CEASING TO LIVE THAT WE MAY LIVE

It is not easy to cease from the workings of our own mind, to give up, to cease to live any longer after the understanding of things as they appear to us. But we can never know the joy of living a "Life that is hid with Christ in God," until and only as

An intelligent person is not able to think without "willing" — exercising his will. As long as we think the things will appear to us as they do, not, "as they are," we will live in a world where we are ever learning and never coming to a knowledge of the

But in the hour that we "cease to live,"

God's mind will be revealed and we shall awake in a new realm of conscious realization where things will no longer appear to us as they now do but we shall see them 'as they are" in the very mind and purpose In all of us there is that principle of sin -that desire to have your own way, to im-

The Saxons had a word for Spring. It was Lencten, shortened, in time, to Lent, So the name Lent was given to that springtime period of 40 fast days from Ash Wednesday until Easter. Lent came to mean a time of penitence. And it is. But it is also a time of preparation, and of promise. For because Lent means Spring, it heralds good things to come. It forecasts the glorious message of Easter.

It is the dawn of the most beautiful season of the year. The bare branches of these trees will burst into bud and leaf with the touch of Spring. Our thoughts during Lent, our personal preparations, also will reach fruition when the 40 days are through. Lent is the time for prayer and self-examination. Make this Lenten
