One Year Ago...
 Keenly contested races on the Republican ticket in Northville township attracted 49 per cent of the township's registered voters to the primary polls Tuesday. The ticket backed by incumbent Supervisor R. D. Merriam won handily.

Incumbent Novi Township Supervisor Rudolph Backer clinched another two-year term in Tuesday's primary election and thus spoiled his opponent's, Leo Harrawood, bid to hold township and village posts at the same time.

A 10-year-old Northville boy, Jim Weidner, suffered a fractured vertebra in his neck as the result of a diving accident in a pool in his home.

Detroit water was inching its way into Northville. Installation of a line from the Detroit main at North Center street and Baseline road to the city tower is presently underway.

Nine-year-old Dale Schwarz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Denis Schwarz of 48220 Rushwood Lane, won a role in the musical "Volunteers" at the Northland Playhouse. In all, 296 local boys, and a few girls, tried out for the four roles as fellow pickpockets and youthful companions of Oliver, the play's hero.

A fire which threatened a downtown Northville store, Lila's Flowers and Gift Shop, was quickly brought under control by the Northville fire department Monday evening. The flower shop had all but completed its move to a new location on Main street before the fire broke out.

A 100-acre Northville township site held for building this week as the possible location of a proposed $14 million community college that would serve Plymouth, Livonia, Garden City and Clarencville.

It will be Northville Night at the Downs Monday. Local businessmen and officials will be invited to be guests of the track for Monday night's races. A Northville Trophy will be awarded to the winner of a special Northville race.

More than 2,800 guests toured the Northville Ford Valve plant during open house ceremonies Sunday. Visitors were permitted to "browse around" and inspect all areas of Northville's largest industrial plant.

Ten Years Ago... Final plans for the new $2-1/2 million Northville high school have been approved by the board of education and an autumn target date has been set for groundbreaking ceremonies. The board hopes that doors of the modern, one-story structure designed to accommodate 650-700 students will be opened early in 1959.

Tom Edmondson Inc agency has set a sales record after selling more than 400 new 1967 Ford V-8's in little more than eight months. To deliver 400 new cars in eight months means that for every week day in that time an average of two shiny new V-8's drove through the doorway into useful service.

A new modern food market has been opened at 112 E. Main. The new store will carry complete lines of staple and fancy groceries. Two long freezer cases are used to display meats and dairy foods. Fixtures in the market are in black and white.

Over 100 toys are on their way this week to the Vincent Orphanage in Port-au-Prince, Haiti from the patients in the intensive treatment unit of Northville State hospital. The patients have been busy for the past two months making stuffed dolls and other toys.

Preliminary work on the long-awaited 250-home D&R Building Company subdivision near Baseline and Novi road appeared ready to get underway this week. According to John Robertson, city manager, the city would begin grading work on Novi street to prepare for curb and gutter installation.

The Northville curriculum study committee continued its work on a junior high curriculum last week by conferring with Northville elementary school principals, Richard Kay of Amerman and Harry Smith of Main Street.

Power-line telephone service which permits the transmission of six telephone conversations simultaneously over one line has been introduced for the first time.

Thongs crowded the spacious, tree-shaded lavas surrounding Maybury Sanatorium Sunday afternoon for the 11th annual Fair. Spectators were entertained by performers from the Roth-Burden School of radio and screen in Detroit.

A Northville father and son, Archie and Howard Niles, are driving at the Northville Downs. Both are prominent in the harness racing circuit.

Last Friday evening 46 young people attended the free movies at the library. The film "Arctic Passage" was shown and Mrs. Donald Ware, chairman of the program, said the audience was "fascinated."

At this date, all things point to the best Fair Northville has ever had. Already entries have been made in the stock and poultry departments, and keen interest displayed in the fruit, vegetable and woman's divisions.

The "quartet of death" - four beautiful young girls fresh from the moving picture lots of Hollywood - will be opening day feature at the Fair. In one of the most thrilling and death-defying numbers ever arranged the troupe of Mary Wiggins, greatest of all woman daredevils, will come speeding down the track on motorcycles at the rate of 60 mph and crash through four solid walls alive with leaping flames.

His wife, Ann, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norris J. Downing of Middletown, Ohio.

State Gives All Township Officials 'Bonus' Terms

Bonus terms of office have been extended to all township officers and trustees - thanks to a new act recently signed into law by the governor.

And it means nearly two extra years in office for everyone but justices of the peace.

Area township officials enjoying the "bonus" admit the law is a confusing one and probably will be distasteful to voters who want an earlier crack at their politicians, but it's nevertheless a binding law on all townships of the state.

Here's what the law does: - Abolishes "lame duck" sessions. - Abolishes four-year terms of trustees after 1972.

- Provides for a two-year election of all officials and, beginning in November, 1972, provides that all officers and trustees will be elected the same even numbered year.

It's not what Act 215 does that is so confusing but how it goes about doing it, officials explain. In trying to abolish the "lame duck" session, the legislature had to -

Extend four-year terms of trustees elected in 1964 to November 20, 1970.

Extend two-year terms of officers elected in 1966 to November 20, 1970.

Extend four-year terms of trustees elected in 1966 to November 20, 1972.

Thus, all officers and trustees, whether they were elected in 1964 or 1966 will enjoy an extra 18-months in office without facing election during the interim. It's a temporary bonus, however, and those officials elected in 1970 and every two years thereafter will serve 24 months only. The bonus affects only those terms now being served.

The "lame duck" sessions developed when the new constitution abolished the spring township election and called for it to be held in November along with other state and national elections. By conducting all of these elections in November, writers of the constitution hoped it would save local and state units of government tax dollars.

However, in implementing the new constitution, the legislature changed the election from spring to November but failed to also change the starting times for taking office from spring to November. Thus, officials elected in November, 1966 did not take office until April 10, - a five months lapse of time during which defeated or retiring officials continued in office.

Traditionally, these hold-over or "lame duck" officials are frowned upon. While not all officials may be guilty of mis-doing or inaction, some "lame duck" officials lose interest in their jobs or sometimes push for special measures or appointees in a "last-gasp" effort, leaving their handiwork for newcomers to undo.

Recognizing the problem inherent with the "lame duck," the legislature moved to change the time for taking office from April 10 to November 20. But to do so posed a tricky question - when to make the change? In 1964, the next regular election? By November, 1966, officers who were elected to two-year terms in 1966 and who didn't take office until April, 1967 would have served only 15 months - five short of their full terms.

The same would be true of trustees elected to four-year terms in 1964. The only solution, legislators concluded, was to temporarily extend the terms of those offices to November 20, 1970. Yet, even in this solution, there was a problem. What about trustees elected to four-year terms last year? By November, 1970 these trustees will have served only three years and seven months - five months short of their full terms. So an extra 19 months was added to the terms of these officials as well - finally bringing the sequence of election and the office into proper order by 1972.

Unlike other township officials and the trustees, the justices of the peace will serve only until December 31, 1968 unless their jobs are abolished earlier by the legislature.

The 1963 constitution ordered the legislature to abolish the justice of the peace system and adopt a state-wide system of lower courts within five years after the constitution becomes effective.

Time runs out on the JP system next year. The legislature will consider lower court reorganization at a special session in October so that the machinery can be created in time for elections in November, 1968.

Another provision of the new law extending terms of offices is the order that automatically requires the question of the four-trustee system to be placed on the ballot or to be voted upon in 1968.

BABY UNINJURED-Neither Mary C. Ehrcke of 729 Amenia nor her six-month-old son, were injured Friday when their car crashed into the porch at 1703 East Lake Drive. Novi police reported Mrs. Ehrcke apparently lost control of the car while reaching for a diaper. The car went off the road into a puddle, splashing mud onto the windshield and obscuring the driver's vision. The car barely missed a tree, knocked down two signs and 12-feet of fence and then ran up onto a tree stump, catapulting it into the porch. The baby, police said, certainly would have been killed or seriously injured had he not been strapped tightly in a car seat. One person had left the porch only seconds earlier and a second person was standing near it at the time of the accident.

So Does Rotary Jaycees, Wives Boost Gala Days

With their vitality and enthusiasm added this year it's bound to be a big success.

That's how Russell Taylor, president of the Novi board of commerce, sees his organization's upcoming Gala Days celebration in light of participation by the newly organized Novi Jaycees.

The Jaycees, made up of young men from the ages of 21 to 35, was chartered earlier this year. They reportedly are planning to have a gala dinner as one of their big projects of the year.

Tentative plans include a parade of vehicles supplied by major Novi businesses, five booths, and a pancake breakfast on Sunday, August 27.

In addition, although these plans have not been finalized, the Jaycees may sponsor display of a Nike missile and pass out diabetic test kits for home use.

According to Russell, several other organizations - in addition to the Jaycees - have indicated they will participate for the first time this year. Others who have participated in past years but not last have indicated they'll be back, he added.

One of the regular participating organizations, the Novi Rotary club, plans to combine its participation with the formal opening of the new public park located behind the First Methodist Church of Novi. Besides manning a booth on the Gala Days grounds (behind and beside Novi school on Novi road) Rotarians and their families will enjoy a picnic and a bottle of liquor.

Among other major highlights of the two-day celebration, slated for August 26 and 27, will be an Ox roast, a prize give-away.

8-Mile Development Gets Rezoning Okay

A major zoning decision was reached Monday as village councilmen voted unanimously, 4-0, to rezone the William Walker property from small farm classification to central business district.

The Novi property, about 100 acres, is located at the northeast intersection of Eight Mile and Haggerty roads. It is bordered by Farmington on the east, Livonia on the southeast and Northville on the south of Eight Mile road.

Proposed use of the land is for a multi-million dollar commercial shopping center, professional village, and hotel and apartment complex.

Final action on the rezoning was postponed during last week's meeting so that a legal description could be submitted describing a state proposed I-96 interchange.

Stephen Kessler, a highway department representative presented the legal description at Monday's continued public hearing on the property. The description asked that about 12 acres on the southeast portion facing Haggerty road be reserved for the department. Councilman Leo Harrawood asserted that the state highway department should buy the land from the owners at the time they were selling. He claimed the department had often failed to keep its word in the past and the description presented by Kessler was no assurance the department would seek this location.

"It's no more bonafide than a counterfeit dollar because they don't own any property yet," he said. He asked Kessler to verify that this location would be the one the highway department would definitely use.

Kessler noted that the department already had purchased property along this route and would finish purchasing the property June, 1968.

Village Attorney Howard Bond assured Councilman Harrawood at this point that the highway department would have to purchase the land at the time it was offered for sale.

Richard Gabel, an independent developer who had requested the rezoning along with owners Mr. and Mrs. Walker, was asked by attorney Bond whether he would agree that no buildings would be built on the area the highway department wanted for a specified period, and that the department would not have to purchase land at an increase price.

Price of the land could only increase if buildings were constructed on the area, Bond added.

Gabel agreed there wouldn't be anything built on the designated area for a period of up to two years.

Councilman Joseph Crupi inquired if the petitioner's, Gabel, provision for a highway in his map would be sufficient guarantee that no buildings would be constructed. Attorney Bond advised that a guarantee be put in black and white as part of the rezoning motion.

At this point, Councilman Harrawood stated that a motion to accept the rezoning request, with the exception of the area be set aside for the highway department for two years, be adopted, and Councilman Donald Fuller seconded the motion.

Several other matters were discussed during the meeting. Attorney Bond reported that the circuit court trial involving the city-incorporation question had been postponed until Monday, August 14 at 9 p.m. The trial, set for last Monday, was cancelled at the direction of the court itself. The judge needed more time to digest briefs concerning the case, he said.

DEVELOPMENT PLAN-Here's what developers see in the future for the historic Erwin farm at the southeast corner of Novi and 10 Mile roads. The parcel immediately adjacent to the corner is not included in the development.

Complex Blossoming In Novi Orchard

One of Novi's historical landmarks is slated for a face change probably in the near future. It's Erwin Orchards, corner of Novi and 10 Mile roads.

The 133-acre orchard is presently under option to Richard Gabel, an independent developer, who recently laid revised land study plans before the Novi planning board for its scrutiny. Gabel said that he developed the plan with Waldemar Johnson, village planning consultant, to hammer out details this week.

An industrial park is contemplated for 66 acres, stretching from the east-west center line east to the railroad tracks. Gabel said that 20 or more sites, to be sold or leased, are proposed.

According to plans, a vestige of the Erwin farm will remain. Owner James Erwin, who operates primarily out of South Lyon, will retain two and one-half acres and his fruit storage facility at the crossroads. Until actual construction begins, Gabel said, Erwin will also continue to farm the land.

Otherwise, sweeping changes will take place if and when the agricultural land is rezoned as Gabel would have it. The proposed Novi master plan calls for office research buildings on the west (Novi) road half of the property and industrial on the east to the C&O railroad tracks.

Around the storage plant, Gabel said he will request 30 acres of commercial use for development of a "small, moderate size convenience shopping center." Plans stipulate 240,000 square feet of commercial buildings and 1,750 parking spaces, with entrance and exit on both Novi and 10 Mile roads.

Adjacent and south of the shopping center, Gabel said, will be 11 acres for 60,000 square feet of professional offices, which will face on Novi road. There will be 300 parking spaces. Envisioned at the extreme southern end along Novi road is an apartment complex, to be developed on 25 acres. Gabel explained there will be 368 units and parking for 712.

"We've had a number of requests for three, five and 10-acre sites on a railroad," Gabel said. "This property is ideal."

Lack of sewers will present no problem, Gabel indicated. Septic tanks will be installed in such a manner as to permit easy connection with the proposed sewer trunk line. Johnson and Anderson, village engineers, is presently negotiating with the city of Detroit for additional downsize capacity, and furthermore, the village is also eyeing detention chambers as a means of increasing capacity.

Eying the trophy are (from left) Mrs. Kenneth J. Barnes of Riverview, Mrs. Richard H. Oldenburg of Garden City, and Mrs. Arthur R. Hempt Jr., of 46246 West Fanner Court, Northville.

Mrs. Barnes and Mrs. Oldenburg are region chairmen for the campaign, and Mrs. Hempt is Western Wayne unit chairman. The Torch Drive will be held Oct. 17 through Nov. 9 to provide operating funds for nearly 200 health and community services. Western Wayne captured the "sugar bowl" trophy during last year's campaign which raised a record-breaking total of $27,429.355.

Junior Gardeners To Display Wares

Junior gardeners, 5 to 16 years old, will have a special section to display their flowers, vegetables and fruits and floral arrangements at the "Flowers Internationale" Show, to be presented September 16 by the Northville branch, Woman's National Farm and Garden Association.

Mrs. H. J. Frogmer is planning an exclusive section for junior entries. All entries must be pre-registered. They will be judged by the same rules as adult entries.

Prize specimens of flowers, vegetables and fruits grown by young exhibitors will be displayed in the junior horticulture section. Mrs. Chris Kontos is consultant for this section.

A junior design section will be divided into two age groups, 5-10 years and 11-16 years, with Mrs. Fran Boor consultant for both groups.

Accessories may be added to the flower arrangements entered in the design section.

To help junior division entrants in their planning, officials suggest they

Carol Louise Werdehoff

Boike-Robertson Wed

In a double-ring ceremony held at St. Johns Lutheran church, Northville, on June 24, Janice Boike and Jerry A. Robertson were united in holy matrimony. The Rev. R. O. Frey officiated.

Couple Speaks Vows in Detroit

St. Eugene Catholic Church in Detroit was the setting for the wedding of Kathleen Farley to Robert Weinburger on Saturday, July 23 at 7:00 p.m. Reverend John Sullivan, performed the double-ring ceremony before the altar. "Decorated" with white roses and garlands.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Anne Farley of Detroit and formerly of Northville and Merle Farley of Brighton. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Weinburger of Houston, Texas, are parents of the bridegroom.

The bride given in marriage by her father was lovely in a white floor length gown of Peau de Soie with long lace sleeves and back. Her veil of silk tulle fell from a small cap of rhinestones and seed pearls. The bridal bouquet was of white roses and carnations.

Yvonne Flessner, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor, wearing a floor length pink chiffon gown with matching headpiece. Her flowers were pink and white roses.

Best man was Gerald Knapp of New Hudson. The ushers were the bridegroom's brother, Gary Weinburger and a close friend, Neil Jones.

Mother of the bride, Mrs. Farley, wore a conventional gown of beige silk with matching accessories.

Mrs. Weinburger wore an A-line dress of gold and brown printed material, with matching accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of white roses.

Five year old Lisi Weinburger, daughter of the groom, wore yellow organza with matching headpiece and a wrist corsage of white carnations.

A reception for fifty guests was held at the Knight's Inn on Seven Mile road, following the ceremony.

The couple spent several days in northern Michigan and Mackinaw Island, before returning to their new home on Pontiac Trail in New Hudson.

The bride is employed at Zimmer, Kellar Advertising company in Detroit and the bridegroom has a position with Standard Tube company also in Detroit.

The new Mrs. Weinburger is a graduate of Northville high school also attended Cleary Business College in Ypsilanti.

Mr. Weinburger graduated from South Lyon High school. Following his college graduation he was employed as a teacher in the Lyon township school system for a short time before moving to Texas.

Moms Plan Bridge Marathon

The fifth annual Bridge Marathon is now being organized by the Northville Mothers' Club. In addition to the usual marathon bridge play, duplicate groups will be formed for the first time this year.

All groups, regular marathon and duplicate, will run from September through May.

There will be mixed couples marathon play in the evenings and daytime play for women. If enough interest is shown an evening group will be formed for women who work or are busy during the day, officials said.

Rules will be the same as in the past. All new members who sign up to play marathon bridge will receive the rules of play and a schedule of the games well in advance of September play.

Each hostess will collect $1 per person. The proceeds go toward items for school needs. Last year the Mothers' Club gave $1000 to the schools for tape recorder sets with earphones, die plates for drafting, an overhead projector, educational paintings, film strip sets, language skill development records and library materials.

The club also sponsors the teen club, The Tavern.

At the end of the marathon, prizes will be given to winners in each group — $50 for first, $20 for second and $10 for third.

Committee members note that it's an excellent opportunity for participants, especially newcomers in the community, to meet people and have fun.

Persons interested in joining a duplicate group are asked to call Mrs. Blake Couse, marathon committee member, at 349-3069.

To sign up for the regular marathon, or for more information, they may call Mrs. Bernard Bach, chairman of this year's marathon, at 349-2309, or committee members, Mrs. Glenn Delbert at 349-0285, or Mrs. Donald Schwedemann at 349-1187.

Pause Here to Say 'Hello' Australian Campers Circle Globe

WHERE NEXT? Studying a map to determine where they'll go next are Mr. and Mrs. William Hussey.

Several months ago Mr. and Mrs. William Hussey sold everything they owned in Melbourne, Australia, and set out to tour the world in their English camper.

They began their tour in Toronto last December and have since traveled 26,000 miles across Canada and the United States.

Three or four more years of travel await them before returning to Australia.

Last Thursday they arrived in Northville for a day's visit with the Robert Cartwrights of 47100 Seven Mile road. The Cartwrights themselves are adventurers — they are from England but are living in America while Mr. Cartwright works in Wiscom.

The Husseys had time during their visit to tell the Cartwrights about their travels so far and the adventures that lie ahead for them.

The whole tour began when they decided to sell everything and "travel before we get too old. So many people wait too long." Having no children, they just said "here we go" and set off.

They've been on the go ever since. After picking up their camper in Toronto, they traveled to New York and along the East Coast.

In the next seven months they wind their way through the United States and Canada, visiting New Orleans for Mardi Gras, the Gulf of Mexico ("it was glorious), Arizona, California, Wintipeg for the Pan-American Games, Oregon, Salt Lake City, Wyoming, Alabama, Mississippi, the Smokey Mountains and Virginia.

All the scenery was varied and beautiful, they report, and every stop was wonderful. However, Mrs. Hussey claims it was Virginia that "captured my heart."

The Husseys have never been to America before, but in the past months they feel they have gotten to know America and the American people. They now believe America is a "wonderful country" and they were impressed with the "great warmth of the people."

DRIVE PRACTICE—Getting in a little pre-paper drive practice are (l to r) Judy Bogart, Pat Long and Mary Procter, members of Girl Scout Troop 209 which will hold a drive August 19-20 to raise money toward a trip to Europe.

Several key additions will mark the beginning of the year at Adrian, including a new four-year honors program, an ultra-modern language laboratory and the first full year of the campus' FM radio station.

Beginning with freshman honors sections in English, the honors program will include sophomore and junior interdisciplinary seminars and senior honors projects and papers. The language laboratory is scheduled for completion in late September and will include random access dialing systems to permit the student to obtain any language record or record his own voice while seated in his individual booth.

Total enrollment at the college this year is expected to reach 1,550, about 100 higher than last year. Adrian in recent years has not only grown in facilities (25 buildings added in ten years) but is becoming recognized by graduate schools and education leaders as a Christian liberal arts college of high quality.

Dr. John H. Dawson, who began his term as president in 1955, has become recognized as one of the Midwest's outstanding educational leaders for his work with the college.

The unfavorable image they read and heard about so often before coming here has proved to be false, they state. In fact, Mrs. Hussey says, "I just can't speak highly enough of the Americans."

She adds, "That's what is so wonderful about travelling — you get to know what people and countries are really like."

In comparing America with their homeland, they note that the "America of today is like Australia will be 40 to 50 years from now. Australia is becoming more and more Americanized, and we are now building skyscrapers and supermarkets. Australia is behind by many years, but in 40 years we will be much like America is today."

The compact camper that will take them all over the world is no longer in size than an ordinary car. It has "everything we need" in it, including a refrigerator, gas stove and sleeping facilities. As for gas, they average about 19 miles per gallon.

At night they stop in state and national parks or trailer parks, which they find far more enjoyable than staying at motels. "This way we get to meet and talk to the people. So far we've talked to many, many people about everything from politics to everyday matters. You learn so much from people."

Their enthusiasm for their carefree and lengthy world tour grows brighter as the months of travel proceed. Mrs. Hussey admits they gambled a lot when they left their home and security in Australia, but she happily claims the gamble has more than paid off.

She states cheerfully, "If you take a gamble like this, somewhere along the line you are just bound to benefit from it."

News Around Northville

The Northville Senior Citizens club will attend a Tiger baseball game in Detroit Saturday, August 19. The bus will leave the Scout-Recreation Building at 12:15.

PFC David Smith visited Mc parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rex Smith of 48800 West Nine Mile, while home on a 16-day leave. He returned Wednesday to Fort Hood, Texas where he is stationed with the U.S. Army.

Mrs. Jim Spagnuolo of Main street and her sister, Sister Helen of Saginaw, Michigan, attended a family reunion in Tibury, Ontario last Saturday and Sunday. Other family members who attended were Doctor and Mrs. B. Ballard and family, Mrs. C. Lemieux and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Key and family. It was the first time the family had been together in many years. Sister Helen took the plane to Denver, Colorado afterwards to visit another sister, Mrs. C. J. Stark.

Where's The Fire?

During the lightning storm last Thursday Mrs. M. F. Schell of 18307 Bomer looked out of a window and saw a cloud of smoke around her house. Alarmed, she called several neighbors to find out where the fire was.

When she discovered the fire was in her own backyard, she ran out and quenched her flaming clothes line with water from a tea kettle.

Lightning had hit a tree and then sparked the clothes line, sending a blaze of fire and heavy clouds of smoke along the line in both directions.

Two Local Students To Enter Adrian

Two students from Northville are scheduled to be in attendance September 10 when 550 freshmen begin the 123rd academic year at Adrian college.

They are Stephen Clark Lawrence, 417 Welch, and Susan Hugh Wisner, 18236 Edensberry drive.

Several key additions will mark the beginning of the year at Adrian, including a new four-year honors program, an ultra-modern language laboratory and the first full year of the campus' FM radio station.

Beginning with freshman honors sections in English, the honors program will include sophomore and junior interdisciplinary seminars and senior honors projects and papers. The language laboratory is scheduled for completion in late September and will include random access dialing systems to permit the student to obtain any language record or record his own voice while seated in his individual booth.

Coop Nursery Plans Opening

The Northville Cooperative Nursery will open next month for its seventh year.

The nursery has two teachers, Mrs. Glenn Delbert and Mrs. Francis Gaskay, who are assisted by several volunteer assistant teachers on a rotating basis. Administration of the group is managed entirely by the mothers.

Enrollment is open to 32 boys and girls from three to five years of age. School is held Monday, Wednesday and Friday mornings at the Northville Scout-Recreation Building on Cady street.

Anyone desiring information on the program can contact membership chairman, Cheryl Swaine, at FI 5-5682.

2 Boys Hurt In Car, on Bike

Two teenage boys were hospitalized this week with injuries suffered in separate traffic accidents.
Injured Sunday and hospitalized at St. Mary Hospital was Charles Dixon, 18, of 517 Langfield, and hospitalized at Botsford General and later transferred to Plymouth County Tuesday was Tim Edwards, 14, of 21202 Lajon. The Dixon boy is reported in good condition, and hospital personnel said the Edwards boy was "responding" Wednesday morning as they awaited results of X-rays.

Dixon was a passenger in a car driven by Mark Hesse of Novi, who told police he was driving east on Eight Mile road when a car pulled into the path of his car at Randolph, causing him to lose control. His car jumped the curb and plowed into two mounds of dirt. The driver was uninjured, but his passenger suffered facial fractures and cuts. He is to undergo surgery on Tuesday.

Attendance Off At Kensington

Attendance at the four major parks of the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority declined during the month of July compared with comparable figures for 1966 according to Kenneth L. Hallock, director of the five-county regional park agency serving the counties of Livingston, Macomb, Oakland, Washtenaw and Wayne.
Kensington Metropolitan Park near Milford had over 317,000 visitors last month compared to 454,300 in July of 1966, but below the record of 480,000 persons who visited the park in July of 1965.

Scopes Stolen At High School

Three microscopes, valued at $117 each, were stolen from the high school last week.
School officials report that entry was gained through the door of the science room by using glass cutters, knocking out the glass and reaching through to unlock it.
The microscopes were located in an unlocked cabinet.

Chuck Keegan Shines Summer Thinclads Wrap up Season

It opened fast and closed even faster - if you're considering times of thinclads who closed out the summer track program here Saturday with a competitive field day.

For Ralph Redmond, who has been supervising the track program as part of the community's summer recreation schedule, the success of the program has a double-barreled meaning.

It means a greater, more concentrated program next summer.

And, says Redmond like the cat that swallowed the canary, it means more good prospects for the varsity track squad he coaches in high school.

Looking ahead to next summer, Redmond says an attempt will be made to develop a sanctioned track club - affiliated either with the Michigan Track Federation association or the Amateur Athletic Union (AAU).

"Northville competitors represented themselves very well this year in Federation competition," he said. "They competed in six information meets held at the University and Lakeshore, Birmingham Groves, Cranbrook, Dearborn and Lakeview high schools."

According to the coach, the most exciting performance here last Saturday was turned in by Chuck Keegan, who excelled in all eight of the events in which he was entered.

In the long jump, perhaps his most exciting, Keegan was in second place until his final jump. His first went for 17' 9 1/2", his second for 15' 7" - good for second place - and his final effort, 19' 11" boosted him into first.

Keegan's been concentrating all summer, Redmond said, "on the dashes and hadn't given much attention to the long jump. He's confident he can do even better in this event with some work."

Paul Bedford in the junior division got off an excellent jump, taking first with 17 3/4".

In the pole vault event, Bruce Baughman came up with a "very fine vault" of 12' 3", and Tom Elias won the shot put with a toss of 48 feet.

Keegan, who had been looking for a good 60 yard dash race all season, finally came up with an excellent time of 8.5. He got off the blocks with a tremendous start and won going away from the rest of the competitors.

Jayhawks Clipped Twice It's Official! Flynn Cops Title

from the PASTOR'S STUDY

Reverend Arthur V. Norris
Willowbrook Community E. U. B. Church

There are many ways in which men can disturb and use the "status quo." Some ways are good and some are bad.

Amos of Tekoa, Jeremiah, Jesus, the apostle Paul, Telemachus, Albert Schweitzer, Mahatma Gandhi, Martin Luther King—all of these men have a way of disturbing people.

The Apostle Paul could be very disturbing. Repeatedly he would preach, and those who accepted his message became Christians. The others generally ran him out of town.

A major uproar occurred at Ephesus. The local merchants paid little attention when Paul appeared to be preaching a "personal gospel." But his attack on the false gods began to undercut the market for images of Diana. Then the image makers really became upset.

Telemachus was a very upsetting man. Gladiatorial combats had been accepted for centuries, and they were not generally regarded as wrong. But Telemachus became convinced they were not Christian. He traveled a thousand miles to Rome and there he saw prisoners in the arena cutting each other to shreds with swords and spears. The sensation-seeking spectators egged them on. Telemachus jumped into the arena, held up the cross of Christ, and pleaded with the gladiators to stop. But then a funny thing happened. The people felt a loathing for what they had done and left the arena. The Emperor caught this feeling, thought about the whole affair, and issued a decree banning such shows forever.

Amos was a very disturbing man. Amos, a poet and dresser of sycamore trees was called by God to proclaim words of doom to his people. Amos did not want to go, and likewise, the people did not want to hear what Amos had to say.

When Amos spoke words of doom against others, people were pleased. But then Amos spoke words of doom against Judah. Now the people were unhappy. Under Jeroboam II things were going well. However, the people had domesticated God. There was prosperity in the land and multitudes in the temples. Bluntly stated, their worship was a mild mixture of paganism. They had mistakenly felt that they could bribe God. Furthermore, justice and mercy had given way to greed and lust. People were willing to sell a man into slavery because he owed the price of a pair of shoes. It became the unpleasant duty of Amos to preach words of doom and condemnation.

We are disturbing people perhaps because God created us that way. But we do have a choice to make. We can be disturbing on the side of righteousness or we can be disturbing on the side of evil.

One thing for sure; we cannot shift the responsibility for the decision to another person. Each man has to make his own decision.

"Oh go on, Reuther wouldn't dare."

"Just wait 'til the next time he looks at my girl!"

"Hot dog! Here come the girls."

"Boy, those mini-skirts are getting shorter and shorter!"

"I don't care, we're not going to your mother's on our vacation."

"Really, Lady Bird. I don't think you should bathe Patrick in the pool."

"That's what I said—You've got bad breath."

"Boy, just two more points and I'm selling."

"Hey, you! Stop squeezin' the Charmin'."

"Aw, go on, I'll bet you say that to all the boys."

ACTIVE RETIREMENT

When Jack Sinclair retired, he took his wife on a holiday cruise. They'll be home next week, and I'm certain going to tell them how much they've missed here at the church.

Like all ministers, I need a lot of help from my congregation to make our church a happy, inspiring place. Sinclair and his wife are just two of the many older members that keep things running smoothly. I depend on them for good ideas, for experienced administration and, very often, for a wise approach to young people's problems. In return, the Sinclairs have often told me how important their church has been in their lives, and how they both enjoy being needed.

That's one of the great secrets of life, I think... to be needed. And there isn't a church anywhere that doesn't have a real need for "senior citizens" to help with God's work.

Ralph Swicke makes his money managing money. He puts his savings in NBD time certificates.

Ralph has to know how to manage money. It's part of his job.

Like many other professional people who deal with dollars all day long, Ralph invests his personal savings in NBD Time Certificates. And for good reason.

Ralph will earn five percent annual interest by putting $1,000 or more in time certificates. They give him the versatility of investing for specific periods, ranging from ninety days to a year. And, he has the option of having his interest compounded, credited to another account, or paid by check. He can even space the maturity dates of his certificates to provide a regular monthly income.

Ralph also has the security of knowing that his savings are in Michigan's largest bank.

If you've got $1,000 or more that you'd like to put to work earning five percent, consider NBD Time Certificates. They're available in certificate or passbook form.

You don't have to be a C.P.A. to see how it all adds up.

NOVI HIGHLIGHTS

Mrs. H. D. Henderson
FI-9-2428

Recently returned vacationers are Mr. and Mrs. Rex Smith. They spent one month and traveled 7,800 miles through the western states. Among places visited were Fort Hood, Texas to see their son, Danny; Grand Canyon, Petrified Forest, Painted Desert; then on to the Pacific Ocean following the shore line at Ventura northward, to the coastal redwoods and on to Oregon and Washington and the Glacier National Park.

Danny Smith, who has been home on furlough returned to his base at Fort Hood, Texas last Wednesday. While home Danny and his friend, Pamela Lash, were in an auto accident. Danny was uninjured but Pamela suffered a broken collar bone. Before going back to his base in Texas he gave a party for his friends and the neighbors. They had a buffet and had roasted corn and pizza.

On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brayman had a family gathering for 20 relatives honoring their grandson, Danny Smith.

Miss Pamela Lash and Mrs. Rex Smith visited Mrs. Smith's daughter, Judy (Mrs. Lewis Perry) in Williamson and her brother, Henry Brayman and his wife in Webberville one day last week.

Mrs. Ivah MacGavin of Gardena, California was the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Russell D. Smith of Lyndonwood drive all of last week.

Novi Country School's 24th annual reunion of pupils and teachers of the one-time East Novi School was held Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Erwin on Silver Lake road.

Sixteen former pupils and teachers, wives, husbands and guests enjoyed a co-operative dinner and spent the afternoon reminiscing about the days spent in the little schoolhouse formerly located just east of Novi on Grand River avenue.

Towns represented in the gathering included Pontiac, Ypsilanti, Detroit, Northville, Farmington, St. Louis, Mo.

Novi and Santa Rosa, California. Mrs. Harry Goring (Lulu Becker), Mrs. James Lapham (Jennie Engersoll) and Mrs. H. A. Boyden have served as officers and will continue to do so. The Erwins extended an invitation for next year's reunion, offering their home and spacious grounds again.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Klesner Sr. were at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Klesner Jr., at a birthday dinner last Sunday. The birthdays of Jeffery 2, Jim 8, and their father John Jr., which all occur the last week in July, were celebrated.

Miss Deanna Bellinger honored Miss Lillian Race at a pre-nuptial miscellaneous shower last Wednesday evening. The 30 guests present came from Milford, Northville, Redford, Livonia and Novi. Miss Race will become the bride of Robert Scates of Livonia, September 2 at St. Mathew's Lutheran church in Walled Lake.

During the absence of Rev. John Fritche, who is on vacation, the congregation has had the pleasure to hear Rev. Charles Danto, who is a perpetual deacon and member of St. Martha's Church in Detroit.

Faithful members were sorry to hear of the illness of Mrs. Mary Sturman, whose daughter Berta Nash, is still very ill at New Grace hospital in Detroit. Mrs. Sturman received greetings on her birthday Sunday from her church friends and many wishes for her quick recovery.

Items for the bazaar are needed. Would the lady from South Lyon who called Mrs. Poole to offer flowers for the church please call again and give her name and address. Due to the illness of Mr. Poole, who is now home and recovering nicely, the address and telephone number were lost. This offer of flowers was greatly appreciated and stamped where they were joined by the Wally Byam caravan of 300 trailers from Santa Rosa, California. All entertainment programs, dinners, etc. were planned by the caravan. The 300 trailer caravan went to Winnepeg, Manitoba, Canada where they attended the annual Pan-American games. The cooks were on their way to Ontario with the caravan when they heard that their son, David, was home on furlough from his base in the navy. They are asked to bring his own sack lunch. Beverage will be furnished. Transportation can also be furnished.

Church school will resume August 27. The W.S.C.S. will serve home made doughnuts and coffee. Doughnuts will be sold on the grounds, and coffee and doughnuts will be served in the community building.

NOVI BAPTIST CHURCH NEWS

Everyone is reminded of the Voice of Christian Youth Bob-Lo cruise on August 21. Special music and message will be provided by the Golden Trio. Johnny Shev, Frank Lehman and Royal Heirs. Tickets are available at the church office.

Camping program continues with three young people still at Camp Hiawatha - Sue Prater, Fred Smith and Steve Lorenz. Other young people leaving for Camp Barakat include Donna and Linda Lippert. Sandy Thomas is spending the summer at Barakat as counselor in the handcraft department.

Membership class is meeting on Sunday morning with Pastor Clark. Those in the class are Robert Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Logsdon, Mrs. Bruce Lucchese guests of Mrs. Lyle Fetting last Tuesday were Mrs. Jack Hanf and Mrs. Robert Anderson.

Mrs. E. C. Dutton of 24555 Borderhill road and her cousin, Dolly Smith of Ann Arbor returned home last Saturday from a trip to California where Mrs. Nancy Holland, came up from San Francisco and Mrs. Smith visited relatives in Anaheim.

E.U.B. WILLOWBROOK CHURCH

Rev. McCannan will again supply the pulpit during the absence of Rev. Norris. Plan to attend this service and hear his message next Sunday August 13.

Young people keep in mind Saturday, August 19 for swimming at Lakestide.

Leave the church at 11 a.m. Don't forget swim suit and sack lunch. Beverage will be furnished.

Why not plan now to attend Vesper services on Sunday, August 20 when Rev. Norris will be the guest speaker. Bring a picnic lunch and spend a few hours before the 7:00 service.

The program council meeting will be held on Monday, August 21 at 8 p.m. at the church.

HOLY CROSS EPISCOPAL MISSION

During the absence of Rev. John Fritche, who is on vacation, the congregation has had the pleasure to hear Rev. Charles Danto, who is a perpetual deacon and member of St. Martha's Church in Detroit.

Faithful members were sorry to hear of the illness of Mrs. Mary Sturman, whose daughter Berta Nash, is still very ill at New Grace hospital in Detroit. Mrs. Sturman received greetings on her birthday Sunday from her church friends and many wishes for her quick recovery.

Items for the bazaar are needed. Would the lady from South Lyon who called Mrs. Poole to offer flowers for the church please call again and give her name and address. Due to the illness of Mr. Poole, who is now home and recovering nicely, the address and telephone number were lost. This offer of flowers was greatly appreciated and stamped where they were joined by the Wally Byam caravan of 300 trailers from Santa Rosa, California. All entertainment programs, dinners, etc. were planned by the caravan. The 300 trailer caravan went to Winnepeg, Manitoba, Canada where they attended the annual Pan-American games. The cooks were on their way to Ontario with the caravan when they heard that their son, David, was home on furlough from his base in the navy. They are asked to bring his own sack lunch. Beverage will be furnished. Transportation can also be furnished.

Church school will resume August 27. The W.S.C.S. will serve home made doughnuts and coffee. Doughnuts will be sold on the grounds, and coffee and doughnuts will be served in the community building.

NOVI BAPTIST CHURCH NEWS

Everyone is reminded of the Voice of Christian Youth Bob-Lo cruise on August 21. Special music and message will be provided by the Golden Trio. Johnny Shev, Frank Lehman and Royal Heirs. Tickets are available at the church office.

Mrs. E. C. Dutton of 24555 Borderhill road and her cousin, Dolly Smith of Ann Arbor returned home last Saturday from a trip to California where Mrs. Nancy Holland, came up from San Francisco and Mrs. Smith visited relatives in Anaheim.

E.U.B. WILLOWBROOK CHURCH

Rev. McCannan will again supply the pulpit during the absence of Rev. Norris. Plan to attend this service and hear his message next Sunday August 13.

Young people keep in mind Saturday, August 19 for swimming at Lakestide.

Place, Mike Kahler and James Wilentz. Ladies are reminded of the Fall Retreats coming. They are available on September 22, 23 and 24 at Camp Barakat near Fairview, Michigan, with Bill Reich and the winning women retreat on October 13, 14 and 15 in Port Huron and Sarnia. The theme will be "In Times Like These," featuring special speakers Vera Pettit, Mimi Jane Johnson and Bill Reich.

The 22nd annual convention of the Michigan S.S. Association is scheduled for October 5, 6 and 7 in Cobo Hall. Speakers this year will include Dr. Merrill Unger, Dr. Bob Smith, Mr. Bobby Richards, Dr. Mel Johnson, Dr. Myron Augustberger, and Mrs. Ethel Barrett. Music will be provided by George Beverly Shea and there will be 125 workshops available to those registering.

Mothers who volunteered to go to the hospital for shopping August 10 were Myra Ward, Helen Burnstrum, Alma Klassemer, Eileen Webb and Margaret Fisher. Mothers who plan to go in the evening are Lillian Miller, Lottie Race and Laney Henderson.

The chapter agreed to get some numbered paintings 9 x 10 and wooden coat hangers and voted to get a portable TV for Ward 6-North.

They will have a bake sale on Saturday, August 27 last day of Gala Days and have on hand a few bazaar articles for sale.

On Tuesday August 22 the chapter members will have a noon picnic at the Veterans hospital in Ann Arbor. The menu has been planned.

Fifteen boys of Novi Boy Scout Troop 54, together with five adult supervisors, enjoyed a camp-out at Bishop Lake last weekend. The boys practiced for a planned Labor Day weekend canoe trip. Adults were Fred Gorietz, Lou Gombosi, Carl Rawley, and Bob Wilkins.

Any one wishing to help with the canning project for Southland Bible School may contact Mrs. Jean Evans whether it concern produce or supplies such as sugar, lids, etc. Those canning at home and planning to give a portion to Southland may bring to the church at any time and put in Flint Hall.

WIXOM NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ware
MA 4-1601

Mrs. Audrey Roach is spending one week in New York state.

The regular Wixom evening meeting was held Monday evening, August 7. Several preliminary site plans were submitted for subdivisions, multiple housing and mobile homes. The planning commission denied a request for mobile homes. Planners requested that Morell revise his multiple plans to provide a deeper setback to conform with the ordinance. The same is to apply to Heffer on his co-op apartments.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Waara and daughter, Freda, have returned from one week's vacation in Philadelphia, Mississippi where they visited with Mrs. Waara's parents. They also were in Atlanta, Georgia where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Jack Brown.

The Dr. Van Gieson family is camping at Proud Lake. The Merritt Marshalls camped at Proud Lake for one week. Mr. and Mrs. George Morris entertained their family, honoring their grandson, Robert Lem, who is going to Vietnam. Robert is in the U.S. Air Force.

Miss Mildred Gibson has returned from a week's trip to Toronto. On Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday Miss Ethel Farnam, Miss Mildred Gibson and Miss Eleanor Greiner spent a vacation in Harbor Springs.

Miss Mary Lowe of Garden City is spending a few days with her friend, Coleen Callahan.

Mrs. Inez Pepper was a weekend guest of her daughter's family, the Joseph Callahans.

Janice Hughes of Wixom road won the Presidential citation for physical fitness. Janice will be in junior high school this fall.

SPEAKING for The Record

By BILL SLIGER

While the thought is not one designed to win friends, one of these days city hall (in Northville) should take a second look at the accepted practice of drafting a budget.

Specifically, the council ought to make a better effort at living within its income of revenues minus anticipated rebates from the state based on the mutual handle at Northville Downs.

Not a popular thought, because this could lead to either reduced services or increased property taxes. Voters usually don't appreciate either of these alternatives.

Figuring a budget for the city of Northville is not unlike that of a salesman working on salary and commission; or a 40-hour-per-week employee who has been getting 10 or 20 hours of overtime per week.

The inclination is to start spending on the basis of your best commissions, or the highest overtime year.

Last year, for example, the city figured it would have income from a spring and summer meet - 25 and 35 nights, respectively.

Instead a strike wiped out the spring meet and with it more than $50,000 in anticipated revenue to the city.

The summer meet - 35 nights - was the best ever, possibly because harness racing fans had been deprived of 25 nights of betting and therefore spent more than normal at the abbreviated session.

In preparing the 1967-68 budget it apparently seemed logical to project another record handle during the season just ended, more than enough to make up for last year's loss.

But fate and the bettor decided otherwise. Instead of a five per cent increase in mutual handle (as predicted), there was a 3.4 per cent drop.

What's more, the track operated only 49 of the 54 scheduled nights because of the riots in Detroit and a cloudburst.

Based on the average nightly rebate to the city, the five-night loss cost about $15,000, while the drop in mutual handle compared to anticipated revenues cut off another $16,000.

With the city already entering fiscal 1967-68 with a $30,000 deficit to overcome an ole and hardack diet seems in the offing.

It's a case of the salesman's commissions falling off, or the hourly worker losing that steady overtime.

Before a contingent of taxpayers storms the city manager, mayor and council, it should be admitted here that the picture isn't as dark as one might conclude. The new budget (July 1, 1967 - June 30, 1968) makes provisions for the old deficit, and presumably can handle the latest unexpected site (probably around $30,000) in anticipated racing revenues.

But the $345,000 budget contains practically no provisions for public improvements. And sometimes emergencies arise, such as a relief sewer needed (and recently approved) to prevent basement flooding.

There are a number of things precarious about revenues from racing. Almost every year a legislator takes a shot at either reducing or removing entirely the rebates to cities in which tracks are located. The cities involved (Livonia, Hazel Park, Jackson and Northville) and their respective legislative representatives immediately claim that the rebates hardly pay for the maintenance of the tracks. They point to additional police needs for traffic control, waste and fire for city streets, and argue that property occupied by tracks is idle most of the year and therefore not revenue-producing, such as another year-around industry.

The formula for rebates is always open to review or change, the total mutual handle is unpredictable and the very existence of racing itself rests on the whim of its popularity and a permissive law.

Revenue-wise, Northville Downs has been a boon to the community. Without a doubt it stands as the single biggest reason for city incorporation. As a village, the community did not qualify under state law for rebates from racing. What other industry pays the city $150,000 annually - not counting its full loss of school and city taxes based on property valuation - for less than two months of operation?

But one day the state may call upon Northville to justify the receipt of these funds through an accounting of expenditures. Certainly the city has spent money to accommodate the track operation, just as it has numerous businesses. And it will spend more as (and if) the track improves its facility and provides for larger crowds.

It is this to be accomplished, city fathers must put greater emphasis on operating the city from revenues other than mutual handle rebates - namely, property taxes, other state returns, fees, licenses, special assessments, etc.

Presently, the city can boast that it is levying only 9.2 mills out of 20 mills permissible under law. This provides $174,000 in property tax revenues - roughly equal to the anticipated income from mutual handle rebates.

What kind of a crisis would the city face if, instead of losing only 25 nights, it lost a full season of racing?

Conversely, how would it answer the track if it were to announce a giant expansion that would require use of some of the state rebates to improve improved traffic sources or larger police forces? In other words, just the money that the state intended they should be when it awarded the revenue to the track-located cities.

Whether the father shouted or not, the coach had no right to penalize the boy, the team, or the father for that action. He, in fact, was taking a slip toward destroying a baseball tradition, and an American liberty.

Mr. John M. Sanders, 330 Eaton Dr., Northville

Before next budget time rolls around, it is hoped that a council committee will be appointed to work with the city manager and come up with a budget that "pretends" there are no rebates from betting.

Realistically, this might not be possible (who would advocate a 9-mill increase in property taxes?). But it could serve as a starting point for what eventually find Northville providing meaningful, long-lasting and completely unique facilities for its citizens in the areas of recreation, education, public services and utilities.

The Golden Egg may not last forever. It is hoped that if it is ever lost, there will remain something standing as a reminder that the "commissions" were not wasted.

Help! The Northville board of education wants suggestions for naming the new junior high school. Personal names not wanted - although one board member proposed a combination of the names of the two committees members assigned to the search - "Johnston's Orphanage".

He and his doctors call it "jungle rot," a sort of acute athletic foot disease that foot soldiers develop sometimes in spongy jungle swamps. Cal picked up his rot in one of our earlier wars and he has carefully nurtured it over the years so that it sprouts up annually like a persistent dandelion.

It comes and goes at his command. I've yet to see it hit him on weekend or during summer vacations. Muggy, rainy or cold, blustery workdays are a must.

We were friends for a year before I learned about his special disease. Naturally, the word was passed my way a few days after tramping the road from South Lyon to Northville in a borrowed pair of his ski boots. I went home and soaked my feet in vinegar for three solid hours. I didn't catch the rot but my feet were pickled for weeks.

"Don't worry," he assured me the next day, "it's the not-catching kind."

Even so I hopped around the Kern house avoiding his footsteps like a kid skipping sidewalk rocks. And when our two families got together for a camping trip one year I steadfastly refused to frequent the beaches with him unless either he or I wore shoes with thick soles.

I guess it was during one of the neighborhood clashes when his car first came under suspicion. The con-

There Goes That Pay Raise

Readers Speak Defends Fans' Right To Scream at Ump

To the Editor: Baseball has become a "great American tradition." Like our country, it holds the right to dissent as a basic tenet. Because of that belief, it has introduced into our language such colloquialisms as "Bronx cheer," "kill the ump," and "throw the bum out."

During a ball game here in Northville this right was challenged, not by an umpire, but by the coach of a young boy's baseball team. He took an excellent player out of a game while his team was seven runs behind with two innings remaining. Neither poor hitting, nor an error, nor fatigue was his reason, rather the lad's father was yelling too loudly in the stands. Later the coach admitted that he wasn't even sure this boy's father was the shooter.

Whether the father shouted or not, the coach had no right to penalize the boy, the team, or the father for that action. He, in fact, was taking a slip toward destroying a baseball tradition, and an American liberty. Mr. John M. Sanders, 330 Eaton Dr., Northville

Hospital Thanks Riot Volunteers

To the Editor: Members of our staff at Northville State Hospital certainly would like to take this opportunity to express our appreciation to those of your community who so readily came to our assistance during the recent crisis. Not only members of our volunteers groups, but many others came to the rescue in food and nursing services.

EDITH'S NOTE: This newspaper's readers' letters to the editor. We ask that they be received in this office by Monday noon for publication in the same week and that they be limited to 300 words. All letters must contain the signature of the writer, but names will be withheld on request. This newspaper reserves the right to edit letters for brevity and to avoid controversy or libelous statements.

Remembering his jungle rot, I guess we all had imagined him starting in some prison of war camp or tramping the swamps of some Japanese infested Pacific island. At any rate, we were ready and anxious for the worst.

"They were tough years," he said. "I was a radio mechanic in the Air Force."

"The Air Force! A radio mechanic!" I barked. "Were you a Commando or something? How'd you get the rot tinkering with radios or flying around in an airplane?"

"Oh, that. It happened while I was stationed at a desert airstrip in North Africa."

Disappointed and disillusioned, from that point on we suspected the validity of his rot.

It suddenly occurred to us that we'd never really seen the evidence - only his feet propped up and carefully clothed in medicated socks or old bedsheet strips. So the next time the rot struck, we sneaked around his house trying to catch him with his socks off. Our investigation disclosed some interesting aspects of the Kern household, but try as hard as we could his naked feet escaped us.

During the off-season when the rot was hibernating, Cal flaunted his ob-

A LOOSE LEAF

By ROLLY PETERSON

Baseball has Ruth and Gehrig, ballet has Nureyev and Fontaine, pop has Steve and Edie, rock has Sonny and Cher, football has Isbell and Hudson, newshounds have David and Chet, Northville has the Orange and Black, golf has Sneed and Hogan and disc jockeys? They have J. P. and Jimmy, two of the smoothest chatter jockeys on radio.

J. P. is the better known of the two. For years J. P. McCarthy held sway in the morning and late afternoon on WJR, beaming music and pep talk to millions of metropolitan Detroiters as they crunched through breakfast coffee or drove wearily home after an exhausting day at work. Understandably, J. P. became an institution.

Then he gave up his 3-6 p.m. time slot and on came Jimmy Launce. In relief, something akin to baseball annals to a fuzzy faced rookie named Mickey Mantle taking over for the retiring Joe Dimaggio. But Launce was big league. After a short adjustment period, likeable Launce's popularity rose like the albatross count on the Great Lakes - but with the opposite effect.

Now, no more formidable pair for general excellence can be found on radio. Whereas J. P. is the perfect cup of coffee, Launce is the frosty highball, with both roles - usually until Launce, goes the answer, usually while going to his high school. "It's in the final analysis," would drive a man to the hanging tree.

His more egregious, but entertaining hallmark is the stale joke, which he spews out with infant glee. Some are original, some are proverbial standbys or variations thereof, but invariably they are groaners. A question raised demands an answer, so the teased listener hangs magnetically by until Launce, poses the answer, usually while going to his high school. "It's in the final analysis," would drive a man to the hanging tree.

Official Minutes of the Northville City Council

Special meeting of the Northville City Council was called to order by Mayor Allen at 8:00 p.m. on Monday, July 24, 1967 at the Northville City Hall.

The City Manager presented his findings in his review of the police received from Cadillac Paving Co. and recommended that this job be awarded to Cadillac Paving Co.

Moved by Lapham, support by Nichols to adopt resolution waiving bids (on file) University of Michigan.

Moved by Lapham, support by Carlson to award East Dunlap Parking Lot (2 lots of record) paving to Cadillac Paving Co. @ 20¢ per square foot including all necessary excavating and grading - 2-course 4.11 paving. Unanimously carried.

Initiatory Resolution for 1967 Sidewalk Program:

Clerk read the Initiatory Resolution requesting repair of sidewalks in the City of Northville as recommended in the City Manager's Memo #67-25. Moved by Carlson, support by Black to adopt said Initiatory Resolution for 1967 Repair of Sidewalks in the City of Northville. Unanimously carried.

This matter to be on agenda of August 7, 1967.

Approval of $2500 Appropriation for Northville Unification study:

City Manager read letter from Don Oakes, Public Management Consultant, Grand Rapids, relative to requesting his services; said letter listing his itemized fees; study to cost at a minimum of $2500 and a maximum of $5000 depending upon time and expense involved; this cost to be shared equally by City of Northville and Township of Northville. The estimated time of study to be about 4 months.

Moved by Carlson, support by Lapham to accept the recommendation of the Northville Community Unification Study Committee to make an agreement with Don Oakes, Public Management Consultant, to be consultant for this study with the city of Northville's share to maximum amount of $2500. Unanimously carried.

Review of Hill Street Relief Sewer Plans:

City Manager explained the proposed Hill St. Sanitary Sewer Relief plans - the rough estimate is $3,000 to $5,000 (including cost of city labor); estimate of engineering cost is less than $500.

City Manager recommended putting in Hill St. relief sewer, then checking to see if Allen Drive relief is necessary.

Moved by Nichols, support by Carlson to approve engineering plans be made for Hill St. Relief Sanitary Sewer. Unanimously carried.

Report on Novi Subdivision's drainage:

City Manager told of his meeting with Novi; city manager is to check with Oakland County Drain Commission on the total plan; city manager to make telephone call and confirm by letter, asking that Northville City Council have an audience with Oakland County Drain Commission regarding the adequacy and sufficiency of the drain and the tributary area as mentioned in the 3-page letter from the developer. Committee of Councilman Black and Ollendorf will meet with Oakland County Drain Commission.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 10:50 p.m. Respectfully submitted, Martha M. Milne, City Clerk.

The regular meeting of the Northville City Council was called to order by Mayor Allen on Monday, July 17, 1967, 8:10 p.m. at the Northville City Hall.

Present: Allen, Black, Carlson, Lapham and Nichols. Absent: None.

Approval of Bills:

City Manager explained check #2574 (Philip R. Ogilvie) - this was legal work for the case of Ford Hodge Employees' Credit Union vs. Charles McDonald and Dave Plink, Eld., Inc., vs. City of Northville (re Northville Heights #2 Subdivision).

Moved by Lapham, support by Black to pay bills in the following amounts: General - $44,942.77, Water - $12,793.00, Other Government - $25,565.67. Unanimously carried.

Communications:

Letter from Eugene King, announcing his resignation, effective June 30, 1967; this was accepted unanimously.

(b) Letter from Mrs. Judy relating state of health of former Councilman Richard Fung.

(c) Communication from International Institute of Detroit, Inc., regarding appointment of chairman for 1967 United Nations' Day (Sunday, Oct. 22, 1967).

(d) Request from Robert From relative to Snow Box Derby sponsored by Northville Recreation Dept. Mr. From's request to block off Maplewood from Grace to Novi street was granted but recommendation was made to block off from N. Center St. to Novi St. Copy of this permit to be sent to Police Dept. and DPW.

(e) City Manager read a letter from Michigan Municipal League regarding the proposed legislation "Good Highways Package", giving cities and villages 20% return instead of 18% (SB 262, 263, 264 and 265). City Mgr. will contact our legislators, and asked Council to also contact their legislators and urge other people to do so.

The City Attorney suggested that City Mgr. and Council take a position and go on record by sending a formal letter to proper representatives regarding this matter.

Communications from Citizens:

Mr. Roger Harrison, 2317 Center street, was present to remind Council that there have been 2 storms since he last attended a Council meeting. On July 13 and 14, 1967, there was no rain but Mr. Harrison had been back up in his basement (not sewers). Mr. Harrison stated he is convinced that the present sewer is not a sufficient line. Councilman Nichols told Mr. Harrison that those present at the informal council meeting at his house are convinced that there should be a complete review and recommendation on the line serving Mr. Harrison's house.

Mayor requested an opinion from the City Engineer after he has examined said line. This matter to be on August 7th agenda.

City Manager reported committee's activities and findings on violations of Storm Sewer Ordinance amendment and stated that letters had been written and a final check is to be on the remaining houses.

Mr. Andrew Pelt, 1097 Grace Ct., stated his problems regarding the drainage ditch that runs under his property and that it has overflowed three times the past year. He asked following questions - what is city going to do about this ditch and who approves engineering plans. City manager feels that part of the problem is proper maintenance of the ditch. Mr. Pelt will keep a record of the overflow of ditch and report periodically to council. Mr. Fran Bolter, 332 Maplewood, wondered if Grace Ct. sewer is allowed to back up into the Northville Heights' Sub. #2 problem (overflow of pond on the north). Doug Horst, 233 Sherrie Lane, asked what council proposes to do with the James Stevens, Sherrie Lane, said he did not believe the like is the answer, would like Council to consider some other method.

Councilman Lapham reminded council that the original intent was to safeguard children's lives. Mayor Allen stated that there were no problems areas to be discussed later on the agenda which might have some bearing on the matter.

(1) City manager and city attorney to contact Novi.

(2) Attorney to call Oakland County Drain Commission. Council agreed to contact Novi.

According to Kenneth L. Brown, coordinator of institutes at Northwestern, the speech session is primarily for juniors over 16 and includes several younger students of exceptional talent.

WATER BATTLE-Workers installing Wixom sewers have had to battle water all the way. That's well casing at the left, typical of the dozens that have been sunk to cope with the problem.

But Sewer Builder Finds It Wixom Hides Its Biggest Lake

The city of Wixom boasts some fine lakes within its boundaries - but the biggest of all of 'em is familiar to only a relatively few of its citizens. That's because this gigantic "lake" hides beneath the city itself.

Ask workers for the Halloway Construction company who have been battling water daily since launching the community's ambitious sewer project last winter.

The water table beneath the city is so high, they point out, that some property owners have been obtaining their water supply for years from wells that reach down 14 feet or less. While the community may consider its high water table an asset, sewer construction crews view it as a big headache.

Since starting the sewer last winter, Halloway has been pumping water 24 hours a day, seven days a week. Despite the water problem, however, the project continues to move ahead and Halloway spokesmen are still pointing to a January, 1968 completion date.

An estimated 65-percent of the project - laying of sewer lines - has been completed, they note. This percentage does not include the sewer treatment plant, which comes under another contract.

"In view of the difficulties we've faced," notes one official who said the Wixom sewer project represents probably his company's toughest, "I'd say we're making wonderful progress."

Where this has happened - and occasionally still occurs - officials explain, digging and laying of the main - completed in only 20 to 30-foot sections before workers can move on to the next section.

The pumps operate day and night. A related problem - muck - also has required special apparatus. In one area in particular, that section of the trunkline east of the treatment plant, the "cofferdam technique" of digging was imperative.

5-Year-Old Killed Phone Call Tells Driveway Tragedy

A vacationing Novi couple's fun-filled three-day adventure in the East turned into a tragic nightmare late Wednesday afternoon as they telephoned home.

Just as their call was put through, a five-year-old daughter was struck by a car in the driveway of their home.

Richard, who told police he had asked the children to move away from the driveway before backing out, slammed on the breaks as he heard the child's scream. He jumped from the car, lifted the child from under the car and rushed her into the house.

Jenny Mengyan, 18, who took her parents call, rushed her sister to the hospital in Pontiac where physicians waited. And the parents, Mr. and Mrs. David L. Mengyan, who were calling from Kennedy Airport, frantically telephoned the hospital. Two hours later, at 8:15 p.m., doctors told Jenny her sister had died.

Mr. and Mrs. Mengyan, who had left Sunday for Waterbury, Connecticut for a few days, had called from the airport where their plane had been delayed. They arrived home shortly after midnight - too late to be at their daughter's bedside.

Funeral services for the little girl were held at the Richardson-Bird Funeral Home Saturday morning, with the Rev. Carl J. Crispin officiating. Burial was in the Oakland Hills Memorial cemetery. (See details on page 12-A).

Says Salem Operator 'Sanitary Landfill, Please, Not Dump'

He bounces around the mountains of earth and rubbish and garbage, amid giant, grunting machines, shoveling the place as if it were a glowing, hot Cadillac.

"Beautiful, isn't it," he exclaims periodically.

About as beautiful as landfills come, probably, but for Mr. Average Citizen who has not yet encountered The Admonition it's still the place where the trash barrel and garbage can finally are emptied.

That admonition was dishied out to a young student one afternoon last week when he drove up with a trunkload of trash and asked if he had found the "Salem Dump."

In his best Swedish accent, Gunnar Stromberg shot back, "If you're looking for the landfill you've come to the right place - a dump, look someplace else."

It's become a standard reply for Stromberg and other operators like him who are constantly battling the ugly reputation of dumps as they go about the big, legal business of filling holes with rubbish and garbage and covering it with dirt.

Stromberg, Northville township trustee and planning commission chairman, supervises the 60-acre Salem landfill, located at Five Mile and Chubb roads, for Sheldon Hayes who in turn has a contract with the city of Plymouth which owns the property.

The Salem landfill may or may not be a unique operation. Stromberg contends it's unusual since the operation upholds every letter of the tenth state law governing landfills. Others in and around this area are confident they operate equally as well while providing a necessary public service.

An estimated 95-percent of Salem's citizens are satisfied with the Salem landfill. And Township Supervisor Floyd Taylor is one of them.

But it wasn't always that way. In fact, Taylor figures about 95-percent of the people were "dead-set against it" two years ago - and earlier - when Plymouth operated it as a dump. It was in 1965, when the state was wading knee-deep in citizenry complaints about dumps, that state lawmakers hammered together a controversial bill that literally outlawed the "old-fashioned dump". That bill, now Public Act 87, prohibits dumps that continue to operate in this area - some which have the sanction of the governing body.

Take a look at just three requirements under this law and see if that "dump" in your area operates legally:

---The bottom of the dump must be two feet above the water level.

---Rubbish or garbage (the state makes no distinction) must be laid down in layers no more than two-feet thick and in tiers not to exceed eight feet, with a six-inch layer of compacted dirt applied to the top layer or at the conclusion of each day's operation.

---Once the pre-determined grade level is about to be reached, a final two-foot layer of dirt - bringing it to grade level - must be added and the entire area seeded.

Under the law, Plymouth found it was operating its Salem dump illegally. And to operate it legally, it learned, was a financial impossibility. It means expensive engineering costs, increased employment, and huge investments in machines capable of hauling, pushing and covering the garbage and rubbish. That's when the city turned to Hayes.

Hayes was willing. But he couldn't turn it into a financially sound investment handling only the refuse of Plymouth. So a contract was drawn up, giving Hayes the right to handle materials from other communities at rates established competitively by Hayes.

And under a five-year agreement between Plymouth and Salem, during which time the landfill must be completely filled and covered, Salem and its citizens were given the right to dump their rubbish and garbage free of cost. That agreement extends to 1971.

Plymouth pays 25-cents per cubic yard for using the landfill.

It was during the interim period, while negotiations for the contract were Continued on Page 7-A.

The police departments of Novi and Wixom have received letters of appreciation from the city of Pontiac for their assistance during the recent riot threat in that Oakland county seat.

Thieves Collect Antique Guns

Nearly 70 pistols and revolvers - all antiques - were stolen from the Village Arcade, southwest corner of 12 Mile and Novi roads, early last week.

According to Novi police, someone broke into the building, owned by Dorothy McColium of Farmington, sometime after closing time at 5 p.m. and police discovery of the breaking and entering early the following morning.

Entry was gained by forcing an outside door, walking through several rooms of antiques and then forcing the door to the Gun Room - the only interior room that was locked. The guns, owned by Philip Preuss, were in a gun case.

The guns were valued at nearly $3,000, ranging from $5 to $140 each. Because nothing else in the building was touched, police theorize that the thief or thieves were acquainted with the building's layout and the location of the guns.

Police investigation, including use of the state police crime laboratory, of this break-in and the burglary at the home of Mrs. Joyce Abers, 24795 Wixom road, is continuing.

In the latter case, burglars broke through a house door while the occupants were away. The bedrooms and closets were ransacked and the following items stolen:

Eight rifles and shotguns, a movie projector, camera, archer's bow, sewing machine, vacuum cleaner, portable TV, and a metal box containing birth certificates, insurance policies, etc.

At Township Offices Northville Sale Set Saturday

Northville merchants don't expect any customers in their stores Saturday. But they're hoping for plenty of action out in front - on the sidewalks and streets!

Saturday Northville retailers will conduct their annual "Sidewalk Sale". Nearly 30 merchants and community organizations will display their wares - from garbage cans to automobiles to paintings and pottery.

This year for the first time both Main and Center streets will be closed to vehicular traffic so that shoppers may roam throughout the business district.

Main Street will be closed from Center to Hutton, while Center street will be roped off for shoppers from Main to Dunlap.

Sale Chairman Gerald Stone said that space is still available in certain areas on Main and Center where merchants from outside the central business district, or organizations wishing to conduct a sale to raise funds, may reserve space. Arrangements may be made by calling Stone at 71 9-2323.

Hundreds of outstanding values await shoppers at the day-long Sidewalk Sale. Most merchants use the event to clear their shelves of summer merchandise to prepare for the fall season.

Those participating in the sale include: Northville Drug, Old Mill Restaurant, Lapham's, Frey's, Gunsell Store, D & C Stores, Brader's, Del's Shoes, Schrader's Home Furnishings, Spinning Wheel Northville Record, Northville Hardware, Leone's Bakery, Jayettes, C. R. Ely & Sons, John Mach Ford Sales, Hartley-Powers Gallery, Rathbun Chevrolet, G. E. Miller Sales & Services, East Door Antiques, Mothers Club, Littlefield Gallery and Main Street Antique.

City Answer Coming Soon

An Oakland county circuit court decision on the controversial village incorporation question is imminent, officials revealed Tuesday.

Judge William Beer is expected to hand down a decision next week or early next. Following the final court appearance Monday afternoon of legal representatives of the village, township and the incorporation committee.

Since most of the arguments had been repeatedly made in earlier court appearances and since they were incorporated in briefs already presented to the judge, Monday's court session resulted in little additional comment by parties involved.

Judge Beer said he would study the briefs and make his decision soon.

Garbage Bouquet

$2500 DAMAGE-A fire, apparently touched off by sparks from a nearby brush fire, all but destroyed a combination stable, garage and implement storage building at 20889 Cambridge, off Eight Mile road, early Saturday afternoon. Despite efforts by Novi police
