

SPEAKING for the Record

By Bill Siler

Officials of the city and township of Northville learned this week exactly how much it will cost if their communities are to participate in the Wayne county plan to expand the interceptor sewer facilities.

As most residents of the area know, the state health department has slapped a ban on building that requires new sewer facilities until the county adopts a definite plan for relieving the present interceptor sewer.

The county department of public works has come up with a $17,154,484 plan — the cost of which will be shared by the benefiting communities based upon their population and contribution already made to the present interceptor sewer.

Specifically, the city share is $173,995.48. The township share is $162,974.41.

These totals are some $50,000 higher than original estimates. But county officials explain that the old plan would have incorporated partial revenue financing from the system, thereby raising sewer rates. This way, the actual cost is the same because sewer rates will not be increased.

If this explanation has been interpreted correctly, it's of little satisfaction to township residents, who would not be affected by sewer charges — at least until they get sewers.

At any rate, under the county proposal the program would be financed over 40 years with no payment the first year. The next four years the township would be expected to make interest payments totaling $10,250 annually and the city $10,530.

Beginning the sixth year the payments would total $12,000 annually including interest and principal.

Naturally, the county is pressing hard to have the plan accepted. All new subdivision building is at a standstill in Wayne county until it is approved.

It's pretty much of a foregone conclusion that the city will come up with a means of financing — probably through a fee for new sewer tap-ins — to go along with the project. Sewer capacity is, of course, imperative to complete city development.

The plan is a hot issue in the township, however. And I would suspect that the township board has little to do but to bring the matter down to the council, if the reaction of the citizens at the public hearing on the matter is to be considered.

With 100 residents jammed into the township hall, only a half-dozen raised their hands in favor of the county plan.

So what are the consequences?

DWP Administrator George R. Bingham described the plan as a "now or never deal" this week. Profoundly hopeful that the county will go along with the project, Bingham nevertheless stated that there would be no pressure to force the assessment.

"If Northville township is determined to remain as it is, it's alright with the county," he said. Apparently, then, this removes the threat of county enforcement of the plan. Township officials had informed residents that this was a possibility.

The majority of the residents at the public hearing on the sewer proposal expressed these views:

— for several years payments for sewers (approximately $2 to $5 annually per household) have been made without benefit of sewer service;

— until lateral sewers are installed within the township few residents can benefit from the interceptor;

— septic fields already installed are satisfactory;

— the $30 taps allocated under the present interceptor are enough for the township;

— taxes are already too high.

The new sewer plan would give the township the right to have 2,100 taps on the Middle Rouge interceptor system.

County officials and some residents (apparently a minority) believe it would not be good business for the township to pass up this allocation.

They argue that this would stifle subdivision development in the township and possibly tempt land owners, eager to sell parcels for development, to seek annexation to bordering municipalities with sewer allocation to spare.

Bingham points out that the county plan is designed to make the program as painless as possible. He believes that there is already pressure for development in the township and that both water and sewers will be available to satisfy this development within five years — when the principle payments are due.

Presumably, Bingham believes that tapping fees applied to this new development could help offset the cost to a great extent.

As the proposition now stands, however, it's unlikely that the township will have a change of heart.

It's difficult to predict what influence this decision will have on the future of the township. Some local officials believe that when the time comes that sewers are needed they will be available despite the county's "now or never" ultimatum.

I would hope they have not guessed wrong in their appraisal. While the position of the people is completely understandable, I cannot help but consider the many areas crying for sewer facilities — ready to pay almost any price — and wonder if this could happen in Northville.

Michigan Mirror Traffic Deaths Up

THERE WILL PROBABLY BE more people killed on Michigan highways in 1950 than there were in 1949, State Police reports. Provisional figures for the first nine months of the year indicate 3 percent to 5 percent more fatalities will have been recorded by the end of this year than occurred last year. Reasons for the increase are hard to find.

Speaking to some 100 fire marshals and inspectors at the conference, Luck said homeowners should be urged to have their houses inspected for fire hazards. Get all people out of the house; close all the doors and windows; get out of the house and stay out, and stand by to give necessary information to the firemen. This information could include layout of the house, whether there is an oil tank or similar item in the house, and where to find power cut-offs for electricity and gas.

But deaths which occurred through the end of September numbered 1,073. The figure was expected to go even higher with reports of delayed fatalities. It was already 3 percent higher than last year. With forty total fatalities in the area will go along with the project, Bingham nevertheless stated that there would be no pressure to force the assessment.

VACATION TRAVEL in Michigan — if it gets a boost from fall travelers — could reach the volume attained last year. The Michigan Tourist Council said inquiries through August were about 10 percent below the same period in 1949. Inquiries during September ran about the same as in September, 1949, however, indicating interest in Autumn travel is still high.

Robert J. Furlong, the Council's executive director, said "from all indications" the summer tourist season was slightly below last year.

He said an upswing in travel during July and August plus high expectations for fall and winter travel offset some of the early season lag, which he attributed to cool weather. Favorable autumn weather could bring the dollar volume of the tourist business near the $600 million spent last year, Furlong said.

PEOPLE WHO LIVE in glass houses don't have to worry about fires.

William J. Luck, of Coldwater, was general chairman of the Fire Inspectors 11th annual conference at Michigan State university recently. He told the story about a housewife who called the fire department and screamed into the telephone: "My back room is on fire!" "Where is it?" asked the dispatcher at the fire department. "Behind the kitchen," the woman said, and hung up. Luck said the episode actually happened in Michigan, and similar occurrences are not rare in this and other states.

Luck used the story to point out the necessity for directing firemen

Barcelona, Spain — By the news from America, I judge that the United Nations has been the chief topic of discussion. Among those who have traveled about this world most of the ideas of this world organization are probably better to have been put into a book than to have been discussed in the United Nations, but we must hold Formosa at all costs.

From my experiences traveling about the world, it seems as if the United Nations should work for the good of the international languages, such as "Esperanto". This, however, is in the far-distant future and may require World War III to bring about.

An international currency could be instituted at any time. Such a currency would greatly help foreign trade and benefit every country. This United Nations money would have to be based upon a gold standard, but each nation could continue to have its own rate of exchange based upon its financial stability. Rate of exchange would be determined by the demand for and the supply of each nation's own currency. This means that it would take more French francs to buy this United Nations money than it would take German marks or English pounds.

Such a situation could work toward world equalization of social and economic conditions. Without any international legislation by treaty, or otherwise, this could gradually result in more universal welfare legislation, wage standards and various other changes which must come about before world peace is attained.

For instance, Russia, Germany, China and the United States could continue to compete; but "high" with economic weapons rather than with military weapons. Either this will happen or else World War III will result in a one-world dictator who will force such equalizations. I wish the United Nations would start a study of such an international currency.

In conclusion, I must remind readers that even the missile will not be the last development in military weapons. The next step is an accurate anti-missile which can defend a nation against accurate missile attack. The fact that this has not yet been invented may deter any nation from starting a conflict. Their missiles may be used containing concentrated poison gas or destructive biological bacteria instead of nuclear bombs.

The gossip which I hear over here is that the scientists are working on a ray with an invisible source which could be used to "read or black out" the minds of world leaders. This machine would be undetectable by police or other detectors and the source of it could not be found before or after using. In fact, I am told that these killing mental rays would pass through walls of buildings as do radio or TV waves today.

Pleads Guilty To Car Theft

In Novi justice court this week, Robert Noland, 1605 E. Lake drive, pleaded guilty of unlawfully driving away an automobile and was sentenced to circuit court for sentencing. He was jailed after failing to post a $1,000 bond.

Novi police arrested Noland last night after Mrs. Linda Bentley, 2308 East Lake drive, reported her car stolen Saturday from a parking lot near the amusement park.

Three transient apple pickers discovered the badly mutilated sign after going to the barn to investigate a commotion. At her husband's approach, she said, two strange men, one black and white and the other part scotch, ran from the barn. Later, she said, she shot at one of them.

Her husband had tied the pony to a manger inside the barn, shortly before the family left the farm on business Monday, she said. They discovered the dead pony after returning. His hind-quarters were partly eaten away.

A donkey, also owned by the Chisholms, was in another barn and was not harmed.

Police Chief Lee BeGole said the attack was the first he has heard of since dogs attacked and killed more than two dozen chickens and turkeys near Novi and 10 mile roads last year.

Dogs Attack, Kill Pony, Pigs On Novi Farm

An eight-month-old pony — the per of two young Novi children — was attacked and killed this week by a "pack" of vicious dogs. The animal was found dead and partly eaten Monday, less than 24 hours after two pigs were destroyed, on the farm of Mrs. and Mrs. John W. Chisholm, 29470 Meadbrook road (corner of 13 Mile road).

According to Mrs. Chisholm, who kept her children inside the house Tuesday for fear that they might be attacked, a "pack of wild dogs" invaded the barn Monday while the family was away and killed the pony which was tied up inside.

Just a day before, she said, two pigs were attacked and so "terribly mutilated" that they had to be destroyed.

The pony, a shetland worth approximately $120, was the pet of her children, Cindy, 4, and Steven, 2. "But no amount of money could replace him," she said. "The children loved him. His name was 'Stuntie'."

Although the county animal welfare director, Dr. Frank H. Bates, stated that the animals were probably killed by one or both of the Chisholms' dogs, Mrs. Chisholm declared she was certain it was not done by her dogs but by a pack of dogs seen in the vicinity during the past several weeks.

Dr. Bates reported after his investigation that he found blood on the Chisholms dogs. However, Mrs. Chisholm contended that her dogs probably had contact with the blood after the pony was killed. The Chisholms own two large dogs.

"Our dogs knew the pony," she said, "and I'm sure they wouldn't do it. If we thought they would, we'd destroy them."

"It's those other dogs," she insisted. "At night they come over by that swamp after something. They're all around here."

Mrs. Chisholm said her husband discovered the badly mutilated sign after going to the barn to investigate a commotion. At her husband's approach, she said, two strange men, one black and white and the other part scotch, ran from the barn. Later, she said, she shot at one of them.

Her husband had tied the pony to a manger inside the barn, shortly before the family left the farm on business Monday, she said. They discovered the dead pony after returning. His hind-quarters were partly eaten away.

A donkey, also owned by the Chisholms, was in another barn and was not harmed.

Police Chief Lee BeGole said the attack was the first he has heard of since dogs attacked and killed more than two dozen chickens and turkeys near Novi and 10 mile roads last year.

Wixom To Clean Up

A special fall rubbish-trash pickup will be conducted in Wixom on October city officials announced this week.

City residents must have their trash and rubbish in place at the same time as during regular weekly rubbish pickup.

In addition to the ordinary rubbish, such as the cans, all kinds of trash also will be picked up. This includes old furniture, wood, bricks and weeds.

Proclaims UN Day

Wixom Mayor Donald Brooks this week proclaimed October 24 as United Nations Day in his community.

Brooks said that the United Nations is the only organization in the world which has been formed to accomplish peace on earth and joy to all nations.

Nimrods Barred from 13 Areas New Ordinance Limits Hunting

The hunt for old Cock pheasant started today, but if the clever Ringneck is as witty as most hunters profess, he'll be hiding in some 13 newly "protected" Novi subdivisions.

Spurred to action by reports of dangerous hunting tactics in past seasons, the village council Monday night passed an emergency ordinance prohibiting hunting in the following subdivisions:

Willowbrook Estates, Willowbrook Estates 2, Willowbrook Estates 3, Conemaugh Hills, Conemaugh Hills 1, Echo Valley Estates, Orchard Hills, Novi Heights, Novi Heights 2 and 3, Summit Hills and Grey's subdivision.

The ordinance which becomes effective today outlaws hunting of all animals within the boundaries of these subdivisions.

It also provides that no hunting will be permitted within 300 feet of any subdivision. The ordinance also provides that no hunting signs are posted by the owner or lessee of the property.

Persons violating the ordinance are subject to a maximum fine of $100 or a jail sentence of 90 days or both.

Council members decided to adopt the ordinance upon the recommendation earlier this month of Police Chief Lee BeGole, who explained that it was becoming far too dangerous for our citizens to permit hunting in heavily populated areas of Novi.

Interest in Mrs. Chambers' loan and the "change from the loan" is not due until next year.

According to the mayor, the ordinance favored the addition to original plans because (1) more roads needed to accommodate department of public works offices and storage and (2) the cost per square foot of the addition was only about half of the cost of the basic building.

This addition, Brooks said, is approximately 34x18 feet in diameter. It adjoins and is part of the concrete abutment which was located on the property when the city purchased the site. Part of it will be used for a conference room, part for a DPW office, and part for storage of DPW equipment.

The remainder of the building (100x30) includes fire garage, fire office, firemen's quarters and offices for the fire chief, treasurer and mayor. The council chambers will be used by the city judge as a court room.

Monies for the $17,000 addition will be provided from the current budget in this manner: $5,000 will be "borrowed" from the road paving fund, and a total of $12,000 will be transferred from the fire department, industrial development, contingency reserve, legal reserve and road committal fund locations to the civic development fund.

The general contractor has agreed to forego payment of $5,000 of the total construction cost until October 1, 1951. In essence, the contractor is loaning this money (at 5 percent interest) to the city.

It will be recalled that the city council members of the council decided to meet with the planners after Mayor Donald Brooks said that "too many rumors" are being passed around that he is possibly "going over" the planners' heads in connection with the new city hall.

"Maybe by meeting" the mayor said, "we can get rid of our differences... Let's see if we can't get the planners back on our side."

Elwood Grubb, one of the planning commission members present at Thursday's meeting, told the council in his opinion the problem "is in the area of communications." He indicated that the planners have not been receiving adequate communications from the council in connection with planning.

One of the matters likely to be discussed is a proposed (smaller park) zoning amendment. The planning board has indicated it would like to establish such an area so as to insure proper location of a site for a trailer park.

Grubb took the point of view that anyone could legally establish a trailer park in the city of Wixom because no area has been set aside for one.

City Attorney David Uhly, on the other hand, said "I'm not so sure we do — and until I'm sure I don't want to move."

Return Farm To Township

Circuit Court Judge Stanton G. Dandero handed down the decision in connection with 87 acres of farmland owned by Bert Wolfermans. He indicated that the parcel on 14 Mile road between East Lake drive and Hagarty.

Although the village contested attempts to disconnect the property, the parcel was not used for agricultural purposes and was in the soil bank. Judge Dandero ruled that soil bank property is only a temporary utility without future agricultural use.

Other village properties which have been disconnected and returned to township status are 4 acres owned by Mrs. Clarence Welfare, 106 acres owned by John J. Biele, men, who will specialize in investigations, surveillance and military guards, had work experience in detective and police work.

2 Novi Men Form Detective Agency

The agency will be operated from the home of one of the business partners, Donald Woodward, 149 Northville. The other partner is Harry Ramsay, 1221 West Lake drive.

Both men, who will specialize in investigations, surveillance and military guards, had work experience in detective and police work.

He emphasized the need for a closer family relationship by pointing out that only 32 Jewish men are employed in the township compared to hundreds of men of other nationalities. The reason for this low figure, he concluded, is because Jewish families are generally "closet knits."

The warden and Police Chief Lee BeGole were introduced to the members by the chairman of the club, Mrs. Fred Lyons.

Pelto-Mai Vows Spoken in Detroit

Karen Louise Pelto, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Pelto of Northville, and Robert Walter Mal, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mal of Detroit, were married in September at the Salem Lutheran church in Detroit. Officiating at the afternoon ceremony was Dr. F. J. Pines. The bride chose a full skirted tulle gown with chantilly lace bodice for her wedding. Delicate floral patterns accented the skirt which was gathered at the waist of the front and by a taffeta bow and in the back by a cluster of four taffeta roses. Sequins outlined the gown's scalloped neckline. The bride's fitted, lustrous veil was held in place by a crown fashioned with chantilly lace and sequins. A cascade arrangement of white roses with stephanotis and an orchid in the center formed the bridal bouquet. The bride was escorted to the foot of the altar by her father. Irmgard Mal of Detroit, the groom's sister, was the maid of honor with LaDea Schull of Port Wayne, Indiana and Marlene Brader of Detroit serving as bridesmaids. All three attendants wore identical lavender lace over taffeta dresses. Each dress was styled with a scalloped hemline, a pleated back panel sweeping from a small taffeta bow and a round neckline. The maid of honor carried a basket of white carnations and roses while the bridesmaids carried baskets of white and miniature lavender carnations. Suzie Rule and Laura Ann Little were flower girls. They wore white nylon dresses with lavender embroided designs and carried smaller baskets of lavender and white carnations. Serving the groom as best man was Gerald Alward of Mt. Clemens. The groom's brother, Richard Mal, and Alwyn Dopp of Mt. Clemens were ushers. "The Lord's Prayer" and "Perfect Love" were sung by soloists Rudolph Kippen. For her daughter's wedding, the groom's mother was attired in a lavender, blue lace sheath. The groom's mother wore a beige silk sheath. Both wore orchid corsages. A reception for 200 guests was held in the church parties immediately following the ceremony. A buffet supper was served to 100 guests later at the bride's home. To begin the wedding trip, which took the couple to Niagara Falls, Canada and Buffalo, New York, the bride chose an olive green jacket sheath, black patent leather accessories and a white feather hat. The couple will live in Valparaiso, Indiana where the groom is a senior at Valparaiso university. The bride was graduated from Valparaiso last May.

NEWCOMER'S CORNER

BEAUTIFUL — The Steve Horvath and their daughter, Mary Ann, 14, are more than pleased with the colorful scenery surrounding their new home at 12823 Marilyn. The Horvaths formerly lived in Oak Lawn, Illinois, a suburb of Chicago.

Michigan acquired three more housing and fishing enthusiasts in August. Steve, Dorothy and Mary Ann Horvath didn't exactly come to the state looking for a place to launch their boat and drop a fishing line but now that they're here they plan to test some of the tourist claims made by the water-wanderer. The Horvaths moved from Oak Lawn, a Chicago suburb, in the middle of August when the head of the household (Steve J.) was transferred by Ford to the company's transmission plant in Livonia. He's been a supervisor in maintenance for the auto firm about 12 years. Steve and Dorothy Horvath and their 14-year-old daughter, Mary Ann, live at 12823 Marilyn.

How do the new surroundings in Northville compare to the old? "Particularly like Northville," relates Mrs. Horvath, "because it's so much like Oak Lawn. And what we've seen of the state has been very beautiful," she continued, "especially the lovely fall colors of the maple trees." Mary Ann, a junior high student, has been looking for a girl scout troop in Northville. She's just three badges short of a first class rating in the scouts.

Cadillac

The unmistakable stamp of Greatness!

In commerce, as in art, it is rare indeed that a creation emerges so inspired in concept and so flawless in execution that it is destined, at the outset, for certain greatness. And yet, it seems not too soon to say that the Cadillac car of 1961 will take its place among the most memorable achievements of the automotive craft. Its clean, classic form introduces a new look for the world's motor cars to emulate. There's a new proportion of glass to steel... a new "oneness" of contour and shape... a new relationship of interior to silhouette. Inside, the story is equally remarkable. Here is new roominess in every dimension. Head room, seat height, and entrance room, for example, have been notably increased with impressive results in greater comfort and luxury for driver and passengers. And as its beauty is... so its performance does—incredibly nimble and quick... smooth and floating... quiet and obedient. Cadillac's new engine is the very essence of controlled power... steering is feather light and sure... and Cadillac's new ride seems to make the roadway literally vanish beneath the wheels. This is one car you must see and drive for yourself. The facts are simply too numerous and too exciting to accept second hand. It's the 1961 Cadillac—and we know that you'll agree that true greatness is written all over it.

KEYS NO. 3, 4, 5, 6

We continue with our keys to understanding the Bible with Key No. 3. One must always consider the context of a verse in order to properly understand it. Read what comes afterwards. It is as improper to take a verse out of context as it is to quote only a sentence from a conversation without reference to the context. Key No. 4 - Never isolate a subject from the rest of the teachings of the scripture. Look up a number of verses which deal with the particular subject under consideration and you will find that the truth runs as a straight line through all the verses. Key No. 5 - Never base a doctrine upon an obscure text. There are a number of verses that are clear to assist in the understanding of the hard passages. "In the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established". No. 6 - Never force a passage of scripture by reading into it things that are not there. For example, Acts 16:24 are often used as proof texts for infant baptism. We may well suppose "that there were infants" is for reading into the text things not there. Note what each passage says.

NEWCOMERS TO LUNCH, VIEW FALL FASHIONS

Newcomers club women will view a fall fashion show while luncheon at Thunderbird Inn next Wednesday. The monthly luncheon begins at 1:30 p.m. with fashions going on parade at 2 p.m. and continuing through the meal.

Newcomers and guests planning to attend should phone Mrs. William Stein (FI-9187) by Monday, October 22.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Thorpe and their children, Don and Marcia, spent a long week up at Lake Charlevoix with Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Crane. On Saturday they rode on the "Swan Express" from Eastford to Chestonia. The old fashioned train trip included an equally old fashioned "train robbery," which was a thrill for the children. Mr. Thorpe and Don also got in a little partridge and duck hunting.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bamford of Meadowbrook road spent last week end in Chicago as the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Michael Baran.

Colts Top Milford With Ease, 38-20

With his team leading by a comfortable margin by the end of the first stanza, Northville Coach Al Callahan began emptying the bench. Close to 30 players saw action before the game ended.

The victory was the second this season for the Colts who edged Plymouth 7-0 in the opener, lost 7-6 to Holly and then battled to a scoreless tie with Bloomfield Hills two weeks ago.

Actually, last week's victory would have been even more impressive but for three penalties which nullified Northville touchdowns. Two of these "useless" touchdowns came on runs of more than 60 yards.

Northville's two halfbacks, Ron Rice and Jim Higgins, shared the Col's scoring honors — although Tackle Dave Jerome exhibited some backfield qualities in opening a Milford pass early in the game.

Wixom Hawkeyes To Meet Tonight

The first orientation meeting of the Wixom Gun Club since the election of officers will be held tonight at 7 p.m. in the Wixom city hall.

Highlighting tonight's meeting will be plans for a special safe-hunting training program, under the direction of the Michigan Department of Conservation.

This program will include the following classes: (1) Introduction, registration, and reasons for hunting regulations; (2) firearms and ammunition; (3) handling of firearms, bows and arrows; and (4) behavior afield, planning the hunt, and summary and written review.

Sponsored by the Wixom police department, the 55-member club voted recently to call themselves the "Wixom Hawk Eyes". Officers elected were:

Dave Taylor, 15, of 1891 Charms road, president; Dave Chesman, 44, of 511 North Wixom road, vice president; Claude Malley, 14, of 3801 Summit court, secretary; Pat Moore, 13, of 1000 North Wixom road, treasurer; and Gary LaBola, 17, of 5723 Grand River, sergeant at arms.

Club membership is open to all area boys and girls between the ages of 11 and 18. Meetings will be held the first and third Thursdays of each month.

Actual gun range practice will not begin until sometime next spring, according to Lt. D'Arcy Young of the police department. At that time members probably will use either the gun range at Novi or the range at the park north of Wixom.

Some rifles will be furnished.

10-THE NORTHVILLE RECORD Thursday, October 20, 1960

West Bloomfield Wins 20-0 Friday, Nears W-O Title

Playing its finest game of the season before a capacity-plus homecoming crowd, Northville completely dominated the soggy gridiron at Ford Field Friday night.

For West Bloomfield, the victory was a double portion of good medicine: it meant a championship and it healed the wounds of the '58 and '59 grid losses to Northville.

And for Northville, the loss was especially bitter because it meant the end of a four-year reign as champions of the W-O league and it meant that one of its bitterest rivals will wear the 1960 crown even though Northville was the stronger of the two teams.

Just as there is no question as to who claimed the victory, there also is no question as to which team dominated the game. Look at the record:

Northville picked up 15 first downs, while West Bloomfield settled for four. Northville piled up 168 yards rushing, while West Bloomfield, on the other hand, gained 130 yards on the ground and only 31 yards in the air.

Still more evidence: excluding its touchdowns, the Lakers never penetrated beyond Northville's 37-yard line. The Mustangs, on the other hand, marched into the West Bloomfield camp five times, once to the forward line and once to the one-foot line.

If there was a key to West Bloomfield's victory Friday, it was neatly demonstrated three minutes after the opening whistle of the game.

After fumbling the kickoff, the Mustangs covered the ball and proceeded to march to the mid-field stripe. Then, with seven yards to go for a first-down, Halback's Blotz trotted anchored himself for a fourth-down punt.

STOPPED SHORT — Halback Dave Jerome (23) finds himself crashing to the ground under a West Bloomfield tackle in an attempt to skirt the end. The Lakers won the game 20-0.

In Cross Country Jerome Hits Racing Stride

With the conclusion of a full week of cross-country competition Friday, Northville Coach Chuck Yaine had plenty of reasons for wearing a smile.

In only its second season of competition, the Northville squad has risen to become a formidable threat for its far more experienced opponents. To date this season, the Mustangs claim three victories, a second-place triangular finish, and a fourth-place W-O league place.

Last week Monday, Northville met West Bloomfield 25-24, for the second time this season, finished fourth Wednesday in the W-O meet at Kensington park, and wallowed at Riverside high school Friday 29-1.

And there's little doubt that the Mustang's number one runner, Phil Jerome, is one of the top speedsters in the league if not in the entire metropolitan area. Jerome sped to a first place finish in the triangular match, first in both West Bloomfield matches, first against Clarenceville (which snipped Northville two weeks ago 27-20), first against Riverside and second in a field of 35 runners at the W-O match last week.

In the W-O meet, Northville's Ivan (Chips) Ely finished fifth. The Mustangs had little difficulty dumping the Lakers in their return match (Northville won the first match 25-20). Jerome finished first; Ely, second; Mike Adas, fifth; Dave Filkin, sixth; Mike Daleo, ninth; and Darryl Hopper, 10th.

Bulldogs Eye 2nd W-O Win

Redskin eleven that upset Northville, 12-7, and then last week lost to Clariston on the last play of the game.

In last week's contest, the Bulldogs took a six-point lead in the third stanza on a 30-yard TD gallop by Randy Marx and up until the closing seconds of the game appeared headed for victory. But Clariston's Bill White pulled in a 29-yard pass from Harold Weston to tie the game and Jim Gunther kicked the winning point.

A blood-pied and a recovery by Northville in the opening minutes of play set the stage for the Mustangs' first win over Northville.

Northville's junior high eleven, which trimmed both Novi and Dublin earlier this season, ran up against a powerful Bulldogs team last week and came out on the short end of a 34-0 score.

Northville's junior high eleven, which trimmed both Novi and Dublin earlier this season, ran up against a powerful Bulldogs team last week and came out on the short end of a 34-0 score.

M. Hlohinec, Jim Lyon Win Contest

Mike Hlohinec, 11-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hlohinec, of 529 Randolph, is one of the happiest sixth graders at the Main street school this week.

He won the weekly football contest and $10 for his entry which correctly predicted the outcome of 13 of the 16 games.

But it wasn't easy. Mike was tied with three other contestants, also with three misses. But he edged out Jim Lyon of 27141 Novi road for top honors by coming closest to picking the score of the Lions-Eagles game.

Jim, 15, is a 10th grader at Northville high school. His second place finish is worth $5. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Lyon.

Two others who also missed three games, but slipped on predicting the halftime parade, those two representatives of the senior class came up with a colorful umbrella to protect their lovely ladies and gowns. They are Linda McKinney (left) and Yvonne Schlegel.

Dublin Gridders Edge Novi, 12-6

In what was probably their most impressive game this season, the Novi junior high school gridders led 12-0 to a much stronger Dublin eleven last Thursday afternoon.

"The boys did a real good job," Coach Gail Perkins explained later. "But Dublin had some heavy left legs and our boys were a little reluctant to tackle them."

Dublin grabbed a six-point lead in the second quarter, then added a clinching TD in the fourth quarter. Late in the final stanza, however, Halback Mark Ross raced 30 yards for what would have been a touch-down — but a holding penalty nullified the TD.

Two plays later, however, Ross pushed over a "good" touchdown from 14 yards out.

Ross and Defensive Center Bill Hanson were by far the most outstanding Novi players in the game, Coach Perkins said.

Novi will host Emmanuel Christman of Pontiac this afternoon in a grid contest scheduled to get underway at 4 p.m.

 The practical significance for today of Christ Jesus' victory over death will be brought out at Christian Science churches Sunday in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Profound After Death".
 Scriptural readings will include the following: "Now when Jesus was in the land early the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, out of whom he had cast seven devils." Afterward he appeared unto the eleven as they sat at meat, and upbraided them with their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they believed not them which had seen him after he was risen" (Mark 16:9, 10).
 From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy this will be read (46:28-31): "Jesus' unchanging physical condition after what seemed to be death was followed by his exaltation above all material, and revealed unmistakably a probationary and progressive state beyond the grave."

Fire Fighting Skills Displayed

9 Departments Take Part In Local Show

Roaring sirens aroused Northville citizens last Wednesday evening (October 12) as fire departments from nine area departments drove through town and participated in a special Fire Prevention Week demonstration.

The commotion attracted a good crowd and the curious remained to see the show.

Fire fighting trucks, pumps and rescue equipment were on display. On hand to explain their function were representatives of Novi, Northville, Plymouth Township and the city of Plymouth, Superior Township, Canton, Detroit House of Correction, South Lyon, Salen and the Wayne County Training School.

One of the highlights of the program, co-sponsored by Northville's Chief William McCree and Novi's Chief Fred Lynnes, was the old-fashioned hose battle.

Four men teams from each department competed to see which could move a barrel along a wire with the force of a fire hose and spray.

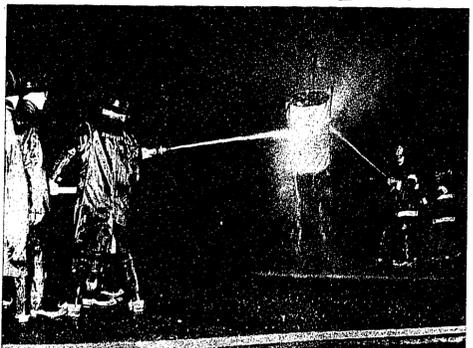

Plymouth was the winning team, defeating Plymouth Township in the finals. Northville lost in the semi-finals to Plymouth, while Novi was a first-round loser to Plymouth.

In other activities the use of resuscitation equipment was explained with firemen demonstrating its use.

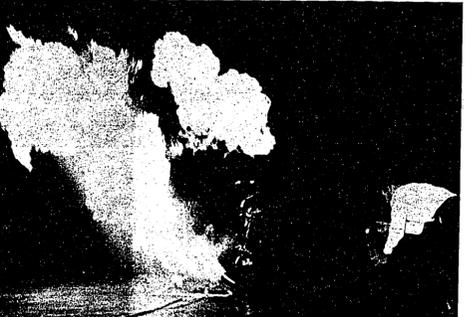

Another, more spectacular demonstration, was the extinguishing of gas fires with carbon dioxide and dry chemical.

The demonstration, designed to remind residents of the danger of fire and display the proper means of combating it, was considered a success.

"We didn't know quite what to expect," Chief McCree pointed out. "But next year I think we can have a better program and attract a larger crowd. Those who attended seemed to like what they saw," the chief added.

SLAT—The Northville (left) and Plymouth teams are shown aiming their hoses directly at the putty-bung barrel each trying to force the target toward the other team. Plymouth won the competition and was awarded the trophy—the barrel. Northville had won the competition last year in Plymouth.

USE of carbon dioxide bottles in extinguishing fire was demonstrated at the conclusion of the program. The fireman is crouching with the carbon dioxide bottle, while standing by is another helper with a dry chemical, which proved extremely fast acting in dousing the flame.

SPEAKING for the Record

By Bill Slinger

If registrations are any criteria (and they certainly must be), then area residents will be voting in record numbers come November 8.

A presidential ballot is always cluttered with long rosters of candidates and proposals. This year, for example, there will be candidates for state and national offices from five parties in addition to the two major political parties.

The heavy vote is certain to require poll officials to urge voters not to tarry behind the curtain.

Therefore it seems worthwhile to refresh our memories on the three proposed constitutional amendments that will appear on the ballot.

Proposal No. 1:

This is an amendment to the constitution which will continue a method of financing school buildings that was adopted by the people of Michigan in 1955. Because the amendment of 1955 was considered to be an experiment in financing, a time limit of July 1, 1962, was placed on it with the thought in mind that, if it proved successful, it could be continued by submitting another amendment to the voters. Although the 1955 amendment does not expire until July 1, 1962, it is necessary to adopt a new amendment before 1962, in order to continue the present method of financing without interruption.

The plan was adopted to make it possible for hard-pressed school districts with limited tax resources to pay for schools over a 25-year period. It places the faith and credit of the state behind school building bonds with the thought that the school districts benefit from lower interest rates.

The new proposal will boost the time limit for school construction bonds from 25 to 30 years. It also removes the requirement that a school district must levy a tax rate of at least .013 per $1,000 assessed property to prove itself in need of a state behind school bond issue. The legislature has the power to lower the 13-mill minimum if it wishes.

Specifically, the measure has permitted school districts to finance school buildings by issuing bonds that are payable over a long period of time from taxes not limited to the 15-mill amendment. Prior to 1955, school district financing school buildings through the sale of bonds was restricted to a period of 15 years.

The Northville school district, for example, sold its $3 million bond issue five years ago under this plan. It is required to levy up to 13 mills before the state would take over the payments—but the local debt-service millage is now around 7 mills.

In other words, school districts have the state to fall back on if a 13-mill levy won't meet their building debts. Like Northville, about 500 state school districts have financed buildings under this plan. Only 13 have had to actually borrow from the state.

The Northville school board officially went on record at a recent meeting as favoring a "yes" vote on this proposal. Superintendent Russell American has stated that the district would not have a new high school without the state guaranteed plan.

Proposal No. 2:

This takes very little comment. Each voter must decide whether or not he favors the question.

Shall the Michigan constitution be amended to increase the limitation on the maximum sales tax rate from 3 percent to 4 percent?

Proposal No. 3:

This proposal is designed to make several changes in the procedure for calling and conducting a Con-Con (Constitutional Convention).

A primary feature of the proposal is a change in regard to the composition of any future Con-Con. Instead of three delegates from each of the 54 Senatorial Districts, as presently prescribed by the State Constitution (making a total of 102 delegates), there would be one delegate from each State Senatorial District and one from each State Representative District (making a total of 144).

Another important change would reduce the vote required to call a Con-Con from a majority of those participating in an election to a majority of those voting on this particular issue.

A third change embodied in the proposal would change the timetable for choosing delegates to holding a convention. The proposal would require that the delegates be nominated and elected within four months following a vote to hold a Con-Con. Consequently, if the proposal is adopted this November, the question of holding a Con-Con on the new basis would be placed on the April 1961 ballot. So if the Con-Con were voted on favorably next April, Michigan would hold its Con-Con in a fall of 1961.

Following the holding of a Constitutional Convention, the actions and recommendations of a convention must be submitted to the populace for adoption.

The holding of a Con-Con was voted on in 1958. At that time 62 percent of those voting in the election voted on the Con-Con. The vote fell 15 percent short of the necessary percentage needed to call a Constitutional Convention under the Constitution as presently in force.

Newspaper Week

SPECIAL WEEKS are a dime a dozen so it comes as no surprise that Michigan newspapers are being very hard during National Newspaper Week, which started this year October 15. And newspaper people would be surprised to see much new evidence this week (or any other) of appreciation for the important part a newspaper plays in the community or for the increasingly difficult economic problems faced by those who work with newspapers.

Present provisions similar to the proposition up for approval are due to run out in 1962.

If enough voters say "yes" on election day, the state could stand behind the school districts in their borrowing for another 30 years. Some changes, most of them relatively minor, in the state's role in this phase of borrowing would also be made.

As the law and Constitution stand now, the state can borrow up to $100 million to help school districts in trouble make payments on bond issues, according to Harold R. Smith, director of the Department of Public Instruction.

This limitation would be removed under the proposed new setup, he said.

The Legislature, as under the present system, would have the power to prescribe the conditions of the loan made by the state, subject to constitutional limitations on the lawmakers.

Brown said the main purpose of the proposal on the ballot was to get the state guarantee the loan. But the school districts might get a slightly better interest rate from the fact that the state is behind the bond issues. Brown said most school people think present bond issues should have been able to get a better interest rate anyway.

The proposed law would also allow school districts to float bond issues for shorter periods than required under existing rules.

Only 25 to 30 year bonds can be guaranteed by the state under existing conditions, but bond issues to be paid off in 15 or 20 years or even shorter periods would be eligible for the state backing under the proposal on the ballot.

Higher Taxes: Small Cost of Freedom

En Route Home—The direct debt of our Federal Government today, for which government bonds or short-term bills are issued, is approximately $20 billion.

This means that when you buy a government bond as the best possible security, you should realize that many billions in these bonds have been issued. They are looked upon by banks, educational institutions, and other investors like yourself as the safest place in which to have one's money, but it is not generally realized how many sure bonds are outstanding. It is as you were buying shares of stock in a corporation and looked only at the price without giving any attention to the number of shares issued.

In addition to these bonds, the government has also guaranteed billions of dollars in other fiscal obligations. These are known as "contingent liabilities," such as the guaranteed home mortgages, loans to farmers, aid to colleges, hospitals, veterans, etc. Although the U.S. is the greatest country in the world, it is very generous and extravagant.

Furthermore, if we should go into depression the Federal Government would take on some liabilities of states, municipalities, farmers, etc. All of the money being spent on armaments is all spent on interest and other forms of expenses.

When I visited Cape Canaveral in Florida and saw one of the missiles explode (all of us were in an underground vault watching via television), I saw a million dollars evaporate in a few seconds.

This is not true of many military expenditures. The radar system which encircles this country to give us advance notice of enemy bombers is a good investment—as are also our nuclear submarines, airplanes, and highways, etc.

I recently visited Washington, D.C. and was astonished to find that our Federal Government is building the largest and best airfield in the world. It is primarily for jet planes, and has runways two to three miles in length. War or no war, this is surely a good investment.

This airfield is about 10 miles from Washington and the government is building a straight new highway from the airfield to the center of Washington. But this is not all. Some 12 miles south of the airfield is planned a most elaborate electronic control center on 20 acres of land.

This control center will look like an ordinary two-story office building in front, with walls of glass and stainless steel. Behind it will be a high building which will look like a mammoth safe-deposit box with cement walls 18' thick. There will be emergency living accommodations in the basement for the workers.

In addition to the cost of the land and the building, it is said that the electronic devices therein will run over $2 million.

No nuclear war, this is a direct hit from an atomic bomb. But while it is believed that a bomb from an

Nimrods Heed Subdivision Hunting Law

Record numbers of pheasants and hunters dodged and hunted each other in the opening week here — yet not one complaint was registered in those areas posted under the new village ordinance.

"We had more hunters than ever," Police Chief Lee BeGole said this week, "but no more complaints were made. But most important, we didn't have one complaint in those areas posted under the new village ordinance."

All subdivisions, the chief explained, failed to post their areas.

The ordinance outlawed hunting of all animals within the boundaries of these subdivisions. It provides that no hunting will be permitted within the boundaries of subdivisions unless when signs are posted by the owner or lessee of the property.

The village has purchased "no hunting" signs indicating the ordinance regulation, but subdivision associations or property owners are expected to reimburse the village.

Persons violating the ordinance are subject to a maximum fine of $100 or a jail sentence of 90 days or both.

According to BeGole, a total of 30 complaints were turned over to his department through Monday. Eleven of these complaints, most of which were for illegal hunting of pheasants, were recorded on the opening day of the hunting season. Since then, the number of complaints has rapidly decreased.

Complaints resulted in only two arrests, although three Wayne residents were handed stiff fines for "poaching" last week Wednesday.

One hit remained, however, that Attorney Emory Jacques described as something of a stumbling block. The state officials made it clear that the $68.25 can be used only for "property purchase," not park development or maintenance.

Jacques pointed out that it might be necessary to bring about a change in the amendment granting use of the money to Novi to permit its use for development, also.

Attending Tuesday's session with two representatives of the parks and recreation division of the state department of conservation were: Township Supervisor Fraser Staman, Clerk Hadley Bachert, Treasurer Ray Harrison, Village Councilman Dean Lenbetter and Phillip Anderson, Harold Achler, Emory Jacques, LeRoy Crites and State Representative S. James Clarkson.

Police are continuing their search for an unidentified man who eluded the threat of a Novi motorist near Nine Mile and Novi roads.

Jack E. Rice, 1418 East Lake Drive, told police he stopped his car on a traffic accident at the corner of Grand River and Novi roads. The driver of the car, Paul Thomas, 21 and Gary S. Lee, 21, also were ordered into court on charges of being disorderly persons.
