Based on the efforts of Alexander Mackenzie to establish a route to the Pacific Ocean, the film takes viewers with Cooper over the portion of the Mackenzie trip from the western prairies to the sea.

Mackenzie, the first man to cross the continent north of Mexico, traversed such a wild and hazardous route that it was never used. However, it gave Canada its first valid claim to the West Coast and was of great importance in the subsequent boundary negotiations between the United States and Canada.

Speaker Cooper himself has an adventure-filled background. Son of the late George R. Cooper, senator of Montana, he was born and raised in the logging camps of Western Montana. He and his brother, Dennis, "logged" for ten years in Alaska before exploring the wilds of Canada.

"Many people are surprised," he reports, "to find that agriculture is widespread in the rolling prairies of Alberta where sugar beets and large fields of wheat are grown and cattle are raised."

In Alberta, Rotary "travelers" will view Edmonton, the capitol and site of the University of Alberta. Close by is the Indian village of Westaskwin where tribal dances are photographed.

Mackenzie's route carried him through much of what now is Jasper National Park. Here Mackenzie made

Northville Police Hit Books

In the belief that a better educated police force can better serve the community, Northville police personnel attended some 1,640 hours of training courses in 1968.

Leading the officers in school attendance was Patrolman Howard Reeves who took 280 hours of course work (240 at Oakland Police Academy, 40 in accident investigation). Also taking 240 hours were Chief Samuel Elkins (12 semester credits toward Bachelor of Science degree in police administration at Oakland University), Patrolman Ronald Wankowicz (same work as chief) and Cadets Wayne West and Ronald Kellerman (at Oakland Police Academy in learning to become officers).

Patrolman Robert Pankov took 120 hours of "Police Officer and the Law" at Wayne State University.

THE NOVI NEWS

OFFICIAL NEWSPAPER OF THE VILLAGE AND TOWNSHIP OF NOVI, AND THE CITY OF WIXOM
Vol. 15, No. 39, 22 Pages, Two Sections • Novi, Michigan- Thursday, February 13, 1969 • 10c Per Copy, $4 Per Year In Advance

Novi City Charter Goes To Voters on Tuesday

Having already voted favorably last year to incorporate Novi as a city, citizens of the village will go to the polls again Tuesday - this time to approve or disapprove a proposed charter under which the new city will operate.

Under the new charter, citizens will vote for the mayor and six councilmen separately. The mayor, however, serves as a member of the council with little additional powers other than holding the title, presiding at council meetings, and carrying the added weight of having been elected by the people.

Additional mileage for either operation of the city or the library requires a special vote of the people. Among other provisions of the proposed charter are -

Election of councilmen and the mayor by a vote of the people at large, rather than by wards as was suggested repeatedly during commission debate. Council members can deal with administrative service only through the city manager, and no individual member may give orders to subordinates of the manager either privately or publicly.

$500,000 Home For Aged Opens

That impressive new building on Meadowbrook Road north of Ten Mile is now open for business. It is the Meadowbrook Nursing Care Facility and it is expected to house up to 147 elderly patients for whom it will provide skilled nursing 24 hours a day, seven days a week, with a registered nurse on duty at all times.

Administrator Kenneth Lifton of Oak Park opened the doors Friday for admission of some 15 patients to the west wing of the home. State approval came Thursday afternoon. The present staff consists of 22 persons in addition to the professional consultants. When it reaches capacity, there will be 80-100 personnel, Lifton said. Supervising the nursing personnel is Mrs. Michael R. Austin, R.N., of South Lyon who holds the title of nursing director.

Wixom Rezoning Tops City Agenda

Wixom moved to establish a protective buffer zone in the public hearing portion of the council's Tuesday meeting. The zone was created by rezoning 25.02 acres of land on Beck Road extending north from Pontiac Trail from RA-2 to RC Multiple. This land, owned by Howard Keating, is located on the west side of Beck directly across from Walled Lake Western High School.

Hit by Car, Man Dies A 51-year old father of eight children was fatally injured last week when struck by a car while crossing Grand River near Novi Road.

McQueen's death is the first traffic fatality in Novi this year. His obituary appears on Page 5-A

Nine Seek Seven Posts

Names of nine candidates seeking seven city posts will appear on the ballot Tuesday when Novi citizens go to the polls to approve or disapprove a proposed city charter.

City incorporation of Novi was approved by Novi voters early last year. Passage of the charter and election of officials will complete the change from village to city status for Novi - now the largest village in Michigan.

Forum on Charter Slated Tomorrow

A public meeting to discuss the proposed new city charter of Novi will be sponsored by the Novi Jaycees tomorrow (Friday) night in the community building.

On hand for the 8 p.m. meeting will be members of the charter commission which drew up the document and candidates for council and mayor of the new city.

Citizens will have an opportunity to question any of the candidates and charter commissioners about the charter and the upcoming election. "We urge citizens of our community to turn out and learn as much about the new charter as possible before voting Tuesday," Jaycee representative, C.M. Collins, said.

It will be an excellent opportunity to meet and observe the candidates in action as they express their anticipated roles in city government. Collins suggested that citizens review the charter mailed to them in the mail or to pick one up at the village hall prior to the meeting. The charter, reminded Collins, has been approved by the state and signed by the governor and needs only the ratification now by the people to make incorporation a reality.

NCC Backs City The proposed Novi city charter received the unanimous endorsement of the Novi Chamber of Commerce here Thursday night. Incorporation itself was endorsed early last year by the Chamber. The Chamber's latest endorsement is the second to be announced by groups within Novi. Last week, Herbert Koester, spokesman for a group of property owners in the southeastern portion of the community, said the informal organization that had previously fought incorporation was now supporting both cityhood and the charter.

Florida Trip Caps Northville Wedding

A wedding trip to Miami followed the candlelight marriage of Sandra Kay Parmenter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred C. Parmenter, 727 Thayer Boulevard, and Arthur Ernest Forth II, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Forth Sr., 21718 Kilrush.

The Reverend Lloyd Brasu officiated at the January 25 ceremony at Northville First Presbyterian Church at the altar decorated with palms and glads.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length white satin gown, fashioned with an Empire bodice with pearl and crystal beading on the alabaster lace trim. Its Victorian collar was of lace and the long, satin sleeves tapered to a point over the hands. An A-line detachable Watteau train fell from her shoulders. Borrowed from her sister, Mrs. James (Pam) Correll of Utica, was her double illusion veil attached to a pearl and crystal crown.

Under her bouquet of roses, stephanotis and ivy, the bride added a personal touch of sentiment. She carried the Bible of her grandfather, Ralph B. Willis, which she had covered with white satin and lace.

Mrs. Correll was her sister's matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Diane Ambler, Gail Nisider, Carol Owens (sister of the bridegroom), all of Northville, and Judy Freeman of Grand Rapids.

Their olive-green velvet gowns were floor-length, styled with satin stand-up collars. They carried white muffs which matched the white fur pillows that held their olive-green veils. Deep red roses were pinned to Mrs. Correll's muff while those of the bridesmaids had light pink roses.

Rick Mihle was best man. Ushers were Jim Correll, Utica; Dennis Riley, St. Clair Shores; John Jamison and Larry Forth, Northville.

For the wedding and reception at Livonia Roma Hall for 240 guests from New York, Louisiana, Chicago, Grand Rapids, Detroit and Northville the bride's mother wore a blue crepe, floor-length gown with a jewel neckline. The bridegroom's mother chose mint green.

Mrs. Edwin Langtry was organist for the wedding. William Williams was the singer. Fraternity brothers of the bridegroom (Delta Sigma Phi) attending the reception serenaded the couple by singing the Sweetheart and Fraternity song.

Both the bride and her husband are 1965 graduates of Northville high school. The bride, who took a two-year secretarial course at Central Michigan University is affiliated with Alpha Chi Omega Sorority. Her husband, now a senior at CMU, expects to be graduated in June.

For her plane trip south the bride had her green dress and navy coat ensemble which she accessorized with navy. The newlyweds now are making their home in the CMU married housing facilities at Mt. Pleasant.

League to Discuss Chemical Warfare

Marking the 100th birthday of the founder of the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom will be a program at 8 p.m. Monday by the Northville-Plymouth branch at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Kuhns, 47530 West Ann Arbor Road, Plymouth.

Dr. Alice Hamilton, the league's founder, now is living in Massachusetts. A co-worker of the late Jane Addams, Dr. Hamilton formerly was a professor in the Harvard School of Public Health.

A pioneer in industrial medicine, she wrote about industrial health hazards in her autobiography, "Exploring the Dangerous Trades."

She also was a leader in the fight to outlaw war with its weapons of mass destruction. She was one of the American women meeting with Jane Addams at the Hague in 1915 to discuss ways that women could help to end World War I. They founded the league at this time.

Monday's program, therefore, is to be on "Weapons of Mass Destruction," including chemical and biological weapons. These are pollutants, the league states, whose "extreme hazards are being increasingly exposed."

The league's new pamphlet, "Danger to Mankind: Chemical and Biological Warfare," will be available at the meeting. Anyone not attending who would like a copy may write the discussion leader, Mrs. Alice Woodruff, 20145 Beck Road.

1969 Citizenship Award Goes to Pam Witzke

Pam Witzke, a Northville high school senior, has been named recipient of the 1969 Daughters of the American Revolution Good Citizen Award from Northville, the local Sarah Ann Cochran Chapter announces this week.

Pam, daughter of the Arthur E. Witzkes, 45731 Fermanagh Drive, will be honored at a DAR Good Citizen luncheon at noon Monday with six other area recipients at the home of Mrs. Theodore Benson, 38620 Morningstar. Judy Allen is the Plymouth honoree.

The award annually is presented to the senior high school girl selected by her teachers as representative of the best type of young citizen. She must be active in her school, with all round interests and a good student, the DAR states.

The luncheon will be followed by the chapter's general meeting for February. K. D. Streiff from the University of Michigan will speak on student loans.

Other special interest groups are in the process of being formed and will be announced soon.

In Our Town

By JEAN DAY

"HOW SWEET it is" for chairman of special events this winter. It seems that dinners, benefits, talks and most programs are getting record attendances - the third annual area Republican Lincoln Day Dinner drawing a capacity crowd February 5 and the Northville Woman's Club seating almost 200 at its men's night program last Friday.

The trend to increased participation has been apparent in everything from the newly organized League of Women Voters meetings to PTA and Rotary Travelogue series (fourth is tonight).

One reason suggested is that area residents are looking for "evenings out" nearer home, rather than venturing into Detroit... and, of course, we're growing. (It was energetic newcomers who made the LWV a going thing.)

At any rate, it's bringing top-rate events to Our Town.

A SPAGHETTI dinner to be served at the high school cafeteria before the Northville-West Bloomfield final home basketball game of the season Friday, February 21, is for the entire community. Sponsoring Mothers' Club members will serve from 5 to 8 p.m.

Mrs. George Murany is chairman. Proceeds will go for school and youth projects of the club.

Mrs. John Walker, ticket chairman, announces that tickets will be sold at the door at $1.50 for adults and $1 for students through high school. Assisting her are Mrs. H. O. Evans, Mrs. A. L. Wistert, Mrs. Harold Wright and Mrs. James Tellam.

"TOWN HALL" is presenting John Peer Nugent, expert on African affairs, in the third lecture of the current series at 11 a.m. next Thursday, February 20, in Northville High School auditorium.

(From its inception Town Hall has brought first-rate lecturers to town - on a par with Detroit's original Town Hall in the Fisher Theater.)

At this lecture and the luncheon following in the Plymouth Mayflower Meeting House Town Hall will honor its sponsor, Our Ladies League of Our Lady of Victory Church. At the luncheon speakers' table will be Father John Wittstock and Mrs. William McDermott, who heads our Ladies League. Mrs. Jack Scantlin and Mrs. William Tucker will be hostesses.

Nugent is to be introduced by Fred Holdsworth, Northville High School principal.

Mrs. Robert Lang, TH chairman, reports that the 1969-70 program will be announced a month earlier, in March, this year. Price for the series, she adds, will remain the same, $10. Members are reminded that Friday is the deadline for luncheon reservations.

THE REPUBLICAN dinner sponsored by the Wayne II Congressional District Republican Statutory Committee and the Plymouth Area Republican Women's Club last week Wednesday at Mayflower Meeting House was a "sell-out" days before the event, drawing more than 350.

The increase of 150 over last year's dinner undoubtedly was due in part to the dinner speaker of the evening: Governor William G. Milliken. His appearance in the area was one of the first since he had assumed the governorship.

Obviously eager to lead the state, Governor Milliken listed priority problems and gave number one position to urban ones. He emphasized that he does not intend to be a "caretaker" governor. William McLaughlin, state Republican committee vice chairman, also spoke.

Later the new governor met and shook hands with almost every guest as he stood at the door. He left with a special memento from his hostesses, a ceramic owl created by Roy Peterson, Northville High School art teacher.

THE MEN'S Night program and dinner of Northville Women's Club last Friday at the Presbyterian church drew a capacity 200. Robert White, Detroit CPA, humorously created the old "green eyeshade" image of his profession while personally characterizing the actual one. He urged the parents interest their sons in the certified public accounting field, pointing out that Donmer of GM, Townsend of Chrysler and Breech of Ford all began their careers as CPAs.

ANTIQUES will be the topic of the next Women's Club meeting at 1:30 p.m. February 21 at Northville Presbyterian church. Mrs. Charles Yahn, program chairman for the day, invites all members to plan to bring their "cherished antiques" to display at the program.

Five-minute talks will be presented on Oriental rugs, Limoges china, Pennsylvania Dutch-type fractur art, Canton and Staffordshire china.

Among collections to be displayed will be the little pitchers loaned by Mrs. T. J. Knapp, club honorary member. Since she is unable to attend, Mrs. L. G. Lee will display them.

THE ROTARY Club travelogue, "The Canadian Far West," to be shown by Don Cooper at 8 p.m. today in Northville High School auditorium will intertwine history with travel as the lecturer-adventurer follows the route of Alexander Mackenzie to the Pacific from the Western prairies.

In November Rotarians and their ticketholders also found an extra dimension in the tour of Switzerland as the speaker followed Mark Twain, providing an outstanding evening's entertainment.

Travelogue tickets are available at the door with special student rates.

Northern Lites Family Living Study Group will meet at the home of Mrs. Fay Waldren, 231 Ely Drive, at 7:30 p.m. Monday.

Women to Hear Missionary Heads Korean Radio Network

The Reverend E. Otto DeCamp of Seoul, Korea, will be guest speaker at the luncheon meeting of the Presbyterian Women's Association at 12:30 p.m. Wednesday at the church.

He will be introduced by the Reverend Lloyd Brasu, church pastor, a friend from school days.

Reverend DeCamp, who is on a year's sabbatical leave, is to be in the Detroit area for five days. In order to hear him the church women delayed their February meeting a week.

Reverend DeCamp was appointed in 1937 by the former Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. and assigned to Korea where he, the son of Presbyterian missionaries, was born.

He is director of the Christian radio network, HIKY, which now has a new short wave transmitter linking five stations in the system. The network is operated by the radio committee of the Korea National Christian Council in which the leading denominations and missions in Korea cooperate.

The station's programs of classical and Christian music, English lessons, news, dramas and sermons and its Christian message reach deep into Communist North Korea. This program is largely the result of the Reverend DeCamp's efforts as he began a number of years ago to investigate possibilities in the station went on the air in 1954.

The speaker was graduated in 1933 from Wheaton College and in 1936 from Princeton Theological Seminary. In 1940 he married Elizabeth Woods, a trained nurse serving under the Southern Presbyterian Church. During World War II the family spent several years in the United States with the minister serving as an Army chaplain. He and his family returned to Korea in 1948.

SCOUT PRIZE TONIGHT—Colleen Deibert, right, chairman of the Girl Scout card party being given by troop 222 from 7 to 11 p.m. tonight at Our Lady of Victory church hall, inspects the afghan which will be a door prize with Denise Sterner, chairman of the afghan-making project. Last summer the Girl Scouts made the strawberry freezer jam which will be table prizes at the party to raise funds for troop trips. Any one is invited to come any time during the evening with tickets at $1.25 being sold at the door. The Scouts will serve dessert and coffee.

Overture to Star Soprano

Overture to Opera 1969 announcements are being addressed by members of the local Overture committee headed by Mrs. Ernest Slave. They include the program for Overture's second appearance in Northville at 8 p.m. March 22 in Northville High School auditorium.

It is to be one of 12 performances in southeastern Michigan being given between February 9 and March 22. "Der Jasager" (The Choice), written by Jurt Well in Berlin in 1930 in collaboration with Bertolt Brecht, and Il Campanello (The Night Bell) by Donizetti will be presented by the Metropolitan Opera Association of Detroit in partnership with Oakland University.

Appearing in "Der Jasager" will be Elsie Inselman, 1969 winner, announced January 27, of the Elizabeth Hodges Donovan $1,000 scholarship award created by the Detroit opera association this year in memory of the late Mrs. Frank Donovan, wife of the association board chairman. From St. Clair Shores, she is a soprano and will sing the role of the mother.

Emily Derr, of Lansing, won the $2,500 Grinnell Foundation of Music award at auditions following the Detroit Grand Opera Association annual luncheon.

Last year's Grinnell Foundation winner, Philip Zaugg, also will be appearing in the Overture presentation, taking the role of the young man, Enrico, in Il Campanello.

The Overture program, which will be mailed to last year's patrons, also lists Detroit appearances of the Metropolitan Opera.

Auxiliary Eyes 11th Birthday

Northville State Hospital Auxiliary will celebrate its 11th year of service to the state mental hospital at a birthday luncheon at 12:30 p.m. next Tuesday at the hospital.

Members will meet the hospital's new medical superintendent, Dr. Richard Budd.

Accomplishments of the past year will be reviewed at the luncheon. Mrs. L. M. Eaton, auxiliary president, points out that the organization's main purpose is to contribute funds to benefit patients.

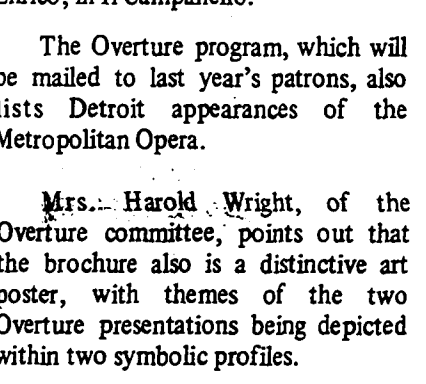

She urges members to make reservations with Mrs. C. E. Ratliff or Mrs. James Sugrue.

Can't Exceed 15-Mill Without Vote, Kelley Rules

State Attorney General Frank Kelley has ruled that a county has no authority to levy millage above the 15-mill limit for building projects not approved by a majority of the qualified electors.

The opinion was rendered upon the request of State Representative Clifford Smart.

Specifically, the question arose as the result of protests by Oakland county taxpayers because the 15-mill limit is being exceeded by 11-100ths of a mill to pay off bonding obligations for an east wing addition to the court house and certain drain installations.

One of the most vehement objectors has been Sidney Frid of Northville, a former member of the Oakland county board of supervisors. He paid his county taxes under protest and urged others to do so.

Kelley's opinion declared that "long-term" lease contracts could not be entered into beyond the millage authority, but that subsequent to issuance of bonds, rental payments may be supported by taxes imposed without limitation as to rate "where temporarily necessary."

In an accompanying opinion Kelley clarified the question of school districts extending into more than one county and their ability to impose a property tax above the 15-mill limit without a vote.

He stated: 1 - With respect to the county in which the greatest part of the area of the district is located, the 15 mill tax limitation controls. The mere fact that the district extends beyond the county line does not justify such intermediate district in exceeding the limitation;

2 - As to the county, or counties, into which the intermediate district extends, but which counties do not contain the greater part of the district, taxes must be imposed at the highest rate available in the county containing the greater part of the area of the district, even though such rate exceeds the 15-mill limitation in the county or counties containing the subordinate fraction or fractions of the district.

The Northville school district is an example of the condition outlined by Attorney General Kelley.

The major portion of the district lies in Wayne county. The Northville school district may therefore levy in Oakland and Washtenaw counties whatever millage granted under the 15-mill limit in Wayne county - even though this millage might boost the levy above 15 mills in the minority-area counties.

Conversely, Kelley's ruling would prohibit the Northville school district from using an Oakland or Washtenaw county millage levy simply because it exceeded the Wayne county allocation and applying this higher levy to the total district.

Teachers Hold Workshop

A four-objective teacher workshop at the elementary level was conducted in Northville last week Tuesday following dismissal of school.

Conducting the special program were June Emerson, visiting teacher; Mrs. Betty Sellers, reading specialist; and Mrs. Marjorie Sliger, third grade teacher.

Objectives included:

-To alert local teachers of techniques used by teachers in neighboring school districts in meeting learning disability problems.

-To help teachers recognize children who have specific learning problems.

-To present means of determining specific learning disabilities.

-To show teachers ways of meeting the child's needs.

Mrs. Sliger, who was one of the team of teachers who visited schools with perceptual, auditory and spatial learning programs, reported on workshops conducted by the Oakland Intermediate School District and the Clarenceville District.

Currently, Clarenceville has three learning disability rooms and is in the process of organizing a center, she reported. The three rooms differ from regular classrooms in that care is used to prevent distractibility, equipment is abundant, and the teacher-pupil ratio is 7 or 8 to 1. Children are able to move into regular classrooms within two years.

Mrs. Sellers, then, reviewed various learning disabilities and present the nomenclature used in education today for specific problems. She pointed out that these problems have always existed but that educators simply did not have the "know how" to cope with them. Children with perceptual, auditory or spatial problems who are now being helped, she noted, are average or better in intelligence.

Using specially prepared transparencies, Mrs. Emerson explained the Frosting materials and other simple techniques she has devised for recognizing a learning disability in a child. She illustrated these techniques with examples from local classrooms.

Home-made and purchased equipment were demonstrated by both Mrs. Emerson and Mrs. Sellers.

Historical Society To Hear Author

Dr. Ferris Lewis of Dearborn, a frequent speaker here, has entitled his 8 p.m. informal address, "Headlines Out of The Past." His talk, illustrated by a large collection of newspaper headlines, is geared to involve audience participation, he said.

"Older people especially are reminded of past when I show the

PROCLAMATION

CITY OF NORTHVILLE
Office of the Mayor
BOY SCOUT WEEK FEBRUARY 7-13, 1969

WHEREAS, The Boy Scouts of America, the Nation's largest youth organization, was founded February 8, 1910, and chartered by the Congress in 1916 for the purpose of promoting "the ability of boys to do things for themselves and others, to train them in Scoutcraft, to teach them patriotism, courage, self-reliance, and kindred virtues";

WHEREAS, Since its founding 59 years ago, the Boy Scouts of America has given over 44 million boys unique training which has provided them with an appreciation of nature, conservation, and outdoor life, while instilling in them the principles of good citizenship so ably expressed in the Scout Oath and the Scout Law;

WHEREAS, This year, the 6-million adult and boy members of the Boy Scouts of America have launched a dynamic, long-range expansion plan known as BOYPOWER '76 that will extend to 1976, the 200th anniversary of the Declaration of Independence. Using as its theme "America's manpower begins with BOYPOWER," the Boy Scouts expects to reach out to serve one out of three boys and make Scouting more relevant to the needs and concerns of today's youth;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, A. Malcolm Allen, mayor of the City of Northville, in recognition of its past achievements and its promise for the future of our youth, do hereby declare and proclaim the period of February 7-13 as Boy Scout Week in this city. All organizations and citizens are urged to conduct meaningful and appropriate observations in recognition of the material contributions of the Boy Scouts of America to the Nation and this community.

Done at the city of Northville this 3rd day of February 1969. (Signed)
A. M. Allen

Charter Examined
EDITOR'S NOTE—Following is the final in a series of questions and answers concerning the proposed city charter of Novi. Sponsored by the Novi Jaycees as a public service, the series questions asked by Jaycees and answered by charter commissioners.

For Mayor's Post
Novi City Candidates Speak Up
EDITOR'S NOTE — The three candidates for the office of mayor in Novi were invited to submit statements of not more than 500 words to this newspaper, with the suggestion that they pinpoint challenges facing the community and tell how they will cope with them.

LEO HARRAWOOD
I have a deep feeling about Novi because I've been in business here for over 24 years and active in community, civic and school affairs. I feel that based on my experience on a broad scale — that is, being in business here and involved in civic affairs — that I am best suited to cope with the growing population and business problems as well as the social unrest which we in Novi catch from the "wakeup" of surrounding communities.

JOSEPH CRUPI
Rather than write on the challenges and my solutions as requested by the editor, I believe that it would be more important in this election to discuss the adoption of the Charter. Without adoption, our views will go for naught. Novi will face loss of valuable boundaries and industrial tax base through annexation by adjacent communities.

LEO HARRAWOOD
I have a deep feeling about Novi because I've been in business here for over 24 years and active in community, civic and school affairs. I feel that based on my experience on a broad scale — that is, being in business here and involved in civic affairs — that I am best suited to cope with the growing population and business problems as well as the social unrest which we in Novi catch from the "wakeup" of surrounding communities.

Driver Hurt At Crossing
Kenneth Butt, 38, of Farmington lost an argument with the C&O crossing on Ten Mile Road Sunday afternoon.
Eastbound on Ten Mile, Butt lost control of his 1967 Ford, skidded 120 feet, crossed the tracks and knocked out a guard light before his car came to rest.

Lou Gordon To Speak Here
Well known Detroit television commentator, Lou Gordon, will speak in Northville on "Law and Order" on March 20.
The program is being arranged by the Northville Optimist club. President Dave Biery announced that tickets will soon go on public sale. The program will be held at the high school auditorium.

AIRBORNE RON HUBBARD (21) LAUNCHES A TWO-POINTER

Take Third Place Slot

Mustangs Tame Bulldogs, 68-64

BRIGHTON—Demonstrating an excellent team performance, the Mustangs nipped a fighting Bulldog quintet in an exciting, a down-to-the wire 68-64 contest here Friday night.

Like last week's game against Milford, Friday's contest was fun watching: both teams played well although the Mustangs' brand of ball was more polished.

For Coach Bob Kucher, Northville's last two outings saved the wounds of the Mustangs' poor showing at Clarenceville two weeks ago. The two-in-a-row victories boosted the Mustangs into an unaccounted third place position in the Wayne-Oakland League with a mark of six wins against four defeats.

Table with 3 columns: Team, W, L. Lists games from Clarkson 42, Clarenceville 35 to Bloomfield Andover 53, Clarkston 50.

Meanwhile, West Bloomfield maintained its front-running position Friday by defeating Milford, which slipped to fourth place, and Bloomfield Andover continued to hold down second spot by swamping Waterford cellar-dwelling Waterford.

Field goal shooting, free shots, rebounding or just plain good team play — you name it — Northville had it in edging the Bulldogs, who managed to slice through the Mustangs' full-court press but not their finely executed offense.

Even so, the Bulldogs refused to roll over. They came from behind to a lead 15-14 at the end of the first quarter and then overcame a 33-31 half-time deficit to go out from 52-51 going into the final stanza.

But with two minutes of the last quarter gone, Northville jumped into the lead, 55-54, and then maintained a slim edge that increased in the closing minutes. With four minutes to play the Mustangs led by only one point, 59-58, but at 1:22 they were out front by six, 68-62.

After shooting at a 40-percent clip in the first half, the Mustangs came back with a tremendous 82-percent effort. And at the free-throw line, Northville converted 22 of its 27 tosses for an 82-percent average compared to Brighton's 52-percent on 12 of 23 attempts.

Forward Ron Hubbard, who hit 42-percent of his shots in the first half and who went two-for-two in the second half, took top scoring honors for both teams with a total of 18 points. And Center Craig Turnbull, with an 82-percent first half effort, pulled up second best with 17 points. Third was forward Jeff Taylor with 13.

Taylor turned in the best performance on the boards, picking off an even dozen rebounds.

Best shooting effort for Brighton was turned in by Bob Musch, who netted 17 points.

Colts Ignore Jinx; Cop Number '13'

Thirteen may be an unlucky number for some — but certainly not for Northville's junior varsity basketball squad.

The Colts rolled to their 13th straight win of the season in dumping Brighton Friday night, 71-56, after the two squads finished the first half locked in a 27-27 tie.

Northville held a one-point, 14-13, lead at the end of the first quarter, left the floor at intermission with the tie, but came back strong to take a commanding 52-43 lead at the end of three quarters.

Brighton, which attempted a zone defense to start of the second half, was forced to abandon it when Bernie Bach, Northville's high scorer, quickly hit four of five shots.

Before the game ended, Bach had put a total of 29 points sandwiched between 15 rebounds.

Steve Utley, who also picked up 15 rebounds, was the second high Northville scorer with 15 points. He was followed by Kerry Cushing with 13 points and 10 rebounds.

Winning for Northville were John Stone's 17 points and 10 rebounds.

Schoolcraft Splashes Past Port Huron

Schoolcraft tuned up for the big conference swim meet coming up Friday and Saturday at Kellogg Community College in Battle Creek by winning a dual meet Friday and finishing second in a triangular on Saturday.

Coach Jack Washka's swimmers trimmed St. Clair of Port Huron 68-26 Friday night as they recorded nine first places.

Saturday they came up against rugged Grand Rapids Junior College and four-year Calvin College in a triangular in Grand Rapids which was won by the host JC with 83 points. Schoolcraft claimed second with 60 points, while Calvin registered 41.

Three firsts were recorded by Schoolcraft, all in 200 yard events.

Jim Carron Paces Cagers

A strong second half comeback fell short of its mark at Ann Arbor Saturday night and Schoolcraft dropped another basketball game.

Trailing Concordia Junior College 44-33 at the half, Schoolcraft resorted to a full-court man-to-man defense following the intermission and managed to close the gap to the final 80-74 score.

Jim Carron again paced the Schoolcraft cagers, netting 34 points. Adding 17 was Mike Kenyon, the only other local player in double figures.

Schoolcraft let a close one slip from their grasp Tuesday when they lost a 60-55 decision to Monroe Community College here.

Wrestlers Tie Despite Forfeits

A great football coach once said "A tie is like kissing your sister."

Coach Jack Townsley's mat squad tied Thursday night against Milford's Redskins (24-24), and didn't feel that way at all.

The Mustangs probably could have done better than to tie, if they hadn't been missing David D'Haene, Curt Olewnik, Brian Jones and Pat Cayley, but with forfeits accounting for half of Milford's points, they really didn't feel so bad about the tie.

Northville could have won if Heavyweight Fred Hicks had drawn with or beaten a tough, 30-pound heavier, widely praised foe. He lost a 26-18 decision after giving the match all he had, however, and the tie resulted.

Winning for Northville were John Stone's 17 points and 10 rebounds.

W-O Conference Battle Upcoming

Wayne-Oakland conference members often get an opportunity to butt heads in dual competition, but they rarely get the chance in a group meeting.

This opportunity presents itself Saturday in the big seven team conference wrestling meet which will be hosted by Northville this time around.

The preliminaries will run most of the afternoon, with two mats being utilized, so consolation finals are not expected to get underway until 6:30 p.m., with the finals (reduced to one mat) scheduled for 7:30.

Adult tickets run $1 for each session, while students ducaats sell for $.50 per session.

In addition to the trophy awarded the team (and league) champion, there will be medals for first place in each weight class and ribbons will be awarded for second, third and fourth place contestants.

Persons wishing more information on the meet, are asked to call Richard Wiggins, the tournament manager, either at school (349-3400) or at home (349-3516).

Northville Mustang winners from this event will earn a chance to compete in the district tournament in Chelsea on February 27.

Swamp Cougars, 70-57 Wildcats Avenge Early Loss

In January the green and white could do nothing right. Friday the same Novi cagers did everything right.

A visit to Dearborn Heights Annapolis early last month proved catastrophic as the Cougars ran the Wildcats off the floor.

Novi put everything together Friday, however, and the Wildcats gave the visiting Cougars a catfight they were unable to handle.

Gary Boyer scored the first point on a free throw and, although the game remained close until Novi pulled away at the end, the Wildcats never trailed. Leading 16-10 at the quarter and 35-33 at the half, the only time the local club was even tied was at the three-quarter mark at 50-50.

Novi showed it was out to win following sophomore star Jeff Korte's tying bucket near the end of the third stanza. The Wildcats pulled ahead by four early in the fourth quarter and shut out all the Cougars but Korte who tallied all seven of their final period points. Novi meshed 20 counters to Novi's little Wildcats also avenged an earlier loss to the Cougars and made it a perfect evening for the local fans when they edged the tough Annapolis foe, 63-58.

Three Cats' JV's hit double figures in the win, paced by Doug Osborn with 18 points. Bob Vivian helped with 12, while Tom Boyer meshed 11.

Novi Boosters To Meet Tonight

Novi Athletic Boosters (NAB) have scheduled an important projects meeting for 8 p.m. tonight at the high school.

The meeting has been called to discuss paying for the scoreboard (NAB thanks those who have contributed to present total of $1,400 — now only $1,100 more is needed to complete the payment). Five projects are also to be considered. These are:

Sponsoring after school activities for athletes. Forming a greeting committee for visiting sports teams. Purchasing equipment not normally furnished by tax dollars.

Encouraging increased membership. If you want to help Novi have the finest athletic program in the area, your presence tonight is urgently requested.

NORTHVILLE'S VARSITY CHEERLEADERS FIRE THE CROWD'S ENTHUSIASM IN FRIDAY'S EXCITING WIN OVER BRIGHTON

NBC to See U-M Action

Northville Boosters Club announces that it is switching its meeting tonight (Thursday) from the high school to the junior high.

Film highlights of the University of Michigan's exciting 1968 football season will be shown at the 8 p.m. meeting, with a member of the Wolverines' staff present to discuss the film. Also present will be Northville's Jerry Inland, Wolverine split end last season.

The program is open to the public — not just to NBC members. Officers will be elected for the coming year.

Pikers Score

When two Novi High School youths fish for pike in Walled Lake, they don't fool around. Rick Rossetto, 15, and Homer Payton, 17, have hauled seven pike up through the ice this winter and one of the last two was a real whopper.

Weighing 10 pounds, the predator measured 30 inches in length and was caught on a tip-up with a chub. The boys also speared a 21 incher in the same outing Sunday.

Police Kidnapper Pleads Guilty

Trial of two South Lyon men charged with the kidnapping and assault of a Novi police officer took an unexpected turn Tuesday afternoon when the defense entered a guilty plea for one of the two defendants.

Oakland County Circuit Court Judge William J. Beer accepted a guilty plea on the count of kidnapping for Giles Carl Askins, 19, and set February 26 as the date for sentencing.

Askins and Floyd Kirkendall, 31, since last summer, were charged with the kidnapping and the assault on July 30 of Officer Robert Starnes.

The trial was slated to resume today with witnesses expected to take the stand on behalf of Kirkendall who, besides the kidnapping, is being tried for assault less than intent to kill.

Tuesday's surprising move by the defense counsel caps a series of unusual trial delays. Latest of the delays occurred when one of the defense attorneys excused because he was needed as an Arabian language interpreter in the Sirhan Sirhan assassination trial in California.

Another of the five South Lyon youths, William J. Jobe, involved in the July kidnapping will be sentenced by Judge Beer on February 19. Jobe pleaded guilty on January 13 to a reduced charge of felonious assault.

Two minors involved were originally placed on probation. One, however, escaped from a juvenile home and subsequently was arrested and is now lodged in the maximum security unit at the Whitmore Lake Boys' Training School.

JUDGE LENHOULTS

Judge to Talk On Probation

Royal Oak's distinguished District Judge Keith J. Lenhouits will be a guest speaker tonight at Plymouth for a campaign meeting to interest volunteers for probationary work.

Judge Lenhouits gained national recognition and has become a much sought after advisor-speaker because of the exceptional probationary program he established in Royal Oak.

Numerous community probation departments across the nation, including the one here, are patterned after the Royal Oak department.

According to the local district judge, Dunbar Davis, the meeting will be held at 8 p.m. in the courtroom at the Plymouth City Hall.

All area residents interested in training to become voluntary probation counselors are urged to attend the meeting.

In Court

Only two cases were heard last week in the Northville division of Plymouth District Court with one other Northville case conducted in Plymouth.

Paul Riley of 19010 Balden Street had a charge of contributing to the delinquency of minors dismissed against him but pleaded guilty to the added charge of open beer in an auto and paid a fine of $35 and the $3 judgment fee.

Found guilty of speeding 45 MPH in a 35 MPH zone was James O. Fagen of Detroit. He paid a $10 fine in addition to the judgment fee.

In the case heard in Plymouth, attorney for Robert A. Haass Jr. of 42142 West Six Mile, appeared for Haass and stated that his client could not appear at this time as he is in Europe.

Haass was charged with the breaking and entering of Ramsay's Bar on January 18 from which two cases of beer were stolen.

Voters Group To See Film

Mrs. Elton McNeil, electoral college chairman for the Michigan League of Women Voters, will speak at the February general meeting of the new provisional League of Women Voters chapter for the Northville-Plymouth area at 8 p.m. Monday in the Waterman Campus Center, Room 260, Schoolcraft College.

A film, "The Beat Majority," also dealing with the electoral college is to be shown.

Guests are welcome at the meeting. Anyone interested may call Mrs. Donald Birkmeier, 453-2681, membership chairman.

Commerce, Wolverine Lake Locked in Cityhood Battle

Walled Lake is a city, Wixom is a city, how about the land which lies between them?

That, too, is destined to become a city. The question is, will it be the City of Wolverine Lake or a portion of the City of Commerce?

Commerce, says Oakland County Supervisor Robert Long of Commerce.

Wolverine Lake, says village manager Clifford Cottrell of the oldest incorporated village in Oakland County (1954).

After blocking Walled Lake's attempts to annex a third of the two square mile village, Wolverine Lake petitioned the county board of supervisors for a city election last May (under the old statute, a new statute passed later that month would have made it necessary to petition a state board instead).

A village with an $8.5 million assessed valuation, no debts, a minimal 8% mill tax, sufficient operating funds and the major population center of the township (excluding the two cities of Walled Lake and Wixom), Wolverine refused to give up without a fight.

Commerce Township countered by moving to block Wolverine Lake's action by incorporating itself into a city to include all of the previously unincorporated portions of the township (excluding a 30-acre non-contiguous parcel at 14 Mile and Decker Roads) and Wolverine Lake.

Commerce also moved to disallow the Wolverine Lake petition on grounds that it did not contain a sufficient number of valid signatures. Specifically, the township argued that the petition was invalid because it contained the signature of a woman who, with her husband, was buying a home on a land contract.

Cottrell, on the other hand, contends the signature is a valid one and that the township therefore has no legal grounds on which to stand.

Oakland County Corporation Counsel Robert Allen asked Commerce

Supervisors Decide Pay

Supervisors in both Wayne and Oakland counties voted themselves their annual salaries Tuesday - Wayne county doing so for the second time and slicing its previous proposal in half.

Wayne county supervisors voted 16-10 in favor of a flat $10,000 per year salary with Chairman Albert Zak getting $12,000. Fringe benefits add $813 per year to each salary.

Carl D. Pursell, supervisor representing Northville, Plymouth and Livonia on the Wayne county board, voted for the new salary saying "I'm not happy with the figure," but adding that it was a compromise. Pursell has opposed high salaries for supervisors.

In Oakland county supervisors approved a salary package which includes a base salary of $4,500 and $35 per day for meetings. The maximum total per supervisor was set at $7,500. The board chairman will receive a flat $10,000 and the vice-chairman, a maximum of $8,000.

Supervisor Lew Coy, representing the Northville- Novi-Wixom-South Lyon area on the board, voted against the package. The vote was 20-6 with one abstention.

NOTICE
City of Wixom

City of Wixom taxpayers are reminded that the final date for payment of taxes without penalty is Friday, February 14, 1969. Taxes are payable at the Wixom City Hall, 49045 Pontiac Trail, between the hours of 9 a.m. and 5:30 p.m.

in November to present its arguments to Wolverine Lake so that the village could formally reply to them, thus setting the stage for a decision by the boundaries committee of the Oakland County Board of Supervisors.

But since Commerce has not responded, the committee has not yet attempted to resolve the dispute. Meanwhile, without county approval an incorporation election cannot be held for either the township or Wolverine Lake.

Incorporation of Wolverine Lake in any form is distasteful to Commerce but it's particularly irritating because Wolverine Lake not only wants to incorporate the present village but extend the city boundaries outward to encompass 2.5 square miles of township land.

The present 2-square mile village would be enlarged to include area south along the Walled Lake western limits and the Wixom eastern limits to the Novi limits at Pontiac Trail, and northwest to the Proud Lake Recreation area.

Among new properties that would be snatched from the township is the north area Commerce Lakes Estates Subdivision and Lakeland Shores Subdivision.

Dog Clinic Slated in Novi By County

Area citizens were reminded this week of the Oakland County Dog Clinic slated here Sunday afternoon.

The clinic, sponsored by the County Animal Shelter, will be held at the township hall, 23850 Novi Road, from 1 to 4 p.m. Owners of dogs may obtain shots and licenses for their pets - and save some money in doing so.

Licenses for male or unsexed dogs are one dollar, with female licenses costing two dollars. After March 1, the cost for these same licenses will increase to $5 and $7.50, respectively.

Vaccinations against rabies will cost $2 at the clinic.

All citizens of Oakland County - except those residing in communities governed by specific dog ordinances - may take advantage of the clinic.

School Hires 3 Teachers

Three replacement teachers were hired by the Northville Board of Education Monday night.

The teachers, their education, salaries and assignments are:

Mrs. Betty Ann Wolford of Farmington, a 1958 graduate of Eastern Michigan University, $1,945, high school business education (half time).

Miss Carol Grill of Plymouth, a 1961 graduate of Mercy College, $4,468, junior high school.

Mrs. Virginia Taylor of Northville, 1950 graduate of Michigan State University, $1,644, junior high school (half-time).

WATER LINE BREAK-They may not have known it, but residents of homes north of Bassline Road in the city of Northville were without water between 5 and 6 a.m. Tuesday. City DPW workers soon isolated the break confining the shut-off to about a dozen homes until nearly noon. An eight-inch main on Novi street between Eight Mile and Allen Drive broke under a cave-in apparently caused by workers installing a new storm sewer in the area.

Value Showdown:

Match these features against what competition gives you for the same kind of money, and you'll have a better idea why more people are buying Chevrolets again this year.

Built-in "guard rails"
There's a strong steel beam built into every door of every 1969 Caprice, Impala, Bel Air, Biscayne, Kingswood Estate Wagon, Kingswood, Townsman and Brookwood.

We call it a side guard beam, and it looks like one of those guard rails you see along the freeway.

That's what it's there for: To guard you. To strengthen the door and put a more solid wall between you and the outside world.

Not a glamorous feature. But you'll have to admit worthwhile.

Maybe you'll order your new Chevy equipped to the hilt. Even with all the windows closed, you'll be comfortable inside. You get air without wind. Without noise.

So do we.

We also give you two up on the instrument panel.

And all four of them are adjustable so you can regulate the flow of air just the way you like it.

Either way, you're going to get your full measure of our renowned ride.

Because we go to the trouble of programming each car's equipment load into an electronic computer.

The computer then tells us exactly which springs to use, depending on the car's weight and the way it's distributed.

Chevrolet's the only car in its field with computer-selected springs.

Fenders inside fenders
We could have skipped this. (The other cars in our field do.) But we're as anxious as you are to keep your beautiful new Chevy looking beautiful and new.

So...

Up inside the regular fenders we've placed a second set.

They do all the in-fighting. Catch all the splashed-up rain, slush and road salt. Stop the kicked-up stones.

While your "outers" just sit there looking pretty.

Biggest standard V8 in our field
Ask any car enthusiast, he'll tell you: Chevrolet builds great engines. Especially V8s.

And this year there are six great V8s available for the big Chevrolet. Standard: Our 235-hp 327-cubic-inch Turbo-Fire.

Another thing: We've lowered the price of several of our bigger V8s along with our automatic transmissions and power disc brakes. Which makes it possible for you to buy a '69 Chevrolet for even less money than you could last year.

Show up for our Showdown. You can't lose.

Putting you first, keeps us first.
Impala Sport Coupe

The theft-thwarter
On the steering column there's a lock.

Only Chevrolet has it, in Chevrolet's field. You turn the key and it locks three things:

Your ignition. Your steering wheel. Your shift lever.

Surrounded by material needs, man is extremely lonely. What we desire more than anything else is meaning for life, whether we recognize this or not. Reuel Howe in his book "Man's Need and God's Action" writes "The deepest desire of all is the desire to be at one with someone, to have someone who can be at one with us, and through whom we can find a oneness with all."

We might dare to suggest then that God, God revealed in Jesus of Nazareth, is the answer to our needs. Jesus, aware of the love of His Heavenly Father, set out to shattered by divorce, young people are confused about the real values in life. In short, utter loneliness seems to have engulfed us. Reuel Howe makes this so real when he reminds us that many thousands of men and women fill mental hospitals to overflowing. "Many of them are there because somebody did not take them in and give them a place in a warm and hospitable relationship. Somebody stiff-armed them emotionally; not intentionally probably, but with such effect that they have run away from the cold ordeal of living with their fellowmen." And he relates that these experiences do not apply only to mental patients. We all suffer the ill effects of exclusion. We all exclude and hurt others.

The veil of darkness can be lifted from our lives as we turn to God and each other. God's love becomes real as persons dare to share their fear, their joy, and their love with one another.

A NEW LOOK

People who need glasses are apt to find the world pretty fuzzy without them. What appears as only a blur without their "specs" swings into sharp focus, once they've put them on.

If only there were glasses we could don quickly when we need to put ourselves, our problems, our successes and our failures into proper perspective! But that kind of lens has yet to be devised.

We all have moments when we seem to be groping and nothing comes clear. We wonder where we are going and, perhaps, why. We have such moments whether or not we go to church on Sundays—for the Church will not give us spectacles, rose-colored or otherwise, with which to view the world. But... the Church does teach us of God's world, it does teach us the meaning of Faith, it does show us life in its proper light.

Try going to church. If you do, you may find your "inner vision" getting a great deal sharper.

'Prayer Day' Services Set

"Growing Together in Christ" is the theme for this year's World Day of Prayer service.

The St. Joseph Catholic Church of South Lyon will be hosting the program this year on Friday, March 7, at 1:30 p.m. Five local churches will be represented.

Mrs. Joseph Leroy is the chairman for the Catholic Church. Mrs. Blair Race will represent the First United Presbyterian Church; Mrs. C. R. Bradley, the First United Methodist Church; Miss Esther Lee, the New Hudson United Methodist Church; and Mrs. Caxon Tank, the Holy Cross Episcopal Church.

Following the program, coffee and cookies will be served in the parish hall. All interested persons are invited to attend.

Dividends - You can deduct up to $100 in dividends received in 1968 on stocks owned in most domestic companies and corporations. If you file a joint return, you and your wife can each deduct up to $100 for a total $200 deduction. Neither of you can claim any portion of the deduction not used by the other, however, if you received $180 in dividends and your wife $60, you can deduct only $160.

Capital Gains - Short-term capital gains (profit on sale of stocks and other property) are fully taxed, just as ordinary income. However, only 50 percent of net long-term gains are taxed.

The stock or other property must have been held for more than six calendar months for the profit to be treated as a long-term capital gain. Don't count the day of purchase but include the day of sale in determining whether it was held for more than six calendar months.

Profit on a stock bought on April 30, 1968 and sold on October 31, is a short-term capital gain. It is a long-term capital gain, however, if the date is November 1.

Sick Pay (during absences from work due to illness or injury) - If your employer paid 75 percent or less of your weekly salary, and you were hospitalized for at least one day during the period of absence, up to 575 of each weekly payment during the first thirty days of absence is excludable from your total income in figuring your tax. If you weren't hospitalized, the exclusion starts with the second week's payment.

Payments during the first thirty days amounting to more than 75 percent of your regular weekly salary cannot be excluded. Payments during absences lasting longer than thirty days are excludable up to $100 a week after the first thirty days, regardless of whether the 75 percent of less rule has been met.

Timely Income Tax Filing Tips

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the fifth and final article in a series prepared by the Michigan Association of CPAs on money-saving tax "tips" in the preparation of the 1968 Federal Individual Income Tax Return.

Did you work for more than one employer in 1968? If so, it is possible that more than $343.20 in social security (FICA) tax was withheld from your wages, and you are entitled to deduct the excess from any income tax you may owe or ask for a refund.

There are other deductions and exclusions which individual taxpayers frequently overlook in figuring their tax. Here, according to C. A. Norton, president of the Michigan Association of CPAs, are some of the more common ones:

Dividends - You can deduct up to $100 in dividends received in 1968 on stocks owned in most domestic companies and corporations. If you file a joint return, you and your wife can each deduct up to $100 for a total $200 deduction. Neither of you can claim any portion of the deduction not used by the other, however, if you received $180 in dividends and your wife $60, you can deduct only $160.

Capital Gains - Short-term capital gains (profit on sale of stocks and other property) are fully taxed, just as ordinary income. However, only 50 percent of net long-term gains are taxed.

The stock or other property must have been held for more than six calendar months for the profit to be treated as a long-term capital gain. Don't count the day of purchase but include the day of sale in determining whether it was held for more than six calendar months.

Profit on a stock bought on April 30, 1968 and sold on October 31, is a short-term capital gain. It is a long-term capital gain, however, if the date is November 1.

Sick Pay (during absences from work due to illness or injury) - If your employer paid 75 percent or less of your weekly salary, and you were hospitalized for at least one day during the period of absence, up to 575 of each weekly payment during the first thirty days of absence is excludable from your total income in figuring your tax. If you weren't hospitalized, the exclusion starts with the second week's payment.

Payments during the first thirty days amounting to more than 75 percent of your regular weekly salary cannot be excluded. Payments during absences lasting longer than thirty days are excludable up to $100 a week after the first thirty days, regardless of whether the 75 percent of less rule has been met.

Out of THE PAST

FIVE YEARS AGO...
 ...Congresswoman Martha Griffiths notified Mayor A. M. Allen that the city of Northville has been awarded a federal grant of $15,578 for its comprehensive planning program.
 ...Members of Northville Lanes' bowling leagues contributed $675 toward the March of Dimes in 100 per cent participation, Angie Gadoli announced.
 ...Charles Parion, over-all chairman, and Mothers' March chairman Mrs. H. L. Dyer announced that the drive had netted $1,423.65 or better than $100 more than the previous year's march.
 ...De-watering was necessary due to the high water table in the ground through which the Novi sewer trunkline was to be laid. This expensive process had to be carried out so trenches for the pipe could be dug.
 ...Wixom Mayor Wesley McAtee was upset by the lack of a provision in the city charter concerning candidacy for other offices while a person was holding an elective office. The problem of what to do if Mrs. Lottie Chambers should be elected mayor while she was still a member of council caused McAtee to ask council to present an amendment demanding that such candidates resign from office before standing for election to another post.
 ...Northville's Mayor Allen asked the city to train a stand-by fire department in the face of possible mass resignation of the present one due to apparent inability to iron out differences between the city and the department.
TEN YEARS AGO...
 ...Northville posted its second Wayne-Oakland cage win of the season, but dropped a non-league decision to Willow Run. The freshman squad notched its eighth straight win.
 ...A chairman and 10 captains led their Mothers' Marchers in the March of Dimes drive. Chairman was Mrs. Albert Neatham, while the captains were the Meslames, Edward Angove, Paul Beard, Brian Conklin, B. G. Elliott, Marshall Huff, Sidney Junod, Gordon McKinney, Frank Paul, Donald Robinson and William St. Lawrence.
 ...Northville High School was rapidly nearing realization with completion expected within two months.
 ...Northville Mayor A. M. Allen was named secretary of Region III of Michigan Municipal League.
 ...Nearly 60 Novi Goodfellows were honored for their special contributions to the organization's success as President Charles Wallace presented them certificates.
 ...Donald E. Brooks was named to fill the unexpired term of Wixom Councilman Walter Tuck, who resigned the previous week in a surprise move.
 ...A public meeting was scheduled in an effort to sell the bond issue for Northville's proposed $300,000 water improvement program.
 ...All-night parking on Northville's city streets was outlawed to enable city crews to clear streets during night hours.
 ...Northville City Council was considering returning some money to taxpayers. The rebate would come in the form of returning tax penalty charges for late payment of taxes.
FIFTEEN YEARS AGO...
 ...After the W. C. Taggart Company of Big Rapids had brought in an oil well rated at 5,000 barrels per day, speculation was rampant as drilling began on a second one on the Glenn Angell farm on Seven Mile Road near Napier. The first had been drilled on the LeMaster farm on Napier between Seven and Eight.

Revisits London After 60 Years Wayne County Hearing Set On Soil Conservation District

In the company of his son, a United States representative at meetings of the International Standards Organization (ISO), George Lockhart of Northville returned to his native England recently after an absence of 60 years.

His son, Dr. Hugh Lockhart, assistant professor of packaging at Michigan State University, headed up the United States delegation while in England.

"My son's trip there gave me an opportunity to revisit my birthplace in England," said Lockhart. "I hadn't been in there since leaving London at the age of 16. Remarkably, the section of London I remembered had not been hit by bombs and it was much the same as when I left."

While in England, Lockhart was a guest of his son at one of the social gatherings of the ISO where France, Germany, Netherlands, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Norway, Sweden, Denmark, Italy and the United Kingdom were represented.

Also while in England, Lockhart, former president of the national piano tuners organization, was a guest speaker at a meeting of blind English piano tuners.

Purpose of the ISO meetings, which will continue over a period of 18 to 24 months, is to prepare international standards by which packaged goods may be tested to insure their safe arrival at any destination in the world.

At the present time, the ISO is preparing schedules of tests which will simulate the shipping and handling stresses experienced by packaged goods along various international shipping routes.

Standard tests and standardized test schedules are becoming more important to the United States as it trades in more and more competitive world trade.

Dr. Lockhart lives at 2021 Jefferson in Holt. His father lives here at 618 Orchard Drive.

Second step in a procedure to establish a soil conservation district in Wayne County will take place Monday with a hearing in the Ford Motor auditorium, Dearborn, beginning at 8 p.m.

First step in the process of establishing the district was the circulation of petitions requesting it.

If sufficient interest is voiced at Monday's meeting the proposition will be put up to property owners of three or more acres in Wayne County.

Wayne County is but one of two counties in Michigan without a soil conservation district, according to County Extension Agricultural Agent Donald D. Juchartz, and therefore receives no federal aid for soil conservation planning and construction.

Establishment of a district means the federal government would establish an office in Wayne County and staff it with federal employees to assist property owners, municipalities and school districts with advice and monies for soil conservation and flood control work, Juchartz explained.

One of the first projects that could be undertaken once a district is established, Juchartz said, might be a soil survey in the county. The last survey in the county was taken some 30 years ago.

Soil conservation is not an agriculturally oriented program, he emphasized. High on the list of projects undertaken by soil conservation personnel is flood control. "And we've got plenty of flood problems in Wayne—particularly along the Rouge River," he added.

Because Wayne County is not now a district, "it is really subsidizing soil conservation and flood control work in other counties." He said thousands of dollars are allotted Michigan annually by the government but because Wayne has no district it cannot share these monies.

Steps to correct problems existing in Wayne are urgently needed, he said. "Urbanized developments often change the entire character of surface water movement necessitating new and extensive water controls. Extensive constructions are also resulting in damaging erosion when raw, unprotected soil is left to the elements for long periods."

In addition to property owners, he said, those persons controlling or occupying three-acres or more of land would be eligible to vote should the matter come to a referendum.

If few people show up at Tuesday meetings—and Juchartz emphasized this includes county, city and school district representatives—to express an interest the matter will be dropped.

Conducting the Tuesday hearing will be officials of the State Soil Conservation committee.

Persons desiring additional information about the Tuesday meeting or about a soil conservation district and its roll are asked to contact Juchartz at 721-6550.

SPEAKING
for The Record
 By BILL SLIGER

It was with considerable interest that I read the comments of Detroit's mayor directed to a college student body recently.

His honor lamented the patchwork of governments that are woven over the metropolitan area, the exodus from the inner-city to the suburbs, the lack of concern for big city problems.

The best oarsmen have abandoned ship.

Not entirely, however. It's just the responsibility of citizen participation in the big city that they have shed. Like wandering sons, they still expect to find a clean bed, good meal and friendly atmosphere when they stop home for a visit.

The mayor points to his problems and singles out their cause. He expects Mr. Suburbanite and Mr. State Legislator to understand, to actually consider diverting some of his tax dollars... from Suburbia, mind you... to Big City.

Can't His Honor understand?

All we want from Detroit is excellent cultural centers to visit, freedom from fear of crime on the streets, fast routes into the downtown area, good theatres and plush dining spots with first-rate entertainment. And, oh yes, winning sports' teams and maybe a new domed stadium.

And it's much more pleasant if the streets are clean and parking is convenient.

Don't bother us with dwindling tax base problems, a scarcity of concerned leaders, deteriorating residential areas and people left behind because they can't move or schools that cannot win the financial support necessary to provide an adequate education.

We've got problems of our own.

And, like I said, all we want from Detroit is...

And speaking of patchwork governments brings us to Tuesday's election in Novi.

Everything is relative and one can hardly compare Novi's problems with Detroit's. But teamwork and singleness of effort do not now prevail in Novi. And they have not for many years.

There is not a single constructive function performed by the township that couldn't be performed by a single entity. And the blanket of village government simply serves as a cover encouraging duplication and competition without border protection against annexation.

Both should be shed in favor of cityhood.

I hope the citizens of Novi vote "YES" Tuesday and establish a single team of leadership.

So far only two candidates for city council and one for mayor have taken out petitions for Northville's April election.

That's just enough to fill the vacancies. Why not a little competition? Petitions are now available at city hall. They must be filed by February 28.

Normally, even before the dying days of January, friend Frank Kochalko of South Lyon coops himself up in his kitchen workshop to repair fishing tackle in anticipation of spring and those battles with the underwater creatures that inhabit the lakes hereabouts. Just the sight of a reel touches off an excitement more furious than a January snowstorm. By February he's ecstatic, phoning every other day to ask if I've noticed any thawing of ice.

But 1969 has been different. The fisherman-band director has called the house but twice all winter and then only to remind me that South Lyon defeated Northville in the opening basketball game and to ask if I finally had broken down and bought my son a cornet.

Not a word about a new plug or a single remark about the new rod he religiously manufactures every winter.

The woman who inhabits my house and I

Crupi's Best for Mayor
Novi Charter Deserves Support

Having already taken the important step of approving city incorporation for Novi, voters next Tuesday will be asked to decide the merit of a proposed city charter that will guide the new city they desire.

We endorsed and strongly urged city incorporation of Novi a year ago, and we now are equally convinced voters should approve the charter and bring city status to fruition.

While we question the wisdom of the 6.5 millage limitation contained in the charter - especially in view of financial difficulties already experienced by the village council working with a 5-mill charter limitation, we nevertheless believe the charter is an excellent one and certainly deserving of voter approval.

Arguments that charter commissioners spent too much time (six months) and too much money ($5,000) in debating and resolving conflicting views while drawing up the charter are, in our opinion, groundless. The time and money spent - less than expended for similar work in other municipalities - are well worth the resulting document.

True, commissioners did disagree and argue major and minor issues in open debate for all to see and hear. But we found this public debate healthy and productive. And, in the final analysis, the charter was approved in its entirety by all nine members.

We find all six of the unopposed candidates for the city council competent and qualified for office.

As for the three public-spirited candidates for the office of mayor, our choice is Joseph Crupi, who we believe is best qualified to represent all citizens in all sections of the new city of Novi as their chief executive and their key spokesman at the council table.

A past village councilman and president, he has demonstrated leadership ability; he is understanding of public opinion but firm in decision; he spots sham easily and deals with it with dispatch; he is intelligent, perceptive, and logical; and he is capable of keeping council deliberations on target, not permitting wandering, undisciplined conduct that has so often been characteristic of Novi council meetings.

But for all his fine assets, Joseph Crupi possesses a personality trait that bears guarding. A fighter, he too often has permitted a hot temper to cloud his good logic and sound argument. So in asking voters to support him at the polls, we also ask Mr. Crupi to "cool it" if elected.

A LOOSE LEAF
 By ROLLY PETERSON

"The Subject was Roses" may or may not come as a jolt to those who decry the ways of the present youthful generation and often, in warm nostalgic moments, refer to their childhoods as uncontentable examples of what adolescence should be like.

It all depends on the honesty of those who see the movie, their willingness to admit that their teen-age and young adult lives, while they may be pleasant in retrospect, nevertheless were far from flawless. That the aches and pains plaguing today's young people are not completely foreign.

"The Subject was Roses", Frank D. Gilroy's award winning play in 1964 and now a movie, serves as a poignant reminder that the generation gap is timeless because the story takes place immediately following WW II - a time when mom and dad were on the threshold, or just entering, adulthood.

Timmy Cleary (Martin Sheen) returns home after three years in the Army. His mother, Nettie (Patricia Neal), hopes to resume her former relationship with her son - that of mother-lover in alliance against her husband. Timmy's father, John (Jack Albertson), hopes his son has become a man capable of being his father's pal.

Timmy frustrates both expectations. He is no longer his mother's boy, weak and dependent, but neither is he his father's pal free from family ties and especially his mother's influence. He is a man who loves both his mother and father but is perplexed by their mutual animosity.

The gap between parents and offspring, which stems from some very real needs, is closed. A middle ground is found. But not without a visceral confrontation between parents, not without shaking the Cleary family to its roots.

The Cleary family problem is an isolated case, to be sure. Without too much difficulty, however, one can find kinship to all family problems: that they arise from basic human failings, sometimes in spite of ourselves.

"Roses" hails the return of Miss Neal to the screen after a heroic battle with a paralyzing stroke. And if anything, she is a better actress. As Nettie, the middle-aged wife betrayed by her husband and spurned by time, she rises to new dramatic heights, which may well earn her another academy award.

If Miss Neal is nominated as best actress, then Albertson and Sheen deserve nomination as best supporting actors, if not as best actors. In the transition from Broadway to Hollywood, they have lost none of the zest for their parts.

It is their compelling performances that make "The Subject was Roses" a viable drama which hurdes the years and pricks our conscience.

They saw what had to be done and did it, as evidenced by Mark Murtha, who was injured by a falling timber, as he was helping the early arrival of the fire departments.

It's nice to know that we are residing in such a cooperative atmosphere.

Capitol Plans Could Spark Major Battle

LANSING—Plans to build a new state Capitol could touch off a bigger political battle than the debate 122 years ago over moving the seat of government from Detroit to Lansing.

Legislators on both sides are taking firm stands, and as the plan unfolds it seems certain that others who want to retain the present Capitol, or are against a $50 million expense for a new one, will be drawn in.

After two years of closed-door huddling over the design, the joint legislative capital outlay committee recently unveiled the new Capitol plan.

Designed by the Detroit architectural firm of Smith, Hinchman and Grylls Associates, it contemplates a seven-level, four-building structure covering the equivalent of four city blocks.

Legislative, judicial and executive buildings would form a "troika" atop a massive all-purpose office structure four blocks west of the present Capitol. Total space would be 850,000 square feet.

There would be no traditional dome but a 185-foot tower with a glass-enclosed observation deck at the top would jut from a plaza area.

"We rejected the historical, traditional concept of placing the functions of government under a classical dome as outmoded and not suited to our times," said Sigmund F. Blum, one of the designers.

"Michigan is a progressive, dynamic state. The people rightly deserve a Capitol which expresses those qualities."

THE LEGISLATIVE building, with House and Senate chambers akin to the United Nations General Assembly Room, would be a large, shoe-box shaped structure, with cylindrical spires breaking a smooth outside design at the four corners.

The judicial and executive buildings would be smaller adaptations of this basic design with the all-purpose building spreading under all the structures like a massive underground container.

Massive steps on each side of the project, described by the architects as "monumental stairs," would raise from the basic plaza level, crossing the interior courtyard to reach an upper plaza on which the separate structures for the Legislature, executive office and Supreme Court would stand.

The upper levels would include: Senate and House chambers and galleries; legislative committee rooms; caucus rooms and service facilities; and an individual office suite for each legislator.

A courtroom for the Supreme Court, office suites for each justice, and offices and other facilities for court personnel.

The Governor's private office and ceremonial reception room, and offices and other work space for the entire executive office staff, including the Bureau of the Budget and other units of the Governor's office.

The buildings would be framed in reinforced concrete with an exterior of polished granite. There would be no windows in the upper structures.

Director A. N. Langius of the State Building Division estimated it would take up to five years to construct the complex. He said the buildings would contain the most up-to-date heating, lighting, ventilating, air-conditioning and communications systems, including closed-circuit television. The all-purpose building would include a large auditorium and cafeteria and 20 elevators for easy access to the upper level.

The first Michigan Capitol was located at Griswold, State and Shelby Streets in Detroit. In 1847 state government was moved to Lansing following a stormy legislative session. The present Capitol was opened in 1878.

OPPOSITION is expected from forces who want to preserve the 91-year-old Capitol for historical purposes.

Sen. Thomas L. Brown, R-Lansing, is expected to lead the fight against construction of the proposed plan. He said the present building could be rebuilt and enlarged for half the money needed for a new structure.

One thing that everybody agrees on is the deteriorating condition of the present statehouse. Jumbled wiring, rickety elevators and dingy corridors abound.

A section of the fourth floor has been condemned by the State Fire Marshall, yet it is crammed with legislative offices from which escape would be difficult.

Personal Income Hits Biggest Gain in 17 Years

WELLESLEY HILLS, Massachusetts. Personal income increased by 9 percent in 1968, substantially exceeding the 7 percent rise of 1967. This was the largest relative gain in 17 years.

The persistent climb of personal income has been one of the most consistently strong aspects of the long upturn in business. The Babson Reports staff has noted in the past few years. Latest figures show December's rise greater than November's, but less than September's.

There have been some slowdowns in this barometer in recent years, but most of them have been due to labor strikes, or other factors such as the riots that occurred last spring. Even the 1967 mini-recession failed to stem the advance in personal income.

Primary factor in its sustained rise has been the strength in salaries and wages. This is the most important component of the personal income index. The upturn in salaries and wages has accounted for about 70 percent of the advance.

The extended business boom, which has kept employment high and the average factory work week over the 40-hour mark since January 1962, has contributed to the increase in wages and salaries. Another important factor has been the steady round of new wage hikes. In the past year, wage boosts averaged more than 18 cents an hour.

NON-FARM proprietors, including unincorporated businesses and professional groups (doctors, lawyers, and dentists), have also received higher incomes during this prosperous period. This reflects the steady inflation of the costs of services and the increasing importance and growth of the personal services sector of our economy.

The lesser components of personal income have also contributed to the climb of this index. Interest rates have been skyrocketing and, on a percentage basis, have made the advance in interest income the greatest of any component in the index. This rise has made investments in bonds more lucrative and has forced the upward trend of interest paid on savings accounts.

Highway Funds Distributed

LANSING - The State Highway Commission has started the distribution of fourth quarter Motor Vehicle Highway Fund collections to Michigan counties and incorporated cities and villages.

Henrik E. Stafseth, state highway director, said net highway fund receipts during October, November and December totaled $86 million, an increase of 29.5 percent compared to the same period of 1967.

The increase is attributed, for the most part, to the cent-a-gallon increase in the state gasoline tax which took effect January 1, 1968, and the vehicle weight tax increase which took effect several months ago when the 1969 license plates went on sale.

Under this formula, the Highway Department will receive $39,579,589; the counties $29,254,479, and the cities and villages $17,208,517.

Wayne county's share totaled $5,408,804; Oakland county, $1,911,924; the city of Northville, $12,313; Novi village, $25,122; South Lyon, $5,193; and Wixom, $7,521.

The lesser components of personal income have also contributed to the climb of this index. Interest rates have been skyrocketing and, on a percentage basis, have made the advance in interest income the greatest of any component in the index. This rise has made investments in bonds more lucrative and has forced the upward trend of interest paid on savings accounts.

It is a fine example of how very powerful public opinion is and will continue to be if the news media will keep the public informed in the area of state, county and local government.

Where is the public spirited citizen who felt that it was an honor and a privilege to be elected to serve in a public office? The new breed of politician has changed this image.

Series of Fires Hit Northville-Novi-South Lyon Auto Agency Completely Guttled

Fed by exploding gasoline tanks, flames completely demolished the Wheaton Chrysler-Plymouth dealership in Novi Monday evening. Loss was conservatively estimated at well over $100,000.

Several firemen, pushing in close to the searing heat to pour tons of water onto the blaze, came close to losing their lives on a number of occasions as the weakened exterior walls crumbled and fell to the ground.

Quick Work Authorized On Sewer

In an attempt to avoid high sewer construction costs through bidding, the Village Council Monday night authorized the village manager to take "emergency" action to have sewer work done in the Orchard Hills on a time and material basis.

Action means Manager Harold Ackley will contract for work, without bids, at the best price he can get.

Present at Monday's meeting to encourage emergency action by the council were two Orchard Hills residents, Stephen R. Campbell of 41911 Quince Drive and Donald L. Roderick of 41714 Aspen.

Some of the fastest action ever taken by Novi council took place at the meeting when officials authorized Ackley to immediately prepare specifications and set bid-letting procedure on a new police car.

This action occurred within minutes of notification by Police Chief Lee BeGole that the car purchased last summer went up in flames on the host of the John Wheaton Chrysler-Plymouth Sales as that building burned to the ground during the council session.

Ackley furnished council with a brief resume of what he felt was the most significant factor facing the community. This, he pointed out, was selection of an assessor who could make a fair evaluation of the 12 separate rolls for hooking into the trunkline and/or laterals (varying from place to place) around Walled Lake.

In other actions the council set times for the Board of Review sessions in March and listed fees for election officials in Tuesday's election.

Confusion Surrounds Circuit Court Action

Justice, which sometimes follows a strange, erratic course, could possibly put an accused narcotics pusher out on the street while another young man to whom he sold narcotics serves a prison term.

The case in point is Ronald E. Gloetznor, 18-year-old Novi resident, who was one of the five youths arrested early this year for either possession or sale of marijuana.

Two weeks ago, one of the Northville youths who purchased marijuana from Gloetznor was sentenced to from 1 1/2 to 10 years in Southern Michigan prison by the Oakland County Circuit Court.

The word "apparently" is used because of the confusion surrounding the prosecutor's office says the date following what it says was a plea of guilty upon arraignment before Judge Sullivan on January 23.

Crupi Captures Mayor's Post

With 35-percent of the registered electors turning up at the polls Tuesday, Novi voters approved a city charter better than two to one.

The 629-283 vote sets the stage Monday for city government to replace both village and township governments. At that 8 p.m. meeting, Joseph Crupi - easy winner for the mayor's post - and six councilmen will take their oaths of office.

Elected to the city council were: Village Councilman Donald Young (634), Village Councilman William Ducey (614), William O'Brien (554), David Harrison (544), Denis Berry (539), and Edwin Presnell (529).

The new city mayor, who was elected by only one previous vote, faced opposition in the race, but the top three vote-getters will serve longer terms - 38 months as compared to 14 months for the remaining three.

At the city council meeting, Crupi, a former village councilman and president, defeated Village Councilman Leo Harwood (149) and Philip Anderson (240) by polling 507 votes.

Walled Lake, and Plymouth adopted resolutions a week ago opposing such aid and Novi, which adopted a similar resolution late last year, is so vehemently opposed to non-public aid that it publicly reaffirmed its stand last week.

In Novi Schools $1 Million Budget Seen

Preliminary review of anticipated revenues and expenditures that predict the district's first $1 million plus operational budget were begun last week.

In his report to the Novi Board of Education, Superintendent Thomas Dale predicted the 1969-70 school budget would approximate $1,140,000 or some $200,000 more than the current budget.

Additional anticipated expenditures include, the superintendent said, some eight additional teachers at Orchard Hills Elementary School, two additional teachers at the junior-senior high school level, two more custodians, a business manager, and a number of other additional personnel.

Anticipated revenue, Dale said, probably would approximate the budget outlay - dependent, of course, upon the amount of state aid granted the district. His income estimate was based in part upon the governor's suggested state aid formula.

Concerning current financial matters, the board awarded contracts for multi-peril insurance, for a special

One of the first orders of business for the new city council will be to take steps to obtain some 98-percent of all assets of the township. Only two-percent of the township remains, leading most officials to believe the state will require the small, unconnected properties to annex to the new city.

Even if these township properties manage to maintain their independence, present officers of the township, who have led repeated battles to block city incorporation of Novi, will lose their jobs since none live on the remaining township land.

Parochial Draws Fire From Novi

Apathy by school officials as well as citizens is paving the way for a robbery of state money for public education, a Novi school official charged this week.

The Novi, Walled Lake and Plymouth boards of education have gone on record opposing measures that would grant non-public aid. Others, however, have traded water on the controversial issue.

Walled Lake, and Plymouth adopted resolutions a week ago opposing such aid and Novi, which adopted a similar resolution late last year, is so vehemently opposed to non-public aid that it publicly reaffirmed its stand last week.

The Livonia Board of Education, which took an official stand against non-public aid proposals a year ago, has

A proposal for installation of a roof fan at the Novi Community Building at a cost of $1,105 was tabled pending an investigation into the cost of installing two window fans in place of the single roof fan.

Concerning the controversial outstanding bill of $898, which the board has challenged as being in excess of the contracted multi-peril insurance premium, officials proposed to offer a lesser settlement with Auto Owners Insurance Company.

By a split decision, the board went on record as opposing reimbursement of clothing or items lost or stolen from Novi students. LeVerne DeWard (who was elected board vice-president at the meeting, replacing former VP Elwood Coburn) and Trustee Raymond Warren cast the two dissenting votes.

The board action was triggered by the December theft of seven Novi student jackets stolen from a school bus while students were roller skating in Livonia.

A majority of the board members, though agreeing with DeWard and Warren that the theft had special significance in that a teacher had asked the students to leave their jackets on the bus, feared that agreement to pay the cost (estimated value of $150) would set a troublesome precedent.
