Hilltopper

A photograph of a sunset over a lake. The sun is low on the horizon, creating a bright orange glow and a vertical reflection on the water. Several tall, dark evergreen trees are silhouetted against the sky and water in the foreground.

Reflections of '76*

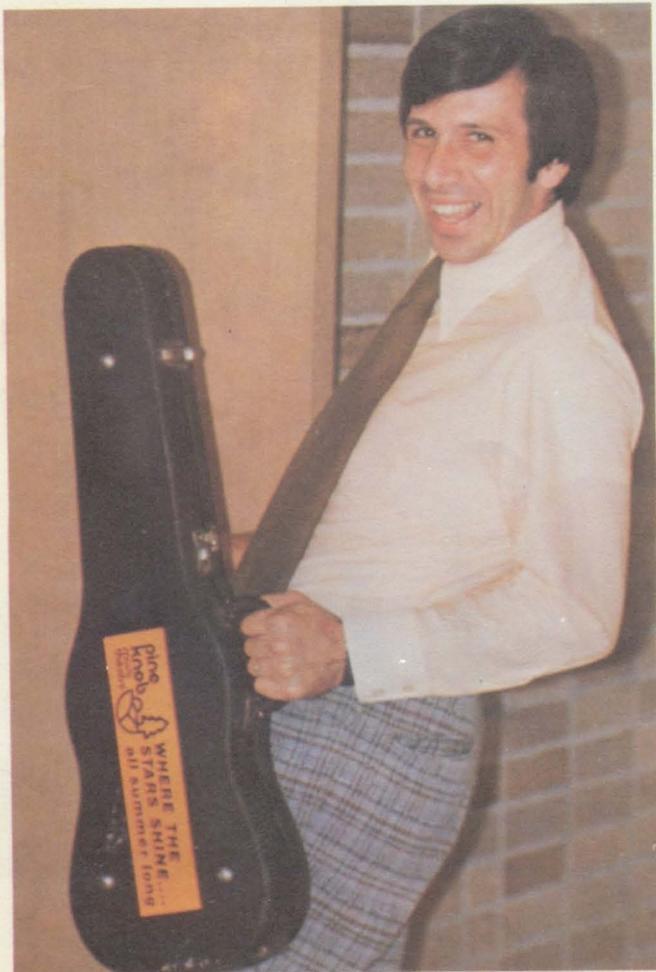

The year passes on
As the time goes fast
And all we have are memories
Of what has passed.

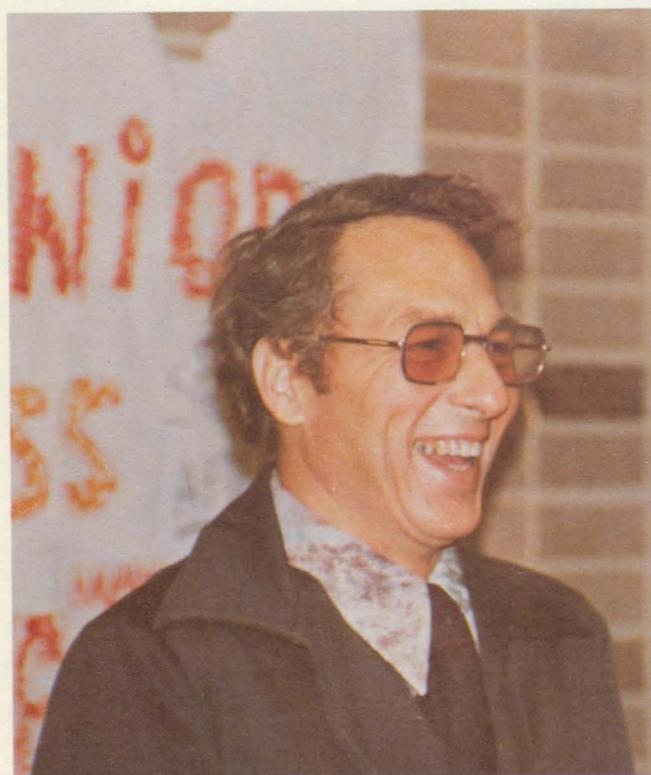

*The year has been a good one
And now that it's all through,
We advance into a world
In which there's much to do.*

*We've faced our troubles together,
We've faced some all alone,
And now we've learned enough things
To make it on our own.*

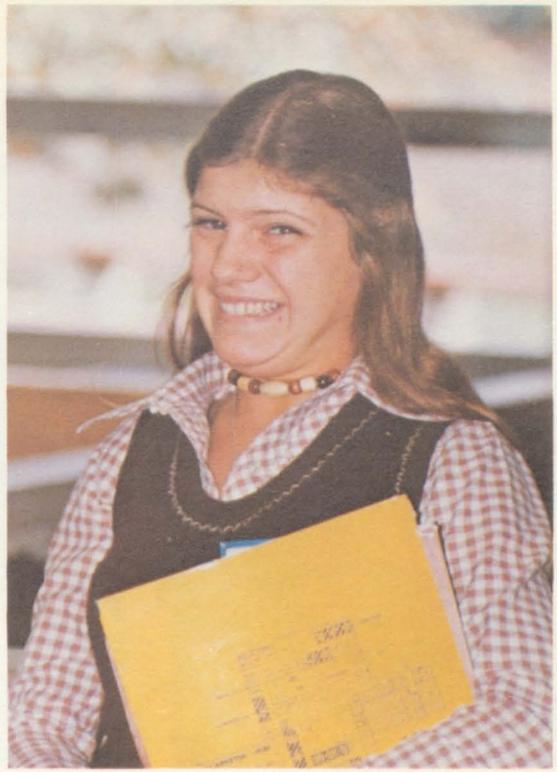

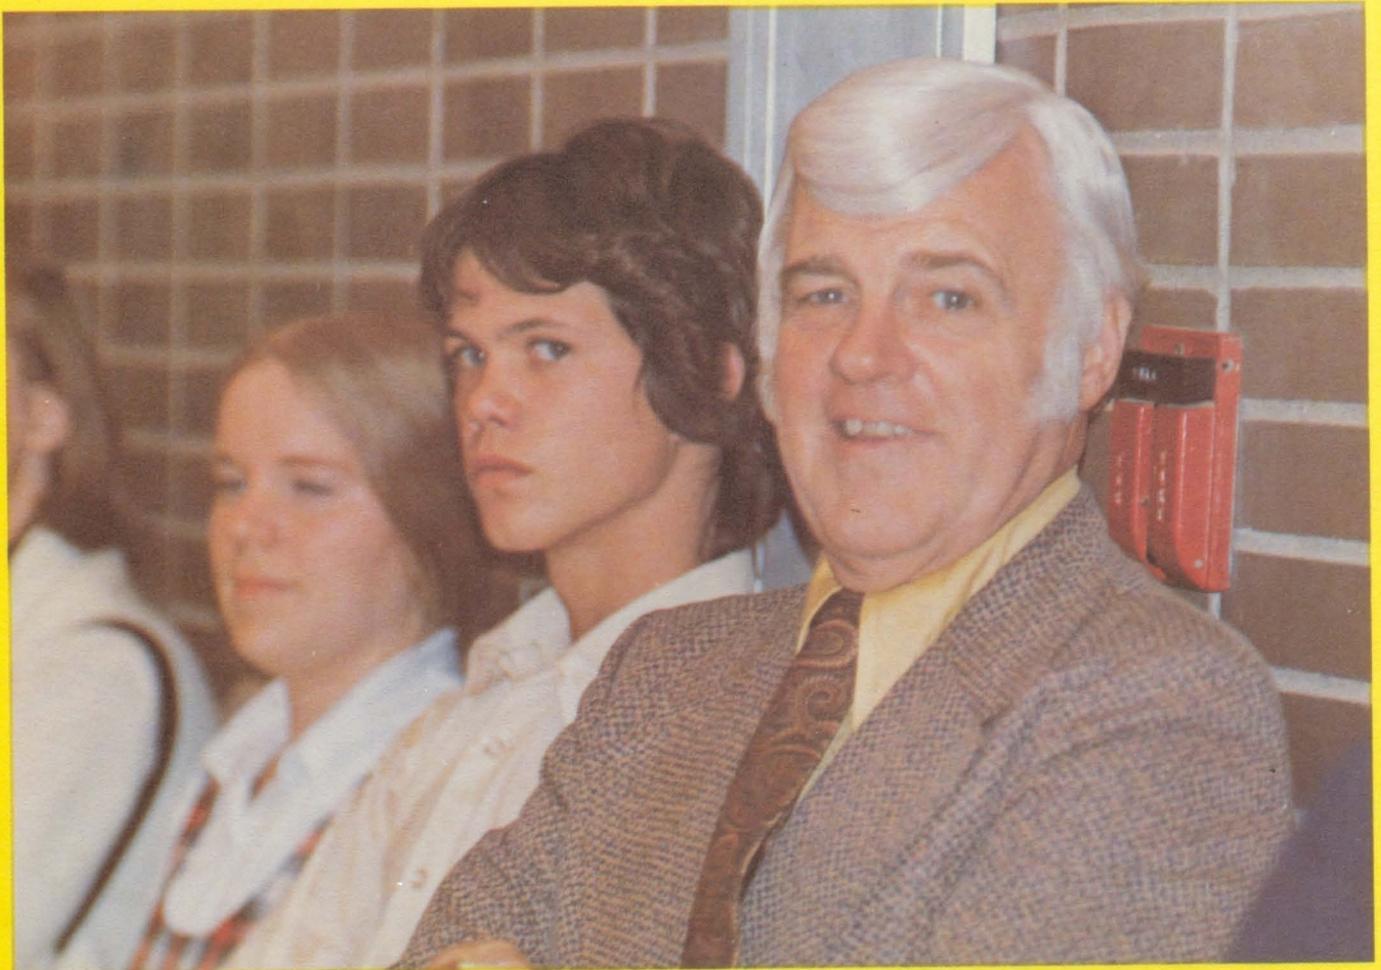

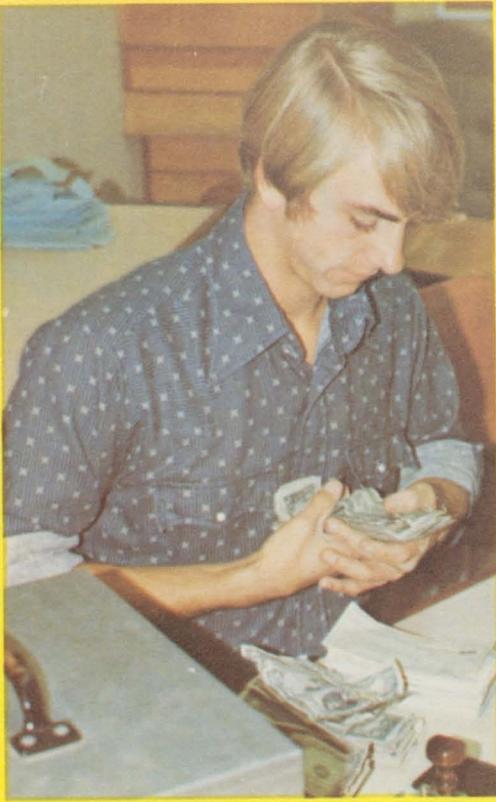

*We'll remember the good times,
The laughter, and the tears,
And all the things that've happened
Throughout these high school years.*

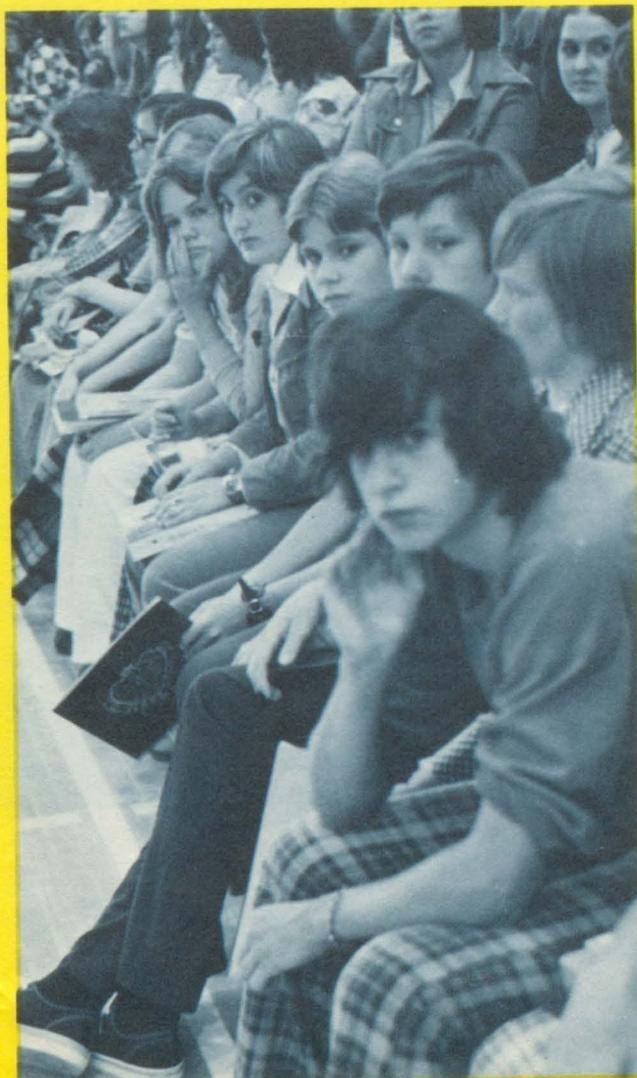

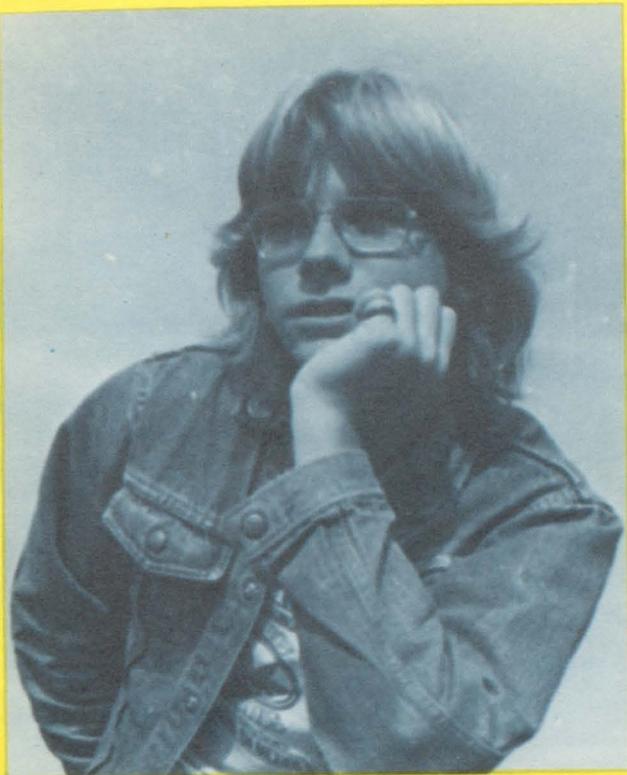

*All of us have experienced
Things, both good and bad;
Now we're going out on our own,
So remember the things that we've had.*

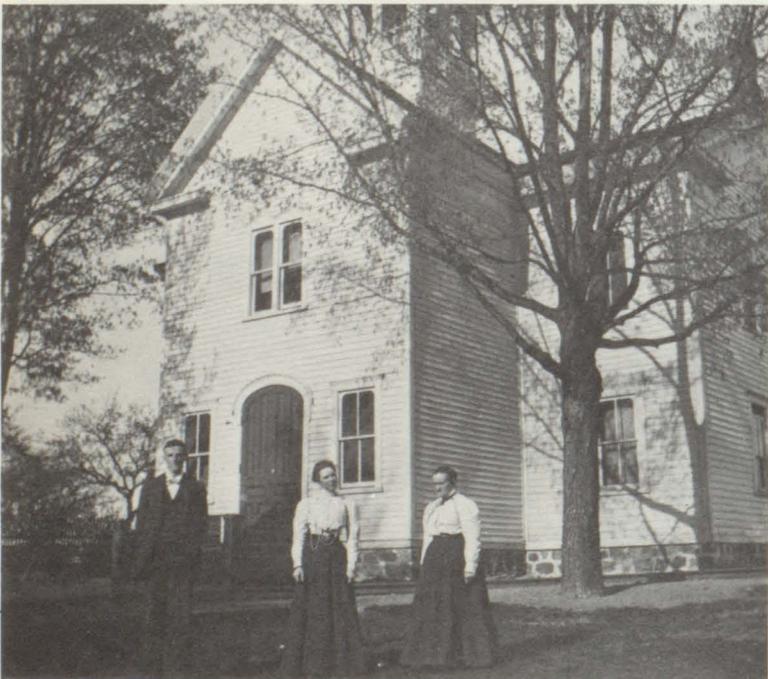

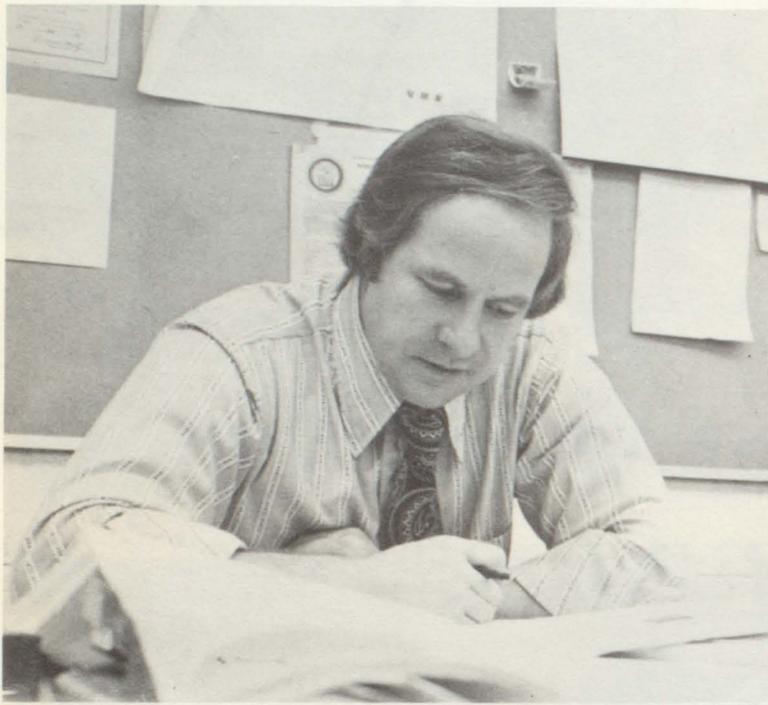

*We may never pass this way again
So make it good the first time through.
Set a goal and work for it
And it will work for you.*

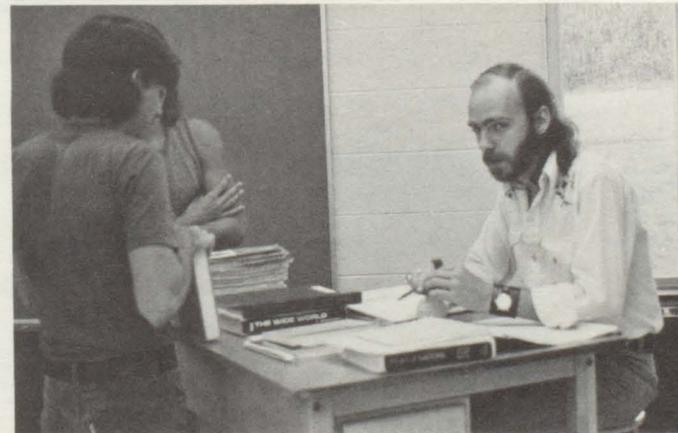

And now the future shines bright,
The past we cannot fix,
All of these are the memories;
The Reflections of '76.

Staff

An Impressive Administration

The second Monday of every month, a meeting of the Board of Education is held. Policy, budgets, school activities, and school construction are discussed. President David K. Leak presides over the meetings. The board consists of: Albert W. Foster, Rev. Robert D. Walters, Fernando Sanchez, Carolyn A. Place, Charles Smalley, and Janet R. Thomas.

Robert Walters, Albert Foster, David Leak, Fernando Sanchez, Carolyn Place, Janet Thomas, Charles Smalley.

Dr. L.F. Greene; Superintendent of the Board of Education.

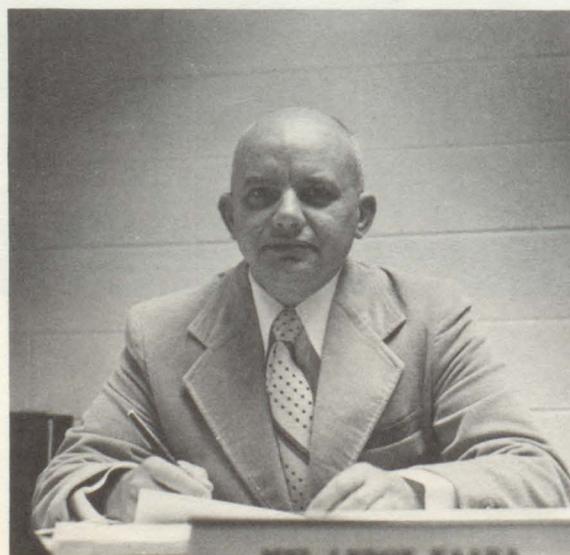

Mr. George Barrie; Assistant Superintendent for the Board.

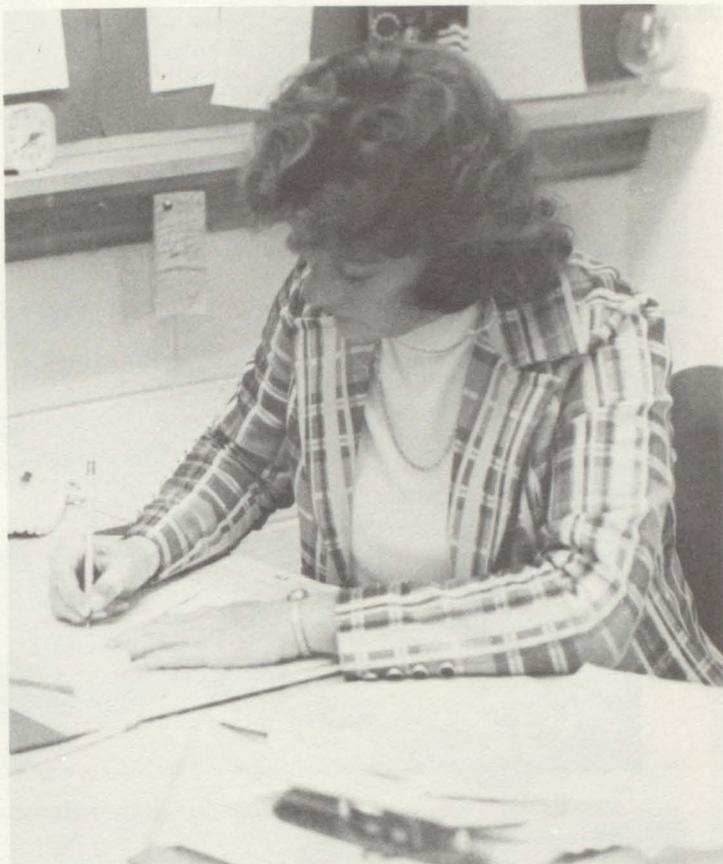

Mr. Milford Mason; Administrative Assistant for the Board.

Mr. Mel Vaara; the Curriculum Coordinator for the Board.

Kirchgessner Joins Administration

Miss Gabier works hard to complete a report before the end of the day.

Mr. Dennis smiles as the photographer takes his picture in the hall.

Mr. Kirchgessner looks up from his desk after finishing his day's work.

Mr. Bruce smiles as he discusses the score of the football game.

Counselors Always Helping Students

Four people are willing to assist the students by helping them solve their problems. They are Mrs. Marilyn Hanson, Mrs. Margo Lay, Mr. William Bonnell, and Mr. Victor Hart. Their offices are located near the Main Office in the front hall and are open every day.

Since there are considerably more people here this year, the counselors are always on the go, helping students with social and personal problems, advice on scheduling, obtaining information on different colleges, and almost anything else. This help from our four counselors is deeply appreciated by the student body.

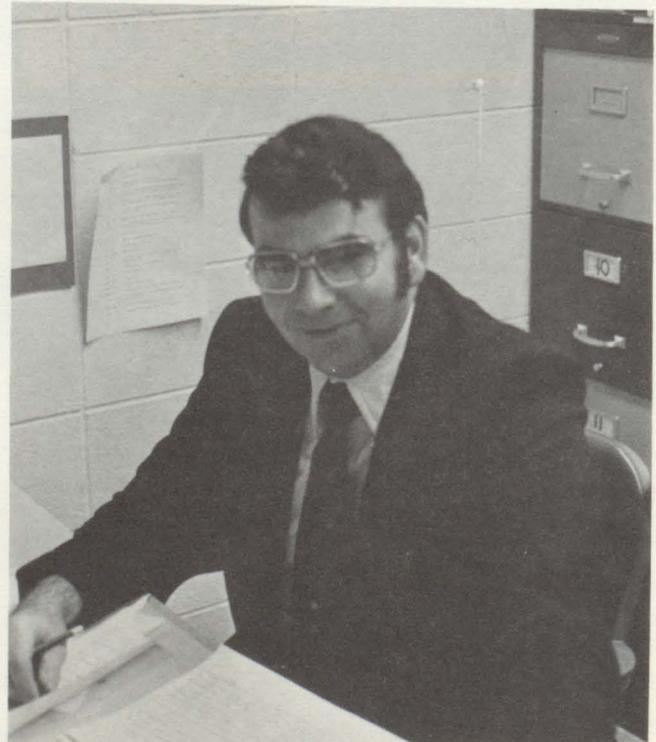

Mr. Hart comfortably lounges in his chair during a break from his work.

Mrs. Hanson prepares to take a break from helping students during a busy day.

Mrs. Lay receives a very important telephone call between appointments.

Mr. Bonnell stops in the middle of filling out forms to give a friendly smile.

They Keep Our Office Running Smooth

This year in the office we have the same familiar faces of the secretaries, Mrs. Allen, Mrs. Bortz, Mrs. Rollison and Miss Geverink. Miss Geverink does the paper work for the counselors, while the other three work in the office for the principals.

Mrs. Rollison is putting away some file cards for later reference.

Taking care of financial difficulties is part of Mrs. Allen's job.

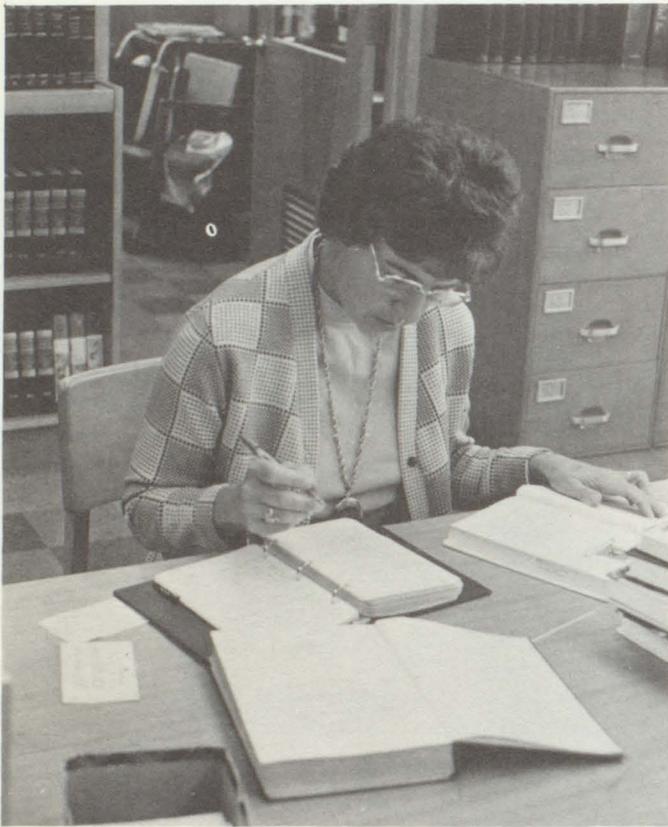

Mrs. Bortz getting the record books out for checking.

Listening to specific directions from a counselor is Miss Geverink.

Special Services Assist Students

This year's special services staff includes our librarian, Mrs. Hanson and her assistant, Mrs. Whitehorn. Mr. Webster is in charge of the Special Education Program in the building. Conducting classes in the Learning Resources Center for the first time is Mr. Curtis.

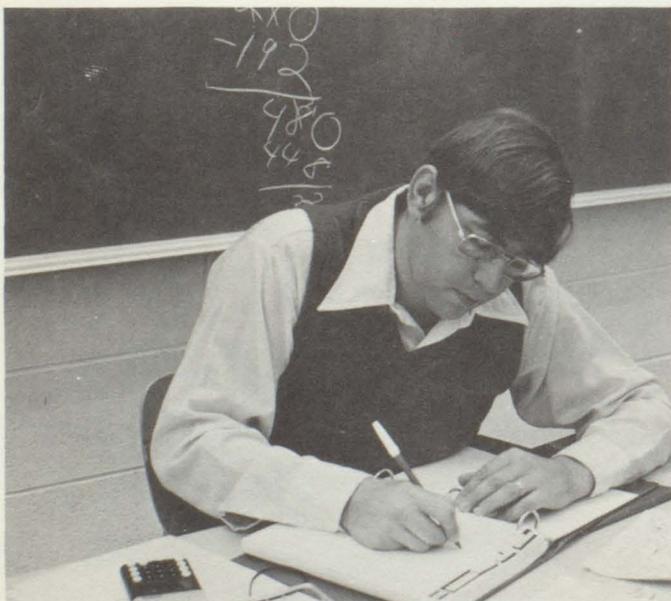

Mrs. Hanson displays her knowledge of cataloging reference books.

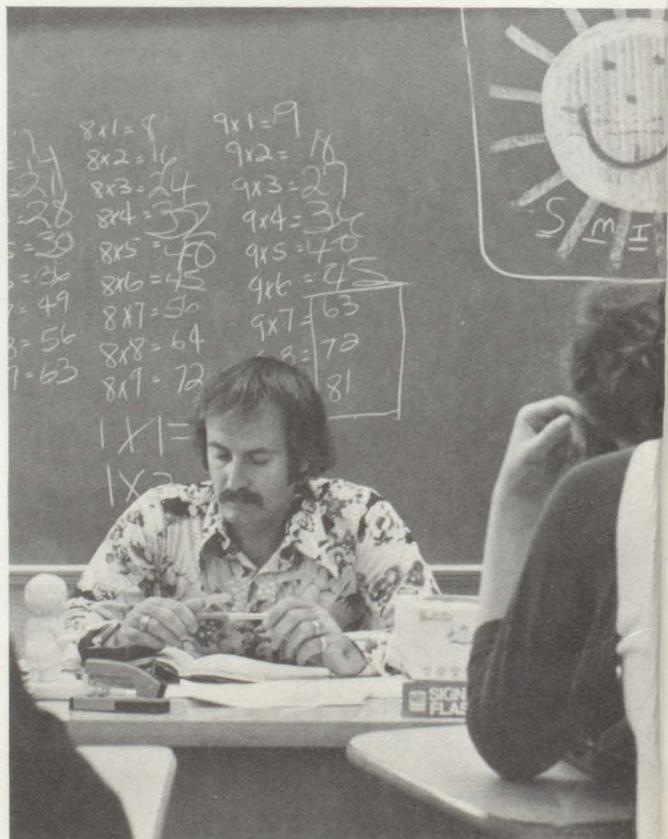

Mrs. Whitehorn can usually be found in the audio-visual room checking out equipment to students and organizations.

Mr. Webster looks over his lesson plan for the day's assignment.

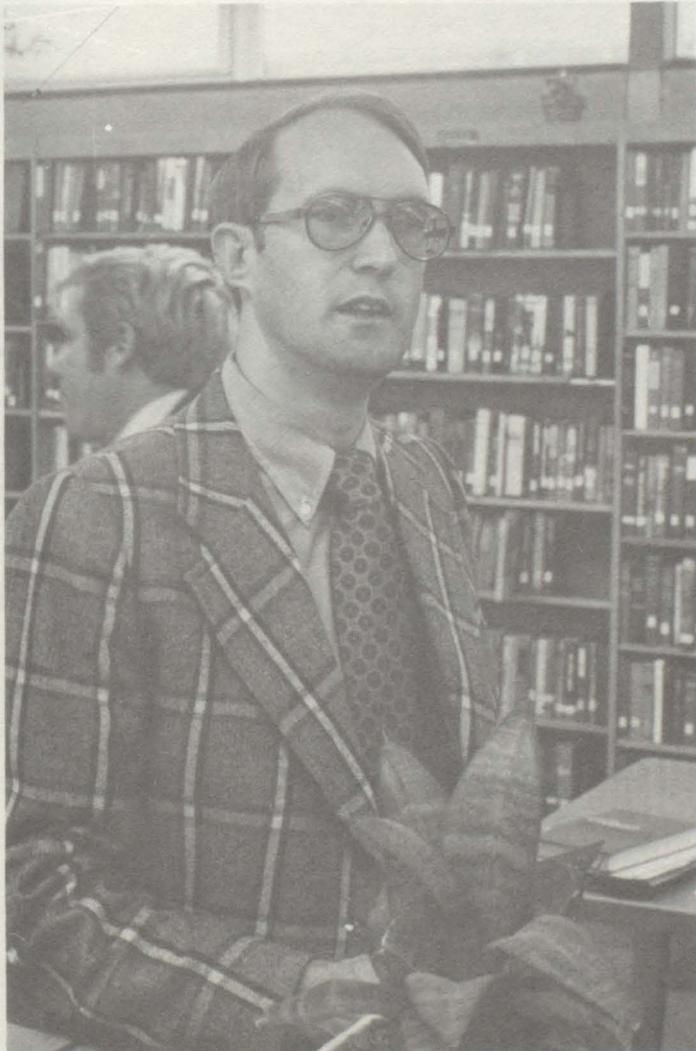

Mr. Curtis records his student's progress in the reading room.

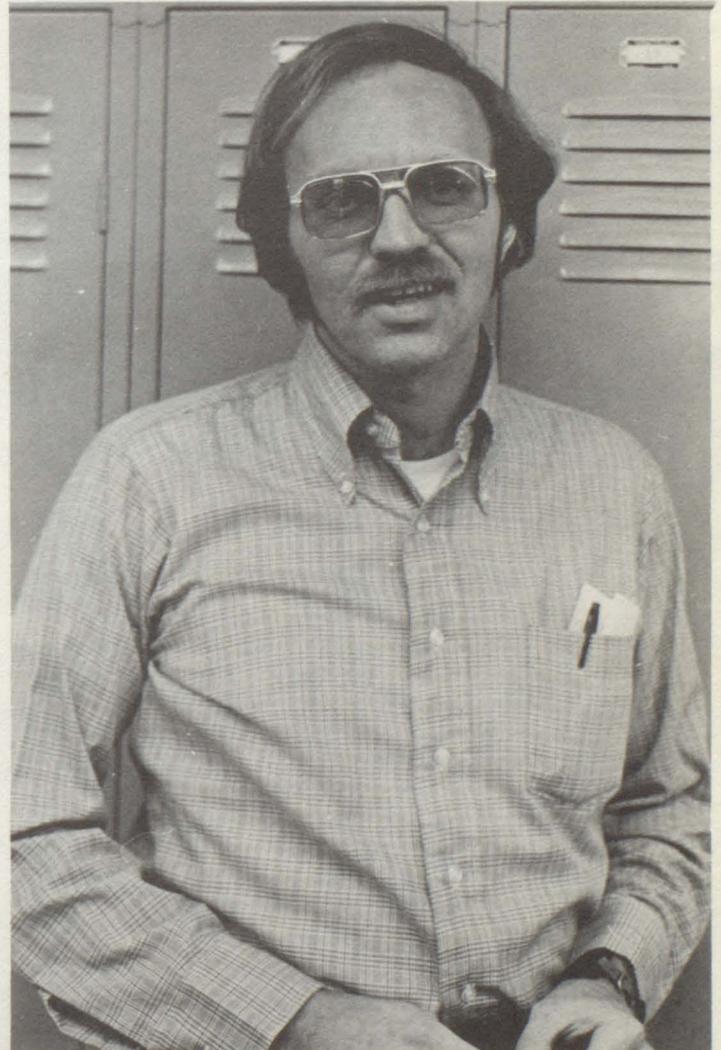

The new nurse is Mrs. Lawrence. She enjoys her position on the staff, helping the students.

Special Services this year has two new members, Mrs. Lawrence and Mr. Hess. Mrs. Lawrence, the nurse, gives special medical attention to the sick students and she also works with the Social Worker, Mr. Butzine. He helps students with their problems at school along with their problems at home. The Vocational Director, Mr. Hess, is the overseer of all of the Co-op programs offered.

Mr. Hess, the Vocational Director, coordinates the Co-op program.

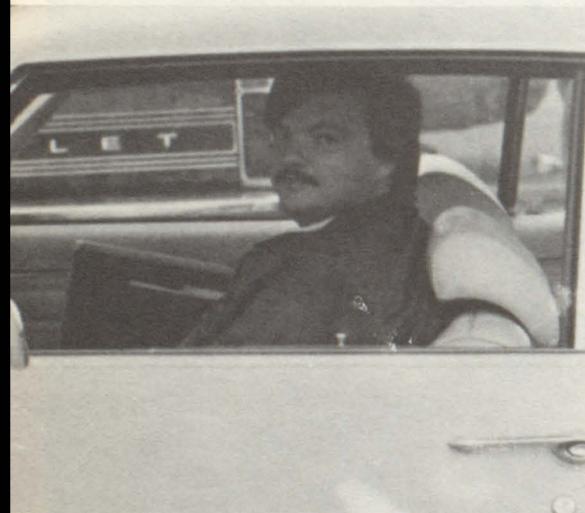

Helping the student body with their social problems is Mr. Butzine.

People Who Help to Serve Our School

There are some very special people who help our school run smoothly. They make sure everything works, from halls and kitchens, to the roads around us. These people are the cooks, custodians, bus drivers, and the parking lot attendant. The cooks: Jean Blackerby, Evelyn Carpenter, Lee Funk, Joyce Meade, Nancy Bailey, and Joyce Fick provide us with a balanced diet. The custodians clean the halls, lockers, and do other various jobs. The bus drivers transport students to and from school, including to extra curriculum activities. Dave Hodge, the parking lot attendant supervises the parking lot while we attend our classes.

The custodians, Superintendent Jim Stirgus, Doug Green, Lena Bell Barber, and Elmer Barnes are here everyday to keep the school clean.

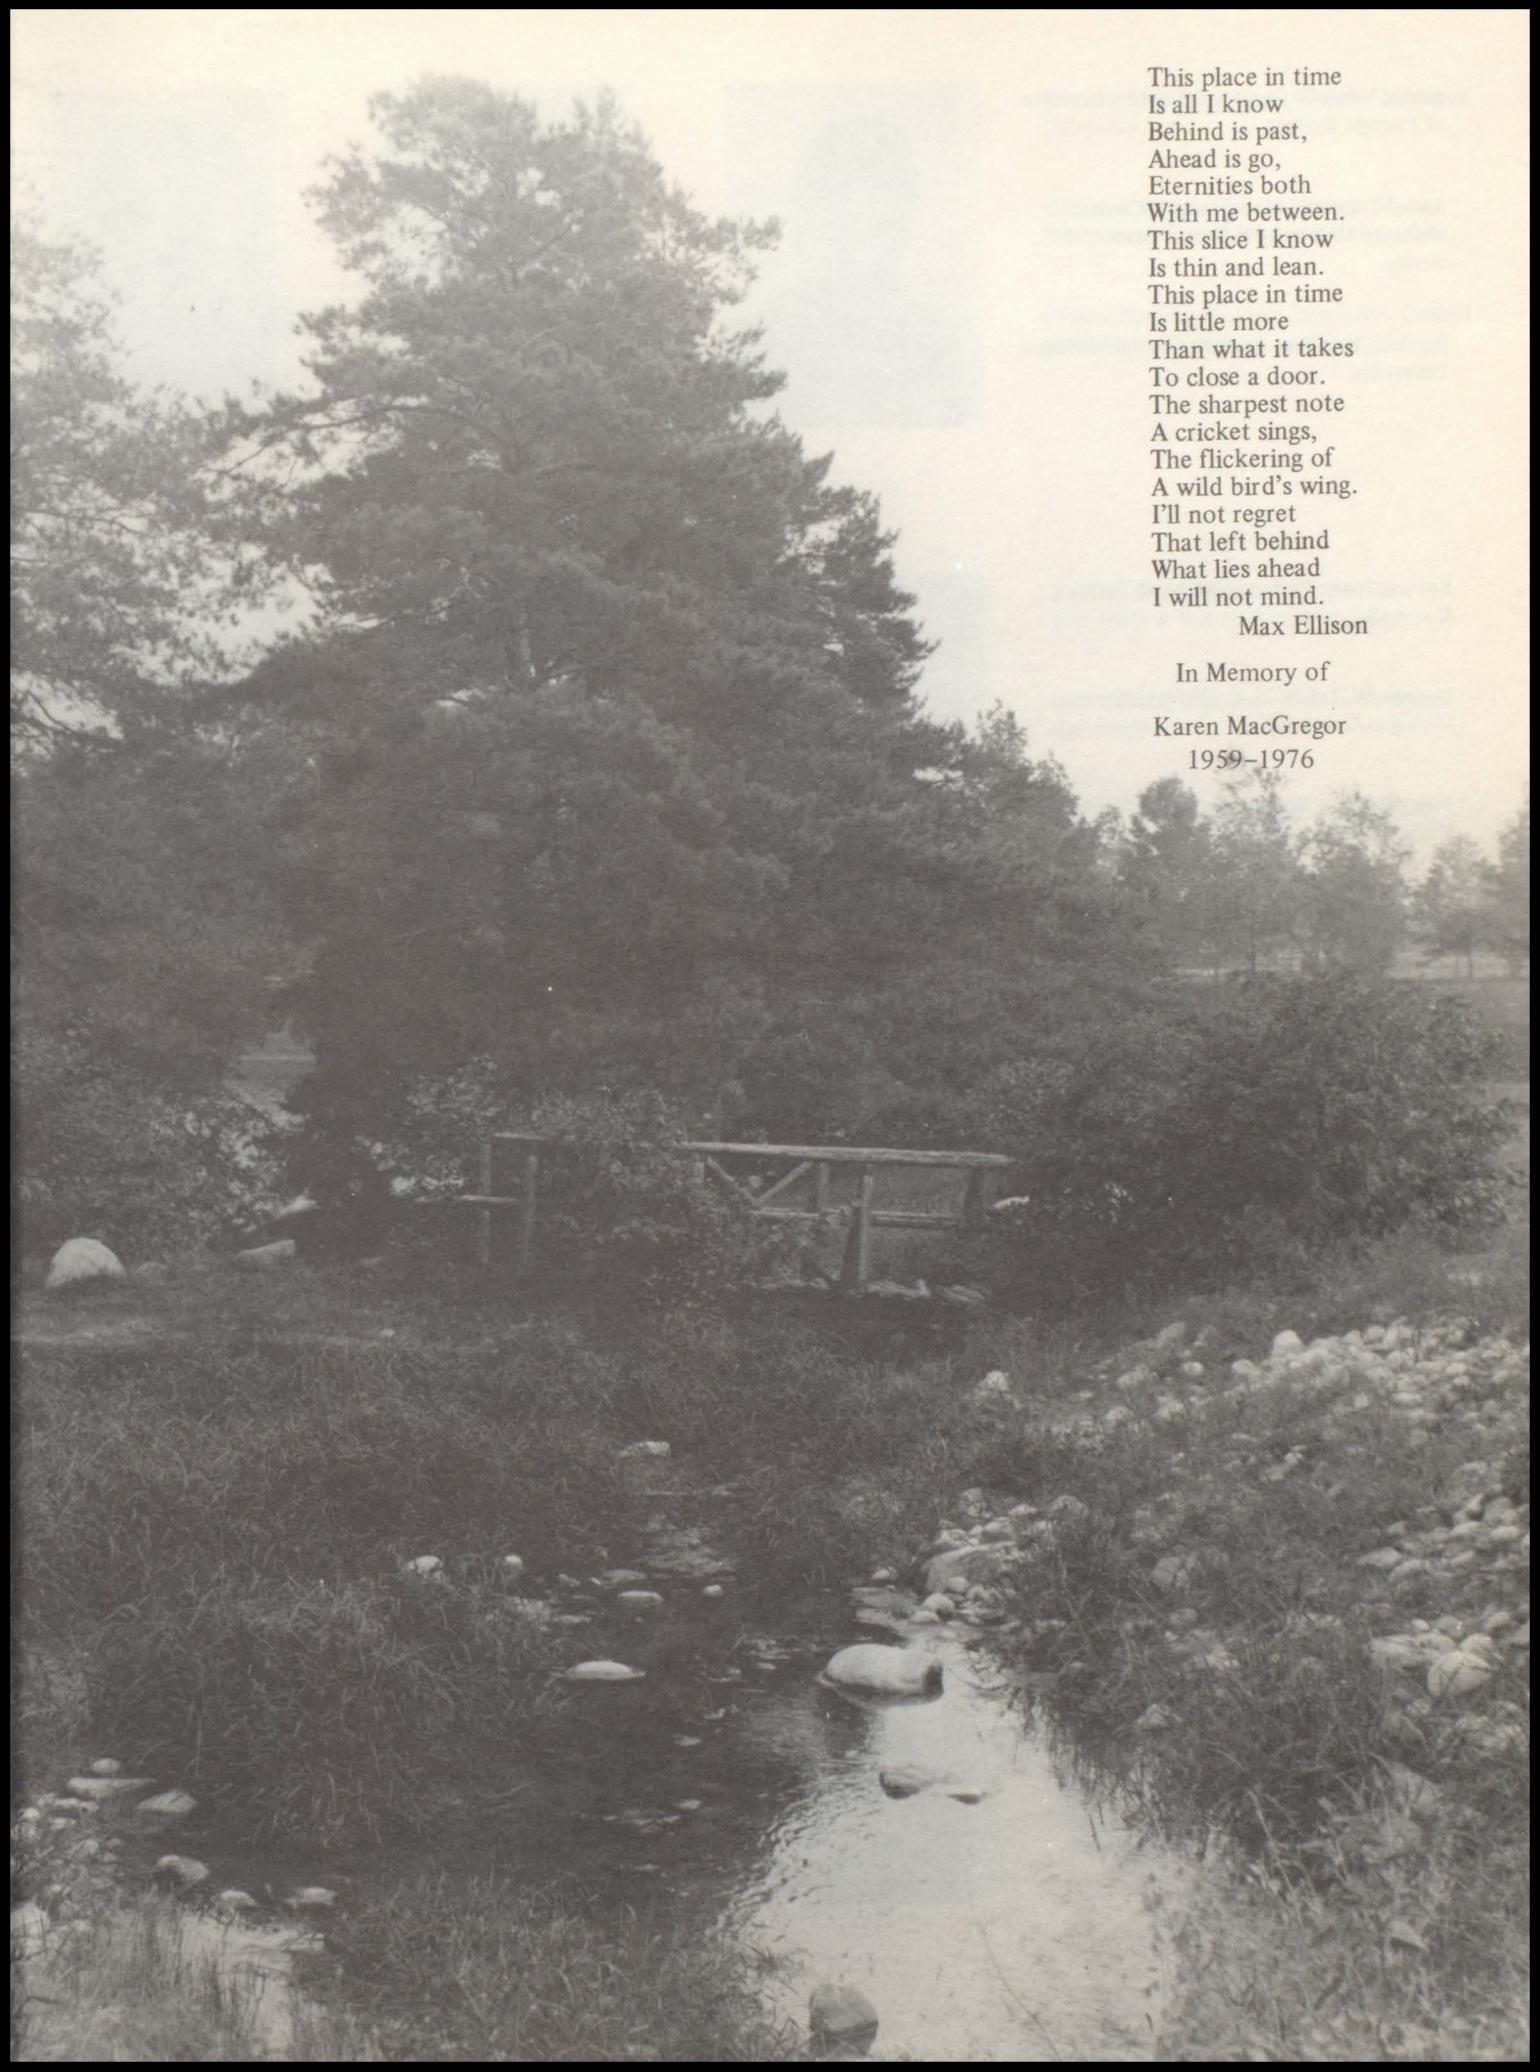

Dave Hodge patrols the parking lot from his car.

The cooks gather around after taking a break from planning and cooking the noon meals.

Posing while they talk about their bus routes before school is over are the bus drivers.

This place in time
Is all I know
Behind is past,
Ahead is go,
Eternities both
With me between.
This slice I know
Is thin and lean.
This place in time
Is little more
Than what it takes
To close a door.
The sharpest note
A cricket sings,
The flickering of
A wild bird's wing.
I'll not regret
That left behind
What lies ahead
I will not mind.

SENIORS

Senior Class Makes Plans for Future

The class sponsors: Mrs. Pasineau, Mr. Johnson, and Mr. Alessi, have been helpful throughout the past years.

Our education started when we were children, training us little by little, until we would be ready to enter the world of responsibility. The Class of '76 is ready. In June, we will get our diplomas and walk out of C.H.S. as alumni for the first time, and as students for the last time. We will start a new kind of life as adults, with more responsibility than we have ever had before. Although we will be passing into a new phase of life, we will remember C.H.S., all of the work we have done, and all the memories we received in return. Our senior class can truly say, "We may never pass this way again", and the memories will reflect on us for the rest of our lives.

TINA COWLING

The Junior Class

The 75-76 officers for the junior class are Jill Vedder, President; Martha Pitts, Vice-President; and Martha Williams, Secretary-Treasurer. The sponsors this year are Mr. Carter, Mrs. De Horn, and Mrs. Eaton. In order to raise money, the juniors have held bake sales, and the all popular bagel sales. Unfortunately, the juniors got run over by the seniors in the powderpuff football game.

SOPHOMORES

We are very grateful to the Sophomore class sponsors: Mrs. Judith Medlin, Mrs. Holly Stevens, and Mr. Eugene McCurdy. They have been helpful to us in many ways. With their assistance we won the Homecoming float contest. The money received for coming in first was used for other class activities. They also helped organize dances and class meetings. The Sophomores worked hard to earn their money for the float by having bake sales and working at the concession stands for powder puff. The 75-76 class officers are Missy Pritchards, President; Tammy Thomas, Vice-President; Zoann Matthews, Secretary-Treasurer. Sophomore officers work diligently to represent the class.

ACADEMICS

Students Have Art Exhibitions

Many fascinating and creative things occur in the Art Department, which is headed by Mr. Johnson. The students who participate in these classes are involved with different aspects of art such as realism, abstraction and nonobjection. They also work with various perspectives including two and three dimensional objects. The classes' goal is to display their creativeness in art shows and sales.

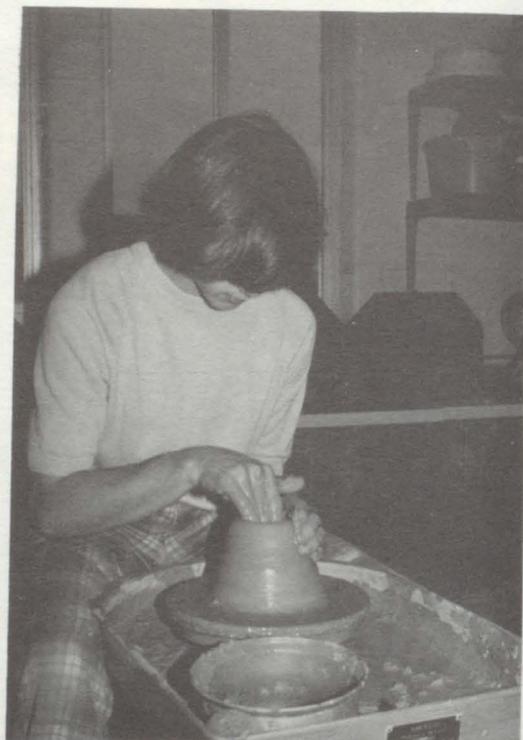

Two students request help from Miss Miller.

ABOVE: Kevin Raguso was contentedly sketching until the cameraman had disturbed him.

RIGHT: The 'spinning wheel' has got to go 'round', says Jeff Blackett.

Brian DeQuis seems to be interested in painting.

Plan for Future

Typing, shorthand, bookkeeping, office procedures, business machines, and the Junior and Senior Block classes are some of the courses which the Business Department offers. Mrs. Jervis is head of this department. An extracurricular activity of the Business Department is B.O.E.C., Business Office Education Club. This club has had bake sales and sold several different items at Christmas to support their activities. Some of the members of the club participate in regional and state competitions.

Liz Miller poises her fingers, ready for some more typing.

Tammy Boucher finishes typing one of her assignments for her business.

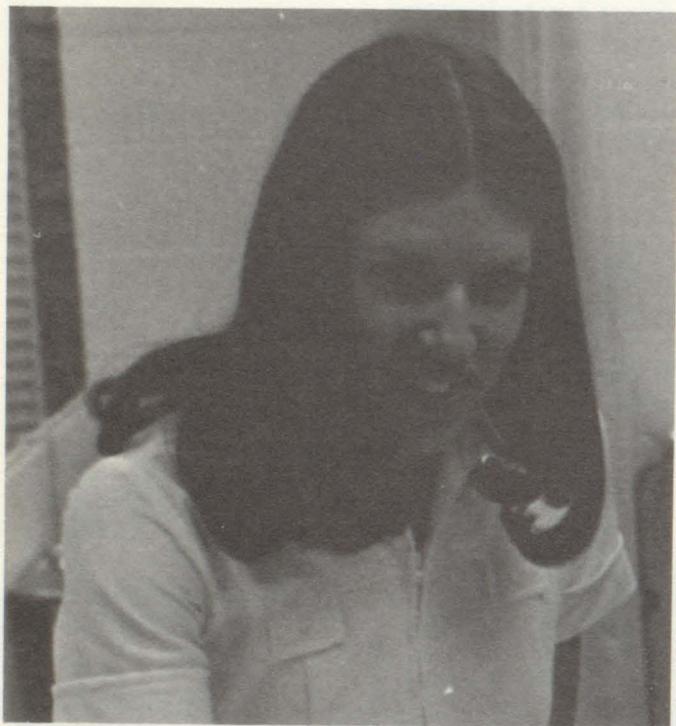

Kim Beebe finishes her assignment as her typing class nears an end.

Lori Goddell, B.O.E.C. vice-president, checks on some work.

Voc. School Gives Good Experience

Vocational School is open to any junior or senior who wishes to attend. It is located in the Northwest Oakland Area Vocational Center on Big Lake Road. Selected students ride the bus to and from the school. There are many programs, both one and two year offered. Medical Office Assistant, Radio and TV Repair are included.

Tim Westover uses the N.C. Milling machine for a school project.

Looking through the window, one sees the students completing a test.

Jill Parsley types a chart as a Medical Office Assistant on Co-op.

Teri Thomson prepares the grill at MacDonaldis before the store opens and works on the 'fixings' for some hamburgers and turns them.

Co-op Keeps Students Busy at Work

Tina Diehl looks up as she adds up the total cost of an order for lunch.

Co-op is one of the electives for seniors. They can hold a part time job totaling no more than 45 hours of work a week. They work at many well known places both in town and in Pontiac including: McDonald's, Montgomery Wards and Sears at the Pontiac Mall, and Rademacher Chevy.

Robin Rowland wipes the tables for customers to make themselves cozy.

English isn't all verbs, nouns, and pronouns.

The English Department offers mainly two courses of study to choose from, English and Speech. Two years of English is necessary for graduation. One nine weeks class of Writing I is also required. This year the English Department is working together with the student committee who is suggesting some changes in the English curriculum. Students, accompanied by Mrs. Gibson and Mrs. Hanson, also went to see a production of the play St. Joan.

Writing compositions may not be fun, but it's a required part of almost every English class.

English Communication

Pamela Potter and Audrey Mulherin feel that English should be enjoyed, not merely learned.

An interesting subject; A class that gives you something to smile about.

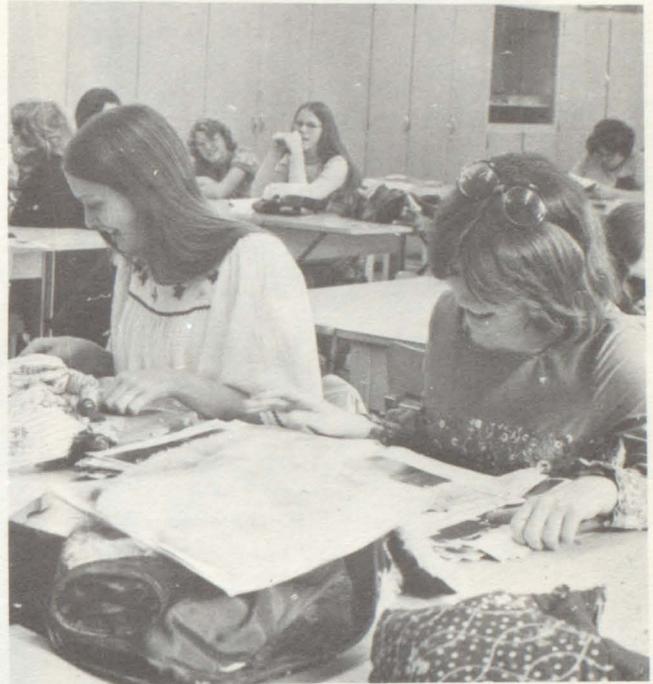

English doesn't always come easily. It takes a lot of time and effort.

Home Economics Demands Creativity

Annie Ruhala unwinds as she crochets in her needlework class.

Fashion styles stun the minds of Carol Rembach and Katie Pappas.

Diana Bond and Debbie Sprung study the projects they are making in Home Ec.

Foods, nutrition, clothing skills, needlework, housing and home furnishings are offered by the Home Economics Department this year. The cooking classes have served refreshments for the Back to School night plus serving for the Honor Society tea. The restaurant classes cater food twice a week. The sewing classes help to make costumes for the school.

Sewing some cloth quickly and efficiently is seamstress Ruth Kasl.

Job Skills Increased

Steven Coulter finishes drilling some holes in his project.

The Industrial Arts Department covers a wide area of interest. They have classes which teach auto mechanics, drafting, welding, machine shop, electricity, electronics, woodworking, and crafts. In addition to the two Vocational classes, Auto and Machine Shop, the department added Vocational Drafting to their curriculum this year. The department is headed by Mr. Pierson. Some of the students in these classes plan to submit projects in the Michigan Industrial Education Society competition.

Bill Eibergen glances up from the engine that he is working on in Auto Shop.

Leon Kline uses the machine with precision, knowledge, and confidence.

Dan Roman is very careful cutting his project on the jigsaw.

Language; A Guide to the World

Studying done for the moment, it's time for Rhonda Byers to relax and smile

The Language Department consists of three classes; French, taught by Mrs. Arend; Spanish, taught by Mrs. Addis; and German, taught by Mr. Smith. Next year a new language, Portuguese, will also be offered. This past summer the Spanish classes took a trip to Mexico, where everyone had a lot of fun and learned how to put their Spanish to good use. The Spanish II class also had dinner one night at Nick's Greek restaurant.

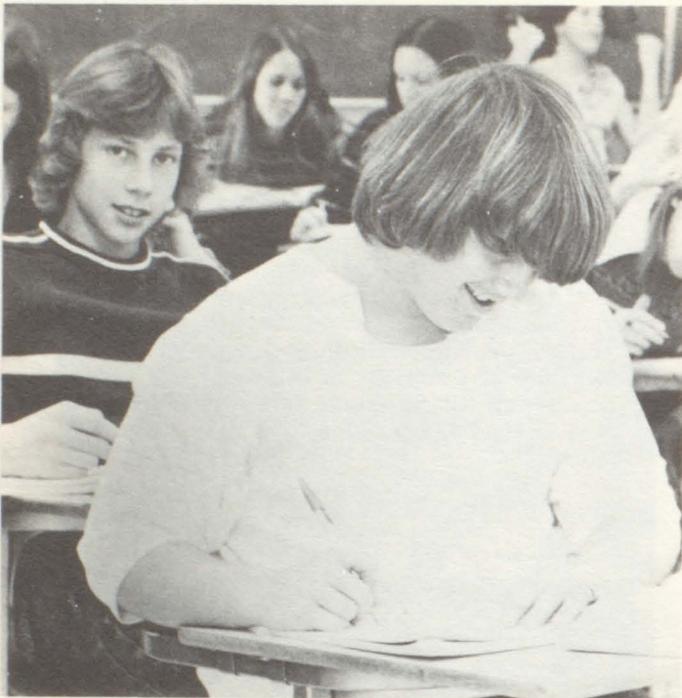

Doug Kotula checks to make sure that his work is correct.

Jeff Farough thinks that Foreign Languages are learned easier with a smile.

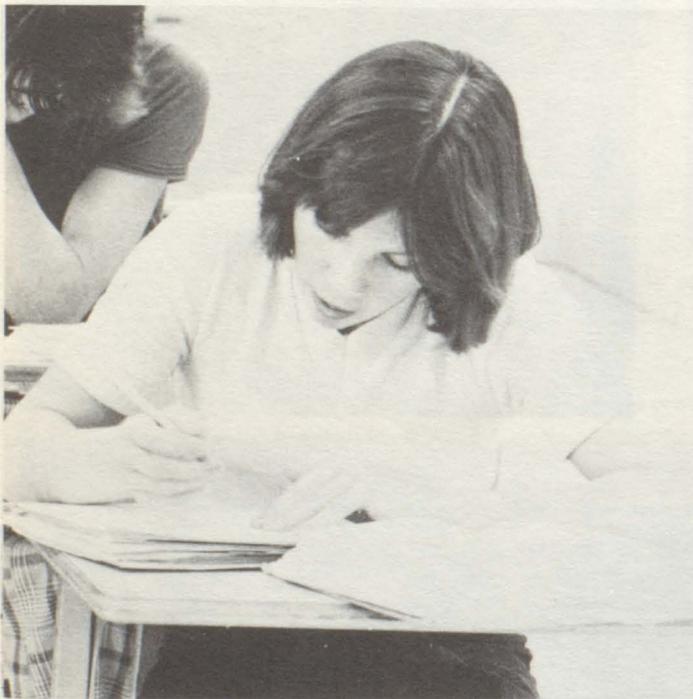

Mike Lee smiles as he realizes his picture is being taken in Math.

One math class is camera shy, as heads turn when the photographer enters.

Terri Willey works hard on an in class assignment on new material.

There are many valuable math courses offered; ranging from a beginning course in Consumers Math to a more advanced course like Calculus. Although math is not a required course here, you do need it for most colleges.

Charlie Robertson looks over his work, double checking his math before time is up.

New Geometry Books Added to Dept.

Media Productions Is Newly Offered

The early crowd gathers at the front door for one of the movies sponsored by the Film Club.

Media Productions is a class that studies the theories and the practical application of Media materials. The students study basic projection skills and maintenance of the equipment including 35mm still photography, super 8 and 16mm movie production, and video tape recording production. They also participate in the CHS Film Club. The class is by application from the instructor, Mr. Genshaw.

Listening to a new tape recording is Kevin Peters.

Making popcorn to sell at the movie is Jan Klein.

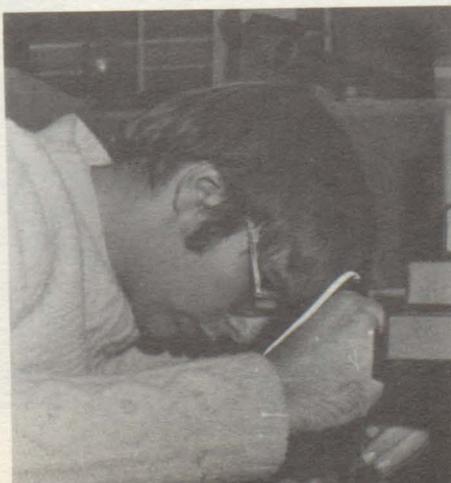

John Armand does his favorite thing.

Roland Lovelace finds something interesting.

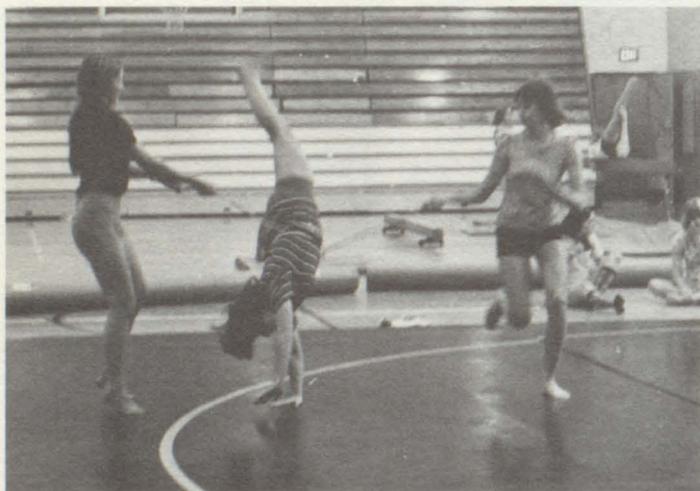

Repairing a tape recorder is Tim Westover.

Gymnastics Class Tumbles Year-Round

Vaulting the horse is Carol Whitehead as Sue Blair and Penny Bixby spot.

A couple of spotters aid a student with the ropes on a cartwheel.

Cindy Adams smiles as she points her toe on the balance beam in gym.

The gymnastics class is open to any student. They can work on the balance beam, the horse, the trampoline, or on floor exercises.

Rob Furgeson lays down in the middle of some sit-up exercises.

Warming up by shooting baskets before the basketball game starts.

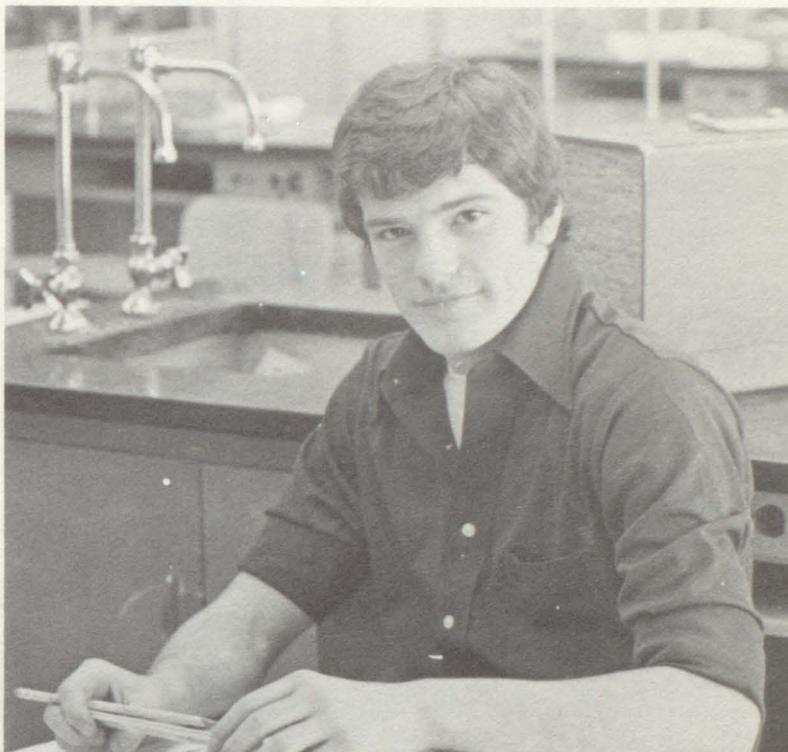

Sue Blair looks on while Jeannie O'Rourke hurdles over the horse.

Ron Carter is fooling around in biology with a haddock.

The Science department has many interesting classes to offer. Their are three main sciences: physics, biology, and chemistry. We have a new teacher this year, Mrs. Holly Stephens. She teaches several different Biology classes. Later in the year some of the biology classes are going to an outdoor nature center.

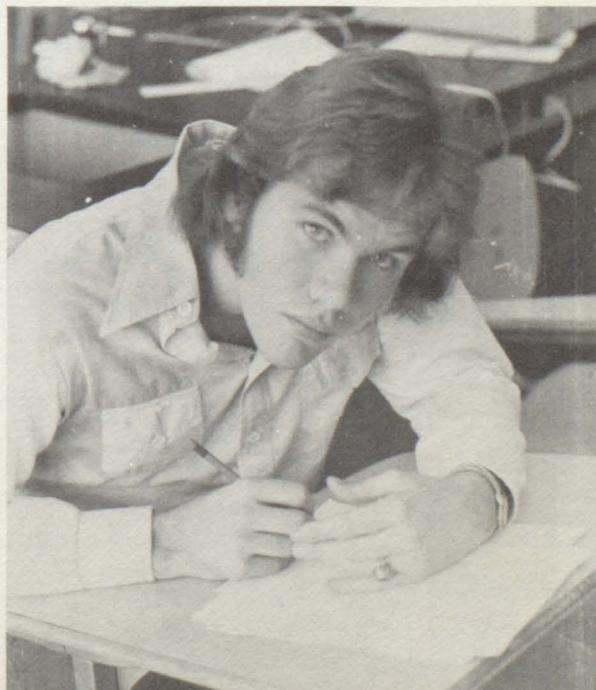

Gil McCallum finishes his assignment in chemistry and glances up; smile.

H. Stephens Joins Science Dept.

Dave Johnson, while in Physics, weighs out a beaker on a single pan balance.

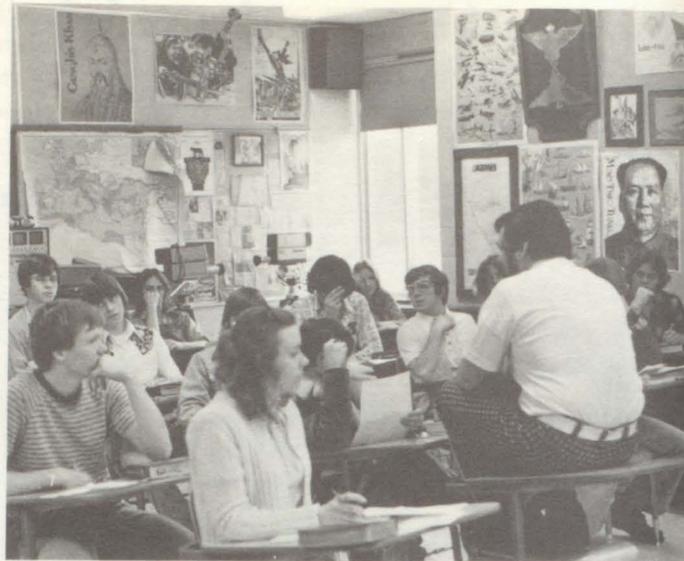

Jim Falardeau looks up from his chemistry quiz, surprised.

Social Studies Offers Bicentennial Work Shop

There are several Social Studies classes: government, psychology, U.S. History, Law and Society, geography, sociology, World History, Eurasian Studies, Family Living, and the Bicentennial Workshop, Youth and Society. Mrs. Medlin established the Bicentennial Workshop to make a Bicentennial Handbook from the projects done by the juniors and seniors papers and small projects involved. In the work shop you choose a subject area that interests you the most.

A class discussion is going on in one of Mr. Genshaw's classes.

As class discussion goes on, it seems the class is intently listening.

Brenda Comstock waits for her next class to start.

Martha Williams ponders a question on one of the U.S. History quizzes.

Goals Are Met in Special Education

Janice Benjamin helps Jeanie Barhardt with some work as Carol Craig watches.

The Special Education classes had some goals which were met at the end of the year. All of the students in this program have attended the vocational school upon their graduation, at which time most of the students will be equipped with some sort of work experience. The main goal of the Special Education classes is to prepare the students so that they are ready for further advancement upon leaving high school.

Bill Martin gazes at the front board to ponder a question.

Mr. Webster carefully explains an answer to a few of his students.

Joann Atkinson, Special Education assistant, smiles at a joke.

Gabier, New Director of Drivers Ed.

Last years Drivers Education consisted of a spring flight and three regular flights. Mr. Santa Vicca, Mr. Johnson, Mr. Carter, Mr. Hughlett, Mr. Ford, Mr. La-Magna, Mr. Oliver, and Mr. Webster taught a combination of class, range, or road.

Mr. Santa Vicca was on the the many Driver Education teachers here at CHS.

Many students would sit on the front lawn of the school waiting for class.

Students, on the summer flight, wait for the lunch to end.

HAPPENINGS

Denise Is Homecoming Queen for '75!

This year's Homecoming festivities started off with the annual pre-tapping assembly. Here four girls from each class were pre-tapped, and from these four, one was chosen to represent her class. Representing the sophomores was Patti Jo Duva. The junior maid was Martha Williams and the senior maid was Nancy O'Rourke. The girl voted on by the entire school, and was chosen for Homecoming Queen was Denise Langdon. Her attendants were Darlene Molter and Rachelle Rosser.

Each class built a float to enter in the Homecoming parade with the theme "We May Never Pass This Way Again". The sophomore float of a scrap book to represent the school days of their maid won first prize.

Homecoming King, Tom Ross, looks thrilled after being tapped.

The 1975 Homecoming Queen, Denise Langdon, smiles after being crowned.

Queen's Attendant, Darlene Molter, smiles with escort Jeff Harvey.

Rachelle Rosser is escorted by Eric Cowen at the Queen's Assembly.

The sophomore maid, Patti Jo Duva, walks down the field at the game.

Brett Nichol森 and Darrell Johnson, Jesters, watch the tappings.

Senior maid, Nancy O'Rourke, walks down the field as the band plays.

Scott Housefield and Carolyn Rademacher enjoy the Homecoming dance.

Seniors Whip Juniors in Powder Puff

October 11 was a day the juniors may wish they had missed: the day they were beat 27-6 by the seniors.

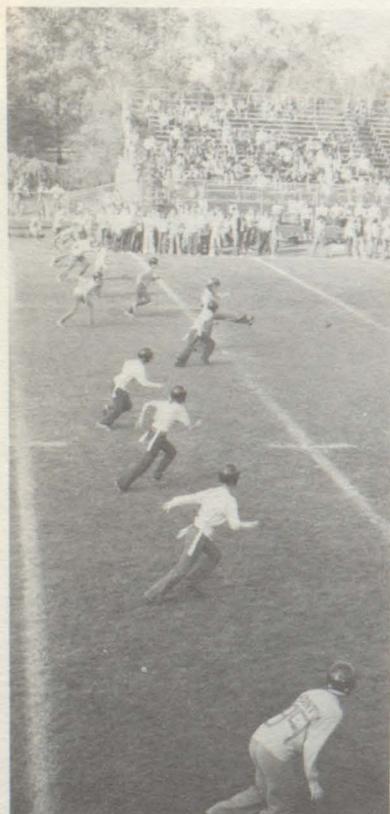

The seniors were coached by Mr. Mackson, Mr. Webster, and Mr. Wenger. The juniors were coached by Mr. Hart, Mr. Chamberlain, and Mr. Hanson.

At the beginning of the game, the teams seemed to be evenly matched with neither team being able to move the ball. Finally, at the end of the first quarter, the junior defense was unable to hold the seniors who scored and kept scoring with touchdowns by Kathy Rush, Dede Miller, Diane Curry, and Pam Gardner. The senior defense held the juniors down to one touchdown, a quarterback keeper by Cindy Adams.

Top row: Diane Curry, Nancy Chartier, Coach Mackson, Lori Helzer, Mary Whitmer, Mr. Wenger, Shelley Connors, Kylee Pointer, Jody Combs, Auty Matlock, Jean Brown, Kathy Rush, DeLynn Miller, Fern Smith, Anne Van Loon, Tami Keating, Wendy Seavey, Kim Hamaker, Jerri Burns, Pam Willits, Sherry Nowicki, Pam Novosel, Mr. Webster. Row two: Nancy McAlevy, Vicki Verch, Kam Watson, Tricia Robertson, Janet LeClaire, Linda Smith, Lynn

The juniors kick-off to the seniors.

The senior cheerleaders show off their newly acquired uniforms before the start of the game.

The seniors intently watch the game as the offense moves down the field.

Mr. Mackson gives the seniors a pep talk before the game begins.

Dede Miller (13) and Vivian Booker (75) fake as Nancy Chartier hands off to Kathy Rush (25).

Autumn Matlock kicks off after a senior TD.

The adorable junior cheerleaders show off their good looking legs.

The junior defense is unable to hold back the strong senior offense.

Cinde Is Chosen for D.A.R. Award

Cinde Karpovck was chosen to receive Clarkston's DAR award. The Daughters of the American Revolution present this award to the senior girl with the best all-around citizenship. Cinde has proven her outstanding citizenship by being very active in church, painting backdrops for the school plays, entering paintings in art shows, and maintaining a 3.64 grade point average. Clarkston is very proud of her.

Cinde Karpovck, the DAR award recipient, begins to sketch the lay-out for her new project.

Cinde is very talented at many things, especially her art work, which she displays here. She has entered many of the art shows and plans to enter more this year.

Girls Perform Routines At Half-time

This year's Pom Pom girls, consisting of ten juniors, provided entertainment for the Wolves fans during half-time of the basketball games. The managers were Jerri-Lyn Burns and Tricia Robertson. Mrs. Fetsco was the sponsor. They performed routines to popular songs by Elton John, Chicago, etc.

Tricia Robertson, Mrs. Fetsco, and Jerri Burns.

Bewildered, Laura Sussex watches a new step.

The Pom Pom girls show their perfect ending.

Chelli Gavette approves of the new routine.

Cast Involves Audience In First Play

The Drama Club put on a different type of play this year. They used the audience as the jury to decide the verdict and the ending for the play "The Night Of January 16". Trying the case were Mike Kelley and Gerry Stevenson. Being tried for murder was Karen Andre who was played by Renee Lussier. On the District Attorney's side was Mrs. Faulkner, played by Monica Gibbs, whose husband, Bjorn Faulkner, was murdered. Steve Huttenlocher presided over the case. Ric Huttenlocher, who played the role of a bank president, was an important witness as well as Jim Hinkley and Helmer Sweeney. Other members of the case were: Jim Falardeau, Larry Dean, Becky Ridley, Missy Pritchard, Wendy Seavey, Ed Ball, Denise Smith, Rhonda Byers, Becky Sackrider, Steve Ridgeway, and Judy McLaughlin. The profit from this will go for the production of the musical "Camelot".

Gerry Stevenson, the Defense Attorney, checks his notes before cross examining.

Mike Kelley and Monica Gibbs look worried.

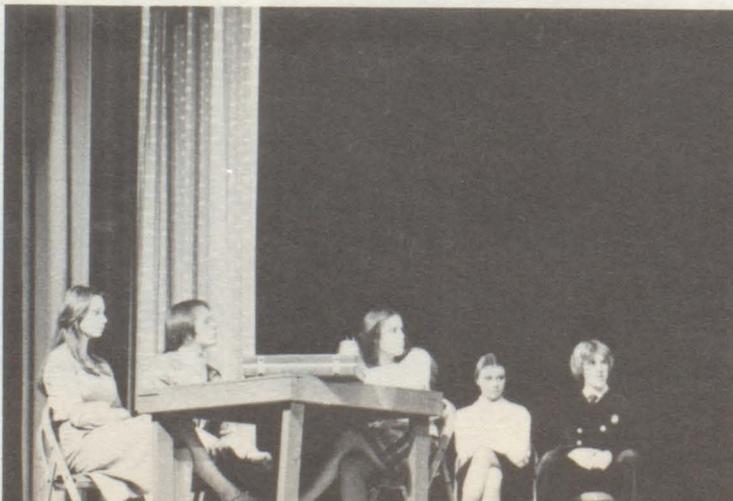

Renee Lussier listens as the District Attorney asks her a question.

Becky Sackrider tells Mike Kelley and the jury her side of the story.

The Defense Attorney and his client wait patiently for the final verdict.

Ric Huttenlocher waits for the next question.

Spanish Club Organizes Visit to Spain

This year's Spanish Club consists of all eleventh and twelfth grade Spanish students and is headed by Mrs. Virginia Addis. The objective of the Club is to earn enough money through candy and bake sales to send themselves to Spain during Spring Break. Thus far, the sales have gone well, already making an advanced down-payment for the trip. The members of the club who aren't going to Spain are assisting their clubmates in the sales.

Mona Morouse blocks in letters on a Spanish color chart.

During classes the club members work even harder to speak Spanish fluently.

Senora Addis teaches her classes all that they'll need to know about Spain.

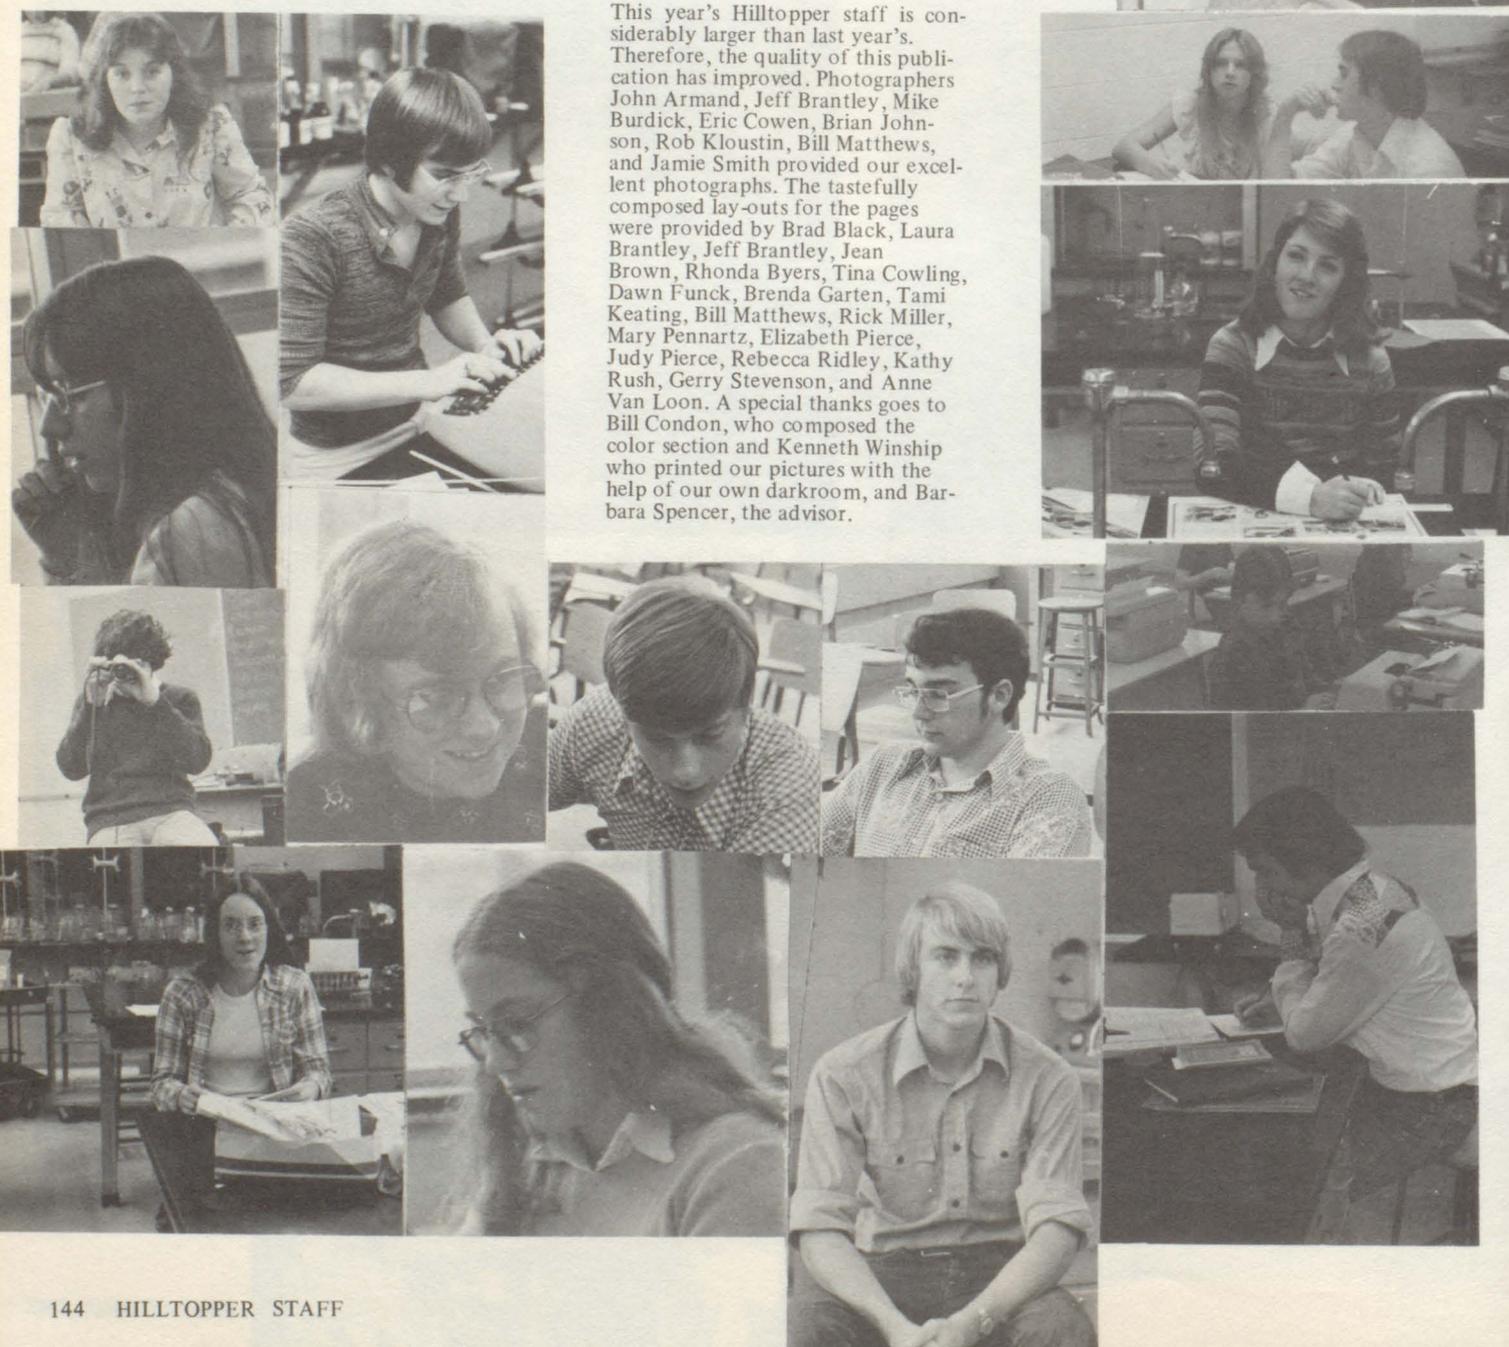

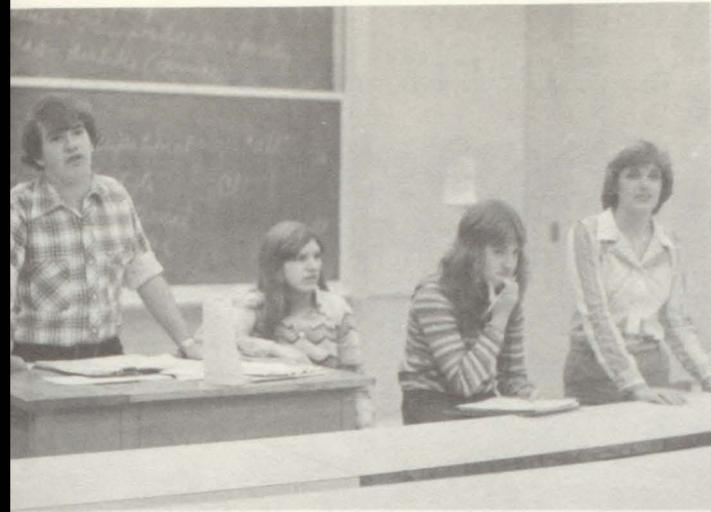

The Spanish Club discusses the finances for their trips.

Rolling from the Hilltop

This year's Hilltopper staff is considerably larger than last year's. Therefore, the quality of this publication has improved. Photographers John Armand, Jeff Brantley, Mike Burdick, Eric Cowen, Brian Johnson, Rob Kloustin, Bill Matthews, and Jamie Smith provided our excellent photographs. The tastefully composed lay-outs for the pages were provided by Brad Black, Laura Brantley, Jeff Brantley, Jean Brown, Rhonda Byers, Tina Cowling, Dawn Funck, Brenda Garten, Tami Keating, Bill Matthews, Rick Miller, Mary Pennartz, Elizabeth Pierce, Judy Pierce, Rebecca Ridley, Kathy Rush, Gerry Stevenson, and Anne Van Loon. A special thanks goes to Bill Condon, who composed the color section and Kenneth Winship who printed our pictures with the help of our own darkroom, and Barbara Spencer, the advisor.

Bill Condon, Kelly Stormer, Anne Van Loon, and Diane Hughlett, the Student Government officers, discuss projects for the new year.

Mr. Alessi and Mr. Hart are this year's Student Government advisors.

Our active Student Government this year sponsored a very successful blood drive, a 50's Dance, painted the cafeteria walls, and brought the administration and students into better communication. Bill Condon, Diane Hughlett, and Anne Van Loon are our representatives in League Student Council.

Student Government Has Active Year

Cheryl Davis Is Michigan's Jr. Miss!

Cheryl Lynn Davis was chosen 1975-76 Michigan Jr. Miss when the Jaycees held their 18th annual state pageant on January 24 at Pontiac Northern. Cheryl also received the Kraft Award along with the state title. She advances to National Competition in Mobile, Alabama on May 11 after winning the local, regional, and state pageants. Cheryl, a talented piano player with a 3.875 grade point average, was chosen over 24 other contestants from all over the state.

To devote more time to her state duties, she must pass along the title of Clarkston's Jr. Miss to the first runner-up of the Clarkston pageant, Tori Campe. Tori will assume the duties of Clarkston's Jr. Miss, and the other runner-ups will also advance one place.

The girls that participated in the Clarkston pageant were: Sue Loba, Jeri-Lyn Burns, Janet Mansfield, Lori Helzer, Marilyn Ridgeway, Cheryl Phelps, Pam Novosel, Pam Gardner, Kelly Stormer, Cindy Rumsey, Pam Willits, Debbie McArthur, Kim Hamaker, Tami Keating, Fern Smith, Vivian Booker, Pam Bowman, Kylee Pointer, Shelley Connors, Tori Campe, Lorinda Lovell, Carolyn Rademacher, Cindy Stanton, Jeannie Lyons, Tricia Robertson, and Jean Brown. After the state pageant, the awards of the Clarkston pageant now stand: Tori Campe, Clarkston Jr. Miss; Jean Brown, first runner-up; Lorinda Lovell, third runner-up; Vivian Booker, fourth runner-up; and Shelley Connors, fourth runner-up.

Congratulations Cheryl, Michigan's Junior Miss, and Tori, Clarkston's Junior Miss.

Under the direction of Keith Sipos, the band was very active this year. The Marching Band provided entertainment for all the home football games, played in the Labor Day and Memorial Day parades, and played at the pep assemblies. Next year the band is planning to change its block style of marching to a corps style of marching. The Concert Band performed two concerts, a Christmas and a spring concert. They plan to have an exchange day with another band from Mt. Clemens. They will also take part in the Band Festival which takes place in March. The band will then travel to one of the Detroit suburbs to compete with some of the finest bands in the state. Many students are involved in Solo and Ensemble which will be held in Royal Oak during February.

Note Our Talented Music Department

The music department has been working hard to choose newer and livelier songs for their concerts. Headed by Grace Warren, the madrigal, varsity, mixed, and girls glee choirs have developed an easy listening sound to their performances, making them well known to many.

Varsity Girls Effort Pays Off

This year's Girl's Varsity Basketball team had a very good season. They are under the coaching of Jan Modesitt, who commented, "It's been a fine year with these hard working kids." Key factors to this year's winning season have been conditioning, experience, pride, and the individual skills that were put toward a team effort. The girls ran up a tremendous score of 7-1 in the league, and 15-4 in the regular season. Dede Miller and Kathy Rush were the two highest scorers, and Autumn Matlock was the leading rebounder. Saying good-bye to the team are seniors Nancy Chartier, Diane Curry, Autumn Matlock, Dede Miller, and Kathy Rush. The remaining members of the team are anxiously looking forward to another year of basketball.

J. V. Girls Have Impressive Season

This year's Girl's Junior Varsity Basketball team ran up a record of 16-2 for the over all season. They are coached by Miss Kathy DeArmond, who stated that "This is the best J.V. team I ever had. The reason for such a terrific season was the fact that all the girls were experienced, and knew how to handle themselves well. Captains for this year's Junior Varsity Basketball team were Pat Killian and Anne Vaara. The girls have put in a lot of time and effort into each game, and it shows.

Varsity Wolves Are League Co-Champs

This year's Varsity Football Team ended their season in a tie. They tied with Andover for first place in league competition with a 3-1 league record. The Wolves were led by a powerful defense. They held their opponents to only 61 points; a new school record. The last three games played, the contenders were held scoreless. Even though they suffered the loss of their most experienced quarterback, Wayne Thompson, the offense added to the team's efforts by putting 168 points on our scoreboards. The leading scorer was Larry Bennett with five touchdowns, including a touchdown pass to Jeff Bullard. Larry was also injured during play and was out of action for two games. Other fine players were Steve Pearson, Kevin Ridley, Dick Armstrong, and Tom Ross; all making First Team All-League. Tom Ross, also making First Team All-County, was awarded the Optimist Award and was selected as the team's Most Valuable Player. The Vince Lombardi Award which is presented to the outstanding lineman was awarded to Kevin Ridley, defensive tackle. Coach Rob White now has a record of 26 wins and 10 losses at Clarkston.

J. V. Final Record 1—6

The Junior Varsity Wolves had a tough season. Coached by Mr. Paul Tungate, who was assisted by Mr. John Craven, the team ended the season with a 1-6 record. Their one win came against Milford, where they held the opponent scoreless. Some positive points in favor of the team were that they never gave up and they showed much improvement as the year progressed. Good offensive players included: Craig Czinder, the quarterback, and two backfield men, John Baker and Tony Thompson. Scot Koch is noted as playing a fine defensive linebacker. Many members of this year's J. V. team will make great contributions to next year's Varsity Squad.

Promising Future for Golf Team

Steve Craft, a sophomore, shouldn't talk so much while playing golf.

Rich Rosner (above) hits out of the rough and onto the eighth green while Jim English (below) watches the ball roll in for a birdie.

The golf team had a fair season this year with a record of 3 wins and 11 losses. Doug Pierson, the varsity coach, said that there is room for improvement. Next year they should have a pretty good team. One of the bright spots on the team was Steve Kraft, a sophomore, who was the Medalist of all Oakland County at the Pontiac Country Club with a 3 over par 75.

The J.V. team, coached by Jim Chamberlain, had an off season this year. One reason was that the varsity team kept bringing up, and sending down players so he didn't have a set starting team.

Before beginning the match, Clarkston and their opponents gather around and get their lineups.

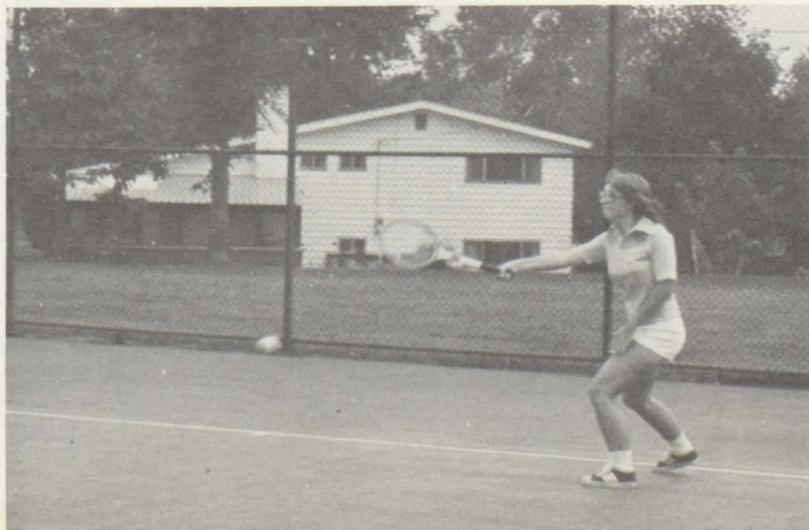

Jody Combs calmly returns her opponent's shot.

This was the second year that the girls tennis team was in existence. They improved over last year's winless record by winning 2 games. Zoann Matthews, the number one singles player, was voted the team's M.V.P., while Jody Combs, the number three singles player, was the Most Improved. The first doubles team of Tricia Robertson and Cindy Johnson was also a very important part of the team, by contributing ten winning matches.

Cindy Johnson, part of the number one doubles team, smashes back a forehand.

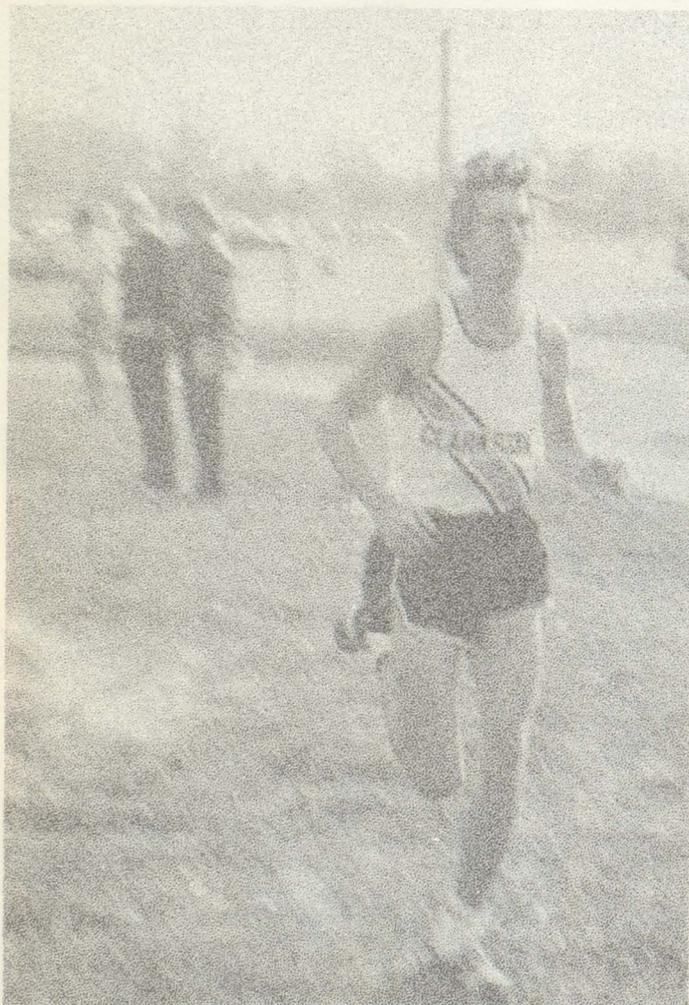

Karen Kish jumps to return a deep, high job.

Harriers Finish with a 6—5 Record

Fenton vs Clarkston runners from L to R: P. Glowzinski, R. Ferguson, R. Swanson, T. Jackson, T. Brown, E. Mullen, M. Harris, and A. Smith.

Paul Glowzinski shows the form that makes him our number one runner.

Cindy Rumsey and Carol Whitehead wait for the runners to come back.

Reed Swanson goes ahead of a Fenton runner.

Coach Solley writes down the Team's winning times while a discouraged Fenton runner looks on.

After two miles Rob Ferguson paces himself.

Although the Cross Country team was plagued by injuries and inexperience, they managed to have a 6-5 dual meet record. This was due mainly to the running of Paul Glowzinski, who was voted M.P.V., as he broke the school record with a run of 16:11 for the 3 mile course. Reed Swanson was voted Most Improved. The rest of the varsity squad includes: Tim Brown, Rob Ferguson, Matt Harris, Ted Jackson, Eugene Mullen, Rick Pfahlert, and Anselm Smith.

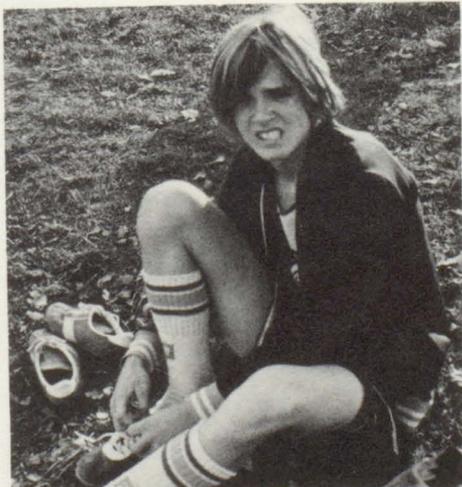

Paul Glowzinski hears his time after 2 miles.

Wolve's Varsity Basketball

The Varsity Basketball Team is out on the court before a tough game in order to practice up.

The Varsity Wolves Basketball Team began their season under the coaching of Dave MacDonald. This year's Varsity Basketball squad had a very disappointing season. Being plagued with injuries since the beginning of the season gave the Wolves a poor advantage. They started out the season by winning their first few games, then gradually went down hill in a short while. This season's scores weren't too good. According to Coach Mac Donald, the team's offense has a good shooting percentage, and averages 60 points a game. When asked about the team's weak points, the coach commented that the team lacks desire and hustling in rebounding and defense. Weldon Graham is one of the team's strongest players when it comes to shooting and rebounding. Averaging 16.2 points a game, Graham is the second leading scorer in the Greater-Oakland League.

Jeff Williams helps add to the team's efforts by bringing down another rebound.

Weldon Graham, Wolve's leading scorer, pops in another shot.

The Junior Varsity Wolves Basketball Team really had their ups and downs this year. Under the coaching of Dave Bihl, the team has done quite well. Even though the J.V. Team was not as competitive this year as compared to previous years, the boys put forth their best effort toward close scoring games. By learning many of the finer points of basketball through practice and games, the team can improve their ability at shooting and rebounding. Through these efforts, many of the J.V. players will be Varsity players in years to come. Although the Junior Varsity Team was not as successful as hoped for, Coach Bihl is confident that next year's team, as well as the players, will be an outstanding success. It takes a lot of guts, work, and dedication to be a basketball player, and this year's J.V. Team members rate number one under those standards.

The 1976 J.V. Basketball Coach, Dave Bihl.

Eric Richards shoots over a player on the opposing team.

Tim Fogg takes a shot at the top of the key.

John Bullen takes a long shot from the side.

Adding two points to the score is Tom White.

Varsity Volleyball Team Is a Success

The 1976 Girl's Varsity Volleyball Team had an astounding season! They are under the direction of Mrs. Linda Densteadt, who is now in her 4th year of coaching. The team consists of ten players, five of which are Seniors, three Juniors, and two sophomores. The players are: Jane Tatu, Sue Frasier, Autumn Matlock, Dede Miller, Nancy Chartier, Debbie McAlevy, Jill Vedder, Mary Anderson, Kathy Warren, and Diane Curry. This year's manager is Carol Whitehead. According to Coach Densteadt, the girls have been very successful during the time they have played. The team's work and dedication shows through when they preform on the court at home and away.

Coach Densteadt watches the game from the side lines with other players.

Nancy Chartier smashes the ball over the net while serving, awaiting a return.

Dede Miller sees her chance to set up the ball to another team member.

Bumping a powerful shot up is an easy task for Autumn Matlock.

Girls J.V. Volleyball Team Triumphs

The 1976 Junior Varsity Volleyball Team began their season with a new coach, Miss Dorane Speraw. Miss Speraw is confident that her team will be a success, even though it is rather small. "We may be small, but we're powerful," she commented. Consisting of ten, well trained Sophomores, the team has been very triumphant. The girls have put a lot of effort into each game, and are working hard at becoming better and stronger. Many of this year's J.V. players will become Varsity players next year. The J.V. Team is tough competition while their on the court, and as far as their concerned, they're number one.

Carla Grable professionally bumps up an easy shot to Pat Killian.

A bump shot is no easy task, but Deanna Murphy can handle it quite well.

Shelly Valliencourt sets up a spike shot for Pat Killian.

Watched by Anne Vaara, Carla Grable sets up a high shot for a colleague.

This year's Sophomore Basketball team, coached by Mr. Ostrum, ended the season with a discouraging record of 2 and 9. Tenth grade basketball is not as much competitive sport as it is a sport of sportsmanship and a period of adjusting to high school athletics.

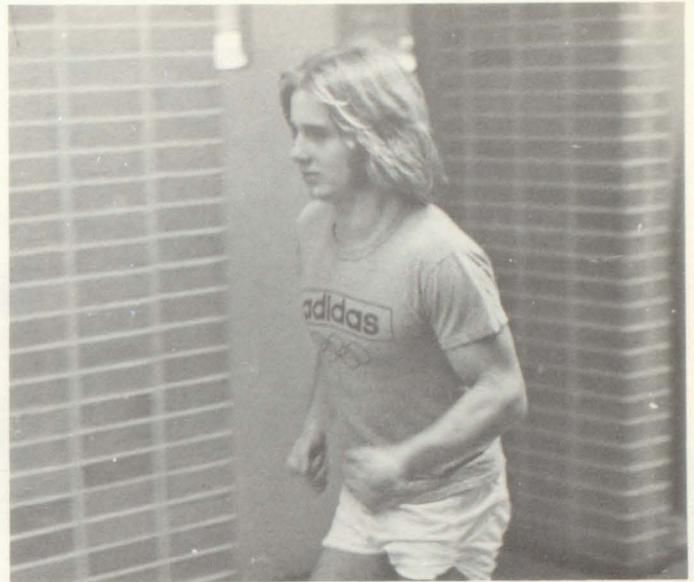

Despite their poor record, this year's Sophomores had the needed confidence to play well.
