AMVETS Parade As 'Spirit of '76'

Three Novi AMVETS will take up rifle, drum and blood-stained bandage and appear as "The Spirit of '76" in the annual state AMVETS convention in Detroit this week end.

Commander Bob Gately, Gordon Hayes and Stan Balon will portray the famous threesome in a spectacular parade down Woodward avenue Saturday afternoon.

The three and Charles Trickey, Jr. will represent the Novi post and are expected to support district commander Fred Solomon for state finance officer and Anthony Rone for state judge advocate.

Mosquito Control Plan Discarded In Willowbrook

A proposed plan for mosquito-control in Willowbrook Village has been dropped because of an apparent lack of public interest.

The plan, devised after several months of study and planning for the Willowbrook area, was to be presented to the village board.

Some 240 questionnaires were sent out, asking residents if they favored the plan and would contribute a small amount to it. Only 66 replies were received, of which 54 favored the plan.

Despite the 61 support of the plan, Willowbrook officials felt the public apathy would not warrant further action.

Board, JP's to Meet On Clerical Matter

To pay or not to pay — that is the question which will face Novi's two justices of the peace in several weeks.

The Novi Township board agreed Monday night to invite the two justices to the next board meeting in an effort to end the long-smoldering dispute over clerical help and office space provided by the township.

But before agreeing to consult with the justices, the discussion had reached the point of a motion to charge the justices $10 a month for the facilities.

The fee, suggested by treasurer Ray Harrison, was amended to $30 by justice Stan Balon — who later suggested that a percentage of the justices' collection might be an even better standard to follow.

But the motion was withdrawn following township attorney Anthony Renee suggested meeting with the justices to seek their opinion.

Justice William Macdonald has filed several such charges in the past, threatening to hold court in his home if a fee is levied for using the township hall. Robert Anderson, who will be sworn in as Novi's second justice this week, has not taken such the fee so far.

The discussion Monday saw a rehashing of the pros and cons of the question, which first arose last winter when former treasurer Charles Trickey Jr. challenged the township's right to provide free service to former justice Edmund P. York.

Those who favor the fee claim that the township should not be a clerk and should either pay the township or reimburse the township for services of the township recipients.

Those who oppose it claim that the court should be held in the township hall as a public convenience, and that the justices do not make enough money to justify reimbursement charges.

Renee, asked if he would be willing to pay for secretarial help, said he would be "willing to die" to pay $10 or a little more, but he would not like to have a place to hold court.

But he cautioned the board not to set the rates so high that it would drive the justices into their homes. For efficient coordination of the police and justice functions, the two should both be in the township hall, he said.

Supervisor Frazer Staman agreed that "justice court shouldn't be held in someone's kitchen."

In other business, the board: — agreed to update specifications and seek bids for improving the township building and rewiring the township park. — heard revised fees for use of the township dump by other communities. — asked Renee to check on the possibility of a noise ordinance to curb several cases of excessive noise reported to Novi police. — asked police chief Lee Beckole about the thoroughness of his case reports, and checked into enforcement of no-parking regulations near Walpole park. — turned down, on grounds that they will soon lose jurisdiction, a request for approval of a liquor license in Wixom.

$30-$40 Stolen From Novi School Tuesday Morning

Police today are looking for a burglar who broke into Novi school city Tuesday morning and stole between $30 and $40 in petty cash. They reportedly have a "reliable" lead.

The break-in occurred, they believe, between 1 and 2 a.m. Tuesday. It was discovered later that morning by superintendent William Medlyn.

Police said the burglar entered the school after jimmieing a window in the north annex. After failing to force open the office door, the thief apparently took a heavy wrench and broke a thick glass pane to enter the office.

The office was not rifled, and there were no signs of vandalism. The burglar evidently went straight to the petty cash box, a metal cabinet made of a roll-up check of the building several hours before the break-in and found nothing.

State police joined Novi police in the investigation. The building was examined Tuesday and fingerprint notices made for a routine check of the building several hours before the break-in and found nothing.

Novi school was last broken into some five or six years ago, Medlyn said. Little was taken at that time.

School Bond Issue OK'd, But Election Challenged

Plans for a new elementary school in Novi faced an unexpected hurdle this week as a township resident suddenly challenged the election last week in which funds for the building were overwhelmingly approved.

The action already has gone before the state superintendent of public instruction Lynn Bartlett.

The $205,000 bond issue was approved last Wednesday by nearly 260-77 in favor of it. The issue would provide funds for an elementary school near Willowbrook Village, improvements of the existing school, and sites for future buildings.

Koester began the process of challenging the election immediately. By Monday, he said, he had written the Novi school board, its attorney, its bonding attorney, and incoming state superintendent of public instruction Lynn Bartlett.

Novi superintendent William Medlyn said Medlyn had not seen the charges and could make no reply to them.

In particular, Koester challenged the election on three alleged irregularities —

— that it was not advertised eight days in advance as he said, is required by law. "And if it is not — that some voters may not actually have been taxpayers in the school district."

He said he will ask the bonding attorney to approve a bond sale yet, and will demand a recount of the ballots and a comparison of them with assessment rolls.

Koester, who is president of the Novi Township Democratic Club, emphasized that he is acting as a private citizen and not as an officer of the club. He admitted that some club members are opposed to his action.

"I'll probably be unpopular with some people for doing this," he said. "But I believe I'm right and I'm going ahead with it."

In addition to challenging the election, Koester attacked the idea of building a school in this time — especially near Willowbrook.

"There is no need for a school today," he said. "And if a need should develop in the next few years, there is always the possibility of going on half-days for schools."

"When a school is needed," he added, "it is a high school in Novi. And what's more, when the need for an elementary school does come along, we'll find that it should be near the Lincoln plant — not near Willowbrook."

"We shouldn't be spending a good amount of money on a school now," he concluded, "and run the risk of having to pay for another new one in a couple years."

Though Medlyn is disinclined to comment on the charges themselves, he said he is fearful that Koester's action may mean a delay in building the school.

"Even if another election is called, it would almost certainly be approved again," he said. "The only result would be a lack of classrooms when we need them."

Medlyn said the school board followed the letter of the law.

Medlyn in the past has consistently maintained that a new school is needed and has cited figures showing that Novi will be short one classroom by next year. The shortage will increase by 90 students the following year and by another 90 the next year, the figures show.

The 14-room Willowbrook school would accommodate 420 students in what has been termed Novi's fastest growing area. Construction would have started this fall, with a target completion date set for next fall.

Missing Tots Found 'in the Pink'

The pinkness wasn't limited to them. It was everywhere — on the walls, on the floor, on a bicycle, a swimming pool, a garbage can, an ironer, toys, and on garden tools.

As they told their parents, they were trapped in the garage when a breeze blew the door shut. And rather than waste time, they had decided to try their artistic handiwork for fun.

Three tots were reported missing shortly after noon, and routine checks with neighbors had failed to locate them.

Then, suddenly realizing the full impact of the disappearance, Willowbrook police called — from Novi, from Commerce, from state police posts.

Neighborhood men combed the fields, and went on a door-to-door search. Farmers on horseback rode out into the woods nearby. A sandlot ballgame was called off while the players joined in the hunt.

In the back of everyone's mind was one dread possibility, that the three toddlers may have gone too close to a drainage ditch or to a nearby "bottomless" well — both of which have come under constant attack from Willowbrook parents in the past.

Then, hours after the search started, it stopped — abruptly.

Several neighborhood children had heard giggles coming from a garage. They called the searchers.

'100' Ready to Go

The Northville '100' — first auto race of Northville Downs in more than a decade — is expected to draw upwards of 10,000 fans tomorrow evening.

The 100-lap race for new stock cars will feature qualification runs, a three-lap trophy dash, a narrow event, and a consolation race. The 100-lap race will be held in the presence of Betty Wilson, "Miss Northville Speedway."

Some 30 of the Midwest's top drivers will participate. Tickets are on sale at Northville Downs.

Then, Mr. and Mrs. George Ames, 41005 Mooringside, and Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Barnes, 41025 Mooringside, bundled up their little daughter and took them home for a good old-fashioned lesson in white paint and when not to paint.

As for the school building, Koester's action may mean a delay in building the school.

"Even if another election is called, it would almost certainly be approved again," he said. "The only result would be a lack of classrooms when we need them."

Medlyn said the school board followed the letter of the law.

NO HEAVEN ON EARTH

Christianity was not designed to make a heaven out of this earth. Its main emphasis throughout is the present life. It is the preparation of individuals for the life which is to come.

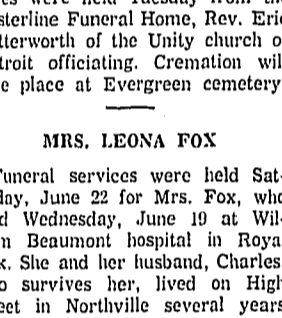

The present purport of God are made of 11 1/2 in A.E.S. 15:14 which reads: "How God at the first did visit the Gentiles to take out of them a people for his name."

His saving and sanctifying work He is fitting a people for the place called heaven. Surely the effects of their changed life is merely that by which they are fit to receive the gift of heaven.

Christians shall always be the salt of the earth, acting as an anti-corruption which retards the decay of sin, but which shall never cleanse and purify this earth so that it shall be a heaven on earth. Now all of this is so contrary to the idea of a heaven on earth, that it is almost a miracle that it is so.

Man's relation to man, and not man's relation to God. They have forgotten that man's responsibility is to God as outlined in the first commandment. Christians are the Abraham who looked for a city which hath foundations whose builder and maker is God.

The drive covers the townships of Novi, Addison, Commerce, Farmington, Groveland, Holly, Huron Valley, Lusk, Rose and Wyandott.

The 1957 Torch Drive headquarters will be located in Milford. The office will open in September.

Lindstrom called for a record number of solicitors to help insure a successful Torch Drive, which opens on October 15 and ends November 7.

When it came time for hours, the members of Perry Kenner Post 76 were right up to the top.

Duane Bell took the annual trophy for the outstanding service office, and the post was out of four members when the trophy was presented.

DON'T ACCENTUATE LOW CEILINGS . . . by having large expanses of plain vaulted walls in a low-ceilinged room — or by using high massive furniture that will crowd the ceiling and make it appear lower than it really is. Avoid using too much furniture, and too many fussy accessories. Use tried-and-true decorative tricks, too.

MAKE CEILING APPEAR HIGHER . . . by painting it several shades lighter than the walls . . . then hanging groups of eye-catching pictures lower than you would ordinarily. Low, sprawling modern chairs and sofas are excellent in low-ceilinged rooms. Solid color walls are best, but stripes (up-and-down) and plaid wallpaper will make good ceiling heighteners.

Lamp tables of just the proper height for casting light on reading, work or games are one of the most important factors in living room comfort. Our new selection includes several styles in light and dark finishes. Most be seen to be really appreciated. Budget prices start at Each $19.95.

A collector of recipes, Mrs. Philip Ogilvie finds this one for "Spicy Apricot Bread" one of her favorites. And friends will testify that she's called on whenever there's a show-er or luncheon to make this tangy necessary.

"It goes together very easily — all in one pan," she remarked. And its appetite tempting value is obvious when one sees the Ogilvie children, Janet and Gary, come back for more.

Spicy Apricot Bread 1 1/2 cups dried apricots 1 cup water 1 cup sugar 8 tablespoons shortening 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon 1/2 teaspoon cloves 1/2 teaspoon nutmeg 1/2 teaspoon salt 2 cups all purpose flour 1 teaspoon baking soda 1 egg, well beaten

Cut apricots in small pieces with sharp knife or cutters. Put in saucepan with water, sugar, shortening, cinnamon, cloves, nutmeg and salt. Bring to boil and cook over medium heat for 5 minutes, stirring occasionally. Cool.

Meanwhile, sift flour, measure and sift again with soda. Blend egg with apricot mixture. Gradually stir in flour mixture until just blended. Pour into two small loaf pans, 4" x 7 1/2" x 2" deep. Bake in moderate oven, 350 degrees, for about 30 minutes. Cool five minutes before removing from pans.

See actual road-test proof! DODGE TRUCKS most powerful of low-priced 3

Dodge takes an early lead and at 30 m.p.h. is widening the gap. Truck "C" and truck "F" are straining to deliver their peak performance. But that Dodge 204-hp. V-8 keeps gaining easily. Its added power means less wear, fewer repairs, too.

In just one quarter mile Dodge is five lengths ahead of truck "C", seven lengths out front of truck "F". And this is but one of a complete series of actual road tests that prove Dodge the outstanding value of the low-priced three.

And it's good news both times. Good news every six months in the form of checks mailed to you in payment of the 2 1/2% annual interest your money earns with NBD Savings Certificates. In fact, the good news begins the very day you deposit your savings in a Savings Certificate, for that's the day your 2 1/2% earnings begin. The Rev. Peter Nieuwenhuis, Pastor First Baptist Church, Northville

Appalling Indifference
Do you know who the Civil Defense chairman of Northville is? Do you know if Northville has an active, organized civil defense organization? These have been made by the city commission in case of disaster? The dangers of disaster by air attack is always imminent. The possibility of wholesale destruction of life and property by hurricanes is well known to us. But, what do we do about it? Little, or nothing!

Everywhere, even in our most important industrial cities such as Detroit, the public indifference has baffled the civil defense authorities. They have difficulty in convincing people that, "It can happen here." The CDA is using every medium of publicity available to them to arouse the indifferent public to the dangers they face. The action we take may well determine whether we shall live or die serious matter isn't it?

But, believe it or not, there is a greater danger than air attack or hurricanes. These may take your earthly life, but what about life in eternity? The Bible tells us plainly that it is appointed unto man once to die and after this the Judgment. Justice demands that those who are guilty of breaking the laws of God be barred from heaven and be separated from God for all eternity. Through the ages there have been ministers who fearlessly have declared, on the authority of the Word of God, that there is a heaven to gain and a hell to shun. And, what sort of reception does this warning receive? The indifference to that warning is even more appalling than the indifference to the present dangers. In our own community I doubt whether 25 percent of our population attend church regularly. What percentage of this 25 percent have made peace with God through Jesus Christ I have no way of knowing. If we were to question the remaining 75 percent to their belief in life after death, about the bliss of heaven and the torments of hell, the vast majority would say, "Yes, I believe this to be true!" But what do they do about it?

Somehow people have become foolhardy optimists to their own sorrow and destruction. They think, "Everything will turn out alright in the end, so why worry?" Did everything turn out alright for those hundreds who died during the recent storm in the south-west? Did everything turn out alright for those who are now in the place of eternal night and despair?

May God strike us from our unrealistic optimism that we may face the facts as they really are.

Full Salvation Union Chapel Completed

The Rev. James F. Andrews, general pastor of the Full Salvation Union, announces the completion of its headquarters chapel at 5120 West 8 1/2 Mile Road, about 3 1/2 miles west of Northville.
The new chapel is to be used for the first time in connection with the annual Full Salvation Union general gathering to be held June 30 to July 7. There will be three sessions held each day at 11:00 a.m., 2:00 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. The public is cordially invited to these services.
On July 4 at 11:00 a.m., the Lloyd H. Green Post of the American Legion in Northville will present a flag for the new chapel and several ministers will speak.
The Full Salvation Union is incorporated as a Michigan Corporation on January 31, 1934 for the purpose of carrying on without profit, religious, educational and charitable work. It's general aim and purpose, Rev. Andrews explains, is the unification of the Body of Christ in harmony with the prayer of Jesus in the 17th chapter of John where He prayed three times, "That they all may be one." "That they all may be one" is a Divine experience in conscious realization that must be experienced to be known. Such reality is the same in all religious faiths. But all who experience such understanding that which they experience in harmony with the way it is understood in their particular environment. Out of these different understandings doctrinal concepts and religious practices are developed that often divide and separate those who have experienced the same reality because it is true that every man's way seems right in his own eyes. The Full Salvation Union is dedicated to the task of "endeavoring to keep the unity of the spirit in the bond of peace until we ALL come to the unity of the faith."
Since 1935 Rev. Andrews has edited the Full Salvation Union publication called the Union Guide, a sample copy of which can be had free by anyone who asks for it.

DON'T BUY ANY CAR BEFORE YOU DRIVE A CHEVY... ITS BEST SHOWROOM IS THE ROAD.
Beauty in motion—Chevrolet Del Air Sport Sedan with Body by Fisher.

Because Chevrolet's sleek good looks, its advanced features, are only part of the story. The big bonus is its remarkable roadability, the crisp precision handling that has posted an entirely new standard for cars in every price class. There are reasons for this, of course. Chevrolet's balanced weight distribution that takes excessive loads off the front wheels, the wide stance of outrigger rear springs, Ball-Race steering, spherical-joint front suspension. Sure, you can admire the sculptured lines in the showroom. But Chevy's a car specifically designed for beautiful motion—you have to feel in this one to know just how terrific it is. Try it, this week!

Top Drivers Eye '100' Positions

Drivers from at least six mid-western states will compete in the first annual Northville '100' at Northville Downs tomorrow night.

Upwards of 30 of them are expected to make qualification runs for the 24 starting positions in the 100-lap feature.
So far, entrants include drivers from Michigan, Ohio, Illinois, Indiana, Pennsylvania and Arizona. Many of them took part in the recent 300 mile race at Trenton, New Jersey, won by Sam Hanks, 1957 Indianapolis '500' champion.
The '100' has drawn such great interest among drivers that several of them will make the journey to Northville even though they are scheduled to compete in another race at Canfield, Ohio, tomorrow afternoon. Tom Hornet will drive Thunderbird at Canfield, yet expects to be in Northville in time to compete.
All cars will be either 1956 or 1957 models, with Chevrolet the most popular. Right behind is Ford, followed closely by Plymouth.
Entries to date include: Jack Goodwin, Detroit (57 Ford); Ken Julian, Detroit (56 Ford); Iggy Katona, Toledo (57 Chevrolet); Jack Ferris, Richmond, Ohio (57 Chevrolet); Herschel White, Indianapolis (57 Plymouth); Jack Pickens, Indianapolis (56 Ford); Bill Granger, Lima, Ohio (57 Ford); Others are Don Schuler, Detroit (57 Plymouth); Wayne Bennett, Detroit (57 Plymouth); Russ Hooper, Sharon, Pa. Recreation Baseball, Softball in Full Swing

Baseball and softball activity in Northville reached an all-time high this week as eight recreation teams pitched into their summer-long schedules.
The program, sponsored by the Northville recreation department under director Stan Johnston, brings baseball to the largest number of Northville youngsters in recreation history.
Some 150 boys, ranging from 8 to 17, take part in it.
The program includes four baseball teams which compete in the tough Livonia recreation league.
In addition to class E (14-16) boys and class F (12-14) boys' teams, Northville is represented by twoidget teams for boys under 12: the American League Orioles and the National League Braves.
Softball, new to the recreation program this year, has been set up to give inexperienced youngsters a chance to play. Four teams—the Lions, Bears, Tigers and Panthers—play twice a week and receive special instruction in fundamentals of the game.

At Least You Can't Say There Wasn't Any Action

It was unbelievable. Novi Little Leaguers had chafed up some huge scores up to last Wednesday, but never anything quite like the fantastic scores compiled by the Fiberglass Sluggers and Young Door Tigers that afternoon.

Young Door itself pushed across 10 runs, enough to win an ordinary contest easily. But it was hardly a dent in the Fiberglass armor, for the Sluggers came up with 35 of their own to win the most lopsided game of the Little League year so far.
The game would have been tight except for two innings—the third and fifth—in which the Sluggers drove scorekeepers wild by driving across 10 runs each time.
Bicycle race—July 30
Pet and doll parade—August 6
Water carnival—August 16
Detroit police field day—to be held at the police station.
Further details of these activities will be announced later.

Young Novi Artist Could Add a Little Brightness to Your Home

A young Novi artist has made it possible for a Northville family to enjoy their summer suppers beside a cool, deep river somewhere in the northern California mountains.

Bob Johnson, who graduated from Northville high school last year and now studies at the University of Michigan, provided the arm chair journey for Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kosnaski, 310 Yerkes, by painting a large mural of the West Coast scene on their dining room wall.

Now, with school out for the summer, Bob is ready to take on similar challenges if anyone in the Northville-Novu area is in the market.

At 18, Bob already has his life's goal set out for himself. His plan is to go into architecture, so that he can be sure of pursuing his love of painting.

If that sounds contradictory, Bob explains that the life of an artist is often a precarious one and that too many artists must become "commercial" or not make a living at all.

Rather than do that, Bob has decided to follow architecture as a career and continue painting in his spare time.

"That way," he says, "I'll be following a creative profession without having to sacrifice my painting. I'll paint only what I want to paint, and won't have to rely on painting a cigarette commercial for a living."

Bob, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. D. Johnson, live at 2825 Barton in Novi, had the usual number of art courses at Northville high school but little more. Yet he has known for some time that painting is in his blood.

At the University of Michigan, he already is immersed in a full schedule of architecture studies, even though his freshman year is just behind him. Next fall, he will go still deeper into architecture and will add a few painting courses for his own enjoyment.

Meanwhile, he hopes to finance part of his education this summer by painting for Northville and Novi residents—preferably murals, although he might try a portrait if the opportunity should come along.

If anyone is interested, he adds, he can always be reached at GFree-leaf 4-2350.

As he did with the Kosnaski mural, Bob can take a favorite family picture, a post card, or a clipping from a magazine and rearrange it so that it is just what someone wants over their fireplace or on a full-length wall.

At present, he is working on an Indian village scene in his spare-time—transposing it from a magazine picture into what he feels is a true work of art.

In between, he is on the lookout for another "customer" in Northville or Novi. He's certain that there must be a number of families who would like a touch of originality in their homes—and he's equally certain that he could come up with exactly what they want.

FIRST RIPE TOMATO? Earl Lothamer, 299 South Wing street, displays a red ripe tomato. He believes the June 20th date is the earliest for any tomatoes in his 20 years of gardening. Lothamer planted the seed in February inside. "Everything's growing fast this year," he said. His corn is over knee-high and bears tassels.

SPEAKING for the Record

By BILL SLIGER

For about four hours last week officials of Novi township and the city of Northville forgot past grievances to take a collective look at their mutual problems.

The meeting was completely informal. It gave some of the members an opportunity to meet neighboring officials for the first time. Others renewed friendships interrupted by the routine of busy schedules.

The idea of getting together had long been sought by Malcolm Allen, Northville city councilman, as a possible solution to annexation differences between the two communities.

Allen suggested to the group that there might be ground for agreement that would allow both communities to grow in orderly, planned manner. Instead of pulling against one another, perhaps Novi and Northville can pull together, Allen reasoned.

Specifically, Novi needs sewers for thousands of new homes that are already on the drawing boards. Northville is "land-locked" on all sides except to the north. Its expansion can go only a short distance northward and all ready the city has tried to secure this land by annexation. There is no reason to believe that these efforts will not continue.

There, officials asked themselves, something we can do to satisfy both our needs without costly court cases and inter-community haggling?

After conversation, dinner, and more conversation no one could say they had an answer to the question. But it seemed apparent a big step had been taken, and in the right direction. There'll be more meetings when actual decisions may be made. We suspect, however, that none of the subsequent meetings will accomplish any more than the first one. It brought together neighbors who have had in recent months little time or desire, to be sociable.

No one can blame Mel Larson, promoter of the Northville "100" if the July 4th event isn't a success. The hard working promoter-driver has covered a lot of territory in the last two weeks beating the drums for the Downs race. His appearances include guest spots (either past or scheduled) on Lynn Smith's and Bud Lynch's TV sports cast, Bud Gooch's radio program, broadcasts from the Wolverine track, the AMVET parade in Detroit and Wayne's homecoming parade. Two sound cars also will be used in the metropolitan area. In addition, Mel's brightly colored convertible is completely covered with dates and time of the event.

Michigan Mirror More Sex Crimes?

TRAGIC DEATH OF A DETROIT CHILD touched off new activity to provide improved legal protection from sex criminals. But at least it will be nearly a year before laws change.

Many deCassins, six years old, was found assaulted and murdered. A 50 year old grocery clerk named Lawrence Richard Turner confessed the crime. His record showed that 22 of his 50 years had been spent in hospitals, reform schools or prisons.

He had been charged with sex crimes as long ago as 1930. In 1932 he was convicted of criminal assault and sentenced to a term from 15 to 30 years. As law provides, he was given maximum time off for good behavior.

THE WARDEN URGED that Turner be placed under psychiatric care to long ago as 1930. In 1932 he was clearly predicted that the convict would strike again.

But under existing Michigan law, there was nothing that could be done. So Turner was permitted to go free even though medical science indicated what would be the result. As predicted, Turner did strike again.

MOST APPELLING THING about the present situation is that it could so easily happen to another little girl any time. Alan Canty, director of Detroit's Re-education Court psychiatric clinic, says he knows of one other man who is as apt to commit this type of crime as was Turner. He also says he knows of "many others" just as dangerous as is Turner.

APPOINTMENT OF A COMMITTEE TO STUDY sex criminals was called for by Detroit's Senator Harold M. Ryan, a Democrat. This committee would be expected to come up with suggested legislation to correct the present situation. Laws controlling sex crimes are difficult to draft. The subject itself is complicated and legislator's reactions to it vary.

FOR SIX YEARS the legislature has dealt with bills to improve the criminal subject. All failed to pass. Robert E. Waldron, Republican, a FACE FAMILIAR IN CAPITOL CIRCLES is attracting attention in his possessor's mirror.

Dr. Eugene B. Keyes, doctor, dentist, lawyer, student of psychiatry and politician, announced recently that he could see a better candidate for mayor of Dearborn than Orville H. Hubbard who has held the job for the last 18 years by "looking into my own mirror."

Dr. Keyes did not actually say he was going to run, but he allowed as he was about to get some nomination petitions, "just in case."

IN 1954 KEYES RAN FOR nomination as governor on the Republican ticket. He placed fourth in a field of four. This happened, he states, because he had no support from "the checkbook section of the GOP."

Keyes served as Lieutenant Governor in 1942-44 and again in 1947-49. "I keep thinking I'm cured of politics," Keyes says. "Maybe I should have got married instead of running for office. I've got to have something to spend my money on," he philosophizes, "and it may have to be Orville Hubbard. I helped him get in there and I suppose I should have a sense of responsibility and help get him out."

Roger Babson Non-Taxable Bonds

Babson Park, Mass. Since my return from the South, I have been making a study of Turnpike Bonds and other non-taxable investments.

Casual readers of this column may not realize that non-taxable bonds are around their lowest prices for a long number of years. As an illustration, State of Massachusetts slightly rated bonds carrying the full faith and credit of the State, free of all Federal and State taxes, which sold at par in 1950 can now be bought around 65. This is the lowest price in their history.

Reasons for the Decline This decline is due to the constantly increasing interest rates of the past several years. There is no other logical reason. While the stock market has been climbing since 1949 when the Dow-Jones Industrial Average was around 165, in contrast to today's level of around 500, bonds have been declining. Yet the bond market just as susceptible to the Law of Action and Reaction as the stock market. When stocks are clearly in a bear movement and money rates decline, bonds will again go up in price.

Therefore, non-taxable bonds may be in the position today that the blue chips were eight years ago when they were selling at a third of their present price.

Certain banks and other institutions which are large bond buyers state that there are reasons other than increased interest rates why municipal bonds are selling so low.

Due to the large amount of World War III, some of the savings institutions have been selling the bonds of large cities, especially industrial cities which could be targets for bombing. At the same time, these institutions have found it very difficult to sell the unlisted bonds of small cities and towns, even though they are perfectly safe and yield around 4 1/2 to 5 percent.

What About Turnpike Bonds? I believe Turnpike Bonds should be a logical exception to the above situation. They have both security and marketability. The conservative financial institutions say they do not like them because they are revenue bonds, dependent upon the earnings of the turnpike. Yet, every corporation bond is a revenue bond, depending upon earnings. The non-taxable unlisted bonds of small cities and towns, even though they are perfectly safe and yield around 4 1/2 to 5 percent, are not like them because they are revenue bonds, dependent upon the earnings of the turnpike.

Recently, the Boston & Maine Railroad cancelled all its contracts with Turnpike maintenance men before their services would be missed. Practically the only necessary employees of a Turnpike Authority are those who collect the tolls. And I cannot imagine these men striking. Turnpikes are therefore less liable than most investments to suffer from labor troubles.

One of today's fastest growing industries is the Automobile Industry, and our turnpikes must prosper along with it. Not only are new cars being sold by the millions each year, but boys in a very old Ford must see the same toll as those riding in new Cadillacs. Everyone wants to save time, and also it is very important to have a safe and comfortable mode of transportation.

THE Automobile Industry is attracting attention in his possessor's mirror. Dr. Eugene B. Keyes, doctor, dentist, lawyer, student of psychiatry and politician, announced recently that he could see a better candidate for mayor of Dearborn than Orville H. Readers Speak Up: ASKS WHO PAID FOR ATTORNEY

To the Editor: In regard to "peace and quiet on Wixom road"...

Two years ago I was told by the supervisor and township attorney that I would have to get my own attorney to take a drainage problem to court...

But I guess I don't live in Novi or I am not a trustee. Who paid for it if the township attorney can take a civil case?

I told them I would have to write the governor. They said they didn't think he would be troubled with a little matter like that...
