Budget re / for adoption...

By KATHY JENNINGS

A pared-down city budget will be considered for adoption by the Novi City Council May 9 since council members apparently have agreed to approximately $89,300 in cuts from the original budget proposed for 1983-84.

In the final work session before the hearing to adopt the spending plan, City Manager Edward Kriewall detailed adjustments the council has made to the original budget and explained how they will affect local property taxes.

Meanwhile, three public hearings on the proposed $4.5 million budget conducted Monday — a federal revenue sharing hearing, charter required budget hearing and truth in taxation hearing — drew little response from the community.

One resident asked what type of raises had been budgeted for city employees and whether they would be asked to make concessions when contract negotiations get underway.

Kriewall responded that contract negotiations are "a big unknown" in the proposed budget. When the city enters negotiations, he said, agreements are affected by settlements in surrounding communities.

The council indicated there is no salary increases included in the budget and if raises are awarded during negotiations it will mean cuts in other budgeted areas.

Council members have closely scrutinized the proposed budget in recent weeks in an attempt to find ways to keep from raising taxes. But after reviewing a list of $244,000 in proposed cuts necessary to keep taxes at the same rate as last year, the council decided to trim $178,272 from the budget. They then added back $90,000 for property acquisition.

The council agreed to leave eight of 10 "high priority" capital expenditures in the budget. Those items, such as replacement police vehicles and communications equipment, were identified by the administration as areas which could be cut if cuts must be made. However, administrators indicated they hoped the council would not make such cuts.

The administration had proposed a millage increase to offset the decreasing revenues caused by reductions in property values, state shared revenues and interest on investments.

Council members ultimately supported a proposal by Council Member Ronald Watson that most of the capital expenditures remain in the budget on the grounds that they are a continuation of programs the city has been developing for several years and the cuts could prove disruptive.

At the council's request purchase of a $6,000 voting machine and a $120,000 fire truck were postponed and cuts in the budgets for telephones and education and conferences were trimmed.

During budget deliberations last week, the council added $90,000 for property acquisition in the area of fund balance.

The budget also calls for a net increase of one employee. A clerical employee will be eliminated from the police department and a juvenile officer will be added.

Novi expects to receive $2.24 million in local property taxes in 1983-84, representing 50 percent of the city's revenue. The city also expects to collect $985,000 in state shared revenues and has budgeted $25,500 in federal funding. The city also will draw upon $562,947 in monies not used in the 1982-83 budget.

Flooding threatens Novi homes

Residents in eight homes on East Lake Drive were threatened by high waters as Novi Department of Public Works (DPW) employees worked into the early morning hours Tuesday to relieve the flooding caused by the heavy weekend rains.

Weekend storms and Monday's downpour generated an estimated 3.1 inches of rain — nearly what is considered a 10-year storm — causing the conditions which led to the flooding.

At one point the city considered it might be necessary to cut open the roadway on East Lake Drive to provide a route for water to drain into Walled Lake.

Public Services Director Robert Shaw reported Tuesday morning that it appears the work completed by the DPW at approximately 1:30 a.m. Tuesday relieved the crisis. He said it appeared the water level had dropped nearly six inches by morning.

The crew dug a trench from the lake to a 24-inch drainage pipe which apparently was obstructed, city officials reported. The DPW cut a hole in the pipe upstream of the obstruction, releasing the blocked water.

The water then flowed through the trench alongside the 24-inch pipe. Before the DPW unblocked the pipe, water was flowing from the 24-inch pipe at approximately half the rate it should have been, Shaw said. The trench more than doubled the amount of drainage which could flow into the lake, he added.

Shaw said he expects even more rain on Tuesday can be handled by the trench dug by the DPW.

City Manager Edward Kriewall said there was no consideration of evacuating residents and such measures would not be taken until water is flowing over East Lake Drive. Garages were under water, but water was not flowing over East Lake Drive Monday.

City officials became aware of the flooding problems Monday when residents called at approximately 5:30 p.m. to say water was rising rapidly behind their homes. By 6:30 p.m. it had risen six inches and within two hours was up another eight inches.

Engineering Consultant Cliff Seiber said the water contributing to the flooding was draining from land surrounding Chateau Estates Mobile Home Park; the roadway on Thirteen Mile and an area around Fourteen Mile, as well as from land in Walled Lake and Commerce Township.

Seiber said the 36-inch storm sewer in that area was scheduled to be replaced by a 60-by-48 inch elliptical pipe in July as part of the city's drainage program. As a result of the flooding, the contractor will be asked to revise the construction schedule to move up the installation of the new drainage system, Seiber said.

"That drain has been a problem all along," Kriewall said. "That's why it was scheduled to be replaced as part of the drainage program. With the lesser rainfalls we've had in recent years it hasn't been a problem, but it couldn't handle the added water coming through this time."

Super sewer gets city commitment

By KATHY JENNINGS

Although it may someday mean an ad valorem tax to meet payments, the Novi City Council voted to commit the city to joining Super Sewer last week.

Conceding that Novi really has no alternative if it is to continue to grow, the council voted 6-1 to enter a financial agreement to participate in Super Sewer. Council Member Guy Smith opposed that action.

At issue was the estimated $875,000 annual payments Novi will be responsible for beginning in 1987. Novi's total obligation in the system is estimated at $9.65 million.

For some time Novi has been near its sewage capacity. Future development in the city depends in part on the city's ability to promise sewer service, which it can only do if it obtains additional sewer capacity.

"Capacity" is the amount of flow the city has reserved in the sewer system. Since Novi has used nearly all its current capacity in the existing Detroit system, the threat of a building ban has loomed over the city for some time.

For that reason city officials have vigorously pursued the construction of Super Sewer and the inclusion of Novi in that system. Novi was among the communities that were asked last week to make financial commitments to the project.

Frank Naglich, Oakland County Department of Public Works, said the cost of the system to individual communities has risen since it was first proposed due to inflation and the fact that a number of communities have dropped out of the project.

The system will provide sewer capacity for an additional population of 30,000 people over the next 20 years, or approximately 1,500 people annually. To equate the population growth to sewer taps, the city must sell approximately 500 taps per year to accommodate an annual population growth of 1,500 and meet the sewer payments, City Manager Edward Kriewall explained.

"This is higher than we've been running in terms of population growth," Kriewall said. He also indicated in peak years the city has sold 400 sewer taps and in lean years it has dropped to 200.

Council members discussed the ramifications such as sewer obligation

New cable heads gets organized

By KATHY JENNINGS

It's not too early to start thinking of how you or your organization can use cable television to communicate with the community, says Lark Samouelian, the newly-appointed executive director of the Southwestern Oakland Cable Consortium.

Residents most likely will be able to begin producing public access programming by September, when Metrovision expects to have 7,000-8,000 homes connected to the system, Samouelian says. But, she adds, now is the time to start thinking of the type of information you or your group want to share with the community.

Samouelian has been appointed executive director of the consortium representing Novi, Farmington and Farmington Hills. She will work with Metrovision to provide "the best and most creative public use of cable," Samouelian says in her enthusiastic manner.

To promote interest in using the public access programming available with cable vision, Samouelian will be meeting with groups throughout the three communities in coming months.

"I'll be responsible for consolidating the information submitted by individuals or groups, taking that information and determining the best avenues for programming. Programming for human interest, sports, special education, senior citizens — all those types of things will be available."

Samouelian also will oversee all the various functions of the system, ranging from working with the consortium, local units of government and public access. She also will work with the public access person employed by Metrovision.

"I'll be responsible for providing a flow in the program so we can have the best quality programming and everyone can enjoy it," Samouelian says.

"One of the great things about cable television is everyone can become involved in it, and, because it is low budget, it promotes creativity," Samouelian adds.

Samouelian says her philosophy is that "the low budget of access cable programming opens the door to creativity and one is forced back to the basics of hard work, first-hand experience and producing with your own instincts, personality and expertise."

That's only the beginning of her thoughts on public access cable vision:

- "I follow the concept that if you have a thought, an idea in mind, cable is the perfect medium for expressing it."

- "It's a way of having a little bit of Hollywood right here."

- "It's also a part of building a good solid community base."

- "People will be creating programs

a person will care about and we will make it a lot of fun."

She also emphasizes that she believes cable television is one way of keeping people "mentally alert" and it provides a method for educating oneself easily.

"The cable industry is unique and so valuable to each one of us as it will keep us in the mainstream of life, with no retirement necessary," she says.

As an employee of the cable consortium Samouelian says her first priority will be development "of a

Trustees opt to continue programs

By PHILIP JEROME

It looks like the athletic, community education and outdoor education programs will remain intact for the 1983-84 school year after all, as a result of the Walled Lake Board of Education last week.

Specifically, the school board voted not to issue "non-renewal of contract" notices to five key administrators at a special 1 p.m. meeting Friday.

The five administrators — Athletic Director Thomas Evans, Outdoor Education Director Barbara Garbutt and Robert Duff, Jerry Sutton and Jerry Beers of the Community Education Department — were notified by the board in April that their contracts might not be renewed for the 1983-84 year.

Voting to rescind those notices Friday apparently means that the contracts of all five administrators will be renewed the next year.

Superintendent Don Sheldon said Monday that the board's action also means the athletic, community education and outdoor education programs will be continued next year.

"Unless I receive direction from the board to the contrary, all three programs will remain intact," said the superintendent. "We're proceeding with budget development under the assumption that all three programs will be operational."

Although the board voted to retract non-renewal of contract notices to all five administrators, it appears that one, and possibly two, of the five may still be in jeopardy. The two administrators who remain under fire are Beers and Duff.

After voting not to pink-slip the administrators for "economic reasons," Trustee Merlin Reed introduced a resolution calling for Beers to be terminated for alleged breach of contract.

GET READY for the Memorial Day parade. The Walled Lake City Council was expected to okay a request by Police Chief Willard Hook that the Memorial Day parade be conducted between 11 a.m. and 1 p.m. Monday, May 30, through the city. The parade will be open to school bands, civic groups, youth groups, floats and municipal groups — but no political floats will be allowed to participate. Any group interested in participating is asked to contact city hall, 624-1497.

BOOKS WANTED: Donations are needed for the annual used book sale sponsored by the Friends of the Wixom Library. Contributors are asked to leave used books in a barrel in the lobby of the Wixom Municipal Center on Pontiac Trail. All books except textbooks will be appreciated, spokesperson said. The used book sale is slated for June 3-4.

SPEAKING OF LIBRARIES, the newly-formed Friends of the Walled Lake Library will meet tonight (May 4) at the library to elect new group officers. Any Walled Lake Library patrons interested in joining the volunteer group are invited to turn out for the meeting, which starts at 7:30 p.m.

While some students were able to set off their balloons during the morning, those who planned an afternoon launch found the weather too wet to handle and conducted the balloon launch in the school gym. But, the day wasn't a total loss. Students, who enjoyed the indoor launch anyway (above), weren't about to let a little rain pop their balloons. (News photo by Steve Fecht)

Williams to replace Collom

Warren Williams has been appointed to fill the unexpired term of Commerce Township Trustee Paul Collom, who resigned last week when professional obligations in Florida kept him from returning to the township.

In a special meeting Thursday, the township board accepted Collom's resignation and then voted unanimously to appoint Williams to serve on the board until the November 1984 general election.

Williams was nominated by Trustee Richard Higginbotham. The motion was supported by Trustee Bruce Enfield and the board voted 6-0 to appoint Williams.

When asked why the township board moved to appoint a replacement for Collom the same night it accepted his resignation, Supervisor Robert Long explained the board of trustees is responsible for choosing replacements in cases of a vacancy on the board and the timing of those appointments.

"Mr. Higginbotham served with Mr. Williams previously, felt he was a good trustee and nominated him to serve again," Long said.

There were no other applicants for the position, Long said.

City-wide cleaning is Saturday

Saturday's the day for the city-wide clean-up in Walled Lake.

"Come out and bring a friend along," Mayor Gaspare LaMarca has been encouraging residents. He is seeking volunteers to help with the annual spring cleaning slated this Saturday.

Workers are asked to arrive at city hall around 9 a.m., where they will be given coffee, donuts and garbage bags before being sent out to various locations around the city. Volunteers will be asked to pick up litter, rake up dead leaves and clear away fallen tree limbs, among other things.

"All we need is some workers," LaMarca noted.

The mayor said he has received a good response from earlier requests; several area Boy Scout and Girl Scout troops are eager to participate and a number of service groups have indicated their members will be on hand to help out. He is hoping this year's clean-up will be the most successful on record.

Spring storm swamps city's DPW with work

May greeted Walled Lake and surrounding areas with a rather nasty storm that kept city DPW workers busy most of Tuesday as homeowners reported water flooding and street drains plugged.

Most of the city's trouble spots were restricted to the area around Oakridge and the corner of Leeds and East Walled Lake Drive, according to assistant DPW supervisor Ralph Smith.

Workers were called out to clean drains clogged by debris in the morning, Smith said. Later in the morning, a severe storm caused several drains to be plugged again as winds and rainwater brought the debris to the drains at such low spots as Leeds and East Walled Lake Drive.

City workers raked out the debris to allow the water access to the drains. Smith said, in a few cases, pumps were brought out to help pump away water.

Many homeowners reported flooding, but the situation there was not as bad as it was at a few streets to the south, where several Novi homes on East Walled Lake Drive had water flowing right up to their front doors.

Throughout the rest of Walled Lake, water problems were minimal, Smith said. Little trouble was reported around Springpark and the Tri A subdivision of Della, Gamma and Sigma streets.

Wixom budget unveiled

By LEANNE ROGERS

An increase in Wixom's millage is being proposed for the 1983-84 fiscal year but residents are expected to pay approximately the same amount of property taxes as in 1982-83.

The budget, to be presented at public hearings Tuesday through Thursday, May 3-5, contains a recommended general operating millage increase of .007 mills, bringing the levy to 7 mills. The city charter permits a levy of up to 8 mills for the general fund.

Despite the proposed increase, city officials are indicating taxpayers would receive a "very slight decrease" in taxes. A residential property owner whose home has a market value of $70,000 would have a .61 reduction in property taxes.

The millage increase is aimed at offsetting a reduction in the city's State Equalized Value (SEV) from $142.7 million in 1982-83 to the 1983-84 projection of $139 million.

Elimination of a six percent factor added last year to residential property assessments is listed by city officials as another key factor in the projected revenue decrease.

In her budget message, Mayor Lillian Spencer said the millage increase was proposed to "offset potential revenue losses and to maintain the city's traditional emphasis on funding necessary capital projects."

An increase also is being recommended for the sewer construction fund from 1.4733 mills to 1.65 mills to cover the annual debt service.

League insurance assists cities

By JOANNE MALISZEWSKI

As Michigan courts have whittled away at governmental immunity causing an increase in the incidence of liability, increased liability cases have been matched with increased insurance premiums as well as less coverage available to municipalities for certain types of risks, said Farmington City Manager Robert Deadman. In the mid-70s, he said, municipal insurance costs jumped 300-400 percent in a four-year period.

Those factors, Deadman said, encouraged Farmington officials to join the Risk Management Authority, which provides the city "with the most comprehensive coverage available."

"All risks we couldn't get covered before are now covered," he said, referring to coverage under the authority.

Typically, a municipality such as Farmington Hills shops around for insurance coverage through several firms.

Under the authority, the city, which pays a premium to the authority, pays the first $50,000 of risk while the authority picks up the rest.

The authority spreads its risk out among several insurance firms so "several insurance companies are taking the risk."

The premiums paid by the 22 member municipalities are used by the pool for risk management and claim adjusting services.

Unlike the Michigan Municipal League's newly-organized insurance pool, the cities in the authority each benefit according to their (risk) experience. That means authority members operate on a similar concept used by insured members who benefit according to their own experience and are not penalized for each other's bad risks.

"If our experience is better than our neighbor's, we'll pay less in the long run," Deadman explained.

"The theory, however, is the same," Deadman added, distinguishing between the two municipal insurance pools. "Cities join together to provide coverage in a pool concept."

The League's new insurance pool is based on a similar concept used by cities which share the costs of workers' compensation. Those cities and townships receive annual dividends from savings provided by sharing the costs.

Walker said the same rule will apply to the League's insurance pool. If money is left over after paying for municipal liability losses at the end of a year, each member municipality will receive a dividend, he reported.

Wixom studies parking order

Three Wixom subdivisions could receive new parking restrictions at the request of the Wixom postmaster.

Police Chief Philip Leonard submitted to the Wixom City Council last week a proposed traffic control order to post no parking signs in the Hidden Creek, Highgate on the Lake and Courts of Highgate subdivisions.

Parking would be prohibited on one side of the road to permit easier mail delivery. According to Leonard, Postmaster Elwood Grubb submitted the request.

Council Member Nancy Dingley asked if the parking restrictions couldn't be limited to specific hours. Otherwise, she said, residents could have problems in providing parking for guests.

If parking were limited from 7 a.m. until 7 p.m., Leonard said there would probably not be a problem. "I could come back to the council after I do some research," he added. "I would like to measure the roads and see if we can get the trucks through if cars are parked on both sides of the road."

The council voted to postpone action until their next meeting when Leonard will make a report.

Once a child was told that the sun was 92,000,000 miles from his house. He then asked, "Is it that far from the roof or the basement?" Little child! His house seems so tall to him, yet when compared to the expanse of space it is insignificant.

When we compare our lives with the eternity of God, we are "small pebbles on a very big beach!"

God's Word tells us that "God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace to the humble" (1 Peter 5:5). This means that God is in opposition to the proud individual. What is the "grace" that He gives to the humble? It is spiritual! There is no such thing as a spiritual, proud person. God loves and honors of God have walked before God conscious of their own unworthiness and His great blessings.

Walled Lake board okays 4-day week

A four-day work week for Walled Lake School District employees has been approved by the Walled Lake school board.

The board voted 5-2 to approve a recommendation from Superintendent Don Sheldon to compress the regular 40-hour week into four days for a six-week period from July 11 through August 18.

Employees will continue to work 40-hour weeks, but the 40 hours will be compressed into four days, enabling school personnel to have three-day weekends during the summer.

Four-day work weeks have been utilized during the summer by the Novi School District for several years.

In recommending the four-day week, Sheldon noted that it had been tried successfully in central offices last summer.

"There was some dollar savings and the amount of work increased slightly," reported the superintendent. "We estimate that we saved roughly $1,000 last summer, and under our present economic conditions we need to save every dollar we can."

Sheldon estimated that putting Walled Lake Western on a four-day week during the summer would save approximately $2,500. The savings accrues due to decreased lighting and cooling costs.

The proposal was opposed by Trustee Janet Callahan who said it was not right for schools to be on a four-day week during the summer when the rest of the community is on a five-day week.

"This won't benefit anyone but the employees," she said.

Trustee Merlin Reeds joined Callahan in casting dissenting ballots in the 5-2 vote to approve the four-day summer work week.

Williams appointed

Besides the acceptance of Colton's resignation there were three other items on Thursday's agenda.

Williams is no stranger in Commerce Township, previously having served four years on the township board, nine years on the township zoning board of appeals and five years as a member on the Walled Lake school board.

The new appointee said he got in line for the position by "making it known to the township that I would be willing to serve in that capacity."

Warren said he is pleased with the appointment and the confidence the board has shown in his experience and background by placing him on the board.

"It will be nice to be a part of a group of people that do a good job and get along so well," Williams said.

He also indicated that he does not have any specific goals as a trustee at this time, saying he wants to "wait until I find out more about what's going on."

Williams, a Republican, has been appointed to fill out the unexpired term of Paul Colton.

Wixom police join high-speed chase

In Wixom

Wixom police joined Milford police in chasing a driver fleeing arrest last week. Wixom police joined the April 30 early morning car chase near Stratford Villa, when the motorist was reported to be speeding down North Wixom Road, police said.

Officer Bruce Kirby attempted to block the motorist from passing, but moved his car when he saw the motorist was apparently not going to stop. The motorist rounded the curve near Glangary and continued south on North Wixom with Kirby and Milford police in pursuit.

Although Kirby attempted to pull in front of the driver, he was unable to pass him because the motorist accelerated and the pair drove down North Wixom at speeds over 100 miles per hour, police reports indicated.

Near the intersection of Pontiac Trail, officers and the motorist slowed down, but the motorist lost control of his car when he struck curbing at the corner, police said. The driver's car hit a ditch and stopped. The occupants, the driver and his wife, were not hurt during the accident.

Milford police arrested the man for resisting arrest, fleeing and eluding and operating under the influence of liquor, officers said.

Two destroyed, stolen vehicles were recovered in a field south of Potter Road and west of Beck Road, according to Wixom police.

Officers found a 1979 Chevrolet Corvete with the frame cut in three pieces, while a 1980 Ford pickup truck had been cut in six pieces. The truck apparently had been stolen from a Milford resident, but police were unable to determine immediately where the Corvete had been stolen.

Meanwhile, a 1979 Chevrolet Monza was stolen from in front of Lamella near Loon Lake Road last week, police said.

Four hubcaps were stolen from a car parked at the Ford Motor Company lot on Potter Road near Flamingo between April 26-27 and stole two valve covers, an air cleaner and a carburetor, Wixom police said. Total value of the stolen goods was pegged at $255.

Two speakers worth over $100 were apparently stolen from a 1978 Jeep parked in the parking lot of the Village Apartments, Wixom police said.

Thieves apparently broke into a garage on Potter Road near Flamingo between April 26-27 and stole two valve covers, an air cleaner and a carburetor, Wixom police said. Total value of the stolen goods was pegged at $255.

A 21-year-old Franklin Village man was arrested on two felony counts in connection with the alleged fraudulent use of a credit card identification number to purchase airline tickets.

An AM-FM stereo cassette deck worth $150 was stolen from a 1979 Triumph parked in the 4000 block of North Hills. The owner reported the convertible top was unsnapped, allowing the thief to unlock the passenger door and take the cassette deck.

Northville votes to join regional ambulance pact

By KEVIN WILSON

The City of Northville will join with the Novi, Northville Township and Farmington to contract with Community Emergency Medical Service (CEMS), a subsidiary of Botsford Hospital, in a regional ambulance plan.

Northville City Council voted 4-1 Monday to award the contract to CEMS over Novi Ambulance. The latter firm has supplied emergency medical service here for 11 years.

The action was in line with the recommendation of an ad hoc committee (including representatives of all four communities) report that studied bids. Novi Ambulance was the only other bidder.

Novi Ambulance owner John T. Early, charging that CEMS had undue influence on the committee report and that "the fix was in," said Tuesday morning he was preparing a "multi-million dollar suit against Botsford, CEMS and the Farmington Forum (a newspaper)."

CEMS officials said they are "ready to go" with regional service whenever the communities wish. Northville was the last of the four governments to approve the plan. Northville Township Manager David Leiko said he expects a meeting of officials from the four governments to draft a contract with CEMS within two weeks.

Northville council members said their decision to opt for the regional system over continuation with Novi Ambulance, whose bid offered lower ambulance charges, was predicated on two weeks study of the issue.

"I'm satisfied there were some legitimate reasons the low bid was not the only consideration in the committee recommendation," Northville Mayor Paul Vernon said. "There is, I think, sufficient justification for some concern about Mr. Early's operation."

Information presented before council included several letters of complaint about Novi Ambulance. Northville Councilmember Paul Polino's outline of Early's contract with Northville Regional Hospital, and reports from council members Carolann Ayers and Northville City Manager Steve Walters regarding other aspects of the operation.

Early and his attorney Allen C. Ingle presented information showing that, although they do not have a mutual aid agreement with CEMS, Novi Ambulance was called to several Farmington locations in the past week "to cover for CEMS," which changed ambulance companies two weeks ago. They claimed this showed inadequacy of CEMS's ability to serve the region.

CEMS representative Ed Barter, associate administrator at Botsford, said the frequent calls to Novi Ambulance for backup or provision of advanced life support were by arrangement with the city of Farmington as an interim measure.

"If we had the regional concept in place already, we could have backed ourselves up with Northville or Novi units," Barter said. "This is really a confirmation of the regional concept."

"As it stands now, we have an agreement with Farmington that CEMS sends a basic unit and if an ALS unit is needed the city calls Novi Ambulance. In every case (called by Ingle) our unit was on the scene first and was the primary responder."

Ayers reported that she had discussed Novi Ambulance with administrators of Providence Hospital's Novi Center and found that while "there were no complaints about the medical care provided by the paramedics, they did have problems with the administration of the company."

Early said Tuesday that Providence Hospital had "been trying to buy me out for a year and one-half now and I won't sell; so yes, they have a problem with me."

Walters said a township survey of the ambulance quarters which city and township jointly provide in vacated Wayne County Child Development Center buildings showed Novi Ambulance had not located a vehicle there in accordance with the present contract.

But Leiko said Tuesday the township "has not monitored it (use of the facility) in more than a year. We did monitor for a few days once a year and a half ago, but activity picked up and there didn't seem to be a problem since then."

Early said there may be no vehicle in quarters for long periods on days when there are frequent calls, particularly at the state hospital. "All their runs go to Ann Arbor and if we have five or six in a day, the car's on the road all day. We've followed the contract and backed it up with the Novi unit when the Northville one is on the road."

Polino said his discussion with Northville State Hospital administrators revealed that Novi Ambulance's contract with the institution expires September 30, and that the hospital will bid out the service at that time.

Last year, Polino said, the hospital paid Early $123,000 for an average of two to three ambulance runs per day.

The combination of the low rates included in the Novi Ambulance bid and the possibility that the hospital contract may be let to another bidder this fall led to council speculation that Novi Ambulance might not survive as a business by the end of the year.

City hall renovation is underway

Both those items had to be specially ordered and could take about a month to receive, Ferguson said. He ordered the items the day after receiving the contract. While the screen can be installed near the end of the work, the vault door is one of the first steps to building a vault, he added.

When work is completed, the administration offices will house most of Walled Lake's department heads. Office space will be provided for the city manager, clerk/treasurer, bookkeeper, deputy clerks, DPW supervisors, building inspector, assessor, as well as space for consultants such as the city attorney, plan consultant and engineering consultant.

A conference room, lunch room and restrooms will also be included in the administrative offices.

Once the administrative staff moves to its new home, the police department is expanded to spread out into the rest of the building as it awaits improvements to its end of the building. The police department expects to have three state-approved holding cells installed, a camera system that would monitor prisoners and a greatly expanded duty room, among other improvements. The plans are currently nearing completion. They were developed by city officials and architect Larry Gaylon, who drew up plans for the library and city offices.

Not to be left out, the Walled Lake Fire Association is continuing work on two portable units purchased by the city for a bunk room and fire chief's office. Those portable are adjacent to the council chambers.

Parkwood was one of two firms to bid on the city hall renovation work. Gaspard LaMarca and council member Ed Horsman and Dorothy Dingman.

Voting in favor of Parkwood were Mayor Pro Tem Walter Lewandowski and council members Linda Ackley, James Clifton and William Roberts. Opposing the bid were Mayor Gaspard LaMarca and council member Ed Horsman and Dorothy Dingman.

Walled Lake Junior High School students are no slouches as far as science is concerned. The local junior high students acquitted themselves nicely at the Michigan Science Olympiad recently, finishing fifth out of 17 teams in the competition at the Lawrence Institute of Technology.

By the time the competition had ended, Walled Lake students had captured a total of nine medals. The Science Bowl team comprised of Kathy Brady, Melissa Champion, Tom Burns and Colleen Jacobson took second place honors, while the Obstacle Course team comprised of Colleen Jacobson, Sheri Hunter, John Thomas and Jim Monroe finished third.

In addition, Jim Monroe received a medal for his third place finish in the "Facts in Five" contest. Also contributing to the Walled Lake Junior High score with fine individual efforts were Sue Mills in Fermi Questions, Meric Estimation and Rocks; Tom Martin in Airplane Contest and Password; Wendy Cross in Fermi Questions and Password; and Garth Skogvarg in Name That Organism.

The Walled Lake Junior High team was coached by Ray Weston.

A group of Novi Christian junior high and high school students will "take to the roadsides" this Saturday from noon to 3 p.m.

The students will be gathering trash to raise funds for a trip to North Texas State University and to beautify the streets of Novi. Last year the students gathered several dump truck loads of bottles, cans, papers, mufflers, etc.

Pastor Richard Burgess explained that the students have solicited sponsors to help support their trip to the Accelerated Christian Education (ACE) International Convention.

Novi Christian's varsity basketball team won the state ACE championship and will represent Michigan along with all first and second place winners in competition in fine arts and crafts, including music, drama, photography and several other areas.

Novi Christian students achieved many honors in international ACE competition last year.

Anyone wishing to donate to the project may contact Pastor Burgess or Darrell Pope at 349-3477.

Every working person with earned income from performing personal services is now eligible for an Individual Retirement Account. Contributions to this account are TAX DEDUCTIBLE each year and earnings are also TAX DEFERRED until retirement (age 59½). A working person may contribute up to a maximum of $2,000.00 per year. A husband and wife who are both working may EACH contribute up to a maximum amount of $2,000.00 (total $4,000.00). A working person with a non-working spouse may contribute up to $2,250.00 per year.

YOU ACTUALLY SAVE MONEY TWO WAYS:

1) TAX DEDUCTION

For example, even though an actual cash contribution has been made in the amount of $2,000.00, it would cost the taxpayer in the 40% tax bracket only $1,200.00 in actual dollars because of the $800.00 tax savings incurred.

2) TAX DEFERRAL

Interest earnings on your annual $2,000.00 contribution are also tax deferred until retirement when tax brackets are usually lower. Federal regulations require a substantial interest penalty for early withdrawal from certificate accounts, and withdrawals from your IRA prior to age 59½ may result in tax penalties. When you withdraw the money in your IRA Account at retirement after age 59½, your withdrawals will be taxed as ordinary income at a time when your tax rate is likely to be lower.

IRA Accounts are insured separately to $100,000.00 by the FSIC.

CITY OF WIXOM NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING ON INCREASING PROPERTY TAXES

The City Council of the City of Wixom will hold a public hearing at 8:00 p.m. on Tuesday, May 10, 1983 in the city council chambers at the Wixom Municipal Center, 49045 Pontiac Trail, to receive testimony and discuss a proposed additional 1983 city operating millage rate.

The city has reduced its operating tax rate over the past three years to 6.693 mills (6.70 per $1,000 SEV). Because of a new state law (Act 5 of 1983), the City's base tax rate is projected to be 6.837 mills for 1983. However, the City has complete authority to establish the number of mills to be levied from within its authorized millage rate.

In order to maintain basic city services, the city proposes to levy an additional millage rate of 0.1630 mills (16 cents per $1,000 SEV) above the 6.837 mill base tax rate, or a total operating rate of 7.00 mills (7.00 per $1,000 SEV). This will provide an estimated 2.38% increase in city operating revenues. Public comment on this proposed increase is welcome at the public hearing.

If the millage increase is authorized by the city council, revenues for the upcoming fiscal year are projected at $1.75 million with expenses set at $2.19 million.

To offset a potential budget deficit, the administration is recommending a reduction of the fund balance from $1.2 million to less than $600,000. City officials have been attempting to reduce the fund balance since the 1981-82 fiscal year.

The proposed budget for the general fund has a 33 percent allocation for public safety, 12 percent for public works, 31 percent for general government, one percent for boards and commissions and 20 percent for interfund transfers.

The budget would continue the city policy of replacing three police vehicles annually with the aim of gaining higher trade-ins and lower maintenance costs. The only major road resurfacing project proposed in the budget is $20,000 for Loon Lake Road. An allocation of $75,000 is being made for residential street paving improvements as needed.

An allocation of $66,750 is included in the budget to fund the construction of an access and facility road to the city's 22-acre park at West Maple and Beek roads.

Under the state's truth in taxation law, the city must hold a public hearing to maintain operating millage after an increase in the SEV or to increase the millage. The hearing has been set for Tuesday, May 10. The council must adopt its budget by its second meeting in May.

Novi pares budget

Major expenditures include $2.1 million for the police department (47 percent of the budget), $445,610 for general administration (10 percent) and $317,070 for the fire department (seven percent).

To generate the necessary property tax revenues to meet expenditures the city has proposed a levy of 10.89 mills. That represents an increase of slightly more than two mills over last year's millage levy. Of that increase 1.5 mills levied for drains were approved by voters last fall.

There will be an increase in operating millage, largely because property values have decreased, causing a corresponding decrease in the tax base.

The property tax increase caused by the millage hike anticipated for a resident with a $70,000 home with an assessed value of $85,000 is $73.13. However, those increases will be somewhat offset by the fact property values have decreased.

Originally, some council members indicated they did not want to raise the millage at all, saying residents could not afford higher taxes with the current economy.

But through budget deliberations it became apparent some increases would be necessary in order to balance the budget.

terests of this school district rather than his own for-profit interest.

Additionally, the resolution noted that Beers also is required by contract to fairly and accurately submit reports for purposes of expense reimbursement when engaged in the affairs of the school district, and to otherwise not use the school district's assets and subordinate personnel for personal, proprietary endeavors.

Beers has stated publicly that he does not accept the reprimand and unilaterally "unfair," but he declined to reveal details associated with the allegations.

Trustee Janet Callahan attempted to add Duff to the resolution, stating that a person "who aids and abets another person must also be held accountable." When her efforts to add Duff to the resolution were not supported, she said she thought the rest of the board was "disgusting" and withdrew her support of the resolution introduced by Beers.

The board ultimately decided to take no action on Beers' resolution to terminate Beers' contract until such time as the alleged incident has been fully investigated.

Trustee Betty Campion said it appeared the board has already tried and convicted the individual involved in the matter as the matter has been fully investigated.

Western band rated superior

At Johnston is flying high these days, and why not?

The Walled Lake Western band director is on cloud nine after the Western band received straight "A's" (superior) ratings at the State Band and Orchestra Festival recently.

"That's the first time we've ever received straight A's," said Johnston. "All four judges gave us superior ratings."

The emergence of the Walled Lake Western band as a top-flight musical group coincides directly with Johnston's arrival three years ago.

In fact, Western had never even participated in state competitions until Johnston arrived.

"My first year, we participated in the district festival but we didn't qualify for the state festival," said Johnston. "We made it to the state festival last year and picked up some 1's, but we didn't get straight A's."

"So when we got straight 1's this year, it was really a thrill. It's a tribute to the dedication and talents of our band members as well as the support they get from their parents."

At the state festivals, each band is required to play one composition from a required list and one free selection. In addition, bands must play two selections — a march and a concert number — they've never seen before in the site-reading room.

Got any ideas to name parks

What's in a name? Plenty when you really don't have one. That is the dilemma facing four of Commerce Township's parks.

Parks and recreation committee member and township trustee Bruce Enfield said the group would like to have the parks named by June 1.

Currently the parks are referred to by geographic locations such as Glengary West Park. The parks are part of the 280 acres purchased by the township from the Huron Clinton Metropolitan Authority.

Suggestions are being sought for names, Enfield said, but the emphasis was away from naming the parks for individuals. Possible names can be submitted to township.

The township had agreed with a recommendation from Supervisor Robert Long and the parks committee that additional planning was needed for park development.

A conceptual plan for park development had been prepared through Oakland County's planning division.

"We never did actually finalize plans and things are going in at little bits and pieces," Long said. "I would recommend allocating $2,000 in community development funds to have an architect or engineers finalize plans for the development."

Additionally, the board authorized a pre-application for matching grants through the Department of Natural Resources land and water conservation fund.

Among the local recreation groups pledging local matching funds for park development were the Lakes Area Soccer League.

NOVI-WALLED LAKE NEWS

As We See It

Bickering deters Novi city council

It is time for the Novi City Council members to work out their personal differences and get on with the business at hand.

The council's performance is being marred by lingering acrimony generated by the housing compatibility issue and ordinances drafted to deal with that concern.

An example is the recent discussion of whether the city has a responsibility to subsidize a certain portion of fees charged for site plan review under provisions of the housing compatibility ordinances. Council members split over the issue of whether the review goes beyond consumer protection provided in other reviews, such as electrical or plumbing plans. They also could not agree on whether the housing compatibility ordinances benefit the community as a whole more than they benefit the individual homeowner.

The problem is not that council members were split over the question. The problem is the tone of the debate.

Some members of the council now appear to take differences of opinion personally, attacking other council members for disagreement and forcing them into defensive positions. This attitude is disrupting the process, at times to nearly the breaking point.

Questions now being raised show there may be problems associated with implementation of the housing compatibility ordinances. Discussion will be necessary to reach solutions to those problems. It is unfair to attack city administrators for bringing those problems to the council's attention. And council members should be able to debate solutions without the recriminations that occurred over the proposal of the city-at-large pay a portion of the site plan review costs associated with the housing compatibility ordinances.

It also appears differences which developed during the often heated debates over the adoption of ordinances dealing with housing compatibility and house sizes have carried over into other council decisions. Political skirmishes marred budget deliberations this year.

If this immature behavior continues little is gained and a great deal is lost, in terms of the council's image.

We are not suggesting agreement for agreement's sake. Councils and boards need to discuss issues. To do so there must be an environment where participants can freely express their opinions and feel they can do so without fear of recrimination.

Members of the council should recognize two people, or sides, can disagree without either of them being wrong. For the process to function, differing opinions must be respected, not belittled.

The Novi City Council has been able to operate in years past with an attitude of mutual respect in spite of differences of opinion. It should strive to do so once again.

No input allowed

The Commerce Township Board of Trustees has effectively shut residents out of the appointment process in acting too quickly to appoint a replacement for Trustee Paul Collom.

Collom has been in Englewood, Florida, for several months developing a residential subdivision. Although he maintains a legal residence in the township at his mother's home, Collom currently does not have a home in Commerce. He intended to return to the township, but his work kept him from doing so. Collom subsequently resigned from the board last week.

Although Township Supervisor Robert Long indicated it could be the board's May 10 regular meeting before Collom's replacement was chosen, his resignation was accepted by the board and a replacement named at a special meeting last Thursday.

News of Collom's pending resignation became public only the day before his replacement was appointed. Therefore, it is doubtful many residents knew of the board's intentions to make an appointment to replace Collom, even though the public meeting was posted as required by law.

Long explained appointments are made at the discretion of the board and, since a recommendation to fill the position was put forth the same evening the resignation was accepted, the appointment was made. And since Collom's seat has in effect been vacant for four months — he has attended one special board meeting and none of the regularly scheduled meetings since December — it is understandable the board would move quickly to find a replacement.

That does not change the fact township residents were not given the opportunity to indicate their willingness to serve on the township board and had no input into the appointment, an appointment which runs for 18 months until the November 1984 election.

This is not to be construed as criticism of Warren Williams, the individual selected to fill the vacancy. He has long been active in the township, serving on the zoning board of appeals, school board member and, formerly, on the township board.

But Commerce residents are entitled to input into this decision and every effort should have been made to inform them the selection was planned. That did not happen in this situation.

The manner in which the board made the appointment underscores the need for development of a policy for replacement of trustees and elected officials.

Once a board member has resigned, state law requires the board to appoint a replacement to serve until the next general election. If the township board does not make an appointment within 90 days of the trustee's resignation, the governor fills the vacancy. There is no state requirement detailing the process boards should use in making such appointments.

Commerce should consider a policy such as those used in neighboring townships where replacements are appointed after the board has accepted resumes and interviewed candidates.

To operate without such a policy opens the board to criticism that it is making appointments based on politics and cronyism.

Adoption of an established policy can avoid future questions regarding the appointment of board members.

Covering the waterfront

By LeANNE ROGERS

Spring time evokes many images for me. The strongest is tooling around town in my prize possession — my Tahiti blue MG. I said tooling because you don't really just drive a convertible. You can drive a Gremlin or a Maverick, as I have been known to do. An MG is something much more exotic.

Sunroofs are nice. They are also convenient compared to convertibles but I'll take a rag top any day. Nothing can compare with the rush of open air you get from the convertible. Expect maybe a motorcycle. I found it hard not to take offense when a friend described my car as a motorcycle with windshield wipers.

Everyone should experience a convertible at least once. I would highly recommend Richardson Road between Newton Road and Union Lake Road. The trees arching over the road create wonderful patterns. It's like driving up road to Manderley in "Rebecca."

The media, especially movies, have created some false images about speeding along country roads. In the movies nobody's hair gets blown around or just enough for that sexy windblown look. Let's be real folks. Without wearing a hat, hair longer than a crewcut ends up looking like Phyllis Diller.

Also movies lead you to believe you have to wear Foster Grants and a long scarf when you drive a convertible. Sunglasses I admit to, the scarf I usually avoid (remember Isadora Duncan and the Bugatti, I say).

Spring really brings out my frustrations now because I haven't been able to drive my car for some time. My long tale of woe concerning my MG begins about two years ago.

As I would drive down the road, the engine would slowly stop running until it stalled out. I frantically sought help for my car. Each mechanic had a different diagnosis, a different solution. Unfortunately, none met with success. I ended up broke and the car kept dying.

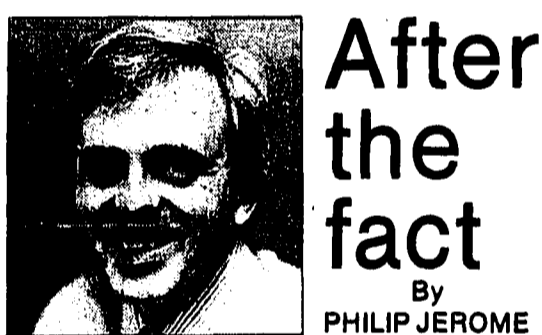

Enter Patrick. My friend Patrick is a true mechanical genius. He builds sophisticated movie cameras from a piece of sheet metal. He makes motorcycles from a collection of parts. Patrick said no problem, he could find out what the problem was and correct it forever. No one has accused Patrick of being modest.

Bob and Carol and John and Joyce and Bill and Beverly and Ed and Yvonne had better look out. This is going to be my year.

Bob and Carol and John and Joyce, et al. just happen to be my neighbors. They're good people, too. Couldn't ask for a nicer neighborhood.

But they'd still better look out. It's still going to be my year.

What I'm talking about is my lawn. We're the newcomers in my neighborhood; only been there eight years. But it wasn't long after we moved in that I noticed their lawns looked a lot nicer than mine. Less crab grass... fewer dandelions... just an overall greener quality to their grass.

Well, it's been a long process, but I figure my time has finally arrived. Lorde knows it hasn't been easy. Frustrated with the weeds, I started hiring a lawn spraying outfit three years ago and it has worked wonders. No more crab grass, no more thistles and no more dandelions in my yard.

Nobody admits it, but I've got a hunch we all keep an eye on each other's yards. I believe this to be true because a couple of years ago I noticed my grass was always longer than everyone else's. Then I figured out why: They'd always wait till I got down mowing before they started mowing. If I mowed Thursday morning, they'd mow Thursday afternoon. If I'd mow Saturday night, they'd mow Sunday morning. Very ingenious.

And there are other touches, too. Bill and Beverly's split-rail fence, John and Joyce's Russian olive trees, Bob and Carol's little sculptured gardens, and Ed and Yvonne's professional cross-cut mowing techniques. Oh, yes, I've seen them all. But they don't count.

What we're talking about here is the lawn. And this year my lawn is going to be Numero Uno. The crab grass is gone. I have a new lawn tractor with specially-made Gillette blades and my new grasscatcher is the envy of the neighborhood — even though they won't admit it.

Already my grass is looking greener than everyone else's. And wait till the Forsythia and flowering crab start blooming. It's definitely going to be my year. Now if I only had some Russian olives and a split-rail fence...

Township collects summer tax bills

Summer property taxes will be collected from Commerce Township residents who live in the Huron Valley School District, but the addition of a collection fee is still unresolved.

The township board last week adopted a resolution agreeing to the summer tax collection on 1,225 parcels in 1983. The resolution indicates that the reimbursement offer of $2,447 will not cover the collection costs to the township.

"If we can't agree on a fair amount we would have to levy a fraction of a percent of the collection fee," said Supervisor Robert Long. "One of the problems in Commerce is using the price per parcel reimbursement amount," he said. "Huron Valley School is such a small portion of the township that the labor cost is high."

Commerce has never levied the legally authorized one percent collection fee. Long said. "We don't want to levy one percent. That would be an additional fee to the residents," he added. "White Lake Township has levied the collection fee for years and Huron Valley Schools is also paying them a lump sum for collection."

The Walled Lake Board of Education decided against having summer taxes collected. About 90 percent of Commerce is within the Walled Lake School District.

School districts have advocated summer tax collections to avoid borrowing funds in anticipation of tax revenues, which are not received until mid-way through the school year.

A new state law allows collection of summer school taxes at the request of the school districts. The district is required to reimburse the local government unit for collection costs.

If the local unit refuses to collect the taxes, the school district would be permitted to have the county collect the taxes or to do it themselves.

Long said he would be meeting with Huron Valley Superintendent Clifford Scherer and hoped an agreement could be reached on the reimbursement.

Novi okays sewer

will have on the cost of sewer taps in Novi.

If the city sells 500 taps annually the taps would cost in the neighborhood of $1,200 each. But if the city sells only 200 taps the cost would be driven up to an estimated $4,000 each.

Council members expressed concern that if tap fees cost $4,000 they would be so expensive that building activity would be discouraged and the demand for service would drop off. The city would then have to find an alternative way to pay its obligation in the sewer system.

"Let's be honest about what we are committing to," said Council Member James Shaw. "To pay for this may take rapid growth, or an ad valorem method, or maybe a combination of the two for 20 years... Our choice is no growth... That's a strong or likely potential. Anything else is unrealistic." Regarding the potential of a millage to cover the cost of sewer payments in the future, Kriewall said after the meeting there is "an outside chance it could happen."

"We structure connection fees to cover payments and still not make them too high to discourage building activity," Kriewall explained. "A total standstill in building, such as what we have just gone through, would cause some kind of millage. But we also plan financing to provide for bad years."

However, Kriewall explained that the council really had no choice but to provide for future growth through connection to Super Sewer.

"It is the expectation of the community to grow," Kriewall said. "Certain financing mechanisms have been planned, schools have been constructed, fees have been set based on the assumption the city will grow."

"When Novi made the initial connection to the Detroit sewer system in 1962 the community was committed to this plan... Some decisions were made long before this council considered it," Kriewall continued.

Students score big

Walled Lake Western students claimed more than their share of honors at the state convention of the Distributive Education Clubs of America (DECA) at the Hyatt Regency recently.

Thirty-six students from Michigan qualified for the national DECA conference to be held in New Orleans in June. And two of the national qualifiers — Eric Nimmo and Chris Burch — came from Walled Lake Western.

Nimmo placed first overall in the area of Petroleum Marketing/master employee level. He also is eligible to receive a $1,000 scholarship to attend Northwood Institute in Midland.

Burch placed third overall in the area of Food Marketing/supervisory level. Mike Camara, another Western student, was a semi-finalist in the area of Food Marketing/master employee level.

Approximately 1,300 DECA students from across the state attended the conference with 900 students competing in related events. The competition included such areas as advertising services, food marketing, restaurant marketing, petroleum marketing, general merchandising, finance and credit, and apparel and accessories.

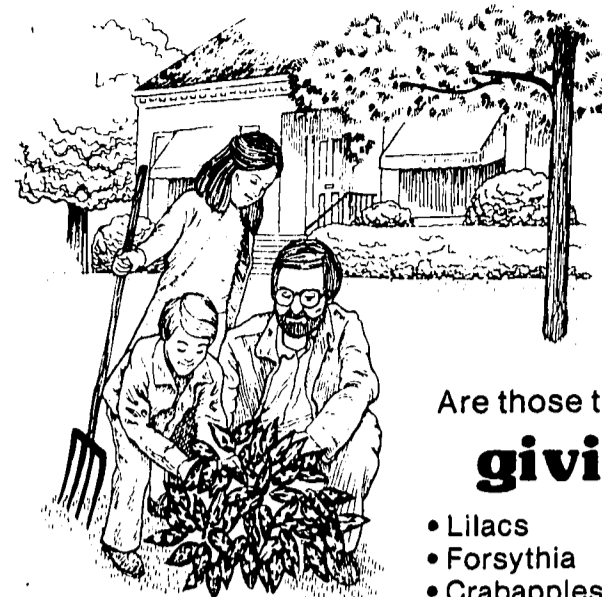

Jim Bottke, distributive education coordinator at Western, said he was proud that two of the 36 national qualifiers from Michigan hall from Walled Lake Western.

"It speaks well of our program and our students," he said. "The value of DECA is that it gives high school students an opportunity to test their competencies in retailing and the free enterprise system with students from other schools."

Bottke also said he is seeking donations from businesses and service clubs to enable Nimmo and Burch to compete at the national convention. Two fund-raisers have been scheduled, but Bottke doubts enough money can be raised to cover the expenses of both students attending the convention has been pegged at $504.

Bottke asked that anyone willing to make a contribution call him at Walled Lake Western High School, 624-5020, extension 42.

Automobile Specialty Company production line will turn out 10,000 cars this year

Gilding the Lincolns

By LEANNE ROGERS

A dream car — long body, plush seats, a cloth half-roof and electronically-operated moonroof.

If you are driving a Ford Lincoln Continental or Mark VI, chances are those last two options were installed by the Automobile Specialty Company, located on Beck Road in Wixom.

The facility was opened in 1974, according to the company's president and general manager Karl Knoth. "We move about 10,000 cars through this facility in a year," he said. "We located in Wixom to be close to the Ford Assembly plant. We should be as close as possible to the company we are doing work for to save transportation costs."

Automobile Specialty is a division of ASC, Inc., which was formed in 1965 in California. The company expanded to Michigan in 1968 and has a number of facilities across the country.

"This is a multi-division company. We work in sunroofs, customizing and auto parts manufacturing," said Knoth, a Nor-

"We are looking at different products. We don't want to be considered (only) a luxury car business."

Karl Knoth

thville resident. "We were one of the first customizers in the country. We were certainly the first to bring electric sunroofs in this country."

Other divisions of the company build convertibles for General Motors, limousines for Chrysler and various roof treatments for cars.

In Wixom, the company works specializing Ford's line of large luxury cars. Carriage roofs, simulated convertible roofs and electronically operated moonroofs are the primary additions made to the cars.

The majority of the firm's business comes from orders through the Ford Assembly plant rather than direct orders from customers or dealers, said acting plant manager Don Teets.

The special order cars are sent to the Automobile Specialty plant and work can be completed within four to six hours of the vehicle reaching the production line, according to Knoth. There is not a long waiting period for the specialty work, he added, since the cars are returned to the factory within one week.

"We use a woven fiber on the roofs, not vinyl. It was originally used by Mercedes Benz and we brought it over," he said. "It's actually woven and treated to be water repellent."

A smoother, more sophisticated look is added to the car with the half-fiber or simulated convertible roofs, Teets said, but there is also a practical benefit.

The tops are manufactured at the factory including a heating process to remove wrinkles and stretch the covering.

Guardian first quarter earnings up

Guardian Industries Corporation (NYSE) of Novi reported record results in the first quarter ended March 31, 1983. It marked the 31st consecutive quarter in which revenues and earnings were achieved by the company over the comparable year-earlier period.

Revenues were $166.1 million in the first quarter of 1983, 25 percent higher than the previous year.

Earnings rose 36 percent from $6.3 million in the first quarter of 1982 to $8.3 million in the first quarter of 1983. Pre-tax profits were up 35 percent compared with the year-earlier period.

The operating results of all the company's main business areas improved during the first quarter, offsetting a decline in the automotive engineering fee income recognized between the two periods.

Performance of the company's glass operations was especially favorable, particularly considering overall market conditions.

The most significant factor affecting first quarter results was higher revenues and profits above the comparable year-earlier period. The improving performance trend of this division reflects the benefits of an on-going profit improvement program which is now in its second phase, focusing mainly on more comprehensive marketing efforts and cost containment.

Guardian's insulation division also continued to operate profitably in the first quarter.

Commenting on the first quarter performance, William Davidson, president and chief executive officer, said "the record-breaking results achieved by Guardian during the first quarter is a confirmation of our optimism concerning the company's ability to perpetuate in 1983 its long-standing record of uninterrupted growth."

The key positive factors, according to Davidson, "are an improving economic situation in our major markets and new productive capacity added in recent periods which provides stronger service capabilities."

Commenting on the first quarter performance, William Davidson, president and chief executive officer, said "the record-breaking results achieved by Guardian during the first quarter is a confirmation of our optimism concerning the company's ability to perpetuate in 1983 its long-standing record of uninterrupted growth."

The key positive factors, according to Davidson, "are an improving economic situation in our major markets and new productive capacity added in recent periods which provides stronger service capabilities."

Bill would make state prefer Michigan firms

A bill giving Michigan businesses special attention when the state makes purchases was introduced in the state senate recently by Senator Richard Fessler (R-West Bloomfield).

The bill specifies that a state department, office or agency must give preference to a Michigan business when awarding or entering into contracts.

"We need to do everything possible to give Michigan companies a break," Fessler said. "Every step toward turning the economy around in this state should be taken."

He added that the bill does not attempt to limit state purchasing power or impose restrictions on the state's business practices. "I am simply stipulating that, all things being relatively equal, in-state companies should get our business."

Fessler added that he considers it "unconscionable" that the state of Michigan would even consider awarding sales and service contracts to out-of-state businesses when Michigan competitors are equally able to provide the product or service at competitive rates.

The bill would not affect contracts in progress before it is passed.

Vacation-bound motorists taking advantage of lower gasoline prices this summer can increase their savings by keeping tire inflation at the proper level, according to the Tire Industry Safety Council.

"By checking and adjusting the air pressure in your tires on a monthly basis and before a long road trip, you can make your driving safer and place less strain on your gasoline budget," said Council Chairman Donald Brozman.

Brozman noted that tires inflated to the vehicle manufacturer's recommendations can improve fuel economy by up to three percent compared to tires whose pressure has been allowed to drop to low levels.

Brozman pointed out that correct tire inflation also allows you to obtain the optimum amount of wear from your tires.

He noted that driving on bald or worn-out tires is not only hazardous but against the law in many states.

"Tires with less than one-sixteenth tread showing are dangerous and should be replaced," he said. When you've reached that danger point, wear bars will begin to show as narrow bands of smooth rubber across the tread at intervals around the tire.

When you check the air pressure make sure the tires are "cold" or have been driven less than a mile. Pressures typically rise three or four pounds per square inch when the tire is "hot."

Brozman listed the following tips for summer driving:

- Look out for "summer ice." Sudden showers mix with oil on the road causing a light film and can result in skidding.
- Don't overload. Too much weight can severely damage tires as well as damage springs and shock absorbers. The load a tire will safely carry depends on its size, load range and inflation pressure.
- Check tire inflation pressure with your own hand gauge. Many service station towers and some hand gauges are inaccurate due to exposure and abuse. Refer to the tire information sticker attached to the vehicle.

Examine computer costs before purchase, say CPAs

(PREPARED BY THE MICHIGAN ASSOCIATION OF CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS)

These personal computers that fit on a desk top are part of an electronics revolution sweeping into the 1980s much as television swept into the 1950s. Other parts of the electronic revolution are video game units, cable television systems, videotape recorders, and special cable or computer information services.

All told, new electronic technology is changing the way people work, communicate and spend their leisure time and money, notes the Michigan Association of CPAs. Before long, there may be a computer in every home and people will be able to shop, bank and find entertainment without ever leaving the house.

However, the cost of maintaining these electronic and communications systems in your home likely will be greater than what you now spend on heat and utilities. So now is a good time to start planning your finances to take advantage of the new developments, the CPA association says.

Before buying a basic computer — the "hardware" that performs the work — consider the cost of "software," the instructions that allow certain work to be done.

What is spent on software programs, ranging from $10 to $500, depends on what you want to do — from playing Pac-Man to charting an annual budget to regulating a home lighting, heating and security system.

There will be additional costs for add-on components to perform certain tasks. A software or disc drive, costing around $600, feeds programs into the computer. If a computer is used as a word processor, the printer to type out the text costs $400 to $800. The paper for the printer is about $10 for 500 sheets.

An investor who wants to use the computer to get access to stock and bond reports will have to buy a modem, for $100 to $300, to connect the computer by telephone line with a teletype service.

The modem and telephone lines can also connect a computer with an office, bank or other computers, or get airline schedule information or order retail products promoted on cable television.

Costs for these capabilities will depend on how often they are used. One teletype service, which provides stock prices, news reports and classified ads, charges a one-time $100 subscription fee plus an hourly usage cost ranging from $20.17 during prime business hours to $5.75 after midnight.

Another service, with stock market information, charges 90 cents per minute during the day and 15 cents per minute at night.

Some minor costs involved when running a computer are for maintenance — mechanical parts like the keyboard, printer or drive may require occasional service. Consider buying either a warranty extension for $90 to $300 per year depending on computer, or a maintenance contract that costs 10 to 15 percent of the computer cost.

Michigan manufacturing facilities decline

The decline in Michigan manufacturing facilities is bottoming out, according to publishers of the 1983 Michigan Manufacturers Directory.

Statewide, there are currently 14,762 manufacturing plants, just 22 more than at the end of 1977. Declines of 290 and 289 plants were registered in 1981 and 1982.

Wayne County's 3,168 manufacturing plants continue to lead the state, though it lost 57 plants in 1982. Second was Oakland County with 2,376 manufacturing plants, a 0.3 percent increase over 1981.

Macomb County made the biggest gains, picking up 73 facilities in 1982. Third overall with 1,745 plants, Macomb's gain helped reduce the loss experienced by the top 15 counties to 58 percent year-ago levels.

Remember Mom this Sunday!

Families gather together to celebrate Mom's Day

By PHILIP JEROME

Do people still celebrate Mother's Day? "They sure do," was the unanimous response. And some even wondered why anyone would ask such a question.

Winnie Dobek of Novi is one person who believes in doing things up big on Mother's Day. And Mother's Day will be particularly nice this year, she says, because she's just learned that she's going to be a new grandmother—for the 20th time.

Dobek remembers the time she first became aware of the importance of Mother's Day. It was back when she was 12 years old and living on a farm near Grass Lake.

"That was the country," she recalls. "The schools used to get out around the first of May because all the families needed their children at home to help with the farming."

"My grandmother told me to always honor my mother on Mother's Day. She told me that you have two fathers—your natural father and your Father in heaven, but you only have one mother and you must always take time to honor her."

"I saved my money, borrowed the neighbor boy's bicycle and pedaled six miles into town. I bought her a beautiful little white cup and saucer with gold trim. That cup and saucer with the gold trim represented my mother to me."

The Dobeks still live on a farm, although it's on Twelve Mile within sight of Twelve Oaks Mall. And they still celebrate Mother's Day every year in a big way. The main difference is that the size of the family has grown considerably.

Winnie has had 20 children, "but God has only left me with 10—five boys and five girls," she reports. She has 19 grandchildren with number 20 on the way. And virtually all of them will gather at the Dobek farm to celebrate Mother's Day this year. One son is even flying home from Atlanta.

"When you carry a child nine months, a special bond is developed," she said. "A child is a gift from God, and whenever you receive a gift from God you receive with it an obligation to raise that child properly."

"I've ranted and I've raved at all my children and my grandchildren, too. And they all love me. Some of them suspect that I've got eyes in the back of my head because I always seem to know when they're up to no good."

"Even today I come down hard on my grandchildren when they're out of line. I tell them I'm going to pin their ears and put them on the clothesline," she says. "But they love me. They always love it when they can come over to Grandma's house."

"All my kids are good kids, too. There aren't any dopers or druggers. And none of them have been in jail, although I've been worried a couple of times. Four of my children have served in the Armed Forces and that makes me feel good, too."

Although Mother's Day plans at the Dobek farm seem a bit more lavish than others we talked to, almost everyone we interviewed plans to do something to mark Mother's Day.

Novi Fire Chief Arthur Lenaghan says virtually all Sunday is taken up celebrating Mother's Day, even though events are basically low-key.

Lenaghan and his four children—two boys and two girls—honor their own wife/mother in the morning with cards, gifts and breakfast. Then in the afternoon, they buy a plant and head over to Lenaghan's mother's home in Livonia where they are met by the rest of his brothers and sisters.

"It's nothing real spectacular," says Lenaghan. "We're lucky that most of my brothers and sisters still live in the area and we can all get together. We've tried to take my mother out before, but she seems to prefer staying home and having all her children and grandchildren come to visit."

Dorothy Flattery of the Novi Library apparently feels the same way. "I have three grown children and seven grandchildren," she says proudly, "and they'll all drop by the house sometime during the day. It's all very simple and very spontaneous."

"Yes, they usually bring cards and flowers, but that's not important," she adds. "Just having them there is enough."

Ruth Tuttle of Walled Lake said Mother's Day is very low-key in her household. "I have a very wonderful family," she says. "And we do a lot of things during the year because we live fairly close together. We don't have any special ceremonies on Mother's Day, but we always go to the Mother-daughter banquet at the church."

Jeanne Clarke, author of Novi Highlights, says her family usually gathers at her Thirteen Mile home for a dinner on Mother's Day. "We're very lucky because both great-grandmothers are still alive and they're always with us."

"Also, my foster children always call up on Mother's Day to say 'hello,' and that's nice, too."

"Mother's Day is really a big event in our home. It's an awfully nice day."

All homeowners in the area around Walled Lake and Shawood Lake, whether residents of the City of Novi or the City of Walled Lake, are urged to attend, according to Sandy Phillips. The group hopes to become a communications network for issues affecting the lake, such as ice shanty or dances, the Novi Lake level/drain proposal and the rerouting of East Lake Drive, Phillips said. For more information on the group, call 624-1417 or John Hazelroth at Novi city hall.

WESTERN TALENT SHOW: A talent/variety show will be held at Walled Lake Western on Thursday, May 19, at 7:30 p.m. Admission to the show sponsored by the Warrior Leadership Council is $2.50. Concessions will be available.

Directed by student Jeannie Stubbs, the show includes stand-up comedians, singing, dancing, comedy routines, ballet, a singing teachers' group, lots of impressions and virtually any kind of talent Western students and teachers have to offer, said Bridget Lantio, a Western student.

Although this is the first time Western has offered a variety show, the leadership council hopes it will become a tradition.

"We have a lot of talent at our school," Lantio said. "We thought we'd let everyone see it."

PHOTO WORKSHOP: A one-day workshop on early photographic processes will be offered Saturday, May 14, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. at Oakland Community College's Orchard Ridge campus, according to Novi resident Nick Valentini.

"It's a very simple process," Valentini said, noting the class also will cover early history of photography. Amateur and expert photographers alike are welcome; all materials are provided in the $25 workshop registration fee, he said.

Western: Up Close features students

"Western: Up Close" is an exhibition of the creativity and skills of students in academic, vocational and extracurricular areas will be held at Walled Lake Western High School on Friday, May 15, from 5-10 p.m.

Purpose of "Western: Up Close" is to give everyone an opportunity to see the type of work that is being produced by local high school students.

"We're very proud of our students and our school," said Susan Gallagher, coordinator of the event. "We want everyone in the community to see the type of work they're doing."

Students in the Art department will have exhibits and demonstrations of jewelry making, sculpture, drawing, painting and ceramics, including a potter's wheel.

The journalistic skills of students in the English department will be illustrated by the exhibit and sale of the school newspaper as well as a display prepared by the yearbook staff.

The Business, Math and Science departments are planning displays and demonstrations as their contribution to the evening. The Business department will demonstrate its IBM electronic typewriter and give a slide presentation on the co-op program. The Math department's computers and various student programs also will be available for viewing. The Science department, in conjunction with the Environmental Club, will display various projects and activities as well as a plant sale and magic show.

Excerpts from the play "Free to Be

You and Me" will entertain all ages. The Performing Arts Department also will present selected poetry to capture the imagination. Large groups and ensembles will represent the vocal and instrumental areas of the department, and will perform throughout the evening.

Students enrolled in the vocational classes of the Industrial Arts department will display their work in the areas of woods, metals and drafting. Students from the Social Studies department will present the "Great Debate" on selected social issues of today.

For those interested in the foreign scene, students from the Foreign Languages department will be dressed in special costumes and offer ethnic foods to tempt the palate. Additionally, they'll offer special exhibits and films of far-away places.

Novi Choralaires to sing out at spring concert Saturday

"Memories Are Made of This" — the annual spring concert by the Novi Choralaires — will be presented at Novi High School's Fuest Auditorium this Saturday at 7:30 p.m.

Presented in conjunction with Mother's Day, the concert will include such favorites as "Don't Cry Out Loud," "Sing a Simple Song," "Stayin' Alive" and "Take a Chance on Me."

Featured will be the performance of an original composition by Don Sill entitled "Fly Wild Bird." Sill has performed as the accompanying bass with the Choralaires for the past two years. Presentation of his new work at the Mother's Day concert will mark only the second time it has been performed in public.

Tickets for the concert are priced at $3 for adults, $2 for senior citizens and children under 12, and may be purchased through any member of the Choralaires. Tickets also are available at the door or in advance at the Novi Parks and Recreation office on Oakley Park.

As a special feature, every mother who attends the concert will receive a flower compliments of Flowers by Jackson. The Novi florist has been giving a flower to each mother at the concert for the past four years, and this year the company also is donating two floral arrangements for the stage. The arrangements will be given to two members of the audience via a drawing at intermission.

The Novi Choralaires have won wide recognition for their choral abilities. The group spends a majority of the year making public service appearances for residents of Novi and surrounding communities.

During the past year, for example, the Choralaires have performed at the Novi Arts Fair, Twelve Oaks Mall, the Novi Jaycees' Recognition Breakfast and the Novi Food Benefit.

Additionally, they joined choral groups from three other communities last fall to present the first of what they hope will become an annual event — "Recreation Sings." Proceeds from the concert were donated to the Ann Arbor Burn Center through the Novi Jaycees.

The Mothers' Day Concert is the most important of the year for the Choralaires, however, since it is the only performance where admission is charged. It is their only chance to provide advertising for patrons who support the group financially, collect funds to cover their own expenses and entertain the public.

Elaine Wroe is president of the Novi Choralaires. Jan Wasilak serves as director and Stacey Becky is accompanist.

Jaycees slate bottle return

There are dozens of area handicapped youngsters hoping to attend summer camp this year, some for the first time. Last year, five Walled Lake youngsters attended Scamp.

As in the past, the Walled Lake Jaycees are getting ready to send at least one of them to camp, a week-long overnight camp for handicapped youngsters in West Bloomfield.

Jaycee Terry Heller said the Jaycees plan to raise at least $500 to send one child to camp this summer, and hopefully will be able to raise enough to send two.

The Jaycees will have a bottle return day at Lakeside Supermarket on Saturday, May 21. Any residents stopping by Lakeside can donate their bottles to the Jaycees, who will use the money for the Scamp program, Heller said.

Scamp is designed for all handicapped youngsters, from preschoolers to those over 16, although most of those attending last year were 6-13 years old.

The youngsters are placed according to their disabilities, including autistic, learning disabled, emotionally impaired, mentally impaired and hearing impaired.

Camp programs include swimming, sailing, canoeing, art, music, physical education and outdoor education, but also emphasize academic activities — especially language skills through the theme of health and safety.

Youngsters campers stay at West Hills Junior High grounds in West Bloomfield for day camp, but older campers stay overnight at Independence Oaks Metro-Park.

Nearly 250 campers participated in Scamp last year under the direction of 143 camp personnel — including 47 corporations and service organizations, and by money raised through individual Scamp tuition payments.

through donations from individuals, clubs and service organizations like the Jaycees.

Other money comes from scholarships contributed by individuals, clubs, corporations and service organizations, and by money raised through individual Scamp tuition payments.

ANNA

The story of a young woman's struggle with life... and death

(EDITOR'S NOTE: This is a true story. Anna agreed to discuss her experiences openly with News reporter Kathy Jennings in hopes that more people would become aware of the feelings of those coping with mental illness. Her name has been changed at her request.)

By KATHY JENNINGS
(Part two of two-part series)

A person who attempts suicide faces a lot of questions when they recover.

Anna faced the people who wanted to know why a person with all my ability, with everything I had going for me, would do something like that.

"What they don't realize is all those talents can be detrimental. If you can't keep them in control, they start controlling you. If people aren't considerate you get used, burned out, taken for granted."

She felt trapped. She fluctuated between dependence and apathy. She struggled with a feeling of hopelessness so strong it seemed it would never go away.

"You face that. You realize it's a choice. You can stay away, and you decide to put yourself out for your misery."

At the point she tried to take her life, she had no self-esteem. When she woke up in the hospital, she was not recognized by the doctors or nurses who were caring for her.

Anna believed if they really knew her, they would like her as little as she liked herself.

She just got the worst part of what they say. I am a horrible person. I am a horrible person. I am a horrible person. I am a horrible person.

Some people told her those who try to kill themselves are relieved to find they have been saved. But Anna said her relief lasted only momentarily.

"I really figured I had ended myself, and four days later, I found myself coming back to consciousness. Someone was talking to me, going to be all right, there wasn't any permanent damage, and I was going to live."

At that moment she was relieved.

"But I didn't change anything. For months on-end I still wanted to kill myself."

he talked to a psychiatrist and agreed to commit herself to a sanatorium, but the therapy did little to improve her mental condition. She said the treatment was simply not what she needed.

There were classes where patients learned self-assertion.

"It was like attending a college lecture. One therapist actually sat there with a book in front of her. After reading a psychology text book, anyone could have gotten up and said those things."

Treatment was "dry and impersonal." Anna said she needed specific illustrations of how to cope with her problems, but the therapists talked in abstracts.

"They talked about self-talk. 'You need more positive self-talk,' they would say. 'What's an acceptable positive self-talk?'"

When hospitalized she received weekend passes to visit her family. While returning to the hospital after a weekend at home, two weeks before she was to be released, her sister asked "do you like yourself yet?"

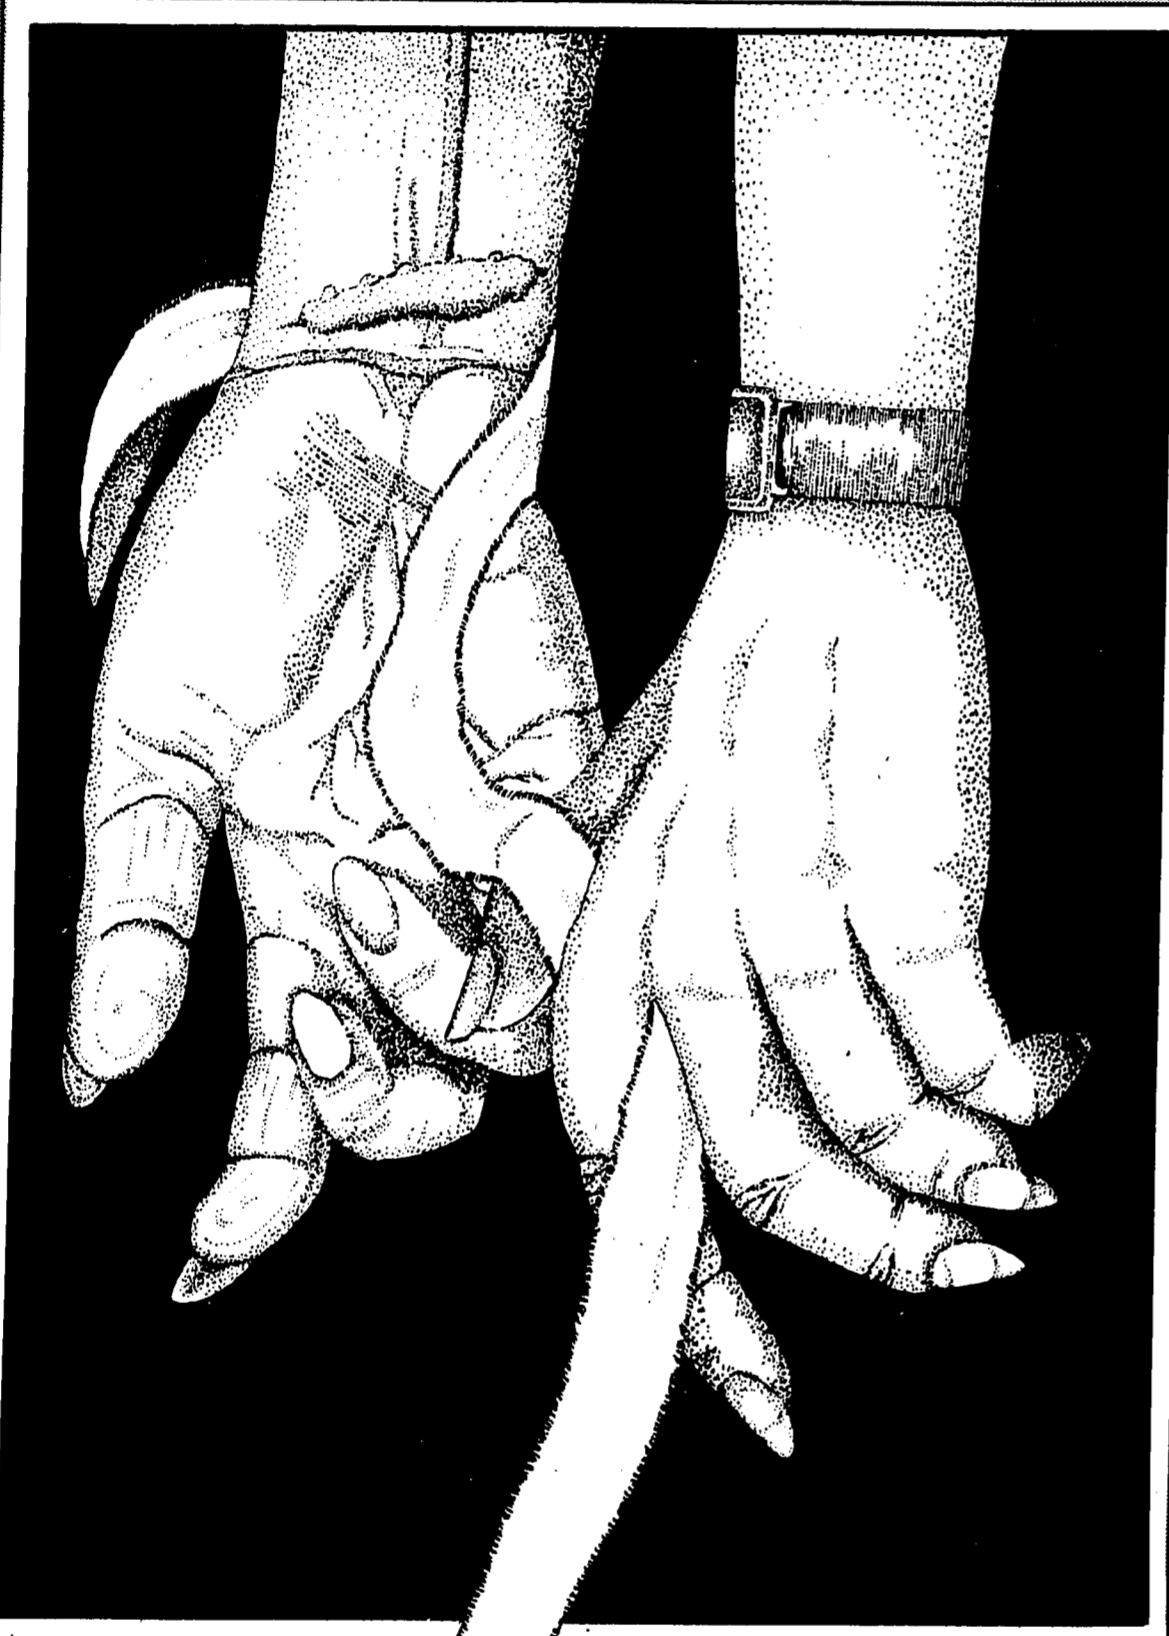

"Not very much," she replied.

"Does that mean you're going to try it again?"

"Maybe, but you won't tell anybody, will you?"

Her doctors believed she was better when they released her in April. She admitted later she was good at "faking out" psychiatrists.

"At home, she spent most of the next two months in her bedroom. Sometimes she walked around the house raking her finger nails down her face."

'For months on end I still wanted to kill myself.'

Three weeks after her release she tried suicide again. This time she took the medication she had been given to help her sleep with some Tylenol she had purchased.

Her already sensitive stomach would not accept the overdose and she vomited most of the pills before they killed her.

Anna had been seeing a psychologist at a counseling center in her home town. Even after the suicide attempt, he did not recommend she be hospitalized again, so she remained home.

Next, a job opportunity that her parents believed would be ideal came up — counseling at a music camp. She was accepted for the position and wanted to try it. But she wasn't ready for it.

"I couldn't even get out of bed yet, and being a camp counselor keeps you going day and night for two months."

As she saw it, the only way to get out of it was to do something drastic. She ran away.

She walked east out of town, staying to the side of the road, unless she saw a police car — then she hid in the grass.

Consequently, Anna's congregation had learned she was in Albany. She knew people in Albany called them and they contacted her parents.

Her mother and father immediately came to get her.

"When Dad got home he blamed me. There were tears running down his face and he said 'I'm not going to let you go now!'"

Anna had a job at the point; she proved she was a good worker. Her feet were blistered, the blisters at her legs were chafed from the 30-mile walk, she was hungry and thirsty. But being exhausted, she didn't think of these things.

Her parents were not focused on them. In the beginning, she was in a closed ward for patients who may harm themselves or others.

Discussions with visitors were unending. Communication was difficult. Anna would sit and talk, but her mind was not focused on them. She was focused inward, as if she were listening to another conversation going on inside her head.

"Do you still hear voices?" her sister asked.

"Yes, I hear voices. I believe the voices tell me what to do."

When treatment at the second sanatorium proved more successful than the first, Anna was moved from the closed ward.

I have been more than six months since she was released from the institution. After traveling deep into a dark land, Anna is struggling the long road back. She says she is nowhere near where she wants to be, but she has come such a long way.

"I stepped out of it when I said 'hey, maybe it's time I tried getting well. Some people are determined that nothing is going to work. They make up their mind that they just won't get well.'"

But it hasn't been an easy trip. Finding what has been nearly impossible.

"I've heard a lot of people say Christians aren't supposed to have mental problems. That they don't need doctors and shouldn't be on drugs. It's just not the case."

When it comes to deceiving her mind, Anna does not push it. She is enrolled in an astronomy class and will take one additional course in June. She hopes to finish college graduation requirements this spring.

But Anna is worried about one remaining class she must take because it deals with social issues. She is not sure if she's ready to start thinking yet. "It just screws you up."

Occasionally, she still considers suicide. There are two things that stop her.

"I've thought about taking Mom and Dad's car and crashing myself in it. But it's their car."

The other reason?

"It doesn't work."

Harrison hands Western squad 1st loss of year

There are only two undefeated baseball teams in the Western Lakes Activities Association (WLA). And before the Warriors erupted for an incredible 10 runs in the fourth inning.

The highly-touted Warrior nine turned back Plymouth Salem and Northville last week to extend its record to 3-0 before dropping a 10-6 decision to Farmington Harrison Friday to close the week at 3-1.

"We're still in the thick of the race," claimed Chuck App, coach of the Warrior nine. "Harrison and Plymouth Canton are both 4-0, but everyone else has lost at least one game and we've still got one more game with Harrison and two more with Canton."

The Warriors opened the week with a 4-3 victory over Salem, thanks to the lousy hitting of Dave Meyers and Mitch Pancezyk. Sophomore fireballer Dan Gabriel got the starting nod and gave up just two hits and eight walks in going the distance for his first win of the season.

Western opened the scoring in the first as Meyers walked, stole second and came home on Pancezyk's single. Salem picked up single runs in the second and third to lead 2-1 until the fifth when the Warriors regained a 2-1 lead as Rick Hunter singled and Meyers belted a home run.

Salem knotted the score at 3-3 in the sixth, but Western tallied the winning run in the seventh as Pancezyk came through with a two-bagger than scored Meyers all the way from first.

Western next hung a 12-9 setback on Northville in a game that was a lot closer than it should have been. In fact, the Warriors at one point had a 10-4 lead.

"I did a little substituting," explained App. "All my starters were on the bench, and then kept looking at me as baseball teams in the Western Lakes Activities Association (WLA). And before the Warriors erupted for an incredible 10 runs in the fourth inning.

Howell, South Lyon too tough for Wildcat girls' track team

Novi's revitalized girls' track team fell to Kensington Valley Conference rivals Howell and South Lyon last week, leaving rookie coach Chris Ceresa alternately saddened and buoyant.

"I'm very disappointed with our performance against Howell. The girls weren't into it, no team unity. Things just weren't clicking."

— Chris Ceresa, Wildcat coach

The Wildcats showed "sparkling improvement" Thursday against South Lyon, despite a 71-52 loss, Ceresa claimed. "We showed a lot of teamwork and a lot of guts and we gave them a run for their money."

Indeed, better efforts were posted across the board. In spite of the times recorded on the Lions' non-metric track, signs were much more encouraging.

As expected, Traynor won the 110 and 330 hurdles (in 17.2 and 49.8), with Tabaka adding a third in the 330 with a 54.6. Vosie placed second in the shot and discus, but added more than a foot to her previous efforts. Lawton cleared 4-10 in the high jump, while Sarah McLaughlin took third at 4-0. The strong-limbed Litman took second in the long jump and added a third in the 40.

Novi captured the 880 relay (Carine Waack, Krista Borsvold, Litman and Mollie MacEachern) and the 440 relay (Vosie, Waack, MacEachern and Traynor) in 1:59.6 and 56.8, respectively. Borsvold and Litman took second and third in the 440; Vosie added a third in the 100 and MacEachern a third in the 220.

Lemieux's 2:37.8 won the half-mile with Leslie Helling taking third in 2:57.8. In the mile, Park captured third in 5:55.9.

"It's a tremendous improvement," Ceresa said, adding he felt optimistic going into last weekend's Novi Invitational tournament, only to see it cancelled by rain.

This week, the Wildcats will try to continue their forward momentum forward against league rivals Brighton, Pinckney and Lakeland.

Novi thinclads race past two more league rivals

Look who's on top!

The Novi track team did it again last week, defeating Howell 69-61 and South Lyon 23-19 to raise its record to 7-0 on the season and 2-0 in the Kensington Valley Conference (KVC).

"The word is relayed," said Wildcat Coach Bob Smith, whose squad is gearing up for next week's encounters with KVC opponents Milford and Lakeland.

"I'm sure they're taking a good look at us," said Smith about the traditional KVC kings.

"The league is really divided into three classes and right now I consider us in the second class with South Lyon, Howell and Brighton. But we did pretty well against them this week, I think."

There was plenty of excitement in each of last week's meets. The outcome of Tuesday's meet against Howell came down to the last three events—the 200 meters, 3,200 meters and the 1,600-meter relay. Smith was forced to write off the 3,200 (two-mile) because distance ace Jim Kohli has been indefinitely laid low with a bronchial infection.

Things also looked grey as runners took their marks for the 100 as Novi's top sprinter Dave Williams was sidelined with an ankle injury.

"He just showed up Monday in a cast," moaned an incredulous Smith. "He'd been playing some pick-up basketball. Geez, I'm going to have grey hair before I'm 30 if this keeps up."

But a trio of re-assigned runners did a remarkable job of filling Williams' shoes. Middle-distance ace Paul Boyd was told to run the 100 meters and topped the field in 11.73—"Not bad for a quarter-miler," noted Smith.

In the 400, perhaps Williams' best event, junior Greg Prost finished second in 53.2, losing by one-hundredth of a second. And in the 200 meters, which Williams only lost once this season, Dave Whitehead capped a strong performance throughout the meet by posting a 24.01 to win and insure the Wildcat win, with victory practically assured in the money-in-the-bank 1,600-meter relay (Novi's time, 3:32.19).

Turning in an admirably brave performance was junior middle-distance man Bob Peery, who took second in the 1,600 with a brisk 4:43.66, then topped the field in the 800 with a grueling 2:13.7 in a flat-out gut-wrenching kick to the tape to win by two-hundredths of a second.

Only minutes later, Peery entered the 3,200 because the outcome of the meet appeared still in doubt. Mounting an incredible effort, he came within one-tenth of a second of scoring one more point in the longest event, finishing in 10:39.3—one stride out of third.

Junior Steve James uncorked a 20-7½ long jump to win, while Steve Chasse, who showed up late for the meet, took one leap of just over 19 feet to take second. Teammate Mike Serra took third at 19.0, one eighth of an inch behind Chasse. In a thrilling 400-meter relay, it was Howell in a photo finish. "The people in the stands all thought it was Novi, it was that close," Smith said.

Also adding firsts for the Wildcats were Steve Korte in the high jump at 5-6

McKinley's wonders top Bentley

Things are looking up for Kim McKinley and her Walled Lake Central girls' track team. The Vikings topped Livonia Bentley 78-43 last week to raise their record to 2-3.

The Vikings dominated the field events.

Becky Rohloff won the long jump with a leap of 14.4. Lisa Laansma took third.

Faity Makkonen won the high jump by clearing the bar at 4-10. Teammate

Patty Fitzgerald took third.

Central swept the discus. Karen Frey was the winner, followed by Helen Dietrich and Caryn Lamb.

Lamb then won the shot put. Shauna Anderson was second.

Anderson teamed with Rohloff, Cheryl Baker and Kelly Stone to win the 880-yard relay.

In the 440-relay, Baker and Stone combined with Wendy Mackey and Barb Brammell for a victory.

The team of Brammell, Laansma, Jeni Dulka and Karen Cordis won the mile relay.

In the one-mile run, Laansma finished first, Brammell won the 100-yard dash with Baker finishing third, and Gingshak Blake won the 880 while Cordis took second.

In the two-mile run, Kim Curry finished first for the Vikings.

Saturday at the West Bloomfield Relays, Central had three girls place in field events.

Caryn Lamb threw the shot 32-10½ to take third.

Patty Makkonen finished in a tie for fourth in the high jump at 4-10.

Kelly Stone finished fifth in the long jump with a leap of 15-7.

The team's next meet is Thursday at home against Farmington.

Warrior hitters come alive in softball

Tom Szocinski figured all along it was only a matter of time.

After dropping its fourth straight game of the young season to Plymouth Salem on Monday, Szocinski's Walled Lake Western softball team notched its first victory of the year with a 5-3 triumph over Northville Tuesday.

And then made it two in a row by turning back Farmington Harrison 6-3 Friday.

"We're finally beginning to come around," observed the Warrior coach. "We're finally beginning to hit the ball and our pitchers are finally beginning to throw like we expected them to."

"I think it was primarily a matter of the poor spring weather," he added. "Now that we're able to practice outside, everything seems to be falling together."

Szocinski got his first inkling that the Warriors were on the comeback trail during a 15-9 loss to Plymouth Salem on Monday. Szocinski's Walled Lake Western collected seven hits and nine runs, which, as Szocinski noted, "was a lot better than we had been doing."

Artley sparked the offense by belting a two-run homer in the sixth.

Western finally got its first victory Wednesday as they turned back Northville 5-3 behind the six-hit pitching of Renee Kane. Kane was touched for three hits and three runs in the first inning, but the Warriors are 2-3 in the WLA's and 2-1 in the WLA's Western division. "We've still got a chance, a good chance, in our division," said Szocinski. "Everything seems to be coming together for us."

Western plays Farmington Wednesday and then hosts Plymouth Canton Friday before meeting Brighton in a doubleheader Saturday.

Novi nine off to rocky start in KVC softball play

It was not the most auspicious of starts for the Novi softball team as the Wildcats opened Kensington Valley Conference (KVC) play with two double-header disasters against Howell and South Lyon.

Howell claimed 8-2 and 15-5 victories, while South Lyon prevailed by margins of 5-4 and 15-3 as the Wildcats saw their KVC record fall to 0-4 on the season.

Howell's Julie Clark, a 1982 all-conference pitcher, "kind of intimidated" Novi hitters in both ends of Tuesday's twinnings with a good fastball and excellent control, striking out 11 and allowing only two walks in the opening game.

Novi's Lisa Palka "pitched well," according to Coach Jim Tinsley, but her teammates had a bad case of the fumbles, committing eight errors en route to an 8-2 loss to a good start.

"We can't seem to get off to a good start," Tinsley remarked. "We're just on our heels for some reason."

Novi got its first run in the fifth when Palka scored from third on senior first baseman Jill Shankel's sacrifice grounder. Sue Rasinske tallied Novi's other run in the seventh, scoring from second on a single off the bat of center-fielder Julie Samman.

Palka went all the way in the loss, suffering damaging innings in the first, fourth and seventh.

Rasinske drew the starting nod in game two, but Howell scored four runs in the first inning en route to a 15-3 victory.

Rasinske settled down after the first and yielded only one run for the next four. But the Highlander bats exploded again for eight runs in the sixth and seventh to clinch the victory.

Novi opened its scoring in the fifth inning when Palka, now hitting at a .363 clip to lead the Wildcats, doubled, stole third and drew home on a wild pitch. Samman, the batter at the time, drew a walk, stole second and third on bad pitches and scored, again on a wild pitch.

"We should've gotten to her better that inning," Tinsley said in retrospect. "We were too far behind at that point, though. It was 5-2 then, and then the flood gates opened."

Errors accounted for the remaining Novi runs. In the sixth, Sue Beckman took first on an error, then scored after a passed ball, a wild pitch and an error.

Samman and Wendy Kaerchner both scored in the seventh inning after drawing walks, eventually coming home on wild pitches.

The Wildcats fared somewhat better against South Lyon on Friday, losing the first game 5-4 before being "mercifully" 15-3 in the nightcap.

Palka, now 1-3, again turned in a good pitching performance in the opener, striking out two and yielding only three passes. But Wildcat defenders committed three errors in the first inning alone, all of which resulted in unearned runs.

Novi's confidence rose when the Wildcats opened the scoring in the top of the first to take a short-lived lead. Infielder Karen Burnett walked, stole second and scored on Beckman's single to center. On the play, the South Lyon centerfielder bobbled the ball, then threw the ball all the way to the backstop, allowing Beckman to take third. Palka smacked a sacrifice grounder to second base to score Beckman.

In the fourth, back-to-back singles by Beckman and Palka opened the inning.

Tinsley ordered a hit-and-run with Kaerchner at the plate, but Kaerchner went down swinging and Beckman was thrown out at third. First baseman Karen Bradley came through with a single to right to score Palka, but was left stranded at first.

The Wildcats scored again in the sixth as Palka doubled and came around to score on two infield grounders. But it was too little too late.

"We had a good chance in that one," Tinsley said later. "We definitely have a problem with defense and we have to start hitting better. But I think that'll come around after the team starts playing together for a while. I usually start only four seniors and in the opener against South Lyon, I started five sophomores."

He should have left them in. In the nightcap, the Lions smashed Novi pitching for 11 runs in the first two innings to force invoking the "mercy" rule by the fifth. Palka started the game as Rasinske was feeling well, but she quickly found herself in trouble, unable to retire the first five batters she faced. Rasinske came in at considerably less than 100 percent effectiveness to complete five innings.

Novi's first run was scored by Samman, who walked, stole second, took third on a passed ball and came home on Beckman's grounder to short in the second. In the fourth, Palka led off with a walk, then was joined on the basepaths by Rasinske, who singled, and Bradley, who also singled.

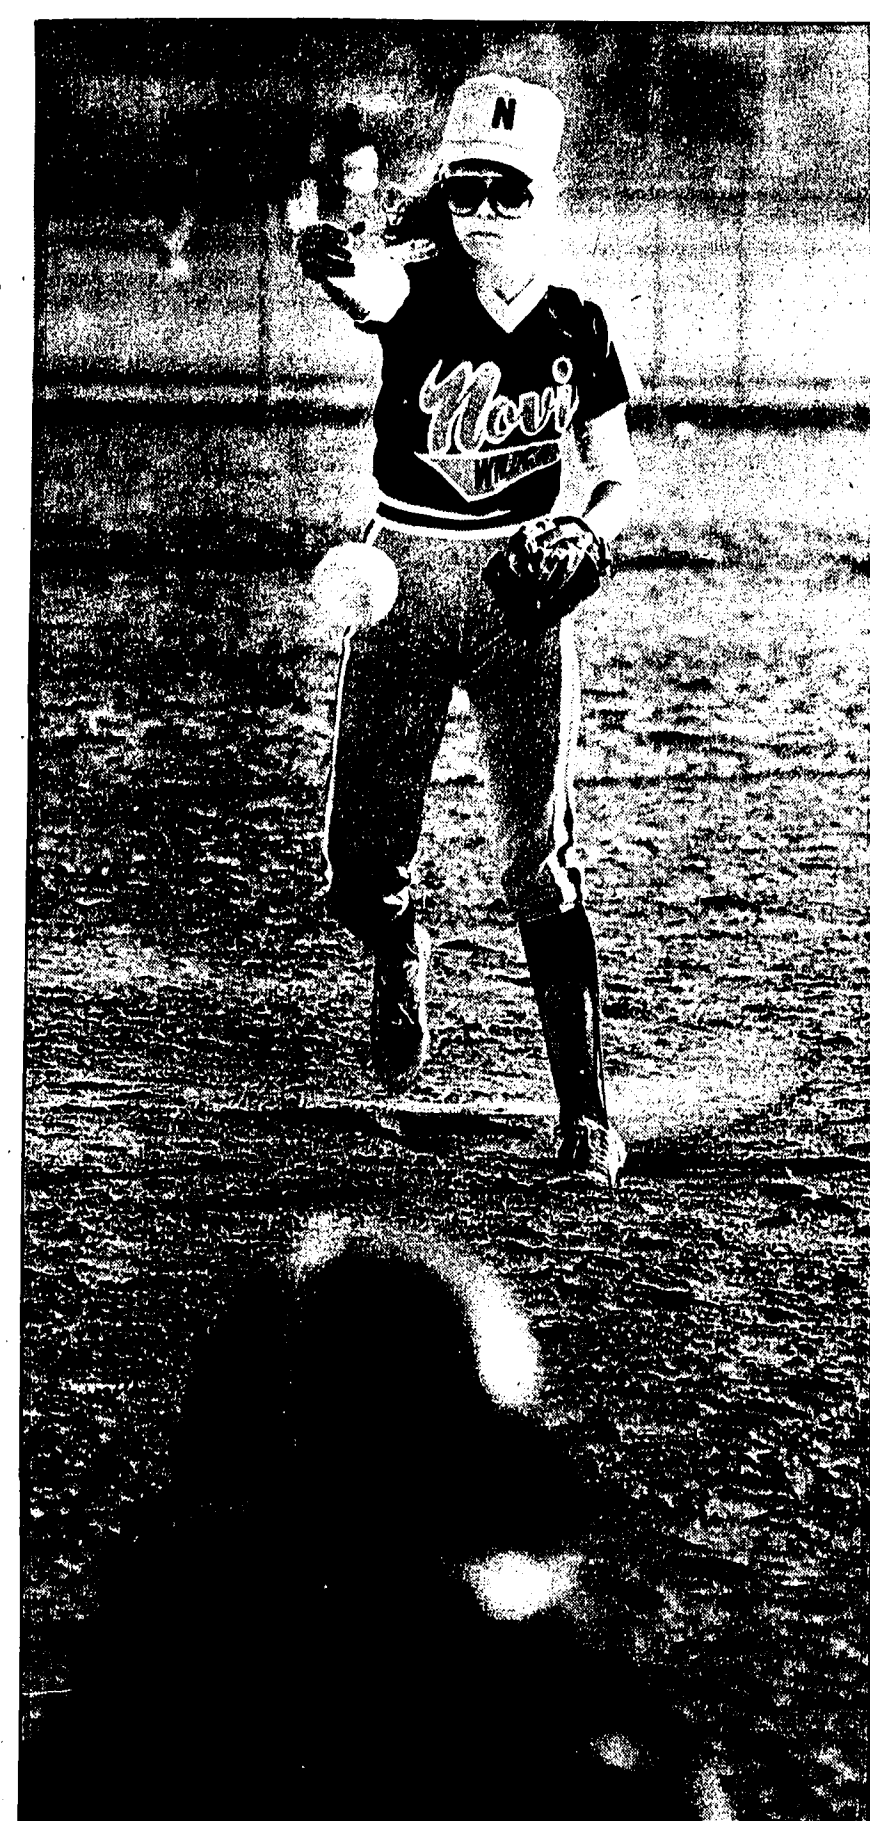

With the bases loaded, sophomore catcher Michelle Heath drew a walk to force in a run before the side was retired with three left on base.

According to Tinsley, the play of sophomore catcher Michelle Heath has been one of the few bright spots this season. Against South Lyon, Heath gunned down three base runners attempting to steal second.

In the fifth inning, Samman again led off with a single and scored on three passed balls. With Rasinske's arm stiffening up and temperatures dropping rapidly, the Wildcats were unable to contain the Lions further.

Tinsley and his squad will attempt to correct their slide against Brighton today (Wednesday) at 4 p.m. In KVC play this season, Tinsley said, the Bulldogs have already dropped both ends of a double header to South Lyon, so "we should be in the game with them all the way."

Body English

Walled Lake Western's Bill Harper (facing camera) appeared to have plenty of body English on this forehead smash against Northville last week, but it apparently didn't do much good as the ball failed to clear the net for an unforced fault. The Warrior netters dropped 5-1 decisions to both Plymouth Salem and Northville last week, but came back strong to whitewash Lakeland on Friday. The team is now 3-3 on the season. (News photo by Steve Fecht)

Novi nine divides double-header

Both Novi and Howell came out on the short end of a 7-6 score last week as they split a double-header that opened the Kensington Valley Conference (KVC) season.

"It was a wild double-header," said Novi coach Bob Weinburger after the Wildcats' encounter with the previously-unbeaten Highlander squad. "We had everything rain, delays, great defense, strategy. It all came down to the final pitch of the second game. By then it was about 8:30 and it was dark, I can tell you."

Right-hander Eric Deline went the whole way to pick up the win in the opener and even his record at 1-1. The progress of the game was impeded in spots by drizzles, but the junior's arm held on for all seven innings, giving up nine hits.

After Howell took a 1-0 lead in the bottom of the first, Novi rallied for two in the second. Infielder Dan Mahan and outfielder Mike O'Connell drew walks, advanced to second and third, and came home when shortstop Todd Crutchfield lined a two-out full-count single to right.

Deline yielded a one-run homer to Highlander Chris Coulter in the second, and bats were quiet until the fourth, although some excellent Wildcat defense killed a Highlander threat in the third. On what Weinburger called a "fantastic" play, Deline thwarted a bases-loaded squeeze attempt when he sprinted off the mound, bare-handed a near-perfect bunt and flipped the ball to the outstretched glove of catcher John Meo for the force.

The Wildcats scored three runs in the fourth when Howell ace Greg Merians threw 14 straight balls after Novi had put two runners aboard, walking in all three runs.

Howell came back in the bottom of the inning with four runs on three hits, a walk and an error, but then Deline settled down and throttled the Highlander attack for the remainder.

In the sixth inning, Novi rallied for two more runs. With two runners aboard, Deline ripped a two-out curve up the middle, scoring senior left fielder Jim Wineka from second with the tying run.

Wineka drew a late throw to the plate, and the Howell catcher's relay to third to pick off senior utility man Len Vetter sailed over the third baseman's head, scoring Vetter easily.

Vetter, positioned at second base Tuesday, saved Deline's win when Howell threatened in the bottom of the seventh. With one out and runners at first and third, Vetter stuck his glove in front of a sizzling line — "The play of the day," according to Weinburger — hung on, and doubled off the lead runner with a quick throw to Brent Dinan at third, ending the game.

The second game was a nightcap in the literal sense of the word, dragging on until 8:30 p.m. as the stars came out. Novi ace Tim Bunker had trouble right from the start, and was relieved by Eric Lavery in the third and Dinan in the fifth.

The Wildcats jumped on top in the second on a two-out two-run rally. Vetter ripped a liner that sailed to the left field fence for a double and Meo followed with an intentional pass. But O'Connell slapped an RBI single to score Vetter, outfielder Pat McKernan drew a walk and Crutchfield lined a single to left, scoring Meo easily.

Howell added a run in the bottom of the second and scored three more in the third to chase Bunker off the mound.

Novi regained the lead with a four-run rally in the top of the fifth. Crutchfield led off with a walk, then senior Mark Turrentine followed with an infield single — "a 70-foot blast" as Weinburger put it — moving Crutchfield to second. Deline reached base safely on a fielder's choice that failed to pick off Turrentine, loading the bases.

Bunker came through with a single to left, sending home Crutchfield and Turrentine, and took second on a late throw to the plate. Lavery laid a perfect squeeze bunt down the first-base line to score Deline. On the play, the Howell first baseman flung the ball over the catcher's head, allowing Bunker to score from second.

Novi continued to threaten, but Deline was caught leaning at third when the Howell catcher faked a throw to second then whipped the ball to third, killing the Novi rally.

Howell posted the win in the sixth with a two-out triple. Weinburger ordered two intentional passes to load the bases. But the strategy backfired. Dinan's 3-2 fastball was ruled a ball and the winning run walked in from third. As soon as the runner crossed the plate, the chief umpire called the game on account of darkness.

Young's Warriors thump Farmington

Neither rain nor sleet nor cold nor all kinds of other nasty weather was enough to stop Walled Lake Western's Warriors from thumping Farmington last week.

The high-flying Warriors simply had too much of everything as they claimed another scalp with an 83-40 ambush of Farmington Thursday.

Western did nothing more than win 11 of 15 events in upping its record to 2-4 on the season, but this time the firsts were split up between eight different individuals.

Pam Roselle, one of Coach Sharon Young's "fabulous freshmen," was the only double-winner as she claimed both the high jump (4-6) and 330 hurdles (54.3). Adding firsts for Western in the field events were Lisa Roselle in the long jump (16-0 1/2) and Jennifer Sitzman in the shot put (29-10).

The rest of the Warrior firsts came in the track events: Cherlie Welch took the 100 (12.3), Michelle Jablonsky, another of those freshmen, won the 220 (27.95), Fran Cullen took the 440 (1:07.7), Audrey Skonieczny claimed the 800 (2:40.65), and Nancy Giagola won the two mile (13:30).

Jablonsky, Beth VanPutten, Lisa Roselle and Welch won the 440 relay in 54.6, while Heather Gillespie, Beth VanPutten, Lisa Roselle and Cullen taped out first in the 880 relay with a time of 1:56.2.

The Warriors were particularly effective in both the long jump and 330 hurdles as they swept both events. Beth VanPutten (14-0) and Jablonsky (13-9 1/2) finished second and third behind Lisa Roselle in the long jump, while Karen Byrka (56.5) and Linda Roselle (58.0) took second and third behind Pam Roselle in the 330 hurdles.

Adding second place points for Western were Heather Gillespie in the high jump (4-6) and 440 (1:10), Jablonsky in the 100 (12.3), Pam Roselle in the mile (5:59.2) and Betsy Giagola in the two mile (13:31.5).

Third place finishes were added by Dawn Hulme in the discus, Lisa Edwards in the shot (28-8), Kris Poland in the 110 hurdles (18.1) and Kim Zawacki, another freshman, in the 220 (28.3). Western also participated in the West Bloomfield Invitational Saturday, but the results were something less than spectacular.

In fact, if Lisa Roselle, who finished sixth in the state last year, had not placed second in the long jump at 16-2 1/2, the Warriors would have been shut out.

With two victories in as many meets under their belt, the Warriors will be looking to double their record this week. They traveled to Walled Lake Central Tuesday and will be headed for Farmington Harrison tomorrow (Thursday).

The biggest event of the week comes Saturday, however, when the Warriors host the Stafford Relays. A total of 19 teams are expected to participate. Preliminaries begin at 10 a.m. with the finals starting at 1 p.m.

"The mile runs for elementary girls begin with the fourth graders at 11:30 a.m."

The Stafford Relays are named after Bernie Stafford, a former Western teacher and coach who passed away earlier this year.

"The relays are a tribute to Bernie and all the things he's done for track in general and girls' track in particular," said Young. "It would be nice if we had a good crowd."

NOTICE OF
PUBLIC HEARING
ON INCREASING
PROPERTY TAXES

The City Council of the City of Wixom will hold a public hearing at 8:00 p.m. on Tuesday, May 10, 1983 in the city council chambers at the Wixom Municipal Center, 49045 Pontiac Trail, to receive testimony and discuss a proposed additional 1983 city operating millage rate.

The city has reduced its operating tax rate over the past three years to 6.6953 mills ($6.70 per $1,000 SEV). Because of a new state law (Act 5 of 1982), the City's base tax rate is projected to be 6.838 mills for 1983. However, the City has complete authority to establish the number of mills to be levied from within its authorized millage rate.

In order to maintain basic city services, the city proposes to levy an additional millage rate of 0.1614 mills (16 cents per $1,000 SEV) above the 6.8386 mill base tax rate, or a total operating rate of 7.00 mills ($7.00 per $1,000 SEV). This will provide an estimated 2.36% increase in city operating revenues. Public comment on this proposed increase is welcome at the public hearing.

Providence/Novi Run attracts 400 competitors

By PHIL JEROME

Unusually cold temperatures did not prevent several record-breaking performances in the third annual Providence Hospital/Novi Run Sunday.

Garden City's Judy Buresh established a new record of 18:44 in the women's 5,000 meters, Walled Lake Western star Chris Mein set a new record of 16:16 in the men's 5,000 meters and Novi's Doug Kurtis set a new record of 32:12 in the men's 10,000 meters.

Joanne Sandau of Redford won the women's 10,000 meters with a 44:07 clocking. But the record which most impressed Bill Scott of the Novi Parks and Recreation Department, which co-sponsors the race in conjunction with Providence Hospital's Novi Ambulatory Care Center, was the total of 406 runners in the event.

"The thing that's really rewarding is that the run gets bigger and bigger every year," observed Scott, noting that the race attracted approximately 300 runners last year.

"I think it's really becoming a popular race; our goal is to have the Providence/Novi Run recognized as one of the top runs in the state."

In addition to the 5,000 and 10,000 meters, the race includes a one-mile fun run/jog. Results from the fun run were not available, however.

In the 5,000 meter races, Buresh established a new course record of 18:44 in defending the title she won last year. Mein, a member of Walled Lake Western's fine cross-country and track teams, made his first appearance in the Novi Run a successful one by taking the men's race in 16:16.

In the 10,000 meter races, Joanne Sandau of Redford was an easy winner in the women's division with a time of 44:07, while Doug Kurtis, Novi's Olympic hopeful and a member of the Adidas racing team, took top honors in the men's division with a record time of 32:12.

Thiebert's 'double' leads Viking squad

Big Steve Thiebert won two events against Livonia Bentley, but it wasn't enough to make a winner out of Greg Wikaryasz, who has taken over as coach of the Walled Lake Central track team.

Bentley posted a 73-43 triumph over the Vikings to spoil the debut of Wikaryasz, who is filling in for the injured Steve Groth.

Thiebert, the Viking football star who will play for Bo Schenckel at the University of Michigan in September, simply outclassed the rest of the field in the shot put and discus. He won the shot with a 56-5 effort and then hurled the discus 126-1 to make a clean sweep of the "weight" events.

Wikaryasz was particularly impressed with the work of senior distance runner Brad Pruden.

"Pruden is a real work horse in the distances," said Wikaryasz. "He did well for us against Bentley with a first and two seconds."

and added second place points in both the 1600 and 3200 meters. Central's Eric Buchfink finished second behind Pruden in the 800.

Doug Barron also finished first in two events. He won the 400-meters in 54.7 and then teamed with Sam Lumetta, Jeff Pieprzak and Mark Richardson to win the 800 relay with a time of 1:40.

Lumetta added a second in the 300-meter hurdles and a third in the 100-meter dash.

Don Chapin ran a 4:58 to take third in the 1600 meters, while Jeff Madsen came in third in the 3200 meters with a time of 10:47.

Thiebert also was responsible for the only points earned by the Vikings in the West Bloomfield Relays on April 26 as he uncorked a 52-5 effort to take second place in the shot put.

Deadline's Friday for youth softball

Novi youngsters 8-16 years old interested in youth softball should come to Friday to register at Novi Parks and Recreation offices.

Practices will begin the week of May 30. Practice times and locations are subject to the availability of coaches and players.

There will be three divisions in both boys' and girls' softball leagues this summer, according to Recreation Supervisor Bill Scott.

There's a youth division for 8-10 year olds, a junior division for 11-13 year olds and a senior division for 14-16 year olds.

Registration fee is $13 for both boys and girls and includes a shirt and cap. A $2 late fee will be assessed for registrations after May 6. Scott noted that family rates are available.

Games in the boys' leagues will be played Monday and Wednesday nights at 6:15 and 7:30 p.m. Girls' league games will be played Tuesdays and Thursdays at the same times.

Scott said teams will be formed under the following criteria: equal age groups for each team and neighborhood groupings will be honored as best as possible. Scott added, however, that absolutely no requests will be accepted.

A coaches introduction night that is mandatory for all girls in the Youth Division (8-10 years old) will be held May 17 at Novi Woods Elementary School at 7:30 p.m.

For more information on youth softball leagues call the Parks and Recreation Department at 349-1976.

Time to register for Novi Tee-ball

Registration deadline is Friday, May 13, for 6-7 year olds who want to participate in the Tee Ball League sponsored by the Novi Parks and Recreation Department.

Tee Ball is an instructional program for 6-7 year old boys and girls. Participants learn the basic fundamentals of baseball and softball in an enjoyable, non-competitive program.

Practices will begin the week of June 6 and games will be played Monday and Wednesday at 6:15 p.m. and 7:15 p.m.

The registration fee of $10 includes a shirt and cap. Call Parks and Rec at 349-1976 for more information.

Warriors lose first

home runs, a solo shot and a grand slam. Gabriel belted a home run of his own in the fifth to tie the score at 5-5, but Harrison put the game out of reach with four runs in the bottom of the fifth.

Western added a run in the seventh and loaded the bases during the tying run to the plate, but Harrison secured the final out to hold on for the victory.

The Warriors may have suffered an even more important loss against Har-risson. Catcher Rick Hunter dislocated the ring finger on his catching hand while sliding into third and may be forced to miss some games. "That would be a big loss because Rick is an outstanding defensive catcher," said Appa. "I just hope it's not serious."

The Warriors have three games on tap this week. They met Livonia Stevenson Tuesday and will take on Farmington today (Wednesday) before traveling to Plymouth Canton in a key game Friday.

Buttazzoni's return sparks Western track squad

Farmington posted an 80-52 victory over Walled Lake Western last week. And Dennis Keeney was none too happy about it.

"It was really frustrating," reported the coach of the Warrior track team, which now stands 0-2 on the season. "We should have beat them by the same margin they beat us; it should have been 75-54 in our favor. But we just didn't come through."

"It was a cold, rainy day and nobody knew whether or not we were going to run," he added. "The only thing I can figure is that we weren't mentally prepared to run."

The Warriors won only seven of 16

Western coach

events against Farmington, and Mark Wagner and Rich Peck accounted for four of those firsts. Wagner won the long jump (19-7) and 440 (52.4), while Peck took the 880 (4:51) and led a Warrior sweep in the mile with a 4:51 clock-the mile relay team of Wagner, Will Kwikel, Dave Perry and Dave Moody (3:47).

Despite the disappointing setback, Keeney cited several bright spots, not the least of which was the continued improvement of Buttazzoni. Hobbled by an ankle injury early in the season, the splendid senior had a fine day, finishing second in both the shot put (37-9) and 120 high hurdles (15.9) in addition to winning the high jump.

"Farmington has an outstanding hurdler and Aldo almost nipped him at the tape," reported Keeney. "He had a time of 15.9, which is almost a full second better than his best time last year, and he's still recovering from that injury."

"Aldo has really matured as an athlete this year and as he continues to recover from that injury, he's only going to get better and better."

Keeney also was impressed by the work of sophomore long jumper John Dorra, even though he failed to win any points. "John had three jumps over 20 feet, but he fouled all three times. Even though we didn't get any points, it's nice to see him getting out that far."

The only other second place finisher for Western was Dave Perry in the 330 hurdles (43.4). Adding third place points were Brian Duskey in the shot (37.5), Dave Moody in the 100 (10.8), Tim Rohde in the 440 (56.3) and Don Mazur in the two mile (10:48).

"It was definitely a disappointing meet," said Keeney. "If we had run as well as we're capable, we could have won. All we can do now is go back and make sure it doesn't happen again."

The Warriors met Walled Lake Central yesterday (Tuesday) and will play host to Farmington Harrison Thursday before heading for the Ashley Relays on Saturday.

"Hopefully, we'll be able to do something about that 0-2 record," said Keeney.

Wildcat netters topple Riverside

"They were two very exciting matches," Novi tennis coach Dave Haywood said of his squad's encounters last week. Novi won a 4-3 non-leaguer against Riverside on Monday, but suffered a 4-4 setback against Brighton the next day in the league opener.

"It came down to the wire against Riverside," Haywood noted. "It was tied 3-3 while (first-seed singles ace Rusty) Benoit was still on the court. I didn't say anything to him, but we were all watching his game. He must have known."

Benoit responded brilliantly, rallying from a 0-4 first-set pounding to top Sean

Jones 6-4 in each of the last two sets, giving Novi the win.

Riverside drubbed the Wildcats in the remaining singles matches, taking Eric Henderson and Hassanin Punja in straight sets in second and third singles, respectively, while fourth-seed Eric Gunderson took Mike Tiutkin to three, finally going down 2-4, 7-5, 1-6.

In doubles, Wayne Reyes and Chris Viers mounted a clutch two-set win, 7-6, 7-5, posting tiebreakers of 7-3 and 7-2. In second doubles, Doug Palmer and Kurt Krueger slammed Gary Stewart and Scott Hine 6-3, 6-1, and in first doubles, Mark Boksha won in straight sets 6-4, 6-4.

1 at third doubles.

Brighton dropped Novi with strong showings in singles, taking second, third and fourth seed matches. Only Benoit was able to fashion a singles win. Benoit took Kevin Strick in straight sets 7-5, 6-4 for his third straight match victory.

"He's been close in the ones he lost earlier in the year," Haywood noted. "His holding together much better now, playing a little more aggressively."

Henderson dropped second singles 4-6, 2-4 to Joe Morley; Scott Hanes, recovering from illness that sidelined him against Riverside, fell 4-6, 0-6 to Steve Russell; and Punja lost 6-7, 0-6 in fourth seed to Antio Kim.

Beyea and Viers took John Rackam and Tim Boyd 6-2, 6-3 in first doubles, and Palmer and Krieger set a 5-1 season mark in second seed, bottling up Bryan Whalen and Kevin Vek in two, 6-1, 6-2, leaving the fate of the match up to third doubles team David and Boksha, both first-year varsity players.

Although David and Boksha had mounted a 4-1 lead in the first set, "nervousness set in" according to Haywood. John Long and Dean Turgel rallied to take five straight games in the first set, then posted a 6-4 Bulldog win in the second, giving Brighton the match.

"It was a tough break," Haywood said. "I thought we were going to pull it off."

Novi, 1-3 overall and 0-1 in league play, will return to Kensington Valley Conference action against Hartland

Beyea and Viers took John Rackam and Tim Boyd 6-2, 6-3 in first doubles, and Palmer and Krieger set a 5-1

Central netters win 3rd straight

The Walled Lake Central tennis team is on a roll.

The Vikings netted two victories last week to run their winning streak to three and raise its record to 4-2 on the season.

Central started the week by defeating Lakeland 7-0 for the second time this season.

Eric Pigeon led the way by defeating Mike Maier 6-0, 6-1 at first singles. Chris Owens blanked Matt Waters 6-0, 6-0 at second singles. Paul Wosack defeated Paul Rozek 6-1, 6-0 at third singles. And Joe Durand turned back Mike Carl in the closest match of the day at fourth singles, 1-6, 6-2, 6-3.

In doubles action, John Zienert and John Boone defeated the Eagles' first double tandem of Craig McDonald and Jeff Pousho 6-2, 6-0.

Jay Wilburn and Scott Ford took three sets to defeat Craig Sherman and Brent Denon 6-1, 2-6, 6-0 at second doubles.

At third doubles, Dave Marszalec and Mike Martinez defeated Lakeland's Chris Dollen and Wendell Milstead, 6-0, 6-4.

In league play, the Viking netters turned back Farmington 4-3.

Owens won at second singles, defeating Drew Chuba 6-2, 6-2.

Central's Wosack beat Tim Prince 6-2, 7-5, at third singles.

In doubles, the number one team of Zienert and Boone defeated Farmington's Craig Alend and John Rasar 6-2, 6-2.

Wilburn and Ford defeated Roger Wolfe and Bob Noe 6-1, 6-3, in second doubles for Central.

The Vikings' next match is scheduled for today (Wednesday) at Livonia Stevens.

Tennis tourneys slated for Novi

It's time to start honing the forehand and getting the backhand in shape for the four tennis tournaments slated by the Novi Parks and Recreation Department this summer.

Tourney action begins with an adult (18-and-over) singles tournament on June 3-5. Registration deadline is June 1 at 6 p.m. and fees are $6 for Novi residents and $8 for non-residents.

Trophies will be awarded to the top two finishers in both men's and women's divisions.

A mixed doubles tourney for adults (18-and-over) will be held July 1-3. Registration deadline is June 29 at 6 p.m. and fees are $6 for Novi residents and $8 for non-resident teams.

Again, trophies will be awarded to the top two finishers.

A junior singles tournament is slated for July 15-17. There will be separate divisions for males and females in four age classifications: 12-and-under, 14-and-under, 16-and-under and 18-and-under.

Registration deadline is July 13 and fees are $5 for Novi residents and $7 for non-residents. The top two finishers in each division will receive trophies.

An adult doubles tourney will be held August 5-7. Registration deadline is August 3 and trophies will be awarded to the top two finishers in the men's and women's divisions.

Fees are $8 and $10.

All matches will be played at the Novi High School and Middle School North. Participants must furnish a new can of USTA approved balls for each match. New balls are awarded to the winner.

For more information about the Novi tennis tournaments call the Parks and Recreation Department at 349-1876.
