No more than one tract or parcel must be valued or taxed on the same line. Two descriptions must not be joined in one valuation or tax. Personal estate must be valued and taxes entered on a different line, as well as column, from Real Estate. Non-resident lands must be entered in numerical order, beginning with section number, and with range and township, in the column of taxes to which it belongs, above the tax for the year for which the assessment is made. Two or more City or Village Lots owned and occupied by one person, may be assessed and taxed as one tract, and must be noted that they are so occupied. The special attention of Assessors is directed to the Revised Statutes, Where any money highway tax is voted in any township, under Sec. 34, Chapter 43, Revised Statutes, and required to be put in one of the three columns there mentioned, may be put in the blank column, next to the one headed "Total of Taxes." - Auditor General's Office, Albany, 1851.

12- No more than one tract or parcel must be valued or taxed on the same line. Two descriptions must not be joined in one valuation or tax. Personal estate must be valued and taxed entered on a different line, as well as column, from Real Estate. Non-resident land must be entered in one column, with section one. Enter the amount of any reassessment with Real Estate, in the column of taxes to which it belongs, above the tax for the year for which this Roll is made. If the land is assessed in one parcel, but the tax must be noted that they are so occupied. The special attention of Assessors is directed to pages 104, 105, and 106, and opposite each parcel, for the year for which this Roll is made, to Act Nos. 2, 73, 122, 134, Sec. 3, and Act 206, Sec. 3, No more than one tract or parcel may be valued or taxed on the same line. Two descriptions must not be joined in one valuation or tax. Personal estate must be valued, and taxes entered on a different line as well as columns from Real Estate. No additional taxes must be entered in numerical order, beginning with section one. Enter the column of taxes to which it belongs, above the tax for the year for which this roll is used, and in the column for "Personal Estate" state the name of the owner of the personal estate, and in the column for "Real Estate" state the name of the owner of the real estate. The attention of Assessors is directed to pages 104, 105, and 106, of the Revised Statutes of 1846, concerning their duties, and other laws for county, township, and school taxes. State, County and Township Tax. Any special tax not specified in Sec. 24, Chapter 20, Revised Statutes, and required to be put in one of the three columns here mentioned, may be put in the blank column next to the one headed "Total of Taxes." - Auditor General's Office, April, 1851.

1835- No more than one tract or parcel must be valued or taxed on the same line. Two descriptions must not be shown in one valuation or tax. Personal estate must be valued and taxes entered on a different line, as well as column, from Real Estate. Non-resident lands must be entered in the column for non-resident lands, and the fact must be noted that they are so occupied. The special attention of Assessors is directed to pages 104, 105, and 106, of the Revised Statutes, where any money highway tax is voted in any township, under Sec. 4, Chap. 22, Revised Statutes, it should be put with the other taxes for township purposes, in the column headed "State, County and Township Tax." Any special tax not specified in Sec. 4, Chapter 20, Revised Statutes, and required to be put in one of the three columns there mentioned, may be put in the blank column, next to the one headed "Total of Taxes." - Acton, Vermont, 3d October, 1850.

No more than one tract or parcel must be valued or taxed on the same line. Two descriptions must not be placed in one valuation or tax. Personal estate must be valued, and taxes entered on a different line, as well as column, from Real Estate. Non-resident lands must be entered in numerical order, beginning with section one. Enter the amount of any reassessment with Real Estate, in the column for the year for which this roll is issued, and in the column for "Remarks" state opposite each parcel for what year the reassessment was made. Two or more City or Village Lots owned and occupied as one parcel, may be assessed as one parcel; but the fact must be noted that they are so occupied. The amount of the reassessment must be entered in the column for the year for which this roll is issued, and in the column for "Remarks" state opposite each parcel for what year the reassessment was made. Other taxes for township purposes, in the column for the year for which this roll is issued, and in the column for "Remarks" state opposite each parcel for what year the reassessment was made. Any special tax not specified in Sec. 34, Chapter 20, Revised Statutes, and required to be put in one of the three columns here mentioned, may be put in the blank column, next to the one headed "Total of Taxes."—Auditors General's Office, April, 1851.
