"We've got everything here: fine schools, a million dollar view, parks, beautiful schools, and shopping just a few blocks away or in Plymouth," the young couple chorused.

In fact, "nothing" could attract the John Gibbons back to Detroit where they lived up until several months ago. They are finding too many assets in Northville to ever consider the change.

Mr. and Mrs. Gibbons live with their three young children in a modern frame house at 4199 East Seven Mile road. They wanted an older house, one that they could remodel work has already been done — but according to Mrs. Gibbons, "we have a lot of work to do — especially with the interior of the house is a "show room" for Gibbons' exciting hobby and occupation — antiques.

Just wandering in conversation with Gibbons and his wife as they trace their daily activities in this exciting field is a rich experience. Gibbons began buying and selling antiques as a youngster. Later, he turned to selling foreign automobiles. But his old hobby grew until finally he decided to make it his "bread and butter."

Although Gibbons buys and sells all kinds of antiques, his greatest interest lies in the collection of antique cars. And he has a small but valuable collection of these tiny vehicles that enchanted youngsters of the 20's and 30's. Seeing them is a nostalgic experience.

A wedding breakfast for 50 guests was held at noon at the home of the bride's parents, assisted by Mrs. Ben Beck, sister of the bride.

Saturday evening 200 guests from Northville, Detroit, Livonia, Wixom, Plymouth, Ohio and Pennsylvania gathered at the VFW hall, Five Mile and Beech roads, for a buffet dinner and to honor the newlyweds. A four-piece orchestra furnished the music for dancing.

SEEING IS BELIEVING

A SALE WITH A REASON - NOT JUST AN EXCUSE - DON'T MISS IT

Due to the death of Mr. Irving E. Blunk and the retirement of other key members of Blunk's, Inc. and other personal changes, the decision has been made to liquidate — sell out all furniture and bedding to the public at most unusual price reductions. DRASTIC MEASURES HAVE BEEN TAKEN TO CLOSE OUT THESE STOCKS TO THE BARE WALLS.

When reorganization plans are completed certain present members of the organization, plus the possible addition of new members will take over the huge crowds of people who came in. We have made extra arrangements to cope with this condition for the balance of the sale, and to those of you who were not properly taken care of, let us assure you that we will do so now.

The response to this ABSOLUTE CLOSE OUT SALE so far has been tremendous — we just could not take care of the huge crowds of people who came in. We have made extra arrangements to cope with this condition for the balance of the sale, and to those of you who were not properly taken care of, let us assure you that we will do so now.

Mr. J. E. Blunk passed away this past week, and we closed the store all day Friday, June 16th. If this has inconvenienced you, we are sorry. Please accept our regrets.

As quickly as possible we are bringing our warehouse stocks to our selling floors. New bargains will be ready for you tonight when the doors open at 6 o'clock.

ALL SALES FINAL NO EXCHANGES OR REFUNDS — MAKE YOUR SELECTIONS CAREFULLY — COME EARLY

2-FOR SALE — Real Estate

Need 6 nice large bedrooms? This nice 3 apt. home could be converted to a 6 bd. rm. single home for about $20,000. Of course, it now brings in a rental of $110 per month and leaves the extra $100 per month for the owner. This property, nicely located, with only $2000 down, and $500 mo. should be fast. Beautiful building site of two acres for one or two homes. Adj. to Meadowsbrook Estates Sub. on Jones Drive, West 7 Mile. FI-9-2175.

Want a combination of quality and price? This large brick 3 bd. rm. ranch is easy to reach, easy to live in — simply a gorgeous home for gracious living. Gas heat, large charming rms., a dream kitchen, a 2 1/2 car garage on a large lot 130x500 (1.72 A.) makes this a very desirable home. And better yet, it has a choice of 2 other homes of this type, all in preferred locations.

For investment wise folks, I have a nice choice of 2 and 3 apt. homes, each in a separate price range — all showing a good profit. It's nice to let your tenants help you pay the bills — and these homes are priced no higher than a single home.

Nothing like a good lot or acreage buy for that dream home of tomorrow. I've got several that are real nice and priced right, too.

Shakespeare Said It
"In the name of God Amen I, William Shakespeare of Stratford upon Avon in the county of Warwick, in perfect health and memory God be prayed do make and Ordayne this my last will and testament in manner and forme following That ye to saye First I Comend my Soule into the hands of God my Creator hoping assuredly believing through thoselle merites of Jesus Christe my Savior to be made partaker of life everlasting. And my bodye to the Earth wherout y<sup>e</sup> ys made." The foregoing was copied verbatim from Shakespeare's will written in 1616 and reproduced in "Shakespeare's Works". Shakespeare understood what many people do not understand today, that is, that his hope of eternal life depended upon the merits of Jesus Christ and not upon his own works. One day he had claimed Jesus Christ as his Savior and in so doing he entrusted his eternal welfare into the hands of God. It was easy then in the closing days of his life to write his will in the above fashion. W. Shakespeare had carefully considered the eternal destiny of his own soul. He knew his soul would spend eternity without God in hell or with God in heaven. While he was living, he made his choice and received Christ as Savior. Dear reader, have you made the same choice?

Up came this model yacht, a victim of earlier fishing in the model yacht basin. The crowd was disappointed, but not Raymond. For him the catch was indeed a "whopper".

Bankers Lose to Druggists But Hold First Place at Novi

National Bank assets climbed to a new high during the first week in June as the Bankers padded their record with two more victories in the Novi Little League.

The Bankers boast a 5-1 record, well out in front of the Anglin Earth Movers and Paragon Bridge & Steel tied for second with identical 3-4 records. Rexall Drug came up with its first victories in the league race but still is mired in last place with a 2-4 record.

Paragon's ace hurler, Joe Shuttler, spoiled the Bankers' clean record last Thursday scattering four hits and giving up three runs to claim an easy 8-3 victory.

George Simonson was charged with the loss. Mike Barnes and Mike Williams each clubbed doubles for the winning square.

The Bankers won three earlier games, crushing Paragon 15-3 and the Earth Movers, 9-2 and 5-3. Simonson claimed the victory for the Bankers against Paragon, giving up only 4 hits while collecting two triples at the plate. Bill MacDermaid was nipped for the loss.

Other top hitters for the Bankers included Cliff Hawley with one triple and one single, and Ricky Fox with three singles.

Ricky White and Simonson were winners of the two other games. White, who collected two singles and a double in four attempts, gave up four hits in putting down the Movers. J. Payton was the losing pitcher.

Simonson struck out nine, walked four and gave up four hits in his victory over the Movers. Norman Krugg was the losing hurler.

William Bailey tripled for the Bankers, and Krugg doubled.

POWER

Power, obviously, is very important to people today. There is the ever-present battle for power among nations. There is the power of the mechanized world which operates our industries, runs our car-owners in the home and makes our automobile transportation possible. There is, also, the power of the atom and the tremendous life-power which sends missiles into the high heavens above.

With all this power, one might be apt to think that man is quite sure of himself. On the contrary, the power of might and might against might, the power of might which operates our industries, runs our car-owners in the home and makes our automobile transportation possible. There is, also, the power of the atom and the tremendous life-power which sends missiles into the high heavens above.

Meeting together in one place and being of one mind, the disciples waited and received the power of the Holy Spirit. Subsequently they went forth to bear the Christian witness in Jerusalem—the center of their religious life, in Judea—the center of their political and governmental life, in Samaria—the hot-spot of their racial and social tensions and "to the end of the earth."

This is the persistent and penetrating power of Pentecost—more powerful than all the powers man has been able to unleash. It is creative, not destructive, of good. It is God-given, not man-made. It can be yours through openness of thought and prayer and commitment. Go to church every Sunday. There avail yourself of God's gift of the Holy Spirit bringing into life the power to witness for Christ!

NEW OFFICERS—These new officers of the Walled Lake, Michigan, Lutheran church will be installed Sunday at the church. The installation program will begin with a vesper service at 8 a.m. followed by a potluck dinner and an evening of entertainment. Slides of Mexico will be presented by the Rev. B. J. Pankow and a "community sing" will be featured. A freewill offering will be collected. The new officers are (left to right): Don Dietrich, president; Dolores Feole, vice president; Carol Hellwege, recording secretary; Sherry Cychanski, corresponding secretary; and Curt Janeske, treasurer.

Teachers Quality For Social Security

Many Northville school teachers may receive social security benefits this summer, said Harry Balluck, manager of the Detroit-Northwest social security office. This is true, Balluck stated, because a social security beneficiary who works for wages may receive a benefit check for any month during which he does not earn over $100. Thus, he said, school teachers who have reached social security retirement age (62 for women, 65 for men) or those who are entitled to receive a social security check for the months that school is not in session.

This benefit will not be paid automatically, Balluck continued, but must be applied for by each eligible teacher. Teachers who have reached retirement age or are entitled to mother's benefits who will not earn more than $100 in all months of the year are encouraged to contact the social security office. They may visit or telephone for additional information on their rights and privileges under the law. The Detroit-Northwest district office is located at 1820 Grand River. The phone number is BRoadway 9-1717.

Big Season Predicted For Air Conditioning

Air-conditioning in every home is rapidly becoming as common as the car in every garage. More and more, air-conditioning is being taken for granted as a necessity of modern living.

It is estimated the retail sales curve of the air-conditioning industry will rise to 4 1/2 billion dollars this year and to almost 7 billion in 1962.

Basically there are four ways air-conditioning can be installed in older homes:

- (1) Central air-conditioning;
- (2) Units that become part of existing warm-air heating systems;
- (3) Units that become part of hot water heating systems;
- (4) Individual room air-conditioners.

A central air-conditioning system consists of a basic unit containing a compressor, condenser, cooling coil, air filter and blower along with a duct system to rooms and room registers.

In a house using a warm-air heating system, the cost of air-conditioning can be kept low by using the existing duct and register system.

Chilled Water System
A house that is heated by hot water may sometimes be cooled by installing the existing hot water system through them. A central refrigerating unit must be installed and the radiator replaced with dual-purpose units.

When it comes to room air-conditioning, the wide choice of units this season makes it easy to choose "just the right one" to suit your individual needs.

Most standard units are available in 1 1/2 and 2 horsepower models with dimensions in width ranging from 23 to 27 inches, in height from 14 to 20 3/8 inches, and depth from 12 to 30 inches.

In general, the larger the unit is in physical size the higher its cooling capacity, which is measured in BTU's (British Thermal Units) and is noted on each unit's nameplate.

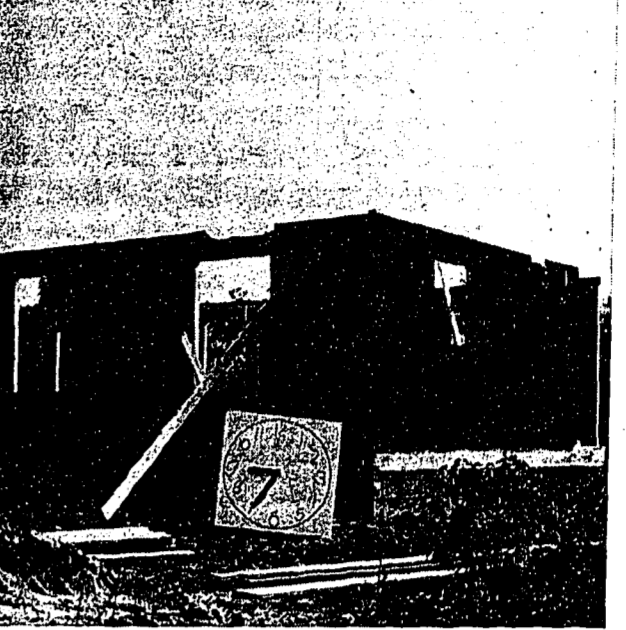

Finger-tip control of cooling functions is assured by rotary knobs, push-buttons and slide controls. The controls allow the user to select the combination of temperature, air circulation and dehumidification he prefers, while a choice of fan speeds also permits quiet night-time operation.

In addition, most units have adjustable air directors to cut down drafts, and filters which almost totally eliminate airborne dust, dirt and pollen, thus providing relief for hay fever and allergy sufferers.

Most manufacturers provide installation kits which allow their units to be installed in almost any type of window (including casement windows) by means of frames, panels or an accordion-pleated device which adjusts to the window size.

Growing in popularity are "through the wall" installations which leave windows clear and permit the unit to be almost flush with interior and exterior walls.

BUILDING and Garden News

IN LESS THAN six hours the walls and roof trusses of this house at 758 Grace were erected last Friday. Using Lu-Re-Co pre-assembled house parts five men completed the roof boards in the afternoon so that all the walls and roof were completed in a day. The house was erected by Nowels Lumber and Coal company for Rodney Dahlager. The FIA approved system was developed by the Lumber Dealers Research Council of Washington, D.C. Nowels manufactures the prescribed house parts at their Oxford firm.

FASCINATING FACTS ABOUT NATURAL GAS

Pattern of Progress

In 1911 a western rancher, Bill Herron, tried in vain to convince a group of men that Turner Valley was rich in natural gas. All of his telling, he lit a gas leak with a lamp. The men were terrified by the valley then, the only light being the lamp. One example of how men of vision and courage discovered and proved the vast potential of natural gas!

Today natural gas provides energy, not only for frying eggs, but for storing and preserving them for a long time. A tiny gas flame that makes it possible the marvelous of the silent, automatic gas refrigerator-freezer. Natural gas is the wonder of household servant that gets so many things done well—and in a hurry!

*The modern, automatic range, refrigerator, water heater, clothes dryer, indoor incinerator, air-conditioning, and house heating are ALL run by natural gas in millions of today's modern homes. Call or write your Consumers Power Company to learn more about natural gas.

SPAKING for the Record

By Bill Sliger

An epidemic that undoubtedly does not confine itself to our area is currently a matter of deep concern to local police and city officials.

The problem is vandalism. Highest on the list of offenses being committed is gas stealing.

Area businesses, such as sand and gravel concerns, fuel oil dealers and the construction crews working on the Eight Mile road cut-off — have reported heavy losses of gasoline.

Even the city itself has been plagued by vandals taking gasoline from city equipment and pumps.

One businessman, Clayton Myers, told councilmen last week that gas thieves are slashing the hoses from his gas pumps when they cannot remove the gasoline.

Similar destruction of property is reported at the other favorite targets of the gas-thieves.

Other forms of vandalism, including fights (in two cases knives were taken from youths involved in a fracas), speeding and noisy "gunning" of cars have also been reported.

According to Police Chief Eugene King there are several reasons for the outbreak:

- a shortage of policemen;
- need for another patrol car;
- failure to bring charges against young offenders;
- light penalties that result when vandals are caught and charged;
- and need for citizen cooperation in catching offenders.

(At least one business man is taking care of the last point. He has a shog-gun armed guard watching gas pumps on his property with instructions to shoot at prowlers.)

The council has recognized the police shortage and provided funds in its new budget to hire an office clerk. This will free an officer for patrol work. Northville's police department has operated with one less officer since the retirement of Chief Denton, more than a year ago.

Funds for a second patrol car have also been appropriated. Chief King points out that vandals know exactly where Northville's lone patrol car is at all times and plan their crimes accordingly.

The matter of severity of penalties rests, of course, with our justice court. The very fact that the city is taking steps to clamp down on vandalism should naturally carry over into the court, however.

The existence of excessive vandalism in Northville is difficult for Chief King to admit. In the past police have claimed it was at a minimum here.

Now he is disturbed.

"Gas-stealing and beer-drinking parties are no longer considered crimes by many teenage youngsters," Chief King declares.

Parents should take notice of this statement by our police chief. He has talked with many of our youngsters; he knows the perennial offenders.

But when he finds an attitude of acceptance of these serious offenses within a cross-section of our teenagers, it is time the subject of proper conduct comes up for discussion at the family level.

Correcting the misconception that because others do something it is alright — even fashionable — will sound better when explained by mom or dad than by a judge or police officer.

Labor Holds Price Line

Babson Park, Mass. — The Dow Jones Industrial Stock Average has declined from a high of 685 on January 5, 1960 to under 600, from which it is just rebounding. Many investors are wondering what market prices are for the commodities they need. However, the world now faces a surplus of oil. Not only have the Arab states large supplies which they are anxious to sell, but the production of the Sahara Desert must be considered. France is very much interested in this Sahara production. President DeGaulle is striving for self-sufficiency in order to regain world status.

Price Stability
This overall price stability does not apply to all commodity quotations. We have seen widespread declines in wholesale prices for foodstuffs and farmers expect to receive less for 1960 crops.

However, owing to the demand by consumers for small quantities of foodstuffs which they purchase at the supermarkets, retail prices have remained high. It is not only costs retailers more to sell small items, but the cost of packages and displays is greater. Supermarkets present a fine show window for their goods, but foreign imports are crowding us more and more.

When I was in Europe recently, I was astounded at the low prices which are being paid for raw materials. In the case of Japan, they do not produce many basic commodities, but confine their exports to manufactured products. Wages are very low in Japan, and reports from China vary, but presumably wages there are even lower than in Japan. If I can get a visa, I will visit China and get the facts about China's wages and her exports, which now go largely to Russia.

Outlook for Copper and Oil
Copper production in the U.S. is affected by gradually rising prices; hence the price of copper should be well maintained. Copper producers are, however, handicapped by the fact that the metal has a long life; some of that now being used in the electronics industry once existed in the form of tin ore or was the grandmothers' kettles. In the case of oil, gasoline, and other petroleum products, there is no such problem; when these are used they are totally consumed. However, the world now faces a surplus of oil. Not only have the Arab states large supplies which they are anxious to sell, but the production of the Sahara Desert must be considered. France is very much interested in this Sahara production. President DeGaulle is striving for self-sufficiency in order to regain world status.

Exceptions To The Above
The main bullish argument for oil is that Messrs. president of Egypt, may succeed in becoming "sales manager" for all the Arab countries and stop them from cutting prices or giving special favors. I have recently made studies on the effect "fallout" might have on commodity prices in case of World War III. I asked various authorities whether farmers would be obliged to buy more or less fertilizer to offset the radioactivity which might be absorbed by surface crops.

In the case of World War III, our government might not allow the planting of new crops. Milk, beef and other products from livestock which feed on grass could be severely affected if contaminated by unfavorable fallout winds. I, however, am confidentially informed that this contamination could be offset by the free use of water and lime. The price of lime has not varied much in the past three years, but has been around $10 per ton F.O.B. quarry in short. It will continue to advance as pressure will continue in most industrial commodities, especially the metals and oils, and in farm and other commodities where large supplies exist; but lime may be an exception.

Boys Need Help
Members of the Michigan boys club will hold their annual rummage sale next week — but right now they're looking for persons willing to donate rummage sale items to assist in carrying out their plans.

Proceeds from the rummage sale will be held July 8 and 9 will be used to defray cost of the club's annual trip — this year to Cuba.

Tourist Council Sells State All Year Around

MICHIGAN'S TOURIST attractions are the product for a year-around hard-sell campaign.

The Michigan Tourist Council uses a wide range of communications plus numerous general information techniques to promote the state's vacation spots both within the state and throughout the nation.

And the council gets good cooperation from commercial groups within the state.

The Council divides its commercial advertising program into three major vacation seasons in the state: winter, spring-summer and autumn.

Advertisements timed to exert the greatest possible sales influence just prior to the time when vacationers make their plans for each season are placed with magazines, newspapers and radio-television.

A comprehensive array of informative and attractive literature is also prepared by the Council.

The state of Massachusetts wanted to know whether Michigan law prohibited the wearing of "slacks, shorts or trousers" by women when appearing in public.

A legislative researcher in Boston threw the task Adams as part of a survey program.

"We can locate no occasion on which a woman was convicted of disorderly conduct or indecent exposure by reason of the fact that she was attired in slacks, shorts or trousers," Adams said in a letter to the Massachusetts official who asked the question.

Furthermore, Adams issued a press release detailing the entire exchange of letters. "While hardly a delicate subject, the question of women's attire could be expected to raise an eyebrow or two in some quarters. Adams said.

First, it must keep in touch with resort operators, tourist agencies and vacation spots so they can best take advantage of the Council program, and second, it must continue to deal with potential users of two in some quarters. Adams said.

In addition to the advertising that is bought and paid for, the Council prepares news-type press releases and pictures that are passed out to newspapers, magazines, radio and TV.

Underlying the whole program is a personal-contact public relations program that has two major purposes.

First, it must keep in touch with resort operators, tourist agencies and vacation spots so they can best take advantage of the Council program, and second, it must continue to deal with potential users of two in some quarters. Adams said.

12-Mile Road Landfill Faces New Obstacle

Opponents of the proposed 12-mile road landfill this week were handed unexpected ammunition in their lengthy in-assertion of court battle.

Village Attorney Howard Bond, in reporting the status of the landfill matter with the council Monday night indicated that one of the proposed landfill property owners had several business relations with the landfill promoters.

According to Bond, two of the owners, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Russell, have received their preliminary purchase agreement with the Wayne Disposal company because of the company's failure to "live up to its agreement."

Wayne Disposal company, along with the Russell and Mr. and Mrs. David Kenny, had met together in court efforts to secure permission for the proposed landfill.

In their initial action in court, the trio won approval for the landfill from Circuit Court Judge Russell Holland, despite a decision by the village board of appeals denying the landfill request.

Later, however, after angry citizens looked to the court to fill the final decision, Judge up to the village council. Subsequently, attorneys for the promoters and property owners ask permission from the council, and the council in turn asked the landfill promoters for more definite information on the landfill before making his decision.

"I believe that this detailed information has yet to be set. The significance of the latest development concerning the landfill is that Wayne Disposal company officials probably could be denied a landfill permit on grounds that they are neither property owners nor have they an option to purchase the Russell property, ran into the adjacent Nassau street of the adjacent Nassau street.

A council meeting with Arthur L. Robbins, attorney for the landfill license applicant, probably will be set until next month after Bond has the village engineers have an opportunity to study the information gathered by the promoters.

Other council business included: Report by Attorney Bond that the disconnection case of W. B. C. corner of Eight Mile and Novi roads will be heard Thursday (today) in circuit court beginning at 9 a.m.

A report by Bond that the 12-mile road landfill case (Rader not Nielsen property) will be heard in court during the week of July 5.
