

National Newspaper Week

Newspaper Week

October 1 to 8 is National Newspaper Week — seven days set aside to salute the nation's press.

In our new position as publisher of the two newspapers serving our growing area this observance has a special significance. It offers an opportunity to tell our readers what this responsibility means to us and what we believe constitutes a fair definition of a newspaper.

Most important, a newspaper is the reflection of the community it serves. Physically speaking, a newspaper should be clean, easy to read, interesting and full of local news. It should hum at the same speed at which the community is moving and not be a slow, over-accelerated tempo. Its advertising messages should be clearly displayed and distributed throughout the pages. Their content should be free of misleading statements or "gimmicks".

The columns of stories, pictures and advertisements which fill the pages of a community newspaper are not the work and ingenuity of the paper's staff alone. They are the thoughtful citizens who phone in a news item, suggest a feature article or remember to report a club meeting; the proud new parents, or grandparents, who tell of the community's newest arrival.

The public officials—school board members, supervisor, councilman — who take time out to explain details and background of their group's activities; the local merchant who uses his community paper to advertise his merchandise; all play a vital part.

A good newspaper is the image of its community. It reports the good . . . and the bad. It uses its news columns to report the news as it happens. It reserves its editorial page for opinion. It opens its pages for letters from readers who may agree or disagree, commend, or suggest, as long as the content of the letters remain in good taste.

Most of all a good newspaper does not cringe from its duty. Communities, like human beings, cannot be all good. Unpleasant happenings occur; people make mistakes; differences arise with growth.

To report these activities is as much the duty of the community newspaper as it is to report that Johnny Smith is the valedictorian of his class.

And just like the community, the newspaper makes mistakes. Its errors are sometimes as simple as a misspelled word. Other times mistakes in judgment are made. Whatever the error, the newspaper goes to every home for discriminating eyes to evaluate.

If we were to make a pledge for National Newspaper Week, it would be to provide our readers with as fine a publication as our ability, coupled with their help, will allow.

Parties Seek Big Vote For Victory at Polls

THE "LITTLE" VOTER is a mighty big man in the coming election. Both parties believe their best chance lies in getting a big turnout for the November 6 election. This is less strange than it seems when the situation is analyzed.

Key politicians keep continuing to talk on the political atmosphere. Results from surveys are evaluated almost daily. Leaders in both parties are convinced that they have a chance to win at the polls.

Republicans, who hope to hold outside Michigan by as large a majority as last time, figure that a bigger GOP vote in Wayne County will swing the state solidly their way.

Democrats, who hope to gain outside, are anxious to get a higher percentage of their people to the voting booths.

If a million new voters can be registered by October 8, the Republicans think they would half support their ticket. They are working hardest in traditional favorable areas where the vote fell off last election.

Democrats think there are more candidates to be registered; hope to overwhelm the GOP with the million votes they think would result if all of these people were registered. The press box is heavy on industrial areas, where labor leaders are pumping openly for the Democratic party.

BETTER COVERAGE of Michigan football games should result from newly constructed press box at the University of Michigan stadium, athletic officials predict.

The new $700,000 main and blue structure was put into use for the first time this fall. Complete with every facility for moving news rapidly, the press box is a tribute to the public need for accurate, speedy news coverage.

Optimism prevailed at the first commission meeting. Committees were named to deal with separate portions of the over-all objective. Hopes are high that additional money may be obtained from a philanthropic foundation.

In the meantime, Indian Affairs Study Commission members hope their cause will not be lost in the shuffle as other minority groups push their causes to the forefront.

AMVETS Schedule Public Skeeet Shoot

A public skeet shoot for all marksmen in the area will be sponsored this Sunday at the Perry Kenner Post 76, AMVETS. Registrations for the shoot will be accepted from 9 to 10 a.m. at Trickey's Sporting Goods on Grand River east of Novi Rd. Registration fee is $1.50.

Flights of six men will compete for flight prizes and flight winners will shoot it out for three grand prizes.

Flight winners will have a choice of a pair of slippers or an ammunition belt. Grand prizes include a set of "thermo" underwear and two hooded sweatshirts. Prizes will be donated by the Trickey store.

DRIVER FINED $250 ON PAIR OF COUNTS

David Cillon, 55, 249 Rayson, Northville, was ordered to pay $250 in fines and costs on charges of reckless driving and driving with a revoked license.

Former Gridders Pull Down Prizes In First Week's Football Contest

Competition was keen but it took two former football players to come up with the best entries in the first of the eight weekly grid contests.

In all, there were eight contestants who stumbled on two of the games, but Lusk and Schrader had a better line on the professional game outcome. Lusk picked left and Schrader picked right and in the end for Northville high school in 1954 and 1955. Schrader was a lineman for Michigan State during the thirties and is proud of the fact that State never lost to Michigan during his three years on the team. Needless to say, Schrader accurately forecast the State victory, a game that many contestants saw the other way.

Oddy, Lusk was tripped up by Northville. He picked Clarenceville to top his alma mater. Lusk missed the Vanderbilt-Alabama game. This contest was the most missed of all the games. Schrader also missed this one along with the Pittsburgh-California game.

The judges have made the contest tougher this week. They've added two more games and predict that it will take a pretty good forecaster to pick the week's winners.

But to make the selections easier, we'll pass along these odds as possible: Illinois and Illinois over Ohio State, and Notre Dame and Purdue in a tie. That's enough for this week. Turn to page 10 and figure the rest out for yourself!

Serving A Growing Community

United Fund Drive to Begin Tuesday

The 1956 United Fund drive will get underway in Novi township next Tuesday with scores of volunteer workers asking township residents to "give the United Way."

Headed by township chairman Wes Coon, the volunteers will seek to meet a goal of $4,000 in the month-long drive.

The United Fund, as in the past, is designed as a one-year appeal for contributions to charitable organizations. Proceeds will be divided among upwards of 40 organizations by local, county and state United Fund offices.

Novi township, the drive's success will depend mainly on the efforts of about ten service organizations. Each group has been assigned to canvass a section of the township.

Many groups plan door-to-door campaigns to raise funds. Churches will pass out bookmarks interspersed with a United Fund prayer.

Coon has contacted factories and business places in the township, asking employees to pledge their support to the United Fund.

Posters, placards, handbills and stickers will be posted throughout the township to remind residents to give to the charity campaign.

Coon and some 25 volunteers will meet Monday night with Dwyer C. Sump, executive director of the Oakland county drive, to go over plans for the campaign. Volunteers will meet again Sunday to lay final plans.

Biggest recipient of funds from the township will be the Oakland county chapter of the American Red Cross.

Other Oakland county charities include the Girl Scouts of America, Salvation Army, Catholic Family Center, Michigan Children's Aid Society, St. Joseph's Mercy Hospital Clinic and a general township fund.

A large share of the contributions collected in Novi township also will go to the Michigan United Fund which will in turn divide the funds among a number of statewide organizations.

These include: defense related services (USO, National Recreation Association), research agencies (Michigan Heart Association, Michigan Epilepsy Center), service agencies (Leader Dogs for the Blind, Sister Kenny Foundation), planning and improvement services (Michigan Society for Mental Health, Michigan Association of Retarded Children), and national service agencies (Child Welfare League of America, National Legal Aid Association).

2,300 Register For Fall Election

More Novi township residents have registered to vote than ever before, Township Clerk Hurdley Bachert announced this week.

Bachert estimated that upwards of 2,300 residents are now eligible to vote in the November 6 general election.

The figures include 296 registrants who were placed on the voting rolls Thursday through Monday — a group "three to four times" larger than in any similar period in the past, Bachert said.

State highway officials could not be reached to confirm the statement. But it was stated by a highway engineer that "some sort of work has been done there. He presumably meant that extensive culverts have been cleared of mud and rocks that had blocked them."

County drain commission spokesmen did say, however, that if the problem proves to be inadequate drainage rather than lack of sufficient culverts, it will be up to Parkinson and his neighbors to take initial action.

Race Track Opposition Grows

More opposition to the proposed race track in Novi township developed this week as the Novi Democratic club announced it has requested that township residents be allowed to voice their opinions.

Specifically, the club—through president Herbert Koester—has asked the township zoning board to table a request for rezoning the proposed site until a vote can be held.

The zoning board is scheduled to hold a public hearing October 10 on a request that the site—lying north of Grand River between Meadowbrook and Seelye roads—be rezoned from M-1 (heavy industry) to M-3 (heavy industry) to permit establishment of the track.

Koester further claimed that the township would not risk a damage suit by refusing to develop the land under a 1949 township permit. Koester said he believes the statute of limitations would invalidate such a suit.

(Novi township supervisor Frazer Staman had said earlier that the township could not be held liable for a license yet.)

Staman said "And there are a lot of other problems to be solved before anyone needs to worry about a track coming in."

Staman further suggested that a public meeting be held soon so that both sides of the question can be presented.

"There are a great many misconceptions about what such a track would mean," Staman said. "For example, a $2,000,000 project like this would go a long way toward solving school problems in the township—especially since it would provide revenue but not put a single child in school."

"As far as property values are concerned," he continued, "it does not seem to me that values in Northville and Livonia have suffered because of the track there. If anything, more money has come into the cities."

Staman also reiterated his stand that the township board likely will approve the rezoning of the zoning board recommendation of the track. He said it has been the board's practice to take the advice of zoning board members and engineering consultants.

Lansing Enters Drain Problem

Some sort of action appeared in the offing for D. M. Parkinson and his drainage problem this week, as the legal advisor to the government of Michigan entered the picture.

Parkinson has complained that inadequate culverts under the new Farmington-Brighton expressway have caused continual flooding of his property at 27110 Tatt road.

He further charged that requests for aid in the past four months have been largely ignored by state highway and county drain officials.

Parkinson reported this week he had received a letter from Alfred B. Pitt, legal advisor to Governor G. Mennen Williams. The letter read in part: "We have referred your letter (which Parkinson sent two weeks ago) to the State Highway Commissioner with a request that the inadequate drainage which you mentioned be investigated as soon as possible."

Just what action would result could not be determined this week, however.

Parkinson, a spokesman for Oakland county drain commis-

The Northville branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association met at the home of Mrs. H. N. Proger Monday, October 9.

Speaker of the afternoon, Mrs. Clarence Johnston of Farmington, presented ideas to preserve the beauty of our streets and highways and keep them free from litter.

Mrs. Johnston heads the committee on Roadside Development of the Michigan Federated Garden Clubs and has helped several communities in Litter Bug campaigns. She showed many types of trash containers that can be carried in cars and Litter Bug posters for use in schools and public places. She noted that many cities are strictly enforcing the state law fining $10 to persons found throwing trash on highways.

Committee members for the meeting were Mrs. T. G. Hege, Mrs. E. E. Miller, Mrs. H. Wagenschwitz, Mrs. T. J. Knapp and Mrs. M. E. Mueller.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Dean King

Gail Waterman Now Mrs. King

At an eight o'clock ceremony Saturday evening, September 29 in the First Presbyterian Church of Northville, Gail Ann Waterman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Waterman, of Six Mile road, became the bride of Billy Dean King, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy King of South Rogers street, Northville.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. John O. Tetz in a church decorated with palms, candelabra and arrangements of white mums and gladioli. "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer" were sung by W. G. Williams, accompanied by Mrs. Barton Connors at the organ.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length wedding gown of white hand-clipped tulle with lace-trimmed overskirt and bodice highlighted by a scalloped lace neckline. She wore a single strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom, and carried a white bible centered with two white orchids surrounded by staphanotis and ivy.

The maid of honor, Shirley Adcox, cousin of the groom, wore a ballerina length gown of blue crystalite. She carried a colonial bouquet of yellow roses and yellow mums.

The bridesmaids, Mrs. William Maxwell, cousin of the bride, and Miss Janice Owens, friend of the bride, wore ballerina length dresses of rose taffeta and carried colonial bouquets of hibiscus roses and bronze mums.

Bonnie Krumm, cousin of the bride, was flower girl in a long pink taffeta dress. She carried a bouquet of pink roses and white mums.

For his best man, the bridegroom chose his brother, Aubrey King, Larry Gots, cousin of the bride, and Cliff Napier, Robert Schock and Ronnie Weber were ushers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Waterman selected a beige Italian silk sheath dress with brown accessories. Mrs. King, the bridegroom's mother, chose a coral brown silk dress with rose and brown accessories. Both mothers wore orchid corsages.

A reception for more than 200 guests was held at the Northville Community building following the ceremony. Guests came from Northville, Plymouth, Bay City, Lenton, Allen Park and Detroit.

Following their honeymoon trip to Niagara Falls and through the Eastern states, the couple will live on West Seven Mile road.

Ceramics can refer to anything made from fired earth, including glass window panes, bathroom fixtures, wall and pipe tile, enamel on copper, china dinnerware and porcelain.

Let us clear about the role of the classics; they are worth studying as examples of how to think, not of what to think.

Tuffie, the Howard's dachshund, seems to be more interested in the camera than in what might be coming off the grill. Pouring coffee for her father, George Baker, visiting from Rivera Beach, Florida, is Mrs. R. C. Howard, while G'Ann, 14, Mr. Howard and Chris, 12, tend to the cooking.

After living in motels until they found the "right house" in Northville, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Howard and their children, George, 14, and Christopher, 12, moved in permanently at 5553 Five Mile road September 14.

In their former home town, Park Forest, Illinois, the Howards were active in P-T-A, scouts and especially in volunteer work for the mentally ill.

Mrs. Howard gave her spare time to working with parents at a nearby mental hospital and occasionally invited patients to dinner. "In this way, our children have learned the importance of a sympathetic attitude toward mental illness," Mrs. Howard said. At Christmas time, the family wrapped packages and decorated wards at the hospital.

Mr. Howard, who is a supervisor of administration and planning at the Ford plant in Romulus, enjoys golf and daughter, G'Ann (pronounced Jan) has occasionally joined him on the course.

Chris, a seventh grader, likes to swim and now in the "land of lakes" the family wants to try its hand at fishing.

It looks like the Howards, a family whose philosophy is "work together — and play together" have found the right house in the right community.

Dr. and Mrs. O. J. Robinson visited Mr. and Mrs. Truman Read, formerly of Northville and now of Cleveland, Ohio last week end.

Opposes Novi Race Track

To the Editor:
Novi township race track proposal is becoming more controversial as the time comes nearer to a show down before the zoning board on October 19. It is evident from the amount of letters and telephone calls I receive that the citizens are opposed to a race track in Novi. This comes without a doubt would not have come about if the citizens were told in advance by the township board that a race track has been in a planning stage for some time.

Overcrowded N.H.S.

Has So Many Students It Doesn't Know What to Do

Northville High School is packed. It is overflowing with the largest enrollment in its history—more than 175 students in a school that was built 40 years ago to handle 300 students.

For teachers and students alike, the overcrowding is reaching an almost unworkable stage. So many shifts, improvisations, and temporary plans have had to be made in the past few years that administrators are seriously asking themselves how much longer it will be before the quality of education in Northville suffers to the danger point.

Students, too, are unhappy with the situation. It's no fun for them to take a math class in a room filled by the humming and roaring of power tools in a machine shop next door. Nor do they appreciate having to stand outside during noon hour or having to walk between buildings in rainy weather.

But at present, those are the conditions they must face—simply because Northville high school is too small for the number of students within its walls.

Not every parent can get to the high school to see first hand what the conditions are. (And even if they could, there wouldn't be room for them.)

On this page, therefore, the Record attempts to illustrate graphically just what the word "overcrowding" means when applied to Northville high school.

The problem is not unique to Northville, of course. Hundreds of other communities in the country are faced with the same sudden growth in population and overcrowding of schools. Many are coping with the problem successfully. Some are not.

Parents of children will hear much more about such conditions in the next few weeks. Administrators and teachers will try to bring home the importance of alleviating a situation that, before long, could seriously affect the education of Northville's youth.

Ultimately—perhaps within two months—school officials will ask voters to approve a bond issue that would provide funds for a new high school. It would be a school large enough to handle Northville's children—one that would offer the many new concepts of education that have developed since the present high school was built.

It will cost a lot of money. The Northville school board has decided not to skip or cut corners. Board members do not intend to throw money away, but they do want freedom to include all facilities that studies indicate are necessary for the next 10 years.

When the issue goes before the public, school board members hope voters remember what it is they are deciding on: whether Northville students will have the educational facilities they need, or whether they will continue to attend a school that was originally meant to handle only half their number.

ONE-WAY TRAFFIC ON STAIRWAYS is necessary to keep the mass of students moving. Even so, each stairway becomes a potentially dangerous jungle and legs between classes.

LACK OF SEATS in the physical science room has made it necessary for two girls (upper left) to sit in portable chairs instead of at the fully-equipped tables. LaGene Quay, physical science teacher, teaches 33 students in the 30-seat classroom.

Has So Many Students It Doesn't Know What to Do

A SHOP CLASS hums and roars—and its noises carry over defiantly into a math class taught in the next room, separated from the shop room only by a glass partition. The shop class, with 33 students, is itself overcrowded.

A SEA OF STUDENTS overflows in the third hour study hall each morning. Miss Lemoyne Markham, study hall teacher, says the giant classes make for mass confusion and prevent adequate supervision of the almost 190 students.

Penalties Stop Northville From Scoring Even More

The victory gave Clarenceville the undesirable "Vinegar Jug" which goes to the loser of the annual game.

Biery, playing his best game of the season, did just about everything against the Trojans — and did it well.

He scored two touchdowns — one on a dazzling 75-yard interception, the other on a 26-yard pass play. He picked up 24 yards rushing, and 61 on four passes. He intercepted two key passes. And, to round out his performance, he even took a turn at passing and punting.

The story was not-all Biery, however. Junior quarterback Ed Wittenberg, playing his first game of the season, handled the pivot-spot with skill. And the big Mustang line stubbornly refused to give ground until the fourth quarter when Coach Ron Schipper sent in a flock of replacements.

Clarenceville was never really in the game, as the Trojans suffered their fourth straight loss of the season.

Northville showed the Trojans it meant business the first time the Mustangs got the ball, but a 75-yard drive fell apart as they turned offense twice and finally had to give up the ball just short of the goal line.

Minutes later, the Mustangs swarmed in to block a Clarenceville punt and recovered on the 1-yard line. The Trojans, aided by two more penalties against Northville, held for three downs. But fullback Gary Holman then found a hole and slipped across from the 6.

Clarenceville drove in Northville territory but was stymied on the 23. After an exchange of downs, a Trojan back fumbled and the Mustangs had the ball on the Clarenceville 48.

It was then that Biery went into action — single-handedly taking the ball the entire distance in three quick plays. A statue of liberty picked up 11, and two seconds from Wittenberg took Biery into the end zone.

The halftime break apparently failed to demoralize Biery, for the fleet halfback came on to intercept a Clarenceville pass on his own 25 and dash 75 yards down the sidelines to give Northville an 18-0 margin.

The Mustangs kept rolling in the fourth quarter, as they launched a steady ground-and-air drive that swept them 20 yards for another score. Quarterback Pete Gross hit end Bill Yahne with a 13-yard pass for the touchdown, and Wittenberg tossed to Yahne for the final point.

With Mustang reserves in the game, Clarenceville — led by bruising fullback Dale Devitt — marched 64 yards in seven plays for their lone marker.

Northville center Harry Sedan smashed through the Clarenceville line to block an attempted conversion.

Statistics indicate a closer game than was actually played, as both teams collected eight first downs and the Mustangs tallied only 23 more offensive yards than the Trojans.

But half of Clarenceville's first downs and almost half its yardage were made in the fourth quarter, long after Northville had wrapped up the game.

Kritch, Gotro Star As Northville Colts Split Two Contests

Quarterback Joe Kritch tossed to end Joe Gotro for three touchdowns as the Colts dropped West Bloomfield 20-0 on September 25.

Kritch and Gotro teamed up for another score the following week, but the Colts bowed to Milford 26-14. Left halfback Larry Nitso scored from the six yard line for the other touchdown.

Junior High Team Drops Thurston 7-0

Northville junior high gridgers squeezed out a tight 7-0 victory over Thurston in their first game of the season Friday night.

Northville scored on a pass from Kent Frid to George Kuchinkus to give Coach James Michigan's charges the victory.

FINAL POINT — Northville end Bill Yahne clutches a pass in the end zone to give the Mustangs a point-after-touchdown in their 25-6 rout of Clarenceville last Friday.

Moments before, Yahne had scored Northville's final touchdown on a 13-yard pass from quarterback Pete Gross to complete a steady 50-yard drive in the game's waning moments.

VICTORY SMILES — Northville's Mustangs get their last look at the unwanted "Vinegar Barrel" — token of defeat in the Northville-Clarenceville series — just before turning it over to Clarenceville after their 25-6 win Friday night.

Friday's Sidelights: Band Struts Its Stuff With Musical Doodles

With a bright-eyed, baton-twirling majorette at its'fore, the Northville marching band put on its best show of the season Friday under the lights at Ford Field.

The formations included everything from an ovaloid shape with a wiggling tail ("a football made of real pigskin") to a smoking cone with a strange cap at its end ("a volcano with a filter tip").

Wearing the distinctive cap of the head majorette, Sandra Gotro — who can hardly keep from smiling brightly even if she wants to — strutted and twirled in a style that bores the fact that she is yet a freshman.

Seniors Get to Work On New Yearbook

A Palladium committee is chosen from the class to work with Charles Yahnke, the yearbook advisor.

This year the seniors have discussed at length various ideas for the project. Many 12th graders feel that the members of the committee ought to receive points toward credit for the future class trip. Although compiling the Palladium is not a money-making project, the seniors agree that a lot of time and work is put into it.

Choosing the Palladium committee for 1956-57 will be a difficult job because so many seniors have expressed their interest in participating. In order to help solve the problem, Mr. Yahnke has set up a few requirements for committee members. Among other requirements he wants students who are not in the senior play and who are available for meetings every day after school.

As soon as the committee has been chosen the members will pitch in on gathering such material for the yearbook as boys' and girls' sports, school clubs, senior and junior plays, class pictures and many others.

Later on in the year, a representative of the Spelman studio will arrive to photograph these activities.

Putting together a Palladium is a lot of work, but the seniors are sure they will enjoy it.

NHS Debate Team Attends Conference At Central Michigan

A group of Northville high school debaters, Sandra Strasen, Lillian Zinnecker, Carol Krezel, Bernhard Muller, David Nash and Charles Hicks, attended the Central Michigan High School Debate and Forensic Association conference at Central Michigan college on October 6.

This was followed by a series of discussion groups involving characteristics of good debating, sources of materials, background for the proposition, and issues involved in this year's question.

The question for debate this year is: "Resolved: That the Federal Government should maintain the price of major agricultural products at not less than ninety percent parity."

The highlight of the day was a demonstration debate with Robert Holm of Ottawa Hills and Boyd Conrad of East Grand Rapids holding the affirmative and Bernhard Mueller of Northville and Tom Wheaton of Lansing Sixton upholding the negative.

Many New Books Awaiting Students In School Library

There are many new books now in the school library. Here are some of the more notable additions.

"Tolstoy's War," a novel by Samuel Sheikhan, is about a normal American family and a man's struggle to find his roots in a world of change.

"Hannah Fowler" by Janice Holt Giles tells of the life of a young girl in the early west who takes over a man sized job of running a ranch after her father dies.

"Aldie Walker's Book," "The Sea and Its Rivers" offers a change from most books. The book is mainly underwater research and a geography of the ocean floor, with some sidelights of the author's sports, school clubs, senior and junior plays, class pictures and many others.

For the younger set are books like "Wilderness Teacher" and "Bluesy Summer" by Zachary Ball and is about a teacher in the Florida Everglades who is trying with an Indian guide, to find a lost girl. The book deals with the adventures of the guide and the teacher.

"Blueberry Summer" is set in Maine. The girl concerned in the story tends to her family's blueberry crop for the summer and in the process she meets two young men.

Miss B. Ione Palmer, the librarian, also suggests that any students who wish so, may request a book and she will try to obtain it for them.

"Hoof Prints"

"Mustang Hoof Prints" is prepared and written by the Northville high school students under the supervision of Miss Florence Panstun.

Skits Take Over

Anyone passing by the open door of the speech classes last week, would have seen some odd goings-on.

Husky football players earnestly spouting poetry... a German lass singing a song from the Old World... bloody melodramas... impersonations of such famous personalities as Elvis Presley, James Cagney, Liberace and his brother, George, and Tallulah Bankhead... funny gestures pan-tomizing popular songs... the sky was the limit. What was the reason for all of this fun and frolic during school hours? Miss Florence Panstun is starting the school year off by inducing the students to lose their inhibitions before audiences. By participating in all sorts of gesture activities they will learn how to speak in front of an audience without being held back by self-consciousness.

"Fashion Plates?" Nope, Just Seniors Waiting for Photos

Last Monday and Tuesday, many Northville high school undergraduates noticed a continual parade of "fashion-plates" that had seemingly sprouted in the high school halls.

The students soon discovered that these "fashion-plates" were none other than the seniors, decked out in their Sunday-best for the senior pictures.

The Spelman studios from Detroit has set up shop in the library. Here, operations were carried out by a photographer and his secretary.

The seniors ordered pictures ranging from wallet size to large frame size. The average amount spent was approximately $24, which will be paid on a basis similar to the installment plan.

New Teacher League Students Discuss Plans for College Night

Four Northville students, Bob Bake, Bernhard Mueller, Mary MacDermaid and Lillian Zinnecker, and Principal E. V. Ellison attended a League Conference of Schools last week at Walled Lake High school.

The purpose of the meeting was to plan and organize the program for College Night, November 8. Although Northville will be host, the event is to take place at Walled Lake because of more adequate facilities.

All Junior and Senior students from the Wayne-Oakland county league and their parents are invited to attend this program.

The main reason for College Night is to familiarize the students interested in attending college after graduation from high school. Twenty-six colleges in the state of Michigan will be represented at this time. The program will last from 8:00 until approximately 11.

After the meeting was over, Northville and Walled Lake had a closed discussion about details that had not been covered. Both schools agreed that students should compose a list of questions before coming. The reason was that the college representatives will not have time to answer questions that are of relatively little importance.

Mr. Hensch is a graduate of Wayne university, where he majored in education and obtained his degree in physical science. During the summer he took courses at Michigan State in driver training.

Before he started teaching in 1937, Mr. Hensch held various jobs, including foreman in an ice cream plant. He loves to drive and travel, but he likes Northville best.

He lives in Northville with his wife and daughter, Sharon, who is in the eighth grade. He also has a son, William, Jr.

Literature Classes Get New Approach

Miss Patricia Dorrain is using a new process of teaching ninth grade literature this year.

The process is simple; instead of confining all the students to a general ninth grade text book, she is using nine sets of four books each, plus several single copies. The books are on various levels so that each student is able to progress at his own speed in the book he can comprehend.

The question Miss Dorrain asks must be general ones. An example of the type of question is: "The process is simple; instead of confining all the students to a general ninth grade text book, she is using nine sets of four books each, plus several single copies. The books are on various levels so that each student is able to progress at his own speed in the book he can comprehend. The question Miss Dorrain asks

New Club Promotes Attendance

A new club—the 100 Per Cent Club—has been started by Assistant Principal Fred Stefanski.

Its purpose is to promote maximum attendance of students throughout the year. Members are not composed of individuals, but rather, homerooms.

To be eligible for membership, a homeroom must have a perfect attendance record for a full school day. A homeroom belongs to the club as long as it is able to hold a perfect attendance record.
