

SPEAKING for the Record

AN OPEN LETTER to Northville Merchants:
This message would be properly addressed to every business person in our community — retail, professional and industrial.

It comes not from this writer alone — but from numerous individuals who hold deep concern for the future welfare of our business center.

By all logic it would seem that this concern would originate chiefly from those among us who depend upon a thriving business atmosphere for our livelihood.

This is not true, however, it comes from elected officials and just plain residents equally aware of the importance of a shopping center as the hub to a well-balanced community.

They stand ready to provide both planning and financial assistance.

All that is lacking is an expression of enthusiasm and willingness to cooperate for those who benefit the most.

Past experience would indicate, however, that this enthusiasm does not exist in sufficient numbers among our businessmen to undertake a program that calls for two-party (city and business) responsibility.

Let's get down to specifics.

In recent weeks a parking committee composed of three representatives of the Real Estate Association and two council members has met to study the community parking problem.

Most important, this committee recognizes that there is a problem.

It knows that two of the most used lots in the business district are privately owned—and could be closed at a moment's notice.

It recognizes that additional ingress and egress must be purchased to the city lot when Methodist church plans eventually block the Dupont Street entrance.

It has looked closely at other key areas in the business district considered essential to proper development. In some instances condemnation has been proposed to correct conditions considered detrimental.

Committee members are also aware that parking accommodations for employees outside the central shopping area are also needed because these cars now take valuable shopper spaces.

They have also considered removal of all meters in parking lots combined with replacement of street meters with new machines and a program of strict enforcement on meter parking.

These proposals cannot be accomplished immediately. But it is conceivable under a three-to-five-year plan.

The council members on the program have pledged strong city financial support to such a program. They recognize the importance of all business interests and the threat of shopping centers to the order, established downtown areas.

It is proper, I believe, that the city should offer such leadership and financial help.

But it cannot be expected to undertake the program alone.

A united organization representing business, professional and industrial interests must guarantee cooperation. It should consider itself fortunate to have a city council that is interested in their problems to the point of offering heavy financial help.

It is impossible for any merchant representative on the committee to speak for such a group.

Today, for example, some $1500 is still owed the city for parking lot acquisition and improvement. Businessmen who worked hard to promote that project are unwilling to try again, "there is an opportunity for all business interests to join together and plan for the future — at a nominal cost in money and time."

Private interests — such as Kroger, A.P. Manufacturers and National Hardware and L.L. Edwards and L.L. Edwards have provided a giant stride forward with their improvements.

A united effort now — a funding in contribution a few dollars monthly in a fund that would be more than matched by the city — could solidify our business center, insure a prosperous future and serve notice to prospective shopping centers that Northville has beaten them to the punch.

Roger Babson Investing versus Gambling

Babson Park, Mass., 1 havelor stocks were selling abnormal prices for the day reading a remarkable book — "The Pictorial History of Wall Street" — 368 pages and 127 illustrations — this history shows clearly that the fundamental facts underlying investing during the past 170 years ago. (This is an anniversary of the New York Stock Exchange founded just 170 years ago.) Let me describe the facts.

(1) SAFETY and income come from careful selection and supervision of your investments. Profits come usually from "gambling": although your decline in investment will rise and decline in "value" along with the Dow Jones Averages. But big profits come from buying into new ideas, new discoveries, and scientific developments. To make the big money, read scientific journals rather than ordinary financial magazines.

(2) NEWTON'S Law of Equal and Opposite Reaction can be depended upon when the AREAS involved are properly considered. This was first noticeable when African slaves and gold were introduced. A study of quotations shows that the bond market is usually going down when the stock market is going up. Careful investors will hold bonds and stocks in a proper ratio varying according to conditions. For instance gold corporations bond can now be bought for 45¢ while the price of the same corporation stock is going up 25% or more.

(3) A STUDY of Wall Street history during the past 170 years shows that dips in the stock market and bonds in a proper ratio, without warning, until the stock value equals the bond value.

Village Prepares To Welcome New President

The usual position of village President Joseph Crupi will feature a new face next Monday, but only for a day.

W. W. "Bill" Case, Dundee village president, will be filling in for Crupi while the Novi head takes over his counterparts' duties in Dundee.

The event is Mayors Exchange Day of Michigan Week, and will find heads of township, village and cities exchanging with other community heads in a "let's get acquainted" move.

Put Library Millage On Township Ballot

The Novi township board Monday night placed on the ballot $10,000 in order to operate.

According to Supervisor Frazer Staman, the $10,000 would provide for one mill of tax for support of a public library.

Petitioners asked that the issue be placed on the ballot for a referendum. If the bond issue were passed, it would be a few cents extra on the millage rate, but would provide for staff and purchase of books.

But Hears Few Objections Wixom Airs 1963 Budget

In a relatively quiet public hearing last week the Wixom city council aired the $2,033,774, 40 budget proposal for the coming fiscal year.

There were more jokes than tears as the $2,000,000 budget was presented to a group of nearly 50 persons, and most residents were merely "consciousness observers" to seek information about the budget.

Longest discussed item was the largest proposed increase — the proposed $80,000 road building program.

Mayor Joseph McAlone explained that in formulating the budget, he allowed for rebuilding of Deck, West and Long Lake roads. He said the road construction would be carried out by contractors.

School Board Split, But OK's New 5-Mill Vote on June 28

A special election to ask for a five-mill vote increase in school operational taxes for the next five years was approved by three to two majority of the Novi school board last week.

Coming out of executive session just before midnight last Wednesday, the board set the election. The proposal would require voters to choose between a four and a half mill rate, and would permit the school to operate while paying $40,000 on the back deficit which has mounted up to over $51,000 in the past few years.

Four Enter Board Race

Four persons have filed nominating petitions for the Novi school board seats that will be voted on in the Nov. 11 election.

The candidates in the Novi township are Arthur Heslip and Russell Taylor. Heslip is currently serving as Novi's language program, lunch room supervision, teaching staff and to afford the full part of a normal school program on a balanced budget.

The new Novi township valuation was incorrectly reported last week's news.

The figure of $11,403,000 quoted as the assessed valuation of the township for the coming year was actually the figure for the year now ending. The new figure is $11,200,000, an increase of $457,000.

Don't Over-Protect Son

Dear Dr. Mudd:

"I have a 14-year-old son who is a very happy child. My father was very proud of me and I have never been disappointed. My father was very proud of me and I have never been disappointed. My father was very proud of me and I have never been disappointed."

Cadillac

No place to tell a secret!

Take it from us, you'd better not try to exchange confidences in a new 1963 Cadillac.

For the car is so silent in operation—even a whisper at the foot limit of the road—that even a whinner can be heard.

But while that wondrous quiet might make it difficult to trade secrets—it speaks volume about motor car quality and goodness.

For the silence of the Cadillac car is as unique as the circumstances that produce it.

Cadillac cars, for instance, are built in only one place—and they are built by men who build nothing else.

They are crafted to unbelievably fine tolerances. Some engine parts must be machined to an accuracy of one ten-thousandth of an inch.

They are styled so scientifically that wind noise is reduced to a lullaby—and they are constructed so well and insulated so thoroughly that outside sounds are virtually eliminated.

They undergo more than 1400 inspections in the course of their manufacture and assembly—and are then subjected to the most authoritative final inspection in the industry.

You ought to visit your Cadillac dealer soon and sample the results for yourself. And while you're at the wheel—listen to the eloquent quiet.

It's one more example of why only a car that's designed like a Cadillac and built like a Cadillac can ride like a Cadillac.

NEXT WEEK IS MICHIGAN WEEK
—May 20-26. What better time for each of us to learn more about our great state? Here are a few facts that you thought you might find interesting:

"INDUSTRIALLY YOURS" would make an appropriate sign-off for a letter to an out-of-state friend. Nearly all the different types of industrial operations in the country can be found right here in Michigan. Close cooperation among industry, our more than 200 industrial research laboratories, and our outstanding educational institutions has been a key factor in developing this industrial diversification. Working together, they continually explore new products, new ideas and new techniques—providing new opportunities for us all.

"SELF-SUFFICIENT" is the word for Michigan in food production. When it comes to variety of farm products, we're second in the nation. We're first in the production of many beans, pea cherries and cucumbers for pickling.
Michigan's modern farmers are busy farmers; more than 45% of our land area is agricultural. And agriculture is a big factor in Michigan's expanding economy. Our state's annual farm income is currently more than $750 million!

MICHIGAN IS VACATIONLAND—year round. Our many resort and sport attractions make Michigan one of the leading vacation areas in the nation. There's something for everybody's vacation fun here: water sports at our 11,007 inland and four bordering Great Lakes, snowtime fun at our more than 30 winter sports centers... not to mention hunting and fishing, for which we issue more licenses than any other state. More than $650 million was spent last year in our tourist, resort and travel business, and the figures should grow in the future.

Presbyterian Men Entertain Women

MORE THAN 200 members of the Presbyterian Men's club, their wives and guests attended the annual "Ladies' Night" program last Thursday for an evening of entertainment that included music, singing and comments by Judd Arnett, Detroit Free Press columnist. Arnett returned from Washington, D.C., just in time to appear on the program. He gave his listeners reasons for concern for the future of the United States in the world competition among nations. Arnett credited West Germany's rapid recovery to the working man and his willingness to work hard. He challenged Americans to "go back to work" or face serious losses to Germany, France, Italy and Great Britain. He warned his audience that it was time for "Americans to start worrying about Americans" and criticized our policy of "sending money" in an attempt to solve the problems of the world. Club President Philip Nunan was in charge of the program, while Ed Welch introduced Arnett. The men serenaded the ladies with a selection of numbers under the direction of Bill Williams (see picture below). Arnett is shown at the speaker's table (above). Seated (left) are Mrs. Nunan, Mrs. Arnett, Mrs. Welch and Donald Schweibemenn.

After a week's visit in San Francisco with Mrs. Frid's sister, they were finally winging their way to the Midwest. The nicest part of their trip was "getting home."

Home's Still Best After Global Trek

The Sidney Frids returned to their Northville home last month from a round the world trip that was more than a junket to glamorous tourist mecca. Their three-month journey gave them a panoramic look at people as well as places, say the Frids, and turned out to be a study in extremes.

By-passing the currently popular European itinerary — they saw many of the British Isles, Germany and France on a visit about eight years ago — the Frids plotted their globe-skirting route to include lands bordering on the Mediterranean Sea, India, China ports, Japan and Hawaii.

Basically, it was a planned trip with scheduled activities and free days. The Frids stopped at several ports dotting the Mediterranean. There they got the first glimpse of armed soldiers and battle-weary navies a sight that was repeated throughout the course of their trip. From Bombay the couple sailed to Hong Kong by way of Ceylon and Singapore. Ceylon, they said, was like the Delphi, India and came out on the less comfortable end of accommodations.

"I slept in what apparently were servants quarters that night," recalls Sid Frid. "No means plush, they did come out to the 'homes' of many Indians."

A Chinese woman prepared a meal of rice, fish, vegetable and some type of root in a small brazer in the hull of her floating home. Anched in the harbor with the village of junkies were all kinds of Red Chinese boats. To keep pace with the population influx, Hong Kong is experiencing a gigantic building boom, said Frid. "Women as well as men climb bamboo scaffolding to work on the construction." Most of the new buildings, he said, are simple flats to house the refugees. Meanwhile, his wife made housing available, those people are doing whatever they can to make their own shelter. Thousands of shacks dot the hillsides, said Mrs. Frid. The people, she noted, were using anything they could lay their hands on to build these shacks. "You'd see them threading their way up narrow paths along the hillsides, laden with armloads of wood and buckets of water." The Frids did little in parts of the mainland, but like all things Communist, they were not allowed to approach the Communist border. On shopping trips in Hong Kong, they were amazed by the trusting merchants. "Sid's always wanted to see Hong Kong," said Mrs. Frid. "He got lousy feet and thought he better see it before he got too old to make the trip."

New CAP Unit Signs 11 Members

Eleven area youngsters — 10 boys and one girl — made application Thursday night to join the newly organized Northville Civil Air Patrol unit. Major S. N. Domingue, Wall Lake group commander and organizational director for the proposed Northville unit, reports that meetings are now being held for the youngsters and adults are urged to attend the Thursday evening meetings.

"Our charter applicants are really enthusiastic," Major Domingue noted. He said that six of the youngsters have indicated an interest in attending the CAP summer camp. They will receive special advance training from Domingue to prepare for camp.

The youngsters have also sold some $200 worth of candy to help pay for their uniforms, Domingue reported.

"We want more youngsters — and adults," he stated. A local commander and education officer are needed for the local unit. Any pilot or navigator is qualified to teach the CAP courses using manuals provided, Domingue said. Interested youngsters and adults are urged to attend the Thursday evening meetings.

New Idea! Lot for Commuters

Northville may have inaugurated a "first" for suburban commuters this week. Perturbed by the untimely "commuter cars" parked in city lots, along the streets and on the grass along the South Main street entrance to the city, Mayor A. M. Allen set out to solve the problem. He found a friend in Charles Altman, Jr., owner of the Good Time Party Store on the Seven Mile road cut-off. Altman donated him of his property, directly across from his store. City crews leveled the lot and handed it over. Now the lot's ready and will accommodate at least 50 cars. "I think its good public relations," said the mayor. "And it also gets the cars out of the way."

Remember, They Fought And Died for Our Freedom

As commander of the Northville Veterans of Foreign Wars Post No. 4012, I'm prompted to write an inquiry: What has happened to Memorial Day? This day seems to have been forgotten. Here in Northville we are experiencing increased difficulty in arousing enough interest in parades or other observances of Memorial Day.

Prom-Shy Feilas Take Their Stand

The fifty questionnaires asked by Northville High School girls before the prom were returned with the most interesting answers. The girls were asked to name their ideal prom date, and the results were quite surprising.

Many of the girls named their own friends as their ideal dates, while others named boys from other schools. The questionnaires also asked about the girls' preferences for prom music and dancing.

SPEAKING for the Record

by Bill Siger
The years keep rolling by and soon it's time again for high school graduation.
Hundreds of thousands of youngsters the nation over will leave one plateau of life for another the moment they receive their diplomas.

No matter what follows—college, work, military service or marriage—never again will life hold the same mixture of experience that made for the happy routine of public school days.

This is not to suggest that richer, even happier days, do not lie ahead.

But at this new plateau, life becomes what one makes of it. And for most youngsters it means the first test of the training they have received at home and in school.

For many the transition will be smooth and uneventful; others will struggle but succeed; some will never leave the first plateau.

The youngsters will fall far from the high school days after a final word of advice from their commencement speaker. Annually, the responsibility and opportunity for such an address is accorded business leaders, educators, politicians and clergymen. And from their own experiences in the advanced plateau of life they set forth examples for the young graduates to consider.

Time-worn as the phrase may be, the future belongs to these youngsters and the reality of just how soon the future leads into the present, and finally the past, can never be felt convincingly.

It seems intensely important to me that at graduation time the commencement speaker review the basics of our American way of life—just to be sure they have not been forgotten in the complexity of learning and advancements of modern technology.

The formula is so simple that it is too often overlooked: integrity, honesty and religious conviction coupled with a willingness to lead.

I would add loyalty—to one's job, employer or employer and one's country.

The forces that would have us believe otherwise—that self as such ideas as old-fashioned—did not exist when the foundation of our great nation was created.

With the miracle of America would never have happened; and its future may well rest upon their influence on our June graduates.

Dr. Mudd Replies Which Man Shall I Marry?

Dear Dr. Mudd: This is one of those "what would-you-do-if" questions. I am a woman, alone. I have had a steady boyfriend for two years. He is a good man, but I have been going practically steady with a nice (very nice) man for about two years. But age last never been able to get to him, he is just about everything to me.

Should I go out with him? I know I would get to know him better. I know what a real man is like. I know what a "square" is. I know what a real man is like. I know what a "square" is. I know what a real man is like.

Dr. G. S.: Your first letter leaves so much of importance unasked that I shouldn't presume to suggest an answer to your question, much less tell you what to do. Only you can decide the question as to which side of the fence of life has the greatest grass.

Many people, out of naive ignorance, or mistaking enthusiasm for love, or the desire to be married, or a variety of other reasons, enter into a marriage partner relationship. Obviously no marriage is divorce from any single person. It is a relationship that should be entered into with a clear mind and a clear heart.

There is no evidence to suggest that two members of the same religious persuasion have any better marital survival rate than those of disparate faith. This is not so difficult to understand when you consider that no two people ever believe exactly alike in any matter save the broadest of general religious tenets.

"Dr. Mudd Replies" is written by a psychiatrist and is presented to the readers of this newspaper. The author remains anonymous, but his replies are traditional medical advice. All letters addressed to "Dr. Mudd" are delivered to him unopened for reply.

Michigan Mirror Con-Con Package Faces Opposition

The Constitutional Convention is running into the first signs of opposition to its proposed program. Plans are progressing to present the document to the people as a single unit in November, if possible. The Legislature is expected to have the final say on the package which may severely lessen its chances for approval.

Several organized groups attacked portions of the proposed Constitution before the convention took its third and final vote on the provisions. Supporters of the one package idea contend with some logic that the Constitution is a single unit and must be considered this way if government is not to become confused.

Experts believe citizens will vote for the package in a landslide. The Legislature is composed of 144 persons whose voting power has been demonstrated. The Civil Service Commission represents some 31,000 state employees. The State AFL-CIO employs many thousands of people. These three groups alone, each possessing a different provision of the package, are expected to call out many of the same troops who helped them win in 1960.

Roger Babson Some RR Stocks Attractive

Babson Park, Mass., investors are like flocks of sheep following a leader. It was not long ago that they were all buying railroad stocks. Now they are all buying stocks of the Babson Park, Mass., investors are like flocks of sheep following a leader. It was not long ago that they were all buying railroad stocks. Now they are all buying stocks of the Babson Park, Mass., investors are like flocks of sheep following a leader.

Without doubt the passenger-business of railroads is coming to a virtual end, except where subsidized by the Government. Short line railroads, which also lines subject to severe war competition. Certain of the great railroads, such as the Union Pacific, will still be profitable passenger business; but they are paying for the loss from their passenger service.

More Mergers Ahead
This is because if the automobiles and good roads had come before the railroads, only a small part of the present rail mileage would have been built. It is one thing to argue in favor of mergers, and it is another thing to argue with labor. Labor appears to have no regard for the nation's welfare.

The basic reason why investors should be shy of railroad investments is because of the altitude and power of labor. It is not only necessary to eliminate "rent-seeking" which even railroads have, but labor believes to be wrong; but labor insists on dictating as to mergers, passenger rates, pullman equipment, and even train schedules.

When you build a quality truck, the inclination is to run around asking users what they think of it. We do quite a bit of this. It's a funny thing.
