Or would it be better for each community to go it alone, with Northville expanding its school system sufficiently to take Novi pupils on a tuition basis until Novi grows enough to support its own school system from kindergarten through high school?

The homes, which will be located on both sides of Ten Mile Rd., will be of contemporary design similar to the houses which

The Northville district is in the unenviable position of being almost 100% residential, with the additional disadvantage of having several tax free institutions owning large areas of land. These include the House of Correction, the Michigan State hospital, Maybury Sanatorium and the Wayne County Training school. Just within its present boundaries it faces a growth in school population in the next 10 years ranging from a "probable" 83% to a "possible" 140%.

(The 83% figure was presented to the Citizens' School Study Group last Wednesday evening by Robert Shafer, chairman of the group's sub-committee on population trends. It would mean 1382 elementary and 1012 junior and senior high students by 1965 living in the present Northville district alone, Shafer said. number of new dwellings that will be constructed in the present Northville School District during the coming 10 years. The committee has also estimated, based upon its present knowledge of subdividing plans in various areas, how many children there will be per dwelling in each of the eight areas into which the district has been arbitrarily divided. By multiplying the "guessmate" of the number of children per family by the prospective number of new dwellings, and subtracting the probable number of children who will be under five years or age, it arrived at the projected "probable" increase of 2400 in the number of school pupils. fense wardens said, "When the bombs start falling sing hymns.' There is no question but what the hymns of the church have been com encouraging to

Christians in the hour of danger and trial. However, to those who have not become ac quainted with the God and Saviour of whom the hymns speak may find that it takes more than even a Christian song to still their fears and fit their souls for heaven, should a bomb fall too close. It's not the song, it's the Christ of the song that we need every hour Why wait until the bombs fall become acquainted with Him? Recently a church dis-played the following sign, "When the bombs start falling, this church will be open for prayer, but it may be too late then. Better come next Sunday." Surely you will find as housands of others that Christianity is as good to "live with" as it is to "die with". II Cor, 6:2 "For he saith, 1 have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succoured thee behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation."
