SPEAKING for the Record

By BILL SLIGER

Twenty heavy Northville fishermen travelled to Au Gres one evening last week for an all night smelt dipping trip.

Members of the party were: Charles Hall, Tom Pickler, Bob Torton, Leland Smith, Eugene Maloney, Harry Sedan, Jr., N. C. Schrader, III, Leonard Bogantius, Terry Junod, Walt Palmer, Otis Tewksbury, Roy, LeRoy, Kenneth, Martin and Jerry Stone, John McGuire, Sr. and Jr., Charles Altman and L. Jones.

John Roberson and his Michigan Week committee are hard at work planning seven days of activities from May 19 to 26. Mayor's Exchange day will be Monday and Millington's village president will be greeted at the city limits by the high school band, motorcycle and police escort.

One of Farmington country club briefly last Thursday evening for the sports banquet honoring professional Jimmy Johnson. Although formed just last summer, the club has a fine club house and pro shop facilities.

Northville's 25-member junior chamber of commerce makes up what it lacks in numbers by doing a bang-up job of the community projects it undertakes.

Formed last fall the group is headed by Fred Kester. Currently they are sponsoring a teenage driving road, helping the Michigan Week program and planning a golf tourney for boys 18 and under.

For Michigan Week the Jaycees hope to sell Michigan flags to merchants and residents. The 3'x5' type cost $5.75 and can be ordered through the junior chamber.

Incidentally, the Jaycees would like to have more members.

Little League baseball will definitely come to Novi this year, thanks to efforts of William Hanson, Jr. and Charles Trickey, Jr. Four teams will form the league and 15 boys, 12 years and younger, will make up each team.

Farming in the Plains

Babson Discusses The Western Drought Situation. A sound of rejoicing is today echoing across the western Great Plains. Mother Nature at long last has showered down copious rains and heavy snows upon wide areas of that drought-stricken region.

But—Is The Drought Broken? Farmers and businessmen living in the Great Plains naturally are rightly concerned as to whether these much-improved moisture conditions are a mere flash in the pan or the real thing.

I wish I could give them definite assurance that the worst is over. Perhaps it is. However, I am a statistician and not a weather forecaster—at least not a very good one.

On the other hand, the number of U.S. farms has declined 11 per cent since 1950 — from 5,479,250 to 4,878,021. Yet total farm area has not changed much since then.

Whether recurrent droughts will ever cease to plague the western Plains is a secret buried deep in Nature's crystal ball. Perhaps scientists some day will come up with something very constructive.

Michigan Out to Sell Itself to Tourists in 1957

AN AGGRESSIVE POLICY of stimulating Michigan's tourist business will get underway July 1. The new program, an active plan of selling Michigan to tourists, will replace the present system of state operated information offices in Detroit and Chicago.

"Vacation salesmen" are key figures in the program. Plans call for hiring two men to actively sell the state of Michigan vacations. Members of industry, labor groups, transportation and travel agencies, and all others who can enjoy or sell the state's tourist advantages are prime prospects.

"Instead of waiting for potential tourists to come to us, we will go to them," Furlong commented. "Experience has shown that the Chicago and Detroit offices don't reach all the people we consider prospects.

Some 45 per cent of the state's jobs have only an elementary education, Horton told a House Labor Committee. Studies show that approximately three-fourths have not completed high school.

Bill provided a vocational training program and a counselling service recommended by Horton are under consideration by the Legislature. The money to finance these programs, $850,000, would come from funds the federal government collected in taxes from Michigan for unemployment compensation.

BACK FROM BELGIUM, former ambassador Fred M. Alger, Jr. indicates he is still interested in Michigan politics and the Republican party. Alger left the state political scene in 1953 when he received an appointment to the Brussels post by President Eisenhower.

Trout officials have high hopes that the new plans will increase both the numbers of tourists and the length of Michigan's vacation season.

COLOR COMES TO THE voting booth. Ballots of many colors will adorn Michigan polls next year if final approval is given a house bill for changes in the state election code.

Ballots will be printed in a different color for each type of election. The house-approved color system lists white ballots for partisan races; blue for non-partisan candidates; red ones for Constitutional amendments and other state-wide issues; green for county proposals; buff ballots for local propositions.

Purpose of the varied colors is to provide uniformity and make the ballots easier to count, says Rep. Clarence Meggison (R-Charlevoix).

RETAINING OF JOBLESS workers is the brightest hope for easing Michigan's unemployment situation, says Director Max Horton of the State Employment Security Commission.

Some 45 per cent of the state's jobs have only an elementary education, Horton told a House Labor Committee. Studies show that approximately three-fourths have not completed high school.

Justice Balks over Clerical Fees

Salow to Be Permanent; Asks Terms

Glen Salow, Jr. was named permanent building - heating - electrical inspector for Novi township Monday night after requesting and apparently getting a host of specific benefits pertaining to the job.

The appointment was unanimous. Salow was given the job on a temporary basis last week after former inspector Cameron Lodge had resigned the previous week in the face of a board resolution to fire him.

Monday night's action was quiet compared to the storm which surrounded the district's dismissal of Yerkies last March shortly before he was defeated for re-nomination in the April primary.

MacDermid presented his ultimatum in a half-hour discussion before the township board at its meeting Monday night.

Novi Justice of the peace William MacDermid this week threatened to pull his court out of the township offices if the township board forces him to pay for clerical assistance by the township for past services.

MacDermid presented his ultimatum in a half-hour discussion before the township board at its meeting Monday night.

MacDermid made it clear Monday night that he did not go along with this ruling. To back up his stand, the justice pointed out: —if he conducts court from his home, it would possibly mean confusion for police and an inconvenience for driving offenders who wish to pay a ticket and be on their way.

FOOT-SAVING EDUCATION

WHY DO SHOES SMELL? (Continued from last week)
Last week we suggested checking on the fit of colorfast shoes. If that is not the answer, there are three other possible remedies.

This writer is not opposed to composition or rubber soles. They do last longer and thus save money for parents of young families at a time when saving money is more necessary than convenient. It has been my experience, however, that some children cause composition soled shoes to smell but not leather soled shoes. Secondly, some mothers have mentioned improvement when they use cotton socks and, finally, unlined shoes may be the answer.

Whatever the solution, the problem is well worth solving because school shoes are merciful in their comments.

Area Schools Face Shortage of Money

A lesson that most students learn in elementary arithmetic popped up to haunt 3,000 state school districts this week. Northville and Novi have plenty of company in a giant statewide financial squeeze that resulted from spending more state funds than are available.

The condition prompted Northville superintendent of schools Russell Amerman to recommend to the school board that $50,000 in local tax anticipation notes be sold to finance this year's operating budget. Amerman stated that with this money the Northville schools could meet current semester obligations.

Similar difficulties face Novi where Superintendent William Medlyn told the school board that the school districts are facing a shortage in sales tax funds. The anticipated $23,000 shortage from the state in June, but estimates are that this figure will be cut to $4,000.

The condition was brought about by a shortage in sales tax funds. The state's tax returns fell far short of the anticipated amount meaning that for the quarter ending in June most school districts would receive about one-fifth of their expected aid.

American, who said Northville was expecting about $20,000, now states that they are "not counting on anything." He added that a local tax delinquency of $100,000 left Northville at least $40,000 short this year.

"We can probably pay all our teachers on May 21, but unless more delinquencies are received they'll have to wait for their June 7 paychecks," Amerman stated.

Because the state aid funds have been depleted, school districts without enough money to complete current contracts and other operating expenses must borrow on next year's local taxes. Districts must hope that the state will meet its commitments. Otherwise, next year's school budgets must stand this week by superintendent Paul Pasquale Buoniconci.

Dr. Abruzzo was formerly affiliated with the Wayne County General Hospital as resident in psychiatric, senior physician in psychiatric and medical superintendent. He received his bachelor of science degree from Columbia university and his medical degree from Loyola university school of medicine in Chicago.

Dr. and Mrs. Lopez will live on the training school grounds with their eight children, four boys and four girls.

Parents of Northville children who will be eligible for kindergarten in Northville schools next fall have been asked to register their children at a special meeting next Monday.

The meeting will begin at 8 p.m. at Amerman school.

Headlines From The Northville Record

CITY, TRACK LAND ACCORD SEEN

Township to Pay Higher Rates to City For Fire Protection

Northville township will have to pay the city of Northville more money for fire protection from now on, but the exact figure is yet to be determined.

Indications this week were that the township would pay some $1,400 more this year than the $3,253 of last year.

The increased payment stems from a request by the city based on a re-evaluation of fire statistics which show that the township had 48 per cent of the fires handled by the Northville fire department last year.

Attorneys for the city and township will meet soon to discuss the plan, and it will be considered by city officials, called the adjustment of rates.

Clerk D. J. Stark and trustee Alex Lawrence, who met last week with city officials, called the adjustment "fair."

But attorney James Littell questioned several aspects of the cost analysis pertaining to depreciation and salaries. He said the township might not be responsible for a share of those categories.

Last year the township paid a total of $3,253 for fire protection—$1,454 for salaries and $1,827 for share of operating expenses.

Strive for Harmony In 'New Era' Beginning

A "new era" of mutual understanding and cooperation was launched Saturday afternoon by representatives of the city and township in a meeting held to correct growing grievances.

In a three-hour long session officials of the Driving Club, Downs and city resolved to set aside past differences and strike out on a new course of constructive planning.

The meeting resulted in these developments:

1. Virtual assurance by the city that the Downs will have access to two acres of land on River street for parking and ingress and egress to the track.

2. A promise by the Downs to abide by any stipulation for use of the property as outlined by the city, and a further agreement to erect a grove belt along River street and the Seven Mile cut-off to block barn areas from outside view.

3. A program of weekly conferences to be held between the city manager and John Carlo, Downs general manager, to correct any community-track problems.

4. The promise of a meeting between officials of the Wayne County Flood Commission, the track and the city to present a plan for preservation of the River Street property next to the track.

Council Names City Manager Assessor, Treasurer

A busy agenda was left unfinished Monday evening by city council members in a three-hour session.

After the slow start councilmen decided to meet again Tuesday night to review the pressing 1957-58 budget, they did manage, however, to take the following action:

Approve an amendment to a zoning ordinance adopted on April 9 by the city council to erect a dial exchange on North Center street.

Unanimously confirm the appointment of the city manager as city treasurer and city assessor.

Direct the city manager to appeal the Oakland county equalization factor by filing a protest with the clerk of Oakland county.

Before getting down to business on the agenda, councilmen heard a list of grievances from residents concerning the track. Most of the complaints came from Mrs. Don Stark and Mrs. Lloyd Phillips. Both were concerned with the proposed use of property on River street.

The council justified its April 9 action by stating that it acted only in a stop-gap manner to learn the details of the transaction. Residents stated that under existing zoning the erection of barns on the property and appeared before councilmen to urge passage of the resolution.

Delay Possible for Bond Issue

A recent legal opinion that could have an important effect on the sale of bonds for the proposed new Northville high school was put before the township board of education Monday night by attorney James Littell.

Now before the Michigan supreme court is the decision of a New York law firm that the Michigan bond program is unconstitutional. Since that opinion was rendered several weeks ago, no school bonds in Michigan have been sold.

If the supreme court declares the bond program unconstitutional, all bonds sold thus far will be invalid. If the program is found valid, however, the great number of bonds now being delayed because of this complication will be on hand on the market at the same time and may suffer from lack of bidders.

Littell said that a decision on the case is expected to be rendered within the next 60 days.

Taking action on salary matters, the board approved rates for the city.

Services Are Held For George Dixon

Services were held Monday for George H. Dixon of 461 Yerkes avenue, who died last Saturday at Aitchison Memorial hospital at the age of 75. He had been ill for some time.

Born in Cincinnati, Mr. Dixon had lived in Northville for 43 years. He had worked at Novi Equipment company until he retired in 1956. For the past 15 years, he had operated his own greenhouse on Yerkes avenue.

Parents Asked to Register Fall Kindergartners Monday

Parents of Northville children who will be eligible for kindergarten in Northville schools next fall have been asked to register their children at a special meeting next Monday.

The meeting will begin at 8 p.m. at Amerman school.

Parents also will hear a general discussion of school policies and procedures which concern incoming kindergarten children.

The discussion will cover such subjects as bus transportation, health facilities, physical exams and school programs and curricula.

Richard Kay, Amerman school principal, advised that fathers as well as mothers attend the meeting.

May also noted that children must be five years old by next December 1 to be eligible for kindergarten this fall. In addition, he reminded parents that a rig has been erected on the Green Valley Area site and that actual drilling should begin very soon.

The city council is anxious to find a greater water supply for the community and expects to drill in the future on D & R Hill, a conveyance property northwest of the city.

Another attempt to find water as city owned property in the Gerald avenue-dixie dam area is expected to get underway within a week, it is probable, said J. J. Roberts, city manager.

Area Schools Face Shortage of Money

A lesson that most students learn in elementary arithmetic popped up to haunt 3,000 state school districts this week. Northville and Novi have plenty of company in a giant statewide financial squeeze that resulted from spending more state funds than are available.

The condition prompted Northville superintendent of schools Russell Amerman to recommend to the school board that $50,000 in local tax anticipation notes be sold to finance this year's operating budget.

Similar difficulties face Novi where Superintendent William Medlyn told the school board that the school districts are facing a shortage in sales tax funds.

The anticipated $23,000 shortage from the state in June, but estimates are that this figure will be cut to $4,000.

Because the state aid funds have been depleted, school districts without enough money to complete current contracts and other operating expenses must borrow on next year's local taxes.

Districts must hope that the state will meet its commitments. Otherwise, next year's school budgets must stand this week by superintendent Paul Pasquale Buoniconci.

Dr. Abruzzo was formerly affiliated with the Wayne County General Hospital as resident in psychiatric, senior physician in psychiatric and medical superintendent.

Dr. and Mrs. Lopez will live on the training school grounds with their eight children, four boys and four girls.

Parents of Northville children who will be eligible for kindergarten in Northville schools next fall have been asked to register their children at a special meeting next Monday.

Motorcycle Mishap Fatal to Novi Man

Carroll B. Schardt, 22, of 4698 12 Mile road died Monday evening at the University of Michigan hospital as a result of injuries incurred in a motorcycle accident.

Schardt was thrown from the vehicle when he apparently attempted to stop suddenly to avoid running into an automobile. He suffered multiple injuries when the motorcycle fell on top of him.

The accident occurred at 6 p.m. Monday on 12 Mile road approximately one-half mile west of Novi road. Schardt died two and a half hours later.

Services will be held at 2 p.m. today (Thursday) from the Cedarline Funeral home in Northville. Reverend Peter Nieuwkoop of the First Baptist church will officiate.

Schardt was born in Detroit on September 16, 1934. He had lived at his present address for the past 12 years. He was employed by the Ford Motor company and was also a student at Wayne State university. He is survived by his wife, Susan; his mother, Viola, and father, Lawrence Schardt.

Darrel will be in Oakland Hills Memorial Gardens.

Services will be held at 2 p.m. today (Thursday) from the Cedarline Funeral home in Northville. Reverend Peter Nieuwkoop of the First Baptist church will officiate.

A Merry Midway in Northville

WALKIN' FISH POND - Kids couldn't believe that Russ Rolmer's outfit was as many pockets as it did. But there were - inside, outside, everywhere - and for little Mary Lorenz, one of them held a special surprise: a big, fat cigar of the candy-coated variety.

REPLACEMENT - P-TA president Harold Hartley was busy throughout the evening, and one of his jobs was seeing that all booths were manned - or womaned - at all times. Here he briefs Ardyce Atwood on the intricacies of the dart throw booth.

PRIZES FOR EVERYONE - Whatever their skill, almost anyone could and did win a prize at the carnival. Here, midway manager Ed Angove drops off a couple fuzzy creatures for winners at Fred Castor's booth. In all, the carnival raised nearly $1,700.

HUSMAN'S HOLIDAY - As chairman of the fair, George Clark was responsible for lining up all the activities, personnel, food and the hundreds of other details that went into it. Once it started, however, he couldn't resist taking time out to enjoy the fruits of his labor.

THE NOVI NEWS

SERVING A GROWING COMMUNITY

Thursday, May 9, 1957-9

For four happy hours last Friday night, three Main Street buildings were turned into a gay and colorful midway for the 1957 P-TA carnival.

Hundreds of Northville and Novi residents strolled through the throngs, stopping for a hot dog, buying cotton candy or taking a crack at the dart game.

When it was all over, carnival chairmen counted up the proceeds and found that nearly $1,700 - far more than last year's $1,200 - had been tallied for the benefit of Northville school children.

Carnival chairman George Clark and P-TA president Harold Hartley joined in thanking the scores of residents and organizations who helped put across the annual event.

"To the many individuals who donated... food items, we are deeply appreciative," they said. "We also recognize the countless hours spent in food preparation, as well as the time devoted by many persons to setting up and manning the large number of activities."

"The carnival was truly a community effort," they added. In all, 34 activities and food booths were on hand in the high school, Community building and Main Street school. Some 22 Northville organizations took part.

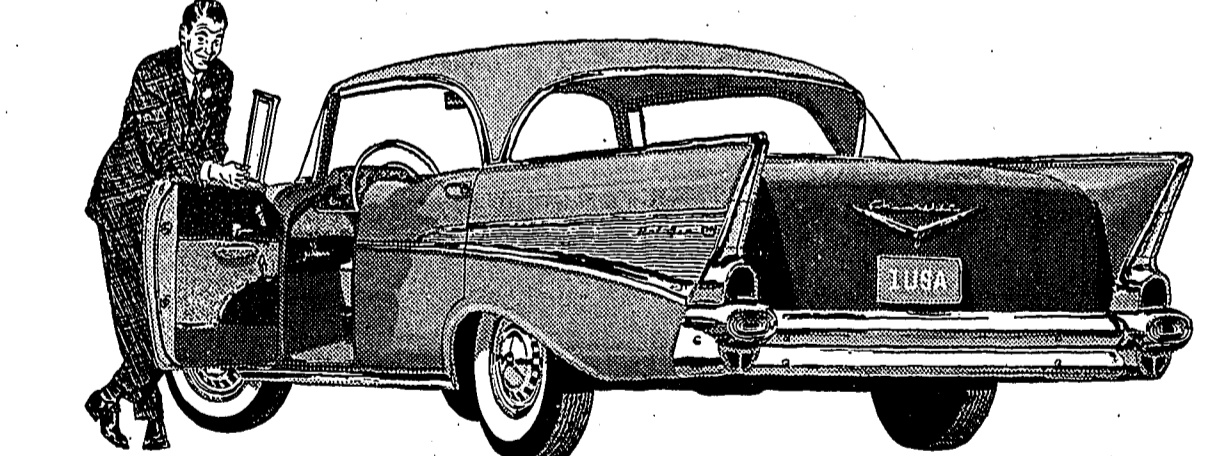

HAVE A BALLOON - Mary Severance (left) did a booming balloon business at the carnival Friday, as did all of the booth hawkers and concessionaires who helped put the annual affair across. Among her customers were Nancy Beard (center) and Connie Tegge.

TICKET-SELLER'S TIME OUT - Harry Solon enjoys a set cup of coffee to perk himself up for the hundreds of customers yet to come.

Little League Time Coming Up Fast

Everything is just about set for the Nov Little League to kick off its 1957 season.

The opening game is still a few weeks off, but already their "home stadium" behind Nov school is beginning to look like a baseball diamond.

What's more, sponsors are now acquiring uniforms and equipment for the four teams which make up the league.

Some 90 Nov boys will take part in the league. Those who do not make one of the four 10-player squads will participate in a junior or "minor league" program.

FUTURE LITTLE LEAGUERS in Novi townships have all eyes this week as their new diamond began taking shape. Located behind Novi school, it will be the scene of all Novi home game baseball this summer. Here, the Little Leaguers got the lowdown on the new diamond from L. L. Gronow, supervisor of the groundswork.

2 Top Colts to Vie In Pace Next Week

A renewal of the duel between Royal Ensign and Royal Melody will highlight the running of the $5,000 Wayne County Pace at Northville Downs next Wednesday.

The two colts are rated among the best in the state, with Royal Ensign winning 13 of 26 starts last year and Royal Melody taking 11 of 22 outings.

The race is for non-winners of $10,000 in 1956. It will go two dashes at one mile each.

The Wayne County Pace is the third of five stake races scheduled by the Downs this year. The next is the Waverline Trot on May 22, Royal Ensign and Royal Melody meet earlier this season in the $5,000 Northville Pace.

Others so far have been the $5,000 Northville Pace on May 1 and the $5,000 Northville Trot last night.

Track, Golf Teams to Vie In Regional Trials Soon

Tournament time is at hand for Northville athletes, with two Mustang squads scheduled to participate in regional trials this week and Monday and West Bloomfield on Thursday.

In addition to its regional tournament, the Mustang golf team will engage in a total of seven contests in three sports during the coming week as the spring sports schedule continues to be heavy.

The Mustang golf team under coach Merritt Meeker faces its regional tournament tomorrow, while coach Charles Yahnke's track team undergoes a regional meet Saturday.

That's only the start, however. The cinder squad is also looking to the state track meet on May 18 and the Wayne-Oakland league championships three days later. In addition, coach Ron Schipper's tennis team will have its regional event a week from tomorrow.

Only coach Al Jones' baseball team does not face a tournament. The Mustang nine will not face a championship series this year, since post-season playoffs have been cancelled by league officials.

"... and we are whole again!"
 In this vast world of people, it is easy to fall into the idea that God is not concerned with insignificant men! We are used to being with crowds of people, and often enjoy the anonymity as a means of respite from responsibilities. All too often we seek to remain in that condition of life and forget that we are individuals with duties to perform, and contributions to make. This, of course, is the Christ of everyday. Someone needs help—someone needs encouragement—someone needs healing—someone is in the throes of a decision. He is ever near, even though we be but one of millions to perceive "Someone touched me!" Here, then, is the invitation from the Master to walk by His side day by day, to gain strength, faith, understanding and guidance and His spirit, because He does care about us as individuals, we can sing and say:
 "use touch Him in life's throes and press and we are whole again!"

Readers Speak Up: MARCH OF DIMES SAYS "THANKS"

Dear Sirs:
 It is my pleasure to send to you the enclosed Certificate of Appreciation for the excellent job you have done for polio victims on behalf of the Oakland County chapter. You will be happy to know that with your help we have raised over $14,000, which exceeded our expectations.
 I am proud of the workers in our county. There is every indication that they are determined to carry on the fight against polio, first, by raising the money to care well for those who have been victims of the disease and secondly, by helping to carry out the vaccine program which if well done, will entirely eliminate the cause of polio.
 My hearty thanks to you for your cooperation and concern.

Fix Up Your Garden Area And Enjoy Outdoor Living

Have you thought about moving this summer? Moving outdoors. Your own garden living area can be developed at just a fraction of the cost of roofed-in space.
 You yourself can plan how best to utilize your own garden space, although a landscape architect will work wonders with a bare and uninteresting site.
 Think first of the several basic things you can do to your garden to make it more livable and to provide an exciting setting for your leisure hours. Think of what you can do with fences, with screening walls of wood, with louvered break screens, with raised decks for cleaner outdoor living, and with a variety of roof sections, arbors, canopy sun screens.
 You don't have to go whole-hog the first year. You can start humbly and expand each year as you get the money.

Give Your Home A Face-Washing To Remove Chalk
 Wash your home's face with the bright and clean appearance of its painted wood walls, advises T. K. May, home maintenance authority of the West Coast Lumbermen's Association.
 "You will notice upon close examination," he said, "that your paint is chalking and this chalking substance when mixed with coal and oil smoke gives your home a grimy look this time of year."
 The chalking is a natural and desirable action of any painted woodwork exposed to the air, May observed.
 To wash down your home's walls, May said, get dome stiff brushes and use a mild detergent. After you have brushed in the detergent, you can wash down the walls with a garden hose. You wash off the chalk mixed with grime and your walls are bright and clean again. May explained that chalking is a gradual wearing away of the paint, which is most desirable, for after a few years a new coat of paint is called for and the old coat will have worn down by this chalking process until it is just right as an undercoat.
 A MISTAKE IS SOMETHING WE MADE THAT OTHER PEOPLE ALWAYS KNOW ABOUT BEFORE WE DO
 Are you tired of see-sawing fall, winter and spring temperatures in your house? Insulate and you'll enjoy more even temperatures, plus savings. Do it now and have a cooler home the rest of the warm weather.

Local Areas Reflect Building Lag

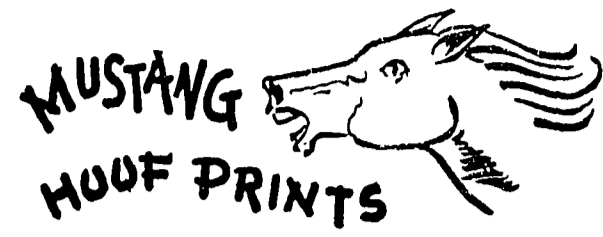

Building in the Detroit area as a whole was down more than 40 per cent in the first quarter of this year—a trend that was fairly well borne out in Northville, Northville township and Novi township.
 According to figures released this week by the Detroit Metropolitan Area Regional Planning Commission, the first three months of 1957 were 41 per cent slower than the same period last year.
 The commission's figure, covering Wayne, Oakland, Macomb and part of Livingston counties, show that the area had only 4,939 permits for new construction in the first quarter of 1957, in Northville and the two townships, building also was down—although the city got a shot in the arm from the new Our Lady of Victory church which is now being constructed.
 In Northville, only four permits were issued. In Northville township, there was a single permit. And in Novi, only eight new buildings were scheduled—as compared to 29 in the same period last year.
 The commission's report shows that several of last year's leading communities have slipped badly.

News of Northville High School

FTA Members Attend Meeting

The Northville high school chapter of the Michigan Future Teachers of America recently sent two delegates and their sponsor to a conference at the Michigan Education Association camp near Battle Creek.

Roseanne Perrault, Bonnie Burham and sponsor Mrs. George Bradford were the delegates sent from the Northville club to the meeting held from Friday, April 26 to Sunday, April 28.

The conference is an annual get-together to discuss the past year's activities and to elect officers. Special meetings and general assemblies were held to talk over these issues.

The time, however, wasn't all spent in business meetings. Delegates were treated to a dinner, and after the evening's meetings, mixers were held so that all could become better acquainted. The second evening, each cabin group cooperated in producing a skit, presented at a special assembly.

Attending the conference were students from about 70 schools and colleges.

Senior Trip Poses Question: What Do I Have to Wear?

The age-old feminine question — "What shall I wear?" — has become quite common among the senior girls these days.

They'll leave Saturday for the annual senior trip to Washington, and have been wondering about traveling clothes.

To clear up some of the confusion, senior class sponsor Mrs. Rosella Lee called a special meeting and Mrs. Marlene Weiss Harrington, a former NHS student, among their selections were "Serenade" and the "Unfinished Symphony".

Janice Howarth, Judy Leavenworth and James Cowie, student directors, led the junior band in the overture to "William Tell," and "The Barber of Seville".

Bands Combine For Spring Concert

The junior and senior high school bands combined forces last week to provide an evening of varied numbers at a spring concert in the Community building.

The senior band was led alternately by Leslie Lee, Bob Williams and Mrs. Marlene Weiss Harrington, a former NHS student. Among their selections were "Serenade" and the "Unfinished Symphony".

Janice Howarth, Judy Leavenworth and James Cowie, student directors, led the junior band in the overture to "William Tell," and "The Barber of Seville".

Men and Women In Uniform

The senior band was led alternately by Leslie Lee, Bob Williams and Mrs. Marlene Weiss Harrington, a former NHS student. Among their selections were "Serenade" and the "Unfinished Symphony".

Janice Howarth, Judy Leavenworth and James Cowie, student directors, led the junior band in the overture to "William Tell," and "The Barber of Seville".

MOSAICS for the school art exhibit were being completed last week by high school students Joan Lawer, Tom Andrews and Aubrey King. The exhibit will be held in the Community building next Thursday evening, a joint project of the home economics classes, shop classes, elementary school art department and the high school art classes.

Student Council Concerned About Noon Hour Driving

Concern has been growing among members of the Northville high school student council about the driving of students during the noon hour.

Driver training teachers Mr. Jones and Mr. Hensch, the police department and the Northville Modified Auto club conferred with the student council as to the danger in careless driving.

The teachers advised the council to seek suggestions from other high schools as to their method of promoting safe driving among teenagers. The Northville police department also offered its complete cooperation.

The Modified Auto club has prepared its own charter of strict driving rules to encourage safety on the roads. Copies of this charter were given to each student council representative so that they might present it to the NHS student body, requesting that students abide by these rules.

SPEAKING for the Record

Monday night's city council session was held before one of the largest audiences we've ever seen locally. Every seat was taken and very little standing room remained.

The reason wasn't because there was anything particularly controversial on the agenda, however. Most of the observers were high school history students seeing firsthand how government works.

We don't know how long this has been going on in Northville schools, but it's a great idea and one that other communities should follow.

Now, if someone could just think of a way to require every adult to attend sessions occasionally the whole country would be better off. Wider interest and understanding of local government problems would most certainly result in improved state and national government.

Rev. John Taxis says he isn't worried about our younger generation anymore. After attending a two-day Youth Fellowship session in Midland recently with 400 teenagers from all over the state, he's convinced our future's in good hands. The event is an annual affair conducted by the teenagers with adult guidance. The purpose is to interest more youths in leading a Christian life.

Recently we drove out to Willowbrook Village to try to find some youngsters playing baseball for a spring vacation picture. It was a nice day but it seemed that the kids were doing everything but playing ball.

At one yard we noticed a young mother with several children. It looked like an excellent opportunity to stage the picture so we stepped out car and started to say: "Pardon me, madam, would you..."

"That's as far as we go. Her answer came like a bolt... 'don't bother me now, I've got a crying baby, broken bottles in the driveway and a roast in the oven.'"

With that she disappeared into the house with her brood. The complicated equalization factor has Northville city fathers worried. Its complexities catch headlines for all communities but especially in Northville with city residents living in two countries. Northville residents living in Oakwood subdivision are the worst hit. City Manager John Robertson and Sid Frid, Oakland county supervisor from the city of Northville, have put in many hours of work on a solution with little luck so far. One fear: future growth of the city to the north.

After a particularly trying council session recently, Mayor Ely "rocked" the councilman with the latest pep expression. "I'm all shook up," said the tired mayor.

Roger Babson Modern Farming

Babson Park, Mass.—Many farmers write to me complaining about the cost-price squeeze. They are discouraged because for them the bottom seems to have fallen out of the farm market. I sympathize with these people, but I suspect that many of them have come upon hard times because they are not farming as well as they know how. Also, many of them are not keeping abreast of new ideas and new crops.

Research Holds The Answer Research has performed wonders for all other industries. It forecasts what it will do for farmers for agriculture. Chemistry, industry and agriculture, working together, gave us hybrid corn and varieties of the soybean which would grow in our country. This combination sponsored the research that produced a new dwarf variety of corn called the "tall pop" which yields as much as 2,700 pounds per acre if the soil is properly irrigated and fertilized with nitrogen. Also, a new combine harvester-huller has been developed which will gather tall or short cobs, thresh without waste. I predict a profitable future for cornbreeds, with output reaching as high as 100,000 crop acres.

A stimulating flow of new research ideas has emerged from the recent annual Chemurgy Conference of the Council for Agricultural and Chemical Research. This organization and others like it are facing up to the real farm problem, which is not over-production but under-utilization and waste. Industrial Uses for Farm Products We should be proud of the progress agriculture has made in our country. But there is still much to learn about soils, irrigation and weather. Crops such as carborane and sesame seed will become big business before long and I forecast that other big new cash crops are coming. But I want now to call special attention to the need for putting more farm products and residues to work in industry.

President Eisenhower is alert to this need. Some months ago, he appointed a Commission on Increased Industrial Use of Agricultural Products. Its report should be made public within the next month. I urge farmers to study it carefully and to follow it up with action. Over the long haul, I am bullish about farming in this country.

Over-Production Is A Temporary Problem Right now farmers are the victims of their own unusual ability to coax record yields-per-acre from their soil. Better seed, improved fertilization and irrigation, and more efficient spreading, cultivating and harvesting machinery have increased farm production during the past month. Farmers rose magnificently to the challenge to provide food and feed for our allies, and now they are temporarily in trouble.

Future of Agriculture At present we are growing at least 5 per cent more farm products than we can sell. In an effort to keep our farm surpluses from becoming too burdensome, the government spends huge sums on price support programs, the soil bank, and foreign distribution schemes. All these measures have helped to some extent, but they are no means cure-alls. I am disturbed by the fact that too many farmers take undue advantage of this government help by deliberately over-

Michigan Mirror Williams, Legislature Battle Over Budget

THIS YEAR'S BATTLE over the budget may well benefit the people of the state. On the one hand is the governor with requests for increased appropriations. He is asking more than $400 million. In his opinion this is the amount required to perform services desired by Michigan residents.

On the other hand is the legislature under Republican control. GOP leaders look at the budget differently. They try to figure how much money will be forthcoming from present state taxes and to allocate this money wisely among the various administrative departments.

Administrative agencies can be expected to believe that they must have more funds to provide services. It is human nature for each department head to want to do his best job. More money produces more services. The GOP controlled legislature feels the Michigan tax burden should not be increased. The only alternative is to limit spending.

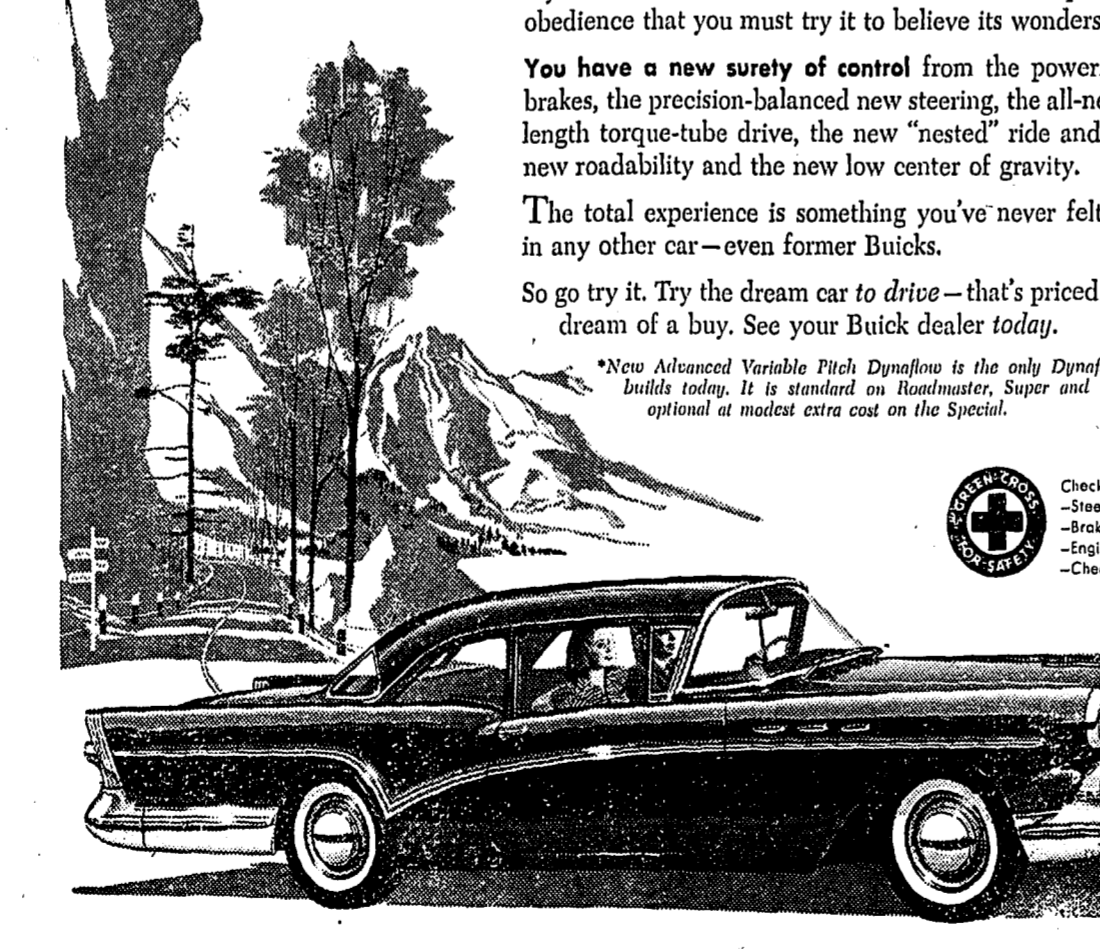

Legislators sincerely believe that many of the departmental requests contain unnecessary expenditures. It takes sharp eyes to pick out all the items that add costs but provide few benefits.

3. Taxes proposed by the government would fall directly on business groups, one of the chief supporters.

TAKING NO CHANCES, V. G. Dean, 4489 Grand River, slips a five-foot blue racer back into the cage with which he and his son, Don (right), caught the snake and its mate last week. But when Hartley Thornton, a Bay Reptile nature instructor, came out to pick up the snake, he assumed the Deans by letting the ferocious snake nibble on his finger—proof that blue racers are not poisonous. "In fact," said Thornton, "they're like tearing up a $50 bill when a farmer kills a snake—for they feed on rodents and keep a farm free of pests than a human eye could hope for."
