The following statements were made by a President of the United States. Can you guess which one? You cannot bring prosperity by discouraging thrift". "You cannot strengthen the weak by weakening the You cannot help the wage-earner by pulling down

You cannot encourage the brotherhood of man by enconvaging class hatred". "You cannot help the poor by destroying the rich".

the wage-payer".

"You cannot establish sound security on borrowed "You cannot keep out of trouble by spending more than you carn".

"You cannot help man permanently by doing for him what he should be doing for himself". The quotations were recalled by Frederick H. Mueller, ormer secretary of commerce, in an address made at the clamni banquet of Michigan State university engineers last October. The talk so impressed Mr. and Mrs. Wynn Wakenhut of Northville that they obtained a copy. The point of Mueller's address was that without profits, the economy of our country cannot grow. It is a sad commentary of our times that the words 'profit" and "employer" require defending and defining. Perhaps it is in part the fault of abuses, but I believe the condition has been aided by those who would have us believe that prosperity comes by eliminating profits. Mueller told his audience that every material good in this country comes as a result of profit — and then to unleash investments in new ventures - that he predicts will result in an increase in total tax revenue. The present administration apparently holds similar upts and has promised a tax overhaul in the peyr thoughts and has promised a tax overhaul in the next What form it will take - if it comes - and what its results might be are matters for the experts to argue. But every American should be proud of our free en-
