SPEAKING for the Record

It's either the pace of the times or old age approaching, but the seasons come and go with amazing swiftness. Winter may strike another blow or two but it's staggering

We were reminded of this on a rather balmy Monday norning this week by Mrs. Clyde Johnson of Novi who saw e robbins in her backyard busy gathering straw, string, etc., for their summer home. Spring is always refreshing and a season hopefully looked forward to by everyone. Talking about spring early enough At any rate the Michigan Week boosters are already planning and urging all communities to "adopt the spirit of newly formed junior chamber of commerce. Northville will exchange mayors with Houghton; Novi with South Rockwood.
