

SPEAKING for the Record

It's been nearly four years now that a committee representing six area school districts has been working on a proposal to establish a junior community college.

The Northville school district was invited to participate in the program but declined after attending preliminary meetings because our system was in the early stages of promoting its bond issue for a new high school. Presumably, our board of education did not believe that Northville was able to assume any new financial obligations at that time.

But I believe the board and school administrators would be quick to agree that responsibility for providing an opportunity for education does not end with graduation from high school.

This has become a serious problem and will become more so as each year passes. Our major state universities and colleges are jammed. I have been told that the Henry Ford Junior College has been turning away applicants for the fall term for two months. The same is true of other major colleges in the metropolitan area.

Educators point out that our college age population will double in 10 years, and on top of this the percentage of our high school graduates going to college continues to grow. It was the recognition of this problem that prompted the districts (Farmington, Garden City, Livonia, Plymouth, Redford, and Southfield) to undertake the community college plan.

Their progress has been significant. They have been successful in initiating legislation to provide for formation of a community college by two or more school districts. They have enlisted the assistance of the University of Michigan Bureau of School Services and employed the part-time services of Dr. Albert Armerman, dean of instruction of Henry Ford Community college, to help prepare material for a formal application. Just recently an office has been opened at Newburg and Ann Arbor trail.

By February they returned their proposal for establishment of a college to the state superintendent of public instruction. If this is approved, an election will be scheduled—possibly in June—asking voters in the participating districts to okay the community college plan, elect a board of trustees and agree upon the necessary millage levy. State aid and tuition would probably keep the mill levy low, possibly at one mill.

Interest in the community college plan has been proven by a preliminary survey of some 4500 students in the northwest Wayne county area. Nearly 7000 returned questionnaires stating they would be interested in attending the college.

Actually, it is anticipated that the proposed college would do more than take the load off our bigger institutions. It would, of course, enable students seeking four-year degrees or professional training to satisfy their first two years' credit at their conveniently located community college.

As important, the community college would provide advanced technical training for prospective nurses, bookkeepers, stenographers, etc., thereby upgrading their opportunity for better employment.

Likewise it would answer the growing area demand for adult education classes. I have been told by Mrs. Esther Fulsing, Plymouth school board member and secretary-treasurer for the study group (technically called the Northwest Wayne County Community College Committee), that school districts contiguous to the participating districts can join the program at any time.

In the initial vote to form the "college authority", however, every participating district must vote approval of the entire plan. If it is approved, neighboring districts can join by a favorable vote within their own area.

It is my personal conviction that Northville authorities—the school board, Parent-Teachers' association and any others interested in providing maximum opportunity for education—should accept this invitation and become a part of the community college effort.

Don't Kill a Child

PEOPLE WHO READ traffic safety stories, glance at safety signs or hear safety reminders have short memories. Too often they let their selves get killed or involved in an accident over the warnings.

But if it weren't for the newspaper—and other media—the record would be far worse than it is, according to Gerald W. Shipman, executive secretary of the State Safety Council.

"Definitely, we'd be dead without the cooperation and support of newspapers," he said.

As Michigan's 1,500,000 students start back to school this fall, Shipman says there can be no better time for drivers to be reminded of the need for vigilance on the highway especially near schools and during the hours children are making their trips between school and home. The familiar motto "Don't kill a child" has no greater significance than for the driver who has been featured in an accident with a youngster.

The law about stopping for school buses loading or unloading children needs to be unphobing. It became effective little more than a year ago, Shipman said. "In order to be reminded that they are required to stop when the bus stops whether they are traveling in the same or opposite direction.

"The trend has been for a more safety conscious public over the past years, and newspapers have helped it along," Shipman states. "Newspaper articles have been sparked by a committee of especially dedicated editors who work together in the Traffic Safety Council of Michigan Press Association. F. Granger Weil, president of the Fori-Times Herald, is key driving force in this activity. In six of the last seven years he served as chairman of the committee."

The MPA committee urges three main actions for Michigan newspapers: 1.—Devote ample news and editorial to traffic safety matters to keep the public up to date. 2.—Support the aims defined by traffic experts. In recent years this included pushing for a speed limit on the highway in a never ending race. Continued effort is necessary to keep from losing ground.

Newspapers have been complimented numerous times for their safety work by the Governor, by State Police Commissioner Joseph E. Childs and Secretary of State James M. Hare, who is chairman of the Michigan Press Association.

Editors, like safety experts, know that the battle to reduce accidents on the highway is a never ending one. Continued effort is necessary to keep from losing ground.

We're World Leaders in Taxes, Too!

On the Atlantic Ocean — As I travel about the world I am convinced that we, the people of the United States, pay the highest taxes of any nation with a responsible government. We know the direct tax bill which we get from our cities and towns, based on real estate assessments, and the direct taxes which we get from our states, states and Federal Government but we fail to recognize the indirect taxes we are paying. No other country which I annually visit has such indirect taxes.

When I have a meal costing a $1.00 or more in many states there is a tax added to the bill. All of our states have gasoline taxes ranging from 20 to 26 cents a gallon, in addition to a tax on tires, and on certain kinds of the toll is another form of taxation. Some cities and states also add sales taxes which are added to the cost of our daily purchases.

You may think that the government must pay your Social Security, but really you have been taxed for it for many years. Then there are the liquor and cigarette taxes, and the taxes you pay when you send a telegram, make certain phone calls, buy transportation tickets. There are many others, too, which I could mention.

The greatest tax burden which any consumer in the United States pays is the corporation profits tax. This applies to all corporations. It means that up to 32 percent of the profits of all corporations must be paid to the federal government in taxes.

Those of you who receive semi-annual reports from corporations in which they hold stock know what they pay in income taxes. These taxes, however, are added to the price of the goods which the corporations sell. Hence, when you buy anything from your local stores (except food, drugs, and a few other necessities) you relate to the producer's 32 percent. This includes refrigerators, cooking stoves, television sets, radios, as well as almost all the furniture for your house. You pay this through the increased price.

With some nations of Europe the taxation system has ultimately resulted in socialism, revolution or communism.

There is no other part of the world where I would rather live than in the United States. We pay for both our education and our comforts by higher taxes, and yet these taxes are "shot in the arm" to prolong our present prosperity.

Is the U.S. a Welfare State? No, it is not, compared with many other countries in Europe. The most marked example is Sweden, which I visited last year. There the mother is helped while the baby is being born, and is cared for during the first five years. Citizens can get free hospital service as well as free education. The railroads, telephones and buses are owned by the people. The government builds and operates co-operative stores and many places of amusement.

However, I found these were not appreciated by the people; instead, they were complaining about the high taxes. This is evident in Denmark, and even in England. Human nature seems to be about the same all over the world, although I found a better spirit in West Germany than anywhere else.

There the people seem to realize that in the end they get what they produce, and hence are willing to labor hard and do excellent work.

The threatened revolutions throughout the world today, whether in Cuba or Central Africa or South-east Asia, are based on a determination to get more and do less. However, the situation in China, which I hoped to visit this year but have been forbidden to by our government, is based upon people awakening from a sleep of many years to the fact that 500,000,000 people with 1,000,000 being added every month!

There the people seem to realize that in the end they get what they produce, and hence are willing to labor hard and do excellent work.

Library To Open Saturday

The dreams of Novi citizens will become a reality Sunday when the community's first public library officially opens.

Wearing a fresh coat of white paint and housing close to 3,000 books, either donated or purchased by cash donations the little frame building will welcome students and adults beginning at 11 a.m. The doors will close at 5 p.m.

Novi residents are welcome to visit the library and inspect the book shelves and acquire themselves with this new public service—a product of scores of public spirited citizens.

Although library board members originally planned to charge a fee of $2 per family, citizens have either been donated or have been purchased with the more than $1,500 contributed by the 14-city campaign earlier this summer.

During the campaign citizens were asked to become "Friends of the Library"—members with donations of $10 or more.

By becoming a "Friend," a citizen is entitled to have his or her name imprinted inside the book or book shelves and acquire themselves with this new public service—a product of scores of public spirited citizens.

Regular library hours will be 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Tuesdays and Thursdays, and 11 to 5 on Saturdays.

Members of the library committee, which governs the policies of the library are: Sanford Sawyer, president; Dick Greenberg, vice president; Mrs. Wordell Lyke, secretary; Mrs. Wallace, librarian; John MacBride, special librarian; Frances Staman, Hadley Bachus, Albert Anderson and Mrs. Greenberg.

In connection with library activities, a registration period will be held on next week Saturday at the library for children and adults interested in joining an art class.

Registration will be from 10 a.m. to 12 p.m. also will be accepted for a wood-work instrument class.

A Great Books group, sponsored by the library, will hold an orientation meeting next week Friday at the First United Presbyterian church, Morgan House club, Excelsior and attained the rank of Eagle in the Boy Scouts.

Besides his wife, Esther Hanson Atwood, and his son, he is survived by his parents, who reside at 121 High Street, a sister, Ardyce, and a brother, S/Sgt. Harold Atwood, stationed at Cannon Air Force Base, New Mexico.

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. Tuesday from the Castelline funeral home with the Rev. Dr. Frank Fitt officiating. Interment was at Oakland Hills Memorial Gardens in Novi.

The bid was awarded to the Postle firm, one of five construction companies to submit bids, on the basis of the recommendations by the architect, Kalamand, McMullan & Associates, Inc.

Although the base bid was not the lowest of the five, a spokesman for Kalamand explained that the combined construction, electrical and mechanical estimates were lower than were the combinations of other firms.

School Committee Organizes Tonight

Novi's board of education set the wheels in motion on three different proposed school programs Wednesday evening (September 14) in a session that lasted until 1 a.m.

Board members nominated five names each to a citizens' committee that will hold its organizational meeting tonight (Thursday) at the Orchard Hills school building.

Secondly, the board scheduled a public meeting with Dr. Harry Hahn of the Oakland county board of education for next Tuesday evening to discuss the controversial subject of hiring a remedial reading teacher.

And thirdly, Superintendent of Schools William Medlyn told the board that school consultant services were available through the University of Michigan. Last month the board approved a motion to hire a part-time elementary curriculum consultant.

An audience filled the library of the Orchard Hills school at the board meeting. If they came expecting a duplication of the previous meeting which arguments raged over the proposed hiring of a remedial reading teacher, they were disappointed.

Although Walter Ambinder and John MacBride were reluctant to promote his Tuesday evening to settle the remedial reading problem, their fellow board members voted them down.

Superintendent Medlyn reported that Dr. Hahn would be available the 27th to discuss remedial reading. Both Ambinder and MacBride favor hiring a trained reading specialist immediately.

Board members Arthur Hestli, Edward Edwin and Russell Taylor supported Erwin's proposal to examine the public schools and means of financing the teacher. Presumably, Dr. Hahn will discuss these areas as well as the direction of area chairman and still needed, Mrs. Merwin reported. Persons interested in helping with the drive may call her at FJ-1460.

The 25 members to the school board's citizens' committee will get together with board members at eight o'clock this evening to organize themselves into study groups.

Each board member was entitled to name five members each of whom will serve on one of the five sub-committees covering special education, school teacher personnel, finances and curriculum.

The board member's selections were as follows: Hestli — Mrs. Dorothy Snow, Mrs. Andrew Burgess, James Mitchell, Dick Trautman and Herb Dryden.

Ambinder — John Hood, David Fried, Ray Garcia, Richard Bigham and Edward Jennings.

Erdman — Bruce M. Glawson, E. Earl, Edward Blackwell, William MacBride and Mrs. John Cookman.

Seek OK For Study On Sewers

Oakland county public works officials are expected to ask approval for an area preliminary sewer study, which is to include Novi, next week.

Deputy Director Donald Ringer said his department will seek approval from the public works board, which governs the department, in an effort to establish the study as an Oakland county project.

Medlyn has pointed out that the board is holding only $20,000 in payments to the local school system.

However, the delay between the opening of school and the time that school revenues are collected make it necessary to borrow more, he said.

Once this approval is secured the next step by the county will be to apply for Federal aid which would be used to fund the study and the Federal government grant money for this study, then the study could begin within two or three months, he said.

If no Federal aid is forthcoming plans for the study may be curtailed for a time, Ringer added.

Novi village and township, along with several other area communities, have already contributed money to the county to help finance the proposed study, which presumably will include only those areas lying within the Rouge River basin. Eventually, however, the study is expected to be widened to include areas within the Huron River basin.

The city of Wixom, which lies within both basins, probably will be included in the plan, even though it has not contributed money to the study. Ringer said, "We can't very well exclude these communities or isolate them. If they're in the area then we necessarily have to include them," he explained.

Most of the $2,000 contributed by the village of Novi was made available by individual contractors and property owners in this area.

This money, as well as all other money given to the county by participating communities, will be returned once construction of sewers is started.

However, after outlining his reasons for resigning, which included the pit restrictions as well as dissatisfaction with several village policies, he agreed to a council meeting to postpone his action—at least until after he had either been granted or denied a new hearing. Since then he has made public request that the matter be either considered or dropped.

In other action at last week's meeting, board members postponed until tonight at 8 p.m. the request of Dick McCree for a license so that he might conform with the village landfill ordinance.

The landfill operator contends that nothing has been done about his application for a license—even though he applied for it "quite awhile ago."

Shimer argued that under the law, the board does not have the authority to have a rehearing and rescind earlier actions. He and his client objected to the gravel pit operation itself because of noise, dust, hazards and nuisances.

Board member David Fried stated that the board had been advised by the council that when a rehearing is requested, it must be granted.

Shortly after submitting his resignation, Councilman Anderson said that one of his reasons for doing so was because he thought he might have more success in asking for a rehearing as a private citizen only and not as a public official.

Anderson told The News Wednesday that he was "satisfied" with the modified restrictions.

Volunteers Needed Here

The call for "help" echoed throughout Novi this week, as backers of the community blood bank drive announced plans for an organizational meet next week Wednesday.

The call for "help" echoed throughout Novi this week, as backers of the community blood bank drive announced plans for an organizational meet next week Wednesday.

Anyone interested in volunteering his or her services should attempt to be present for the organizational meeting, Mrs. Fried said. The meeting will be held at 10 a.m. in the village offices.

Persons wishing to volunteer, but who are unable to attend Wednesday, are asked to contact either Mrs. Virginia Noah, 579-5959, or Mrs. Fried, GR-4-8834.

Close to 20 persons were supplied with blood through the Novi bank during the past year, Mrs. Fried said.

Blood is available to any person living in Novi—or any member of his family—Novi or elsewhere. Persons need not have contributed blood during past campaigns to secure blood for themselves or their families.

That the permit be granted for a period no longer than seven months. It originally was for two years.

That the land be graded upon completion, leaving no depression on the land. The original restriction called for the pits to be re-filled with "hard fill" upon completion.

That the average depth of the excavation be 20 feet. The original restriction was that the pit be no deeper than 20 feet.

The additional restriction requires the access road to the pit be colored so that it might conform with the village landfill ordinance.

In other business at last week's board session an annual audit report for the school district was presented by the accounting firm of Jans and Knight.

(As required by law, the school district's annual statistical and financial report is scheduled to be published in next week's edition of The Novi News.)

School Seeks $35,000 Loan

Medlyn has pointed out that the board is holding only $20,000 in payments to the local school system.

Willowbrook Seeks Swimming Pool

READERS SPEAK: Bus Radios Reduce Danger

Mr. Editor: I was very concerned after reading the letter in last week's Novi News and hearing the comments of various people I know, that anyone would believe that radios installed in school buses primarily for enjoyment.

Included in the radio set-up is an audio-amplifier that enables the driver to be heard instantly by flipping a switch and speaking into a microphone. When driving a car, danger of an accident is increased everytime the eyes leave the road.

Regarding the money used for expensive schools and equipment instead of teachers, there was a special bond issue raised to provide for building and equipping schools, also necessary repairs to existing buildings. To use that money for other purposes would require the vote of all the taxpayers in the school district.

A Letter To The Lord

The postal clerk took a look at the letter. Then, not knowing what else to do, he stamped it "insufficient address" and routed it to the dead letter office.

Mustangs Drop Opener to Rocks 25-12

Gallop on an early lead Friday night the Mustangs stumbled suddenly on a Rock wall and lost the season opener to arch-rival Plymouth 25-12.

The defeat on Plymouth's gridiron ended an eight-game Northville winning streak and spoiled the debut of Coach Ron Horwath, who replaced former Coach Ron Schipper now of Jackson.

Surprising the wreckage, Horwath promised plenty of rugged practice for his griders this week in an effort to "clean up our mistakes" before tomorrow's league opener with Holly.

Although Holly was obviously disappointed by the loss, he was far from discouraged. "There were plenty of bright spots despite our mistakes," the coach said.

Shonta Makes Grade

Chuck Shonta, a former Northville teacher who last year was granted a leave of absence to try his hand at professional football, appears to have made the grade.

GRIDIRON OPENER - It was a perfect night for a football game Friday; it was cool, the stands were packed and two arch-rivals were dueling in an opening clash.

In W-O League Tilt Holly Here Friday

With only six letters in the starting lineup, Coach Ray Figg of Holly is making no optimistic predictions as his varsity eleven prepares to invade Northville tomorrow for the league opener.

Since 1955 the Northville griders have pelted Holly with six straight defeats. Scores of other games last week involving Wayne-Oakland league and area teams:

The Holly coach pointed to the line as the "weakest spot" on the team, with only three returning lettermen holding starting positions.

Although Holly lost its opener last Friday with Grand Blanc 19-6, the Broncos were "in the game" in the final quarter.

"THREE EVILS OF OUR TIMES"

The task of naming the three worst sins of our age is a complicated one to say the least. To begin with, it is a false premise to say that sins are categorically arranged, when God says, "All unrighteousness is sin." It is man who has graded sins according to his effect upon society; consequently, we have been made to think of evils as having degree. In this we have failed to distinguish that there is sin, and there are sins. Sin is our nature, stemming from unbelief, while sins are the results manifesting that nature. Sin is the root, sins are the fruit; sin is the heart, sins are the arteries.

Standing at the head of the list as degrading evils of our day, are blasphemy, drunkenness, and murder, and yet it is not uncommon to find that a person guilty of one, is capable of all three. This fact is well illustrated by the fable of the Arabes concerning the man who fell into the clutches of the Devil, who would release him only if he committed one of three alternative sins: to eat, drink, kill his father, or curse Allah. The victim could not consider killing his father nor cursing Allah, so chose to get drunk, and while drunk killed his father and cursed Allah. While this illustrates the fact that sin leads to sin, we need further to examine each of these evils in the light of God's word, and find God's thoughts concerning them.

Blasphemy, cursing, foul language is a sad commentary on our society. It is not good to hear men, women and teen-agers, publicly display by word of mouth, the condition of their hearts. In Mark's gospel Jesus said, "For from within, out of the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders, thefts, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness..." Then also the great moral code, given to Moses, "Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain; for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain."

The second evil, responsible for more chaos, and corruption, more death and destruction than many wars, is drunkenness. With the increased consumption of alcoholic liquors and intoxicants, crime and moral rot have been steadily mounting. Should there be only one verse of scripture, prohibiting the practice of an evil, that would suffice, but we have abundant Scriptural witness against drunkenness. In the Proverbs, "Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise... for the drunkard and the glutton shall come to poverty." But the strongest indictment against this sin is given in 1 Cor. 6:10 which tells us that "such shall not inherit the kingdom of God."

Certainly, everyone knows the extent and awfulness of murder that manifests the fact that something is tragically wrong with a world such as ours, filled with such violent language and violent acts. The diagnosis of the Great Physicians cannot be disputed—"Out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, etc., etc. Now, if these evils are the fruit, then the cause of the heart must be the root, and only as the heart is cleansed by Him can the fruit of our lives be righteousness, and peace, therefore the need of Romans 10:10.

Wixom Baptist to Dedicate Church, Launch Evangelistic Campaign

The First Baptist church of Wixom, the only church in the city of Wixom.

In 1865 it built the church now located on Wixom road next to the elementary school.

Almost 100 years later, on September 25, 1960 to be exact, it will dedicate its new, contemporary styled church valued at more than $100,000.

The dedication service will begin at 3 p.m. Dr. H. H. Savage, faithful pastor of the First Baptist church, Pontiac, for many years, will deliver the dedication address.

To commemorate the dedication of the church, Rev. Don Engram, executive director of Voice of Christian Unity, Detroit, will conduct a series of evangelistic meetings September 25 through October 2 with the exception of Friday and Saturday.

God has used Rev. Engram effectively in reaching the teens of Detroit with the gospel; his messages are straightforward and Christ-honoring, and they will be a blessing to you.

Rev. Engram's most recent overseas work was a 19 around the world visiting and preaching in the countries of Israel, India, Singapore, Hong Kong, Japan and Hawaii.

Sales Soar on Sidewalks

There's something about doing business out in the open that attracts customers.

Friday's "Sidewalk Sale" in Northville attracted a steady stream of shoppers from 9 a.m. until 9 p.m.

Merchants reported sales were much higher than last year's event. And although cloudy skies threatened early in the day, even the sun couldn't stay away. By noon the day was bright.

Perhaps the luckiest shopper of the day was 13-year-old Patricia Werdshoff (see cutline below).

SHOPPERS strolled from counter to counter along the sidewalks in Northville Friday. As shown in the pictures above displays lined the walks as nearly 30 merchants participated in the annual event, reported to be the biggest ever. There's a reason for the wide smile on the face of Patricia Werdshoff, (above left). She's just selected a $50 diamond ring set in the $1.00 "grab bag" at Testakovsky Jewelers. Mrs. Ols Testakovsky examines the set with Patricia, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Werdshoff of 818 Carrington. Because Patricia's a little young for her prize, she'll probably trade it for a new watch!

State Improving Reputation

THE LONG REBUILDING JOB to repair Michigan's reputation after the year-long 1959 cash crisis is well underway.

"Both political parties now recognize our shortcomings and the areas in which our tax structure needs repair," the portly, balding Lock said in a paper he prepared for the New York meeting.

One of the points of the present system which will count under scrutiny is the practice of using a promotional list first.

Present regulations require state agencies to fill vacancies from among persons on a promotional list before going outside the list, if such a list is available.

"Yet despite all the plus factors, we permitted ourselves the luxury of horrible national publicity because of an unwillingness to compromise our differences, but said."

FRANKLIN DE WALD, husky new state personnel chief, has ordered a thorough look at Michigan's civil service system.

LIBRARY DONATION — The Willowbrook Community association, one of many organizations to make donations to the new Novi library which opened Saturday, recently constituted a complete set of encyclopedias.

Only Councilman Philip Anderson has taken a stand on the novel issue. He has stated repeatedly that he opposes hiring a manager.

Several other matters have expressed satisfaction with Ackley and present operations of the village, but they have neither stated that they oppose or support immediate appointment of a manager.

Since the resignation of former manager, Fred Olson, last June, Novi Building Inspector Harold Ackley has been acting as village coordinator, assuming most of the responsibilities of a manager.

School Board Votes Against Hiring Expert Reading Teacher

City Hall Ceremony Set Sunday at Wixom

A corner-site ceremony will highlight a colorful program Sunday afternoon at the site of Wixom's new city hall facilities, Pontiac Trail, east of Wixom road.

The program, which is not expected to last much more than an hour, will get underway at 3 p.m.

Refreshments will be furnished "downtown" the program. The city hall will be a modern one-story, 100x130 foot building, constructed of concrete blocks, brick and aluminum, and porcelain exterior.

Wixom's City Report Wins Award. William Dean, 29320 East Le-Bois drive, was elected president of the newly organized P-T-A in a meeting held last week Tuesday.

Accepted by Councilman R. W. Lahl and City Attorney David Dole at Grand Rapids, the award was for the city's first annual report prepared a year ago by former mayor Joseph Sadtuk.

The new P-T-A President has been elected for five years. Married and father of one child, 30-year-old Dean is a certified public accountant, a graduate of Wayne State university, and is employed as an assistant to the vice president for business and finance at the Holy Cross Episcopal Mission and was an unsuccessful candidate for the school board at the last election.

Names of prospective officers were submitted by the nominating committee charged with this responsibility of the group's first meeting last fall. They were Mrs. Robert Skellenger, Mrs. George Clark, Al Hartland, Melvyn and Mrs. Harris, who was the group's temporary chairman during the summer.

Persons who attended the first meeting and automatically became charter members, voted to set the dues at 50 cents per person per year — subject to change at a later date, and decided to hold all meetings on the first Tuesday of each month.

The first program of the Novi P-T-A next month will be entitled "Youth and Your Community," with various youth, religious and educational organizations participating in a series of panel discussions on topics relating to their activities.

Members Split 3-2 As Authorities Clash

The views of two remedial reading experts clashed last-on here Tuesday night and the noise of the collision probably will be heard for weeks to come.

There was one casualty: a proposal to hire a remedial reading teacher was voted down 3-2 by the Novi board of education.

With both men agreeing somewhat, the board adopted a remedial reading teacher, could serve as a "helping teacher" and at the same time help these individual children who need immediate help.

Actually, it was not only the clashing viewpoints of Ambinder and Hahn which resulted in the 3-2 vote, but also the question of financing.

School Board Director Arthur Herli and board members, Edward Herli and Russell Taylor, took the lead in opposing that a remedial reading teacher and how the salary could be financed. The 30 days are up, they added, and nothing has been done.

With a wide range of questions from citizens falling all over the board table, Herli indicated that the financing problem probably will be taken to the people in a special election.

"The one thing we can do is ask for a millage increase," Herli said, "and until I do not favor the proposition." His board opponents fired back that such an election would postpone the issue still more.

"We were elected by the people and I don't think we have to go to them every time a matter like this comes up."

The lineup in voting on Ambinder's motion to hire a qualified remedial reading teacher was Herli, Herli and Taylor against and Ambinder and MacBride in favor of the motion.

Name Heads For School Study Group. In an organizational meeting last Thursday night at Orchard Hills school, five chairman were named to head up the sub-committees of a study group initiated by the Novi school board.
