Said bonds will bear interest from their date at a rate or rates not exceeding five per cent (5%) per annum, expressed in multiples of 1/8 or 1/20 of 1%, or any combination thereof. Said interest will be payable on October 1. 1969, and semi-annually thereafter on April 1st and October 1st of each year. The interest rate on any one bond shall be at one rate only and shall be represented by only one coupon for each coupon period, and all bonds maturing in the same year shall carry the same interest rate. None of said bonds shall bear interest at a rate per annum which is less than 50% of the rate borne by any other bonds of this issue. Both principal and interest will be payable at a bank or trust company qualified to act as paying agent under the statutes of the State of Michigan or of the United States of America, to be designated by the original purchaser of the bonds, subject to the approval by the City. Accrued interest to date of delivery of such bonds must be paid by the purchaser at the time of delivery. For the purpose of awarding the bonds, the interest cost of each bid will be computed by determining, at the rate or rates specified therein, the total dollar value of all interest on the bonds from July 1, 1969, to their maturity and deducting therefrom any premium. The bonds will be awarded to the bidder whose bid on the above computation produces the lowest interest cost to the City. No proposal for the purchase of less than all of the bonds herein offered, or at a price less than their par value, will be considered. The bonds are issued in anticipation of the collection of a like amount of deferred installments of special assessments on special assessment rolls Nos. 11 and 12 of the City, levied for the purpose of paying part of the cost of paving and sanitary sewer improvements in said special assessment districts in the City of Novi, and in addition to the special assessments, will pledge the full faith and credit of the City for their payment. The bonds are divided between the special assessment districts in the manner provided in the bond-authorizing resolution.

A certified or cashier's check in the amount of $2,300.00, drawn upon an incorporated bank or trust company, payable to the order of the City of Novi, must accompany each bid as a guarantee of good faith on the part of the bidder, to be forfeited as liquidated damages if such bid is accepted and the bidder fails to take up and pay for the bonds. No interest will be allowed on the good faith checks and checks of unsuccessful bidders will be returned promptly to each bidder's representative or by registered mail.

Bids shall be conditioned upon the unqualified opinion of Miller, Canfield, Paddock and Stone, attorneys, of Detroit, Michigan, approving the legality of the bonds, which opinion will be furnished without expense to the purchaser of the bonds prior to the delivery thereof and will be printed on each bond. There will also be furnished the usual closing certificates, dated as of the date of delivery of and payment for the bonds, including a statement that there is no litigation pending or to the knowledge of the signers thereof threatened affecting the validity of the bonds. The City shall furnish bonds ready for execution at its expense. Bonds will be delivered without expense to the purchaser at Detroit, Michigan.

for The Record

Claude W. Coates is the director of community planning for Vilican-Leman, Inc., a highly regarded firm of planning consultants which numbers among its long list of suburban clients the communities of Wixom. Novi and Northville township.

Monday night he was featured speaker at the annual meeting of the Northville Community Chamber of Commerce.

His words were music to my ears. They may have stung

It would be tactful to say that the leadership of the Chamber has never displayed vigorous support of the city's master plan for the central business district.

And this is puzzling when you consider that normally if chambers of commerce come under criticism it's for promoting community business interests.

Yet this important segment of Northville's community – the commercial area - has not been given top priority by the Chamber in its appraisal of local problems.

While Chamber leadership has attended public and private hearings on the proposed CBD plan, I have yet to hear a strong appeal for action to improvise the (or any) master plan.

Coates probably surprised a few officials by stating flatly that he liked the city's central business district master plan. Being a planner for the township - not the city - I dare say a few opponents of the CBD as devised by city planners had hoped they might pick up some ammunition to fire at future hearings.

But Coates said time is growing late; that you don't attract customers with potted evergreens or by hanging floral displays; that Northville has the ideal set-up for creating a mall (separation of pedestrian and vehicular traffic) on Center Street, which is too narrow, and Main Street; that a circular drive is needed; that more off-street parking is needed.

He talked about means of accomplishing this and noted that an arm of the Chamber of Commerce in Owosso was demonstrating how business and local government can cooperate to institute improvements in the downtown area.

He said the village of Rochester had done little, and two regional shopping centers - one 60-acres and the second some 100-acres in size — were now being planned on its borders.

The Vilican-Leman spokesman also noted that in its work with Northville Township it had not set aside areas for comparison (regional) shopping centers because this area of responsibility was being left to the city. He didn't say how long this policy could be

In a way Coates' remarks were disappointing.

One expects an outside expert to come up with a few previously unheard gems. But he seemed to be saying just what city planners have been saying for several years.

A plan must be adopted ... time is growing short ... a circular drive ... more off-street parking ... someone must act.

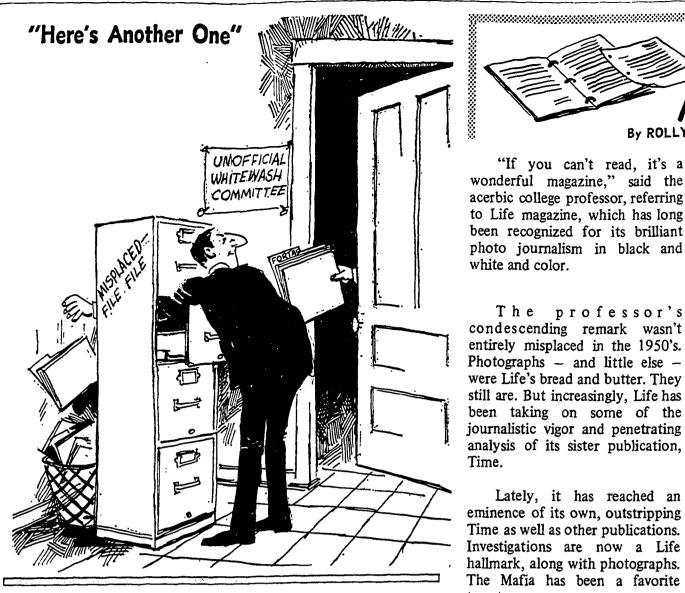

Maybe the Chamber of Commerce.

Although it was not mentioned by Coates, it should be noted that his boss, George Vilican, has indicated that his firm takes a dim view of CBP (parking) zoning of property.

Vilican's attitude in this area is that if you are going to zone any property non-conforming you better be prepared to buy it at a fair market price.

He said he agreed with the position taken in this column last week - that you can zone an entire area CBD (business), enforce parking requirements and still create a convenient center for shoppers.

Police Controversy Just Sign of Times in Township

The first signs of growing pains are beginning to be heard in Northville The signs are showing up at the township board in the form of arguments between elected officials; at public hearings in the form of protests levelled by citizens; and in the organization of citizen study committees designed to help provide relief for the pains. Most apparent of the problem-signals created by the steady increase in population is the police controversy, the multiple zoning opposition and the talk of unification with the city.

There are other problems not so apparent. But township officials know they are there. They may not agree. however, on their ability to meet the challenges as they come along.

For example, there is sewer capacity to meet the surge of development; the extension of water lines to satisfy the demand; the maintenance of these facilities once they come into being; recreation needs: fire protection; expansion of governmental facilities - a new township hall, fire stations, department of public works. But the beginning of all these rapidly-closing-in problems is the matter of police protection (and to a lesser extent, the matter of multiple zoning which ultimately will determine the population density of the township).

Sharp lines have been drawn on the police issue.

Supervisor Gunnar Stromberg, Treasurer Alex Lawrence, Clerk Eleanor Hammond and Trustees Richard Mitchell and Joseph Straub want to employ a 40-hour-per-week officer to patrol the township in a police car at a salary of $9,500 per

Their reasons for supporting this course of action probably differ,

Guido, who said action by the four who voted for hiring was sufficient reason to start a recall petition, also lashed out at Supervisor Gunnar Stromberg, "Stromberg," he charged, "deliberately ignored the action of the board on April 1 when hiring of a police officer was specifically tabled

One day soon people of the township who hold no animosity, who recognize only that tomorrow will soon be here, will step forward and take over the reins and make the decision that ultimately must be made.

Before current plans to build township hall, to expand the police department, to become a charter ownship, to enter into financial obligations for expanded fire protection with Plymouth township short, to build a bigger township government around a city government actually become facts, uncommitted citizens will bring to the electorate all the facts which must be weighed. #### Clarenceville Nips JH Track Squad

Clarenceville nipped Northville's junior high track team by a single point ast week - but in doing it they may have stirred up a hornets nest. The 55-54 defeat at Clarenceville was the closest Northville has come to winning in three years. Last year, for example, the little Trojans pasted Northville 79-30 and 69-40. Because the local JH thinclads "came close" to an upset on the opponent's track, explained Coach Pete

Johnson, "you can bet our boys will be giving everything they have when the two teams meet here (Wednesday) on our track. They ... we want to win

As happened in Northville's loss to Milford, the Northville JH squad was leading going into the final events of the meet. Northville came out of the field events only four points behind Clarenceville, and by the time all the track events but the two final relays were finished the local thinclads were out-front. But they lost the relays and the meet.

Mustangs Win Three

Mustangs are 7-4 in the league behind undefeated Milford, second-place Waterford Kettering which has two losses, and Bloomfield Hills Andover with three defeats.

Because Bloomfield must play Milford once more and two games with Kettering, Northville has a good shot at third place in this final week of league action. Even second place is not out of the question because the Mustangs still must play Kettering in a makeup game. Ironically, one of the squad's three victories this past week was a brilliant, 3-1 no-hitter over Andover here Thursday. Serving up his regular the no-hitter. In his previous three games

In the third, Stan Nirider lifted a 320-drive over the left field fence for the Mustang's second run. Then with two outs and two on loldsworth drove the left fielder to the fence only to have the ball caught.

Next week's opener, which marks the 26th season at the Downs, is the first of two meets scheduled at city and township of Northville, the Northville this year. The first provides 54 nights through Tuesday, July 29.

Then, beginning on November 24, Jackson Raceway under a lease agreement will conduct a 30-night meet added.

The combined 84 nights are the most ever held in a single season at Northville. And the December 30 closing date marks the latest racing has been conducted in Michigan.

Although construction of a $1.5 million clubhouse at the west end of the grandstand will continue through the first meet, Executive Manager John J. Carlo anticipates little problem in accommodating fans. Fans who normally occupied the bleachers on the site of the clubhouse will be seated east of the grandstand, he said. REZONING OPPOSED - About 80 citizens from the southeast corner of Northville township and the adjoining Plymouth township area attended a Northville township planning commission public hearing last week to protest the proposed rezoning of residential property to industrial classification. The sites, noted on map above, abutt the route of the new I-275 expressway along Haggerty road at Five and Six Mile roads. Most of the area of the proposed ndustrial zoning lies in the Plymouth school district, which prompted Northville school district residents to question the value in tax dollars to the Northville school system. And Plymouth residents said they didn't want the industrial zoning within their residential area, despite tax help, because it would lower their property values. They also saw the zoning as a threat to the safety of children attending Tanger elementary school on Five Mile road. Official protests to the proposed industrial rezoning were lodged by Schoolcraft college, Tanger school, Plymouth Lakepoint Association, St. Luke Methodist church. Numerous residents of the area under consideration for rezoning as well as some living between the two industrial areas spoke in opposition on the basis of safety and reduction in residential property values. Township Planning Consultant George Vilican, who was not present at the public hearing, has noted that the proposed new expressway changes the nature of the area. But he denies that property values would decline and believes that proper setbacks buffers and service drives to the industrial areas could be used to separate the area from the school as well

Before I had a chance to say, "Guess who," Jack knew it was I. We're like that - maybe it's because we're twins.

We've always been close. When we were small, we had a private adventureland out in our back woods. Hardly a day went by that Jack didn't help me out of some scrape. He was the one who was able to entice me down from that tree when I fell halfway from the top-and lay paralyzed with fright between two branches. I bailed him out of several misadventures, too.

When it came to college—we chose the same one. And it's been nice. Every now and then we get together and talk out our problems, just as we always have. We go to church together, too.

We're glad Mom and Dad made the Church an important part of our lives. When we think of graduation and the inevitable parting of our ways, it's good to know that each of us has an ever-present source of strength and guidance in God and His Church.
