SPEAKING for the Record

If you have had a traffic violation ticket during the past two years, you're a point-getter with the Michigan Department of State.

And, under Michigan's new traffic violation point schedule, if you garner 12 points during a two-year period, you'll "get tough" with drivers, but it's highly effective in reducing traffic fatalities.

This would be an improvement and a continued downward trend in state highway accidents that saw 2000 persons killed in 1956, Hare explained.

Until Hare's talk we had little knowledge of the state's scored system. As Hare pointed out it's unpopular to "get tough" with drivers, but it's highly effective in reducing traffic fatalities.

"But Connecticut has the nation's best safety record on the highways," he added.

- Here's how Michigan's point schedule works: A. Manslaughter—Negligent homicide—Felon in the vehicle is used—Failure to identify self at the scene of an accident—Drunk driving or reckless driving 6 points

Chats with Parents Teaching Responsibility

Parents are more than a little concerned that their child learns to be responsible — and it isn't a trait they inherit — but one they learn in the same sense that they learn to walk and talk.

One common failing of parents in helping children to develop responsibility is impatience. When the child's desire to finish the job at hand as quickly as possible with a minimum of interference.

The actual process of teaching responsibility begins in the early weeks of the child's life. The parents can best contribute to the process by being solicitous about the child's welfare without at the same time giving the child no opportunity to solve some of the problems which the infant is able to solve if left to his own devices.

As the child grows older he seeks other responsibilities, notably those which are accompanied by varying degrees of personal freedom. The small boy insists that he be allowed to mow the lawn without adult interference and gets more satisfaction out of moving the machine a few inches alone rather than he could out of moving it a greater distance with the help of an adult.

Michigan Mirror Annexations, Consolidations Sweep State

MODERN MICHIGAN is in the throes of an almost accidental move to make the city the basic form of government.

In preference to annexation, number of smaller towns and townships are working to consolidate into two or three separate metropolitan areas or city limits.

A centralized government is the hand of a reformer or an executive has been a goal of reformers on the state level for years.

Recount Demanded In School Election

Novi school district voters approved a 2 1/2 mill tax increase by a meager one vote margin Monday—but within 24 hours, to the surprise of no one, a recount was demanded.

One More Student Coming Up

A man with much on his mind. That was Novi School Superintendent William Medlyn Monday.

In Novi, voters were deciding on a crucial school tax increase.

Medlyn walked out the ordeal at University hospital.

About 9 p.m., he learned by phone that the tax increase had passed.

THE NOVI NEWS YOU KNOW WHAT'S HAPPENING IN NOVI TOWNSHIP IF YOU READ THE NEWS

Novi Becomes State's Largest Village

Novi voters cast their lots for incorporation Monday, creating the state's largest village and fourth-largest municipality.

By a decisive 594-170 margin, they accepted a charter that changes most of the township into a home-rule village.

At the same time, they gave a vote of confidence to the five men who wrote the charter by naming them to serve on Novi's first village council.

It also secures Novi boundaries against future annexations and incorporations.

Table showing election results for Charter and Council members, including names like Tuck, Anderson, Greenberg, Butler, Tafallian, Pryde, Amos, Fisher, Woodward, and Roger Curtis.

Setting Up Village Will Be Major Job

Novi will officially begin its existence as a village next Wednesday when its first council is sworn into office.

At 8 p.m. the long and difficult process of incorporating will end. And the even longer and more difficult process of getting the fledgling village on its feet will begin.

The five-man council—Walter Tuck, Philip Anderson, Dirk Greenberg, Russell Butler and Dicon Tafallian—will probably sit by its desk and tackle organizational matters immediately.

The president, comparable to mayor, will be chosen from among the council for a two-year term.

This comes the awesome task of setting up a government—a task complicated by a complete lack of funds, Wixom, after more than a year of the same.

Herbert Koester, president of the Novi Farmers and Landowners Protective Association, and superintendent of public works, will be in charge of the village's fiscal 1959 tax rate.

Police and Fire Departments will immediately come under the village's jurisdiction.

On one hand, the village has no funds to operate the departments.

On the other hand, the village will receive state rebates from the state.

Renne Resigns as Attorney

A possible clash among Novi township board members was averted Wednesday morning when Township Attorney Anthony Renne submitted his resignation from that position.

Renne, appointed as an Oakland county assistant prosecutor two weeks ago, said he resigned to give more time to his law practice.

NEAR-TRAGEDY occurred Monday at Trechewan Farm in Novi when fire destroyed the living quarters in a two-story barn.

By a vote of 5-2, the Novi Township Board of Supervisors approved the resignation of Township Attorney Anthony Renne.

Wed at Nuptial Mass in Ithaca

At a nuptial high mass and double ring ceremony in St. Paul the Apostle church in Ithaca, Janet Ruth Bates of Ithaca became the bride of David Hartner, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hartner, Jr., of Northville.

Mrs. David Hartner

and Mrs. Oscar Bates of Ithaca, was given away by her father, Rev. Fr. Charles Ganley performed the wedding service.

The bride was attired in a wide-skirted gown of bouquet tulle with charmingly lace appliques, fashioned with a Sabrina neckline, long sleeves and extending into a chapel train.

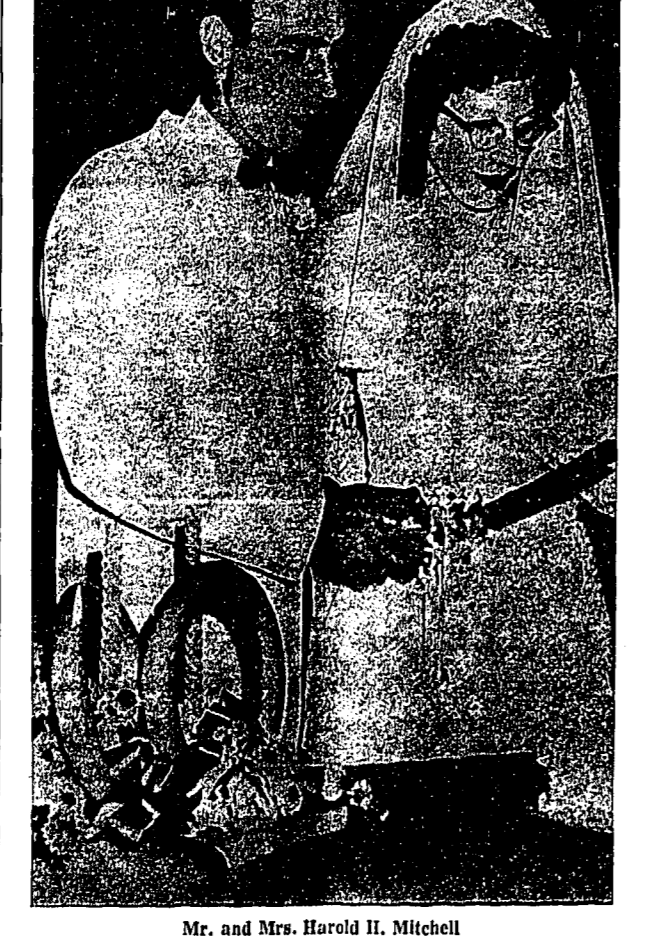

Her fingertip illusion veil was caught by a shallow crown. She carried a cascade bouquet of white chrysanthemums and pink roses.

Kathleen Bates was maid of honor for her sister. Bridesmaids were Barbara Duple of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, a college friend of the bride, and another sister, Phyllis Bates. Junior bridesmaid was Gail Ann Hartner, sister of the bridegroom.

Evabelle Clark Weds Harold Hewett Mitchell

Mr. and Mrs. Harold H. Mitchell

An autumn double-ring motif set the decorative theme for the evening wedding September 19 of Evabelle Clark and Harold Hewett Mitchell.

Miss Clark is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Clark of West street.

The groom is the son of Mrs. Lucille Pettay of Kokomo, Indiana.

Married in St. Paul's Lutheran Church

St. Paul's Evangelical church was the scene of the September 6 wedding of the Rev. and Mrs. A. Ploch, Rev. B. J. Pankow performed the marriage service.

Miss Newton is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Vernon Newton of First street.

Kenneth is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Ploch of South Haven, Michigan.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, wore a traditional white gown and carried Fuji mums and gladioli.

Her sister, Cecilia Newton, maid of honor, wore a light blue dress and carried yellow Fuji mums.

Kenneth asked his brother, Richard, to be best man.

Ushers were Walter Newton and Elvin Newton, brothers of the bride. The church was decorated with chrysanthemums and gladioli.

Glenn Deibert sang "O Promise Me" and "The Lord's Prayer". A reception for approximately 100 guests was held in the church parlor.

After a wedding trip to northern Michigan, the couple is now residing at 839 Scott avenue.

JOB WELL DONE — Everybody's happy in this group! The new store fronts for Ellis Electricals, EMB Market and Revitzer Shoe Service are receiving final touches for the grand opening celebration this week end. Owners of the three stores are shown with Ray Van Valkenburg (second from left) of the Masonic Temple association, the organization that owns the building and directed the modernization. The lodge is located upstairs in the building. With Van Valkenburg are (l. to r.) S. A. Ellis, Clifford LeFevre and Joe Revitzer. For Revitzer the grand opening is also very close to an anniversary. October 25 he will celebrate 35 years in business in Northville.

CONNEMARA GOES AHEAD — Some 17 new lots in Connemara Hills have passed sanitary tests since Novi township ordered a re-test of all lots two months ago. Several septic failures had been reported. Since then, only one lot has failed to pass. Here, Building Inspector Harold Ackley and Robert Goodwin, of the Howard T. Keating company, discuss the latest successful test. In background is one of three new homes under construction.

Northville City Council Proceedings

A regular meeting of the Northville City Council was held at the City Hall Monday Eve., Sept. 22, 1958 at 8:00 P.M.

Present: Mayor Allen, Councilmen Canterbury, Reed, Stubevald and Allen.

Minutes of last regular meeting were read and approved.

The following bills were presented for payment:

From General Fund $36,601.88
From Water Fund 1,302.88
It was moved by Welch, supported by Reed, that bills be allowed and paid. Carried.

Bruce Turnbull, representing the Retail Merchants Ass'n., talked with the City Council about their contribution to the Christmas street decorations for 1958. Mayor Allen informed him that this matter would be considered further by the Council and an answer given in a few weeks. Mayor Allen appointed Councilmen Stubevald and Reed to meet with the Retail Merchants Ass'n. in reference to this matter.

Bids were then opened for two deep-well Turbine Pumps and controls.

A special meeting was held Tuesday Eve., Sept. 16th, 1958 to award the contract covering these bids.

The contract for two Deep-Well Pumps was awarded to the low bidder, Layne-Northern Co. of Lansing, Michigan. Price $3062.00.

The contract for the controls was awarded to the low bidder, Charles F. Warrick. Price $1,855.00.

Atty. Ogilvie reported on the progress of the purchase of the Hills property.

Water rates for the Race Track were the next item on the agenda. Mr. Robertson reported that he had contacted Hazel Park as to their charges for this service, and he was instructed to get further information from the Wolverine Race Track before a decision is made as to what the City should charge Northville. Doves for water and sewer. Mr. Robertson was also instructed to negotiate with the Downs about installing meters where the City knows the water goes into the sewer, (as much of the water used at the Track does not empty into the sewer) and that a lump sum be charged for the balance of water used.

Atty. Ogilvie was requested to review the agreement between the City and the D & R Bldg. and report what the city's obligation is in developing the boundary streets.

Mr. Robertson reported that inasmuch as he uses the car purchased from the Federal Surplus for his business around town, that he should not receive a car allowance, but that when necessary to use his own car for out-of-town trips he should be allowed mileage. This arrangement was with the approval of the Council.

Mr. Robertson also reported that a man had been hired to police the dump for the profit he can make off the salvage he collects from same. He will receive no salary.

Regarding the Fairbrook Spring property, grass is to be planted on it this fall.

Reporting on the sidewalk proposition on Orchard Dr., Councilman Reed recommended that a gravel path be put in front of the Harry Smith and Wardziak properties at sidewalk level. Mr. Robertson was instructed to see Miss Ruth Knapp about this matter.

Atty. Ogilvie presented a resolution which he had prepared between the City and Northville Downs regarding the River St. property, but no action was taken on same, as it was felt there were points that needed to be clarified before it was accepted.

No further business appearing, meeting was adjourned.

SUNDAY CHRISTIANITY

It's quite popular to attend church services these days. We are urged through newspaper slogans and T.V. advertising to attend the "Church of your Choice" and the result is a notable increase in church attendance. Now most of us are Christians and Church people are happy about this surge of interest and yet when analyzed there is little cause for optimism. It seems to be merely a one day Christianity that has little effect upon their lives after they leave the Church. There seems to be little hope about the way they spend the rest of the Lord's day. Their religion somehow does not effect the way they carry on their business from Monday through Saturday. As one preacher put it so aptly, "The world is sick of Church people who go to Church on Sunday and then curse God and live like the ungodly during the week." There are three primary reasons for Church services. (1) The worship of God by prayer, by praise and the quiet reflection upon His holy Word. (2) That through the preaching of the Gospel, the unsaved may come to know Christ. (3) That Christians may be instructed in the way of right living. This then involves more than the sacred one hour on Sunday. Let's make our faith a seven day week Christianity.

Fined $75, Costs After Accident

Autist George Urtececk of 12 Mile road, Novi, should have stuck to billiards.

When Mrs. Donna Ann Proctor of Howell stopped to make a left turn near the 7 Mile road cutoff, Donald Moore of Berkley brought his car to a halt behind her.

But the intoxicated Urtececk, coming from behind, ran into the rear of Moore's car, and Moore, following a well-known principle, naturally ran into the rear of Mrs. Proctor's car.

Damages to the left front of Urtececk's car, the rear and front of Moore's and the rear bumper and mufflers of Mrs. Proctor's automobile totaled some $1500... $350, $850 and $300 in order of attack.

Urtececk was later fined $75 and costs in court for drunk driving.

Teacher Finds Modern Methods Best

The last time Mrs. Helen McCarthy, a third grade teacher at Northville's Main Street school, was carrying a regular Monday through Friday classroom schedule was in 1937 when she taught first grade in Northville schools.

Although she has been "subbing" on and off since then, her third grade assignment this semester marks 20 years of changes and developments in the educational system left behind.

Modern teaching has become more pupil-directed and less teacher-directed, Mrs. McCarthy says. Classes are smaller where possible, and the teacher today "endeavors to meet the child at his own learning level and carry him as far as he can go."

Several years ago slow progress in a particular subject, or even failure, was commonly regarded as almost "a social disgrace," she says.

Mustangs Snap 'Jinx'

Northville and Plymouth used the same old script Friday night, but their annual gridiron drama had a different ending than in the past couple years.

Only the red flag and a pair of Northville fumbles kept the score close in the first half. After exchanging punts with Plymouth, the Mustangs moved from their 21 to the Plymouth 16 in 10 plays, including a 26-yard gallop by Halback Spile Walker.

Final statistics give Northville a slight edge in yardage (182 to 162) and actually a deficit in first downs (4-9).

THIS ONE COUNTED — Somewhere at the bottom of this pileup, Fullback Spile Walker is clapping the pigskin. Walker's touchdown came on a one-yard plunge and put Northville out in front of Plymouth, 6-0.

WO Schedule Starts Tomorrow Night

The Wayne-Oakland league schedule gets underway tomorrow night with a full schedule of four games at Northville where Holly tangles with the defending team champion Mustangs.

Northville's 12-6 conquest of Plymouth highlighted the bill. West Bloomfield's rating was raised a notch or two when the Lakers blasted Pontiac St. Michael, 33-7, without raising a sweat.

Infectious Tuberculosis On Rise

More cases of infectious tuberculosis are being found in Detroit and Michigan this year, the Michigan T.B. and Health Society reports, reversing a trend toward decline which started in 1954.

Dr. W. L. Howard, medical superintendent of Maybury sanatorium, commented that families should be reminded that tuberculosis is still a serious disease.

"We've entered into a period of complacency that is grave," Dr. Howard said.

He attributed it largely to "a boomerang of modern treatment."

"Patients experience prompt and extensive improvement under modern drug treatment and think they can ignore continued medical instruction and the admonition of the staff."

"They feel good in 3-4 months and leave treatment early. The average case takes something little less than a year to be ready for release."

Doctors have been concerned about the increase for several months, Dr. Howard added.

"The trend is beginning to show the opposite effect from what we were enthused about five years ago when the T.B. death rate was reduced from 25-5 percent with new drugs."

A large percentage of new cases is among children. Dr. Howard declared.

"It is nearly 80 percent of children's cases we've been able to trace the source of infection to some adult with T.B."

"Many such adults have been sanatorium patients who have left against medical advice, knowing they could spread their T.B.; in some cases, it's been almost maliciously done."

"Although 'not all patients are scoundrels' and not all have contagious T.B.," Dr. Howard explained that "several outstanding cases on the hospital record show that one person has been known to infect 8, 10 and 13 children."

At Maybury, which handles all children's cases in the Detroit area, he said, the greatest demand in beds recently has been among children patients below five years of age.

Hospital beds for children are completely filled, he reported, and the problem has become one of partitioning out facilities to the best effect.

"T.B. is a serious problem for children," he continued, "while adults can protect themselves against carriers, children might not."

"We can more or less tolerate T.B. in a person over middle age, who has had a pretty full life, but it's harder to rationalize crippling T.B. in a three-month-old child, when it is a three-month-old child, when it can be prevented."

Some persons with contagious T.B. are committed to hospitals through legal action, Dr. Howard pointed out. Any person having active T.B. who will not or cannot protect others against catching his infection must submit to the verdict of the courts.

"Patients not committed by the courts can't be restrained, he explained, and very few patients are committed through the courts.

With treatment being paid out of tax money, the increase brings up another issue, he added.

"It is entirely unfair to taxpayers when patients leave prematurely or put off medical care."

"The person who returns after having allowed time for the disease to spread in himself, doubles, triples and quadruples the cost of treatment."

Illustrating the extent to which the problem has developed, Dr. Howard pointed out that with the fiscal year ending June 30, records showed that nearly 30 percent of the patients committed to the sanatorium had been previously treated.

"The delay in legal proceedings gives ample time for contagious T.B. carriers to infect others."

Two basic principles for effective control, the Doctor suggested, are to check spreaders; and to discover and treat T.B. in others before they become contagious.

Besides appealing to patients' responsibility not to expose others to contagious T.B., Dr. Howard recommended control measures of x-ray examination for all adults who suspect they might have come in contact with an infected person, and regular tuberculin skin tests for children.

"T.B. is not a respecter of persons," the doctor concluded, "it can affect persons in all walks of life, and of all ages."

U. of M. Extension Classes Include Seven Credit Courses

Theater appreciation, introductory astronomy and introductions to logic are all being offered in Ann Arbor as extension courses for the first time this fall by the University of Michigan Extension Service.

They are included in a group of seven credit courses which will begin next week. Enrollment is open, however, to those interested only in subject matter and not in credit.

"Theater Appreciation: The Arts of the Theater" is a lecture course surveying the arts of the playwright, actor, director and designer. Attention will also be given to opera, musical comedy, films and television, all approached from the point of view of the audience.

Conducted by Dr. Bruce L. Nary, the course opens at 7:30 p.m. next Tuesday in 171 School of Business Administration.

"Introductory Astronomy" is an elementary discussion of the methods and instruments of the astronomer and the results obtained by applying them to the solar system. Visits to the Angell Hall Observatory will be included. Instructor is Professor Hazel M. Losh. Opening session will meet at 7:30 p.m. 30 2003 Angell Hall on Monday.

"Introduction to Logic" is the first course in philosophy to be offered in the Ann Arbor program. Dr. Carl Cohen will give attention to the principles of argument and proof, both deductive and inductive, and to the theory of languages and communication and to the methods of science. Opening session will meet at 7:30 p.m. next Thursday in 168 School of Business Administration.

Other credit courses in the Ann Arbor extension program are "Money and Banking," "Personal Administration," "Introduction to Literature: Short Story and Poetry," "Elementary General Psychology" and "Fundamentals of Speaking."

Roger Babson Beating the Recession

Babson Park, Mass. — Government decisions, including those determining federal and local taxes, will now affect our businesses and personal lives more than ever before. To prosper in business, we must know what our government is doing on all affairs. We must also heed the Law of Supply and Demand. Our politicians refuse to tell the voters the truth about this Law. Importance of Community Prices. Goods are plentiful today, for the most part. Now that the shortages of war and its aftermath are gone, few people stop to think much about commodities and the Law of Supply and Demand. Many who invest stable sums in securities — some times nearly all their life's savings — will buy stocks in companies about which they know little. When I buy stocks, I like to know something about the goods or services which the company makes or sells; to find out what raw materials it uses, and how plentiful or scarce these are. Knowledge of such conditions, upon which your investments depend, will help you when buying or selling a business, when seeking new employment, and especially when making investment decisions.

Depressions Are Natural
The Law of Supply and Demand shows that there is nothing unnatural about depressions. Those who prepare for both depressions and booms by keeping out of debt and working harder and better will have little to fear. The present recession should be a healthy development, reducing investments and labor markets of the last boom.
During a recession period merchants should increase their advertising. At the same time, they should attend more strictly to business by reducing investments and labor markets. Manufacturers should recognize that recessions call for a thorough reorganization of their employment and manufacturing to bring them into closer harmony with prevailing supply-demand conditions. Agriculture should be reminded that freezes and drought also are natural and should prepare for them. There is no sense in thinking that the economy will remain stationary.

Michigan Mirror Laws for Delinquents

DELINQUENCY among the teenagers of the new rock and roll generation is creating new ripples in the minds of the men who make the laws for Michigan.
Muggings, sluggings, robberies, car theft, vandalism — and a clutch of laws like our standard of living, but she does possess vast resources, excellent scientists, and a dedicated, disciplined determination to make the best use of these resources and talents to advance her political aims.
Russia does not now possess anything like our standard of living, but she does possess vast resources, excellent scientists, and a dedicated, disciplined determination to make the best use of these resources and talents to advance her political aims.

Money and Labor Markets
Few people fully understand our money system or the precise significance of labor in our economy. Banks make their money only by lending cash. Wage earners secure their employment according to their ability. At the same time, they should attend more strictly to business by reducing investments and labor markets. Manufacturers should recognize that recessions call for a thorough reorganization of their employment and manufacturing to bring them into closer harmony with prevailing supply-demand conditions. Agriculture should be reminded that freezes and drought also are natural and should prepare for them. There is no sense in thinking that the economy will remain stationary.

Chats with Parents Helping the Teacher Teach Your Child

Some misguided parents take literally the oft-repeated statement of educators that parents should share the task of educating their children; they overlook the fact that educating a child consists of much more than teaching him to read and write. Though the child learns little or nothing about these academic skills before he enters school, he does learn a great deal about home, community, and people which provides a necessary background for the things the school seeks to teach him.

Tuck Named First Village President

The man who led Novi's incorporation movement from its very beginning three years ago was sworn into office Wednesday night as first president of the Village of Novi.

Walter Tuck was elected to the office by a unanimous vote of his four fellow councilmen.

Tuck and Councilmen Dix Greenberg, Russell Burton, Dicon Tairalian and Philip Anderson took the oath of office from Harry Watson in his last official act as charter commissioner.

Greenberg, who served as clerk of the charter commission, was elected president pro tem.

Though the vote for president was not cast until last night, it was certain for several days that Tuck would be named.

Tuck was a prime force behind incorporation since it was first seriously discussed three years ago. He headed the Novi board of commerce committee which first studied incorporation and then set the issue on the ballot last fall. In that election, he led the field of 10 candidates seeking five seats on Novi's village council.

Tuck served as chairman of that group while it ground out the lengthy document during the spring and summer. Then two weeks ago he again led a field of 10 candidates seeking five seats on Novi's village council.

Throughout the long incorporation process, Tuck gained the respect of co-workers and the general public alike. Even opponents of incorporation had only good words for him personally.

A life-long resident of Novi, Tuck has owned Novi Auto Parts on Grand River since 1928.

He is no stranger to public and civic office. In the past he has served as Novi school board president, board of commerce president, fire chief, and in various positions with church and lodge groups.

Tuck will serve for two years as village president, a position commensurate to mayor of a city.

He will be the village's chief executive and will preside over council meetings, but his vote will carry only the same weight as votes of other councilmen. He will have no veto power.

The council has tentatively scheduled its first regular meeting for next Monday at the township hall. At that time, the council will begin the difficult task of putting the new village on its feet and of finding funds with which to do it.

First step will probably be to name a village clerk. Until the clerk files copies of the village charter with state and county officials, Novi village will not be officially recognized.

Among the next steps will probably be setting a meeting time and place, completing final details of the charter election, assessing the village's final situation, and possibly making such appointments as village manager and treasurer.

Councilmen will probably get together with township officials soon to discuss ways of making a smooth transition from township to village government.

OK, Quarterbacks; Try and Pick Them

It's time again for the "armchair quarterbacks" to sharpen their wits and pencils and "pick-the-winners" in the Warren's annual football contest.

Once again $15 in cash prizes will be given weekly during the football season to the contestants who most accurately predict the outcome of 15 games. There's nothing to buy but a pencil and a pen.

Actually, past performances reveal that it's usually the "expert" who enters just to show her husband or son that she knows her football. But everyone has fun trying to predict the ups and downs of the game.

Fifteen area merchants are sponsoring the contest which this week appears on page 11.

For the first week — as a special bonus (?) — readers will have the advantage of some expert advice from "Ye Old Contest Editor" who foresees an upset or two this Saturday.

So write these down before you forget: SMTU to surprise Notre-Dame; the Wolverines to win new heights to join the Big Ten; Air Force to enter the big time football picture with a victory over several Iowa; and Green Bay to scare the Lions, but fall short by three points. (This last bit of information should be of tremendous help as contestants must pick the probable score of the professional game.)
