COMING DOWN — "Beauty Northville" workers displayed physical evidence of their determination last week by tearing down a false building standing at the city's main corners. Gussell permission to tear down the building as one of the projects for the month-long cleanup drive. High school graduates can select the exact date they choose to enter the service — if they choose the Marine Corps. Sgt. Jay Grimm of the Northville recruiting station revealed this week.

The program, which is effective immediately, allows high school graduates or seniors a 10-day election from now until the middle of September before active duty begins.

For additional information, high school seniors are asked to contact Sgt. Grimm here or call 1-3-4-2027.

Fireworks Open Walled Lake Park

The summer season officially opens at Walled Lake Amusement park with a bang-up Memorial week end featuring spectacular fireworks Sunday, May 29. The aerial display Sunday evening will include many unusual new fireworks such as Flying Fish with Whistles, the Summer Storm, Atomic Burst shells and a gigantic Vanguard Rocket Shell.

Visitors can enjoy a day of fun, picnic, a picnic lunch, play baseball, swim and walk around Walled Lake in modern speed boats. Exciting rides will thrill the entire family.

Michigan's tallest roller-coaster, "Scrambler," "Rockets," "Flying Scooter" and many other rides will be in full operation.

For the younger set, Walled Lake park has a new "Mother Goose Land" and a "Little Red School House" is the home of Mama sheep and her baby lamb. At the Miller's house beside the water wheel, rabbits play contentedly and geese frolic in a large pond.

A new ride for Junior is the "Tumblebug" which is a car that goes around the track and is controlled by a hand on the wheel and "drive" his own hot rod on a tour through "Mother Goose Land". There is ample free parking space provided for visitors at Walled Lake park, 13 Mile and Novi Rd.

STRANGE EXPERIMENT

A brilliant young chemist, Thure Wagelius of New York, accidentally killed himself with electricity. According to his own words, he said he was trying to look into the hereafter. Locked in his laboratory, he risked an apparatus that dropped either into a vat of acid or into a vat of electricity. This had an automatic regulator. With each successive experiment, Wagelius went one drop of drug nearer to his death. Then coming out of his stupor, he wrote down his experiences. "I was in the habit of discovering the great secret of the hereafter," he told his friends. Finally the drug carried him beyond the certain. His body has been buried. He had no opportunity to write down what he discovered. He told his friends that he believed in a place called Heaven. He tells us of a place called Hell. Further, he tells that any sinner who will repent of his sin and come to the Savior, even though he is undeserving, He will save that sinner and Heaven will be his home. The hall prepared for the devil and his angels will be shared by those who refuse or neglect to accept God's invitation to be saved. We need not experiment nor speculate what divine revelation so clearly records for us.

Couple Finds New Hobby

As Professional Rock Hounds

At the age of 71, Dr. Burton Munro swings an ax with gusto, slices a log as easily as cutting soft butter, and throws a slow but accurate bowling ball.

But even more remarkable than these physical attributes is the enthusiasm this Novi oldtimer displays for his new hobby — "rock hounding".

Munro purchased a new diamond edged saw, a tumbler polisher, and an expensive grinder and set up the equipment in his basement and started to work, slicing most of the time for a young girl. And her husband has been picking up "pretty ones" on his farm for many years. But not until two years ago did they really become interested in this rapidly growing hobby.

Expect Another Capacity Crowd

In anticipation of a capacity crowd, Novi citizens this week requested council members to hold their next meeting in larger quarters.

"We're tired of being stuffed into the village hall room — and with the big crowd expected Monday the place will really be jammed," James Stross said Tuesday.

In light of the recent crowded meetings, Police Chief Lee Healy has indicated that he may be forced to limit the number of citizens who attend the council chambers for "safety reasons".

One of the explosive matters to come before the council Monday will be the resignation of Village Manager Fred Olson.

Wixom Council Adopts Record Fiscal Budget

A fiscal budget calling for a record expenditure of $154,723 was approved by the Wixom council Thursday night with hardly a discordant note sounded throughout the evening.

The quiet, speedy budget hearing contrasted sharply with last year's stormy session which lasted eight hours — until nearly 4:30 a.m. Last year's budget called for an outlay of $128,180.

Wixom's 1959-60 budget, approved unanimously by the council after two hours of discussion, calls for a tax levy of 5.335 mills based upon state equalized valuation of $18,514,400.

The largest single outlay — $18,000 — is for a new paving fund. Monies from this fund which will continue over the next five years, will be used to pave the city's major roads. Less than half of this amount is expected to be used this year for a primary hard surface on one mile of city street.

Part of this allocation will be lumped with another appropriated $74,400 from city taxes.

The two miles of roadway applied against the greater state equalized valuation of Wixom property is $18,000 tax in an estimated $10,000 tax liability.

Under the charter the council has the power to levy up to eight mills. Because eight mills will continue to be sufficient to meet the new budget expenditures, the council chose to use state figures, thus providing a means for raising more money.

According to Mayor Donald Brooks, taxpayers will pay fewer taxes next year even though city taxes will be higher. The reason for the larger increase upon the city is because the city's reduced equalized factor for Wixom is less than that of other cities.

After two informal polls of the council's opinions, the members agreed to a 5.335 mill rate. A salary increase for the police department's gas-maintenance allocation by Attorney David Uily urged the council to increase the rate. The increase as recommended by the mayor, said according to Uily, he had been working at a lesser salary than other attorneys in similar positions.

Novi Library to Get Boost

Launch Campaign Saturday

Anxious to guarantee the success of the Novi public library to be opened next fall, library committee members wrapped up final plans Tuesday for the library week campaign which will be launched Saturday.

Plans call for some 35 volunteer men and women to start a door-to-door solicitation Saturday for financial donations to help purchase the library. These volunteers will attempt to visit each home in Novi.

At least five women will captain the volunteer crews. They are: Mrs. Fred West, Rick Greenberg, Mrs. Robert LeWitter, Mrs. Bernard Marchetti and Mrs. Charles Gardner.

During the week-long campaign, which will end June 11, citizens will be asked to become "Friends of the Library." Members with donations of $10 or more. However, all donations, smaller or larger, will be greatly appreciated. A sign designer will create a membership drive but not however, entitle a resident to free library service. Once the library is opened next fall, a fee of $3 per family per year will be charged.

What has Happened to our Town?

To the Editor:

I have resigned as Village Clerk as of July 15, 1960. My resignation is not due to dissatisfaction in any way with the government, but rather because I wish to spend more time with my family.

But from my own observations and working with the Village Hall, I do not believe that the village is being run in the best interests of the people. I may be wrong, but I believe that the village is being run in the best interests of the people. I may be wrong, but I believe that the village is being run in the best interests of the people.

MR. AND MRS. SAM KARNACK and their young daughter, Sharon, formerly of Crystal Falls in the Upper Peninsula, now live at 224 Linden.

Sam and Susan Karnack were born and raised at Crystal Falls in the Upper Peninsula — but they find the small community atmosphere of Northville almost as pleasant as in their hometown. Immediately after his "discharge" in the service, the Karnacks moved to their first home in Northville. The lesson on barbecue cooking was given by Mrs. Steven Chernie, Mrs. Alfred Brewer and Mrs. Richard Arthur Carlson.

The next lesson will be on June 29 at Mrs. Richard Scraggs of Plymouth.

Men Trade Coats for Aprons

Members of the Men's club at St. Paul's Lutheran church traded coats for aprons last week — and if the compliments keep coming in, the trade may become permanent.

More than 125 persons attended the 10th annual mother-daughter banquet sponsored by the Lutheran Laymen's League. Although the entire meal, featuring swiss steak, was prepared by the temporary male cooks, not a mother or daughter complained of stomach pains. Instead, they had nothing but compliments, officials noted.

Chairman of the talented kitchen crew was Nelson Leboez. Elmer Scheumann, chairman of the dining room, and Floyd Taylor was chairman of the entire program. Mrs. Glenn Diebert was the toastmistress. Eunice Thurman gave the toast to the mothers, and Mrs. Donald Kresger toast to the daughters. Fred Fischer, president of the League, welcomed and introduced the guests.

On Community Building Purchase School Candidates Give Opinions

The following comments by the 13 candidates for the Northville Board of Education were submitted at the request of The Record. Each candidate was asked to state his opinion of the proposed purchase of the community building by the school district from the City of Northville.

Edward F. Angove. From its origin, the Community Building has been considered an integral part of the future total planning scheme of our school system. It has been manifested by its almost complete utilization and maintenance by the Schools during the past few years.

Francis P. Gazlay. I believe the question of the Community Building purchase is not related to the school board election because it is a proposal decided upon and submitted by the present board, and cannot be changed by the candidates.

George F. Hollinger. The school district cannot afford the expenditure of $142,000 for the acquisition of an additional building at this time.

John P. Callaghan. The purchase of the Community Building by the School Board would, in my estimation, be a very economic transaction for both parties for the following reasons:

Waldo T. Johnson. As treasurer of the Northville Board of Education, it has my duty to check all expenditures very carefully in order to be assured that the taxpayers receive full value for every dollar spent.

My reasons are based upon independent study of building costs, a review of present and past use and the future needs of the Northville Junior High School.

Wilson D. Tyler. The proposed purchase of the Community Building by the School Board is a very important matter and one that should be considered in the light of the future needs of the Northville Junior High School.

James F. Kijpfer. In my opinion the question of purchase of the Community Building by the school district can be viewed from these four questions which have answered:

Charles A. Smith. In my opinion the community building should be an integral part of the Northville School System. My own feeling is that the land area presently occupied by the elementary and Junior High school is inadequate for the future expansion.

are essential for any expanding program of the Junior High School. Also ownership of the building will be a positive guarantee for the continuation of the community recreation programs.

Where could school assemblies be held other than in the community building? Where can the band find sufficient quarters without the community building? Where can the music classes, which are so essential to a progressive school system, find adequate quarters?

Now that the city is planning to build a new city hall on the site of the present hall, it seems fitting that they would keep their seat of government and their showplace on the same piece of property.

Day Camp Program Plans Begin

In the expectation that the summer Day Camp will be operated again this year, in spite of a drop in Easter Seal contributions, the Easter Seal Society of western Wayne county has mailed nearly 150 registration blanks to families of physically handicapped children. Applications are also being taken from teen age volunteers who will work with the children under the supervision of D. James Greiner, Day Camp director, and Olive M. Shale, R.N., assistant director.

The Day Camp, held at the Easter Seal Center near Michigan avenue and Middlebelt, opens July 11, with the theme "Michigan's Resources—Our People and Our Products". Physically handicapped boys and girls between the ages of 6-12 years will be in camp two days a week for five weeks. Pre-school campers will have five Fridays of play school activities. The final week of camp will be devoted to boys and girls in their early teens who hope that the overnight camp-out so successful last year may be repeated. Parent institutes are also being planned.

Inquiries concerning the camp may be directed to the Easter Seal Society, P.O. Box 301, Inkster. Telephone Parkway 2-3055.

Current tabulations show Northville has contributed $1,070.88 to the Easter Seal drive. This falls short of last year's total by less than $10.

Netters Finish 2nd in Tourney

But Win Doubles

Northville's amazing tennis squad came within one point Saturday of winning the Wayne-Oakland-Interlakes Conference tennis tournament.

But the Mustangs were forced to settle with a strong second place finish—just behind the conference champions from Berkley. Thus, for the third time this season Northville came away second best: second in the league standings, the regional tournament, and now the conference tournament.

The latest tournament, held at Cass Benton Park Friday and Saturday, spelled the finish of one of the most successful Northville tennis seasons in history. And for Coach Ron Schipper, who will move to Jackson next fall, it marked the end of a colorful Northville high school coaching career.

Highlighting the conference tournament was the victory in the finals by Northville's powerful doubles team, Tom Long and Ted Rodgers. These two Mustangs, who a week earlier swept the doubles championship in the regional tournament and earned themselves a berth in the state finals at Kalamazoo Friday and Saturday, slipped Southfield in three sets to win the conference crown.

The Northville pair drew a first round bye, then crushed Southfield's No. 1 team, 6-1, 6-2, and advanced to the finals by beating Bloomfield, 6-3, 6-2, in the championship match.

Competition in a field of 24 players, they slipped Southfield, 2-6, 6-4, 6-3. Twelve teams entered the doubles race, two from each of the six competing schools: Berkley, Northville, Southfield, Bloomfield Hills, Pontiac Northern and Clarendonville.

Northville's second doubles team, Gary Kohs and Jim Jiggins, blanked Clarendonville in their opening match, 6-0, 6-0, then lost to Bloomfield Hills in three sets, 4-6, 7-5, 6-3.

In the exciting singles contest, a near-exhausted Northville's No. 1 player, 6-2, 2-6, 6-3. Competing in a field of 24 players, Ornekin opened his drive for the singles crown with a bye, then trimmed Pontiac Northern, 6-3, 6-1. He added a victory over Southfield, 6-3, 6-1, and then turned to face his stiffest opponent, Berkley's number one ace, in the semi-finals.

The young Northville freshman edged his veteran opponent, 7-5, 6-7, 6-4 in a 2½-hour marathon. "He could have won the title," Coach Schipper said, "but he was just too tired for the finals."

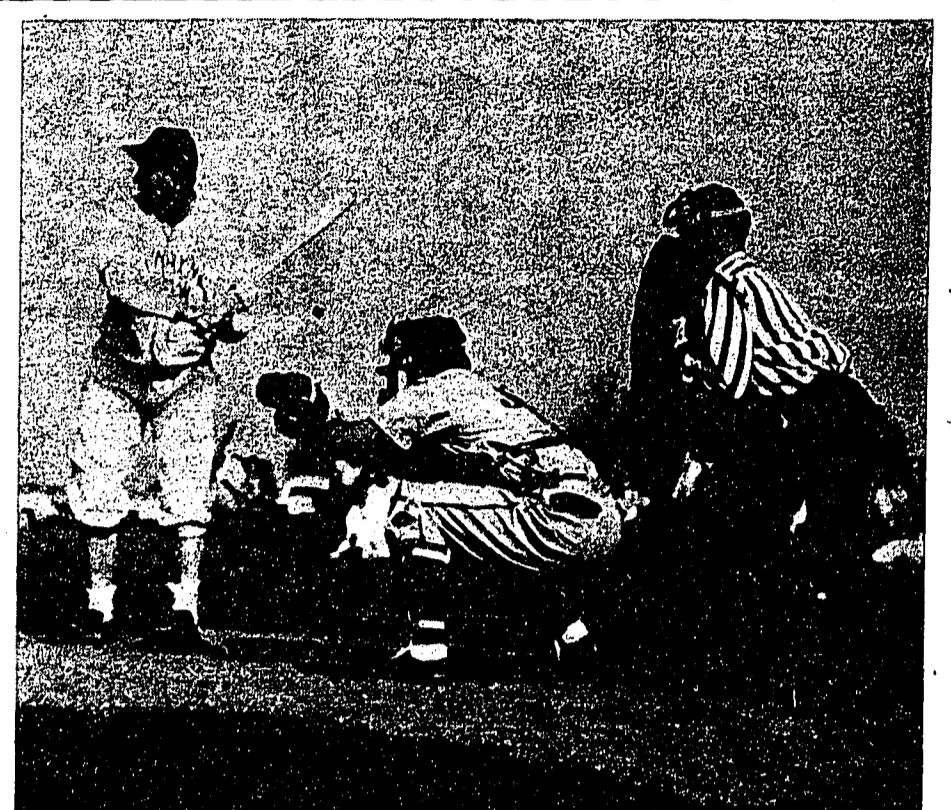

In other singles matches involving Northville players, Jim McCarthy won twice before losing to Berkley in the third round, 6-1, 6-4; Don Lawrence also won twice before losing to the eventual singles champion, 6-1, 6-1; and Bill Sherry lost to Berkley in his opening match, 6-0, 6-0.

Final League Standings: Berkley 10, Northville 7, Southfield 7, Bloomfield Hills 3, Pontiac Northern 3, Clarendonville 0.

Baseball League Standings: Milford 8, Northville 7, Clarendonville 5, Bloomfield Hills 5, West Bloomfield 2, Holy 2.

Junior High Nine Ends Season Undeclared. The Northville junior high school baseball team added its fourth and final victory of the season last week, downing Dublin 7-3.

Northville, coached by Chuck Shoats, won all four of its games this season, two victories over Dublin and two over Novi. Clarendonville, coached by Ernie Peterson struck out 18 batters and gave up only one hit to blank Novi, 5-0. In the second contest, Novi, David Luette was credited with the 5-hit, 7-2 win.

PLENTY OF FUN—"But oh, these aches and pains." These were the sentiments of the faculty members and fathers who clashed with Northville's varsity baseball team last week in a scrimmage contest. When it was all over, the student players had reminded visitors that the "old form" of earlier days is gone forever. Varsity Coach Al Jones, who pitched for the "oldtimers," said the youngsters won the game—but he doesn't recall the score. Above Richard Jada, Northville councilman, digs in for a crack at the ball.

Boating Facilities Enlarged at Kent

To accommodate the increased interest in boating, Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority is now constructing a $100,000 boat rental building at Kensington park. When completed later this year, this modern structure will provide food service, observation deck, restrooms, rental of slips for private craft and boat rental service.

East rental service at Kensington park will begin operations Saturday, however, no food service is offered at this location due to construction of the new boat rental building. The park has 120 12-foot aluminum row boats which rent for 75 cents per hour, with a minimum charge of $1.50. No motors for boats are rented in the park and an 8 mile per hour speed limit is enforced on Kent lake. Buoyant cushions are required by law on all boats with motors, but not on row boats. Motors, which can be supplied by park visitors, are limited to 7½ horsepower.

No water skiing is permitted or other activity requiring speed in excess of 8 miles per hour. The park does not supply gasoline, fishing tackle or bait.

First Baptist Church, Northville

WHAT WOULD YOU DO FOR THE LORD?

If we were to answer the question candidly we might find that we have an identity with those who either were indifferent to Jesus or in opposition to him. In Jesus our day there were many who did nothing to help him. On the other hand there were people who ministered to Jesus and performed fine deeds of loving service.

Do you remember Joseph of Arimathea? Honorable, a man of wealth and of influence, "looking for the Kingdom of God," he asked for the body of Jesus and laid it in his own new tomb which had been hewn out of the rock.

The first thing that Matthew did when he decided to be Jesus' follower was to have a feast in his house to which he invited his friends and associates. Jesus was the honored guest.

The woman with the alabaster jar of ointment, knowing the forgiveness of Jesus in her life, was overflowing with gratefulness to Jesus. You must admit that sometimes we are thoughtless and indifferent, that we take all the gifts of God and of Christ and do not even say, "Thank you." If Jesus were here in the flesh today and called for disciples, how many would follow him? "If any man would come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross and follow me." Another way to minister unto the Lord is to be aware of human need. Telling the parable of the Last Judgment, Jesus concluded, saying, "In as much as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me." By opening our hearts to others, we open them to God. By showing kindness unto others, we show kindness unto God.

Individuals and our nation will be dragged downward faster by spiritual sloth than by anything else. What would you do for the Lord? What is your record so far? Can it be improved?

PRACTICE FOR RECITAL - With their recital only a few days away, these four musicians are shown practicing the numbers they will present at the First Methodist church. They are Mrs. Leland H. Mills; John P. Hyde, tenor; Erving D. Nichols, flutist; and Arthur E. Pipok, pianist.

Quartet to Present Recital Sunday

Six weeks of practice will culminate with a recital Sunday afternoon for four members of the First Methodist church of Northville. The recital, which is open to the public, will begin at 3:30 p.m.

Members of the quartet (all members of the church choir) are: Mrs. Leland H. Mills, soprano; John P. Hyde, tenor; Erving D. Nichols, flutist; and Arthur E. Pipok, pianist.

The program will include 30 pieces of music. Some of these are: "Fantasia in G" by J. S. Bach; "Le Vieux," A. Scarlatti; "Alma ma," Handel; "A Memory," Gounod; "I Hear You Calling Me," Marshall; "Sea Fever," Arnold; and "The Desert Song," Romberg.

Each of the members of the quartet - which is a Methodist church group since all are members of the church choir - has an extensive background in music.

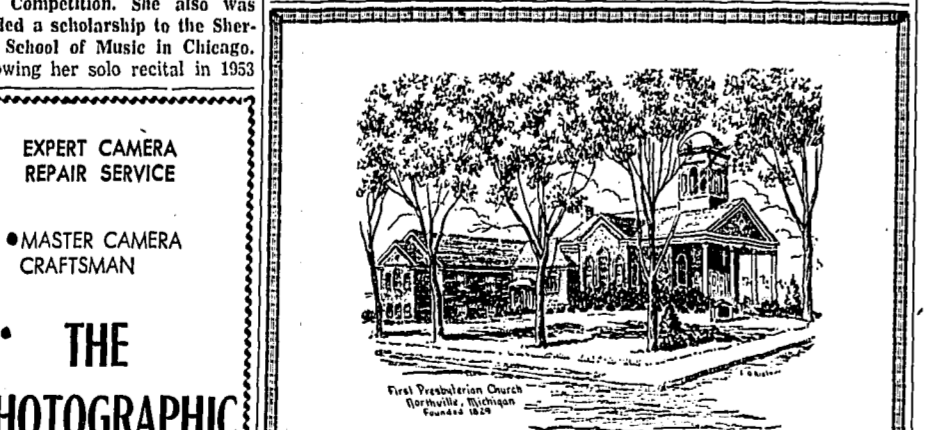

Mrs. Mills, a local teacher of piano and voice, came to Northville with her family two and a half years ago from Port Huron. Her musical background includes 12 years of private study of piano and eight years of voice instruction.

As a pianist, Mrs. Mills was presented the 1959 Annual Port Huron Musicale Post-Graduate Award to Interlochen National Music Camp. In 1946, she was soprano winner of the State Junior Music Competition. She also was awarded a scholarship to the Sherwood School of Music in Chicago. Following her solo recital in 1953

Michigan Bell Improvements Run High

Michigan Bell Telephone company today announced that its construction program during 1960 will reach $100,000,000 - second highest in company history.

Of the near-record total earmarked for service improvement and expansion this year $30,000,000 will be spent in Northville, according to Hughes C. Bronaugh, manager here for Michigan Bell.

"The 1960 outlay represents the company's best estimate as to what will be required to make customer demand for better grades of service, to place in effect many of the technological advances which have been developed to make telephone service more convenient and useful, and to provide service to customers when and where they want it," Bronaugh said.

"A program of this magnitude means much to the economy of Michigan," he said. "We are proceeding with it on the assumption that the economy will continue on its present upward trend, and in the hope that earnings on investment will permit the company to see the program through."

The $100,000,000 to be spread throughout Michigan Bell territory this year compares with the company's $92,000,000 construction program last year and the record $105,000,000 in 1957.

Pointing up the scope of the 1960 program, Bronaugh said this year's construction schedules will require the installation of more than six billion conductor feet of cable - enough to stretch around the world 50 times.

Breaking down the program for Northville, Bronaugh said Michigan Bell plans to spend $51,000 here for wire, poles, and other outside plant; $9,000 for additional central office equipment; $87,000 for equipment on customers' premises; and the balance for miscellaneous facilities.

On a territory-wide basis, he said, there are outside exchanges - Big Rapids, Grand Haven and Iron Mountain - will be converted from manual to direct dialing. Many more customers also will be linked with the nationwide Direct Distance Dialing network, enabling them to dial their own long distance calls direct to millions of telephones from coast to coast.

Construction will begin this year on 13 new Michigan Bell buildings, the 1960 allocation for which is nearly $4,500,000, and work will start on building additions costing another $700,000.

Doing their part to help "Beauty Northville" this crew of Ughastebest club members cleaned up after the former taxibus stop stand was torn down at the corner of Main and Church streets. The boys played a big role in the campaign conducted during May, helping with the city-wide trash pickup and also with the street scrub-down on the opening day of the drive. Their adult advisor is Leonard Bogalatos.

Variety Makes Roses Home Owners Favorite

The rose is grown by home owners everywhere. Its success is due in large measure to its many uses. Its flowers can decorate inside the home, can be worn as a corsage, or beautify outdoors on the property.

There are six principal types of roses, the home owner can choose, as follows:

1. Hybrid tea - offering the most perfectly formed flowers, though somewhat fewer in number. They are excellent for cut flowers.
2. Floribunda - offering many flowers on each plant, sometimes a hundred or more. These are also good for cut flowers and give striking landscape effects.
3. Climbing roses - offering striking landscape effects. They make excellent plants for growing on a trellis or trained on one side of a garage, back porch, or elsewhere on the property. They are beautiful when trained along a fence.
4. Grandiflora - this newest type offers large flowers of excellent form, color and fragrance. Plants are large and fairly tall, their uses similar to floribunda.
5. Tree roses are growing in popularity. They are used as accent plants in landscaping and along driveways where a taller plant (around four to five feet) is desired.
6. Miniature roses - offering unusually attractive borders for flower beds. The small flowers are ideal to supply bouquets, and for feminine wear, besides providing variety of cut flowers for the home.

Polyantha and hybrid perpetual roses are often used in landscaping. Consult with your local nurseryman for the types best suited for your particular requirements.

Check the grain line before you purchase yard goods for a new summer frock. A finish is sometimes applied to a fabric that is pulled off-grain (threads are not in a straight line). They add that most of today's finishes are permanent enough so that the fabric cannot be re-straightened. This presents problems in sewing and in fit.

Rain Falls on Northville, Novi Memorial Parades

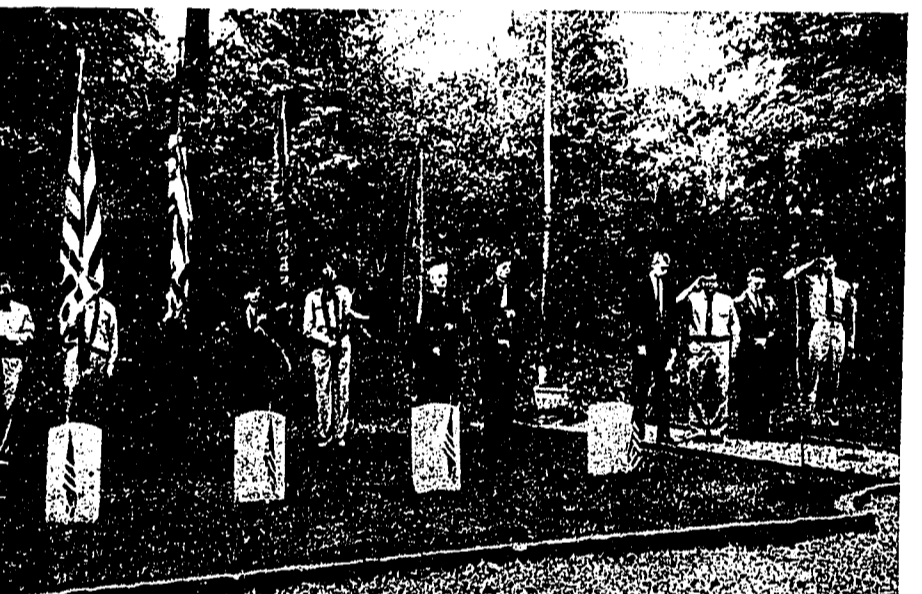

Scouts were well represented in Northville's Memorial Day parade. Despite rain, the youngsters kept pace clutching 35-star American flags and keeping step to the Northville high school drum and bugle corps. Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Cub Packs, Brownies, Campfire Girls and youngsters riding decorated bicycles participated in the parade.

The ice cream bars were as good as popular as ever. Hundreds of children and adults were treated following the ceremonies by C. E. Langfield, president of Northville Laboratories. Helping hand out the ice cream bars are (l. to r.): Ken Conley, John Simonsen, Dayton Deal, Ed Angove, Earl Reed, Alton Peters and C. E. Langfield.

The VFW and American Legion color guards led the 10 a.m. parade which began in a steady drizzle. Slides cleared for most of the ceremonies at the two city cemeteries.

Tuba sound a tribute to the war dead as members of the VFW and American Legion honor guards stand at attention. Michael Adams presented a brief tribute to veterans who gave their lives, while benediction was offered by the Rev. Peter Neunhoop.

In Novi's Memorial Day parade and ceremonies started at 9:30 a.m. in a more persistent rain. But the program was held on schedule with the parade beginning at the Community Building and returning after conducting services at the Novi cemetery. Above, parade judges stand with the winning entries. Judges are (l. to r.): Jack Crawford, Herb Dwyer and Ed Steinberger. Jim Simonsen on his pony "Diablo" and Pamela Holmes each won $5.00. The prizes were donated by the Novi board of commerce. Below are two entries that arrived too late to be judged, but still managed to take part in the parade and draw applause from the crowds. At left is John Fazio riding a horse and wagon built by his cousin, David and Dennis Cook. At right is his gaily decorated motor vehicle is Mike Schultz.

Bell Employees, Elks Hold Get-together

More than 600 employees of Michigan Bell Telephone company and 500 members of the Elks club in the Plymouth-Northville area have been invited to attend a Michigan Bell - Elks day program Saturday in Plymouth.

The program will be held from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Elks club grounds at 41700 Ann Arbor road, east of the C&O railroad bridge.

Purpose of the program is to provide a closer tie of understanding and interest between members of the Elks and a large company in the community.

Hughes C. Bromough, manager for Michigan Bell in Farmington, said the invited employees are from the Livonia District which covers Plymouth, Farmington, Livonia, Garden City and Northville.

As part of the program, bus loads of guests will be taken from the grounds to the telephone central office in Plymouth for conducted tours of the building. Movies will be shown to children in the telephone building.

Telephone vehicles on display on the grounds will be selling, displaying, line, and installation-repair trucks, as well as a mobile telephone vehicle and a Trista unit — a bucket seat attached to a hydraulic lifting arm permitting the operator to work at varying heights.

Also on display will be:

- An activated solar battery demonstration, permitting a phone call to be completed by use of light power.
- A "Communications Skyway" display which explains Michigan Bell's vast microwave radio relay system.
- A variety of present telephone instruments including an electronic secretary, call director, color key telephones, speaker-phone, and an automatic answering machine.

The Bell system's newest telephone — the Princess — also will be on display in the lobby of the Elks club house. The new small, lightweight phone represents the first major change in home telephone design in more than a decade. Baitons and accessories will be handed out at the telephone building and refreshments will be served at the Elks grounds.

PAVING UNDERWAY — Paving of the Eight Mile cutoff and the approach from Novi road was begun last week. According to an official of the Lovell Construction company, completion of paving work is expected this summer. However, the exact date cannot be determined because the county has not indicated how long it will take to complete the bridge over the C&O railroad just west of Novi road, he said. Presumably the road will be opened to traffic late this summer. Reconstruction of Novi road from the C&O tracks to Grand River is scheduled to begin in July. While this road, which will tie in with the cutoff, is under construction, Meadowbrook, Taft and Beck roads will be used as detour routes.

SPEAKING for the Record

On June 13 voters in Northville and Novi will elect new members to their respective boards of education.

Tomorrow, Friday, is the deadline for registration for the election.

Most residents, of course, are registered. To be a registered school voter one must only be recorded as a voter with his township, village or city.

For those who haven't been voting in their municipal elections, and are therefore not registered, or for those newcomers who have not yet bothered to register — Friday is the last day.

But no matter how many residents of the school district have their names listed, it's of little consequence if they do not bother to go to the polls on election day.

The small turnout at the last school elections in both Northville and Novi is disgraceful. Especially when one considers the often-heard criticisms of school taxes, etc.

In Northville this year the largest field of candidates ever for the school board has entered the race. Monday night, before a sparse crowd of about 100 persons these candidates spoke at a P.T.A. sponsored open meeting.

At the same meeting Superintendent of Schools Russell Amerman and City Manager John Robertson explained the proposed community building sale, which will also appear on the Northville election ballot.

I am sure that, like myself, the audience at the P.T.A. meeting was greatly impressed by the remarks of the candidates. It is no thing to have a great number of candidates; it is even more gratifying to know that each possesses high qualifications and abilities.

These people are taking time and effort from their private lives because they want to help make our community and school system the best possible. They know that the job is demanding and thankless, yet they have volunteered their service.

The very best that we can do as voters is become acquainted with the candidates and then VOTE.

Next week pictures and biographies of all candidates will appear in the newspaper. Look them over — then go to the polls June 13.

State Needs 'Playroom'

Hitler said Germany needed living room, but what Michigan needs is a playroom.

Increased demand for outdoor recreation will outrun available facilities unless new land use policies and investment programs are adopted.

That's the national picture and Michigan, the "Water Wonderland," is highly concerned because it is to top them for tourists.

The state took a step toward providing more parks, beaches and recreation areas with the so-called "sticker fee" bill which became law in May. The law permits a 10 million dollar bond issue for land acquisition and park development.

However, the Conservation Department says complications in getting the program into effect mean no real significant gains can be registered at least until next year.

This is when national authorities predict a 7 percent yearly increase in visits to federal and state outdoor recreation areas.

At that rate, there will be a 13-fold increase in tourism by the beginning of the 21st century. Three ways have been proposed to take care of the campers, picnickers and hikers.

The first is adding more acres for recreation. But that costs money and raises other problems.

Another way is to intensify the use of existing facilities. More camping places, picnic areas and sanitary facilities can be added so that large numbers of people can use the parks.

This method takes away some of the wilderness qualities of the area and can be expected to cut down wildlife populations. The competition for living space — or playing space — between animals and humans has already caused some concerned nature lovers.

Analyzes Summit Split

Babson Park, Mass. — It does not seem reasonable that the Summit Conference of the four largest world governments broke up suddenly in a tumult without a cause.

Khrushchev must have known for a long time that we were flying spy planes over Russia and that it was a routine thing with our Intelligence Service. Surely it could not have been the real reason for the Summit Conference breakup.

Something else must have happened to cause Khrushchev to give President Eisenhower an ultimatum and demand that the subject apology which Khrushchev, of course, knew he would not get.

It also was a general surprise when President Eisenhower indicated that the U-2 spy plane would be suspended, at least for the time being, increased demand for outdoor recreation will outrun available facilities unless new land use policies and investment programs are adopted.

That's the national picture and Michigan, the "Water Wonderland," is highly concerned because it is to top them for tourists.

The state took a step toward providing more parks, beaches and recreation areas with the so-called "sticker fee" bill which became law in May. The law permits a 10 million dollar bond issue for land acquisition and park development.

However, the Conservation Department says complications in getting the program into effect mean no real significant gains can be registered at least until next year.

This is when national authorities predict a 7 percent yearly increase in visits to federal and state outdoor recreation areas.

Olson Blasts Public Officials Then Resigns

Novi Village Manager Fred Olson withdrew his two-week old resignation Monday night before a capacity crowd at the community building.

But before the council meeting ended at 1:30 a.m. — almost five hours after it was begun — the manager was forced to resign again in the face of outright dismissal. His second resignation was promptly accepted by the council in a 4-1 vote. The resignation became effective Tuesday.

In light of the resignation, the council will meet Monday to (1) possibly interview an unemployed city manager, namely Larry Savage — formerly of Cheboygan and Saginaw, to learn whether he will accept a "temporary" position; (2) accept the resignation of Olson if Crupl should fill the manager's office until a permanent appointment is made; and (3) take action to advertise for a manager.

Olson apparently withdrew his resignation because supporters rallied behind him, presenting petitions to the council urging the officials to keep him on the payroll.

Soured by this support, which included at least half of the crowd of 225 people who jammed into the building, Olson launched an attack on two public officials — Police Chief Leo DeGale and Councilman Eugene Chiswick. He read the charges, which ranged from breaking and entering to using profanity, from a prepared statement and himself as well as between the council and the people.

From out of his bedlam came several suggestions — all of which appeared to be welcome as the charge. Olson was asked to prove or disprove misconduct of public officials; another attempt was made to bring Olson back to an agricultural classification for zoning purposes as it was prior to the rezoning.

According to Village Attorney Howard Bond, who indicated that the village has 30 days from Monday in which to set the election date, the council has but two courses of action — change the zoning back to an agricultural date and let the people decide the question.

Rather than act on it immediately in light of Buffry's letter, the council decided to turn over the matter to the planning board for study and recommendation.

The referendum move sparked by the village manager and council followed the council's action in April approving the rezoning of Baptist churches. The sale will take place from 1 to 3 p.m. on the library lawn.

At the opening of the sale, the Novi club account will take part in a fund raising ceremony. Later in the afternoon, horse and buggy rides will be given to children. Children's rides will be sponsored by various United States publishers will be on display.

Residents are urged to contribute to the library fund at every opportunity by the door-to-door campaign, and at the bake sale.

Persons making donations of $10 or more will become "Friends of The Library," thus having their names printed inside the book or books purchased by the donation.

Small donations are also appreciated, officials stressed. Citizens not contacted this week are asked to mail their contributions to the "Novi Public Library."

The father of 13 children nervously spotted her in a water hole he had dug where just five days earlier his baby daughter lay half submerged and near death.

His voice broke as he spoke: "She looked just like a doll floating there. Her head under the water. I screamed for my boy. He held my hand and I reached into the water to get her. She was cold and I knew she was dead."

But somewhere in her little body there was a spark of life — and her father, Daniel Kenny, 2953 West 12 Mile road, found it.

Little 18-month-old Peggy had ridden in the cab of her father's truck as he drove to the rest of his pig farm to help remove a bulldozer stuck fast in the wet, black earth.

THE NOVI NEWS

Three Area School Elections Monday

R-3 Rezoning Case Takes New Twist

An odd twist to the Pontiac trail rezoning case prompted the Novi council to sidestep the rezoning of its farm land to a special election Monday night.

As expected, Clerk Mary Wallace reported that more than enough of the signatures on a petition presented to the council were legitimate to call for the election. Of the 392 signatures on the petition, 364 were valid, the clerk said. Only 285 were needed. However, the council received a letter from Glenn Buffry, the Pontiac trail property owner who previously first made the request for rezoning of his farm land to a trailer court classification, suggesting that the council revert the zoning to the original agricultural classification.

"I understand there is considerable opposition to this rezoning," he wrote from Florida. "I certainly did not intend to create a problem in the village or contribute to one, and I am agreeable that the property should be rezoned to an agricultural classification for zoning purposes as it was prior to the rezoning."

According to Village Attorney Howard Bond, who indicated that the village has 30 days from Monday in which to set the election date, the council has but two courses of action — change the zoning back to an agricultural date and let the people decide the question.

Five Novi Candidates Seek Two Board Seats

Area voters will go to the polls Monday to fill 10 vacancies on three school boards in Novi, Walled Lake and Northville school districts.

In addition, electors in the Walled Lake and Northville school districts will be asked to vote on three proposals, two in Walled Lake and one in Northville.

In the Novi school district, two incumbents will tangle with three newcomers in a battle for two three-year seats. No proposals will appear on the ballot.

The incumbents are Jack Crawford and Dr. Harold Morris. Crawford, currently treasurer of the board, has been a member for 11 years. His fellow board member, Dr. Morris, was elected to a one-year term last July following his appointment to the board in January to fill the vacancy created when Kenneth Bernard resigned and moved to California.

Seeking to unseat the incumbents are: William Deane, a budgeting-accounting specialist at Wayne State University; Walter Ambinder, Ph.D., an assistant professor of clinical and educational psychology at Wayne State University; and Jack Crawford, a clinical psychologist for Detroit Recorder's Court.

Novi board members holding posts not up for election are President Arthur Heip, Russell Taylor and Edward Erwin.

Persons living in Walled Lake and Northville school districts will be asked to vote for four members, two for two three-year terms and two for four years. Normally, only two seats would be up for election as in Novi, but this year the boards are being expanded from five to seven-member boards.

The two Walled Lake incumbents are John Clark and Dwight Wieman — both seeking four year terms. Four other candidates seek to fill seats resulting from the increase of the board membership are: Mrs. Barbara Sully, Samuel W. Burnley Jr., Julius M. Beals and Samuel J. Gardner.

Both incumbents are virtually assured of election since they are seeking the two four-year terms and the newcomers, three-year terms.

Two propositions also will appear on the Walled Lake school election ballots. They include: (1) a proposition to authorize the board to borrow money and issue bonds not to exceed $250,000 for improvement of elementary, junior and senior high schools; and (2) a request for permission to levy one mill to pay off the new bonds.

In Northville, voters will elect four members to its expanded seven-member board from a slate of 13 candidates. The only incumbent is Dr. Waldo T. Johnson. The newcomers are:

(Three year term): Edward F. Angove, W. C. Becker, John P. Callaghan, Dr. J. K. Eastland, Charles A. Smith, Wilfred C. Becker, Francis P. Gazlay, George F. Hollinger, Paul R. Hunt, James Kipper and George F. Hollinger.

Appearing on the Northville election ballots will be a proposition in which voters will be asked to approve or disapprove purchase of the community building by the school district from the city.

Only property owners may vote on the Northville proposition and the first Walled Lake proposition.

Last year, 266 Novi voters went to the polls in returning incumbents Heip, Morris and Taylor to office. Although only 17 percent of the qualified electors cast their ballots, the percentage was nearly seven percent greater than in the previous year's school election. Officials hope for a better turnout Monday.

This year, 1,400 citizens are registered to vote in the Novi school election as compared to 1,350 last year, Township Clerk Hildy Bacher said.

"In an effort to save money," he said, "the village will not chlorinate its water this year. However, the village will cooperate with the property owners as to how and where the services can be obtained."

The road department also will cooperate by preparing the roads before the laying of chloride, he said.

Novi residents will have an opportunity to appraise the candidates of the five school board districts Sunday when the Novi study group will sponsor a panel discussion at the community building.

The discussion, which will begin at 2 p.m., will center around four basic questions to be asked of the candidates. They are:

— Should Novi have a high school — and if so, when?

— Are there any changes you might make in budget allocations?

— What are your views on the current movement for a return to basic education in the schools?

— Would you like to see any basic changes made in the curriculum of the Novi schools?

Faculty sponsors of the graduation exercises are Miss Gloria Soulliere and Kenneth MacKay.

In preparation for the new school year next September, a number of projects will get underway this summer, according to Nov. Superintendent of Schools William McCollum, treasurer.

Classes ended yesterday for students at both Novi elementary schools. However, students will return to school tomorrow morning to pick up their report cards and the commencement address.

Alexander is one of the authors of a graduate textbook on educational administration, co-author of several publications on educational administration, and author of several monographs on the problems of elementary and secondary education.

Graduating students, of a smaller eighth grade class than last, will receive their diplomas from Arthur Heip, president of the Novi school board.

Two students, unnamed as yet, will be presented annual citizenship awards by a close friend for
