

Volkswagen leaps into the present.

With a fully automatic transmission.

If you bet a friend we never would, we almost didn't.

10 years ago the decision was made. To design a fully automatic transmission. The kind you put in drive and forget.

Our aim was to make things easy, but for us changes aren't easy to make.

Especially in this case. There were certain things we just didn't want to lose.

Like horsepower, and our reputation for being economical.

What we've ended up with is a 3-speed automatic transmission that's pure Volkswagen—designed from scratch to get the most out of the VW with the least expenditure of effort. It has the fewest moving parts.

It's the lightest per horsepower output. And it's incredibly sensitive. (A model airplane engine is powerful enough to turn it.)

So come see how far Volkswagen has come.

The Squareback and Fastback. Both have disk brakes, an electronically controlled fuel injection system, and now, a fully automatic transmission.

If you're interested, it's available as an option on our '69 models.

If you're not interested, we sure went to a lot of trouble for nothing.

Esch, Vivian Attack President's Vietnam Policy

INTERVIEWS Campaign '68

ESCH

Are we going to accept the mistaken idea that federal money will solve our problems? That one question, declares

Congressman Marvin Esch, GOP candidate for re-election in the Second Congressional District, is the all-important one in this year's Presidential election.

Vietnam, crime in the streets, education—all are important election issues—but the role of the federal government in solving social ills is the overriding issue, he contends.

Among other statements made by the congressman in an interview with this newspaper were:

—Unlike many Republicans, he opposes the Johnson administration's policy in Vietnam.

—Of the GOP nominees put forth in Florida, the first preferred Michigan Governor George Romney as the most ideal presidential candidate and second, New York Governor Nelson Rockefeller.

—With Richard Nixon as his party's standard bearer, he is finding a "party spirit" of enthusiasm and party unity in the Second Congressional District.

INTERVIEWS Campaign '68

VIVIAN

Although it may spell political suicide, the Democratic candidate for the Second Congressional District, Wes Vivian, opposes the Johnson administration's Vietnam policy and vigorously attacks Governor George Wallace.

The former congressman, who seeks to regain the seat lost to GOP Congressman Marvin Esch two years ago, candidly admits, too, that Eugene McCarthy, Ted Kennedy, and particularly George McGovern better represented his views than does Vice-President Hubert Humphrey and that the candidacy of any one of these three men probably would have enhanced his own candidacy.

Nevertheless, Vivian is convinced that the Vice-President's current pro-administration views on Vietnam will soon change significantly and that Humphrey will take a stand on this issue more closely identified with that of his own.

"I don't see the American's presence there (in Vietnam) as having any more benefit to the United States and very little for the South Vietnamese," declared Vivian when questioned by this newspaper.

Woman Killed, Driver Arrested

A 20-year-old Union Lake woman was killed instantly last week Tuesday night in a spectacular two-car collision on East Lake Drive. Pronounced dead at the scene was Marcella Elsie Hatfield, who, according to police, was riding in her car driven by Gerald E. Weaver, 24, of 42479 Thirteen Mile Road.

Bicyclists Hit By Car, Hurt

Two Novi boys are reported in good condition at Botsford Hospital after their bicycles were struck by a car at 5 p.m. Monday on 10 Mile road near Beck.

Bruce Simmons, 14, 46320 West 10-Mile, suffered a broken hand and had 47 stitches taken in his groin. The other bicyclist, Gary Whitfield, 13, 24120 Linwood, suffered cuts and bruises on his right leg.

The accident occurred when Malcolm J. Detlefs, 29, of 41151 McMahon Circle, driving west on 10-Mile in his 1965 Tempra, swerved to avoid hitting William R. Little, 77, of 47430 10-Mile who was standing in the road.

Traveling at 65 MPH, the Detlefs car skidded 300 feet, Novi police said, before striking the two boys and sliding into the ditch. Detlefs was not injured.

Both boys stated to Novi police at the scene that the vehicle had swerved to avoid hitting Little. They were taken to Botsford by Casterline.

On the schedule of events, final commission approval comes just before the document is submitted to the attorney general for his stamp of approval, before publication and distribution of the proposal to the public, and before voters vote on it.

During the past months, the commission has voted approval of each section it completes. And each time disagreements have arisen, it is emphasized that the disputed issues can be reopened for discussion upon final approval. Many non-unanimous decisions have been made, but relatively few have been over major issues.

Type of government—manager versus strong mayor—is one of the major issues likely to come up again, although the commission has already voted to go with the city manager. Similarly, that portion of the charter dealing with the director of public safety will come up for another round of debate—as it has for the past several weeks.

One of the reasons for repeated debate on the latter issues is that two or more sections of the proposed charter concern this post directly or indirectly. Thus, while the section establishing the post has already been approved—although not unanimously—subsequent chapter also discuss it, thereby feeding further debate.

Last week, for example, the commission took up the chapter dealing with the functions of the director of public safety and related personnel. In a split vote (5 to 2) the commission voted to provide that the city council serve as the board of health and that the health officer be appointed by the director of public safety.

In other actions last week, the commission voted to provide for "at least" three public meetings involving special assessments. The first is to be a preliminary hearing in which preliminary costs are stated; the second will be for the purpose of further discussion and detailing of "firm" cost matter at the October 8 meeting.

Appointments took up the remainder of the council's agenda for the meeting.

Mayor McAtee suggested that Fay Wana, city treasurer, was the best and most logical appointee to the post of city assessor, primarily a signatory office connected directly with city finances. Council agreed and the appointment was accepted.

Delegates chosen to the annual MERS meeting concerning the proposed amendments to the Retirement Act to be held at the Pantlind Hotel in Grand Rapids on October 16 included: for the city Councilwoman Lottie Chambers and alternate, Councilmen Charles McCall; and for the employees, Robert Wagnitz and alternate, Donna Thorsberg.

Mrs. Neal (Donna) Taylor was reappointed beautification representative.

Council also was required to draft a resolution to permit city employees to have money taken from their checks to pay for their insurance. A resolution was adopted to adopt a resolution drafted by council attorney Schelz in this matter.

Adjournment for the council and the 25 to 30 interested citizens in attendance came at 9:01 p.m.

Wixom Council Up in Arms

A "firearms fight" between citizen Lloyd Croft and Police Chief D'Arcy Young highlighted Tuesday's Wixom Council meeting.

Croft, who claimed he had brought three guns to Young in 1962 to be registered and returned to him, sought the return of the third of these weapons. Young claimed Croft had not brought the guns to him until 1964.

Council considered the ensuing argument about when the registration proceedings were begun to be of no consequence and sought speedy settlement of the case.

Croft produced a receipt he had written out for the gun in question and stated that he would be willing to give it to Young in exchange for the firearm.

Young argued that he needed the original receipt for all three weapons in order to keep his records straight. At this point council requested Chief Young to receive Croft's receipt in fair exchange. After further discussion, the exchange was finally effected.

During the "roll to the public" portion of the meeting, Croft raised a question concerning why citizens were requested to register firearms when the police did not prosecute hunters who were caught trespassing on private property. Mayor Wesley McAtee said the matter would be investigated.

A number of other citizens of Wixom spoke up as well. Most complaints were directed at needed road repairs. Councilman R. W. Lahti pointed out that Oakland County seemed to be running a bit behind in its obligations, perhaps due to the millage deficit in the primary election. Neal Taylor felt that the serious problems on Flamingo Road should be corrected despite this situation. Council was in agreement here, and felt that something might be done by the city if costs weren't prohibitive.

Attorney Gene Schelz reported that an enabling act for establishment of water systems in Wixom is being worked out and will be mailed to council prior to the next regular meeting. Council agreed to vote on this

As Final Approval Nears Charter Debate Brewing

It's becoming more and more apparent as work on the Novi city charter progresses that earlier approval of individual sections merely represents the calm before the storm.

Although the bulk of the charter has already been written and tentatively approved, final approval awaits completion of the entire document. And at that time, old disputes are certain to spark renewed debate.

In the schedule of events, final commission approval comes just before the document is submitted to the attorney general for his stamp of approval, before publication and distribution of the proposal to the public, and before voters vote on it.

CHURCH DEDICATION—The First Baptist Church of Wixom conducted a dedication Sunday afternoon of its new $150,000 educational unit. U-M Heart Transplant Excites Northville Pair

The progress of Michigan's first heart transplant patient, Philip T. Barnum, at University of Michigan has been of special interest and concern to two Northville residents who are on the hospital staff.

Dr. Charles Wheatley had been serving on the U-M medical team keeping the patient alive until a suitable donor could be found while Mrs. John DaSilva (Judy Nauman), a cardiac surgery nurse, has Barnum among her patients.

Dr. Wheatley, who completed his internist specialized training at the university in June, now is in cardiology.

His entire family found the news of the transplant for the 49-year-old Kalamazoo accountant "extremely exciting" as they knew Dr. Wheatley and other doctors on the hospital medical staff had been awaiting a donor since the patient had been transferred to the coronary care unit August 8 from Ann Arbor Veterans' hospital. They knew that through new drugs that patient had been kept alive for three weeks while a donor whose systems matched was sought.

Dr. Wheatley had met Philip Barnum when he was first a patient at veterans' hospital and was there when the decision was made to give the transplant.

The patient was among Mrs. DaSilva's patients when she returned to duty Sunday night in the cardiac surgery unit. She had been on an eight-day vacation to Hawaii where she had a reunion with her husband, Dr. John DaSilva, who was on rest leave from duty in Vietnam.

He has been serving near Quang Tri where recent casualties have been taken.

Awaiting Trial On Gun Charge

Jerry Cole, who has operated the Mobil service station on Novi Road at 196, is being held at Oakland County Jail on $2000 bond in the guns and credit cards case that has kept the Novi police force tied up for the past two weeks.

Cole, arrested before Justice of Peace Emery Jacques on Thursday, September 19 and had his bond reduced from $5,000, but was returned to county jail to await trial.

The charges against Cole are fraudulent use of credit cards and possession of unregistered gun or guns.

Story Hour To Return

The always popular story hour program, sponsored by the Novi Public Library, will resume on Wednesday, October 2, Librarian Mrs. Robert Flattery announced this week.

Open to all pre-school youngsters of Novi, the story hour will be held weekly at 2 p.m.

The storyteller for the first program will be Mrs. Kalin Johnson. Thereafter, mothers of the children will take turns reading stories.

South Lyon Youth Jailed

Michael Bulmon of South Lyon who was cooling his heels in jail for the next 30 days.

Bulmon, 21, and Lee Mullins, 17, of 128 Maudlin were charged with assault and battery for abducting two juvenile girls and their young brother as they walked home from babysitting on West Lake Drive. The abduction occurred in front of the address where the children had been working, only four houses from their own home.

Novi Corporal Dale Gross and his police dog Banner were called to assist the Wixom police force when the car containing the youths and the three juveniles was forced to the side of the road on Loon Lake Road and the two boys fled on foot. Police were able to capture Bulmon. Mullins is being sought on a Novi police warrant for arraignment.

The incident occurred Monday night, and Justice of Peace Emery Jacques sentenced the Bulmon youth to 30 days in jail upon arraignment Tuesday morning.

Steve Bosak's winning entry was nearly perfect. In addition to missing the tie game between Texas and Houston, he only slipped up on the University of Michigan. And you can probably blame that to loyalty.

There's another contest this week. So turn to page 8-B and try again.

Rezoning Request Recommended

Northville township planners recommended approval of a rezoning request submitted by the Boron Oil Company to permit construction of a service station at Six Mile and Haggerty.

The action was taken Tuesday evening. Last month the planning board held a public hearing on the request and received a petition containing 35 signatures of residents of the area objecting to the rezoning.

The board's recommendation now goes to the township board of trustees for final action. It will probably be considered at next Tuesday's meeting.

Ex-Northville Business Celebrates 40th Year

A business that operated in Northville during its early days is celebrating its fortieth anniversary this weekend.

Saxton's Garden Center, 587 West Ann Arbor trail, Plymouth, is celebrating its birthday with a three-day sale event and open house today, Friday and Saturday.

Once there were three Saxton stores - "Northville Feed", "Redford Feed" and "Plymouth Feed". The Northville store was located for many years on the northeast corner of Cady and Center streets from 1928 until 1943. In more recent years the corner was the site of Guemsey Farms Dairy.

It, too, has moved and now the corner is used as a parking lot for Northville Lanes bowling alley. Northville Feed was also located at 144 East Main street.

Dean Saxton, original owner of Northville Feed, now shares the business with his son, Bill, who is manager of the Garden Center in Plymouth. Dean says that occasionally one of his original customers from Northville will stop at his Plymouth store for a chat. He hopes more will visit him for refreshments this week.

Tails We Win, Heads You Lose

Often overlooked in the game of football is the little program drama in the center of the gridiron. Some games are won or lost there. Not so in the Novi game Friday but won the game easily, 39-6, which was the identical score Northville posted in winning the same day. See details on sports page.

Grid Fans Start Slow Good Contest Entries Scarce

Good entries were scarce in the first Northville Record-Nowi News football contest of the new season.

Only three contestants missed less than five games. And Steve Bosak, 43000 Nine Mile Road, was all alone in first place with only two wrong selections.

Jack Williams, 505 Rouge Street, and Steve Kehrer, 46090 Norton street, each submitted entries with just four wrong but Williams was awarded second place money because his prediction of the score between the Lions and Bears was closer than Kehrer's.

Few fans were loyal enough to pick the Lions, who had suffered a one-sided defeat in Dallas a week ago.

Steve Bosak's winning entry was nearly perfect. In addition to missing the tie game between Texas and Houston, he only slipped up on the University of Michigan. And you can probably blame that to loyalty.

Daylight Savings Time Up to Voters
5 State Proposals to Appear on November Ballot

Voters in the Presidential election will be confronted with five state propositions when they go to the polls in November.

One of the questions will concern the question of daylight savings time.

The question requiring a yes or no vote is: Shall the state of Michigan observe daylight savings time?

The other proposals include: 1. An income tax at flat rates or graduated as to rate or base may be imposed by the state or any of its subdivisions?

The proposal seeks to remove the present restrictions against the adoption of a graduated income tax.

Presently, the law permits a flat rate income tax only.

Despite Growth, Airport Seen Inadequate by 1980's

TALUS (Detroit Regional Transportation and Land Use Study) has announced publication of a 300-page inventory of air, rail, trucking, waterway and pipeline facilities in the seven counties of Southeastern Michigan.

At the current rate of growth in airline passenger traffic, which has been averaging 15 percent per year at Metro, an 800 percent increase will occur in about 15 years", TALUS concludes.

"Thus, it is not too early to begin steps towards selection of a location for a second airport to serve the Detroit Metropolitan region. Because the existing Willow Run Airport uses essentially the same air space as Detroit Metropolitan, Willow Run is not suitable for consideration as a second airport."

Wayne County Road Commission staff members headed by Robert A. Larson, planning and negotiating engineer, completed the inventory under terms of a special contract with TALUS. The study is one of the first comprehensive region-wide inventories of such facilities in the nation.

The study shows, Rubin said, how technological developments in transportation have affected and helped maintain economic growth in Southeastern Michigan.

"Each transportation mode has a basic level of goods traffic", Rubin said, "whose volume and relationship to other modes is independent of the level of the economy. However, all modes are dependent on the level of new automobile production as a determinant of their total volume."

One of TALUS' conclusions is that even with a six-fold increase in passenger capacity, resulting from contemplating the establishment of additional regional assembly plants to reduce the high cost of shipping new automobiles over long distances."

"Introduction of auto-rack car service permitted such drastic reduction in the per vehicle cost of delivering new cars to distant points that the trend towards regional assembly plants was abandoned in favor of increased concentration of automobile manufacturing in Southeastern Michigan."

Another element demonstrating the influence of innovation in transport capability is the "hi-cube" railroad boxcar. Twice as long and half again as high as the standard boxcar, "hi-cube" units provide triple standard boxcar capacity and are being utilized for shipment to out-of-state final assembly plants of sheet metal stampings such as doors and fenders. "Uni-train" freight cars which convert into trailers for trucks are also an influence.

Among the other highlights of the report: *Intrastate (within Michigan) trucking accounts for 45 percent of all trucks weighed at stations in SEM. When truck movements in Ohio, Pennsylvania, Illinois, and Indiana are added, 90 percent of all truck movements are accounted for, emphasizing the role of heavy trucking as carrier of goods over distances of less than 250 miles.

*Coal comprises 25 percent of the total inbound waterway tonnage (about 94 million tons annually). Diversion of much of this tonnage to rail may occur in the next decade. However, this will not reduce pressures on the region's seven for-hire general cargo port facilities which do not handle coal and bulk commodities, and trends in water-borne movements will bear watching to determine if, and when, an additional general cargo terminal might be required.

*The U.S. Air Force Base at Selfridge Field would make a good location for a second major commercial airport in the 1980's; necessary steps should be taken now to obtain the facility in the event it is abandoned by the USAF.

*Pipelines shipping natural gas and petroleum into the region are not a major problem in land use because these are underground. Nine firms are operating pipelines in the region. Among the data items: natural gas sales in SEM increased 190 percent between 1955 and 1964.
