sponsors of the dinner.

A check for that amount was presented to Carol Ann by members of the auxiliary committee Saturday night.

Many other contributions — from $2 to $25 — have come from residents in the area direct to the Donnelly's.

The committee expressed its thanks to the many Northville area merchants who contributed to the dinner and to the men, women and children who helped cook, cater and serve the meal.

Appreciation was also expressed to local civic leaders who gave their support to the event.

From Carol Ann's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rene Donnelly, came a special word of thanks for the efforts of everyone who has helped to make their plight somewhat easier to take.

Carol Ann was stricken with leukemia several months ago and since that time her parents have had to spend more than $250 monthly for medicine alone.

The turnout of Northville area residents at the dinner last week brought praise from Congresswoman Martha Griffiths who attended to give her best wishes to Carol Ann and her parents.

Walled Lake Youth Caught after Taking Money From Home

A 15-year-old Walled Lake youth was apprehended Tuesday morning by a man from whose house he was fleeing after rifling a purse and wallet for $17.

Jack Karl, 695 South Lake drive (Ship Ahoy apartments), had heard the youth in his house and caught him as he fled down the street, according to Novi township police chief, Lee BeGole.

In a statement to police, the boy admitted he had taken the money after letting himself into the house. He did not know Karl and his wife were home until he heard their voices, he said.

Police said he admitted opening a screen door "for a fast getaway" before taking the money. The youth was given in custody to Oakland county juvenile authorities in Pontiac.

Truck Rolls, Driver or Not

A runaway semi-trailer truck threatened scores of lives on Grand River Friday until it coasted to a harmless halt after plummeting from about 400 yards.

The truck started rolling near Novi road and careened down Grand River at speeds estimated as high as 30 mph. It reportedly stayed in its own lane throughout the trip.

Witnesses say that Michigan Secretary of State James M. Hare attempted to halt the truck with his car but after failing to do so, drove ahead and warned motorists away from the truck's path. Hare had been passing through Novi.

Novi township police chief Leo BeGole said the truck apparently started to roll after its emergency and trailer brakes loosened. BeGole said the brakes had been set by the driver, Theodore Black of Detroit.

No "traffic violation" ticket was issued.

Building Permits Total 141 In August

Final figures revealed this week that Novi township issued 141 building permits in August, according to Cameron Lodge, township inspector of public safety.

The permits were for construction valued at $1,889,400.

Some 130 permits were for construction of $12,800 and $13,500 homes adjacent to Willowbrook Village.

Of the 130, 102 were taken out by Paul LeBost for construction on the north side of West Ten Mile and 28 were taken by Bert Smolker for construction on the south side. The homes reportedly will be similar to those now standing in Willowbrook Village.

Five Pups, Born in Roadside Ditch, Find Life Isn't So Bad After All

Five whimpering little beggars who were born in a roadside ditch have found happily that not many people can resist a helpless tail-wagging puppy.

The pups, scrappy and with their eyes barely open, were given homes last week by a Novi township police officer and two Northville employees.

Until then, things hadn't looked too happy for the pups. They were born in a ditch near Meadowbrook and Thirteen Mile roads, where rainstorms made their nest a soggy one at best. They could only crawl and would have been easy prey for larger animals. Their mother, a wild beagle, came to them only at feeding time.

Found by Officer Dick Noble, the pups seemed well-fed but otherwise neglected. The mother could be heard howling in nearby bushes but wouldn't come near her offspring.

Noble kept one pup, a black and white male. Another male was taken home by Record-News plant superintendent William Yockey whose children promptly named him "Tippy" for his flicking little tail.

The other three — all females — have found a home with the family of Record-News pressman Clark Berke.

At last report, the pups are gaining weight, making friends and settling on quickly to civilization. A friend who understands dog-talk claims the puppies have only one word for their benefactors: "Thanks."

Annexation Faces Legal Test

COME TO PAPA — Novi township police officer Dick Noble gathers up five beagle pups who were born recently in a roadside ditch. The pups have found homes with Noble and two Northville Record-News employees, after living a wet and frightened existence in the ditch for several weeks.

May Even Reach Supreme Court

Novi township prepared this week to go as far as the state supreme court and possibly even higher in order to keep part of its territory from annexing to Northville.

Supervisor Fraser Simman said yesterday the township will take the fight as far as legal channels allow.

The township board met yesterday to give Simman full power to act in its behalf in carrying out the legal fight.

The move came just two days before Novi township's chance to file the annexation would have expired. By law, any challenge to an annexation election must be filed within 30 days after the election. The period ends this Friday.

At question is the validity of an election on August 7 in which residents of an 85-acre tract of Novi township voted unanimously to join Northville.

The tract lies adjacent to Northville, extending west from Center street for one-quarter mile. It includes the site of Northville's Amerman school and the proposed new high school.

The immediate problem, Staman said, is the possibility that the annexation will result in township residents having to repay part of the cost of certain township assets. The annexing homeowners would in effect take township assets with them, he said.

Staman said further that the current battle is designed not only to stop the immediate annexation but also possibly to correct legislation that gives a township no means of retaining its territory if that territory votes to annex.

Township attorney Archie Leonard has drawn up papers that challenge the validity of the August 7 election on grounds that it is "unconstitutional." His line of argument is expected to be that the township has had no voice in a matter which directly affects its own boundaries and assets.

Staman said at least one similar case has gone to the state supreme court, resulting in a decision that annexation is constitutional. But he added that he is optimistic that the township will get a favorable decision if the fight goes that far.
