Council Turns to Higher Court

Novi OKs 'City' Appeal

Court action over city incorporation will switch battlefields as the result of Novi council's decision to contest last week's ruling against cityhood by Judge William Beer.

By a unanimous vote, the council adopted the recommendation of its attorney and authorized an appeal of the circuit court ruling in the Michigan Court of Appeals.

The court of appeals is one step beneath the state's Supreme Court. In making his appeal, Bond indicated that he will seek "emergency" consideration. In other words, he will ask the court to consider the case immediately. He said he would file his brief in Lansing by Thursday and that he expects a decision by next week.

Because Circuit Judge Beer in handing down his ruling specifically mentioned that the incorporation election slated for April 4 cannot be held, it is significant that the council took no formal action to scrap the election.

Thus, while the council makes no stand in this area, it is no secret that backers of incorporation still hold out hope that the election will indeed take place as scheduled.

The Committee for Novi City incorporation, in voting Saturday to permit its attorney to assist Bond in preparation of the brief for submission to the court of appeals, indicated that it hopes a favorable decision will be handed down in time to reverse the Judge Beer's ruling and permit the election to take place. That's one reason Bond will ask for emergency consideration.

While attorneys have avoided criticism of circuit court actions, the boosters themselves are not so polite. Indeed, incorporation committee members state openly that the court acted unjustly, pointing out that two rulings of the court are in direct conflict.

They conclude that Judge Beer, faced with the conflicting opinions of Judge Charles Thornburn and Judge Arthur Moore, stood by the original judge's (Moore) ruling to permit the appeal rather than create additional court embarrassment.

Actually, Judge Beer did not hand down a separate ruling against incorporation for Novi. Rather, he upheld the original decision of Moore, who stated Novi could not become a first-class city because it does not have 500 residents per square mile as required under a state statute.

By doing so, he re-opened that case and permitted the appeal which the village will now make.

Subsequent to Judge Moore's ruling last year, Judge Thornburn upon petition by the incorporation committee ruled that an election could be held. It was on the basis of this latter ruling that the council voted to hold an election on April 4.

Novi's Mabel Ash

She Thrives On Hard Work

Editor's Note: Following is the first of a two-part story on the women responsible for the duties of clerk in the Village of Novi and the City of Wixom. The first article deals with Novi Clerk Mrs. Mabel Ash. Next week's story will concern Wixom Deputy Clerk Mrs. Donna Thorsberg.

In the village of Novi and the city of Wixom, perhaps no other person is more responsible for the image of the community projects than the woman behind the desk reserved for the clerk. Mayor, president and councilmen, while they may have differences, are agreed on one point: the clerk is an indispensable cog in the machinery of government.

Mrs. Mabel Ash, Novi village clerk and treasurer for about seven years, is a woman of many talents, a woman with boundless energy at home as well as on the job. "I spend an average of at least 50 to 60 hours working as clerk," Mrs. Ash said. "Last spring, when we had budget hearings and the election, I kept track for two weeks. I averaged 80 hours per week."

For Mrs. Ash, the heavy work load she bears is actually a matter of choice. "If I'm at home," the stout woman with the smile around her eyes said, "I'm working all the time anyway. Clerking is really an easier job than staying home — except for the frustration involved."

Work, in Mrs. Ash's eyes, however, is not always seen as work. "I've always been interested in people. I've always been in a lot of clubs. I enjoy working with people," she said, traces of a slow Kansas drawl still lingering.

Actually, Mrs. Ash, although she lived most of her life in Kansas, was born in Oklahoma. She came to Novi in 1959 when her husband, Ed, a Ford Motor company engineer at the time, was transferred to the Wixom plant. They settled in a house at 21666 Garfield road on a 60-acre plot of farmland where they still live.

The job was a natural for this energetic woman. She was the first woman president of the Young Republican club in Kansas. "I've known a lot of political figures and I've always enjoyed politics," she opined. Furthermore, she was a legal secretary for 15 years in Wichita, good preparation, she feels, for her present job.

At the same time, Mrs. Ash worked diligently around the home. She had an acre of garden ("my delight") where she grew strawberries, raspberries, onions, radishes, beets, beans ("of every kind"), cucumbers, muskmelons, watermelons and tomatoes ("running out of everybody's ears"). Fittingly, she cannot more than 400 points in the fall before beginning work for the village.

And naturally on a farm, there was a barnyard of animals, a condition that still prevails at the Ash farm. The Ashs breed Arabian horses, and presently have 16 registered Arabian horses. In addition, they have three dogs, five ducks, three geese, between three and four dozen chickens, a cat and a Shetland pony.

As one would expect of a woman like Mrs. Ash she took on additional duties to complement her interest in animals. She is a past secretary of the Midwestern Arabian Horse association, which includes six states. She was also show chairman for two years for the Michigan Arabian Horse association.

But the fascination of the job has drawn Mrs. Ash, like a magnet, ever closer to the village hall. And, naturally enough, she holds forth strong views on village government gained through intimate knowledge of her job.

One of the tasks Mrs. Ash feels is complicating her present duties is the dual government that the people of Novi support. "It's not a healthy situation in any sense," she explained. "People don't understand the difference between the two. This makes it awfully hard."

Mrs. Ash, however, sees an end to the present confusion. "We will have to become a city," she said. "We can't go on with dual government." And she doesn't anticipate any appreciable increase in duties should Novi become a city, since the village already has the machinery to implement the collecting of school and county taxes and handling of state and national elections.

Updating and combining tax roles of the township and village, in essence, would save much time, Mrs. Ash feels.

What does she envision for Novi within the next five or 10 years? "There's no question there will be great change in Novi," she said. "When people like Hudsons are contemplating growth, there's no doubt we will grow. We have hundreds of inquiries every week on plans, availability of land, water and sewers."

Disputes over the best plans for Novi's growth are bound to arise, and they do. But Mrs. Ash, who votes alertly by taking minutes, seldom voices her opinion, and steers clear of politics. "I get the urge a lot of times to speak up," she said, "but I keep my mouth shut most of the time."

"I serve at the pleasure of the council. As long as I do the job to the best of my ability, there will be no politics," she stated. "When friendships are used as the basis for holding a job, then politics are involved."

A typical view for a most unusual woman.

Burglars Hit Station Twice

Part of a screwdriver left at the scene of a burglary in Novi early Thursday morning led to the arrest of two suspects in Bloomfield township the same morning.

Investigating the break-in at Carl's Shell station, northwest corner of I-96 and Novi Road, Patrolman Robert Starnes discovered part of a broken screwdriver. Upon returning to the station he over heard a radio report concerning the apprehension of two suspects in Bloomfield township.

His information concerning the screwdriver was passed on to the sheriff's department and the other part of the screwdriver was found in the suspect's car.

The suspects, who waived examination and were bound over to circuit court to await trial on March 14, are Robert Donovan, 20, Detroit, and Robert Hix, 19, Dearborn. Advised of his rights, Donovan nevertheless confessed breaking into the Novi station and implicated Hix, Starnes said.

Early Tuesday morning Carl's service station was again burglarized, Starnes reported this week. This time entry was gained by forcing open the front door. A camera and a light meter was taken, he said.

Late Tuesday afternoon Flint police apprehended two suspects who admitted taking the camera. Novi officials learned the camera equipment was recovered, police said, but the names of the suspects who were picked up on a number of other thefts were not immediately known.

Council Ponders Sewers for CBD

The Novi village council pondered a new cure for pollution problems in the heart of Novi Monday.

Council members entertained the possibility of bringing sewers to the central business district to comply with a directive from the Michigan Water Resources commission. Issued last summer, it cited Novi for pollution of a storm drain that runs along Grand River.

Two systems will be considered at the next meeting of the council, when Johnson and Anderson, engineering consultants, are expected to present pertinent details.

One system calls for the construction of a sewage disposal plant and laterals to service customers in approximately a one-half square mile area around the intersection of Grand River and Novi roads.

The second method, and the one council members indicated they favored, is the extension of the county interceptor (from Nine and One-half Mile road to Grand River) and construction of laterals.

Actually, it was a sudden combination of events that brought the possibility of a sewer system for the central business district to light.

Violating property owners, Village Manager Harold Ackley said, were reluctant to build septic tanks, the remedy the council felt would first be adopted. Instead, Ackley said, property owners expressed the desire for a permanent sewer system.

Word from the Michigan Department of Public Health, stating that the state would approve of a sewage treatment plant, further encouraged the adoption of a sewage treatment plant as a means of resolving the pollution problem.

Since the plant would eventually be abandoned when the county interceptor was extended north, the council favored extension of the trunk line at an earlier date. Whether this can be done, however, depends on whether the county will grant Novi additional sewer capacity.

At the present time, the total number of connections originally purchased by the village, 2,930, "have been spoken for" by property owners south of 10 Mile road, Ackley said.

Specifically, Johnson and Anderson will determine whether the county will grant additional capacity and how much will be needed, the feasibility of a sewage treatment plant and expenses estimated of the alternative sewage disposal methods.

In other sewer matters, two steps were taken in an attempt to expedite construction of the Novi-Walled Lake joint sewer system.

The council authorized Village Attorney Howard Bond to request that the county draft a new sewer contract, containing three revisions approved by the council. It is expected to be presented at the next council meeting.

The council also called for a meeting of the city officials from Novi and Walled Lake to resolve details and to "determine the responsibilities" of both municipalities. No meeting date was set.

Three basic revisions, suggested by Bond, were approved by the council. Rather than payments beginning in 1967, interest payments will not begin until 18 months after construction has begun, and repayment of principle will be deferred perhaps as much as four years after construction begins, Bond said.

Bond explained that to start payments in 1967, as detailed in the original contract, would be placing a heavy financial burden on both municipalities. The year, 1970, was a more realistic date, he said.

A provision will also be included in the new contract, limiting the number of connections for Novi to 800 and for Walled Lake to 1380. Additional connections would be granted, Bond advised, only after the municipalities had agreed to do so.

The word "shall", which was formerly thought inadvisable to include, will remain in the contract, but the year 1970 will be included as the first date of payment, thus accomplishing essentially the desired end.

Yet to be determined, and a point which the council wishes clarified, is the exact distribution of the government grant-in-aid of $1,001,000. This must be determined, council members feel, before Novi can continue working out financial details.

In other matters, the council:

--- Moved to re-consider the rezoning request of Mrs. May Babbit and Dr. August Holcomb during a meeting with the planning commission on March 13.

--- Set April 10 for a hearing on necessity for road improvements on Seeley road.

Man Loses Leg Crushed in Wixom

A 21-year-old Farmington man lost his leg Wednesday after it was "badly mangled" in the treads of a bull dozer when the accident occurred around 2 p.m. Driver was Russell Fawcett.

Lyle Maloney was taken to Pontiac Osteopathic hospital, where his leg was amputated near the hip. He was reported in critical condition as of Friday.

According to reports, Maloney was working with a bull dozer that was clearing a road to haul out trees near the Spencer airport on Pontiac Trail when the accident occurred around 2 p.m. Driver was Russell Fawcett.

As Fawcett was driving along, he told Wixom police, he suddenly saw Maloney, who had been walking in back of the dozer, lying beside him. His leg was caught between the deck and the dozer treads. Fawcett said he immediately threw the dozer out of gear, but it was too late.

There was ice on the steel deck, Wixom Police Chief D'Arcy Young reported, and apparently Maloney hopped on the tractor, his rubber boots slipped and he plunged into the treads. "His leg was badly mangled," the chief said.

Quick thinking and prompt action by Fawcett, the chief said, saved Maloney from bleeding to death. Fawcett applied a tourniquet of string, the chief said.

A doctor subsequently treated Maloney in the field and rode with him to the hospital, Young stated.

Maloney, the chief was told, had been warned before not to jump aboard the bull dozer for fear an accident would happen.

Rotary Elects Robert Stiles

Dr. Robert Stiles, who last year opened a chiropractic office in Novi, was elected president of the Novi Rotary Club last Thursday. He will take over the office in July, succeeding Richard Bingham.

Others elected to the board of directors were Tom Dale, superintendent of Novi schools; Dr. Lyle Fetting, D.O.; George McCollum, owner of Novi Drug; Robert Metz, president of Inter-Lake Window Industries, Inc.; and Leo Harrowood, village councilman.

MAN ON THE GO—George Merwin of Novi, who probably has traveled more air miles than any other executive in the Detroit area, left again Tuesday on another trip to Europe—to visit, among other places, London, Paris, Luxembourg, and Geneva for Shelby American. Helping him with his coat as he prepares to dash for the airport is Mrs. Merwin.

3,000 Miles from Home to Office

This Commuter Really Commutes

When George Merwin kisses his wife goodby and heads for his office, it takes a little longer to get to work than it does his neighbor.

George Merwin lives in Novi's fashionable Brookland Farms subdivision; his office is in Los Angeles, California.

Perhaps as amazing as this "jaunt" to work is the fact that he spends less time in an automobile—his exciting field of business — than in an airplane.

The 44-year-old father of three children, is sales and marketing manager for Shelby American, manufacturer of sports road cars and racers. He has a staff of 28 people. Yet, he gets his paycheck from the Ford Motor company, which has "loaned" him and his talents to Shelby.

How did he come by this unusual job?

It's a long, disjointed story, admits Merwin, but one filled with more excitement than two or three others might have in a lifetime.

Born and raised in the Upper Peninsula, Merwin was the son of the editor of the Munising News. As a younger man he "knocked around" the world as a seaman with the Merchant Marines, as a civilian flight instructor for the Air Force (a job that found him balling out of a crashing plane on a couple of occasions and modifying the plane that dropped the atomic bomb), and as an artist, radio script writer and public relations representative.

Trained as commercial artist, he joined the Ford Motor company in 1949 (it was his second "hitch" with Ford because he had worked earlier with the company on the assembly line) as a staff artist. A couple of years later he started some sales promotion work with the company.

"In 1955 we were getting clobbered by Chevrolet. We had lost the performance image that Ford had had. So the decision was made that we ought to get in the performance end of the business. The boss wanted to do a movie and release it theatrically and they wanted me to go down to Daytona Beach and produce it—a 10-minute short called 'Thunder Beach.'"

The movie was a success, led to others, and Ford regained the image, he explains, "and from then on I handled the promotions of the racing." Most notable of his promotion stunts was the "longest left turn in history", a performance feat showing a Ford screaming around the Bonneville Salt Flats that won the company an award."

In 1957 Ford withdrew from the racing business in a pact with other automobile manufacturers. But when it became apparent that discontinuance of racing added competitors more than Ford, the company jumped back in with both feet.

Leaders of the new Ford racing group included Merwin, Jacque Passino, and David Evans.

With the performance of Ford in racing circles growing rapidly, Merwin got involved in some marine engine stuff, working with old Sam Griffith, the granddaddy of ocean power boat racing.

Heise-Krauter Speak Vows

Doris Jeanne Heise, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew G. Heise of Ann Arbor, became the bride of First Lieutenant Chris Allen Krauter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman J. Krauter of 373 Payson street, in a candlelight service at St. Paul's Lutheran Church on March 7.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors.

Mrs. William R. Heise of Ann Arbor, the bride's sister-in-law, was the matron of honor and Mr. David Janetzke of Lakewood, Ohio was the best man. Ushers were William R. Heise of Ann Arbor, the bride's brother and the brothers of the bridegroom, Ronald Birtles of Warren and Thomas Krauter of Northville.

The bride wore a crystal white lace dress beneath a coat of taffeta. The princess line toe touching gown was designed with a crescent curved neckline and long traditionally pointed sleeves. Tiny seed pearls accented the lace of her gown. The same lace was applied at the hem of her silken coat which swept majestically from Dior bows at the shoulders into a chapel train. The bride wore a French Tiara attached to her bouffant finger tip veil.

She carried a bouquet of white roses surrounded by red sweetheart roses with an orchid center.

The couple will leave from New York tomorrow (March 10) on the S.S. Constitution for a two-week Mediterranean cruise. They will reside in Heidelberg, Germany, where the bridegroom is stationed in the United States Army.

The bride and the bridegroom are both graduates of Eastern Michigan university.

Among the choir's soloists are Kenneth Steed, tenor, and Ronald Jeffers, also a tenor.

Two months from now the internationally famous glee club will begin a world tour which will include visiting the International Musical Eisteddfod in Llongollen, Wales.

Director Duey, a veteran of 5,000 radio broadcasts including coast-to-coast featured soloist, is president of the National Association of the Teachers of Singing for the 1966-67 biennium.

Delta Kappa Gamma To Meet Monday

Delta Kappa Gamma (teachers) will have a dinner meeting Monday, beginning at 6 p.m. at Hillside restaurant.

Mrs. Glenda Lee, registrar at Oakland Community college will head up the program with a talk on "Creative Trends in Community College".

In Our Town

By JEAN DAY

UNDER IGLOOS of snow and ice, our town's gardeners report, there are positive signs of spring. Crocus shoots have been detected by Mrs. Frank Whitmyer who is serving as tea chairman for the March meeting of the Northville branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden association.

The meeting is scheduled for 12:30 p.m. next Monday at the home of Mrs. Bernard Baldwin, 19810 Meadowbrook.

Mrs. Beatrice Carlson, Northville councilwoman and chairman of the Northville Beautification committee, will discuss the role the garden club might play in Northville's program.

In the past, as part of its community civic improvement work the club has planted evergreens and mums in Joe Denton Park.

Assisting Mrs. Whitmyer on the tea committee are Mrs. William Wiley, Mrs. George Kohs, Mrs. Gene Cushing and Mrs. Ernest Wood.

NEWCOMERS CLUB will welcome the first day of spring, March 21, with a coffee at 10 a.m. for which Mrs. Vern Lind will open her home at 18127 Shadbrook drive. Mrs. Kingsley Purton, club president, on behalf of the Newcomers is inviting all members and everyone new-to-town to attend.

Last Saturday evening more than 60 attended the club bowling party at Northville Lanes. The group afterward was invited to the Robert Cartwright home on Seven Mile road.

IT WAS MOM'S WEEKEND at Western Michigan university in Kalamazoo with several Northville parents being entertained by their collegiate offspring last Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brueck drove over to attend the Sunday festivities hosted by son Jim's fraternity, Phi Sigma Epsilon, at Holiday Inn. It was Mrs. Brueck's surprise (and delight) to find that it was Jim, a junior, who paid the official tribute to the mothers.

Four Northville mothers stayed overnight on campus to attend Saturday functions and the 15th annual sorority sing Sunday. Mrs. Duane Butler visited daughter Janis, a sophomore who is pledging Delta Zeta. Mrs. Rolf Batzer saw daughter Lisa, an active Delta Zeta, who has re-entered Western after visiting and studying in Hawaii. Mrs. Hiram Pacific was entertained at a tea with Gloria, a sophomore. Mrs. Aubrey French attended a banquet given by son Jerry's fraternity, Delta Chi.

Mrs. Clarence Luchtman also was on campus to visit her daughter, Gail, who is a sophomore.

Mrs. Butler reports that a high light of the weekend was Delta Zeta's winning the sorority sing for the second year in a row, a feat never before accomplished by a sorority.

THIS WEEK Mrs. Duane Butler's telephone is ringing with final town hall luncheon business. Speaker-reporter-writer Pegge Parker will be introduced next Thursday by Clifton Hill, Northville attorney and world traveler.

FOR THE NEXT three years Mrs. John F. Brown, 45730 Fermanaugh, knows what she will be doing on the first Thursday of each month. She has just accepted membership on the Western Wayne Planning division committee of United Community Services of Metropolitan Detroit for a three year term.

This division has responsibility for analyzing health and welfare problems of communities in the area and assisting in relating needs and services to overall community resources. There are four such divisions in the metropolitan Detroit area with the Western Wayne division meeting in Dearborn monthly.

Mrs. Brown was recommended for this appointment because she has an established reputation as a dedicated civic worker and has served in child guidance clinic posts.

NORTHVILLE SENIOR Citizens will hear a slide-travelogue on Norway at their program and business meeting at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in the scout-recreation building. Miss Elizabeth Beard will tell of her Norwegian experiences and show her slides. Refreshments will follow.

FORD DESIGNERS "think mink", Northville Woman's club members learned last Friday as Gail Halderman, design executive with the company's interior design office, told of the mink test given Ford car upholstery ... no fabric must catch or snag my lady's mink. They also learned that today's car knobs are designed for long-finger-nail protection ... and that the station wagon of the future can have a sliding glass partition to isolate the children!

Mrs. E. V. Ellison, president, presided at the meeting and announced plans for the annual meeting and luncheon March 17. She had just returned from a week's visit with her mother, Mrs. William Winger in El Monte, California.

Members interested were invited to attend the 16th annual Woman's Day at Crowley's March 20 under sponsorship of the Detroit Federation of Woman's clubs in which Northville is a member. Activities are to include fashion shows at 11:30 a.m. and 2:30 p.m. with tickets available from Mrs. Alex Nelson.

Legend of Sleepy Hollow

'Players' to Stage Comedy

"The Legend of Sleepy Hollow", a three-act comedy-with-music based on Washington Irving's classic tale of the gawky, superstitious schoolmaster of Sleepy Hollow, will be presented in two performances at 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. Saturday, March 18, in the Northville high school auditorium by the Northville Players Guild. Under sponsorship of the Northville elementary school PTA's the presentation is designed for elementary-age children.

The role of Ichabod Crane, the timorous schoolmaster who is one of the best-known characters in American literature, will be played by Edd Austin.

Others in the cast are Gary Webb as Baltas Van Tassel; Fran Bissa, Mama Van Tassel; Harlette Schneider, Katrina; Kathy Schneider, Gretchen; Steve Harrigan, Otto; Sue Harrigan, Sonja; Bob Schneider, Brom Bones; Ed Krietz, Peter; Stu Schiefel, Hans; Virginia Krietz, Maria; Gretchen Schneider, Wilhelmina; Bobbie Byrd, Anna.

Steve Harrigan portrays the pastor and also serves as narrator.

School children in the cast are Muriel Bedford, Kathy Bissa, Suzanne Evans, Barbara Wilson, John Forrer, John Kruse, Marty Loy and Rick Norton.

The play is under the direction of Dr. Hans Kolbe, who is assisted by Rita Sprenger. Others on the production staff are Gary Webb, stage design; Mary Seckler, properties; Harlette Schneider, costumes; Vivian McKeever, script girl. Dr. Kolbe is the pianist.

The audience is carried back to the days of Washington Irving as the play opens in the Van Tassel yard in October, 1795. The story and lyrics are by John P. Donaldson, adapted from the original in Irving's Sketch Book.

This relates how the schoolmaster is frightened out of his wits by a mysterious, headless horseman, the "Galloping Hessian of the Hollow," and is never seen again. The fair and wealthy Katrina Van Tassel then marries his rival, Brom Van Brunt, known far and wide as Brom Bones.

Tickets are 35 cents for children and 50 cents for adults. Mrs. A. B. Klien, PTA drama committee representative, explains that the price is kept nominal so that all area children can enjoy live drama. Tickets will be on sale at Northville schools and at the door.

SLEEPY HOLLOW FANS-Anxiously awaiting the Saturday production of "The Legend of Sleepy Hollow" by the Northville Players Guild, three eight-year-olds look over one of the posters announcing the special children's play. They are (l to r) Laurie Plumley, Barbara White and Josie Williams. A last minute scheduling conflict forced movement of the two performances up one week. The play will be staged twice next week Saturday, in the Northville high school auditorium.

Northville Grad Gets WMU Post

Sheila Sandrock, 1964 Northville high school graduate, has been elected treasurer of the University Student Center Board at Western Michigan university, Kalamazoo. Social chairman of the Board for the past year, Sheila assumed her new position early in February.

A junior in the department of social work, Sheila was on the dean's list last tri-semester.

Active in sorority circles, she is presently holding the position of Rush Chairman for Sigma Kappa sorority on the campus and is a March candidate for the Girl-of-the-Month Contest sponsored by the Association of Women Students.

Sheila is the daughter of Mr. Walter Sandrock of 950 North Center street and Mrs. Coy Sandrock of Livonia.

Arbor, the bride's brother and the brothers of the bridegroom, Ronald Birtles of Warren and Thomas Krauter of Northville. The bride wore a crystal white lace dress beneath a coat of tulle. The princess line touching gown was designed with a crescent curved neckline and long traditionally pointed sleeves. Tiny seed pearls accented the lace of her gown. The same lace was applied at the hem of her siletan coat which swept majestically from Dior bows at the shoulders into a chapel train. The bride wore a French l'aura attached to her bouffant finger tip veil. She carried a bouquet of white roses surrounded by red sweetheart roses with an orchid center.

A PITFALL FOR SHOPPERS

Looking for the lowest price difference on your next new car? Good. But don't mistake it for a low order price that may disappoint you.
 It's easy to do this since better than 50% of all new cars involve a wait for factory delivery. The dealer has the right to re-price for damage to your used car since the order was taken.
 It is a practice with quality dealers to make little or no change in original price. Trouble may arise if an unscrupulous dealer reaches to get an order from his competition with an inflated used car allowance he later plans to lower. He may claim excessive damage to the factory-fresh new car. Or he doesn't want to displease his family by further delay.
 The buyer usually pays the difference—sometimes as much as $200. He may be swayed by further delay.
 Common sense says that you should know your dealer, or his reputation for integrity, rather than buy on price alone.

Car Rams Tractor; Driver Hurt In Novi

A 32-year-old Novi man fractured his arm last week Wednesday when a car crashed into the rear end of the tractor he was driving, knocking him out of the tractor and sprawling onto Grand River.

John M. Whittle, 32, was taken to Botsford General hospital, Farmington, where he was treated for a fractured arm near the shoulder. He also suffered a minor leg injury.

According to Whittle, who lives at 45200 11 Mile road, he was driving his tractor west on Grand River just west of Taft road when a car driven by Norman R. Johnson of Wayne, plowed into the rear of the tractor.

The car, Johnson, 35, was driving was also heading west.

The tractor was total loss and there was extensive damage to the front of Johnson's car.

A 38-year-old Wilson man sustained lacerations of the face and arms February 28 as he lost control of his car when it reportedly hit an icy spot on Grand River east of Meadowbrook road.

William E. Truck 2015 Group, was taken to Botsford General hospital, Farmington, where he was treated and released.

He told police that he was driving west on Grand River at about 45 miles per hour. He lost control, police reported, and his car went across the center stripe, knocked down a road sign and came to rest in a ditch on the south side of the road.

A PITFALL FOR SHOPPERS

Looking for the lowest price difference on your next new car? Good. But don't mistake it for a low order price that may disappoint you.
 It's easy to do this since better than 50% of all new cars involve a wait for factory delivery. The dealer has the right to re-price for damage to your used car since the order was taken.
 It is a practice with quality dealers to make little or no change in original price. Trouble may arise if an unscrupulous dealer reaches to get an order from his competition with an inflated used car allowance he later plans to lower. He may claim excessive damage to the factory-fresh new car. Or he doesn't want to displease his family by further delay.
 The buyer usually pays the difference—sometimes as much as $200. He may be swayed by further delay.
 Common sense says that you should know your dealer, or his reputation for integrity, rather than buy on price alone.

Victories Escape Local Wrestlers In State Tourney

Northville failed to win a medal in the state wrestling finals Friday and Saturday at Lansing and the season is over.

But the gloom of defeat, according to Coach Jack Townsley, was dispelled by a "couple of bright spots" and a look ahead to next year.

"We gained a lot of tournament experience, which should prove invaluable as we go to do in the state titles — build ourselves up physically."

And with four of the six Northville entries in the state tournament returning next year, there's time enough to get prepared for the 1968 state tournament.

Only Tom Wright at 112 pounds and Dale Ashby at 145 will be graduating this year. Coming back for another round of season matches are Juniors Bob Baber (103), Chuck Keegan (95) and Marty Richardson (120), Curt Olewink (127), just a sophomore, faced two more years of varsity competition.

They will form the nucleus of a squad expected to improve on this year's record of 11-4, the best in Northville's wrestling history.

Now those "bright spots" in the state tourney that Townsley was speaking of...

Baber "wrestled beautifully" in winning his first two opponents by identical 4-0 scores, but the boom was lowered in the third match as Baber went down to a top-sided, 11-2 defeat.

Olewink, trailing 4-2 entering the final period, came from behind to register a 7-4 decision over "a real good wrestler" who was seeded first in the 127-pound class. Olewink was beaten by a hair, 3-2, in his second match.

Richardson's string of 19 victories

JV Girls Pace Novi Cagerettes
 The high-flying Novi JV cagerettes extended their winning streak to four games in a row with a smashing, 52-6, victory over Livonia Stephenson.
 Karen King led the local girls with nine points. Following her were Melinda Needham and Sue Geran, both with eight points.
 The Novi varsity girls finally found the winning combination and crushed Livonia Stephenson, 40-8. Leading the way with 15 points was Sue Primeau. Pat Ling had eight.

The eighth grade girls avenged an earlier loss by edging Dublin Junior High, 16-15. They scored 10 points in the first half and fought off a second-half rally.
 Beth Reid topped the local scorers with six points, followed by Maxine Farrah and Pat Wilkins, each with four, and Debbie Dale with two.
 Sue Boyer scored six points and Cheryl McMullan and Natalie Barn five apiece to pace the seventh grade to an 18-12 victory over Dublin.

Girls' Teams Post 2 Wins
 Northville's varsity and junior varsity cagerettes are in the midst of having winning records this season with only one game remaining.
 They will journey to Kingswood Thursday for games beginning at 3:30 p.m.
 The varsity girls are 5-2, and gaining a reputation for winning the close ones.
 They edged Livonia Bentley, 23-22, in what Coach Miss Pat Baber called a "team effort." The girls edged Bentley with South Lyon and won, 24-23, as Linda Simpson scored "clutch points" in the last minutes of the fourth period.
 It wasn't all roses for the varsity cagerettes, however. They lost a "hard fought", 27-20 game to Redford Union. Coach Baber pinned the defeat on Northville's lack of shooting in the first half.
 There were strong individual performances in defeat. Miss Simpson and Lynn Ekins were "standby", and Sara Bowen was tough on defense.
 The junior varsity's pattern of play was similar to the varsity. The JV's sport a 4-3 record.
 They romped over Livonia Bentley and South Lyon, beating both by identical 24-6 scores. Linda Wilson led the local scorers in both contests. Cheryl Gall turned in a strong performance on defense.
 In their most recent loss, the JV's dropped a double overtime thriller to Redford Union, 19-18.
 "The play of Sue Van Sickle was outstanding," Miss Baber said. She also singled out the good play of Forward Donna Bissa.

Kucher Takes Job As Cardinal Scout

Robert Kucher, Northville high school coach and teacher, recently inked a six-month contract with the St. Louis Cardinals, making him the chief scout for the Cardinals in the state of Michigan.

The contract runs from March 15 through September 15. Although Kucher is responsible for covering the state of Michigan, he will concentrate on baseball talent in the Detroit area, he said.

Scouting isn't new to Kucher, who was a "bird-dog" (part-time, non-contract) scout for the San Francisco Giants during the past season. "It was a learning type of experience," Kucher said.

Kucher will be signing up high school, college, sandlot and semi-pro prospects. "There's more emphasis on high school and junior college recruiting," the Northville said.

Kucher is beginning his seventh season of coaching high school baseball, three at Brighton and four at Northville. He is also the junior varsity basketball coach.

A graduate of the University of Michigan, Kucher lettered three years in baseball at Ann Arbor, where he played second and third base for Coaches Ray Fisher and Don Lund.

A native of Detroit, the high school geography teacher played basketball, football and baseball at Detroit Denby high school, lettering in all three sports.

He presently resides at 43796 Park Grove with his wife, Marie, and two children, four-year-old Gary and two-year-old Leslie.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest force on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither economic nor civilization can survive. There are four real reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: 1. For his own sake. 2. For the children's sake. 3. For the sake of the community and nation. 4. For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

What will the assay prove? Will the nuggets that spill so enticingly from the old leather bag spell the end of a search, the culmination of life-long hopes for sudden wealth and fortune? Or will they be iron pyrite, the fooler of men—disappointer of dreams? Only chemical analysis of the metal will determine its ingredients.

Sometimes our lives are like that. We fill them to the brim with the things we think mean happiness. And then along comes a blow—perhaps it is a failure of our own, or the betrayal of our trust by a loved one, or an overwhelming grief. Suddenly a life full of glittering trappings seems empty and meaningless. We realize that material possessions are comfortless and cold, without substance.

Spiritual analysis of life points always to God. His Church is the open door to the real treasure of life—the realization of God as the source of all affluence.

Few Pump for 'Reagan' Type Cuts

LANSING — Almost unheard in the news reports from Lansing are the voices calling for a "Gov. Ronald Reagan" type of approach to Michigan's impending financial difficulties.

There are a few legislators who are either strongly opposed to a state income tax, or proponents of cutting state spending, or both.

Senator Harry DeMaso, R-Battle Creek, used to be among these when he was a member of the House of Representatives. Now he is heading the move to get Gov. George Romney's income tax program through the Senate.

ESSENTIAL ARGUMENT of those who say spending can and should be cut is that many programs have become too big and must be cut down to size or eliminated now if ever.

DeMaso was most poetic about the need for economy in government; he contended that the barrel into which public funds were being poured had holes in it. Until the leaks were plugged there was no sense pouring greater amounts into the barrel, he contended.

This remains the contention of those calling for financial responsibility rather than fiscal reform and an income tax in 1967. This year, however, DeMaso is not among them and their voice is not quite as loud as it was when a Democratic governor was the one proposing an income levy.

ANOTHER GROUP has taken up the chant. However, this group does support the Governor's basic idea for fiscal reform.

It is using the spending cut idea as a hatchet over the heads of other lawmakers, threatening it will fail if they fail to accomplish fiscal reform.

Rep. George F. Montgomery, D-Detroit, has already prepared a number of resolutions which would affect some so-called economies in government if reform fails.

Montgomery would propose to maintain state employe pay scales at present levels and eliminate millions of dollars from the budget by cutting grants to schools and local government units.

UNFORTUNATELY, MONTGOMERY has chosen his targets for cut with specific design in mind.

A strong advocate of tax reform, Montgomery hopes publicity given his ideas for economy will bring forth a rash of public support for the income tax program.

He contends his economy ideas will be necessary unless increased public understanding, acceptance and support of reform provides "the encouragement necessary to assure favorable legislative action."

NEW COURT FEE SCHEDULES were adopted less than five years ago but already a proposal awaits legislative action to raise the cost of justice.

A number of legislators warned that the previous increase would cut court proceedings beyond the pocketbook of the "little guy." The funds were needed, however, to help beef up judges' and legislators' retirement programs and cover the increased cost of court operations.

Now, the new Constitution is dictating a major change in Michigan's court system which lawmakers say makes another fee hike an absolute necessity.

Revision of the state's lower court system, including elimination of justice of the peace offices, was called for in the 1964 document.

The proposal to implement this requirement provides for district judges, essentially by county districts, to replace all municipal, police, recorders and common pleas courts in addition to the J.P.'s.

Providing that the district judges be attorneys, a requirement not now imposed on practicing justices, the proposed legislation calls for the state to pay each judge $20,000 annually.

Districts could provide additional salary, as is allowed for existing circuit judges.

The state also would reimburse local government units for office space and furnishings for the new district courts.

With this amount of state money invested in the new portion of the court system, proponents contend increased fees are necessary throughout the judicial process.

THE UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN is having its day this year, and understandably.

Now in its 150th year, the gigantic institution at Ann Arbor is the oldest higher education unit in the state. It was established, in Detroit originally, by Michigan's Territorial Legislature in 1817.

In honor of the occasion, the present legislature has already held a session honoring the University. The Highway Department has placed a picture of U-M's Burton Carillon Tower on the front cover of its 1967 state road map, and the Secretary of State's office designated the maize and blue for this year's license plates.

Big, beautiful, nationally renowned and still growing, the University will mark just one sad point during its sesquicentennial year. President Harlan Hatcher has announced his intention to retire.

Even this loss is being viewed optimistically as a new president can mark a start of renewed growth and vigor for the institution.

Unions to Seek Bigger Slice Of Employers' Profits Pie

BABSON PARK, Mass., President Johnson has called for restraint in upcoming 1967 labor negotiations. But union planners are heading in that direction.

Workers want a much bigger slice of the profits pie, and labor leaders are going to do their best to get it for them.

The 3.2% productivity guideline that has been ignored since it was proposed during the Kennedy Administration was finally given the heave-ho. It was felt that each individual bargaining situation should be worked out in line with existing conditions.

Also, the President's Council of Economic Advisors said that it would not be excessively inflationary if wage increases were kept to around 5%. That's the non-official stand at present.

But even the most naive observer knows it would take a tremendous amount of resistance from management and more pressure than the government now appears able to wield to hold the line at or close to the 5% raise level.

EMPLOYERS should prepare for demands of at least 8%-10% in a great many activities. Union statisticians have been busy lining up their artillery, and they are going to use it. The bombardment will seem reasonable and worth serious consideration to many of the nation's employees, and union officials hope the drive for big wage and fringe-benefit advances will gain widespread popular support.

They point out that the new or reopened contracts should provide 3.2% pay gains just to cover the general productivity trend. Then they argue that raises should be given to cover the 3.2% living-cost climb of the past year.

And, for the final basic shove, they propose that another 3% or so should be included to cover the anticipated 1967 jump in the cost of living. And that represents a 9.2% boost in workers' board wages, not taking into consideration the inevitable demands for ever-widening fringe concessions.

Another bill would empower any peace officer to stop a person he "reasonably suspects" is committing, has committed or is about to commit a felony.

The officer could demand his name, address and an explanation of his actions. The bill would permit the officer to "search the person for a dangerous weapon" if he "reasonably suspects that he is in danger of life or limb."

A third bill would strengthen the authority of officers to combat riots or potential riots and the fourth bill would require children to remain in school until they are 17, instead of 16 as at present or until they have graduated from high school.

"I feel that the matter of keeping children in school until they are 17 is giving them good vocational training is also important as a crime-deterrent," said Senator Kuhn.

"This would make many of them more productive to society and would help keep them out of cars and off the streets where they tend to get into trouble with the law."

Our Legislators Report....

LANSING — Voting great concern at the rapidly rising crime rate in Michigan, Senator George W. Kuhn introduced a package of four bills designed to strengthen the hand of law enforcement officers in their battle on crime.

"Society must be given the same, if not better, protection as the criminal is currently receiving in terms of law enforcement and justice," Senator Kuhn said.

"It is the duty of every public official at every level of government to provide means necessary to protect the public from marauding criminals.

One of Kuhn's bills would make it unlawful to sell, give away or loan to any minor a knife with a blade more than three inches long and would prohibit persons under 17 from carrying razors, knives of any description or ice picks in schools or any public place.

Another bill would empower any peace officer to stop a person he "reasonably suspects" is committing, has committed or is about to commit a felony.

The Michigan Civil Service Commission is now accepting applications for several state jobs, according to State Representative Louis E. Schmidt for Northville.

Schmidt announced this week that a March 13 deadline has been set for submission of applications for various telephone operator positions and an opening for an environmental sanitarian.

The telephone operator jobs pay on a scale from $4,000 to $8,000. Salary range for the position as environmental sanitarian is $7,700 to $10,000.

A written examination for prospective telephone operators will be conducted for April 12. The sanitarian position does not require a written examination, but an oral appraisal may be necessary, and if so, applicants will be notified by the department.

Representative Schmidt also announced open competitive examinations for a student highway technician, with a pay range of $5,300 to $8,100. Applications for this position will be accepted by the Civil Service Commission until further notice. A written examination for the position will be given once a month on Saturday if the number of applicants warrants. Applicants would be notified by mail of the time and place of the examination.

Schmidt suggested that anyone interested in more complete information about the qualifications and salaries of these and other state employment opportunities should contact their local state employment office or write to the Michigan Civil Service Commission in the Lewis Cass Building in Lansing.

News About Schoolcraft

Schoolcraft college board of trustees has authorized the early retirement of $385,000 in construction bonds...

The bonds are part of a $2,435,000 issue sold in November, 1962, to finance the college's first building program.

The trustees authorized college officials to publish an official notice that 365 bonds, each of $1,000 denomination, would be retired on May 1, an interest payment due date.

The bonds to be retired are in two groups: one of 220 scheduled to mature in 1980, the final year of the issue, the other of 145 bonds, which are part of a group of 210 which were to mature in 1979.

This is the first opportunity the trustees have had, under terms of the bond issue, to retire any of the late maturing securities.

A Schoolcraft college student section of the American Institute of Architects has been organized on the campus under the sponsorship of the Detroit Chapter of the AIA.

The student section, with a charter membership of 31, elected Al Wajenback, sophomore from Detroit, as president, and named Bob Salmonson, Detroit, vice-president.

Other officers are Gary Pratt, Northville, secretary; treasurer; John Price, Plymouth, Student Senate representative; and Chuck Tobey, Livonia, publicity chairman.

Joseph L. Fishback, architecture instructor, is faculty advisor.

Delavan Sipes, electronics instructor at Schoolcraft, was the author of an article entitled "Physiological Effects of Electric Shock" published in a recent issue of the Michigan Industrial Education Society's monthly newsletter.

A poet, two operas and a classic Alec Guinness film will provide a varied cultural diet for Schoolcraft College students and residents of the college district during the first weeks of March.

The schedule of the campus creative arts series calls for a visit on Wednesday, March 8, of poet John Baines, performer of Mozart's "The Impresario" and Menotti's "The Telephone," by the Piccolo Opera Company on Friday, March 10, and two showings of the Guinness film, "Kind Hearts and Coronets" on Friday, March 17.

He will make two appearances on the campus on Wednesday. The first at 8 p.m. will be in the lower level of the Waterman Center, the second at 8 p.m., in the library.

Admission to all the creative arts series attractions is free.

Importance of Assessments

By BILL SLIGER
This week and throughout the month cities, villages and townships in the state are conducting hearings by the boards of review.

This situation now exists in Northville township and it will become even worse next winter when the factor becomes higher and homeowners with assessments near or at 50 percent find their assessed valuations multiplied by a factor near 1.40 - thereby jumping a $10,000 assessment, for example, to $14,000.

Top of the Deck

By JACK W. HOFFMAN
Dear Mrs. Hare:

Several indices of my acquaintance who are presently recuperating from severe cases of frostbite recently suggested a remedy for their annual discomforts and, being a kindly man with great concern for the welfare of my neighbor, I volunteered to carry their problem and the suggested solution to your charming doorstep.

Now Mrs. Hare, I have carefully weighed this suggestion and have determined that it has a good deal of merit and deserves your consideration. Permit me to paraphrase your position: "We agree that cars must have plates - it makes our cars safer, and, besides, without them they look naked. And we are perfectly willing to stand in line to purchase them, and we are perfectly willing to attach them to the automobile. But we object to the timing of this practice. We suggest instead (actually, they used much stronger language) that license plates be sold in the summer."

Statistically, here's what happened when the city reassessed its real property:

Speaking of Deceitful Packaging . . .

If you do not know the assessed valuation of your property, it might be worthwhile checking. The assessment does, after all, represent the basis against which tax millage is levied and therefore the amount of your tax bill.

For those interested board of review meetings are scheduled as follows:

- Northville township - March 7, 9 a.m. - 4 p.m., March 8, 3 p.m. - 10 p.m., March 13, 9 a.m. - 4 p.m. and March 14, 3 p.m. - 10 p.m.

'It's Time to Clean School House'

To the Editor: The time has come for action, not indifferent apathy as well as some answers to some rather disturbing questions. It is time for the so-called leaders of our community to stop talking about what they'd like to do, and do it. It is time for more people like "Citizen Glenn Diebert" to stand up and say something in favor of the few dedicated administrators left. It is time for more people like the "undisciplined citizen" to become indignant and defend the few decent, loyal, and trustworthy administrators that remain in the Northville School system. It is time for action and not the apathetic reply "I don't want to get involved. Things will work out."

It is also time for answers to these questions: 1) What happened to the petition that was presented to the Board of Education requesting the removal or forced resignation of the superintendent? What has become of it? 2) Why did the board attempt to refuse entry to the press? What are they afraid of letting you and the public know? 3) With all due respect to Mr. Becker, board president, why is he still president of the board when he was only to serve as a "compromise candidate"? 4) Why were the superintendent and the assistant given salary increases with planned increases for next year when Mr. Ellison was left standing in the cold? 5) Did such top notch administrators as Principals Fred Stefanski, Laine Quinlan and Keith Barkley, and assistant superintendent Dr. Kenneth McLeod leave for better positions or were there other reasons? 6) If a second petition requesting the removal or resignation of the superintendent were circulated would it meet the fate of its predecessor or will it receive attention? These are questions that many people here are asking in private and not receiving answers. They are public now. What are the answers? My hands are tied but yours and the adults of the community are not. The time has come for action not apathetic indifference. The time has come for people to face their responsibilities not forget them.

A LOOSE LEAF

Children are neglected. Usually, parents are the butt of such criticism, but it can validly be claimed of television that this medium, with widespread power to influence, has done little to constructively mold the minds of children. The exceptions are the presentations of Walt Disney, a man whose life was dedicated to entertaining, and more importantly, educating youngsters through television.

Explains Using Word 'Callous' For Volunteer

To the Editor: In the Record on March 2, 1967, I was reported as saying that the County was more callous than the Board with respect to traffic safety at the Moraine School.

Here's Bouquet

Thank you for the informative article on something worthwhile that our teenagers are doing in Northville. But please let me add a word about their leader, Mrs. George Schueder, who wasn't mentioned in the article. Mrs. Schueder has been solely responsible for the undertakings of the group. She and her daughter have worked tirelessly to make life more enjoyable for the patients at the Northville State Hospital. Under her direction, the program has been developed regarding recreational activities, food, preparing and transportation for the teenagers. Her daughter, Gail, has also had a large part in recruiting new members. I feel that everyone involved should have had their pictures in the paper, but you see, they are the information to the reporters, and being the kind of people they are, they forgot (?) to mention themselves.

VANDALS STRIKE-Novi Police Sergeant Richard Faulkner inspects part of the estimated $700 damage to one of the houses under construction in the Meadowbrook Lake subdivision near Meadowbrook and Nine Mile roads. Faulkner, who urges area residents to "keep an eye out for vandalism" as the days grow warmer, said 12 windows and a door-were broken between Friday afternoon and Saturday morning in the houses. In addition, studding and copper plumbing were ripped from the walls of the house, and a sign at the entrance of the subdivision was destroyed.

Whew! Winter's Almost Finished

Hog wash! The Farmers' Almanac failed to produce the big blizzard predicted for Monday. But no one, except maybe the die-hard ski buff and the operator of the Detroit salt mines, is complaining - certainly not area municipal leaders who were overheard this week discussing something about the Verbal Equinox and quoting Shelley, "If winter comes, can spring be far behind?" Come Tuesday and the official start of spring, one of the longest whitest winters on record hopefully will come to a screeching halt. Believe it or not, more snow fell two weeks ago than this - about 50 inches, and stillfellers (the boys who fill the ditches) are still talking about the Big Snow of '26 when 78-inches of the white stuff fell. Last year just 18 inches fell all winter. For municipal leaders there's a more accurate way to gauge winter's severity than in inches. They figure it out in dollars and cents or tons. Take Northville for instance. City Manager Frank Ollendorf estimates the city has spent about $15,000 for snow removal this winter - nearly double the $8,100 outlay for the big snow two years ago. That $15,000 adds up to nearly 300 tons of salt, give or take a few tons, dumped on city streets, plus a good many hours of time and a half for DPW crews, says Ollendorf, because "out-bid" snows this year came at night." This year, March 20, at the school beginning at 1 p.m. The school fair itself is slated to take place May 12.
