Wixom Faces Court Over Building Issue

An early trial date has been promised for a hearing before Oakland County Circuit Judge Clark J. Adams concerning the issuance of a building permit by the city of Wixom.

An injunction was brought against Wixom by John Weiss after a stop-work order was handed down by Wixom Building Inspector Ed Wendt preventing Wixom from continuing a building project on Wixom road.

Wixom officials maintain that the building permit was issued to allow Weiss to remodel a barn for living quarters. The city now maintains that it is building a trailer park.

Weiss claims that the city was aware of his building plans when the permit was issued.

In a preliminary hearing Judge Adams gave the hearing priority rating, although a definite trial date has not been set.

The Wixom council was split last week in its vote on the appointment of Councilman Ray Lahti as representative on the Oakland county board of supervisors.

Thursday night Adams got support in his convictions from Councilmen Lottie Chambers and Walter Truck, Jesse Birchard, Gunner Matela and Lahti favored the appointment which was approved by Mayor Joseph Stadinik.

Other business the council turned over a proposed dog ordinance to Attorney David Uley for examination before it is approved.

Work on the 11 Mile route will presumably start on schedule - sometime between now and 1959.

The question of whether the 11 Mile expressway would be scrapped or not was discussed last week when State Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie announced plans for extending Northwestern 23 miles from the present Lodge expressway in Detroit to M-59 near Highland.

Mackie had originally set aside this plan when he took office last year. He instead decided to end the Northwestern expressway at 11 Mile and to build two other expressways.

Friends of Mrs. Frank Clark will be interested to know that she now is able to go out for a ride.

Mr. and Mrs. George Ames spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Tucker at their home in Novi.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Flattery and their children have just returned from a two week vacation spent at a cottage at Whitmore Lake.

To Name Slates in Primary Tuesday

Novi and Wixom voters will go to the polls next Tuesday to name the Democratic and Republican slates which will face each other in November's biennial election.

To be named in the primary are candidates for U.S. senator and representative, state governor, lieutenant governor, senator and representative, and a complete slate of county offices.

Three of the hopefuls on the ballot, all Democratic, are from Novi and Wixom.

Polling places will be open Tuesday as follows: -Novi precinct 1 (southern part) at Novi township hall from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m.

-Novi precinct 2 (northern part) at Novi community building from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m.

-Wixom precincts 1 and 2 (entire city) at Wixom city hall from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m.

Novi and Wixom will ballot on the same group of candidates except for state representative. In that category, Novi and Wixom precinct 2 will vote for fourth district candidates while Wixom precinct 1 will vote for third district candidates.

Only a few candidates are unopposed - notably the top three Republican hopefuls. Otherwise, most offices feature a lively race, with incumbents favored as usual.

The Democratic reign of Governor C. Mennen Williams faces its first serious challenge in recent elections, with a full slate of candidates out after the state and U.S. nominations.

Republican candidates include U.S. Senator Charles F. Patton and U.S. Representative William Broomfield, Michigan State's Paul Bagwell for governor, and a host of incumbent county officials.

Novi and Wixom will be represented on the ballot by three area personalities, all running on the Democratic ticket.

Herbert Koester (former president of the Novi Democratic club, two-time candidate for township supervisor, and president of the Novi Township Farmers and Landowners Association) for Oakland county sheriff.

David E. Uley (attorney for the city of Wixom) for Oakland county prosecuting attorney.

Ray Lahti (Wixom city councilman) for delegate to the Democratic's fall county convention.

While no one is making predictions about the possible turnout of voters in Novi and Wixom, it is expected that the three local candidates and the current issues of business and international conditions could make for a larger vote than usual.

The slates named Tuesday will appear in the November ballot in what is expected to be one of the most hotly-contested elections in recent times, especially on the national level.

Voters may ballot on either the Republican or Democratic ticket but not for a combination or split ticket. Voting machines are set up to prohibit this.

The local veterans' group collected $25 for the Roehn family, $100 of which was turned over to the VFW by their brother veterans' organization, the American Legion. Clayton Myers, VFW commander, is shown above receiving his dinner from Mrs. Tom Hoxts and Mrs. Gil Perry. Some 325 persons were served and the Swiss steak was gone by 6:00 p.m., Myers reported. The church altar was decked with white gladioli, and organ music accompanied the ceremony.

The bride's gown was white lace and nylon over satin. Her veil fell just below the waist, and she carried red and white roses and white baby mums.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Dorothy MacQuater, a cousin of the bride. Her dress was blue lace over white satin. She carried a bouquet of red roses and white mums.

Roberta Isanhart, a niece of the bride, was flower girl. She carried a basket of pink roses.

Best man was John Swan, the groom's brother.

Fall Wedding Planned

Mr. and Mrs. Merle B. Fretz of Newberry, Michigan, announce the engagement of their daughter, Barbara Ann, to William Hicks Bredon, son of the senior Edward F. Bredon of Northville.

Not planning to run for office, Mrs. Hammond says the nomination and election were "a big surprise." She adds that the Hammonds are a "100 per cent American Legion family." Her two daughters and son are members, and her husband was recently third zone vice commander.

The couple plan a fall wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Munro Weston and sons, of Butler street, spent last week in Muskegon.

Cheery Cheerio

A culover party was held at the community center Saturday night for 150 out-going operators and their guests.

Head operator, Mrs. Lillian Thum, says the party was "a complete success."

Smorgasbord dinner was served by caterers, Mr. Welch and Herman Schill's band provided dance music.

Japanese lanterns, palms, flowers, and a fish pond decorated the hall. A fish net from the Hatchery was filled with lucky-number balloons. The catch was later turned upside down on the crowd who collected prizes.

The Northville operators heartily thank the following merchants for their donations to the party:

Tewksbury Jewelers, Northville Hardware, West Seven Service, Cloverdale Farm Dairy, Lila's Flowers and Gifts, Villa Dress Shoppe, Brader's, Northville Electric, Fredy's Cleaners and Men's Wear, Carrington Agency, Ellis Electronics, Marr Taylor Ford Sales, Center Street Service, Stone's Gambie Store, Sibley's Style Shop, Gunnell Drugs, Sally Bell Bakery, Hobson's Sweet Shop, Schrader's Home Furnishings, Verna and Morris Service, C. Strength, Freedom Thru Divine Love

How strength and freedom are gained through understanding God's divine Love, will be a topic dealt with at Christian Science services Sunday.

One of the selections from the Bible in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Love" is this from Matthew: "And Jesus went about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of sickness and all manner of disease among the people" (4:23).

Turkeys Take Back Seat During Harness Season

What does a successful turkey farmer do during the summer months to get away from the gobble, gobble of his growing birds?
Ray Honsinger, one of Michigan's largest turkey farmers who resides just outside Northville's western city limits, has the answer — an answer that has kept him happy and busy in his spare time.
Ray uses his odd moments to following the harness races at Northville Downs where he generally covets one or two trotters and pacers in competition. He seldom has had the best on the grounds, but he always has a good, fast-going horse.
At the present moment, Ray is enthralled with Lady Volo, an entrant in the $5,000 Wolverine Trot scheduled for Northville Downs next Wednesday. He isn't figuring on grabbing off the winner's share of the purse, of course. The speedy Ohion, Annette Sue, who has a string of 12 straight and expects to have 14 in a row by the time of the stake, gets his nod.
"Shucks, we don't have a chance," smiles Ray. "But an owner always gets a big kick out of thinking his horse will beat the favorite and always likes to know just how close it'll be to the winner."
Ray's interest in harness racing dates back to when he moved to Northville some 30 years ago. He had a good pacer 20 years back in Calvin Mac who went to a record of 2:06 at a time when that was good.
Between watching the horses, he spends his time on the farm where he has had as many as 2,000 turkeys fattening up for Thanksgiving and Christmas. Right now he has scheduled for Northville Downs next Wednesday. He isn't figuring on grabbing off the winner's share of the purse, of course. The speedy Ohion, Annette Sue, who has a

On the Walled Lake roster will be three Wixom players: Vic Burwell, Jim Higgs, and Charles McCall. The Novi roster was published last week.
Tonight's regular games have been postponed because of the play-off action.

Dodgers Down Commerce, 8-3

A double with two men on by Keith Green in the first sent the Wixom Dodgers off to an 8-3 win over the Commerce Cubs in Babe Ruth action Sunday.
Green pounded out three hits in four times at bat to aid Pitcher Neil Salo's cause. Salo struck out 11 Cubs, while his teammates were collecting 13 hits.
The Walled Lake Babe Ruth All-Stars — including Salo, Bill Green and Bob Thuck — fell to Northwest Detroit Sunday and were eliminated from the state tourney.
The Walled Lake team was managed by Wixom Manager Paul Green.
In farm team play, Wixom was edged by Union Lake, 16-15, with Buddy Green hitting for the Orioles.
Games for the coming week: Babe Ruth — Sunday, v. Wolverine Lake, 4 p.m. and Tuesday, v. Union Lake at 6 p.m., both at Walled Lake junior high; Little League (subject to change because of All-Star game) — Friday, v. Gungahy, Wednesday, v. Walled Lake, both 6 p.m. at Riley field.

by the Rev. Byron E. Chapman
Willowbrook Community EUB Church

What a man throws away is just as great importance to his life as what he keeps. What if we had to keep everything that came to us. Think how cluttered our home would be if we had never carried out the garbage; never burned the paper; kept all the boxes; second, third and fourth class mail; all the tin cans, bottles, cartons, socks, and the trillions of trivia that come to us. We would all have to find a new place to live in a short time if we couldn't discard the things we don't want.

Well why not carry the idea a little further into the realm of the mind and heart? Everyday there is a veritable flood of ideas, impulses, stories, tales, gossip, truth, fiction, hatreds, sentiments, etc., that come into our lives. Could it be possible that much of our confusion and unhappiness comes from the clutter of the soul that is caused by the things we forget to throw away? Did you discard that old misunderstanding of your brother when you thought he was scheming to take more than his share of the family estate? No? Still, the scriptural injunction still holds: "Cleave to the good, but abhor that which is evil!"

Mighty Braves Almost a Legend

TERRORS OF THE LEAGUE - Between Dan Brown (left) and Craig Bell (right) comes a chance against the Northville Braves. In 20 games, the two gave up only 30 hits, hurled five no-hitters, 10 shutouts, struck out 175, and so on - an infant.

Braves Notch 2 Shutouts Over Their Cousin Orioles
The Northville Braves and Orioles met last week for the first time, and the Orioles are probably just as glad it's over. The Orioles had done pretty well in their division this season, but

Braves' Eye Crown Tonight
The Northville Braves began their quest of the Livonia Recreation League championship Tuesday night when they defeated the Orioles, 7-0, behind his runless, 10 hits.
In other action last week, the Orioles won a make-up game with the Grand Dodgers, 3-1, though only 4-2.
Garfield scored first, but the Orioles put their two runs across in the fourth and made the lead slide. Dan Bishop and Dave Jerome walked and went to third on a grounder. Bishop scored on "For Swiss" sacrifice fly, and Jerome came home on a bad throw follow-up.
Swiss, pitching for Northville, walked only one man and scattered the four hits to keep control of the game all the way.
The Orioles scored twice in the seventh, but the runs were nullified when the game was called because of darkness.

'F' Sluggers Take Four Straight'

Northville's class F team went on a baseball binge last week, and more at the end of an inning.
Northville collected 11 runs in the first inning as Jim Anderson doubled with the bases full and singled two more home in his second appearance of the inning.
Anderson allowed only one hit and coasted to his third win.
Against the Training School, Northville doubled out 15 hits—a season's high. Anderson's homer, triples by Fred Steeper, Juday, Carl Karg, and Butch Welling and three hits each by Dave Kay and Mike Myers paced the Northville attack.
Butch Welling and Bill Chapel combined for a one-hitter.
Northville edged Davis and Lent, 3-2, as Anderson doubled out run in and Steeper set up the other two with well-placed bunts. Bob O'Leary held Davis and Lent to three hits, drove in the winning run in the final inning to give Northville a clean win over Davis and Lent, 10-0.

Every so often in sports, a near-perfect team comes along. The 1958 Northville Braves won't gain the fame of the present New York Yankees or the 1917 Michigan Wolverines, but the Braves — in their own way — were just as incredible.
Faced by a pair of whirling pitchers who were equally at home at the plate, the Braves mopped up all opposition in winning the championship of their Livonia Recreation League division.
Their record book vouches for their perfection on every page. Among the eye-popping statistics for an average score of about 13-1—of their 20 wins, 10 were shutouts, and never did they allow more than four runs or first a shut game (all this in the usually high-scoring Livonia league).
—The Braves won 20, lost none, outscored their opponents, 220-23 for an average score of about 13-1—of their 20 wins, 10 were shutouts, and never did they allow more than four runs or first a shut game (all this in the usually high-scoring Livonia league).
—The Braves' showing as a team was spectacular enough, but even if it doesn't compare with the individual showing of Pitchers Dan Brown and Craig Bell.
In the 20 seven-inning games, they hurled five no-hitters (three in a row), tossed five straight shutouts, and never allowed more than five runs.
They struck out 176 batters (an average of eight a game), gave up only 30 hits in 20 games, and allowed only nine earned runs. Unbelievable? Yep, but true. And they still more to come.
Dan, whose dad is Dr. Phillip N. Brown, medical superintendent of Northville state hospital, was the workhorse of the staff. During the season, Dan:
—won 13 straight, hurled three no-hitters (five in a row) and gave up only 19 hits all year long.
—pitched and won the first five games of the season (all one-and-two-run games).
—did the impossible when he (now get this) struck out every batter in the first inning in a game over the Grand Dodgers. Whipping the first eight batters and 12 of the first 15. Dan got all 18 opponents on third strikes.
—Craig, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Bell, joined the team after the season was a third over, but was spectacular nonetheless. His showing:
—six straight wins, including four shutouts; only three runs were scored off him, and of these only two were earned.
—a no-hitter and a total allowance of only 11 hits in the six games.
—10 strikeouts in one seven-inning game. Striking out the side in five innings, he fanned the last nine who faced him in a game over the Grand Dodgers.
There was only one trouble: the Braves had too many good pitchers. Mike Zayl, one of the league's best, played in the outfield instead. And Dick Puhara, after a 10-0 win early in the season, was sidelined with an injury.
At the plate, the exploits of Brown and Bell were no less amazing. They led the Braves 1-0 in both batting and home runs.

Craig hit for 463 and hammered six homers, while Dan slugged at a .468 clip and registered three round-trippers. (When one was pitching, the other was at short-stop.)
Averages for the entire team: Tom Long—425; Ed Beard—389; Mike Zayl—389; Jim Juday—340; Eric Peterson—309; Nick Habicht—316; Dick Puhara—295; Jim Riley—288; Larry Angove—270; Gary Shobe—251; Pete Hodapp—222; Jim Mahoney—143; Bob Tuok—111; Jim Weidner—100.
That's an average of 335 for the team (218 hits in 559 times at bat). With such pitching and hitting, it's small wonder the Braves are given a good chance in the forthcoming Michigan Recreation Association tournament.

But win or lose, they've already made history in Northville.
Competing with her for the first time at Northville will be Elly Hancock, the 8-year-old bay horse owned by Saunders Mills of Toledo long ranked with the best in the land. He is among the 13 nominees for the Wolverine event.
One of the nominees is Earl's Perpetual, who won one of the best in last year's Wolverine Trot.

It's Getting Near Turtle Time

The annual event, which usually draws scores of turtles of all shapes and sizes, will be held August 11 at the high school playground.
Youngsters who can't find a turtle may get one from Recreation Director Stan Johnston.
Also coming up are the pet and doll parade on August 13 and the water carnival at Whitman Lake on August 15. Full details will be published in The Record next week.

Grand Slam Homer Big Blow for Yanks

John Badalut's grand-slam homer in the second inning led the Yankees to an 11-3 win over the Red Sox in Northville knothole baseball last week.
The Yankees won again when Jerry LaRoque tripled to drive in three runs as the Yanks' 14-0 conquest of the Dodgers.
The Red Sox downed the Giants, 5-4, in their final action, the Giants beat the Dodgers, 3-1. Knott hole softball scores:
Lions 9
Panthers 7
Tigers 8
Bobcats 19

PICTURE TALK

BY LES WILSON
OLD CAMERAS NEVER DIE
 I thought it was a gag at first. This guy comes into my shop with an old, beat-up camera—something like Grandfather used. "Can you fix this?"
 "Let me take a look at it," I answered. It had been a good camera in its day but its day had passed with the coming of the new cameras. You can get a new camera that's easier to use and takes better pictures than your old one. And it will cost less than fixing your antique." I sold him.
 I showed him one of my favorites, the Kodak Duaflex. It was loved at first sight. The Duaflex sold itself when he looked through the "what-you-see-you-get" viewfinder. In fifteen minutes the guy was on his way out with his new camera and six rolls of film.
 "Hey, wait a minute. You forgot your old camera," I called after him.
 He stopped. "Oh that. You can keep it!"
 Anyone want to buy a good old camera? Real cheap.

HONORING HIM
 A married couple of my acquaintance have a unique way of celebrating another's birthday. During the week in which the wife's birthday falls, she has the pleasure of doing what she would like to do that week and the husband honors her request. It's "her week" and he seeks to especially please her all the week long. Then when his birthday arrives the wife especially seeks to please her husband all that week. What a wonderful celebration this is. As I thought about this arrangement, how a lot of matters would be settled regarding our proper conduct as Christians on the Lord's Day if we would practice such a honoring of love. Since the Christians are not under the Mosaic law and no specific rules are given for proper conduct on the Lord's Day for the Church, controversy has resulted. However the behavior of love under grace does far surpass the mere letter of the law. It is not enough just to fulfill a code of "do this" and "don't do that". The law of love tells us that we ought to sanctify this day because we want to honor and please Him. I John 3:22 shows us His blessing upon those who "keep His commandments and do those things that are pleasing in His sight."

Ponies? The Ladies Love 'Em

It was a mild, breezy afternoon in a first row box over the newly combined oval at Northville Downs. It was a perfect setting for shop talk by the quintet of race horse owners: Mrs. Archie Niles, Sr., Mrs. Archie Niles, Jr., Mrs. John Janichick, Mrs. William Rattenbury, and Mrs. Forrest Doren. All make a yearly circuit of national racetracks. "It's more than a hobby," said Mrs. Rattenbury.

RAISING RACING HORSES IS A happy business. These three Northville ladies (l-r) Mrs. William Rattenbury, Mrs. Forrest Doren, and Mrs. John Janichick give the tele board a temporary cold shoulder while they enjoy a little shop talk about their horses.

Three sons of this famous racing family are drivers - Archie Jr., Willard, and Howard. A fourth, Norman, operates his own horse moving vans, driving by mechanized horsepower.
 Two girls, Sandra and Ellen, now married, have helped care for the family's horses since they were small, and have one horse now named after them.
 "I can't begin to count all the horses we've owned," Mrs. Niles says. They have five now: Lois Colleen; Goodnight Irene; Sandy Van; Sandra Ellen; and Harmony Col.

Mrs. Niles Jr., a pretty redhead, also stepped unprepared into the racing world.
 "I was afraid of horses too," she admitted.
 But it takes more than a horse to scare a redhead. When she first walked into the barn, she saw a mouse in one corner. That made the horse look like an old buddy.
 Mrs. Doren, a nurse at Alchian hospital and owner of Skyboy, comes from an all-around racing family.
 Her father, an auto racer, died in a track crash when she was a little girl.
 She grew up with her grandpa in Indiana, who raised race horses.
 "Grandpa asked me to help, and I broke and trained my first horse at 11."
 "They call Skyboy 'Houdini'," she says, "because he takes his halter off and wanders around the barn looking in other stalls."
 "Part-time racing is only 11 years old, but Mrs. Janichick, from Missouri, like most of the women, remembers watching harness racing at fairs since childhood.
 She's regularly employed as part-time care supervisor at the Wayne County training school, but she and her husband try to work with the horses as much as time permits. Mr. Janichick sometimes drives.
 They own Abbe's Lincoln and Vera Spencer, "an old campaigner," who's now "expecting."
 Mrs. Rattenbury, also from Indiana, also married a man who loves horses.
 The Rattenburys do all their own work taking care of their horses. This means a lot more than meets the eye, because they have a full barn to care for: Spencer Son; Dandy Candy; Big Chief; Mighty Stepper; Fast Queen; and First Honor.
 "Everybody agreed it was hard work," Mrs. Rattenbury explained.
 "The grandstand conversation rolled on and away with talk of 'packing feet' of 'scrapping' sipping, walking, and feeding' horses, of winnings, of critical injuries, of the $200 they estimate it takes to keep a horse running each year.
 "The public doesn't know what goes on after a race," Mrs. Janichick said. "Especially on a muddy day." Mrs. Archie Jr. laughed.
 "Hard work, but it gets in your blood," Mrs. Rattenbury explained.
 "And you're always hoping for that one good one..." Mrs. Janichick said. "For that state winner," Mrs. Archie Jr. affirmed.
 "But then," concluded Mrs. Niles, "you sure have to haul a lot of manure!"

Speaking for the Record

By BILL SLIGER

While Northville's "clean-up" campaign had most of its activities concentrated into the month of May, the program still continues.

Sponsored by the Coordinating Council, the drive was given real zip by the enthusiastic leadership of John Canterbury.

Many of its projects are just now beginning to show results. At least four new trash receptacles will soon be placed in the downtown area, gifts of the city, Junior Chamber of Commerce, Optimist Club, Methodist Church, Business and Professional Women's Club, and Garden Club.

Work is underway to install new signs at the approaches to the city as a welcome to visitors and listing the three local service clubs.

The Novi road approach to Northville was improved by the county as a direct result of efforts of the clean-up committee.

Canterbury started right at the top with the C & O railroad. A letter to the president of the company brought a personal response from the district manager.

Work is underway to install new signs at the approaches to the city as a welcome to visitors and listing the three local service clubs.

Still in the determination stage is an official flower or bush for the city. Nurseryman John Miller heads the committee in this project.

Under the present plan, the selection will be made before fall and a large lot purchase of the choice will be made so that residents may acquire them at the lowest possible cost.

Novi township board members recently decided to check into the possibility of a cooperative phone number service for fire and police protection between Willow Lake-Wixom and Novi.

It would help solve the night duty problem that small communities face if one central office could dispatch calls for the entire area.

Along the same lines the Northville city council discussed the idea of a cooperative police plan with Northville township.

Many township residents call upon city police when an emergency arises and the local officers respond with aid until Wayne county sheriff's patrol arrives.

With our township population growing, it seems logical that such a program would be desirable. It would probably have to be worked out with the blessing and participation of the sheriff's patrol.

Novi's Leon Dochow and Eugenie Choquet deserve high praise for their work in creating interest and activity in Civil Defense. This important community function is all too often neglected because of the threat of an attack or disaster by enemy forces seems so far removed.

This didn't dampen the enthusiasm of these newly appointed co-directors, however. They've boosted the membership in Novi's CD unit from 10 to 200. They keep members busy learning first aid and other safety measures, and in addition have set up a group of auxiliary police officers.

At the beginning, the directors used the well-proven "door prize" method to gain attendance at meetings.

Since then, interest and enthusiasm for the responsibility of the job to be performed has kept the group active.

Nasser's Fund Drives

Babson Park, Mass. I do not know Lebanon, but I have for many years studied Egypt. Although Russia was the brain of the present Lebanon...

Administration probably did the right thing by withdrawing. Tried Suez Tolls. Nasser's next attempt to get funds was by building the Suez Canal.

This again brought the United States into the picture in a way to get the ill will of all these countries—England, France, and even Egypt.

Remember how he remember how the canal was blocked and every oil tanker that had these countries compete with one another.

History of Nasser's Program. Egypt is a very poor country and it rather than have these countries compete with one another.

Although our Administration agreed to Nasser's increasing the tolls, Nasser declined so that Egypt did not get any more real money.

Through Nasser attempted to form a "oil empire" described above. The first nation to fall in line was Syria, which has since been followed by Iraq.

On the issue of the Trouble in the Near East conflict claim that they are fighting for freedom. Eisenhower insists that if the people of Iraq had peacefully voted to depose their king, no U.S. marines would be in Lebanon today.

To have, however, a rebel band murder the king of Iraq and his premier is contrary to the Eisenhower doctrine.

Let me, however, say that if there were no oil in the Near East, there would not be no marines in Lebanon. This conflict will not result in a shooting war with Russia as Russia has all the oil that she needs.

The kings of all these Near East nations are controlled by the world's big oil companies.

These big oil companies will naturally depose Nasser for stirring up this trouble. It, however, might be much cheaper for the United States to provide some other means for Nasser to get funds for his poor people.

Effect on Investments. Readers have been wondering how this situation will affect their oil investments. The large oil companies are divided into two groups: The international oils, such as Standard Oil of New York, Standard Oil of Missouri, Texas Co., and Standard of California, which get large quantities of their oil from the Near East; and the domestic oil concerns, led by Phillips, Shell, Continental, and Union Oil, which get most of their oil from North and South America.

Theoretically, the stocks of the companies depending on the Near East should decline while the stocks of companies getting their oil from the United States, Canada, and Venezuela should increase in price, although this differential may have already been discontinued.

In view, however, of the Near East situation, it would be well for readers not to overconcentrate in the international oil stocks. In other words, 1 VAPB:G dcb

Well Oiled Williams' Machine Blocks Bagwell

REPUBLICANS have an energetic candidate running for governor at a time when voters have become used to energy, sparkle and action. He is Paul D. Bagwell, who won one national election with crisy and flashy vests and dogtags.

Bagwell learned the technique worked when he was elected national president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce a few years ago.

When an important vacancy occurs, Williams names a worker in a lesser post to fill it. This creates two appointments: where only one vacancy existed.

It has the tendency to keep young men working in state government, and for the party.

Williams chooses his appointees carefully. Few have fallen short of the intelligence, diligence and stamina demanded of important public jobs.

It is safe to assume that none will vote for Bagwell and, maybe, they will even distribute Williams' bumper stickers and help fill a hall occasionally for one of his speeches.

One observer put it cynically: "For a Republican candidate to win now, he has to beat a popular Williams, and most of state government, in addition to getting his own people behind him."

Officials are worried about a new threat to the state's safety record: the 100 mile-an-hour speeders.

Could Youth Committee in Novi Help 'Bad Johnny'?

How can "bad Johnny" be kept from really going bad? "Bad Johnny" is the youngster who has committed his first offense, who is in a jam but is not a hardened delinquent, or who simply is having trouble at home and needs help.

A far-sighted plan for helping such youngsters was presented to the Novi township board Monday night and may be put into action.

Its basic approach: instead of turning problem youths and first offenders over to the juvenile courts, put them under jurisdiction of a committee of responsible leaders in their own community.

Juvenile court, the feeling goes, must of necessity treat youths as junior criminals. A record is made of their offenses, a stigma is attached to their name, and the experience leaves them still more hardened.

A local youth committee, on the other hand, works in strict confidence. It seeks only to explore the youth's background, determine what help he needs, and then find that help through whatever agency or program is best.

The program, under auspices of the Oakland county juvenile court, is already in operation in six communities—Troy, Madison Heights, Royal Oak, Royal Oak Township, Pontiac, and the Farmington-Livonia-Clareville area.

Known as a "child protection and youth assistance program", it was developed by Judge Arthur E. Moore of the county probate and juvenile court and is administered by William McCarthy, director of protective services.

Oakland county is the first in the nation to have such a program on a county-wide basis.

The problem, as Judge Moore explains it, is this: "Your municipality has a fine police department, a good township attorney, an excellent court... But no matter how well done, all of this is 'too little, too late'."

"You may have fine community services available for families, children and youth, but they are not used only by part of the city. They serve only those who come voluntarily."

"Thus many socially unadjusted families, maladjusted children and pre-delinquent children reject the services of the churches, recreational services, child guidance clinics and family service organizations."

"So we go on neglecting children and producing delinquents, incorrigibles and psychotics."

"Only when responsibility is lodged in some local organization, which can be held on its heels, can we get on a basis. Only when local citizens insist, can better family care and delinquency prevention begin. Only when community leaders offer their personal help, will substantial family conditions and community improvement be achieved."

"The local citizens' committee is no fly-by-night group. It is responsible to the court and must keep in constant touch with court and social work representatives."

A trained county caseworker is assigned by the court to work with the committee, serve as its executive secretary, and coordinate its work with the court's work.

Under the program, the committee is divided into two sub-committees: a general citizens' committee of interested community leaders, including the school superintendent, a doctor, a dentist, the police chief, a housewife, a local justice, the P.T.A. president, clergymen, and others.

The caseworker's committee of persons who actually have training in child service and welfare.

The citizens' committee is nominated by the school board or township board and given status through a township ordinance. Judge Moore's court approves all members.

The caseworker-executive committee does casework and contacts no child or family. It is limited to organizing the program and formulating plans according to the community's needs.

Inventories services available to problem youths and underprivileged families, lines up legal and medical help, organizes religious and moral training programs, sponsors clinics in pre-natal and parental care, and helps get the community behind the program.

The caseworker-executive committee, on the other hand, includes professionally trained persons in the community: school principals, nurses, police officers, welfare workers, youth counselors and the like.

They actually work with the child. Members gather confidential background information about him and his family, find out what help is needed and see that he and possibly members of his family are directed to whatever agency can give that help.

The caseworker-executive committee does no rehabilitation work itself. It is a sort of local middleman between the youngster and professional help.

In all this, the assigned county caseworker is present. And the court and Youth Protective Service is looking on.

Here, then, is how the program works: An interested person (policeman, teacher, neighbor, even father) finds a child emotionally disturbed, breaking the law, or otherwise in need of help. He reports it to the local committee.

The committee screens the reports and disposes of it if it is petty or venial. Otherwise, it looks into the situation, exploring the child's background and family life.

Finally, the child's needs are determined, and he is referred to whatever agency or person can help him best. It might be a psychiatrist, a doctor, "Big Brothers," a visiting teacher, Hawthorn Center, the Neuropsychiatric Institute in Ann Arbor or even Aid for the Blind or Alcoholics Anonymous.

His family, too, may be advised to accept some sort of help. As the child progresses, his records are carefully watched by the local committee and county officials. Finally, it is hoped, whatever caused him to start on the wrong track is corrected.

What is needed to start the program? Only an ordinance, office space, and responsible persons for the committee.

What does it cost? Only enough for the office and office supplies, since committee members work voluntarily and social workers are supplied by the county or other agencies.

Does Novi need such a program? Local juvenile delinquency is not great at present, but there are a number of potentially explosive situations, as in all communities. And with growth of the area, the need is certain to grow.

When could it start? Almost immediately if the township board or some other group takes the initiative.

Will it work? Judge Moore, one of the nation's leading authorities on juvenile trouble, thinks so.

If the home town pitches in and uses its best abilities to help its problem youth, he feels, there's no reason at all why Johnny has to become really bad.

Novi and Wixom followed the county and state trend Tuesday in naming Democratic and Republican slates to oppose each other in November's biennial election.

In both communities, Democrats out-republicans, and each party's incumbents won handsily.

Voting was light in both areas, though Wixom's turnout was "a little heavier" than the state-wide average.

Less than 15 percent of Novi's registered voters went to the polls (922 of about 7,000). In Wixom about 25 percent of the voters turned out (146 of 590).

In Novi, normally a Republican stronghold, Democrats outdid the GOP by about an 87 margin. In Wixom, the Democrats had nearly a 2-1 lead.

Democrats went along with the state lead in re-nominating Governor G. Mennen Williams, and following suit with John Swainson for lieutenant governor and Phillip Hart for U.S. senator.

Republicans likewise re-nominated their favorites, including Charles Potter for U.S. senator, William S. Bromfield for U.S. representative, L. Harvey Lodge for state senator, and a host of incumbent Oakland county officials.

Named as local delegates to the Democratic county convention were Herbert Koester, two-time candidate for Novi supervisor, and three other Novi men.

Wixom City Attorney David Utley similarly carried Wixom by a 2-1 margin, but lost to James P. Lawson, R-10, in a county-wide race.

Named as local delegates to the Republican county convention delegates are Fraser Staman and George Ames.
