

SPEAKING for the Record

by Bill Slinger

Next March Novi citizens will go to the polls to vote for the second time on whether or not to incorporate the village as a fifth class city. The proposal was soundly defeated two years ago.

Last Thursday the Novi board of commerce called together a group of citizens and proposed that a study committee be formed to dig out the pros and cons of city incorporation for Novi and present the information to the public in a series of meetings.

The idea was generally considered a good one by the less than two dozen residents present and October 19 has been set as the first meeting.

According to Russell Burton, president of the Novi Board of Commerce which is sponsoring the study, an authority on city incorporation will be on hand to address the October 19 gathering at the community building.

It was quickly apparent after last week's introductory meeting that an incorporation study is badly needed. Many questions were raised that indicated opinions are widely divided.

And it would appear that at least four different attitudes exist among Novi voters:

1. Those steadfastly opposed to further loss of village property through disincorporation and annexation and therefore in favor of city incorporation;
2. Those who would like to go back to township status, eliminating the village and perhaps forming a charter township;
3. Those who would stay as they are because they fear that city incorporation would bring higher taxes, bigger government;
4. Those who prefer the status quo for a mixture of reasons — but mainly because their community interests are outside Novi (in Northville, for example) and although their homes are within the corporate boundaries of Novi they refer to "Northville" as their residence; these people may someday expect to become a corporate part of Northville, but are not ready to assume the taxes and responsibilities which they are, they would receive free city advantages; still, they do not wish to be locked out of Northville forever through city incorporation of Novi.

There may be other reasons, but these should be enough to give a study committee ample material for discussion.

It was apparent at last week's introductory meeting that many of Novi's "old guard" — the Phil Andersons, Jim Mitchells, Russ Burtons — are truly concerned that Novi is being "taken up." They have a tough fight on their hands. But certainly their approach is proper.

They are asking the people to look at the facts — even argue them out — together. Then let the final decision be based on an opinion that has been reached through exposure to all information available.

Recently we mentioned in this column the approaching Town Hall series of lectures for area women featuring five nationally known speakers.

Now Northville has another educational program that comes under the classification of excellent family entertainment.

It's the Rotary club sponsored World Travel Series which begins Tuesday, October 17 at the Northville High school auditorium.

The color travel series will be narrated by the artist himself and will feature journeys to Africa, Brazil, New Zealand, Russia, Colorado and Sicily.

The six travelogues are being sold on a season ticket basis only. They promise to be highly entertaining and certainly rank as one of the most worthwhile projects ever undertaken by a local service club.

Fallout Protection

Babson Park, Mass. A feature article in Life Magazine for September 15, 1961 makes some statements regarding the people of Berlin, or do not want of course they want to be in the center of the fighting. In the President's letter which preceded the article, the President said that a "shooting war" between Russia and the Western Allies, with Berlin getting the worst of it in all of this. Therefore, as a practical matter, should one build a shelter here in the U.S.A. until it is too late to get out? This is a question that should be asked by every citizen.

Another awkward question: how many people should such a shelter be built to accommodate for two weeks? Those living on farms and having their own water and electricity supply for their shelter occupants... Neither the President nor Life Magazine made clear the difference between the effect of the explosion of an H-bomb and the instant fallout. If an H-bomb should strike a city, the blast would probably kill 97% of the people. No ordinary "fallout" would be of any consequence. But the fallout which would drift from this explosion would be deadly.

However, if all the nation's people had proper shelters, 97% of the people not killed by the blast might survive. Even 3% of those in shelters who might die from fright or from other causes in the first two weeks amount to about 5,000,000 people. Hence, the scope of the entire project of fallout shelters is enormous.

I have had a survey made of an average home shelter; the minimum cost quoted is $1850. This is for a shelter in a basement or in a room with an accurate amount 100 miles from the center of a large city which might be bombed. As the distance comes less than 150 miles, the price of the shelter increases. No shelter within five miles of the bomb hits would be of any use. At least 90% of those within this radius of five miles would be killed under any conditions — shelters or no shelters. We are constantly told what the U.S.A.

Cities Lose Suit Immunity

Michigan's highest court of law walks the fine line between upholding legislative power and judicial interpretation of Constitutional or statutory law.

A recent Supreme Court decision which seems to nullify an age old doctrine of governmental immunity is a case in point. The idea that governments should not be sued by individuals is said to date back to the days when "the king could do no wrong." Others say that the concept developed from "the things which used to be done by the government units performed only a few, necessary services and had no sizable resources."

One problem, becoming more acute as the federal and state governments move more and more into the urban renewal field, is whether these planned projects will conflict with claims clearance and other civic betterment projects also in the drawing books.

Michigan's highway chief, John C. Maciek, says his department already does more urban planning work than any other agency of state government.

Highway planners are now branching out more into the field of federal programs of urban renewal and planning. In fact, a top-level meeting recently was held between Maciek and other high state officials and William L. Slayton, the Federal Urban Renewal Commissioner.

Aim of this meeting, and in fact, the aim of all the cooperative efforts of planners from both fields, is to promote comprehensive transportation and other civic betterment projects in the future.

Michigan grew faster in population during the last decade than it did between 1940 and 1950. It has continued to grow at a higher rate than the U.S. Census Bureau said.

Between 1950 and 1960 Michigan added 1,404,015 to its population as compared to a growth of 1,118,000 between 1940 and 1950. So it added 27% more people during this last decade than it did during the previous decade.

Michigan's population now is 7,765,761 as compared with 6,371,766 in 1950. Michigan's population represented 3.25% of the population of the United States. In 1960 it constituted an even greater part: 3.3%.

Michigan is a consumer's market continues to grow rapidly, even more rapidly than it did during the decade from 1940 to 1950. Predictions by expert demographers state that Michigan will have over 10,000,000 people 10 years from now. If so, the increase in the next 10 years will total over 2,000,000 half again as much as during the last decade.

Michigan had 9,891 industrial plants in 1947; 12,111 in 1954 and 13,238 in 1958. During the past period from 1954 to 1958 Michigan gained 227, just exceeded by Illinois with 331 but way ahead of Ohio's 407.

Here are Pros, Cons of Charter Township

EDITOR'S NOTE: On March 12 the residents of Novi will again vote on whether or not they wish to become a city. As a public service, the News will present a series of background articles on the issues and alternatives. The information for these articles has been compiled from materials furnished by the Michigan Municipal League. Each article is presented as a factual report, and is not intended to reflect an opinion of the newspaper.

Our first article in this series is an effort to describe the alternatives to city incorporation. It will be considered in this series.

Today, assessment and collection of property taxes, the conduct and supervision of elections and the representation of the township on the county board of supervisors are major functions left to the township.

Because of Michigan's tax structure, little revenue is provided for township operations. The severe restrictions placed on township taxing powers has meant that many highly populated township areas have been unable to provide adequate public services such as sewage and garbage disposal, water supply and public works.

Charter townships are also permitted to borrow money and issue general obligation bonds, or any township that has a population of 2,000 or more people may become a charter township by a majority vote of its citizens adding the charter to its charter.

The central feature of the charter township plan is that it authorizes the township to levy a tax of up to 10 mills of assessed valuation of all real and personal property in the township. This tax rate may be imposed in place of the much smaller portion of the general township revenue of the 15-mill county rate.

Charter townships are also permitted to borrow money and issue general obligation bonds, or any township that has a population of 2,000 or more people may become a charter township by a majority vote of its citizens adding the charter to its charter.

OUR WANT ADS APPEAR IN FOUR COMMUNITY NEWSPAPERS

3-For Sale-Real Estate
"D.J." sez:
If I got as much advice as the con-con delegates are receiving from "outside interest" groups, I would have sold this dandy real home at 418 East St. on its big 100x150 lot. It's a bargain. A pretty "conco" and! But right from the heart of an honest, hard looking at from the spacious liv. rm. with its 3 large thermo. windows in its secluded natural landscape setting.
MUSTANGS way out in front - but way behind when it comes to a "best buy" such as this at 144 Spring Dr. on easy FHA terms. "No Hunting" signs get you Have it all to yourself on the lot. 10 A. with nice rock. Home, Pheasant's galore & fine country living. Dirty & rundown - but still much handier than our local real estate book is this $5,000 challenge at 51 E. Cady St.
"Shut your marriage?" Too slow? Use a rifle. 1 - 20 Savage 1 - 300 Savage with scope, both Model 99's. Maybe get a deer. Snow apples - big & juicy. $2.00 bushel.
Furnished home for rent Nov. 20 - Apr. 25. Couple. Pretty "conco" and! But right from the heart of an honest, hard hitting real estate man - 1 hope, YOUYS.

Mustangs Mangle Milford in 25-6 Win

Travel Against 'Tough' Lakers Team on Friday

Northville's Mustangs continued their season-long pattern of building up an unbeatable lead in the first half, as they defeated Milford 25-6 in a capacity crowd on Friday. Homecoming fans at Ford field had pass plays from Johnny Friday by running over the Mustangs.

Tomorrow night the Mustangs will travel to West Branch to play the first game of the season. The Mustangs will be away from home for the first time.

The Mustangs popped loose early in the game, taking Milford's kick-off and making Milford's defense pay for three plays to a TD. Gaining for ended after Milford's kick-off in the march, the Mustangs ran for the short pass to Brown.

Milford's only score came in the second quarter when a defensive fullback Ron Rice intercepted a Milford pass through the second quarter with an 11-yard run by halfback Dick Bathey. The play came after Johnny had received a Milford punt.

The fact that the second-half was scoreless for both teams speaks for the improving skill of the Mustang defense. And, while the second string players were unable to score, they threatened with marches deep into Milford territory.

Sparking the second string was quarterback Tom Slattery, who completed five of 12 pass attempts, to pick up 40 yards. He also completed a 19-yard pass to end Jim Judy in the end-zone, but a penalty for illegal procedure nullified the play. Another 14-yard pass completion was made useless by a personal foul against Northville.

Slattery's final pass, the last play of the game, was intercepted. The clock ran out before Milford could get a play underway.

The Mustangs picked up 227 yards, rushing and 185 passing. They passed for 185 yards, completing 10 of 26 pass attempts, one of his poorest nights this year. They nullified the yards of penalties assessed against them, and lost 36 yards rushing.

The Braves gained a total of 185 yards through both rushing and passing plays. They lost 30 yards rushing and had 25 yards passing.

"We suffered a let-down after the quick touchdowns," said Mustang coach Ron Horvath. "I don't know what happened, but this week the game became too lax, he explained, and committed a large number of mistakes that shouldn't have."

He pointed to the 80 yards of penalties assessed against Northville as an example of the sort of mistakes he meant.

"We can't afford this kind of play," he said, "if we're going to beat West Branch this week."

Calling West Branchfield the best team the Mustangs will meet this season, Horvath said this week's game will probably decide who's going to win the Wayne-Oakland league championship.

LET'S TALK CARS...

An Automobile Alarm Clock

Ever notice how trucks solve the tiredness problem while on long highway drives? They stop often for coffee, light snacks and a short rest where they feel drowsiness coming on.

That's sound advice for an motorist starting out on a long freestone drive. It is amazing how with a fifteen minute rest and a little fresh air will renew your alertness when your eyelids start getting heavy.

There are occasions, however, such as on trips and other restricted or other heavily traveled roads where parking is difficult or illegal, when some kind of driver alarm system would come in handy.

An insurance company has recently come up with a gadget designed by its own engineers that may help to keep a sleepy driver on the ball. Once turned on, it provides the driver with a three-stage alarm process that he must respond to every 40 seconds with a light touch on the horn.

Commencing with a flashing light, the warning, if unheeded, goes on to blow the horn. If there is still no driver response, the car's ignition turns off and on, finally shutting off altogether. Only a touch of the horn button will arrest the system which then starts over again in one minute.

The best alarm system of all, though, is still a rested driver. Add to that the peace of mind from a mechanically sound car. We can't make you get enough shut-eye, but we can make sure you're driving a safe car if its brought to us regularly for service.

New Telephone Building To Serve Local Area

Construction of a new building for the Michigan Bell Telephone Company was expected to begin this week, it was announced.

YOUR UP AT WORK... FOR YOU

Could you tell him he'd never play again?

All kids have the right to play. Sick ones included. They have the right to get back in the game just as quickly as it is in anyone's power to make them able to play.

That's one of the great things our Torch Drive dollars accomplish—making sick kids well again. But this is merely one of the many important ways our United Foundation works for us.

Through medical research, paid for by your U.F. dollars, are coming preventives and cures on which your life may hinge someday... or that of someone dear to you.

Always bear this in mind and give willingly, give generously—once for all!

OCT. 17 TO NOV. 9

You share the gift you give... when you give once for all.

Homecoming Had Happy Ending

The game wasn't all bleets and laches for Co-Captain Jerry Biddle and Steve Jody. Biddle is shown congratulating Queen Linda in the traditional way.

Everything went according to plan Friday night. The weather was perfect, the crowd capacity and the game a victory for the Mustangs.

For six pretty Northville high school girls the evening was an exciting one in formal dresses riding atop convertible and parading as reigning beauties of Homecoming.

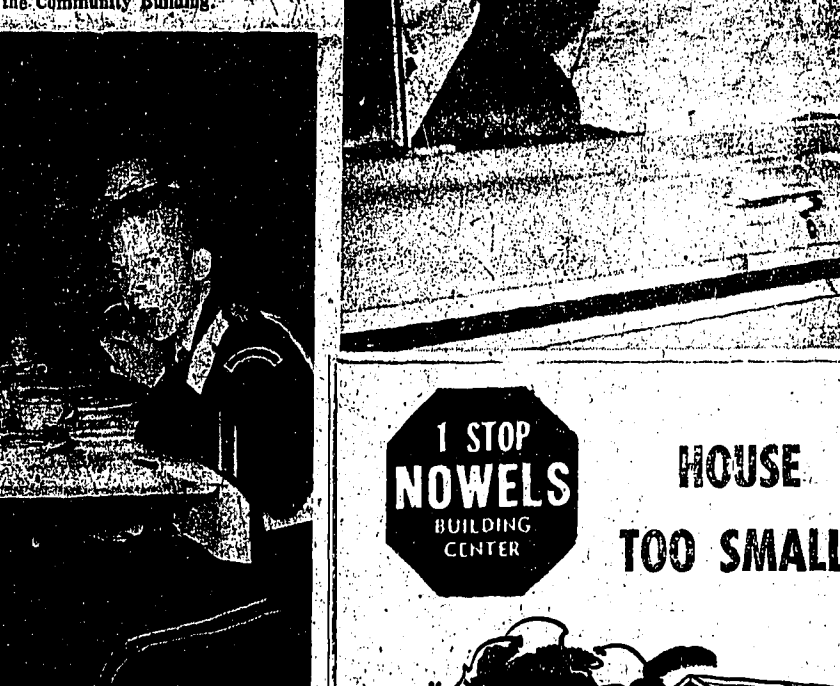

It was especially exciting for Senior Linda Lepper, selected as Queen.

The evening started with a parade led by the band from the high school to Ford Field. Crowning of the queen ceremonies were held at half time with the festivities highlighted by a sparkling performance by the band under the direction of Robert Williams.

The evening was climaxed with the traditional Homecoming dance.

And after the game was over... dancing at the Community building.

The hundreds of area residents it wouldn't be Homecoming without pancakes before the game at the Presbyterian church.

THE NOVI NEWS

Serving a Growing Community Thursday, October 5, 1961

Queen Linda Lepper smiled prettily as she reigned over festivities at the Homecoming dance following the game.

The word for it is... "Masterful!"

"Superb" . . . "luxurious" . . . "beautiful" . . . "brilliant"—there are many words that might be used to describe the new 1962 Cadillac car.

But if we were to select from the Cadillac vocabulary the one word that most completely captures the essence of this latest "car of cars"—we would choose "masterful".

Every 1962 Cadillac will undergo more than 1400 inspections to assure its quality and goodness.

On and on the list could go? But however lengthy, that list could never replace the experience of inspecting the car and driving it.

In appearance, it is clearly a Cadillac masterpiece—graceful, clean-lined and elegant. In performance, it is a revelation. Its power plant is a reservoir of silken power—and the car rides and handles with an instinctive ease and sureness.

READERS SPEAK: Mentally Ill Children Need Help

To the Editor: Now that our own children are back in school, we should pause for a moment and consider the fate of the some 500 children in Michigan state hospitals for the ADULT mentally ill who are receiving inadequate education.

For example, close to home at the Ypsilanti state hospital a basement corridor is a makeshift classroom. The 127 children there not only have poor schoolroom facilities but do not have enough teachers. Under these conditions a 15-year-old boy with good learning potential may be dropped from further classroom education to make way for a 12-year-old who cannot yet read.

CITY OF WIXOM

SPEAKING for the Record

by Bill Slinger
Not many days hence Northville merchants will be celebrating the opening of Kroger's new supermarket facility. Shortly thereafter, A&P's new supermarket will be ready to take its bow for which local retailers will again express appreciation.

Local businessmen are naturally happy that two such strong customer attractions should settle in the established shopping district instead of an outlying site.

Even the most pessimistic merchant admits that with two modern food chains providing ample parking the customer traffic should increase. In other words, many wretches who have gone elsewhere to shop for groceries may now turn to Northville.

And while these new customers are here it follows that they will make other purchases in other stores.

With this thought in mind it becomes evident that some constructive and immediate attention must be given to the community's shopping district.

This is a job that cannot be accomplished by businessmen alone. The city government must, in fact, lead the way to general improvement of the community's commercial area.

Every businessman, whether he practices law or sells hamburgers, should be vitally concerned by the vacancies in the business district. What kind of a store will replace the corner dress shop, the jeweler that is quitting business or the building that will be left vacant when A & P moves into its new location?

Will these new tenants offer a service that complements those we already have? Will we gain a new-type business which may be badly needed and will help provide a more complete shopping center?

And what about community parking needs for the future? Then there are eyesores within the business district that city officials have cited for years that could be converted into constructive, tax and revenue-producing commercial areas.

Actually, the job of rehabilitating our shopping center has been made much easier by the rebuilding of our two super markets. But this is not enough. Actually, it is only a beginning for which our business and government leaders should be expressing gratefulness.

The job ahead must properly come under the broad authority of an economic development group — something, again, that officials have discussed but dropped.

More specifically, it is an assignment for a chamber of commerce.

It is already late, but not too late.

Leadership must come from the council with willing cooperation from the retail merchants association.

An aggressive program to promote proper development of our business district would not only preserve the community's largest single tax-paying category but would represent a definite service to the growing number of residents who look to Northville for its day-to-day purchases.

The automobile makes it too easy to look elsewhere.

Baby Investment

Babson Park, Mass., as I look back upon a long and active life I have come to an important decision. Furthermore, this is in connection with investments, of which I should have excellent knowledge; my entire life has been devoted to the study of them.

Babies are probably the world's oldest investment, having survived many thousands of years of wars, massacres, plagues, and revolutions, in many instances gradually becoming capitalists while the United States is gradually becoming socialist.

On the other hand, Russia is gradually becoming capitalist while the United States is gradually becoming socialist.

With a push from the government, I am even opposed to giving free industrial services, but some could be worked out whereby the family could get a tax reduction, directly or indirectly, on each baby born.

With the growing importance of babies, some investment should be connected with their birth and early years. To bring this about is a basic purpose of the Babson Memorial, in which I am much interested.

Pfaff Speaks At Meeting

William C. Pfaff of 24078 Glen Court, Novi, assistant to the secretary, assistant secretary and assistant treasurer of American Hospital-Medical Benefit and American Community Mutual Insurance Co. was speaker at last week during the annual sales meeting of the company. He spoke on "The Importance of Life Insurance."

The whole thing adds up to this: Don't let Michigan's modern life insurance industry be a subject for speculation by date revenue officials recently in how much the 4 per cent sales tax, which began Jan. 1, 1961, will hurt the sale of new automobiles in Michigan.

Revenue Commissioner James Lock reports that income from automobile sales taxes has dropped considerably in the last few months.

Lock says lower per-unit collections, because of the lower price of compact cars, has something to do with it.

Unless income hits the exact mid-point between Gov. John B. Swainson's revenue estimate of $774 million and that used by the legislature, $845 million, somebody will say "I told you so" from one end of the state to the other for the 1961-62 fiscal year.

Future for State's UP

Michigan's northern peninsula, despite all the talk about "depressed areas" and "chronic unemployment," is far from down and out.

There are five good reasons why it would be a tragic mistake to write off the area above the Straits of Mackinac as a kind of economic wasteland to be abandoned to a life based on government programs.

They are tourist trade, mining (farming, forestry and industry), and it would be equally foolish, of course, to refuse to recognize the hills that have come to the upper peninsula largely as a result of less demand for the products of its mines and forests.

Under federal regulations, the flashing red lights across the highway to flash both turn signals simultaneously while the regulations, are set out and taken in.

But Michigan law prohibits flashing red lights across certain emergency vehicles. Under federal regulations, the flashing turn signals may be red, but other colors between red and yellow on the spectrum are not prohibited.

Michigan law does not say anything about flashing lights of a color other than red. Therefore, Adams says, the federal regulation and the state law are in conflict. Carrying his reasoning a step further, he reaches the conclusion that trucks on Michigan highways must have amber turn signals.

A curious relationship between federal government regulations and state law means that trucks in interstate commerce, when used on Michigan turnpikes, must have amber turn signals.

Attorney General Paul J. Adams recently came to this conclusion in an opinion written for State Police Commissioner Joseph A. Childs.

Via a nifty course of negative reasoning, Adams arrived at the amber light middle ground between federal and state requirements.

Federal regulations require trucks which are disabled on the highway to flash both turn signals simultaneously while the regulations, are set out and taken in.

School's Budget Deficit is Bigger

Novi school board members learned last week that the previously predicted school budget deficit of $27,689 has been upped by nearly $1,000. Superintendent Tom Culbert told the board that the new deficit figure is $28,679.

He explained that enrollment figures, upon which both state aid and tuition payments to Northville school system are based, were not settled at the time his proposed budget was formulated.

The increased deficit represents mainly a larger number than was expected of tuition students attending Northville High school, he said. An additional $600 will go to pay for moving it back. The church is being moved to allow for a larger basement and an addition at the back, as well as remodeling on the front of the building.

Final enrollment figures include 786 students in Novi elementary and junior high school and 224 in Northville high school, he said.

Culbert also brought before the board a proposed policy of use of school facilities. He said he felt the policy should encourage local groups to use the school facilities for various purposes as well as making certain that there is no expense to the schools. He suggested that the policy should be formulated for groups that would charge no admission world $2 per hour for a classroom and $4 per hour for a multi-purpose room.

Educational and cultural activities not seeking a profit would have free use of the schools.

Groups that wish to raise funds would be charged $4 per hour for classrooms and $8 per hour for multi-purpose room.

A member of the school board said he should be present to open and close the school.

The board decided to hold off on the policy until the next meeting so that board members could study the plan. After the board voted to pay for the move of the church, it was determined that to be a fair speed, and they decided that it would be lowered more in the near future.

Culbert told the board that there are about 20 students in the Novi school who transfer to Orchard Hills classes between 15 and 20 minutes each, but they can catch a bus to the Novi school where they transfer to a second bus.

Board president Walter Ambinder pointed out these children were missing about 10 per cent of their classroom time, and asked that a report be made on the problem at the next meeting.

Ambinder also pointed out that the holiday season of the holiday season, he suggested that Culbert caution the teacher that state and national laws prohibit religious observances during school hours. He added that the students should be told why this is a vacation, but the humanitarian aspects of the holiday should be emphasized rather than the religious.

Board member Arthur Heiler said he thought Ambinder was "trying to take Christ out of Christmas," and added that he would like to see the law Ambinder had mentioned.

United Nations can meet to harmonize their differences and settle their conflicts by words rather than bullets. This is why many countries cannot be gobbled up, as long as the United Nations continues to exist.

And as long as the United Nations and the organizations of its 107 members can delay action by one nation which has consistently held to the doctrine of self-determination throughout its history, nuclear war can remain in a far off distance. It is over. The price for this security is costing each American 60 cents a year. This amount would only pay for ten hours of World War II.

Will you do your part on this day?
1. Remember the UN Day Family meal, consisting of international dishes.
2. Religious programs on the preceding weekend.
3. School participation.
4. Leave a light shining in your front window to express your thoughts UN We Believe.

Plan Dance Class
A group of Novi adults have formed a dance class, and have tentative meeting schedule on 10:30 p.m. on Wednesdays in the Novi school. They have not yet set the date for the first class, because they are not certain of having enough participants.

They ask that anyone interested in classes in ballroom dancing call Mrs. Duane Branch at GR 4-8087.

Truck Bids Take Long Discussion

Speed Timer Bill Won't Be Paid

The Wixom city council passed its fight against speeders. It signed for that equipment that would be paid for by Mayor Donald Brooks in what he termed a "back me up" bill.

Brooks had purchased the timer, while costing $1000, but the council refused to pay for it. He said he would be forced to pay for it himself.

The council also agreed to a request of Police Chief Leo DeGale for authorization to send local policemen to the Detroit Police Academy one night a week for special classes in law enforcement.

Wixom Wrestles With Street That's Not There

A new development showing that the plat had been executed to the land could be used for anything other than a road, and was not a public hearing on the proposed waiving of a non-existent portion of Wainwright street.

The council had expected to see the move without any objections, because it would be only a matter of time before the city would have to pay for the street on the 60-foot wide strip of property, and the property would revert to the land on which it was located.

The council then decided to postpone final action until the planning commission had had a chance to review the issue and make a recommendation.
