Let's Keep Chief BeGole

Novi should have great reluctance in losing Chief Lee BeGole. He has been many friends during his seven years of administration as police chief in Novi.

Police Chief Withdraws Resignation

Police Chief Lee BeGole, persuaded by a barrage of public appeals, withdrew his letter of resignation Friday night at a special meeting of the village council.

The chief, who has already been appointed police chief of Cheboygan, Michigan, was granted an indefinite leave of absence by the council to give him time to explain his position to Cheboygan officials and perhaps help them secure a substitute chief.

Booming Waterford Community Died in Flames

NOTE—This is the fifth article in the series by News Editor Jack Hoffman dealing with the early history of the area. To date he has covered the history of Novi and Wixom.

Most of the pioneers of the Waterford settlement are buried in the Waterford cemetery donated by Ramsdell and located on Franklin road.

Waterford Industries Mead's Mill faced on Mill street. Later a frame, entry store was erected west of the mill near Northville road.

Three cooper shops (barrel factories) were erected, and with the throng of farmers' wagons bringing wheat to the mill, Waterford became a bustling community.

The date was set this week by the secretary of state's office in answer to petitions for annexation submitted by Northville Estates subdivision.

Actually, the area proposed for annexation includes 120 acres of Novi township (Northville Estates) and 135 acres of the village of Novi.

The primary turnout represented 43 percent of the 668 registered city electors. Two years ago close to 80 percent of the qualified voters went to the polls in approving the city charter and electing the first city officials.

William Alfred and Robert Hughes, who took the position that village incorporation does not offer protection against annexation by neighboring cities.

Howard E. Coe, a political newcomer to Wixom, surprised many election prognosticators by winning the second highest number of votes—131—in his bid for the one-year post.

But board members have chosen to "go along" with the residents of the area in question, all city residents who are qualified electors may vote.

Registration deadline for the election is February 28. While only residents of the proposed area are eligible to vote in Novi, all city residents who are qualified electors may vote.

A majority must vote in favor of the Novi Teachers club. Entire program was provided by school chairman.

Blueberry Dessert A Luncheon Treat

Here's a tasty and good looking blueberry dessert that has the hearty recommendation of Mrs. Gordon Forrer's club friends. Naturally, it's an excellent idea for club desserts.

Variations with cherry or peach topping can be tried. Mrs. Forrer says, but she finds blueberry's best. The recipe serves 8.

BLUEBERRY DESSERT
Mrs. Gordon Forrer
GRAHAM CRACKER SHELL
20 graham crackers
1/2 lb. melted butter
1/2 cup sugar

Mix sugar with crumbled graham crackers. Layer add butter, blending into even mixture. Line coffee cake pan with crust. FILLING 1 large pkg. cream cheese

2 whole eggs
1/2 cup sugar
1 tsp. vanilla
Beat eggs until fluffy. Mix together eggs, sugar and vanilla. Add, a little at a time, to cream cheese.

1 tsp. lemon juice
whipped cream
Add lemon juice to pie filling. Brands of filling vary somewhat in thickness. To thicken, add 1 tsp. arrow root.

Spoon topping on top of baked layer after it has cooled. Chill in refrigerator. Serve with whipped cream.

The Record will publish recipes of Northville-Novl area cooks every week of 1960. At the end of the year the recipes with the chef's byline will be published in booklet form and distributed throughout the Northville-Novl area.

A business-like assemblage of spinning wheels, looms and sewing needles will give a rare performance next Monday at the AAUW tea and craft show, 5:30 p.m., at the home of Mrs. Donald E. Sobor, 15465 Bradner road, Plymouth.

Some real treats are in store. Northville's Mrs. T. G. Hedges will demonstrate tapestry weaving and spinning on Norwegian looms and spinning wheels.

Other Northville demonstrators are Mrs. Charles Yahnke and Mrs. Thomas Cummings, showing techniques of English smocking and weaving on home-made looms.

Altogether six AAUW women, including the hostess, Mrs. Sobor, will show tabby weaving, brocade, double warp and tapestry weaving.

Other demonstrators will include Navajo weaving methods using looms made of lilac branches and Guatemala belt weaving.

Displays will also be featured. The Michigan Needle Workers, a group who do fine hand sewing, will show work on collars, children's dresses, towels and baby clothes.

Stylish collections of the Nutmeg House will also be open to guests. The collection includes antique tools nearly 100 years old taken from the old Northville ice house, 80-year-old shaver-stroke tools, and a Norwegian tapestry loom and spinning wheels for flax, wool and linen.

Proceeds from donations will go toward the AAUW building fund.

SCHOLARSHIP FINALISTS — Two of the 10,000 finalists from more than 500,000 senior students tested in the National Merit Scholarship competition are Crispin Hammond and Nancy Board of Northville high school. Shows above completing a 'heat of fusion' experiment in their physics class, Crispin and Nancy must wait until April to learn just how high they finished. Merit Scholarships are four-year awards and range from $100 to $10,000 per year. Grades, leadership, citizenship and extra-curricular activities are also considered along with the test scores. The national organization gets its funds from a $20.5 million grant from the Ford Foundation and Carnegie Corporation. It is considered a rarity to have two finalists from one high school.

Petitions to Vacate Village Go into Cold Storage at Novi

Petitions calling for the return of the village to township status are going into cold storage — at least until after the spring election. That's the word from Miss Eugenie Choquet, unofficial leader of the "back to township" movement. Miss Choquet, who is a candidate for one of the three council seats up for election, told councilmen Monday night she had decided to postpone the presentation of the petitions pending the outcome of the March 14 election. She indicated, however, that enough petition signatures had already been secured. The petitions must contain signatures of at least 450 legal voters before they can be recognized by the council. Specifically, the petitions ask the village council to call for an election to vacate the village (return to township) as provided under a state statute and as adopted by reference in the village charter. Even before Miss Choquet made her statement, Richard Pullen told councilmen that he felt sure the circulation of the petitions was an indication of the general dissatisfaction with the village manager. He suggested that the council ask for the manager's resignation to curb the "back to township" movement. Emery Jacques, on the other hand, said that if anyone had to be blamed for village problems it was the council — not the manager. "I'm sick and tired of complaints about individuals — particularly since the manager operates as the village council directs."

Withdraws Resignation

to consider it. Although the council did not reveal what compromises could be effected, it indicated that most of the differences were minor and could be easily resolved. However, the council reiterated its position that the chief must — under the village charter — be responsible to the manager. Some of the "problems" which led to BeGole's resignation include: insufficient police force, inadequate police training program, poor police office privacy, no authorization to make up his department's working schedule, and an order that his officers issue more traffic violation tickets.

By Elementary Study Group 'Three-Year First Grade, 'Readiness' Check Asked

A 1960 version of the little red schoolhouse formula would be "the 3's plus 7's" if the just-released elementary curriculum study report is any indicator. Although television as a teaching medium is but one of the areas covered in the study, a revolutionary development in itself, almost all parts of the school program — from teaching methods to curriculum selection — have obviously taken on a job-age wrinkle these past few years. Just how much have our elementary schools "grown up" in one generation? Without actually saying so, the report makes some interesting revelations. First, there's the new issue of television as a teaching medium. Foreign languages are now seen as a basic modern communication need. And images of the student and the classroom have undergone basic changes, as report recommendations indicate. Work of the 38-member committee received high praise from the Northville school board when its completed report was presented and accepted. By request of the board, the study was begun in September, 1958.

READERS SPEAK: Smaller Lots Not Needed In Northville Township, Yet

The Editor: Tuesday evening, February 9, a public hearing was held in the Township offices relative to adoption of a new residential classification, R-1H Country Homes District. Its adoption would permit erection of homes on lots having a minimum of 10,000 square feet by permissive reclassification of present zoning. I appeared at this meeting as an interested R-1E (Country Estates) or more resident to learn of the benefits to accrue from or objections to such a change. On the side of benefits the Zoning Board indicated this change was the result of an extensive study by the board in anticipation of a need for smaller lots evidenced by a "trend" to larger homes on smaller than acre lots. A true trend is a gradual development, a tendency, an inclination. This would seem to preclude the need for this change until some real demand was made for it of a repetitious nature.

Michigan Hunters Favor "Any Deer"

Deer hunters currently being polled by the Conservation Department are two-to-one in favor of "any deer" hunting in Michigan, preliminary returns of an opinion survey reveal.

Sixty-four percent of the hunters responding answered "yes" to the question, "Do you think it is necessary to shoot 'any deer' while the remainder gave no answer."

Post-card questionnaires were mailed to hunters throughout the state January 30. Hunters were randomly selected from 1959 license tabs. By February approximately 50 percent had replied.

In 1956 and 1957, the "pro" and "con" percentages were virtually the same concerning "any deer" hunting. In 1958, slightly more than 60 percent favored the department's deer management while 37 percent were against it.

Following the first "any deer" season in 1952, more than 300 persons wrote to the division; about 60 expressed their views on the department's deer management program.

Of these 600, roughly 50 percent were opposed to the taking of deer and fawns. The remaining 41 percent supported "any deer" seasons. Desermination game men consider the latter percentage quite dramatic since those harboring a complaint are more apt to state their case than those who are satisfied or nearly so.

Bulldogs Win 70-66 At Brighton

With an eye toward its second straight Wayne-Oakland league championship, Brighton was forced to fight to the wire to clip last place Northville, 70-66, in its own gymnasium last Friday.

The Bulldog victory, coupled with a loss by Clarenceville, catapulted Brighton back into a first place tie with the Trojans. Earlier in the season, Brighton lost to Northville in an exciting 53-52 match.

For the Mustangs who have lost their last five league games, Friday's defeat was in many ways a victory. It was the first time since the team began its ascendance that it looked like a polished quintet.

Despite the loss, Coach Dutch Van Ingen was pleased with his squad's performance, particularly during the first two quarters.

Behind the 8-point split by Guard Roger Acheson, the Mustangs grabbed a 19-15 first quarter lead. Acheson then went on to score the second game, but teammate Wade Deal took the offensive, flipping in five field goals. His 16 points and four charging touchdowns helped the Mustangs to a 37-17 second-quarter Northville point lead.

The Bulldogs, paced by lanky center Don Appleton, forged back with 23 points in the second stanza, claiming a 38-30 lead at the halfway mark. Appleton scored 8 points in the first quarter, added 11 more in the second.

Brighton widened its lead to 8 points in the third stanza, 59-51, as Appleton netted three more field goals and four charging touchdowns. Michigan scored 17 points while the Mustangs led 16-0.

The tall Brighton center, who scored 24 points in the earlier game, led his squad in scoring Friday by blistering the hoops for 34 points. Acheson took honors for Northville with 19 points while teammates Wade Deal and Forward Steve Judy scored 16 and 14, respectively.

Colts Salvage Victory After Loss to Brighton

Brighton's junior varsity cagers crushed Northville Friday, 59-50, but the Colts picked themselves off the losing end of Plymouth the following night, 53-45.

In their attempt to avenge an earlier 50-46 loss to Brighton, the Colts took a slim 87-lead at the first quarter mark, before the Bulldogs launched their sizzling barrage.

By intermission time, Brighton had jumped to a comfortable 23-19 lead.

Brighton added 11 more points in the third stanza, then peppered the net for 26 points in the final frame. Meanwhile, the Colts added to their lead in the third quarter, 4 in the fourth.

Center David Filkin led Northville's futile attack with 11 points. William Chapple and Don Busch were the next highest scorers for the Colts with 5 and 4 points, respectively.

Brighton's Guard Dennis Pearsall collected six field goals and five charity shots for a total of 17 points.

The Colts appeared ready to lose another game in the opening minutes of the Plymouth game. They could muster only 5 points in each of the first two quarters while Plymouth scored 12 in the first, 6 in the second.

Down 10-0 at the intermission, the Colts took the lead to 7 points by the close of the third stanza.

Three Northville cagers sparked to life in the final quarter, scoring a total of 16 points. With less than five seconds to play, Dave Filkin hit a 3-point shot.

They're Losing But Gaining

Although the Northville wrestlers have lost most of their matches, they are beginning to gain ground.

"They look 100 percent better now than when the season opened in January. Our heavy weights are real good; they can hold their own with the best."

"It's the lighter weights where we are having trouble. But these fellows are improving along with the bigger boys."

The coach is quick to explain that even though the team continues to lose, it is scoring more and more points in each match.

In the last two matches Hazel Park trimmed the Mustangs, 31-21, while Livonia Bentley grabbed a 30-20 victory.

Bill Judy, 180-pound class, earned 3 team points against Bentley; Blaine Ashley, 165, took 3 points, and Terry Chene, 154, took 2.

Against Hazel Park, Doug Tyler, 135-pound class, outpointed his opponent 9-4 to take 3 points; Chene won 12-4 for 3 points; Ashley pinned his opponent in the first period for 5 points; Fred Mitchell, 180, pinned his opponent in the final period for 5; and Jerry Bidle pinned his man in the opening period for 5.

Mustangs Gain Weekend Split

Bulldogs Win 70-66 At Brighton

With an eye toward its second straight Wayne-Oakland league championship, Brighton was forced to fight to the wire to clip last place Northville, 70-66, in its own gymnasium last Friday.

The Bulldog victory, coupled with a loss by Clarenceville, catapulted Brighton back into a first place tie with the Trojans. Earlier in the season, Brighton lost to Northville in an exciting 53-52 match.

For the Mustangs who have lost their last five league games, Friday's defeat was in many ways a victory. It was the first time since the team began its ascendance that it looked like a polished quintet.

Despite the loss, Coach Dutch Van Ingen was pleased with his squad's performance, particularly during the first two quarters.

Behind the 8-point split by Guard Roger Acheson, the Mustangs grabbed a 19-15 first quarter lead. Acheson then went on to score the second game, but teammate Wade Deal took the offensive, flipping in five field goals. His 16 points and four charging touchdowns helped the Mustangs to a 37-17 second-quarter Northville point lead.

The Bulldogs, paced by lanky center Don Appleton, forged back with 23 points in the second stanza, claiming a 38-30 lead at the halfway mark. Appleton scored 8 points in the first quarter, added 11 more in the second.

Brighton widened its lead to 8 points in the third stanza, 59-51, as Appleton netted three more field goals and four charging touchdowns. Michigan scored 17 points while the Mustangs led 16-0.

The tall Brighton center, who scored 24 points in the earlier game, led his squad in scoring Friday by blistering the hoops for 34 points. Acheson took honors for Northville with 19 points while teammates Wade Deal and Forward Steve Judy scored 16 and 14, respectively.

In other W-O games, West Bloomfield upset Clarenceville, 51-45, Michigan continued scoring its victory path by rolling over Bloomfield Hills, 62-48, and Clarkston swamped Holly, 70-0.

Michigan Hunters Favor "Any Deer"

Deer hunters currently being polled by the Conservation Department are two-to-one in favor of "any deer" hunting in Michigan, preliminary returns of an opinion survey reveal.

Sixty-four percent of the hunters responding answered "yes" to the question, "Do you think it is necessary to shoot 'any deer' while the remainder gave no answer."

Post-card questionnaires were mailed to hunters throughout the state January 30. Hunters were randomly selected from 1959 license tabs. By February approximately 50 percent had replied.

In 1956 and 1957, the "pro" and "con" percentages were virtually the same concerning "any deer" hunting. In 1958, slightly more than 60 percent favored the department's deer management while 37 percent were against it.

Following the first "any deer" season in 1952, more than 300 persons wrote to the division; about 60 expressed their views on the department's deer management program.

Of these 600, roughly 50 percent were opposed to the taking of deer and fawns. The remaining 41 percent supported "any deer" seasons. Desermination game men consider the latter percentage quite dramatic since those harboring a complaint are more apt to state their case than those who are satisfied or nearly so.

The Rev. Peter Niskanen, Pastor
First Baptist Church, Northville

BODY - SOUL - SPIRIT
Man is a trinity. God has created him with a body, a soul, and a spirit. (1 Thess. 5:23).
The body has to do with the material, physical part of man, while the soul and spirit has to do with the immaterial, inner man. All men are herein alike.
However, there is a vast difference between a person that is a Christian and a person that is not a Christian. This difference is the realm of his spirit. The non-Christian's spirit is not alive towards God. Ephesians 2:1 says, "He is dead in trespasses and sins", even though he may be very much alive in his body and soul. Paul made reference in 1 Timothy 3:16 to widows living in pleasure as being "dead while she liveth". This is true of every unregenerated human being. God is not in all of his thoughts. He is not interested in religious things. He doesn't understand and furthermore he doesn't care!

HUMAN NATURE THINKS HORIZONTALLY
Since man is by nature dead spiritually, he thinks only horizontally. Being active in his soul, he is man-conscious but not God-conscious. For this reason he may make himself very acceptable to man.
He may be a good neighbor, a good citizen and a man of good works. He may be very well educated and possess lofty ideals, but for all of this there is something missing in the realm of his spirit. He cannot understand much about things

OUT OF THE PAST
ONE YEAR AGO...
The city council's campaign to "sell" his proposed $300,000 water improvement program rolled nicely on its way this week with the climax just days away.
The complex sale of 2.1 acres of river street property by the city to Northville Downs is finally nearing completion.
Purchase of the land, which is owned by the county, was proposed nearly two years ago. In a drive sparked by the late Mayor Claude Ely the city blocked efforts of the Downs to buy the land directly from the county.
Mayor A. Malcolm Allen was elected a regional officer of the Michigan Municipal League's Region III at the annual meeting of the group in Highland Park last Thursday.
Playing without the team's star forward, Northville's junior varsity quintet throttled Milford 52-40 Friday and then stumbled beneath the rampaging Willow Run cagers Saturday, 68-44.
The orchestra of "last minute" tradesmen - carpenters, painters, electricians, and moving men - have begun tuning up for a fast-paced finale of the new Northville high school.
FIVE YEARS AGO...
A $750,000 appropriation for construction of an occupational and recreational therapy building at Northville State hospital is recommended by Gov. G. Mennen Williams in his budget message to the state legislature.
It is planned to start construction of additions and improvements to the Walled Lake school system about March 1, according to Superintendent of Schools Clifford Smart.
Ninety dollars was donated to the March of Dimes drive by the children of Nov. school in a special program last week at the community building. Fifth graders assisting in the school drive were Larson, Shirley Coleman, Fred Ann and Donna Lien.
A freak accident caused the loss of an eye to Coln Sikilla, 13, of Walled Lake while he and Dick Norton were in Dodge park. The boys were carrying a BB gun as they walked through woods, when they saw a shotgun shell half buried in the ice. Coln shot at the shell, which exploded, one pellet grazing his eye and the other lodging in his chest.
FIFTEEN YEARS AGO...
Tuesday evening at the high school gym an event of an unusual interest to civilians and veterans alike was witnessed by a crowd of approximately 150. The installation and dedication of the National Housing Act office, to the Exchange club building, was the occasion of the event.

READY TO GO - Some 250 safety patrol buses and spent an afternoon at the Shrine Circus Tuesday. The trip was arranged by the Northville Police Department with Officer Gil Gibson accompanying the children, along with 10 other adult chaperones. The buses were provided by the schools and John Sackett, while tickets for the events were purchased by T. A. Carrington, Ed Bogart, Jack Gray, Dr. George Chouin, Conrad Langfield and Angelo Gadali.

Debaters in Regionals Today
For the first time in the eight-year history of Wayne-Oakland league debating, Northville lost the conference championship this season. Clarkson won top honors.
The Mustangs won five of their eight debates this season, while the Junior varsity team topped eight veterans in six meets under the guidance of Coach Miss Florence Panatier.
Last season the varsity debaters won seven and lost only one.

6'S SWORN TO SAVE
Chevy's 6-cylinder engines are so equipped with fuel economy, high performance.
SHORT STROKE V8'S
Power-packed for peak performance, Chevy's lanky V8's make light's play out of the toughest hauls. They have a mild tuned to economy, too, that keeps costs down, profits up.
SLICK NEW SUBURBAN CARRIAGES
These handsome new handy haulers "double in brass" - can transport eight passengers or up to 950 lbs. of payload. Rear and center seats are easy to remove and replace when necessary. For work or for pleasure, these double-duty beauties are best for both!

WORTH MORE BECAUSE THEY WORK MORE!
Compare this list of Chevy advances with the features ordinary trucks are still talking about. You'll see why Chevy trucks get more work done in a day... why they go extra thousands of miles before trade-in time. These Sturdy-Bilt Sixties aren't just new, they're a full scale revolution!

TORSION-SPRING RIDE
Each front wheel, suspended independently of the other, is free to step individually over bumps. Anti shockproof cushion springs up front soak up the jars and jolts before they reach the body. With three rugged, non-rattled shock absorbers, Chevy gives you the smoothest truck ride you've ever felt.
NO SHIMMY, NO WHEEL FIGHT
Drive a '60 Chevy. Just once. Right away you'll notice the absence of I-beam shimmy and wheel shimmy common on ordinary trucks.

CABS FOR BIG GUYS
Big guys get a bigger break in a Chevy cab. There's plenty of space inside to stretch out and relax; more room for hats and bins, more room for wide shoulders and long legs. There's horizon-line visibility through windshield with 25% more glass area; a new seat-adjustable instrument panel. Cabs are safer, too, up to 65% more rigid.

SPEAKING for the Record

By Bill Slinger

Although little has been said, or printed, in recent weeks, the financial problems facing Community General hospital have not diminished. Operating at about an 18 to 20 patient average, the hospital has been "holding its own". Weakest department, from the standpoint of occupancy, has been the maternity section. It is pointed out that the hospital facilities were not available when present operations were making plans with their doctors for a hospital.

In short, the board is optimistic and definitely convinced of the need for Community General.

Right now the board is wrestling with two problems: 1. The immediate economic situation; 2. The long-range picture.

We expect to have more information on the first problem to publish in our news columns soon. It's enough to say now that the board of directors is attempting to negotiate with the owners of the facility (Abraham Farris and Dr. Howard Berg) to clarify present financial arrangements and establish a firm price for outright purchase of the building and equipment by the Community board.

Once this is done the board will undertake a fund-raising drive to permit proper operation of the hospital to meet current and near-future demands.

But board officers are now convinced that the real answer to hospital needs for the area lies in the state hospital authority act.

Briefly, this act was passed in 1945 to permit the establishment of "hospital authorities" by two or more cities, townships or incorporated villages, or any combination thereof.

Such an authority — the Peoples Community Hospital Authority — now exists in the Wayne county area of Taylor, Huron, Nankin, Flat Rock, Wayne, Inkster, Dearborn (township), Romulus, Sumpter, Ecorse, River Rouge, Lincoln Park, Melvindale, Trenton, Allen Park, Ypsilanti, Salem, Superior and Auguste. The authority operates a hospital in Ypsilanti, Ann Arbor and Outer Drive hospitals, and has under consideration an 85-bed hospital in Trenton.

To form such an authority voters of the governmental areas involved must approve a tax levy not to exceed 4/10th of a mill annually.

After voter approval the governing bodies of each unit appoints one member to the hospital authority board for each 20,000 population, or fraction thereof. Seven members at large are named by the appointed board members to form the authority board.

With its funds (which may come from an annual levy of less than the 4/10ths limit) the authority may then plan for building or expanding of hospitals as they are needed within the area limits of the authority.

Interest in such an authority has increased to a point that Mayor A. M. Allen (also treasurer of the Community General hospital board) has asked the city council for permission to bring in an expert on the subject to acquaint local officials.

As a matter of discussion, the local hospital board has suggested approaching South Lyon, Novi, Northville (city and township) and possibly Walled Lake, Plymouth and Livonia in formation of such an authority. The possibility of joining the existing "Peoples" authority will also be explored.

At any rate, the local hospital board now feels that only through this act (without a major supporting grant) can the present and future population of our area expect to have adequate hospital facilities anywhere near at hand.

It is most likely that the present Community General hospital facilities would be made to do until such population growth would require a new facility. The authority would then determine the proper size and location of such a hospital.

Highly appreciative, the Peoples Authority is currently operating at an average cost per home owner of $1.20 per year. Through bonding, supported by the tax income, it has constructed three hospitals, expanded a fourth and plans more expansions.

State on Economy 'Kick'

ECONOMY is the watchword of the 1960 legislative session. Both sides say it is needed. The question is where and how much.

Two senators showed where $43,800,000 could be saved by a "drastic pruning program."

Governor Williams said the program — advanced, but not advocated, by Republicans Clyde Gerwig and Lynn O. Francis of Midland — was too drastic. The senators themselves said it might be too drastic.

Less dramatic was the economy program outlined by Williams in his budget message.

Under Williams' economy program, the state would have to spend money to save money.

The governor asked for $75,000 for a study on an electronic data processing system which he said would ultimately produce savings of at least $250,000 annually; $384,311 to convert a state factory at Taylor to a central laundry for other institutions at an annual saving of $30,000; and $500,000 for mental health research which would reduce the necessary hospital beds and patient population.

Just as Williams says Republicans go too far in economy plans, Republicans say Williams doesn't go far enough.

STREAMLING of government through a series of agency mergers is one way Williams would economize.

Insurance Commissioner Frank Blackford, who headed the advisory committee that made the reorganization recommendations, said the Insurance Department, Banking Department and Corporation and Securities Commission should be consolidated into one department.

Blackford could be in line to head the new department. Banking Commissioner Alonzo L. Wilson plans to resign early this year.

DATE TO REMEMBER: The end of February is the deadline for purchase of auto license plates. It's also the eve of the start of Michigan's new boat registration law.

When the boat law goes into effect March 1, state, county and local police will have power of arrest on the Great Lakes.

All power boats must be registered with the state. A $2 fee will be charged.

Science Clubs Help Boost our Young Talent

Babson Park, Mass. — When I was in Moscow, getting statistics relating to its public school system, I was asked what we are doing to teach science to our teenagers. By "science" the Moscow school authorities mean mathematics, physics and chemistry.

What Are Science Fairs? For definite information I could think only of the work of William Guild of St. Petersburg, Florida in developing science fairs, science clubs and pre-viewers-for-teachers. This work especially interests me as it discovers young people with exceptional natural talents. Any of these might easily become an Edison or a Steinmetz or some other great inventor if given individual attention when young.

Since my return, I have mailed back to Moscow clippings from newspapers describing this work. I have also mentioned the work of the Osborn Creative Educational Foundation of Buffalo, New York, which is endeavoring to awaken the creative possibilities in all people. Both of these are non-profit institutions supported by gifts from interested donors.

What Makes Grass Green? Guild's theory is that the true scientist is the one whose curiosity leads him to inquire into everything that 99 percent of the people take for granted. As an exhibit given by youngsters at Tampa, Florida, I noticed a boy with four saucers on his desk. One had green peas, another yellow carrots, a third red beans, and a fourth white corn. When I asked him why they were on his desk, he replied: "To make me curious as to why the different colors from the same soil, same water, and same sunshine." He is much unlike a U.S. Secretary who does this especially to you.

"Americans?" When I asked him the name of this most marvelous machine, he replied, "The human brain, used to less than 5 percent of its capacity."

I then asked him how the use of the brain could be increased, and he replied, "By developing people's curiosity... 95 percent of what you see is only when something heard or seen develops one's curiosity that this marvelous brain works for a few minutes." This is what the watchmen in the Center is trying to do. I wish William Guild would not be content to apply the work only to young Americans read or hear actually especially guilty of acting upon "tips" instead of thinking about and studying the valuable facts which are available.

United States and Russia Compared Yet I am happy to say that this voluntary American program is already being used in 51 cities of Florida alone, and I do not know how many are starting in other states; while the Moscow system is hunting for prospects in over 1,000 Russian cities. This is something that our Defense Department should take seriously. I would like to see the Guild Science Center give each year for this work the cost of one missile experiment. It would save our country a billion dollars a year as well as perhaps prevent World War III.

I hope this story will cause the superintendents of schools in wide-awake cities to send for further information. There is no cost to any city for putting on a "science fair." It interests the teachers and parents greatly. In fact, these "fairs" could help in selecting new teachers; the more useful teachers like to be in a city which operates a science fair once a year and the kids certainly love it all.

World's Most Marvelous Machine The Human Brain Once at a dinner in London I was so fortunate as to sit next to George Bernard Shaw. Among other questions he put to me was this: "Why is it that the most marvelous of all machines, possessed by everyone, is so seldom used? Why does this especially apply to you?"

"Americans?" When I asked him the name of this most marvelous machine, he replied, "The human brain, used to less than 5 percent of its capacity."

Waterford Boom Died

A paper issued in Detroit in 1851 read in part:

"The road (underground railroad) is doing better business this fall than usual. The Fugitive Law has given it more vitality, more activity, more passengers, and more opposition, which invariably accelerates business. We have been under the necessity of tearing up the old strap rails and putting down the regular 'S's' so that we can run a lot of slaves through from almost any of the bordering slave states into Canada, within 48 hours and we defy the slaveholders and their abettors to beat that if they can."

According to Glenn King, 68, of 1059 Northville road, a colony of Negroes once lived along the Reservoir drive west of Waterford.

One of the fugitives was a young Negro named Robert Wallace, who acted as a janitor of the mill and slept in the office on the second floor. Fred Carlisle took great interest in the young man, teaching him to read and write.

On the night the first mill burned, he was asleep in the office. With the flames leaping up the side of the frame building, the crowd of spectators gathered in horror when the Negro appeared at an upstairs window. There was no ladder to reach him. He leaped, then jumped to the hard ground below, crippled for life as a result of the jump, the Negro later became a minister in the Wesleyan Methodist church.

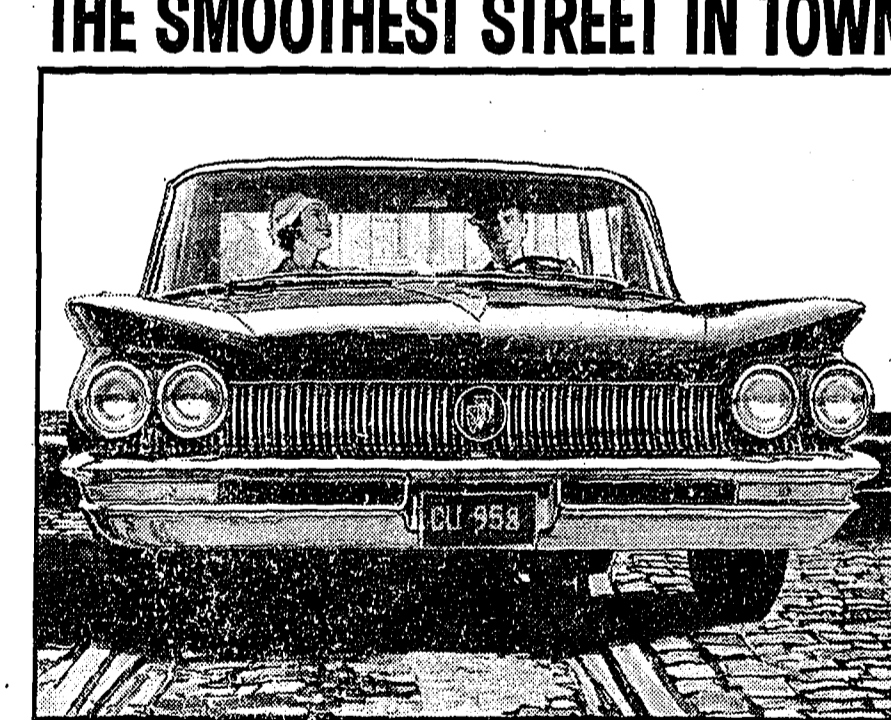

Second Disaster Seven years later the new five-story mill was again struck by fire. The frames were visible as far away as Detroit and Ann Arbor. After the second mill fire, the nearby factories continued to operate for several years. But with the development of factories and business places in Farmington and Northville, the labor force in the village dwindled and Waterford began to die.

Late in the 19th century, an oldtimer wrote for the Northville

PIONEER'S DESCENDANT — Clifford Cranson, 218 South Center street, stands before the tombstone of Evelyn Mars, first wife of Waterford pioneer Gannett Ramsdell. Cranson is the great grandson of Ramsdell, who is buried along with other members of his pioneering family in the Waterford cemetery south of the Northville township hall.

District Cage Tourney Opens Next Wednesday

For the first time in the memory of school officials, Northville will host a state Class B District Basketball tournament next week. Three area teams, Brighton, Milford and South Lyon, will invade Northville for the three-day preliminary state event starting Wednesday in the new high school gymnasium.

In a drawing here Tuesday afternoon, South Lyon was paired with Milford for the tournament opener Wednesday and Northville drew Brighton for Thursday night's contest.

All games start at 7:30 p.m. The winners of these two games will clash Saturday for the district championship and the honor of competing in the three-day regional tournament to be held at Willow Run March 5.

Tournament Manager Al Jones predicts near capacity crowds for the three-day event, which most of the believers will be the most exciting tournament in the Wayne-Oakland league area. The new high school gymnasium seats approximately 1,800 people.

Two of the teams competing in the local tournament — Brighton and Milford — carried are tied for first place in the W-O league. Coach Robert Meeth will floor a Northville squad in 12 starts this season.

Northville, on the other hand, has won only five games in 12 starts this season and is currently in last place in the W-O league.

Seventeen Coach Dutch Van Inven is confident that his Northville squad will be up for the tournament in an effort to salvage an otherwise poor season. He points to the steady improvement of the Mustangs during the past three games as an indication of what is to come.

In its opener, Northville will clash with the Northville, Novi, Plymouth and Livonia area rivals. The W-O crown last season. In their two contests this year, Northville topped Brighton 59-52 in the opener and the Bulldogs edged the Mustangs in the second game, 70-66.

Milford, which lost to Northville in the district tournament last year, created the Mustangs' problems. It only game between the two teams this year.

Members of the Northville team will be awarded a trophy Saturday night. Members of the winning squad will receive medals. Admission for each of the three games will be 50-cents for students, 75-cents for adults.

Officer Loeffler Back on Duty; BeGole May Return

Patrolman Vern Loeffler, 4332 West road, returned to work Friday for the first time since November 26 when he suffered a heart ailment. Loeffler, 48, was returned to the job following a meeting with the village council Thursday night. The patrolman submitted two letters signed by local physicians stating that he was physically able to return to his regular job with the police department.

Meanwhile, Chief BeGole, who is on a leave of absence from the department, voiced satisfaction with the council's decision concerning Loeffler and indicated that he probably would return to work within three weeks — provided: — the council grants him permission to draw up the department work schedule; — that an adequate police training program is established; — that his Blue Cross expenses, approximately $250, are paid by the village (BeGole has charged that these fees had not been deducted from his payroll until recently — and then without him first being consulted).

BeGole resigned when he withdrew his resignation as Novi police chief after accepting a similar position at Chagrin, Michigan.

He told The News last week and after visiting his parents in Detroit that he wanted to return if the council could furnish him with evidence that his "problems" have been resolved.

He's Fast on the Draw, Too!

Store Manager Al Harnden is loyally with the idea of painting a sign on his door with the words: "Enter after sundown and get shot!"

For the ninth time in 1 1/2 years burglars broke into his Grand River store early Friday morning and helped themselves to beer and wine.

Although the burglars were apparently frightened away by the lights of a patrol car before they were able to cart off anything else, Harnden is up in arms — literally.

"They use to break in through the back window — so I walled it up. Then the back door — so I entered it with steel. Now they're coming through the front door."

The next fellow who comes sneaking in after hours is in for a big surprise, Harnden warns while trying to decide which gun would make the biggest hole.

Meanwhile, state police are investigating the burglary with an eye toward solving a few of the earlier unwelcome entries.

Area Hospital Auxiliary To Organize Monday

Area women will begin the serious business of organization Monday night in the second meeting of the newly formed Community General Hospital Auxiliary.

Officers will be elected at the meeting. The group held its first meeting last week with some 50 women from the Northville, Novi, Plymouth and Livonia area attending.

They heard appeals from the Rev. David T. Davies, president of the hospital board, and Hospital Administrator Calvin Mandif for the support and service of an auxiliary.

Three district and state leaders in the Michigan association of hospital auxiliaries also emphasized the importance of the women's group in the successful operation of a hospital.

The Community General hospital auxiliary has been launched largely through the efforts of Chairman Mrs. William Milne, Mrs. John Swain, Mrs. Lorne Dyer and Mrs. Dempsey Ebert.

In addition to playing an important part in promoting good public relations throughout the area for the hospital, the auxiliary provides volunteer services that help trim hospital costs and free medical personnel for more important duties.

Monday night's meeting will be held at Our Lady of Victory church at 8:15 p.m. Area women who are interested in serving on the auxiliary are urged to attend.

Registration Deadline Monday

The registration deadline for the special annexation election is 8 p.m. Monday, Township Clerk Harold Hackett reminded citizens this week.

Only Novi residents in Northville Estates and the adjoining village property to the east on Eight Mile road are eligible to vote. However, all qualified electors of Northville are eligible to vote.

Alternate ballot applications may be obtained from the township offices through Monday.

Wixom Planners Eye City of 12 Schools

Wixom's new planning consultant firm last week revealed its preliminary master plan for the city, sketching 12 neighborhood areas based upon an ultimate population of 42,046 residents.

The preliminary plan as presented, however, was aimed primarily at establishing a foundation for bringing desirable living conditions to the city. To facilitate this end, the firm explained that it has divided the city into 12 self-contained residential neighborhoods. Each of these 12 neighborhoods is conceived by Villac-Lennan as follows: — in addition to homes — the following service facilities: 1. Children can walk to school or play along quiet residential streets free from the danger of fast-moving traffic. 2. Street right-of-way areas can be reduced. 3. Neighborhood units provide testing beauty and stable residential environment. Most significant of the future plans and changes as outlined by the firm are: — Provision of a central bus stop at the Wixom elementary site as either a junior high or senior high school; — Establishment of the civic center facilities near the present center of the city rather than in "outlying areas" as some officials have proposed; — elimination of industrial area in favor of residential zoning at the eastern edge of the city north of Pontiac trail; and permanent establishment of the present central business district.

There'll be "surprises and prizes" in The News next week certain to interest all our readers.

The message is so important that we're sending next week's edition to every home in the Northville/Novi-Wixom area, whether they are regular subscribers or not.

This "bonus" circulation is worth noting to advertisers, too. The full-area coverage will be provided at no extra charge for either classified or display advertisements.

One thing more — the series of articles on the early history of our area written by News Editor Jack Hoffman is being interrupted this week. It will be resumed in our March 3 edition.

Survey Tells What Novi People Want

A preliminary analysis of a community-wide survey will be presented to the council and planning board this week as a result of action taken Monday by close to 70 members of the Novi Citizens' Development committee.

The survey results and analysis were reviewed at the citizen group's regular monthly meeting held at the community building. Members then voted unanimously to turn over the survey findings to both village bodies with a suggestion that the planning board consider the survey implications in drawing up a subdivision control ordinance.

(A plat ordinance already has been drafted by the planning board and submitted to the council for its consideration and adoption.)

Of the 150 questionnaire sent out to residents of Novi, 219 were returned with answers — or about one-third of the original questionnaire. Response to similar public opinion polls in most other communities runs considerably less. It has been pointed out, however, that the survey findings as outlined by Donald Young, committee member, was that 52 percent of the answers indicated dissatisfaction with the developments in Novi while 40 percent voiced satisfaction.

"This indicates two important conclusions," Young said. "First that the government is not representing the needs of all of the residents; and secondly, that this committee has a big job to do in determining specifically what the people want and then selling these ideas to the proper authorities as needs and demands rather than as worthless noise to be ignored."

Young pointed out that three of the problems which seemingly have created this dissatisfaction — as indicated by the survey — are: (1) "Establishment of landfills in residential areas"; (2) "The need for zoning changes"; and (3) "Lack of recreation facilities."

Re-electing Wallace as president of the Goodfellows was also a highlight of the evening. Wallace was re-elected by a vote of 14 to 10.

The committee also authorized the board of directors to draw up a letter requesting the state to reconsider the purchase of park property in the East Tawas area with money resulting from the sale of a Novi farm.

Robert Howie, president of the recently organized Orchard Hills Homeowners association, spoke briefly on the objectives of his organization.

Following the meeting, the Orchard Hills group served refreshments.

Entertainment, Exhibits on Tap At Girl Scout Event

They've been scurrying around for weeks, welding machines, snapping scissors and splashing paint brushes.

Now the Novi girl scouts are about ready to unveil the product of their hive of industry — a "Thinking Day" birthday celebration.

Thinking Day as conceived by local scouts is a program of old fashioned fun, constructive entertainment and displays celebrating the February 22 birthday of Lord and Lady Baden-Powell of England, founders of the scout movement.

The free program will be conducted Saturday between 2:30 to 5 p.m. at the Novi community building. Visitors are welcome.

Each of the eight girl scout troops in Novi will sponsor a special craft or display. The displays will be presented at the survey findings as outlined by Donald Young, committee member, was that 52 percent of the answers indicated dissatisfaction with the developments in Novi while 40 percent voiced satisfaction.

"This indicates two important conclusions," Young said.
