There were also thirty-veiled threats to revoke the PTA charter. With the exceptions of Clark and Mrs. Wagenschutz who politely agreed to consider all problems, the board treated the PTA with contempt, arrogance and seemed to have the attitude that if they remained silent this "unatter should be the children."

To the problems raised I offer the following hypotheses as a seemed to have the attitude that if they remained silent this "upstart PTA" will quiet down and the "good old village-type PTA" will return. Their attitude reminds one of the late Harry Hopkins who said, "The people are the damp dumb to know wheth."

Three Players Ousted For Fouls; Pethers Leads With 28 Points

By Bob Montgomery

Friday night saw the Mustangs of Northville upset the quintet from Milford in a fine display of basketball. The game was watched by an over-capacity crowd with spectators standing at each end of the court and in the doorways. Fans were even being refused admittance because there was no standing room. (I should know. I watched the first half from the main corridor).

This was the tenth match all the way through...each club wanted a victory.
