

SPEAKING for The Record

Charles H. Brower is president of Baeren, Barton, Durstine & Osborn, an advertising agency with a name that rolls off your tongue and a list of clients that adds up to one of the biggest, highest agencies in the business.

As head of an organization in one of the most fiercely competitive fields of our modern age, you'd hardly expect Brower to be classified as a "square".

But he'd be proud to be called exactly that. Speaking before the Illinois State Chamber of Commerce Brower challenged his audience to "dare to be square". His address was condensed in the April edition of Reader's Digest.

Using his creative talent, Brower makes some interesting observations. For example:

Back in our grandfathers' day, "square" was one of the finest words in our language. You gave a man a square deal if you were honest; you gave him a square meal when he was hungry; you stood for square rights when you were out of debt; you were square with the world and you could look a man square in the eye.

Now a square is a man who never learned to get away with it, Brower notes.

He's a boob who gets so lost in his work he has to be reminded to go home; a slob who still gets all choked up when the band plays "America the Beautiful"; a square, and strictly from Squaresville.

He doesn't fit neatly into the current group of angle players, corner cutters, sharp-shooters and goof-offs. He's hardened down with old ideas of honesty, loyalty, courage and thrift.

Brower sadly notes that our ancient disciplines have been abandoned as too stark for the poor feeble souls we are — and that our culture is loaded with youngsters who are hardly prepared for high school — and learning with our discipline has produced non-books thrown together by non-writers and paintings by non-artists who never learned to paint.

He points out that it is easy to prove that almost all our national heroes were squares — simply by thinking what they might have said had they not been squares:

Nathan Hale: "I give you now this British; are you trying to be funny? Do you know what they do with the spies they catch? I'll give you a new flash, chain. They hang them!"

Patrick Henry: "Sure, I'm for liberty. But we've got to be a little realistic. We're a pretty small outfit. If we start pushing the British around, someone is going to get hurt."

Paul Revere: "What do you mean — me ride through every Middlesex village and town? And in the middle of the night? Why pick on me? Am I the only man in Boston with a horse?"

Another Brower observation: a recent survey of school history books issued before 1920 compared with those issued since shows that Nathan Hale said "I only regret that I have but one life to give for my country" in 11 of the old texts and only one of the new; that Patrick Henry said "Give me liberty or give me death" in 12 of 14 earlier texts and in only three of 45 recent ones; and that John Paul Jones said "I have not yet begun to fight" in nine of the old books — and in none of the new.

It's noted by Brower that 19 of 21 notable civilizations perished from the evaporation of belief from within. Hopefully, he believes our country is going back to its old beliefs — in such things as ideas, pride, patriotism, loyalty, devotion and even hard work.

And he points to a whole new set of heroes — named Glean, Grison, Sheppard, Carpenter, Schires and Copper from Little Towns like Boulder, East Derby, New Concord, Mitchell, Ordway and Shawnee.

These lads apparently lived too far from the big city and grew up to be squares. For who but a square would volunteer his life for his country's good?

But the forces of conformity are still strong, says Brower. Too many of us are still sitting it out instead of sweating it out. Too many of us haven't got the guts to stand up and dare to be a square.

Seek New Ideas for Fairground Use

State Fair officials have a number of ideas for expanding the use of the Fairgrounds at Detroit, but they are looking for more suggestions. The State Fair Authority recently retained Oscar Stonorov, an internationally known architect, to design a site plan for future development of the Fairgrounds.

Walter A. Goodman, general manager of the Fair, emphasizes the authority will keep Goodman is now looking for other ideas which the architect can use in laying out the plan for the Fairgrounds.

Effects of the controversial Sunday Closing Law passed by the 1962 Legislature are just beginning to be felt in counties where it will be enforced.

Many County Boards of Supervisors voted to exempt their areas from the provisions before the enactment actually became law late in March. Court action led up enforcement in a number of other areas.

One of the more curious effects of the law came in the form of a bill introduced in the House and Senate this year. It was an attempt to repeal throughout the state was started even before it became law.

Russell Strange, a fourth-term Republican Representative from Clare, introduced the repeal bill early in the 1963 session.

Although his proposal died in committee, Strange said he thought the committee's decision was a wise one. "They told me they wanted to give it a year to run before making a decision on whether it should remain in effect," he said.

Support for the repeal bill appeared to be strong although the measure was not brought to the floor for debate. Indications were another attempt to eliminate the mandatory one-day closing will be made during coming sessions.

Failure of his proposals to regulate the trading stamp industry disappointed Atty. Gen. Frank J. Kelley, but he says he plans to renew the effort.

'Showplace' a Century Ago, City Hall Enters Northville History

EDITOR'S NOTE: This week for the first time in 119 years complete site hangs over the rooms of Northville's state city hall. Its walls have heard the joys and sorrows of the community's leading families; and later, decisions that were to determine the course of local events were reached in its chambers. Now it stands in wait, perhaps for two weeks, until workmen tear down that which was constructed in 1844. Margaret Silber, Record news editor, has written a history of the famous home. Her information was gathered from old Record newspaper files, the Northville Library and from Mrs. E. A. Chapman, Mrs. T. J. Knapp and Edmund P. Yerkes. Pictures, both old and current, appear on page one of section two.

That came this year 1963, the home was to be torn down to make way for progress. Northville city officials would be pleased to have the home of Mrs. Lapham as a landmark in the city.

Boy, 6, Hurt In Accident

A young Northville boy was injured in a two car collision last Thursday on Randolph street.

Six-year old Rodney Baird is in St. Mary hospital, Livonia.

According to police, Mrs. Pearl Baird of 408 Randolph street said she was backing out of the drive way when the car which she was driving was struck on the right rear side.

Driver of the car heading west on Randolph street was Paul E. Gregory of South Lyon. Police said that Gregory stated he was driving 15 to 20 miles an hour when Mrs. Baird backed out in front of his car.

The impact spun the Baird car completely around, said police, and the boy was probably thrown out of the car. He was riding in the front seat, police added.

Gregory has filed a complaint charging Mrs. Baird with failing to yield the right of way which caused a property damage and injury accident. Arraignment is scheduled May 6.

CAP Drills

Selected cadets from the Northville, Milford, Waller Lake and Pontiac Civil Air Patrol units have been practicing for the drill team competition to be held 1:30 p.m. Sunday at the Wonderland shopping center.

The cadets hope to take the state trophy from the Romulus squadron drill team, winners of the national competition last year.

FIRST MEETING at the temporary city hall was held Monday night when the city council met with the planning commission. Although other rooms are spacious, the council chambers are smaller than in the old building. Above (l. to r.) are Councilman Richard Ambler, City Manager Bruce Parthoff, Mayor A. M. Allen, Councilmembers Beatrice Carlson and Fred Kestor and City Attorney Philip Ogilvie. Councilman John S. Canterbury was unable to attend.

CONSTRUCTION BEGINS — A power shovel bit into the earth early Monday as construction of the long-awaited Salem school was launched. The new school is expected to be completed by fall. Watching the work are Architect James Madison and Contractor Paul Wallace.

Obituary

TODD M. RICE, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack E. Rice of 1800 Northville road, died suddenly in his home April 21. The baby was born March 18 in Wayne County General hospital.

His mother is the former Victoria Woodcox. In addition to his parents, he leaves a brother, Phillip Justin Rice, at home; and three sets of grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rice of Southfield, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Poff of Northville and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Woodcox of Northville.

Funeral services were held April 20 in Casterline Funeral home, 122 West Dunlap, with the Reverend Paul Carpio, pastor of the First Methodist church, officiating. Burial was in Rural Hill cemetery.

MRS. MAUDE L. HARMON, Mrs. Maude L. (Miller) Harmon, 31, a Northville resident for 29 years, died Sunday in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Shirley M. Beam of 18122 Norborne, Bedford. She had been ill for about a year.

Mrs. Harmon was a member of the First Baptist church of Northville. Born in Birmingham July 24, 1881, she was the daughter of the late George P. and Mary (Allen) Miller. Her husband, Harry, died September 6, 1954.

In addition to Mrs. Beam, she leaves another daughter, Mrs. Frances D. Kenney of Livonia; one cousin, Glenn Charter of Plymouth, two grandchildren and 12 great grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Wednesday in Casterline Funeral home, 122 West Dunlap, with the Reverend Robert Spaulding, pastor of the First Baptist church, officiating. Burial was in Rural Hill cemetery.

Appeal Board Airs Requests in Township

The Northville township board of appeals approved one request, tabled two and denied another at a meeting held last Thursday at the township hall.

The A. M. Thomson Sand and Gravel company was given permission to construct a small asphalt plant at their gravel pits at 4839 West Seven Mile road. It will be used to supplement another plant already in operation.

A request by Bruce McAllister to construct a house on Timberlane property owned by McAllister was denied. The lot is 208 acres in an area which requires minimum one acre lot sizes. The board noted that adjacent property was available to meet the requirement.

A request by Mrs. Marguerite Northup Young to construct a house on Spring drive property was tabled until proper dedication for roadway could be determined.

The board also tabled a request by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Geake, 4825 Eight Mile road, to construct a dog kennel. The property is presently zoned R-1-E and would require AG zoning to be permitted.

remodeling." After selling the property, she still tied to the village by relatives and friends, purchased another home at the southeast corner of Rogers and Dunlap. This she used as a summer residence for many years; spending most of her time in Charlottesville, Virginia, with her son and friends there.

When young Jared died some years later in Virginia, the widow sold her Northville summer home and took up residence permanently near the university until her death.

The William G. Laphams gone from Northville, Mrs. Edward H. Lapham termed it "the end of an era."

She lamented in her 1942 writings the "loss of those strong individuals of early days," adding, "it seems to me that they were not made in the same mould or with the same characteristics, unhampered by precedent or criticism."

State Safety Conference Appoints Blake Couse

The Construction Division of the Michigan Safety Conference announced in Lansing this week that Blake Couse, 4835 Nine Mile road, was appointed to its Executive Committee.

Couse, vice president of Walter L. Couse and Co., Detroit, serves as a co-chairman of the Division's Safety Education Committee.

The Construction Division, which functions the year around, met in Lansing today for "Construction Safety Day," an annual event held in conjunction with the three-day Michigan Safety Conference. It is one of the largest of 10 divisions in the Conference. Membership comprises 65 contractor trade associations representing an estimated 19,000 contractors throughout Michigan's construction industry.

The division is founded on the principle that safety education is the only effective and complete method for achieving workmen safety on construction projects.

Now see all that's new at your Chevrolet dealers

Try out all the things these bucket-seat Chevrolet Super Sports have going for you—extra-cost options like 4-speed transmissions, high-performance engines, Positraction axle, tachometers, the works—and your decision won't be whether but which.

There's the Jet-smooth Chevrolet Impala SS with all the luxury you could reasonably want, all at a reasonable Chevrolet price; the Chevy II Nova 400 SS, a car that can give any family more run for its money (gives you a break on upkeep, too); the turbo-supercharged re-engine Corvair Monza Spyder (nice, huh!); and finally, the sports car that inspired them all, Corvair.

Chances are you've got your Super Sport picked out already. If not, some warm spring weather, a country road, and your friendly Chevrolet dealer will help you decide, for sure!

Board instructed Mr. Ellison to procure prices on athletics. This motion was supported by Mr. Becker and carried.

VIII. Unfinished business: 1. Office Space - The letter from the Department of Public Instruction advised that there is no authorization in the School Code for a Fourth Class district to lease, rent or purchase an existing property for administrative purposes. It was decided that a letter should be sent immediately to the Department requesting that legislation be initiated in the current session of the legislature, if possible, to amend the School Code in this respect.

IX. New Business: 1. Administrator's Salary Schedule - Mr. Amernan had brought the Board a recommendation on this, but since it was moved by Mr. Lawrence that the report of the Treasurer be accepted. Mr. Shafer supported the motion, which was carried.

He's Learning to Fly

Staffer Sprouts Wings But Has 'Driving' Trouble

EDITOR'S NOTE: Just how easy or difficult it is to learn how to fly? To give our readers some idea of the fun, adventure and difficulties in learning to fly, Al Lubowitz, advertising manager of The South Lyon Herald, is writing a series of articles concerning his current experiences on the ground and in the air at the New Hudson Airport. Following is his first article.

"They everybody, I'm gonna learn how to fly! That was my happy and confident boast when I first announced the news to my friends. But now, seated in the cockpit of the Piper Cub with the controls in front of me, I wasn't so sure. Could I really learn how to fly this thing? I had heard that flying was fun and easy. I had laughed when my friends predicted I would never get off the ground. Yet, the lesson I had just started and already I had problems.

Talk about flying! I couldn't even drive the plane along the ground! Dismayed, I thought about what had happened. Bill McKinley, my instructor out at the New Hudson Airport, was demonstrating how to taxi the plane. Finally, he leaned back in the seat in front of me and asked if I was ready to try it. "Ready as I'll ever be," I said and swallowed hard.

"Good. Now put your hands lightly on the controls and feel the plane. I'll be right behind you. We taxied slowly down the runway. Following Bill's movements at the controls, I learned that the speed of the plane is regulated by moving the hand throttle.

To steer the plane you press the foot pedals which swing the rudder. The rudder is the vertical part of the tail. To go right, the right rudder pedal is pushed. To go left, the left one.

It's all very easy except that I'm used to driving a car. When Bill told me to try my hand at taxiing the plane, I switched over to my driving habits.

Before I knew what was happening, the plane was roaring across the runway toward a field. I stopped on what I thought was the brake which was actually the rudder pedal. This made the plane careen toward a fence.

Excitement made me push the throttle (maybe it thought it was the emergency brake) or something and the plane lurched forward even faster. Suddenly Bill grabbed the controls and the plane rolled to a stop. "Where are you going, Al?" he asked. I maintained a dignified silence. What else could I say?

Right then I realized that this flying business wasn't going to be as easy as I had thought.

I started to suspect that this was the case when earlier I had been listening to my "let low pilot" talking about mean sea level and circumlocution.

I hadn't even noticed when we'd left the ground. Already the cars looked like toys, the fields below like a patch-work quilt. I looked back and the airport was way behind us. The landing strip looking like a cowpath.

I looked at the altimeter. We were up 1000 feet. I was flying!

Rather Bill was flying. First lesson was just starting. First thing on the agenda was straight and level flying.

Straight and level flying sounds easy, but it's not quite for the simple reason that there's nothing under you to keep you straight and level. That's up to the pilot and how he uses the control stick.

The stick is fascinating. Right if I was hit to the left and the plane banks to the left. Push it forward just a jot and the plane drops its nose and dives. Pull back and the plane climbs. A fraction to the right and the plane banks in that direction.

The key to straight and level flying is NOT to push that stick a wee bit to the right or left. Turn out to the front or back. THAT is the secret! (Lesson two next week)

NORTHVILLE Telephone Lines
By H. J. WILSON, Manager

REGARDING THE PROPOSED SERVICE PLAN
A number of residence customers have asked, "What Detroit changes can I call free?" In most instances these questions have been answered by referring to the bottom of Page 11 in the new telephone directory.

The proposed super extended area service includes most of the west side of Detroit, but if you are to check what a given telephone number is in, you can refer to the directory. All telephone numbers in areas 1, 4, 5 and 7 are included in the new service plan.

Remember to vote whether you wish to keep your existing service.

THOUSANDS OF IDEAS for ways telephone people might do their jobs better! Where'd they come from? From Michigan Bell employees themselves, who submit their ideas through our Employee Suggestion Plan.

Since the Plan was introduced sixteen years ago, 7,000 ideas have been accepted and put into use. In 1962 alone, 500 operating improvements resulted from employee suggestions, ranging from such a simple thing as an improved wire clamp to a major improvement in pole setting methods. These practical ideas help us bring you the best possible service at the lowest possible cost.

LIVING'S AS EASY AS 1-2-3... with handy extension phones to save trudging, time and temper. A space-saving wall phone in the kitchen, for instance, makes Mom's chores lighter, her days brighter. Or a lovely Princess telephone in the bedroom gives privacy by day, protection at night. And the whole family enjoys added convenience with a space-saving family-room extension. Ordering an extension telephone is as easy as 1-2-3. Just call our Business Office, or ask the man on the telephone.

THAT is the secret! (Lesson two next week)

SPEAKING for The Record

By BILL SLIGER

For nearly 350 weeks now I've tried through the prose of these columns to attract and hold the attention of our readers.

I've tried humor, suspense, criticism and praise. Then after a particularly noteworthy effort (in my opinion) I'll casually sneak the subject into a conversation with one of my loyal readers on the chance that he'll want to tell me what a fine job I've done.

Too often the "loyal reader" doesn't know what I'm talking about — but thinks it would make a good subject for an editorial sometime.

Well, I think I've finally discovered the trouble.

Our type is too small. Like this Spotlight boldface.

Even this 10-point lightface is too difficult to read.

(You may not have noticed. And, as you can see, we've recently changed to have 9-point boldface to 9-point, like this for all our wide some contrast in our single-column news and want news columns, or to emphasize a point).

So now we're introducing 11-point, which like our 9-point, is from the "Corona" family of type faces.

We also have an 11-point boldface — but it's "Erbar", rather than "Corona", which we believe contrasts well with the lightface.

The 11-point will be used for all two-column material, for our cutlines under pictures, for "leads" into certain important front page stories, and for the weekly "Speaking" column.

So in the future (as one of my loyal readers has already said), this column may not be the most interesting you've read, but it will have the biggest type.

(If the 11-point doesn't work, I may have to switch to 14-point "Spartan", like this).

One of the best methods for increasing club membership that I've ever seen is currently being used by the Northville Jaycees.

It may be a little underhanded, but you can't argue with its effectiveness.

The club originally had 23 members when the membership drive began. It now has 18 new members. And number 19 is due to be signed up just as soon as Buzz Stone can find him.

Until he does, the outburst pictured below stays on his front lawn at 635 Horton.

Buzz Stone ponders his "problem house".

Buying in Florida

Babson Park, Mass. — I came to Florida 40 years ago when convalescing from tuberculosis (TB, not TV). I never got mixed up with the Florida boom as I then had neither ambition nor strength.

As this is the 40th anniversary of the beginning of the famous Florida boom, I want to invest that money in the stock of General Foods Co. or Coca-Cola Co. (which owns Minute Maid).

The young man who typed me showed me a check for $100,000 which he had received as a commission; he immediately bought a Rolls-Royce with the money.

Very few people actually saw any money, or even the property they "bought". They were content to receive a "purchase and sale agreement" which they did not bother to file at the Court House. They merely gave their note for the sales agreement; then they sold this at a profit to someone else, who, in turn, sold it to another party. A man could build up to $100,000 swapping one piece of paper for another. Finally the crash came, and the last party lost everything.

A portion that has appealed to friends of mine is Sanibel Island. A bridge to Sanibel is soon to be opened and a second bridge to Pine Island is under consideration. If prices have not increased too much in anticipation, seashore property on one of these islands might be attractive.

Sealed proposals will be received at the office of the Village Clerk, Village of Novi, 25850 Novi Road, Novi, Michigan, until 5:00 P.M. May 6, 1963. The bids will be publicly opened and read aloud at the Council Meeting which convenes at 8:00 P.M. of said date. The rates of bids for the different items will be noted for the construction of Bituminous Aggregate Surfacing located at Border Hill Road, Mill Stream Lane, LeBost Drive and Willow Lane, Village of Novi, Michigan.

The quantities involved in this work consist principally of the following:

6,911 Square Yards — Bituminous Aggregate Surface Course (2") and related items.

The contract documents, including plans and specifications, are on file at the office of the Village Clerk, 25850 Novi Road, Novi, Michigan, and at Johnson & Anderson, Inc., 2000 Dixie Highway, Pontiac, Michigan. Copies of the documents may be obtained by depositing five dollars ($5.00) with the Village Clerk or Johnson & Anderson, Inc., for each set of documents so obtained. See Upswing of Declining State Birth Rate Michigan's Birth Rate is bound to go up soon, according to State Health Commissioner Dr. Albert E. Heustis.

The 1962 birth rate was 182.45, the lowest since 1952, and the fifth consecutive year to show a drop from the previous 12-month period. The births last year were nearly 10,000 fewer than in 1961, Heustis said.

"Whether births continue to drop or remain on a plateau for the next few years anybody's guess. One thing is certain, however, they are bound to go up later," Heustis said.

The Health Commissioner's prediction comes from a look at most statistics of the state.

The majority of parents of babies born during the last few years were born during the 1930's and early 1940's, when births averaged around 29,000.

Within the coming five years most of the "War Babies," born from 1945-49 when births averaged around 29,000 per year, will be getting married and having babies of their own.

The newspaper you are reading now is an essential part of our free society although you might at first think of it as just a bill.

J. Montgomery Curtis, director of the American Press Institute at Columbia University, recently described the newspaper as "the most intimate, personal and effective form of communication."

Pointing to the New York newspaper strikes earlier this year, Curtis said, "the loss of a newspaper to a community leaves a vacuum that cannot be filled by any other means of communication."

Radio and television also contribute to the public's right to know. But both of these are immediate and not long lasting, said Curtis.

"When it comes to depth, television and radio just don't have the same impact as the newspaper," he said. "The (New York) strike proved this point. The loss of newspapers resulted in a decrease in department store sales, as well as in food store sales, auto sales, and the stock market activity," he said.

The Everglades should be avoided on account of mosquitoes and other insects. The most attractive area at present may be the West Coast south of Sarasota — including Venice, Punta Gorda, Fort Myers, and Naples.

The Division does not handle cases which can be handled exclusively by private counsel, but only those which involve a state question.

Deceptive or "bait" advertising, misrepresentations, referral sales and other deceptive buying, selling and leasing practices are the primary areas brought to the attention of the Attorney General's staff.

Most businessmen are honest and the exceptions hurt the majority as much as they harm the consumer.

This is one of the primary observations of the Consumer Protection Division of the Attorney General's office, which has been hearing complaints about these exceptions for nearly two years.

In this short time, the Division has processed more than 500 complaints involving frauds or cheats. The Division accepts only cases where facts show a violation of state law and a continuous pattern of operation sufficient to imperil the public interest.

Air Landfill Problem Before City Council

A petition brought a landfill nuisance problem to a head at Thursday's meeting of the city council.

Approximately 20 petitioners, residents of the 12 Mile road area, protested the unsanitary conditions near the landfill which is bounded by 1-96, 1-96 and 12 Mile roads.

The landfill is operated by Gus McCreehy. City Attorney Gene Schelz was instructed to contact the city health inspector, Lawrence Lamont. Together, they will investigate and advise the council whether legal action can be taken.

Gravance of the petitioners was aired at the meeting by John Thompson of 4829 12 Mile road.

"When I returned from the north half of the route between Indian River and the nation, has received another honor.

The 330-mile Ohio-to-Mackinac freeway has been cited as one of the nation's most scenic freeways. This marks the second year in a row that portions of the freeway have received such a citation from the Better Highways Information Foundation.

Both sections cited for their scenic attractiveness are in the Foundation this year.

State highway officials fully expect the section between Gaylord and Indian River, considered the most scenic portion of the entire freeway, stands a good chance for honors from the Foundation this year.

Thompson said, "my property was littered with papers. I picked up bushes."

He added that when the wind was blowing from the west, the odor was bad and that there was a very serious problem. "They dug a drainage ditch but there's no place for the water to go," he said. "It goes through a culvert under 12 Mile road and there it ends. The water's stagnant."

Mayor Wesley McAtee replied that in his estimation the landfill contract were being violated. He stated that he had been out to the fill and there weren't any dirt piles to cover the rubbish. They just dig holes, dump and fill over with the dirt they just removed, he said. And he added, they don't seem to be observing sanitary control.

Also referred to Attorney Schelz for investigation was the proposed purchase of the Truck property for future development as a recreation and park area.

Schelz will determine whether the parcel — as outlined in a plan submitted to the council — does include beach frontage. He will also determine the water rights.

The 23-acre parcel is located on the southwest corner of the intersection of 12 Mile road and 12 Mile road. The parcel as given at an October meeting of the council was 23.5 acres.

Mayor McAtee said that development of the parcel would take place in the future, but was the time to buy. He added that the value of the land through appreciation would be much higher in the future.

After hearing a letter from city Engineer Herbert Munzel and the explanation of DPW Administrator Robert Trumbley, the council voted $500 to repair Beck road.

Trombley explained that there were three bad spots on Beck road between West and 12 Mile roads. The road was damaged where cuts in the road went below the water table.

In other action: —Discussion of parking on the proposed widened section of Pontiac Trail through the Wixom business district was deferred until the next meeting. Reason given was that the Chamber of Commerce had not yet submitted a letter outlining desired parking conditions.

—Edwards Road Service of Detroit was awarded the contract for oiling 15,774 linear feet of roads in the city of Wixom. Cost of applying the 50 percent asphalt base road oil is 10 cents per linear-foot or about $2,000 for 20,000 feet.

—The council agreed to pay $73.25 to correct the traffic hazard at the corner of Beck and Pontiac roads as recommended by the Automobile club of Michigan. A street light will be installed free of charge with a rental charge of $2.50 to the city.

—The council voted to permit the police department to exceed its gas budget. Reason for exceeding the budget was an increase in the price of gas.

—The council gave formal acceptance to the $75,000 federal grant for road improvement.

—The council agreed to discuss a change of the bi-monthly meeting date of the council at the next meeting.

Novi Moms Slate Fair For May 11

Saturday, May 11, is the date set aside for Novi school's annual fair.

The fair, scheduled to run from 3 to 8 p.m. at Novi school, is sponsored by the Mothers' Club to raise funds for supplementary teaching tools.

Highlights of the day will include games and merry-go-round rides for the youngsters. Booths will include candy and cookie shops, ice cream parlors, gift shops and bake sales.

The Novi Friends of the Library will sponsor a special fire booth where they'll sell used library books. Proceeds will go to the operating costs of the library.

Rotting over Saturday's fair will be a king and queen election at a pre-dance Friday night for junior high students. The 7 to 10 p.m. dance in the community building is sponsored by the Junior High and its members. Dance chairman is Mrs. Don Kuck.

The fair will also feature a spaghetti supper from 5 to 7 p.m. in the school cafeteria. Chairman of the supper is Mrs. Floyd Darling.

General chairman for the festivities is Mrs. Fred Loyne. Assistant chairmen are Mrs. Orland Vannan and Mrs. Ward Warren.

Two School Seats On June 10 Ballot

Two school seats will be on the June 10 ballot.

As yet, no petitions for the three-year term have been filed in the office of Superior Judge.

Neither Dr. Walter Ambinder nor John Macdonald, whose terms expire this June, have indicated whether or not they'll file a petition for re-election.

Dr. Ambinder is currently acting as justice of the peace until 1963.

These wishing to file petitions for the two school seats will be at the township hall until 5 p.m. that day to take registrations.

Qualifications for the positions, as set down by the current board of directors, include a sense of a library's purpose and need in the community; ability to keep records, type, write letters and select library materials; and an ability to improve job performance.

The current board asks that applicants be between the ages of 21 and 60 years and notes that Novi residents will be given preference.

$1 an hour with the librarian working 20 hours a week; the assistant, four hours. The board notes that hours will be extended after September 1.

He noted the week that the Commerce Board's third annual parade should be the biggest and best ever.

Dyer said the board will be awarding prizes for the best float and the best decorated vehicle. He added, "Everybody's welcome to join in the fun."

Librarians To Retire

Novi's public library needs a new librarian and assistant librarian.

The present librarian, Mrs. William Paquette, announced last week that she and her assistants, Mrs. Neil Nichols and Mrs. Robert Robertson, will be retiring as soon as replacements can be found and trained.

The trio had originally taken on the library duties with the understanding that they would retire when the library obtained governmental support.

As yet, no petitions for the three-year term have been filed in the office of Superior Judge.
