

Lamphier, Robert L.

The Lake Orion Review
December 2, 1998 Wed.

Robert Lamphier

10f 2

Robert L. Lamphier of Polk City, Florida, formerly of Lake Orion, died on Nov. 24, 1998. He was 72.

He is survived by his wife Delores.

He is also survived by his daughter Kathy Lamphier of Polk City; his sisters and brothers, Beatrice Stepka of Lake Orion, Charlotte (Don) Solden of Lake Orion, Arlene (Cliff) Waterman of Elk Rapids, Janet (Don) Ruff of Lake Orion; special family friend, Lorraine Stocki of Polk City, his two grandchildren; and his six great-grandchildren.

OVER

Mr. Lamphier served the Army's Tank Destroyer Division during World War II. He retired from Lake Orion Schools and was employed as a security guard at Gator Freight of Lakeland, Florida.

Memorial services took place at Assembly of God Church in Polk City.

Lamphier, Robert L.

The Lake Orion Review
December 16, 1998 Wed.

2 of 2

Robert Lamphier

Robert L. Lamphier of Polk City, Florida, formerly of Lake Orion died Nov. 24, 1998. He was 72.

He is survived by his wife Dolores.

He is also survived by his daughter Kathy Lamphier of Polk City; his brothers and sisters, Beatrice Stepke of Lake Orion, Charlotte (Don) Soldan of Lake

Orion, Arlene (Cliff) Waterman of Polk City, Jerald (Nancy) of Lake Orion, Richard (Jean) of Elk Rapids, Janet (Don) Ruff of Lake Orion; a special family friend, Lorraine Stocki of Polk City; his two grandchildren; and his six great grandchildren.

Mr. Lamphier served in the Army's Tank Destroyer Division during World War II. He retired from Lake Orion Schools and was employed as a security guard at Gator Freight of Lakeland.

Memorial services took place at Assembly of God Church in Polk City.