VACATION ENDS — The fun-packed hours of vacation came to a close this week as Novi schools reopened and students traded Christmas gifts for school books. Like hundreds of students, Sharon Marchetti, 12-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Marchetti, wasn't overly enthusiastic when school bells called them from their holiday activities. And golly, just think, the next vacation's not until Easter.

Annex Case Goes to Court

The state supreme court will hear arguments next week to determine whether or not 135 acres of annexed Novi village property will be permanently lost to the city of Northville.

According to Village Attorney Howard Bond, the court has scheduled the arguments for Wednesday. However, changes in the schedule could possibly move up the court session to Tuesday.

Wixom Hits Traffic Violators

Wixom police have launched a "crackdown" on traffic violators in the Lincoln plant area as a result of a record increase of property damage accidents.

According to Police Chief Frank Jadzinski, his department has started a "selected enforcement" of the area in which no-left-turn signs were recently installed.

The chief said the up-surge in accidents in this area is an indirect result of the addition of a second shift at the Lincoln plant. However, he added that the problem is caused by motorists ignoring the left-hand signs and exit and entrance signs to the plant parking lots.

Within the last five weeks, some 30 property damage accidents were reported in the area, a few of them serious. The crackdown has resulted in tickets for close to two dozen violators, Jadzinski stated.

"If the motorists obey the traffic signs, they have nothing to worry about. We just want to clean up the problem," the chief concluded.

Dr. Cohen Speaks Here Wednesday

An explanation of school testing systems by Dr. Leonard Cohen of the Oakland county board of education will highlight the regular meeting of the Novi school board Wednesday night.

Another matter likely to come before the local board at next week's meeting will be a library report by Mrs. Verna Allen, school librarian. She has been requested to give board members an idea of how many books the library needs and approximately how much they will cost.

At the last meeting, board members learned that the American Library association suggests that an adequate book need of an elementary school is 10 books per child, the minimum five books per child.

Novi elementary has approximately six books per child, Superintendent of Schools William Medlyn stated.

School board meetings in Novi are held the second Wednesday of each month in the Orchard Hills school library beginning at 8 p.m. The public is invited to attend them.

Threaten Closure Of Dump

The operator of the 10 Mile road dump, Gus McCreedy, was handed another deadline Monday by the Novi village council.

Council members decided to give McCreedy 10 days — or until its next regular meeting on January 16 — in which to fulfill the obligations he assumed when he was granted a license on December 5.

At the December meeting the council voted 4-1 to grant him a conditional license and to give him 60 days in which to bring his dump up to the standards of the village landfill ordinance.

The council stipulated, however, that he secure a $10,000 performance bond and execute license papers. The bond had not been secured by Monday, so technically the 60-day conditional license is not yet in effect.

Councilman Dean Lenheiser, who has been particularly displeased with McCreedy's dump operation and his negotiations with the village, brought the matter up Monday. (He cast the only dissenting vote on the license matter last month).

"I'm getting ready to make another motion to close him," the councilman warned before attacking his dump operation once again. "He probably will have an excuse this time that the ground's too hard, and in the spring it'll be too wet..."

In other business Monday, the council passed a resolution establishing the hours of the board of review's annual sessions. The sessions will be held between the hours of 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. on January 14 and between noon and 8 p.m. on January 21. Both sessions, which will be conducted in the council chambers, are for the purpose of reviewing the assessment roll of the village with individual property owners.

The council also authorized Village Coordinator Harold Ackley to attend the annual regional meeting of the Michigan Municipal League, and tentatively agreed to participate in the 1961 mayor exchange program.

Hearing Set Here Monday On Rezoning

A public hearing will be conducted here next week to determine whether or not property at the northwest corner of 10 Mile and Meadowbrook roads should be rezoned from an agricultural to a residential classification.

The property involves a proposed 100-acre subdivision to be called Meadowbrook Lake subdivision. It is being developed by the Suburban Development company of Detroit.

According to a representative of the firm, a total of 147 homes will be built on the subdivision lots, which average 100'x150' and cost up to $6,000 each with lake frontage.

The homes reportedly will be of the $20,000-plus category.

Work first started on the subdivision property three years ago. A control dam was constructed last year along with a 20-acre artificial lake, and construction of a model home is expected to begin yet this winter.

The lake itself will be part of the subdivision's recreational facility. It will be stocked with fish, and will be deep enough to accommodate swimmers.

The hearing is scheduled for 8 p.m. Monday in the council chambers.

Board of Commerce To Hear Talk Tonight

A talk entitled "What Makes America Great?" will highlight tonight's meeting of the Novi board of commerce. The talk by the Rev. George Nevin, pastor of Novi Methodist church, will begin at 8 p.m. following a membership dinner at the Novi community building.

EIGHT MILE RD. INFERNO—Firemen battled a $50,000 blaze at a South Lyon trailer court for five hours early Wednesday morning in near zero weather. The building, a remodeled barn, was used as a pumping station, laundry room and a recreation area at the trailer court located off 8 Mile road near Pontiac trail.

Mobile Home Center Hit by $50,000 Fire

Nine pieces of equipment from four fire departments battled a $50,000 fire at the Country Estate trailer court on Eight Mile road for five hours in near zero weather early Wednesday morning.

South Lyon, Lyon and Salem townships and Northville firemen answered the alarm at the barn used as a pumping station, laundry room and recreation area at the trailer park.

Owner Paul Clark said he noticed the fire about 1:30 a.m. when he made his nightly check in the laundry room located in the basement of the old barn.

He said he thought the fire started in the northeast corner of the building where an oil furnace is located. Cause of the fire has not yet been determined.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark estimated the building to be worth about $20,000. The contents they said were worth over $25,000.

Heat from the flames which quickly spread through the entire frame building was so intense that firemen first feared that a trailer near the barn would also be set ablaze. Aluminum siding on the trailer was warped by the heat but there was no other damage. Main concern of the Clark's and the trailer owner was the $15,000 pump located in the barn which supplies the park with water.

The new unit capable of handling about 1,000 gallons of water a day was installed about three years ago. Although the amount of damage to the pump was not immediately known, firemen suggested it could be repaired. In the meantime an auxiliary well and pump will be used to supply water to the park.

Because the pump was outside the building and placed underground it was believed the main damage would be to the wiring.

"My husband came into the office about 1:30 and said there was a bad fire in the barn," Mrs. Clark recalled, "and I just started calling fire departments."

"It seemed like hours before I heard their sirens, but actually it was only a matter of minutes before the South Lyon and Salem departments were here."

The Northville department was summoned when the other firemen arrived and saw the fire was already well out of control.

The seven-week old Northville tank truck was given major credit for bringing the rampaging blaze under control and reducing the danger of the fire spreading to other areas.

While making a run to refill its tanks in South Lyon the pump truck skidded on slippery pavement and was overturned, receiving slight damage. (See story on this page).

Four new washing machines which had been delivered to the park Tuesday were salvaged from the inferno by residents at the park. Three other machines and a large commercial dryer which were in use could not be removed. A resident from the park said he saw the flames apparently shortly after the fire started. By then, he said, the roof was already ablaze. After calling the fire department which was already on the way to the scene, he helped remove the washers from the basement of the building.

The Clark's theorized that the fire started in the northeast corner of the building on the main floor level. The basement floors and walls are made of cement, the main floor, however, is made of wood.

Working in the bitter cold (in about 10 degrees) the firemen sprayed water from four tankers and a well put in operation by Clark.

No casualties were reported in the battle. One South Lyon fireman, however, said he had left home without putting on stockings and thought his toes were frozen.

Northville Fire Truck Overturns

The seven-week old Northville township pumper truck, answering its fourth alarm, received slight damage while helping fight the fire at the Country Estate Trailer Park when it was overturned as firemen raced to South Lyon to refill its tanks.

Driving toward South Lyon on Pontiac trail, the truck overshot its turn into the subdivision south of town. Skidding on the ice-spotted highway, the truck missed the road, turned end-for-end and rolled over in the ditch on the west side of the road.

The rear wheels of the truck were bent, making it impossible to drive the truck. It was towed to Northville where it is now undergoing repairs.

Two firemen were riding with Chief William McGee at the time. They were Stanley Smith and Charles Buttermore. None were injured in the accident.

South Lyon Patrolman Grant Dale said the firemen were crawling out of the cab when he arrived at the scene.

The new pumper-type truck was given major credit for bringing the fire under control and preventing it from spreading to nearby trailers in the court.

The 1,000-gallon pumper was purchased by the township early in November at a cost of $16,000. See picture on Page 12

Only Trustee, JP Posts Up for Vote in Primary

In a surprising "last-minute" move, four political newcomers pitched their hats into the township election ring last week.

Clerk Hadley Bachert revealed shortly after the Friday deadline for filing petitions that seven incumbents, four newcomers, and one former township official had qualified themselves for either the February primary or the spring election.

Only one incumbent, Township Treasurer Ray Harrison declined to run for re-election. His decision not to run again came as a surprise to many of the township people who twice elected him to the post under the Republican banner.

Two political newcomers, Duane Bell, 43465 Fonda, and Mrs. Willard Sprenger, 111 Austin drive, will seek the Republican nod for Harrison's post in the February primary.

Other political newcomers are Emery Jacques, 40929 Malott drive, who will run against Incumbent Trustee Gordon Promo on the Republican ticket, and Harvey Milford, 26203 Novi road, an unopposed Democratic candidate for trustee.

Two other non-incumbent candidates, both of whom are not new to the Novi political scene, are former Justice of peace William MacDermald, 44650 Slassen, who will battle Incumbent JP Robert K. Anterson on the Republican ticket, and Herbert Koester, 42780 Eight Mile road, an unsuccessful candidate in several previous elections, who will be unopposed on the Democratic slate for the post of township supervisor.

Incumbent Supervisor Frazer Staman, a Republican, also is unopposed in his bid for a place on the spring election ballot. Staman is seeking his fifth consecutive term as supervisor.

Incumbent Clark Bachert, a Republican, is unopposed by both Republicans and Democrats. Barring a winning write-in candidate next spring, Bachert will win re-election to his third term. He was appointed clerk in 1956.

Other unopposed incumbents are the constables, Leon Dochot and Roger Curtis, and Kenneth Cook of the township board of review.

Although a total of 13 persons filed petitions before the Friday deadline, only six of them will be bidding for political nomination in the primary election. All six are Republicans. They are again: Bell and Mrs. Sprenger for treasurer; Promo and Jacques for trustee; and Anterson and MacDermald for justice of the peace.

Assured of a place on the spring election ballot, regardless of the primary outcome, are: Staman, Bachert, Dochot, Curtis and Cook, all Republicans, and Koester and Milford, Democrats.

Included on the primary ballot will be one proposition which asks the people: Shall the electors of Novi elect two additional trustees to the township board? (If the proposal is voted in by Novi, the additional board members will not be elected until 1963).

About the challenging candidates: Mrs. Sprenger is a housewife and mother of two children, 18 and 12. She once worked out of the Detroit tax office, and for the past four years has assisted the Novi township clerk with his duties here.

Bell is married and has four children. He is a member of the board of recreation for the community building, past commander of the Novi AMVETS, and a member of the Novi fire department.

Jacques is married and has four children. Secretary-treasurer of the Novi Citizens' Development committee, he is an attorney and is legal advisor to the Oakland county probate court.

MacDermald is married and has three children. He served four years as justice of the peace before running unsuccessfully as township clerk two years ago. He is past treasurer of the Novi school board and is a member of the Novi fire department.

Koester is married and has two children. He has been an unsuccessful candidate for justice of the peace three times, supervisor twice, village charter commission and Oakland county sheriff. Currently, he is a director of the Novi Citizens' Development committee.

Milford is married and has three children. A real estate broker by trade, Milford is a former science teacher at Denby high school. He holds a MA degree in education from the University of Michigan. Active in scouting, he is a former assistant scout commissioner in Detroit.

When the matter came before the council last year, Village Attorney Howard Bond explained that the village could not legally use treasury funds because the project was not specifically provided for in the budget and because there was no surplus in the general fund.

The only method available through the village, he indicated then, was through special assessments.

Village Eyes Lake Weed Problems

It may be winter, but the weeds under the Walled Lake ice aren't sleeping.

And neither are the citizens who last summer were plagued by a web of weeds which stretched from one side of the lake to the other. At the urging of one Walled Lake property owner this week, the village of Novi launched an investigation to determine what can be done to combat the weeds.

Donald Wiseman, a Southfield resident and a property owner along Walled Lake, requested the investigation and suggested that perhaps a weed control program could be started while ice is still on the water.

Wiseman's request prompted the council to establish a three-member committee of lake area residents to work with a similar committee of the city of Walled Lake in making an investigation.

Tentative appointments include Roy Crites, Edwin Branch and Mrs. Santo Gargalino. Councilwoman Eugenie Choquet will work with the committee, and Village Coordinator Harold Ackley was designated to request a similar committee in Walled Lake.

As envisioned by the village council, the two committees would investigate the problem jointly, come up with a recommendation, and then report back to their respective municipal officials. The two municipalities would then decide what course of joint action would be advisable.

Actually, the two most important questions to face either the committees or the municipal officials are: How will a weed program be financed and what guarantee of success does a weed program promise?

Although the council has taken no formal action on the matter, informally several of them have stated that it is not a village problem — but a problem of the lake area property owners.

Councilman Dean Lenheiser expressed it this way: "I'm sort of against appropriating village funds because many people in the village do not benefit from it. In fact, there are more that don't benefit than do."

On the other hand, Miss Choquet stated that a special assessment against lake-front property owners would not be entirely fair because the lake is used by many people not from the area.

She added that there are easements at the edge of all streets running into the lake which the public can and does use as swimming and boating beaches.

It also was suggested that the township should be asked to share the cost of a weed program since it operates a park and beach along the lake.

Last summer plans for a limited weed control program for Walled Lake were scrapped when efforts to raise the necessary money from lake area residents fell short of an $8,000 goal. The campaign was sponsored by the West Shore Community association.

Although association officials declined to state whether or not another campaign would be attempted in 1961, they hinted that an attempt probably would be made to get a special assessment proposition put on either a township or village election ballot.

When the matter came before the council last year, Village Attorney Howard Bond explained that the village could not legally use treasury funds because the project was not specifically provided for in the budget and because there was no surplus in the general fund.

The only method available through the village, he indicated then, was through special assessments.

GRASS IS GREENER — Moving into a home on a four-and-a-half-acre plot in Northville was the perfect cup of tea for outdoors-loving Rose and Roy Williams and their three youngsters, Ruth, 3, Mr. and Mrs. Williams (she's holding two-month-old Rita) and Roy Lee, Jr., 4, (l. to r.) live at 19233 Clement road.

Roy and Rose Williams' youngsters don't have to go very far for that pony ride all kids love so well. The family lives on a four-and-a-half acre plot completely outfitted with three "very bunnies" Sheldahl ponies.

It's a hobby with the Williamses, raising and training Sheldahls. Marie, Lucky and Lady, the Williams three Sheldahls, have kind of a "sixth sense" when it comes to kids, says Mrs. Williams.

"The kids can have a big time with them, go out in the field and play with them and the ponies won't hurt them a bit," said Rose Williams.

Now if it was a grown-up doing the same things, she added, the Sheldahls might feel they were being abused; they're more patient and understanding with the little ones.

An affection for horses and ponies goes back to the couple's upbringing as farmers' children.

Roy Williams hails from Arkansas, his wife from Chelsea. The couple and their three children, Roy Lee, Jr., 4, Ruth, 3, and Rita, 2 months, live at 19233 Clement.

They moved to the area about a year ago when both were working in Plymouth.

Warm weather opens up a whole new avenue of outdoor recreation for the family.

You'll find them on the water or in the wood when the grass turns green, Mrs. Williams said.

For New Cooking Year Consider Lamb In Meal Planning

While the new year is still young and resolutions are still in order, local cooks might take stock of the meat varieties they use in menu planning and consider serving more lamb to their families in '61.

Lamb is easy to cook, asserts the American Lamb Council, and tastes best when these three rules are followed: (1) Cook according to the cut; (2) always use low temperature; (3) avoid overcooking.

- 1 cup chopped onions
- 3 tablespoons all-purpose flour
- 1 1/2 teaspoons salt
- 1/2 teaspoon pepper
- 1/2 teaspoon mace
- 1 cup stock or bouillon
- 1 cup diced carrots
- 1/2 cup chopped green pepper
- 1 cup lima beans
- 1 tablespoon salt
- 3 quarts boiling water
- 8 oz. wide egg noodles (about 4 cups)
- 1/2 cup melted butter or margarine
- 1/4 cup chopped parsley

Combine lamb and onions. Cook over low heat until lamb is browned on all sides. Add flour, 1/2 teaspoon salt, pepper and mace; knead. Gradually add stock or bouillon, and cook, stirring constantly, until thickened. Add carrots, green pepper and beans. Cover and cook over low heat, stirring occasionally, 1 1/2 hours. Meanwhile, add 1 tablespoon salt to rapidly boiling water. Gradually add noodles so that water continues to boil. Cook uncovered, and noodles dish promises a savory cold weather meal. Additional recipes may be obtained by writing the American Lamb Council, 18 East 2nd Avenue, Denver 3, Colorado.

We saw some good, substantial evidence this week to bolster the lately shaky theory that American families aren't doing things together "like they used to".

Traveling in Michigan's Upper Peninsula last week, your reporter puzzled at first glance over the roof necessities sported by so many cars wending their way along northern highways and byways.

These car top fixtures, it turned out, were just old racks packed most often with not one, not usually two, but three, four and five pairs of kids. These slender and sleek pieces of sporting gear, it turns out, are transforming susceptible sportsmen of both sexes and all ages into daring groups of skioning skiers.

Skioning, roughly defined by the ski novice, is coming down the hill in a zig zag pattern — like you saw in the Squaw Valley Olympic runs — rather than streaking uncontrollably to the bottom of the slope.

Skiers were flocking to Indian-head Mountain in the Western reaches of the Upper Peninsula during the Christmas holidays. Even your reporter showed up — to watch. There whole families, dressed in the trim and rakish, nevertheless functional, ski attire were weaving along the snow-covered runs.

One adult skier, obviously a newcomer to the sport, he was practicing on the bunny run. I lassoed a friend he met after returning to the top of the midget hill on the rope tow.

"It wouldn't be so humiliating if these kids half your size didn't come over and offer you a hand when you just lie on your back after taking a good spill."

City Manager John Robertson and Police Chief Eugene King will be off to Ann Arbor next week to take the final examination covering the police administration course which the two Northville officials took this past semester.

They've been attending bi-monthly classes at the Civil Defense headquarters in Ann Arbor. The course is sponsored by the International City Manager's association.

Arnold B. Cook, Pastor
First Baptist Church of Novi

"THUS HE CAME"
Christmas is scarcely past—the trees are dry with death. The wreaths, tinsel, candles and all that have been carefully packed away for another year. Many carols were sung, and numerous stories of the Christ child have been dramatized, but the real reason for Christ's coming has been overlooked by many.
As the baby Jesus lay in His bed, wide men came from the East to pay homage. No longer was the Christ child in the manger as is often depicted on greeting cards, but when these visitors from the East arrive, Joseph, the foster father of the Christ child has moved the family to a more commodious dwelling (See Matthew 2:11).
From their wealth they present Him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. The gift signified His kingship, the frankincense represents the fragrant life of His perfect life, but who would bring myrrh as a gift to a child? Myrrh, used in the burial of the dead (See John 19:39-40) evidences the fact that this baby is born to die. Here is the wisest of wise men, who recognizes the necessity of the death of God's Son. Jesus Himself confirmed this by saying,
"The Son of man is come, not to be ministered unto, but to minister and give His life a ransom for many." And lest we forget, "without the shedding of blood, there is no remission for sin."
Many years ago the Prince of Wales visited our country. For several days he stayed. The press speculated as to why he came. Finally he left, and yet no one knew his purpose in coming to our country. How unlike God. When Jesus Christ, the Prince of Peace visited this earth, God tells us that, "He came to seek and to save the lost." When a soul in humbleness, and repentance turns by faith to Jesus Christ, confessing Him as Saviour and Lord, it is then that the lost is found, and the sinner is turned unto his God. The wisest of wise men today, are those who come to God, bringing the gift of their own lives, and laying them down at His feet.
Welcome all wonders in one sight, Eternity shot in a span,
Summer in winter, and day in the night, Heaven in Earth, and God in man.
Great little one, whose all embracing birth,
Lifts earth to Heaven, stoops heaven to earth.

— Out of the Past —

ONE YEAR AGO...
A 17-year-old Wisconsin youth, accused of beating a Northville boy into unconsciousness last spring, has been placed on two years probation for every day.
The Christmas week end was the saddest in recent times for Northville. Not a single accident was reported by Novi police during the holiday week end, according to Police Chief Lee BeGole.
...Eventful 1950 passed in review. The past year has rolled swiftly by, bringing with it hardships, pleasures, joys and sorrows. Many are glad that it is over, yet many would like the chance to begin it anew.
In Northville, the outstanding occurrence was possibly the announcement April 11 of the construction of a new Ford plant here, which might employ as many as 1,000 men.

...Novi police are searching for a "Santa Claus" thief who broke into the Wallace School of Horse-manship here Christmas eve and carried off $20 in silver.
...The resignation of Fred W. Lyke, Northville township clerk, and Ralph Hays, Sr., township trustee, were accepted at the township board meeting. The board appointed Dan J. Stark to succeed as clerk and Alex M. Lawrence as trustee.
...After a two-year waiting period the 7 mile road cutoff extending from Northville road to Edward N. Hines drive has been completed.
...Notice of a new hearing on rezoning the controversial St. Lawrence property for truck use was formally given by the Northville City Planning commission.
...Winners of the Christmas decoration contest were: Oran Nally, 4703 Timberlane; Conrad Springs, 991 Grace street; Walter Brown, 231 Church street.
...Detroit Edison company pre-terminated during 1955 that the present 7000 population of Novi township will double during the next few years.

Barons Host Northville 5 Friday Night
Northville's varsity cagers will reopen their 1960-61 season tomorrow at Bloomfield Hills in an attempt to break a deadlock for third place in the Wayne-Oakland league race.
The Mustangs will carry a record of two wins and two losses to Bloomfield Hills — the same record held by Clarkston, West Bloomfield and Brighton.
The Barons' new head coach, Ed Wickert, who replaced Hal Trout, probably will start the same players he relied upon before the holidays. Of the five, four are lettermen from last year's squad which grabbed a three-way tie for third place with a 9-6 record. They are:
Bruce Billings and Art Trenggan, guards; Doug Devo and Fred Joyens, forwards; and Bill Pettibone, center. Devo is the only non-letterman. Roger Stewart is another likely starter if forward.
Last year the Barons clamped a lid over the Mustangs' offense and walk-ed away with an easy 31-28 victory. Northville flipped in 7 points in the opening quarter, added only 4 more in the second stanza.
In the second half, the Mustangs outscored Bloomfield Hills, 15-13 and 12-10. But the first-half damage was too great to save the game.
Roger Atchinson, since graduated, was the only Mustang to hit double figures. He scored 15 points.

HE'S 15, A 155-POUND SOPHOMORE, but Forward Craig Bell carries plenty of punch in his small frame — and his coaches are first to recognize his exceptional athletic abilities. Last year, Bell played basketball with Northville's championship freshmen squad. He jumped to the varsity squad this season, skipping over the junior varsity five. Playing as a guard in the first three games this season, Bell scored only two points. Then Coach Dutch Van Ingen switched him to forward and Bell promptly scored 19 points against Clarkston and 18 points against the Trojans. Bell also is a varsity player with the Northville football and baseball teams. Son of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Bell, 539 East Cassell, Bell's favorite hobbies are water skiing and fishing. Scholastically, he carries about a B-minus average.

Puffers Lose, 91-79 Alumni Lower Boom On Coaches' Quintet

Northville alumni had their day in court last Thursday handing their old coaches a 91-79 drubbing in a benefit basketball game staged at the Northville high school gymnasium.
According to one of the luckless members of the coaches' squad, Athletic Director Al Jones, close to $90 was raised. All proceeds will be used for purchase of athletic equipment for the high school.
The "huffing-puffing" coaches managed to wring a fairly close contest out of the first half, but by the second half the alumni galloped far out in front.
Former Varsity Football Coach Ron Schipper, who probably could have used extra points and proved beyond a doubt that his favorite battleground is the gridiron, led the basketball count. Shonta is a star defensive half-back for the Boston Patriots.
Little Fred Schwarz, who isn't so little anymore, showed fans that he hasn't forgotten how to score free field goals and three charity shots. Roger Atchinson, voted Northville's most valuable player last season, fired nine field goals and six free throws to lead the alumni in scoring.
Northville's varsity basketball coach, Dutch Van Ingen, turned in some spectacular — if not unorthodox shots, but the Holland Globe Trotter picked up two fouls than he did points, six to five.

WINS DECORATION CONTEST - The Albert Spach family, 4894 Dunsany, in Northville Estates subdivision, became the winner of the first annual Christmas decoration contest sponsored by the Northville Junior Chamber of Commerce this week. The Spachs will receive a plaque for winning the contest. Decorations included a multi-colored string of lights along the edge of the roof, a blinking star attached to the chimney, multi-colored lights along the picture window, a colorful painting of a reindeer, Mrs. Spach, on the side of the garage, and two candles beneath the picture window. A cutting-high Christmas tree was centered inside the window, and a decorated tree stood outside at the corner of the house.

"I'M NOT SURE IT'S SAFE" - Pogy, the dog, doesn't seem too sure the ride down hill will be safe, even though his owners, John (left) and Bobby Banks appear confident about the downhill trip. The extra hours of romping with his masters came to an end for Pogy this week as the holiday vacation ended and schools reopened. The boys are sons of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Banks, 4708 Therapeutic Lane.

MICHIGAN IS EVERYTHING FOR INDUSTRY

The people of Michigan are proud of their state's industrial accomplishments. Its manufacturing plants produce everything from automobiles to xylophones. One reason is that Michigan has so much of what industry needs.

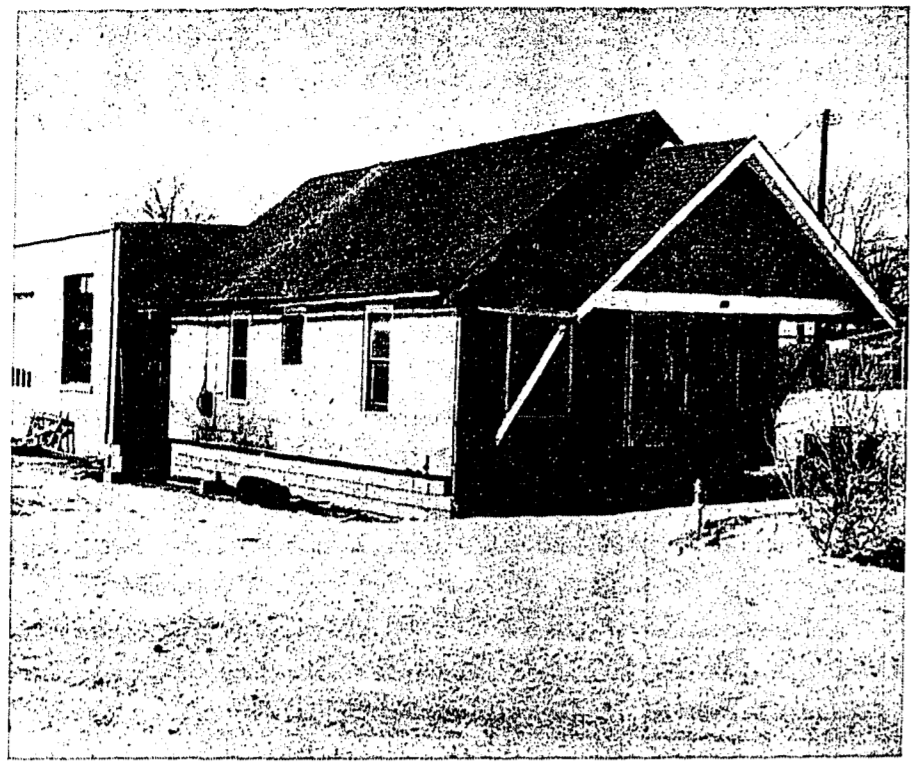

Michigan has abundant sources of both raw and semi-finished materials. Michigan possesses unmatched production know-how in both management and labor. Michigan has great market advantages. Michigan has livability! Water? Michigan is rightly named the Water Wonderland.

This is the first in a series of advertisements to be printed as a public service by this newspaper, each advertisement to describe one of Michigan's advantages for industry. The series will show the attractions our state offers, what it personifies for industry; in reality, what MICHIGAN IS.

Help carry Michigan's message to the nation. Clip these ads and mail them to people in other states with your own comment. Let's talk up Michigan and its advantages for industry. Together, we can assure a greater future for all of us.

This ad is one of a series published as a public service by this newspaper in cooperation with the Michigan Press Association and the Michigan Economic Development Department.

Ford Seeks Nominations For Its Citizenship Awards

Northville-Nowi area residents have an opportunity to nominate local residents for community service awards, the Ford Motor company announced this week.

Each year Ford conducts a program to honor its employees who have served voluntarily in civic, educational and charitable activities of their communities.

Employees may be nominated by their families, fellow employees or others familiar with their community activities. Nominations, which will be accepted by Ford's community relations department through February 1, may be based on services performed in the calendar year or over a period of years.

Ford began the Community Service Awards program in 1958 in 10 cities outside the Detroit area. The program was extended last year to Detroit and all other company cities.

Last year more than 200 community service awards were made and 1,423 nominations were received for almost 1,000 employees. Twenty-one persons were selected for the top prize, "Ford Citizen of the Year."

John S. Canterbury of Northville drew praise for his civic improvement service to the city, while Charles Wallace was cited for his outstanding work in civic improvement and youth work in Novi as the 1960 program.

Community service award winners receive a mounted silver scroll with an engraved commendation from Henry Ford II, chairman of the board. Each "Ford Citizen of the Year" receives a cast bronze belt engraved with the recipient's name and the symbolic figure of the

SPEAKING for the Record

Last week the state tax commission issued a "stern warning" to all assessors of the state to "immediately begin assessing personal property and real estate uniformly."

To businessmen in this with machinery, equipment and inventories such a ruling will certainly bring cheers of joy.

While we agree wholeheartedly with the state tax commission statement that there should be uniformity in assessing, past performance by this body would not indicate that this is their belief.

First of all, let's look at the tax assessments and see what uniformity would mean.

Real estate is presently assessed at between 40 and 46 percent of its value.

In the case of inventories in Wayne county the assessment has been 75 percent. The assessor uses the depreciated value of machinery and equipment for its assessment.

Against these figures our city, school, township and county millage is applied. On top of this, county and state equalization boosts the assessments somewhat higher.

Uniformity would mean that personal property and inventories would also be assessed the same as real estate at around 45 percent—a fifty to 30 percent reduction.

It doesn't take much imagination to see what would happen in the city of Detroit and many other heavily industrialized Wayne county communities if their revenues were suddenly cut.

It would affect every governmental unit, particularly school districts already having their maximum millage to meet general operation expenses and bonded indebtedness for buildings.

In Northville, for example, personal property taxes represent about 20 percent of our tax revenues. For this to be reduced by 30 percent would be far less damaging than in communities where personal property revenues total 60 to 70 percent of the total.

It has been generally considered by Wayne county assessors that the state tax commission had taken a position, though not officially, that suggested "slow reduction" of the personal property assessments to the real estate level.

Once nearly 50 percent, the personal property level in most Wayne county communities has been reduced slowly in recent years. This year it is expected to drop at least another five percent.

This "go-easy" policy has been undertaken to avoid a budget calamity in local governments.

But let's read another portion of the release issued last week by the state tax commission (referring to areas not now practicing uniformity in assessing):

"Presently, there remain only a few major islands of resistance in the state but these are creating great difficulty. Our commission is unanimous that immediate action is necessary and this is our final warning to assessors. The Commission recognizes that in some areas the mechanics of this program entail numerous adjustments with varied ramifications, however, in spite of the apparent difficulties, a program of uniformity must be recognized and that the Tax Commission will insist upon it in the future."

Compare this with the experience of our neighboring community of Plymouth, which has adopted the uniformity rule of assessing. For two years Wayne county has "equalized" the Plymouth assessments up to the 75 percent level and although the city fathers of that community have appealed the action to the state tax commission, their appeal has been denied.

So, unless the state's latest announcement reflects a new policy, we must assume that "uniformity" applies outside Wayne county.

Roger Babson Our Unemployed

Babson Park, Mass. — During the recent election campaign, the unemployment problem was discussed at length by both political parties.

Areas where unemployment is high should seek to create and attract new opportunities. This can be accomplished by advertising local advantages, and, above all, by proving labor's willingness to work harder.

The challenge faces all the people, not just the leaders of state government or educators. Not only do taxpayers finance a major part of the cost of higher education, they also must want to improve educational facilities before action will be taken. It is their attitude toward education which will be reflected to the Legislature at the time decisions are made.

One indication of expected growth in higher education came recently when Michigan State University President John A. Hannah addressed a group of newsmen and their wives on the East Lansing campus.

After explaining the plight of higher education in general, of which MSU is typical, he discussed specific areas.

"Our enrollment is increasing faster than we had expected. Though we are becoming more selective, Michigan State has an obligation to open its classrooms and laboratories to the qualified youth of this state," Hannah said.

He predicted enrollment at MSU would hit 30,000 by 1966 or 1967.

A special session held in late November to spell out the qualifications and procedures which those over 65 years old could come under the program if they wish.

Sen. Lloyd A. Stepien, R-Scottville, chairman of a joint committee of both houses appointed to study the problem of unemployment, said that the program is merely to make sure that local officials know how to comply with laws governing elections, and that they are putting the knowledge into use.

Michigan Mirror Crises in Colleges Hurts Entire State

OF ALL THE CHALLENGES facing Michigan people, the crisis in higher education could be the most vital. Consider these points:

Most of the teachers for Michigan schools are trained in Michigan colleges.

The need for doctors is already plenching. It can easily become so great that existing medical training facilities will fall short of handling enough first-year students by 1970.

Michigan business needs well-trained leaders. Most of them will be educated in colleges and universities within the state.

Add to this the nation's critical overall need for more highly trained scientists and engineers and the simple fact that better educated people are needed every day to keep a complex society operating.

There is obviously ample reason for concern over higher education. The challenge faces all the people, not just the leaders of state government or educators. Not only do taxpayers finance a major part of the cost of higher education, they also must want to improve educational facilities before action will be taken. It is their attitude toward education which will be reflected to the Legislature at the time decisions are made.

Novi Traffic Violations Take Jump

Although the approach of winter usually means a decrease in police activity, the Novi police department handled a record number of cases during the month of November.

According to the monthly report submitted to the council by Chief Leo Goetz, traffic cases set a record for November, with 161 actual traffic tickets issued — or 21 more tickets than were issued during the previous month and 119 more than were issued in the November of 1959.

A total of 164 complaints, including traffic violations, were handled by the department, the chief reported. Of these, 139 were closed and 25 remain to be solved or checked.

The breakdown included 15 serious crimes or felonies; 44 misdemeanor crimes; 36 safety and traffic complaints; 67 non-criminal complaints; and two general accident cases.

Other activity of the department included: 10 automobile accidents; 169 car investigations; 2,028 property inspections; 20 liquor inspections; and 151 verbal warnings to motorists.

Court costs and fines for the month totaled $1,300.

The report also stated that the recently established Youth Protective committee is functioning properly, with several local juvenile cases being successfully handled; that a gun bureau was established within the department; that attempts to secure a drivers license bureau are underway; and that a number of traffic surveys in village roads have been completed.

Sales Tax Jumps to 4%

Northville-Novati area residents, along with citizens throughout the state, found themselves digging a little deeper into their pocketbooks this week as a result of the increased sales tax.

The tax, which jumped from 3 to 4 percent, became effective January 1. Although the method of collecting the tax is different in many communities, most business places in this area have adopted a "mathematically accurate" taxing table.

In computing customer taxes using this table, merchants charge no tax on purchases of less than 12 cents. Here's how they charge taxes on purchases over 12 cents:

Table showing sales tax rates for various purchase amounts. For example, purchases from 13 to 37 cents are taxed at 1 cent, while purchases from 88 to 1.12 are taxed at 4 cents.

About the only stores using a different system are those which make a great many sales of less than one cent. These stores are among those, although the Northville's D&C store is using the mathematical table.

Under state law, merchants must pay 4 percent tax on monthly business. They can collect the tax from their customers any way they choose.

Fined Here

Donald Graham, 437 North Center, was found guilty of reckless operation of a motor vehicle in court case December 27. Graham, whose car struck a tree at the corner of Beal and Main streets on the night of December 24, was fined $25 and court cost by Justice E. M. Bogart.

A Plymouth man, Lester Johnson, of 16483 Brader, was ordered to pay a $30 fine and cost after being found guilty of driving under the influence of alcohol. Johnson appeared in court last Friday, December 30.

'Lake' Sub Zoning OK'ed But Not Plat

The village council and planning commission, holding a joint public hearing, approved the rezoning of the proposed Meadowbrook Lake subdivision property from agricultural to R-1-8 Monday night.

But proposed rezoning of four privately-owned parcels adjoining the subdivision was postponed until it could be definitely determined whether the property owners had been properly notified of the change.

The subdivision property is located at the northwest corner of Ten Mile and Meadowbrook roads. Some 150 lots are proposed for the 110-acre site which includes a 20-acre artificial lake.

Following the first hearing, the planning commission opened a new hearing to review the subdivision plat as submitted by the owners of the parcel, Suburban Development company.

Planners adjourned this hearing until January 30 after it was determined that some changes would be necessary and that more time would be needed to permit planners and consultants to study the revised plat.

A representative of the development firm urged the planners to indicate some preliminary approval so that workmen could proceed as soon as possible.

Chairman V. A. Miklas said he saw no serious objections to the plat and indicated that he would provide the developers with a letter of tentative approval.

Plans call for the water system of the subdivision to be turned over to the village after it is completed along with the control dam on the lake.

The developers have indicated that a model will be constructed as soon as possible.

Councilmen and planners declined to renege abutting property to R-1-8 which was pointed out by Village President Joseph Crupl, that would not permit keeping of horses on the land.

The newly elected board members will meet immediately after the general meeting to elect their own officers, Smith said.

Nominated for candidacy, by a four-member committee made up of present board members, were:

George Atkinson, Leonard Broquet, Jack Crawford, Herb Dreyer, Santa Gergalino, Dick H. Green, Mrs. Florence Harris, Mrs. Vincent Hayes, Holland Henrich, Karl S. Johnson, Albin LeBurge, Thomas Macaluso, E. A. Martin, George R. McCullom, H. J. McVey, Fred Mandell, M. Marshall, George Mearns, J. D. Mitchell, Anthony Olvick, Donald Peck, Sanford Sawyer, R. C. Skelton, E. M. Steinberger and Dieron Trafalun.

Other business matters to be taken up at the January 23 meeting will be a review of 1960 activities by the outgoing chairman, along with his recommendations, and also requests the planning board for a review of the plans for the Novi area.

The Development committee, formed here one year ago upon the recommendation of Waldemar C. Johnson, village planning consultant, is a working group, working for and with the planning board.

Any citizen of the village is qualified and urged to join the group.

Nominate 25 For Citizens' Group Board

Twenty-five Novi residents have been nominated for election to the board of directors of the Citizens' Development committee, Chairman C. A. Smith announced this week.

Of these candidates, 13 will be elected to office at a general meeting set for 8 p.m. January 23 at the Novi community building.

The newly elected board members will meet immediately after the general meeting to elect their own officers, Smith said.

Nominated for candidacy, by a four-member committee made up of present board members, were:

George Atkinson, Leonard Broquet, Jack Crawford, Herb Dreyer, Santa Gergalino, Dick H. Green, Mrs. Florence Harris, Mrs. Vincent Hayes, Holland Henrich, Karl S. Johnson, Albin LeBurge, Thomas Macaluso, E. A. Martin, George R. McCullom, H. J. McVey, Fred Mandell, M. Marshall, George Mearns, J. D. Mitchell, Anthony Olvick, Donald Peck, Sanford Sawyer, R. C. Skelton, E. M. Steinberger and Dieron Trafalun.

Other business matters to be taken up at the January 23 meeting will be a review of 1960 activities by the outgoing chairman, along with his recommendations, and also requests the planning board for a review of the plans for the Novi area.

The Development committee, formed here one year ago upon the recommendation of Waldemar C. Johnson, village planning consultant, is a working group, working for and with the planning board.

Any citizen of the village is qualified and urged to join the group.

Current board members of the Development committee, some of whom replaced original members are: Smith, Herbert Koester, George Merwin, J. E. Struss, Donald Woodward, Roy Crites, Mrs. Mary Gunzweiler, Emory Jacques, Kain S. Johnson, Dieron Trafalun and Donald Young.

Fast board members have included Lewis Cruise, who resigned as president last year because of ill health, Mrs. David Fried, J. M. McEvoy and Mrs. Richard Noble.

Under the rules adopted by the group, officers and members of the board of directors must be residents of Novi and qualified registered voters. Elected or appointed village officials or members of their immediate families are not eligible for membership on the board.

Attorneys Argue Annexation Case In Supreme Court

Attorneys for Northville and Novi presented their oral arguments before the state supreme court Tuesday in a case occasioned by the village of Novi protesting the annexation of village property by the city of Northville.

The case concerns 135 acres of village land and the 130-acre Northville Estates Novi township subdivision annexed in a special election held last spring. The properties adjoin each other on the north side of West Eight Mile road between the Northville city limits and Beck road.

Action for annexation to Northville was started by the residents of Northville Estates. To gain physical connection to the city's boundaries it was necessary that the 135-acre parcel dividing the subdivision from the city limits be included in the annexation move. Until the election Northville's city limits extended westward along the north side of West Eight Mile road to a point 1,000 feet west of Taft road.

If the village is successful in its arguments before the supreme court and retains the last acreage, Northville Estates subdivision would revert to township property for lack of connection to Northville's boundaries.

Village Attorney Howard Bond opposed the arguments Tuesday and contended that provisions of the village home rule act should have applied in the election, thereby requiring all village residents to vote in the annexation election.

Only residents of the property to be annexed and all residents of the city of Northville were permitted to vote.

City Attorney Phillip Ogilvie argued for Northville that the city home rule act was the proper legal basis under which to conduct the election and that the election was therefore properly called and conducted.

Supporting Northville's stand was an assistant to the attorney general and a member of the secretary of state's office. The election was called and rules established by the secretary of state.

A decision on the arguments is not expected until April.

Board of Review Convenes in March

The village council last week passed a resolution establishing the board of review's annual sessions, which are set by charter for March 14 and 20, to be in January or earlier reported.

The first session will be held between the hours of 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and the second, between noon and 2 p.m. Both sessions, which will be conducted in the council chambers, are for the purpose of reviewing the assessment roll of the village with individual property owners.

Wixom city officials this week revealed they had turned down a proposal by the state that a 76-acre parcel of city property be 'given' to Novi for a township park.

The property, which is owned by the state, is located on the north side of the US-16 expressway between Beck and Wixom roads.

According to Mayor Donald Brooks the state approved the city two weeks ago with its suggestion that Wixom relinquish its jurisdiction so that the property could be made part of a township park for use as a park. Presumably the state conservation department would purchase the property from the state highway department with money realized from the sale of the late Mrs. Mary McGuire Power of Novi.

Brooks said that his assistant, John Finlayson, went to Lansing Tuesday to tell the state that Wixom "didn't want any part of the plan." Such a proposal, Brooks said, means "a big legal headache for the city."

Early last month Novi officials were informed that the state was willing to purchase Novi property for park purposes. Previously, the state had said it would either purchase property in Novi or adjacent to it. Property near Kensington park was reportedly under consideration.

This latest proposal with Wixom apparently substantiates the state's willingness to establish the park within the boundaries of Novi.

The property in Wixom considered for purchase was obtained by the state highway department when the expressway was constructed. It is "landlocked," bounded on the south by the expressway and on the other three boundaries by private land owners.

Some $65,000 to be used by the state to purchase park land in Novi resulted from the sale of Mrs. Power's 10 Mile farm property. Her will stipulated that the property be used as a state park.

A tough legislative fight spearheaded by the Citizens' Development committee and former State Representative S. James Clarkson led to a statute requiring the state to use the money for purchase of park property in or near Novi.

Because the state conservation department leaned toward establishing the park somewhere outside of Novi, presumably near Kensington, village officials continued to press for a park inside the Novi boundary. Department officials finally agreed to this request.

Novi village planning board members are to meet with Emory Jacques and one or two other members of the citizens committee later this month to discuss matters concerning the proposed park.

Among the legal problems to be discussed are: — The money can be used only for the purchase of Novi park property, not for its development or maintenance. — The park will not be operated by the state, but will be dedicated to the township. — If the property is located in Novi, which branch of local government — township or village — will have jurisdiction and who will maintain it.

Wixom Association To Elect Officers The Wixom Civic association will meet Wednesday evening (January 18) to elect new officers and resume the November session. In the latter meeting action to amend the charter so that the $mill tax limitation applies to assessed valuation instead of state-evaluated was not resolved.
