

'I Felt Like Some Kind of a Dirty Dog' Police Officers Don't Relish Punishing Your Kids

EDITOR'S NOTE - Following is the first of a series of articles on young people and the law. The series will explore behavior patterns of young people, violations, and the thinking and planning of law enforcement personnel in the Northville-Nowi area on topics of prevention, control and how young people and communities can best be served while living as a part of a sprawling urban complex.

"I felt like some kind of a dirty dog rather than a grown man and police officer. Placing a 10-year-old boy in confinement at the juvenile detention facility in Detroit—which is no place for any youngster—is the kind of experience in this job that really shakes you up."

Officer Young Interviews A Juvénile

Youngsters that Northville's youth officer, Patrolman Phillip Young, brings to his work. In his day-to-day work he sees in stark reality more of the bad side of youth, the misbehaviors and indiscretions youngsters commit as they grow towards an adult identity, than most adults would encounter in a lifetime of TV or movie watching.

Despite this extreme exposure to the mistakes and missteps on the part of local youngsters, Young has a generally high regard for the youngsters growing up in Northville today. But he is concerned—concerned enough to state firmly that the community must begin now to pay close attention to meeting the needs of youngsters in a changing scene.

of communication between the youngsters and their parents and other adults in the community.

Young states a firm conviction that this lack of communication is the major cause of youngsters encountering him as a law enforcement officer and an equally firm conviction that it can be resolved. He can describe instances of how he has established communication with youngsters in trouble and helped them to gain a little better understanding and control of themselves

He describes the need for education in these trouble areas of young life as the most promising solution to the major problem of youngsters he encounters in his police duties: A lack

OK Road Contract Terms Novi Council Names Water-Sewer Chief

Council approval of the village manager's selection of Roy C. Marr for Superintendent of sewer and water department and agreement to contract terms for engineering studies to develop road plans were key items among business completed at a regular meeting of the Novi council Monday night.

Village Manager Harold Ackley described Marr as a licensed master plumber with experience with municipal utilities gained while serving Southfield. Council confirmed the appointment as superintendent of sewer and water at an annual salary of $7,500 and concurred with Ackley's appointment of Marr to also serve as plumbing and heating inspector at a yearly salary of $2,500.

The contract terms for engineering studies for road planning touched off a general discussion on village road and street planning.

The contract was for plans for a two mile stretch on Nine Mile road, approximately one mile east and one mile west of Novi road, two one-half mile stretches on Taft road near Nine and Ten Mile roads.

A short stretch of Wixom road near the Perkins Engines plant is also included in the studies.

if made at a later date.

Ackley pointed out that plans must be ready to qualify for any federal and state road-building funds and that the contract for engineering studies was a necessary first step.

Council agreed to the contract, after establishing provisions to meet the full cost of the studies and save interest charges that would have accompanied a deferred payment plan. The contract is with the Johnson and Anderson engineering firm.

The council also approved a request to renew preliminary plat approval of North Hills Estates from Harry Slafkin Builders. The council acted on approval of attorney Howard Bond, considering that the applicant had showed progress while being delayed with development through no fault of his own but encountered difficulty with water and sewer facilities from another municipality.

The council also received notification from Harold Ackley to participate with him in initial stages of planning for a budget for the next fiscal year, a task, he announced to council, is about to begin.

It's Election Time Again

Deadlines are drawing near for obtaining and filing petitions for candidates to fill three seats on the Novi village council at the regular village election March 11.

The terms of Village President Phillip Anderson and Councilmen Donald Fuller and Ray Evans are expiring. Petitions are now available and can be obtained from the village clerk at Novi village hall.

Next Friday, January 26, is the first day completed petitions can be filed. The final day for filing petitions is February 10. February 9 is the last day for voter registration.

County Fetes Delos Hamlin

Delos Hamlin of Farmington township, member of the Oakland county board of supervisors for a quarter of a century, will receive county-wide recognition January 26 when municipalities observe "Delos Hamlin Day."

In Novi, members of the township board last week took formal action to endorse the board of supervisors "Delos Hamlin Day" proclamation.

Township Supervisor Hadley Bachert and Attorney Emory Jackson, Jr., and their wives also will attend a dinner program, in honor of the board of supervisors chairman, at the New Raleigh House on the evening of January 26.

Echo Valley Residents Attend Snowball Dance

Several new couples and four former residents of Echo Valley were among the 56 residents attending the subdivision's ninth annual dinner dance, "The Snowball," last Saturday night at the Northville American Legion Hall.

Under the chairmanship of Mrs. Denis Schwartz, the event was planned as a welcome to newcomers, a chance for four former neighbors who have moved to apartments to renew acquaintances, and as the traditional way for neighbors to wish each other Happy

New Year. On the committee were Mrs. Donald Paria, Mrs. William C. Rainald, Mrs. James V. Bishop and Mrs. Raymond Evans.

New officers of the Echo Valley civic association elected and installed earlier this month are William C. Rainald, president; Dr. Arnold Koneczal, vice-president; Mrs. Schwarz, secretary; Edward Vahubush, treasurer; Glenn Turner, Edward Brown and Mrs. Joseph Howard, board members.

Bud Guest On Tap Here

Bud Guest, WJR radio station's Sunny Side of The Street, will be the featured speaker at the annual Novi Ladies Night February 10.

The popular radio star and after-dinner speaker will tickle funny bones in his address to guests attending the program at the Novi Community building.

A celebrity in his own right, Guest shares the name with his famous father, the late Edgar Guest, whose poetry has long been a national delicacy.

Sponsored by the Novi Board of Commerce, the Ladies Night program will get underway with a 7 p.m. dinner. As usual, the delicious dinner will be served up by members of the Novi Rebelah Lodge.

Tickets, requiring a donation of $3.50 each, are available from any Board of Commerce member or maybe

Mazur Rejoins Police Force

Leonard Mazur, who several years ago served as a Novi police officer has returned to fill a vacancy resulting from the resignation of Patrolman Ron Haskins.

Mazur, who was a Northville officer after leaving Novi, also served as a Washtenaw county deputy sheriff before returning to Novi.

Haskins resigned in late December to accept a position with the Oakland county sheriff's department.

For Enlarged Senior High Dale Seeks More Teachers

Administrative recommendations for six additional high school teachers, six elementary school teachers, a junior high principal and a business manager for the district were foremost on the agenda when the Novi board of education met in regular session Wednesday, January 10.

Superintendent Thomas Dale described the recommendations for the additional high school teachers as planning to meet the needs of Novi's first senior class next year.

A related recommendation was for a junior high principal to assist in carrying the administrative work load, as Novi reaches the final stages of growth and development as a kindergarten through 12th grade school system.

The high school teacher recommendations were for one additional teacher each in math, English, government/economics, business education, industrial arts, and physics. The recommendations for additional teachers at the elementary schools were one each for art, physical education, gifted children, Type A special education, a librarian, and a full time speech correctionist.

The Novi schools now share a speech correctionist with Farmington. The speech correctionist works in the Novi schools on a half-day basis, four days a week.

Dale and the three board members present, Elwood Coburn, Bruce Simmons, and Russell Taylor, reviewed plans on graduation requirements for the class of '73. Many of the requirements for high school graduation are established by state law and accreditation organizations, such as the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. Other requirements can be designed to meet the needs of a particular district.

"Our staff, facilities, and buildings all meet requirements of North Central and the University of Michigan," Dale said. Novi students meeting our requirements for graduation

Overture Tickets Available Now

Tickets for the first Overture-to-Opera program to be held in Northville went on sale this week and are available from all seven members of the Overture committee.

The first act of "LaBoheme" by Puccini and a contemporary opera, "The Medium" by Gian-Carlo Menotti, will be presented April 6 in the Overture program in Northville high school auditorium.

Tickets for the 8:30 p.m. performance will be $3 for adults and $2 for students, including those in area colleges. Tickets also are available now for the champagne buffet afterward at Meadowbrook at $5. Everyone who attends the Overture performance is invited to participate in the Saturday night gala afterward, according to the planning committee.

For the first time since the Overture series began in 1962, Northville is among the 20 Metropolitan Detroit and suburban communities to have an Overture performance. Overture began with one performance and has grown to 20. It is under the direction of Dr. David Dichiera of Oakland university and the Detroit Grand Opera association.

The Overture programs originally were conceived to increase interest in the spring appearances of the Metropolitan Opera in Detroit.

This year's presentation couples a well-known operatic work with a newer opera, "The Medium," first performed in 1946. Of this opera, composer Menotti says, "Despite the eerie story, it is a play of ideas... of a woman caught between two worlds." He conceived the idea for the opera in 1936 when he attended a seance in Salzburg, Austria.

Tickets are available now from any member of the Northville committee for Overture which is under the chairmanship of Mrs. Donald Ware, 349-2232. Others are Mrs. Ernest J. Shave, who long has served as Northville area committee member with the Detroit Grand Opera association, 349-0606; Mrs. Charles Wheatley, 349-0748; Mrs. Harold Wright, 349-1276; Mrs. Stan Schaefer, 349-1236; Mrs. Paul Hughes, 349-0461; and Mrs. Ben A. Zayt, 349-3234.

THE FIRST TICKET to the Overture-to-Opera performance at Northville high school auditorium April 6 is sold to Charles Lopham, Northville merchant and city council member, Monday by Mrs. Charles Wheatley, member of the Northville Overture committee. She was assisted in the sale by sons Glen, 3, and Eric (the baby).

In Our Town

By JEAN DAY

BASE LINE CHAPTER of the Quarters antique study society will entertain husbands at the group's first evening meeting at 7 p.m. Monday, January 22.

In a change of plans Mrs. Howard F. Meyer, Jr., will be hostess at her home at 279 Maplewood.

Edmund P. Yerkes will speak and show slides of "Old Northville." A local attorney with lifetime family ties in the community, he has collected, assembled and preserved historical information about our town for many years. He is to be introduced by Mrs. Paul Beard, Base Line chapter president.

Co-hostesses for the dessert meeting will be Mrs. Thomas Lovett, Mrs. Orin Hove and Mrs. J. C. Burkman.

It was just about this time three years ago that the Quarters group was forming, with the first meeting held on a windy, snowy day with six charter members present at the home of Mrs. Burkman on Base Line road (now more commonly called Eight Mile).

It was from the meeting locale that the chapter name was selected. And it was from attorney-historian Yerkes that we learned that Michigan's Base Line dates from the Northwest Ordinance and extends from Lake St. Clair across the state to Lake Michigan with all measures north and south extending from it.

"THE BENEFITS of Planning" will be discussed by Elmer A. Doeg, trust department vice-president of the City National Bank of Detroit, at the 2 p.m. meeting of the Northville Women's club in the fellowship hall of Northville Presbyterian church.

His talk is to include a discussion of wills. He also has indicated he will answer questions from his audience, Mrs. E. O. Weber, program chairman of the day, reports.

This will be a guest day meeting with tea following the program.

Four members of Northville Women's club accepted a special invitation to tour the British art exhibit, Masters of the Romantic period, 1760-1860, now at the Detroit Institute of Arts, last Thursday. Mrs. J. Hardee Babin, Mrs. Charles Yahne, Mrs. William Crump and Mrs. Charles Wilcox, accompanied by Mrs. Halton Artell, a guest, were taken on a guided tour after gathering with other Federation club members in the new Founders' quarters.

They returned enthusiastic about the "lovely Gainsboroughs" and other Britishers' works. The exhibit, with public tours daily, continues through February 18, according to Mrs. Babin, a founders' society member and worker on its rental committee.

Members and friends (men also) of the club are invited to attend the Federation luncheon. Tickets are available from Mrs. Robert Arlen, 349-9725.

NEW OFFICERS for the Northville branch of the Michigan Farm and Garden association were elected at the club's January meeting last week and are to be installed and take over at the May meeting when the club will begin its 54th year.

Mrs. C. W. Whittlesey, now first vice-president, will move up to presidency. Mrs. William Switzer will be first vice-president, and Mrs. Paul Hughes, second vice-president.

Mrs. Frank Whitmyer was re-elected recording secretary and Mrs. William Wiley was named treasurer. Miss Betty LeMaster was re-elected corresponding secretary.

Carrying out an international theme the club learned about Greece from one of its own members, Mrs. Chris Contos. She displayed native handwork and told of her travel experiences in visiting her parents' village near Athens in 1956.

ALPHA MU members of the Delta Kappa Gamma professional society of teachers made plans at their January dinner meeting at Hillside Inn last week.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald LaRoque, 131 North Wing street, announce the birth of a daughter, Danielle, January 15 at St. Mary hospital. The baby weighed 6 pounds, 10 ounces at birth.

'Give A Hand' Urge Jaycettes

Three more mothers volunteered last week in the Northville Helping Hand program being sponsored by the Northville Jaycettes, but double the present total of about 100 participating mothers still are needed, the sponsors estimate.

To be effective, the Helping Hand sign should be displayed twice in every city and township block. Mrs. Joseph Kuesner, chairman, states, the sign indicates immediate help is available to any child. Mothers who will be home at the hours school convenes and dismisses are needed. They are asked to call Mrs. Kuesner, 349-3013.

DAR Celebrates Birthday

Members and guests of the Sarah Ann Cochran chapter, DAR, celebrated the chapter's 42nd birthday Monday at a luncheon at Hillside Inn by looking back 200 years to early Detroit history.

"Forgotten Heroes" was the title of the talk given by Lee Smits, a weekly columnist for the Northwoods Call and special sales representative for the Michigan Consolidated Gas company. He formerly was a WXYZ news commentator and outdoor editor of the Detroit Times.

The speaker took his all-feminine audience back in history to 1765 when "Detroit was a central point in the development of the west with a fort on the river bend near where the Ford auditorium and Veterans' Memorial building now stand."

He told how hostile Indians had wiped out a family on Belle Isle and already had taken one schooner when the supply schooner, the Huron, arrived. The captain and five men of the 12 on board were killed by the Indians who numbered 340.

The speaker then paused to observe that history has shown that when the Indians captured a white child or man he almost always was assimilated into the Indian way of life, but that the captured Indian never adapted to white man's ways.

Democrats to Sponsor Issues Seminar Saturday. Northville Democrats, together with other party members from the 19th district, will conduct an Issues Seminar to be held at Schoolcraft college on Saturday, January 20. The day-long program will get underway at 9 a.m. with registration and close at 4 p.m. with an evaluation of the seminar by Chairman Sander M. Levin. From 10 a.m. to 12 noon a discussion of foreign policy will take place. The luncheon program will feature Paul Winter, radio personality, as the guest speaker. From 2 p.m. until 4 p.m., three different sessions are planned. These include discussions of civil liberties, crime and juvenile delinquency, and revised criminal code.

Police Solve Burglary. A breaking and entering that involved the theft of stereo sound equipment valued at approximately $350 to $400 from a home in Northville Estates was resolved Tuesday when Northville police recovered the equipment from two Northville boys. Patrolmen Lawrence Towne and Ron Wanowicz recovered the equipment from the youngsters, ages 15 and 16. The case has been under investigation since January 7. The equipment, intact and seemingly in good order, eventually will be returned to its owner, police said. Northville police have turned the case against the juveniles over to the Oakland county juvenile authorities. CALENDAR. Jan. 18 - Interfaith meeting, 7:30 p.m. Presbyterian church. Police Evidence Points Up Drinking Problem

Youth Officer Speaks. Continued from Page 1. The case with the 10-year-old boy mentioned earlier is one example. Young's contact began when the boy was seven and extended for a period covering more than two years. Early incidents of playing in vacant houses, some which were damaged by fire, grew to a long list of breaking and entering, serious assault on another youngster, and theft of a .38 caliber revolver. The child seemed totally without good relationships with adults. "He would sit in that chair during my sessions with him. He was a skinny, dirty kid. And suspicious. He couldn't sit still and his eyes were never fixed on anything for an instant, always shifting and darting around. Finally, the Wayne County juvenile authorities began to believe me, that I had a youngster of these few years capable of these serious acts and in desperate need of help." The boy was placed in a nearby institution where he could receive psychiatric treatment, schooling, and the care and attention from adults most youngsters get from home and parents. "I saw him not too long ago," Young said. "He seems to be doing fine. He's fat—chubby—clean, and for the first time I can remember he had a pleasant expression on his face. He seemed like any other happy pre-teenage kid. I think he's got a real good chance to grow up and be a good citizen." To illustrate the lack of communication in its basic form, Young describes a situation that occurs with some frequency. "Late at night we'll call a boy's home to inform the parents that we have their son at the police station and that the boy is drunk. The parents refuse to believe it's their son, insist that we must be mistaken, that their son has never and would never do such a thing. "When they do arrive at the office,

Municipal Court

Two minor-in-possession cases were heard in a special session of Northville municipal court last Friday. Norman Arthur Bearer, 19, and Linda Ann Richards, 20, both of Farmington, were charged with being minors in possession after they were found by police at South Center and Cady streets. Both pleaded guilty and were fined $30 and $15 state costs each by Judge Philip Ogilvie. He entered a plea of guilty and was fined $50 or 10 days. He was committed to Detroit House of Correction Monday.

Beginning this week, Northville Municipal court's regularly scheduled session has been changed from Tuesday to Wednesday mornings. In a special session of Northville municipal court Monday, James Malcolm Taubke, now of Chicago, Illinois, but formerly of the area, was arraigned before Municipal Judge Philip Ogilvie on the charge of driving with no operator's license. He was picked up by police at Novi avenue and Base Line road Monday.

Oakland College Gets Federal Loan. Oakland community college's Orchard Ridge campus in Farmington has been awarded a $500,000 federal housing loan. Announcement of the grant, for the purpose of constructing a student union, was announced Thursday in a wire to the college by the U.S. Department of Education.

Drinking is the most frequently occurring misbehavior that brings youngsters in confrontation with police, Young says. The recovered property room at police headquarters holds a large and varied supply of alcoholic beverages that has been confiscated from young people over the past few months. When asked to relate drinking of youngsters with his opinions about breakdown in communication and need for education about such matters, Young gave his response: "A great many young people see their parents and other adults drinking, yet they usually get a strong and simple 'No. No. Don't do it' from adults. This is not communication, not when the youngsters get a simple 'No' to drink and a different example of behavior from parents and other adults they might respect." There is very little done in the way of thoughtful, gradual presentation of information about the use of alcohol to help the naturally curious and experimenting youngsters avoid the unpleasant results of experimenting without being aware of possible results. In the matters of drinking, drugs and narcotics, cars and firearms, Young says that there is a considerable and growing supply of films and other educational tools available that make it possible for a community to meet this need.

Young has given a great deal of thought to his job and youth and Northville now and the future. He says that as of now there is no extremely serious condition facing the community in regard to its youth and their behavior. He does feel that Northville is in a time and situation during which it must give thought and action in a preventive sense. In supporting his position on need for a preventive program Young points to specific acts by Northville and other area youths that bring them in conflict with laws and law enforcement agencies of the community. The behaviors lend themselves to a program for boys and girls in their early teens and those below their teens. After the age of 17, young persons are regarded as adults by police and the courts. Young believes that a preventive program directed at the specific behaviors that cause trouble today can do a great deal to avoid more serious difficulty in the community in the years ahead.

Senior Citizens Meet Tuesday

Northville Senior Citizens will meet at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday for a cooperative dinner and social evening. This and all subsequent dinner meetings, which are held on the fourth Tuesday of each month, will be in the fellowship hall of the Northville Presbyterian church. Dinner meetings, which formerly were held in the old community building, had been held in the basement of the old junior high. Through the courtesy of the church, the Senior Citizens board announced, they will hold all dinners at the church. Initially the group began meeting in the scout-recreation building, but soon grew too large to hold dinner meetings there. Regular business sessions and programs on the second Tuesday of the month will continue to be held at the scout-recreation building.

College Players Plan Double Billing

Schoolcraft College Masque Players will present "Ethan Frome," on the first of two play bills scheduled for the winter semester. Performances are scheduled for Wednesday through Saturday nights, Feb. 7-10, in the lower level of the Lois L. Waterman Campus Center. Curtain time for all performances is 8 p.m. Featured in the Owen Davis-Donald Davis dramatization of the Edith Wharton novel will be Patrick Jones, Northville, in the title role; Linda Rasmussen, Livonia; and Noel Little, Detroit.

The second attraction on the theater series - scheduled for early April - will present a pair of original works, a one-act play written by students, and a one-act musical written by Kelley and Dr. Hans Kolbe, evening college faculty member. More than 1,100 Scouts and their leaders participated in the event. To enter the competition each patrol had to construct a sled, then pull it through a series of test stations where they were graded on such skills as sled construction, fire building, cliff rescue, tent pitching, nature study, compass reading, weather flags, signalling, proper clothing and proper equipment.

A cast of 35 students, with Camillo DeLabbio of Livonia, and Diane Ruffing of Northville, in the leading roles, is being assembled.

Scouts Shine At Sourdough

Three of the four patrols of Northville Boy Scout Troop 731 copied two firsts, one second and one third place on the Sunset District's annual "Sourdough Trail" decaathlon Saturday at Nankin Mills. The fourth patrol might have been a winner, but lost its scorecard and was disqualified. Troop 731 is sponsored by the First Methodist Church of Northville.

First Time in Six Years

Wrestlers Trip Sorrows, 28-12

The Northville wrestling team over-whelmed Farmington's Our Lady of Sorrows last Thursday night by a 28-12 team score. The Mustangs lost only four individual matches to provide their Coach, Jack Townsley, with a measure of satisfaction slightly beyond what usually goes with a solid win.

Sorrows wrestling teams are highly regarded in the sport. While heavyweight Dan Conklin lost his first match of the season, the Mustangs came on strong in the lighter and middle weights to put the meet out of reach of their opponents when Rick Suckow at 154 came out of a tough match with a 9-5 decision win.

In six years of coaching in this area, it was the first time Townsley led a team to win over a Dan Potter coached team. Potter and his Lady Sorrows lost to the Mustangs 28-12.

Conklin's loss came at the hands of a real find heavyweight, who wrestled his way to the finals in the Class C state meet last year.

Frosh Win Two, Then Drop Four

After winning their first two games against River Rouge, Bach had 14 and Cushing 10 points. The Northville freshmen held a four-point lead over Rouge at halftime. Several costly turnovers in the second half saw the lead evaporate. Bach scored 18 and Cushing 17 in the six-point loss to Marshall.

Novi Cagers Face Clinton

Still feeling the sting of last week's loss to Columbia Central, Novi's cagers will tangle with the other half of the Lakeland "C" powerhouse here tomorrow night. Invading the Wildcats court will be the Clinton quintet, currently tied with Columbia for the first-place position in the Lakeland circuit.

Tom Boyer Tops JV Scoring

Tom Boyer fired eight field goals and four free shots from the Novi junior varsity cagers Friday night, but his efforts were futile as Columbia Central breezed to an easy 83-45 triumph.

Colts Drop Two Cage Squeakers

The Northville JV basketball team lost two close games last week, losing 58-58 in overtime at Brighton Tuesday night and trailing West Bloomfield 53-50 in a rough and rugged contest at home Thursday night.

Mustangs Upset Lakers, Take W-O Lead

Clamping a lid on the opponent's basket, Northville scrambled to the top rung on the Wayne-Oakland league ladder here Friday night, upsetting previously unbeaten West Bloomfield, 63-48.

SPORTS

The Mustangs potted 20 of their 31 shots from the floor for a scizzing 65-percent performance. But even more important was their ball handling, particularly in the second and third quarters.

Northville hauled down 33 rebounds--and more than half of them were picked off by the lanky right forward, Jim Peterson. He snagged 18 rebounds. Most of them came under the Lakers' basket.

Turning point in the game, came with the switch from the zone to man-to-man defense. "We started with the zone, trying to keep the pressure on them...to force them to make their shots from far out."

Northville returned to the court following the intermission to quickly knot the score and then take the lead. By the three-quarter mark, the Mustangs led by eight points, 44-36.

With less than three minutes to play in the final quarter, Northville had increased its lead to 19 points, 53-40. Still another important factor in Northville's win was the amazing performance at the free throw line.

Northville had the short end of a 30-29 score going into the third quarter. But by late in that stanza, the Mustangs appeared to have broken into the open. Yet, three times the Bulldogs rallied although never completely catching the visitors.

In reversing the first-half deficit, Northville had to take the edge in field goal shots. While the Bulldogs were notching eight free shots in the second half, the Mustangs found themselves at

W-O STANDINGS table with columns for Club, W, L. Includes Northville, West Bloomfield, Bloomfield Hills, Clarenceville, Brighton, Holly, Milford, Clarkston.

Colts Drop Two Cage Squeakers

The Northville JV basketball team lost two close games last week, losing 58-58 in overtime at Brighton Tuesday night and trailing West Bloomfield 53-50 in a rough and rugged contest at home Thursday night.

At Brighton, JV coach Bob Kucher again had the experience of watching Ron Hubbard take a jump shot as the last few seconds fled the clock. But this time Hubbard's shot rimmed the basket and two desperate tip-in attempts by the Mustangs failed to save the game.

It was second time in less than a week that the Colts called time out with seconds left to set up a play. The previous Friday Hubbard hit a long jump shot to null the game away from Bloomfield Hills.

Kucher had praise for Fred Holdsworth's play in the Brighton game. "Fred gave a good account in all departments, defense on the floor, rebounding, and moving the ball."

Holdsworth put Northville in the lead 58-57 with 10 seconds left after stealing the ball.

After the basket, Brighton called time out to set up a play. It didn't work. Brighton dribbled into a trap and led the ball on a Northville steal.

A foul was called and Brighton hit twice on a one-and-one, which set up the last-chance shot that failed for Northville.

the charity line only twice in the final quarter and not once in the third. Altogether, Northville came up with just over half of its free shots--7 for 12, while the Bulldogs grabbed 16 for 21.

Next up: Holly

Holly may be near the bottom of the Wayne-Oakland League cellar, but Northville Coach Dave Longridge sees little reason to expect a snap win tomorrow when the Mustangs tangle with the Bronchos at Holly.

"We're taking each game one at a time," he said. "When you're on top everyone's out to beat you."

Holly is the only remaining squad in the W-O circuit that Northville has not yet met this season. So there's little to go on, Longridge explains.

A relatively inexperienced team, the Bronchos have "hair" height, a balanced club with apparently no single outstanding scorer. They'll carry a sixth-place, 2-4 record into the game.

Longridge reminded fans that the January 23 game with Clarenceville has been postponed until Thursday, February 29 because of conflicts with exams.

In other W-O action last Friday, Bloomfield Hills bounced back after its loss to Northville to clip Brighton, 53-42; Milford, winless in six games, nipped Clarkston, 69-67; and Clarenceville defeated Holly, 66-59.

In Oakwood Area Should City Buy Land for Park?

A four-member committee was named by Mayor A. M. Allen Monday night to recommend to the council whether it should permit house building on a three-acre parcel in the northern portion of the city, or whether it should be purchased by the city as a recreation site.

remained to be answered. "Can we afford to buy it? How much will it cost? What kind of a recreation area would we propose?"

The mayor then suggested that Black, the city manager, Recreation Director Robert Prom and a member of the planning commission take a look at the parcel, decide whether they want it for recreation and then make a recommendation for action to the council.

The area lies north of Hill and between Grace and Novi streets. It is a wooded section that was platted many years ago, but is undeveloped and has no roads or utilities.

In other business Monday night the council appointed Hiram Pacific to the board of review approved sale of a strip of land at the curve on the west end of Randolph for $1,000 to the adjacent lot owners, then rezoned the parcel R-2A (multiple dwelling) with the stipulation in the deed that it could be used as for entrance and exit but not building purposes; accepted the resignation of Charles Altman, Jr., from the parking authority; adopted amendments to local ordinances covering trespassing, larceny and sewerability; set a filing fee of $25 for residential unit plans and a $300 fee for preliminary plans; and declined to make any payment to a motorist involved in an accident with the Thompson-Brown company, the school district and other property owners along Taft road to discuss special assessment procedures for paving of Taft.

Manager Frank Ollendorf explained that the services could be provided, but that all improvements, including streets, would have to meet city standards and be assessed against benefiting property owners.

Councilman Del Black, the council's representative on the recreation commission, reminded fellow councilmen that it had been their position in the past that the area should be reserved for park or recreation facilities.

"I'd like you to poll each councilmember on this matter," Black told the mayor. "We must answer this request and I'd rather take the position that the site is more desirable for recreation."

W. L. Mainland Heads SEMCOG

The Southeast Michigan Council of Governments (SEMCOG) Saturday was organized to continue "cooperation and cohesion" introduced in Detroit region inter-governmental affairs by the Detroit Metropolitan Area Regional Planning Commission.

Planning Commission it replaces. "But we will have more influence because the members of this general assembly are representing the communities which are members of the Council of Governments. Most of you are elected to a position in your respective communities."

The first formal session of the General Assembly of SEMCOG was held in the auditorium of the Ford Motor company headquarters building in Dearborn.

"There is a charge to you of responsibility not alone to those you serve in your community. You have responsibility to every resident of the Detroit region."

William L. Mainland, Supervisor of Milford township in Oakland county was elected chairman and Detroit Councilman Mel Ravitz, chairman of the Wayne county board of supervisors was elected vice-chairman.

Alexander said population in Southeast Michigan will nearly double to more than 6 million by the year 2,000. The increase, he said, will be as great as that in the 266 years since Cadillac landed on the banks of the Detroit River.

"Our meeting in this general assembly may prove to be one of the most significant events in government in Southeast Michigan in the last half of this century."

"Your success depends upon ability to determine facts and figures and the capacity for relating this information to the wants and needs of the people. In this spirit, the Council of Governments will become an instrument for making the Detroit region one of the world's great metropolitan centers in the year 2,000.

"Working together, we can build for a great tomorrow. The Council of Governments will be a means of accomplishing this."

R. J. Alexander, chairman of former Detroit Metropolitan Area Regional Planning commission now replaced by SEMCOG, told the assemblymen: "The future holds both great promise and great challenge."

"The effectiveness of our regional planning effort has depended upon our ability to ascertain facts, to relate them, and to trust in the people to believe and to judge on the basis of these facts."

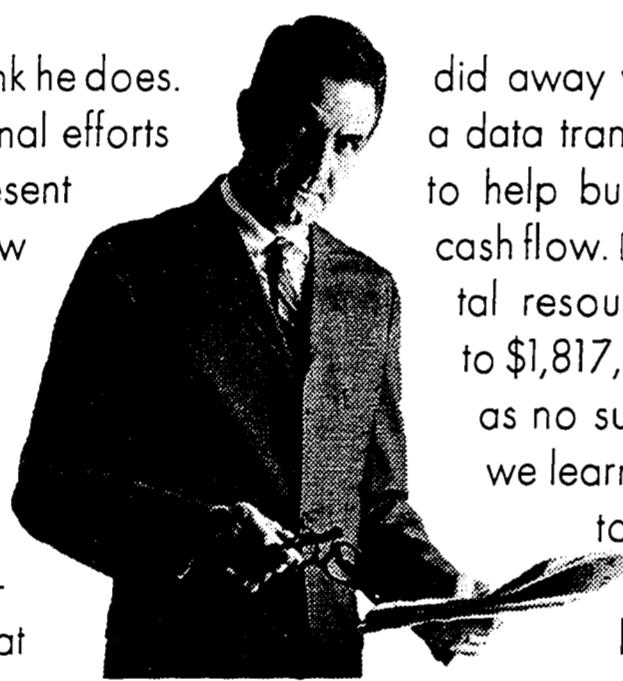

By utilizing facts and figures, the Regional Planning commission introduced cooperation and cohesion in the inter-governmental affairs of the Detroit region.

"In this Council of Governments, we have a group with no more power, no more authority, than the Regional Does one customer make an extra special year?

At Manufacturers Bank we think he does. And in 1967 we made additional efforts to better serve each of our present customers and to attract new ones. Manufacturers' traditional friendly service was emphasized. New banking services were initiated. Like Unicheck, the first complete bank account. And a new personal checking account that did away with service charges. And a data transmission service designed to help businessmen speed up their cash flow. The result was a rise in total resources from $1,631,232,609 to $1,817,549,224. But it really came as no surprise. Because long ago we learned that personal attention to each individual customer is the best way for a bank to grow and prosper.

Cancel Meetings

Jehovah's Witnesses of the South Lyon Congregation have cancelled all congregational meetings this week. They will be attending a three-day conference at Tecumseh, Michigan.

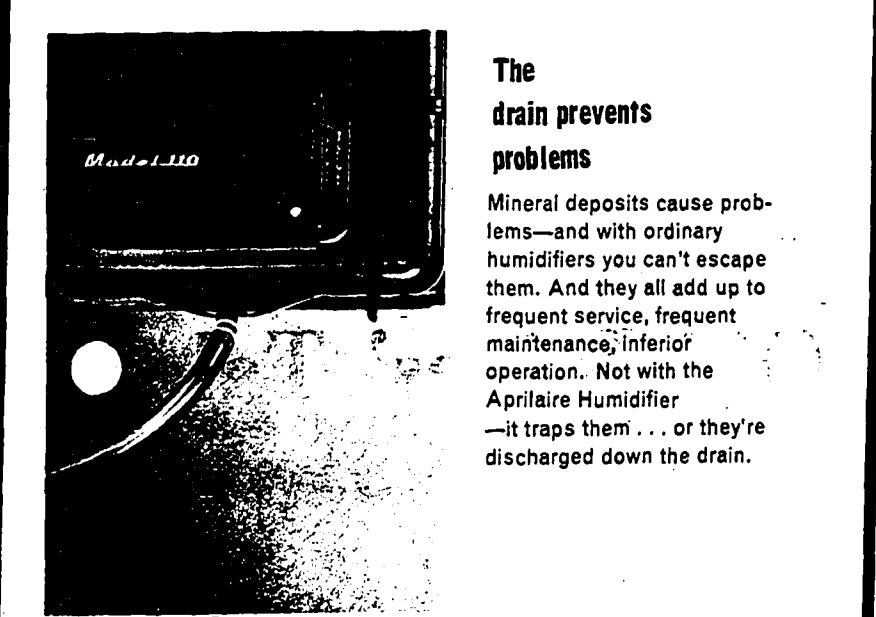

The gathering will be 6:45 p.m. Friday at the Tecumseh High school, as District Supervisor of Jehovah's Witnesses, Marvin L. Hollen, speaks on the assembly theme: "Walking Orderly by Spirit." There will also be speakers from five nearby communities on Friday.

Dedication to God and baptism will be scheduled Saturday afternoon, after which those qualifying will be baptized. In the evening, the program will center on the achievements of the congregations represented during the past six months.

The highlight of the assembly will be the public address Sunday at 3 p.m. by Mr. Hollen on the subject, "Will God Intervene in Men's Affairs?"

Victor Salzman, presiding minister of the South Lyon Congregation, has extended an invitation to all interested persons to attend any part of the three-day meeting, particularly the public discourse by Mr. Hollen.

IS YOUR HOME REALLY COMFORTABLE?

The drain prevents problems
Mineral deposits cause problems—and with ordinary humidifiers you can't escape them. And they all add up to frequent service, frequent maintenance, inferior operation. Not with the Aprilaire Humidifier—no traps there... or they're discharged down the drain.

Out of THE PAST

FIVE YEARS AGO...
Mrs. Clement C. Yerkes, member of a pioneer Northville family, died a few days before her 87th birthday. Born January 20, 1876, of Eleanor Starkweather Thompson and Edwin B. Thompson, she was the mother of Edmund P. Yerkes.

TWENTY YEARS AGO...
"It's a long time," agreed Agnes Drews, Pauline Stannard and Martha Morgan on the occasion of completing their 25th year at the Phoenix plant. The first robin sighting of the year was reported by the James Telam family.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO...
Preliminary plans for a $1.3 million junior-senior high school on Taft road were presented to the Novi board of education.

TEN YEARS AGO...
Police Chief Lee BeGole was elected president of the Oakland County Law Enforcement association.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO...
Pictures of C. William Heard, William A. Hanson, and Louis Bouchard were published in The Record under the heading, "Northville Servicemen—American Heroes."

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO...
The Northville school system was temporarily out of debt but only for two or three weeks. It got out of the red when Township Treasurer Roy Terrill turned over enough money from tax collections to pay off three notes, each for $5,000 which the school board had borrowed in November and December to meet its bills.

Of Record-Novi News Reporter, Cartoonist Join Staff

A former magazine editor and a Ford Motor company artist have joined The Northville Record-Novi News editorial staff.

Burley Hendricks, who for six years was managing editor of School Shop magazine and associate editor of Lakeland Boating magazine, assumes the reporting post formerly held by Holland Peterson, now editor of The South Lyon Herald.

Joining the staff as cartoonist is John Wortman, a Northville resident who works as a body engineer illus-

Hendricks is a graduate of Gables high school. During World War II he served as a mechanic with a B-29 squadron in the South Pacific.

He lives with his wife and son in Chelsea. He plans to move to this area upon his son's graduation from Chelsea high school in June.

As a reporter here, he will cover both the Northville and the Novi-Wixom areas.

Wortman has been a resident of Northville for more than 17 years. He has been an illustrator for Ford since 1953. For two years Wortman operated a hardware business in the building now occupied by this newspaper.

He lives with his wife and son, a senior at Northville high school, at 231 Wing street. His daughter is the wife of Al Laux, owner of Northville Drug, and another son lives in Mt. Clemens.

NOVI HIGHLIGHTS

Mrs. H. D. Henderson - FI-9-2428

A pre-nuptial shower was held at the Novi Community Hall Sunday afternoon in honor of Kathy Lamont, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lamont of Whipple street. The shower was given by Kathy's aunts, Mrs. Kay Debransky and Mrs. Nancy Hayes of Detroit, assisted by Mrs. Lamont. There were 35 friends and relatives present.

This week on Friday Mrs. Glen Schenmann will honor Miss Lamont at a miscellaneous shower. The guests will be neighbors of the Lamont family. A personal shower will be given for the bride elect by her aunts in Detroit some evening next week.

Kathy Lamont will become the bride of Richard Michael McFall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard McFall, Sr. of Plymouth Saturday evening January 27 at four p.m. in the Novi Methodist church.

Friends of Tom Bailey will be interested to know that for the third time he left on the Enterprise for Vietnam. The Enterprise is the largest nuclear aircraft carrier in the world. Tom is ranked as Chief Machinist Operator, B.T.-1. He received several Christmas gifts from organizations in Novi which he is most grateful.

Last Thursday the following Blue Star Mothers went to the Veterans hospital in An Arbor. For shopping during the day - Lucy Neeham, Dolly Alegiani, Florence Wyatt and Lillian Miller. For the evening bingo party -

What's Cooking

At Northville High School

Lunch will be served in the Northville junior and senior high school cafeterias only three days next week as school will be recessed Thursday and Friday for semester change.

The menu for January 22-24 is as follows: Monday - chili, meat sandwich or bread and butter, relishes, hot fudge pudding, milk; or chicken noodle soup main course alternate.

Tuesday - hamburger and gravy over mashed potatoes, corn, rolls and butter, cherry shortbread dessert, milk; or vegetable beef soup, meat sandwich alternate.

Wednesday - sloppy joe on bun, brownie potatoes, cheese wedge, relishes, peaches, milk or split pea soup, meat sandwich alternate.

At the high school only an alternate main course choice daily will be hamburger on bun and French fries.

News Around Schoolcraft

A citizens advisory committee appointed by district school officials to assist in a feasibility study for an area vocational school broke ground on its assignment at an organizational meeting at Schoolcraft College on January 4.

Thirty-two members of the committee, representing educational, industrial and commercial, and general community interests in Livonia, Plymouth, Garden City and Northville, attended the organizational meeting. Committee members had been appointed by school superintendents of the Clarenceville, Livonia, Garden City, Plymouth and Northville public school districts, which comprise the Schoolcraft College district.

The citizens group is one of two committees organized to investigate the possibility of an area vocational center. The other is an executive or steering committee.

Elected as co-chairman of the advisory group will provide most of the leg-work and data-gathering tasks involved in the study - were Carvel M. Bentley, principal of Plymouth High, and Russell Millar, school board member from Garden City.

The advisory committee's assignment is to obtain and review data on the need and feasibility of an area vocational center. AS the study progresses, the group will also formulate recommendations, based on data collected, to the executive committee.

To tackle the assignment, the committee members elected three subcommittee chairmen and staffed up each of the subcommittees. In this phase of the organization:

Dr. Donald E. Friedrich, director of secondary education for the Livonia schools, was elected chairman of the subcommittee on population and enrollment. Serving with him will be Fred Turner, from the Clarenceville district; Stanley Glamb, Garden City; and Glenn E. Deibert and James Hayward, both of Northville.

James R. Laatsch, manager of the Industrial relations department at the Ford Transmission Plant, Livonia, was elected chairman of the subcommittee on occupational demands. Serving with him will be Elbert Hartom and Leo Hasley of the Clarenceville district; John Parry, Raymond Kellon and Richard Lechel of Garden City; Mrs. Phyllis Patterson of Livonia; Carl Stephens and John Hyde of Northville; and Joe West, Clarence Moore, Dr. Gary Hall and Jerry Greer, of the Plymouth district.

King's Mill Joins Parade of Homes

Twenty-six homes and apartment units, including the King's Mill Townhouses of Northville township, opened January 5 for the parade of homes sponsored annually by the 800-member Builders' association of metropolitan Detroit.

An educational "show window" event, the exhibition is intended to give families in all age and income brackets a look-study opportunity to find out for themselves what the housing dollar will buy in 1968.

The Parade of Idea Homes and Apartments is a co-operative effort of established firms who have been building in the Detroit area for a half-century and longer.

Tied into the Idea Home and Apartment Parade is the show's grand prize, a $20,000 give-away, to be decided upon following the close of the Cobo Hall Home, Furniture and Flower Show on February 25. The show will open February 17.

The person having the closest estimate to the number of nails in a small plastic model house, to be unveiled in a few days, will get the prize as a full 100

Winter Term Classes Set

Registrations are now being accepted for the winter term of Plymouth adult education and recreation activities, Director Herbert Woolweaver announced.

Deadline for registering is January 26.

High school credit classes are available to Northville residents free of cost - if the enrollee is working towards his diploma, he is a post-graduate under 20 years of age, or is a veteran of the armed services.

All other students must pay a registration of $25 for the credit classes. Among the many classes offered are: Auto maintenance, American history, business machines, shorthand, welding, art, basic math, English, biology, sociology, and geography.

Persons wishing additional information are asked to call Woolweaver at his office at GL 3-3100.

Board of Education Minutes

Year-Round School approach, the development of the necessary steps to be taken in a transition to this program, and a thorough cost analysis of the operation of a Year-Round School versus that of our program, both present and future.

Motion carried.

Following action by the Board to adopt the preceding Resolution, President Cook requested names of interested citizens to participate in the Year-Round School study. Miss Edgerton, Elementary Librarian, offered a suggestion from the floor that past members of the Citizens Advisory Committee might be potential participants. Superintendent Spear cited the desirability of investigating the possibility of soliciting participation from past Advisory Committee members. In connection with this, Mr. Kipfer suggested the establishment of a steering committee, effectively utilizing the services of both faculty members and the community.

President Cook directed the Board to consider the possibility of membership on the committee along with volunteers. Mr. Cook requested that the agenda for the January 8, 1967 Board meeting include the establishment of a committee, with both timetable and structure lined up.

Motion No. 67-150 by Mr. Kipfer, supported by Mr. Delbert, that the Superintendent be authorized to send an administrator to each of the following out-of-state conferences:

American Association of School Administrators, Feb. 17-21, Atlantic City, New Jersey.

National Association of Secondary School Principals, Feb. 9-14, Atlantic City, New Jersey.

National Department of Elementary School Principals - March 30-April 3, Houston, Texas.

North Central Association - Chicago, Illinois, March 24-28.

Motion carried.

Motion No. 67-151 by Mr. Kipfer, supported by Mr. Martin, that the Group Life Insurance Program, covering each District employee with a $1,000 Life Insurance Policy and an Accidental Death Benefit Rider, be awarded to the Aetna Life Insurance Company, Northville Insurance Company, agent, for a period of not less than one year. Motion carried.

Superintendent Spear informed the board that the Northville Teachers Association had requested that consideration be given to closing of school at noon on Friday, December 22, 1967 instead of at the end of the regular school day. Mr. Spear reviewed the events leading to the establishment of December 22 as a day of attendance in the Master Agreement School Calendar. He pointed out that if there is noon dismissal on December 22, the Association has agreed to use for Curriculum Work Sessions the two Saturdays established on the Calendar as teacher work days, thus eliminating the need to use four half-days (one each month) for four months during this school year for curriculum study purposes.

Motion No. 67-152 by Mr. Martin, supported by Mr. Kipfer, that the Superintendent be authorized to close school at noon on Friday, December 22, 1967 in accordance with his recommendation. Motion carried, with Mr. Delbert abstaining.

In an oral report to the Board, Superintendent Spear reviewed Board action of November 13, 1967 and No-

Keith Kraus Writes Textbook

High school and college students throughout the country are using a recent book written by a former Northville high school teacher, W. Keith Kraus.

Kraus, who taught in Northville from 1956 to 1962, is the author of a literature study guide to Charles Dickens' David Copperfield. The guide, one of the relatively new Book Notes series, has been found to aid in understanding and appreciating the original work according to reports received by the publisher, Barnes & Noble, of New York.

Kraus is currently working on the Ph.D. degree in American Literature at Southern Illinois University. He is an academic leave from Shipensburg State college in Pennsylvania, where he is an assistant professor of English; he plans to return to Shipensburg when he has completed the course work for his doctorate.

Last summer, Kraus worked on the Illinois Test in the Teaching of English, under a grant from the Illinois Curriculum committee.

In The Good Ol' Days Community Lived for Next Circle N Game

They called 'em the Circle N club, a collection of baseball fanatics who fired the enthusiasm of Northville fans back before the U-boat sinking of the Lusitana captured their attention.

Northville had some great teams in those days, playing Plymouth, Holly and other nearby communities, recalls recently retired Donald P. Yerkes, Jr. descendant of one of Northville's earliest settlers and son of a man who hauled a fast ball as rapidly as he zipped about his floor and grain mills.

"Frankly, I really didn't know my father was so baseball oriented until later in life," says Yerkes.

Donald P., Sr., played for the old Michigan State Agricultural college under a grant from the Illinois Curriculum committee.

He earned his living by pitching the first two victories of the old agricultural college notched over the University of Michigan.

About this time he also was a fast ball pitcher for the professional state league team out of Lansing.

"I have little recollection of my father's playing days, only a little of what people told me later. He was wrapped up in operating several mills in the area, including the one in Northville and one in Milford, so I don't see how he ever had the time."

Although his father played baseball locally, his son doubts that he ever played for the famed Circle N teams, which probably came along later.

Years later, his father and Harry Germain, an amazing Northville athlete who was still pitching at the ripe age of 70, used to meet at the former's Base Line mill, compare baseball notes and argue over which was the better pitcher, laughs Donald P., Jr.

Community baseball in those days, he says, was the lifeblood of Northville. Rivalry between Northville and the surrounding communities "was terrific. Folks would drive their horses and buggies for miles to watch a game... played over at the old fairground where the Downs is now located."

The Circle N club was an exclusive group, attracting players from Northville and other communities. While it had no professional status, its players had their own clubhouse - the location of which Yerkes does not recall. His father coached one of the teams, and the younger Yerkes later played on a team that wore the old Circle N uniforms.

Some of the players on these teams are still living. (Horace Boyden, 230 First street, a player with the Circle N club, believes the clubhouse was located in the old opera house. "When we played on a Saturday afternoon, the staves would practically close up. Some 600 to 800 people would turn out to watch." Most players were just out of high school or were still in high school but out during the summer vacation, he explains. Competition was about the caliber of what today is called Triple A ball.)

Donald P., Sr., who died in 1947 at the age of 81, took over the operation of the old Northville mill from his brother, William and Robert, in 1894. In 1889, it had operated under the name, Simonds & (William) Yerkes, manufacturing the then popular "Gold Lace" family flour.

Located on the west side of Griswold, north of where the Ford parking lot is now situated, the mill, started in 1845, is believed to have been in the same general vicinity of Northville's first mill operated by John Miller, reputed to be the first settler in the community prior to 1830.

Upon acquiring the business, Donald P., Sr. immediately placed his father-in-law, L. E. McRobert, in charge of the mill and moved to Milford to operate the community's mill.

On March 15, 1920, Henry Ford purchased the Yerkes mill, then operated by father and son, to acquire its water power source. He also purchased, about this time, Charles Dubur's lumber office, about where the Ford parking lot is now located, and the James Dubur manufacturing plant, on the site of the Ford Valve plant.

The mill recalls Yerkes, Jr., "was a typical three-story type structure. It faced Griswold - and the old interurban tracks. Water came down out of the mill pond from the north, along a narrow mill race, dropped some 15 feet to a "modern" turbine-type water wheel that drove the grinding machinery, and then swept past the building along a tail race and into the creek.

Ford tore the building down, and Yerkes and his father kept only a few pieces of the equipment, such as the grain cleaner, when they built a mill and lumber building on Base Line

Schoolcraft Awards 56 Diplomas

Diplomas and certificates have been awarded to 56 Schoolcraft College students who completed graduation requirements during the fall semester which ended December 31, according to an announcement by Registrar Norman E. Dunn.

Of the graduates, 45 earned the Associate degree and 11 earned the Certificate of Program completion.

The associate degree in arts was awarded to 30 students, six others earned the A.D. in technology, and two students each earned the A.D. in engineering, the A.D. in science, and the A.D. in general studies. The A.D. in business studies was awarded to three students.

Of those earning certificates, five received them in liberal arts, two in business administration; and one each in secondary education, electronic technology, general secretarial studies and elementary education.

The list of local graduates includes:

Associate degree in arts - Jean A. Miller, elementary education; Catherine A. Uley, liberal arts; Iria Wozniak, elementary education, all three of Northville.

Associate degree in technology - Gary F. Williams, electronic technology, Northville.

Associate degree in business studies - Judith A. Snelgrove, general secretary, Northville.

Associate degree in engineering - Richard J. VanEe, engineering.

Defective Cars Draw Knights to Host Commander Kirby

Operating autos with defective equipment on Northville streets led to additional difficulty for several drivers and their passengers last week.

After stopping a car for defective tail lights, Northville police issued a violation notice for operating a vehicle with improper license plates to the driver Andy Lee Porter, and towed the vehicle to storage at the department's public works yard. The auto reportedly belonged to a passenger, Cecil Fuson, Detroit.

Driving with no tail lights also brought difficulty concerning registration for driver James Curtis, Belvidere, Illinois. Police reported that license plates on the vehicle were registered for a different car owned by a Walled Lake resident. Police were holding the car pending clearing up the registration.

After being stopped for speeding on South Main street early Thursday morning, Lawrence Edward Werner, Livonia, was cited for speeding and for driving on an expired driver's license. Ypsilanti police, who were holding a warrant for Werner on another traffic violation, were notified.

Police towed away a tractor equipped with snow plow and bucket on complaints that the vehicle had been sitting on Maplewood more than a week. Failure to move the vehicle after 48 hour notice had been given brought a citation for abandoning a vehicle against Robert E. Findling, 47425 Battelford.

SPEAKING for The Record

By BILL SLIGER

I'm not sure whether Jack Hoffman is pulling my leg, or not. But he swears it's the gospel when he reports reading an article on "head transplants" in a national magazine recently.

If it's true, I can see trouble with a capital T, and that rhymes with P and that stands for Problems!

I found it difficult to believe that medics were sewing severed arms and legs back on, and they were growing.

Even more miraculous is the replacement of worn-out kidneys and hearts with used, but good-as-new models.

But a new head? Somebody's got to be kidding.

According to Hoffman, the latest medical miracle is the transplanting of a head from one person to another. Presumably, patient 'A' is doomed to die from an ailment that has not afflicted the brain, while patient 'B' has a perfectly good body, but brain or head injury that is beyond repair.

Trouble, Trouble, Trouble!
"Not at all, it's simple," insisted Hoffman. "You've got to read the article. It's terrific!"

"Don't want to," I replied. "I just can't be done. Too many problems!"

For example: Patient A and patient B enter the hospital. A couple of weeks later, patient A (the body) walks out wearing patient B's head.

Now where does he go? If the body goes to patient A's house and says "hi, honey, what's for dinner?", and gives her a big kiss with patient B's head, what's going to happen?

Trouble.
If we start switching heads and bodies, which one of the guys is still living and who stands the expense of a funeral?

"It's simple," insists Hoffman, "the one who was doomed to die is the one who's dead!"

I can't buy that. They'd both be dead if it weren't for the other. So in a sense, both live and both die.

"Let me give you another example," I told Hoffman, getting "deadly" serious.

Patient A (the body) is "Frank" and patient B (the head) is "Joe". After the transplant everybody would be calling Frank. Joe. Now Joe may have been a center on the New York Celtics basketball team. He goes back to work and everybody recognizes him when he's sitting down, but when he stands up, instead of being 6'7", he's only 5'9".

Is that Joe? Of course not; he's not the center for the Celtics; that's Frank, a short-order chef.

But what would sports fans think if they saw their sports' idol, Joe, dishing up hamburgers and French fries?

Besides, think of the wives of Frank and Joe, fighting over which was entitled to insurance benefits.

No. It just can't be done. Not with heads.

Hoffman insists the technique is being developed and has great potential. Come to think of it, that's what he

"Boy! I can't wait until I'm big enough to drive a real car," exclaimed one of the kids that inhabit our house. He was playing a toy car through a company of plastic soldiers, scattering them about the living room battlefield. "How old will I be?" he asked.

Young man, I said inspecting the damage he'd inflicted on one of my rifle-men, if I have my way you'll be married and out of the house before you plunk your foot down behind the steering wheel. One menace in the house is sufficient, I added, nodding silently in the direction of his mother.

It was a mistake because later, after returning the soldiers to the cardboard barracks, he asked his mother, "What's a menace?"

"It's someone or something that causes a lot of trouble," she replied.

"How long have you been a menace?"

The following is "lifted" from Bob Silbar's Fenton Independent editorial page. He calls it "Fiddle Fiddle".

Ice fishing on nearby lakes is just getting under way, which reminded us of the farmer who was accused of illegal fishing in spearing fish through holes in the ice. At his trial one of his friends was a reluctant witness. The smart young attorney from the county prosecutor's office was grilling him.

"Didn't those holes in the ice look fresh to you?" the attorney demanded. The reluctant witness thought a minute, then said, "I dunno. I couldn't tell for sure if they were this year's holes or last year's."

They tell of John Jacob Astor, one of the nation's richest men, that once a committee called on him for a donation for some worthy charity. The old man checked the subscription list carefully, to see who had contributed. Then he wrote the committee a check for $50.

Disappointed, one of the committee members said, "We actually were hoping for more, Mr. Astor. Your song was $100." "Ah," old Mr. Astor replied. "William has a rich father. Mine was very poor."

The Bob Fergussons, we note in the telephone book, have separate telephone books for their children. We know of a dad who gave his daughter her own phone for her birthday but soon found she was still using his. Asked why, she replied, "I didn't want to tie up my line."

accused of false pretenses. And yet this delightful symbol has served as a false witness for the goodwill of this otherwise warm community.

A few people I have talked to at this well have come regularly for many years. Many of these people are elder citizens who risk their lives to drive here, even in very bad weather. It is because of this that I turn my face away from shame whenever I see an old person being dislodged in this fair city. Indeed, I wonder what families have known a traffic death caused by some faithful "customer" coming to the Northville well.

Let us end this false pretense by posting a plaque, once and for all, stating what the water is. This is not being done, will serve as an act of omission

But, when these 13 people from out of town must come to Northville for their drivers licenses Northville has a chance to show 13 potential customers what it can offer in friendly, personal service. They will see the merchants' displays, stop for a cup of coffee, browse in the shops, pick up a few groceries and go home feeling it has been a profitable day.

Northville businessmen do offer good merchandise and personal attention to shoppers but out of town shoppers won't know this if they don't come to town. Is it the aim of the merchants of Northville to allow the Council to do away with the License Bureau, thus stopping these potential customers and money from reaching the counters of this community?

Top of the Deck

by JACK W. HOFFMAN

Later, after putting the kids to bed, she turned on me, snarling. "That was a nasty thing to say to one of your children. If anyone can't drive in our house, it's you. How many parking tickets did you get last week?"

"But parking tickets don't count," I said defensively.

"Okay, okay, but don't you call for help when they look you up someday. Just tell the judge they don't count."

Whereupon the debate degenerated to a stormy free-for-all, climaxed by a silly comparison of automobile scratches, nicks and dents. And as usually happens, I was declared the winner with a scratch or two more.

Frankly, I dread the day when our kids will ask for the car because of my own early experiences with motorized vehicles.

The first was a short-lived trip aboard a monstrous tractor - one of those early kind with two giant steel wheels that had long teeth called lugs. I left the yard in a few jerky spurts, rounded the barn and promptly gashed the corn cob, razed a fence and terrorized a few dozen sheep.

The trip ended abruptly when one of the wheels decided to climb up over the edge of a water trough. The wounded machine flipped over onto its side and spun around in a crazy circle on one of its metal wheels, the other clutching helplessly at the air.

Two years later I graduated to a racy, stick-shift '36 Chevy. It was a beauty - spoke wheels, bucket seats, and air conditioned by a little metal fan mounted on the dash.

I was demoted to the bicycle a week or two later after ditching the car in front of the house. Ironically, I wasn't behind the steering wheel when it happened.

Returning home after midnight - a violation of the greatest magnitude in our house, I realized those six cylinders would signal my arrival and raise an angry father from his bed. Rather than disturb his sleep, I decided to stop the car a few hundred feet from the drive and push it the remainder of the distance.

The car was too heavy to push from the side and steep at the same time, so I pointed the car towards home and put my shoulder to the trunk. I was nearly to the drive when the car turned from the humpback roadway and rolled, despite futile efforts to dig my heels into the gravel, to the bottom of a six foot deep ditch.

Fortunately, the noise failed to penetrate the bedroom. So, sneaking into the house, I rang up my buddy whom I'd dropped off earlier and whispered, "Buff, I'm in the ditch. Bring your jeep. But be quiet."

"Be right over," he said.

He roared past me as I tried to flag him down before he got to the house, spun into the driveway, backed out in a cloud of dust and shot back to the car as the lights in the bedroom popped to life.

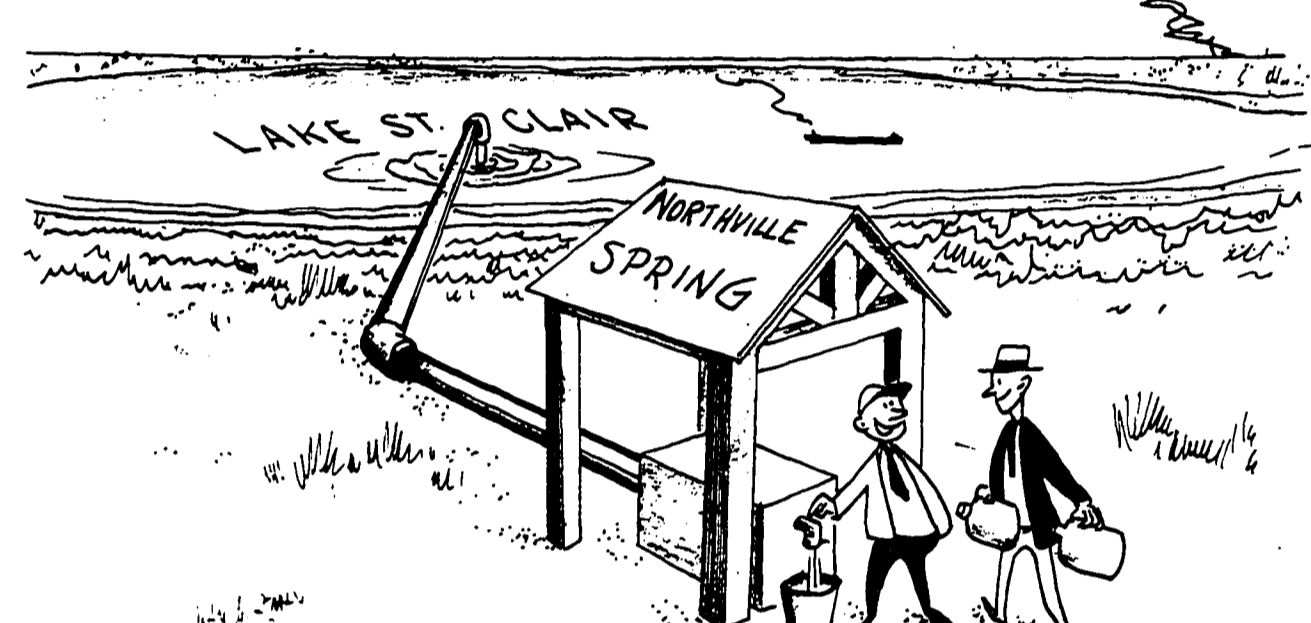

"Had some trouble, eh? Don't worry, I'll have you out in a minute," the jeep driver snarped.

True to his word, Buff had me out in a minute. But the trip inside the house was even quicker - riding the breeze whipped up by the pulsating willow that followed my tag.

Which brings me back to a concluding remark of the woman who claimed fewer scratches than I:

"When your kids start driving, just remember that a long time ago you were probably young yourself."

Precisely.

"MAN, THIS NORTHVILLE SPRING WATER IS THE GREATEST!"

A LOOSE LEAF

By ROLLY PETERSON

"And takes only 5 pints of oil. Not quarts.

"4 spark plugs. Not 6 or 8."

Get the idea?

The bug. The American car in reverse, you might say. Because VW does everything backwards and gets away with it. Engine in the rear is but one feature they play up that gets them down to earth.

But where VW scooped them all - in advertising - is their emphasis on body design. Who, in his right mind and in this wide, ever-changing world would have thought of pulling for the status quo? And made it work? VW. That's who.

While American car designers are putting the latest fashion in the show case, VW has been holding to the same body style. In fact, not at all. Ever since 1949, when the first VW visited the United States, VW has been gaining in sales.

Furthermore, Volkswagens never die. They don't even fade away. Go to a junk yard. Look for a bug. You won't find many. Probably none, because a Volkswagen bought in 1949 is still in fashion. Like the girl you married in the same year. Same chassis, with a few nicks and new wrinkles, but the same reliable girl, older but still attractive.

It's irritating. In a way.

Ever ride down the expressway, cruising about 70 miles per hour and a Volkswagen passes you by, in your speeding, new, sleek, power-packed American car? You tromp on the gas, pass the Volkswagen and look back, through your rearview mirror, in disdain.

"Start with the VW's purchase price. 'It's lower than most other cars'. So it can usually save you more than most other cars."

"In fact, compared to the prices of some cars, a new VW can save you enough to also buy a good used VW. And give you two cars for the price of one."

"Running a VW can save you money, too."

"It gets up to 27 mpg. On regular gas."

Flying Ambulances Tested for Highways

LANSING - Many an injured soldier in Vietnam owes his life to a helicopter. Such prompt medical attention may soon be available to those injured on Michigan highways. Superior Ambulance Service, Wyandotte, purchased a Bell Ranger 47-J helicopter and is providing airborne emergency transportation to hospitals within a 100-mile radius of its home base in Westland.

Service is on a trial basis, but Superior president Walter A. Gutkowski feels that the helicopter rescue unit will bring about a rapid increase in demand for the service. In its initial test the 'copter made a pickup in Garden City and delivered the patient at University Hospital, Ann Arbor, 25 minutes after it was called.

TRAFFIC-CLOGGED expressways which hinder ambulance runs present little problem for the vertical travel of a helicopter. Rural roads, rendered impassable by snow or mud, offer no obstacles to the agile "whirlybird."

Rates for the service are comparable to land vehicles: $30 plus $1.50 per mile. Conventional ambulance rates in the area run $25 plus $1 per mile, but Gutkowski smilingly notes that the shorter "circuit" route may make the higher mileage rate of the helicopter more a bargain than land ambulances.

According to Gutkowski, the helicopter can carry two injured persons and cruises at 90 miles per hour. Its top speed is 105. With its night-flying equipment the 'copter can fly in almost any weather, except for heavy sleet.

UNIVERSITY HOSPITAL plans to blacktop, fence and light a landing pad 70 feet in diameter and only 100 yards from its emergency entrance.

Plans also call for two-way radio communication between the hospital and the helicopter.

Several University hospital physicians have studied helicopter use in combat zones and are confident that the new service will prove its value in emergency cases. The director of the hospital also cites helicopter service as a faster way to transport difficult cases referred from other institutions, notably those suffering head injuries, severe burns and spinal injuries.

It seems likely that future hospital plans will call for helicopter landing pads as standard equipment.

DEATH CAN BE REDUCED substantially on the highways any time the people of the state want it, Michigan officials believe.

Michigan's new "consent law" went into effect November 2. The full effect of the law is not yet felt, but the number arrested for drunken driving has doubled. The law requires that suspects take a test or forfeit their licenses.

Officials are concerned that the law has loopholes which will permit some to escape it. If the test showed only a trace of alcohol, the driver received a stiff penalty. Apparently people paid attention to the law. Figures from this year's Christmas weekend show there were 50% fewer arrests for drunkenness than last year and 40% fewer accidents.

About Our Servicemen

Ft. Knox, Kentucky—Ronald L. Deaton, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ollie J. Deaton, 2524 West Wixom road, was promoted to Army private pay grade E-2 upon completion of basic combat training at Ft. Knox, Kentucky.

The promotions were awarded two months earlier than is customary under an Army policy providing incentive for outstanding trainees.

As many as half the trainees in each training cycle are eligible for the early promotion, based on scores attained during range firing, high score on the physical combat proficiency test, military bearing and leadership potential.

The promotion was awarded two months earlier than is customary under an Army policy providing incentive for outstanding trainees.

Long Binh, Vietnam—William W. Rinesmith, 20, son of Mrs. Eram Davy, 260 Glenmore avenue, Whitmore Lake, was promoted to Army specialist four December 13 while serving as an ammunition storage specialist in the 60th Ordnance Company near Long Binh, Vietnam, December 13.

Private First Class Paul M. Suobank, who entered the service on August

10, received his basic training at Ft. Knox, Kentucky.

He is presently stationed at Ft. Rucker, Alabama, where he is being trained for helicopters. He is the son of Walter Suobank, 2383 West LeBost, Novi.

Eighteen-year-old Michael D. Utley, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Utley, 777 Grace street, left this past week for the naval air training station at Jacksonville, Florida following a 10-day furlough.

Utley entered a special six-months Marine Corps program shortly before Thanksgiving. He recently completed boot training at Paris Island, South Carolina.

Following his active enlistment, he will enroll in a police administration course, beginning at Schofield and finishing probably at Michigan State University.

Ft. Knox, Kentucky—Army Private Michael J. Nagle, son of Mr. and Mrs. George R. Nagle, 5613 Caribart avenue was his company's high scorer on the physical combat proficiency test held at the end of his basic training cycle at Ft. Knox, Kentucky, December 15.

The rised test, based on skills that require coordination and endurance, is designed to evaluate a soldier's physical capabilities and to determine whether he has the stamina needed in battle.

Draft Board's Back in Business

Plymouth Local Board No. 102, whose office was destroyed by fire last week, has resumed operations from temporary quarters located in the Post Office Building at 860 Penniman avenue in Plymouth, it has been announced by Colonel Arthur A. Holmes, state director of Selective Service.

The office staff headed by Mrs. Lucia M. Fedeli, chief clerk, is on the job to accept registrations and transact other essential draft board business. The board office may be reached at the same telephone number as previously—GL 3-0223.

All men who registered at the old local board office during the month of December 1967 are requested to return to complete their registrations as soon as possible. These registrants can then be issued their registration certificates which they are required by law to have in their possession.

All men becoming 18 years of age since December 31, including the week before the fire, are also requested to report to the local board to complete their current registration and arrange to receive their registration certificates.

The Selective Service Act requires all young men to register on their 18th birthday or within five days thereafter. Thus all males becoming 18 will report to a draft board on a continuing basis to be registered.

Records of Local Board No. 102 are now being reconstructed based on duplicate copies at the state headquarters in Lansing. As Selective Service files are reconstructed in the future, registrants will be advised by letter of any additional records required.

Members of Local Board No. 102, who will review all classification actions as the records are reconstructed, are Judge John L. Mokersky of Inkster, chairman; Leonard Broquet of Northville, secretary; and Vernon Becker of Detroit, Joseph S. Griebel of Livonia and George P. Manoles of Northville.

Northville Enters 'Cleanest' Contest

Northville has entered the 1967 National Clean Up Contest. Its entry has been received at Contest headquarters in Washington, D.C.

The National Clean Up Contest, which is the oldest and largest competition of its kind in the United States, is sponsored by the National Clean Up-Paint Up-Fix Up Bureau.

"The progressive, civic-minded people of this community are to be congratulated for their accomplishments," said Bureau Director R. H. Hachenshah. "The results they achieved show that these citizens have accepted the challenge to work in partnership with organizations and departments of city government to attack the problem areas of their community."

The contest entry, in scrapbook form, will be judged with entries from other cities and towns of the same size throughout the country. All entries are judged in one of the three following population categories: Under 25,000 people; Between 25,000 and 250,000 people; and Over 250,000 people. Judging will take place in late January, and the results will be announced then.

Those communities receiving an engraved trophy, a distinguished achievement award, or a certificate of honorable mention will accept their awards at the Cleanest Town Conference, February 18-20, in Washington, D.C. The highest possible award, the Trigg Trophy, will go to one city, regardless of size, which the judges decide best exemplifies the principles of the Bureau's nationwide community improvement program.

Police Call It 'Juvenile Mobility' Cars, Cash, Time Aid Delinquency

EDITOR'S NOTE—Following is the second of a series of articles on young people and the law. The series explores behavior patterns of young people, violations, and the thinking and planning of law enforcement personnel in the Northville-Nowi area on topics of prevention, control and how young people and communities can best be served while living as part of a sprawling urban complex.

While some communities in the metropolitan area might be islands politically, where law enforcement and youth are concerned it's more like one vast neighborhood.

Cars, cash, time and good roads give our youngsters a mobility that far exceeds that of most adults. When Novi or Northville police stop a youthful driver quite frequently he or she is from another community. Whatever the motivation, young people with cars tend to leave the home community—often without parental knowledge and against parental wishes.

This tendency to leave the home community, and perhaps drive or behave differently when away, can provide opportunity to achieve a high-priority aim of authorities working with youth. That is, to make the parents aware of and get them involved with their youngsters' behavior that makes difficulty for the youngster and the communities.

For example, the father of a Westland boy was working a night shift in a factory. He was unconcerned about his car, which he thought was at rest in the plant lot. He was unaware that his teenage son had a key to the car, was taking it from the lot, joy riding around the area and returning the car before his father's work ended.

The father was made aware of the practice when Northville police stopped the youngster for a traffic violation. In another case a Northville boy removed a car from a local parking lot. Northville police did not locate the car. Farmington police apprehended the youth when the car was stopped for racing on Farmington streets.

A most important service local police offer in these situations is to establish communications into the youth's home community.

Novi and Northville police spokesmen regard this communication as critically important. It is related to the practice of impounding of cars on the

Annual March of Dimes Mothers Seek Donations To Combat Birth Defects

Several hundred mothers in the Northville-Nowi area will join thousands of volunteers in Wayne and Oakland counties in the annual Mothers' March to be held during the day and evening of Tuesday, January 30.

In Northville areas where the collection is not made in the daytime, residents are asked to turn on porch lights to welcome the mother volunteers. Because of winter weather conditions, Novi mothers will do most of their collecting in advance.

This collection in the March Dimes' 30th anniversary campaign is the most important event of the month-long drive to expand a three-point program of medical care, scientific research and public education in the fight against birth defects. John Steinel, Northville general chairman, pointed out as he announced several area fundraising events to be held during the campaign.

pinpoint specific locations in which volunteers will solicit funds for the continuing battle against crippling diseases and birth defects.

The Wixom city council appointed Howard Croft to the vacant constable post but postponed action on appointments to fill vacancies on the planning commission and board of canvassers.

Acting on Mayor Wesley McAtee's recommendation the council appointed Croft, a dairy farmer and life-long Wixom resident to the unsalaried position. The appointment is for an unspecified term. The appointee serves at the pleasure of the council. He is paid on a fee basis.

Acting in response to notice of impending deadlines for governmental units to comment on applications for renewal of Class C liquor licenses, the council decided to take more time and consider the topic at another early meeting.

Among other business, the council heard Wixom Police Chief D'Arcy Young report on possibilities of acquiring post-ridgely police dispatching service from Walled Lake. At council request, the Mayor directed Young to procure more detailed information about equipment needs and other factors involved in the department.

Novi arrangements are being made by Mrs. Kathy Kinzer of Highland Hills estate. She and her captives have an Oakland county goal of $500 which would top last year's collection of $325.88.

As in other Wayne county locations, no Northville goal has been set, but workers are hoping to top last year's overall collection of $2,846.51, which included $1,103.68 from the Mothers' March.

Since sleet storms hampered collections on the March night both of the preceding two years Oakland county workers are asked to solicit any day during the week January 23-30 in order to have collections made by January 30.

Northville-area workers, according to Mrs. Maureen LaBaha, Wayne county field coordinator for the campaign, may march either in the daytime or in the evening next Tuesday.

Wixom-Walled Lake area volunteers are asked to do so collecting any day during the campaign week, Mrs. Bertha King, Commerce township Mothers' March chairman, said. Assisting her in Wixom is the Hickory Hills subdivisions Mrs. Martha Turin. She is in need of a March chairman for the city of Wixom and would appreciate any volunteers calling her, 624-3052.

Commerce township collection last year of $1,318.80 included a small showing from Wixom. Goal this year is $1,700.

Final instructions to Mothers' March volunteers in Northville were to be given at a coffee Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Kuesner. She and Mrs. Harrison reported this week that area telephone calls had obtained 14 of the 16 subdivision chairmen needed.

Steinel, who replaces Mrs. Hiram Pacific, who served for two years as March of Dimes chairman in Northville, pointed out that much of the money contributed in the March of Dimes goes into a research program seeking to shed light on the mysteries of birth defects. Another portion is earmarked for public education programs and another, to support a countrywide network of birth defects centers.

Arrangements for the Battle of the Bands by the Northville Teen Cavern are under the chairmanship of Cavern president, Leo Cherne. This is scheduled for February 3.

The jazz band program, tentatively set for February 6, is under chairmanship of William Steinel of the jazz band. The program is being planned to include not only Northville's host band but also bands from Southfield and Stevenson high schools.

Date has not been set for the faculty basketball game which will be a third benefit under the chairmanship of Donald VanNegen, Northville junior high principal.

In some sections of Walled Lake the Mothers' March total was expected to be increased with special dinner collections in bars and restaurants.

In Wixom Howard Croft Named Constable

The Wixom city council appointed Howard Croft to the vacant constable post but postponed action on appointments to fill vacancies on the planning commission and board of canvassers.

Acting on Mayor Wesley McAtee's recommendation the council appointed Croft, a dairy farmer and life-long Wixom resident to the unsalaried position. The appointment is for an unspecified term. The appointee serves at the pleasure of the council. He is paid on a fee basis.

Among other business, the council heard Wixom Police Chief D'Arcy Young report on possibilities of acquiring post-ridgely police dispatching service from Walled Lake. At council request, the Mayor directed Young to procure more detailed information about equipment needs and other factors involved in the department.

An invitation from the Pontiac police department inviting Wixom participation in a meeting to explore development of mutual assistance pact among law enforcement agencies in the area drew interest and comment from Councilman Ray Lahti.

Lahti sought to ascertain whether riot training programs might conflict or compete with police training programs at Oakland county community college. He also raised questions about why formation of such a proposed mutual assistance pact should originate from a city, rather than from a county or more encompassing governmental unit.

Young was authorized to attend an exploratory meeting on the matter and report back to the council.

Opening of bids for installation of a concrete floor and a vehicle hoist in the new DPW garage brought approval of a low bid from Joe Reimer of Walled Lake. His bid was for $1,970. Council received recommendation of the contractor from Trombley. The winning bid for the hoist was from Colman Supply company of Detroit at $3,131.61.

9 Candidates File in Wixom

Contests for mayor of Wixom and three council seats to be filled in the April 1 elections developed this week as petitions were filed for seven candidates for council and two for mayor.

Incumbent Mayor Wesley McAtee will face a challenge from Frank Jadzinski, former Wixom police chief, on the April 1 date.

The seven aspirants for the three council seats must stand a primary election, scheduled for February 20, to reduce the yield by one.

Incumbent Councilmen Oscar Simmons and Gunnar Mettala will be joined in the primary contest by William Alfred, Charles McCall, Mary Farva, Kathryn Miner and Nell Taylor.

A third incumbent councilman, Donald Nissen, is not running.

Post Office Move Revealed

Novi's post office will be moved to new quarters within two months, The Novi News learned Thursday.

According to Postmaster General Lawrence F. O'Brien, a contract has been awarded to Mrs. Francisella Meier for lease of new quarters at 45355 Grand River.

He said the move is aimed at improving postal operations here.

Under the department's lease construction program, Mrs. Meier will improve the building, located just west of Novi road on the south side of Grand River, and lease it to the department for five years with three three-year renewal options of the lease band.

The newer one-story building will offer more working room than the present facility, he said. It will have an interior space of 1,798 square feet of parking and maneuvering area.

He explained that the department's capital investment is limited substantially to postal equipment. The building will remain under private ownership, with the owner — Mrs. Meier, paying local real estate taxes.

The present post office building is owned by Frazer Staman, former Novi supervisor.

"This new project," said O'Brien, "is in accordance with our policy of building new post offices only where they are urgently needed. We are constantly reassessing our construction program to determine whether present buildings can be altered or remodeled to take care of our expanding mail volume.

"We now have about 45,000 postal locations throughout the country handling an anticipated volume of 82.5 billion pieces of mail for the 1967-68 fiscal year. By 1970 it is expected to rise to 80 billion.

"Our employees are doing a great job of processing the mail. But it is clear that if we are to meet the demands of our growing population we must make use of the best mechanical equipment available in areas where it is economically justified.

"We are also constantly seeking to develop new ideas and new postal techniques, such as ZIP Code, to help process the mail more efficiently and economically."
