editor's note -- sound reasoning from Amway

This week's Reminder features Mike Wilcox, not the editor, but a deaf man who is attempting to succeed at a job that is normally reserved for those that have full hearing faculties. We stumbled upon Mike, when one of our advertising counselors Diana Barnett approached his boss, Paul Verhey of Clarkston Auto Body about advertising.

Well she did get an ad, but more importantly she met Mike. Mrs. Barnett reports Mike's zest for life and vocational ambition are an inspiration for everyone he knows.

Readers got the chance to respond to the Summer Olympic boycott, by sending in a questionnaire that appeared in The Reminder two weeks ago. The responses, 67 to 33 percent favorable to a boycott, appear in this issue.

Although the boycott is a major national issue, there are other issues that are more pressing. Amway, one of the largest corporations in the world, has produced a series of editorial comments on those issues. I'd like to share one of those opinions with you now. Believe me, it's worth reading and thinking about.

The rate of savings in the United States is at a 28-year low. And that makes it tougher for companies and workers in this country to compete with those in other nations.

Inflation is one cause of the decline in savings. Dollars deposited in bank accounts become worth less as inflation soars.

But the major reason for the decline in capital is the laws in the United States encourage us to spend our money rather than to save or invest it. The money we earn and spend is taxed only once by the federal government. The money we save or invest is taxed over and over -- first in income tax, then in the form of yearly taxes on interest or dividends.

West Germans save about fifteen percent of their disposable income, and their annual rate of productivity growth is five and a half percent. Japan's productivity is increasing nine percent a year. The Japanese people save twenty-five percent of their disposable #### income. But in the United States, where the rate of productivity growth is now almost non-existent, Americans save less than six percent of their disposable income. In effect, we have stopped investing in our future.

The money from savings and investments is used to purchase new plant and equipment and to replace aging facilities. Many American plants are decades older than those of foreign competitors. Without reinvestment of capital, our rate of productivity will continue to decline and so will our standard of living. Without capital, jobs cannot be created, and existing jobs are threatened.

If the United States is to compete with other nations -- in our own markets and in international trade -- disincentives to saving and investing by Americans must be removed. Tax laws need immediate revision.

Clerk Clarifies Special Assessment Statement

Dear Mr. Wilcox,

In last week's edition of "The Reminder" there was an error in your article on the fire special assessment proposal.

You quoted me as stating that the law for the fire special assessment district allowed the funds to be used for other than fire purposes. While this is basically correct L felt I should make my position clear. I merely wanted to point out that I could find nothing in the law which would prevent the township board from collecting taxes for the fire fund; then when there was a surplus in the fire fund the excess could be loaned to another area, such as the community center, safety paths, or the library.

I don't feel this was the intent of the law but it is one of the problems with it.

Another concern of mine is that the proposal authorizes the township board to levy up to 10 mills for the fire department. The fire department is currently funded with 2 mills, just approved in 1978. I feel that the 10 mill request is unreasonably high. I urge all residents to oppose the fire special assessment proposal on the May 20, 1980 ballot.

Sincerely Christopher L. Rose

"Wonderful World of Pine Knob" Clears Last Hurdle, Shoots for May 30 Opening

With a vote of 4-2, the "Wonderful World of Pine Knob" cleared its last hurdle gaining final site plan approval from the Independence Township Planning Commission.

Voting in favor of the amusement park concept were Mel Vaara, Jim Brennan, James Gardiner and John Gray, opposed were chairman Jim Smith and Jean Benzing. Approval was granted despite Smith's concern that no specifics had been provided about the twelve rides themselves and the possible extent of future plans for the park.

Co-owner Joseph Locricchio told commission members he did not want to be limited to the 3.8 acres of park as shown in the approved plan. He asked the commission not to restrict him. "Just leave me alone and it will be first class," he said

His expansion beyond the proposed 12 rides would depend on economics but Locricchio said he visualized eventual connection of the mansion, lodge, golf course, and so on. "a true theme park".

and so on, "a true theme park". Trustee Bill Vandermark told commission members the township zoning ordinance required conceptual site plan approval for any phased development as the amusement park might be. Total site plan approval, he said, should come first with approval of the phases as they are proposed.

Township planner Tod Kilroy said there were "reams" of overall plans in the Pine Knob files. The amusement park proposal could be considered a "new element" or just simply part of the development.

Locricchio and his partner Gary Francell are shooting for a May 30 opening to coincide with the opening of the Pine Knob Music Theatre. Entrance to the park, to be located where a fenced picnic area is now, will be through the music theatre.

Planned hours of operation are from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. when the park will close reopening at 6:30 p.m. when theatre patrons would begin arriving. It would be shut down during the concerts and reopened afterward possibly until 1 a.m. although commission members recommended a midnight closing for the benefit of local residents.

Readers Agree -- America Should Boycott Summer Olympics

Here are the results of a question we asked readers two weeks ago.

Do you agree with President Carter's vehement position to keep America's athletes out of the 1980 summer Olympics? Yes 67%

No

A sampling of comments:

--Why should someone have to prepare themselves for 7 and 8 years and not be able to compete in what they are getting ready for.

--It's a matter of principle-we must do something to show our adamant disapproval of USSR's invasion of Afghanistan.

--I think they should keep politics out of the Olympics.

-And every year thereafter if necessary. If a small country like Iran can bring us to our knees, what do you suppose Russia could do?

--What do you mean hard working amateur athletes? They make more money than anyone.

--Why don't you go to Iran in my son's place. He would trade you places.

--Carter will be going down in history as the jerk that killed the Olympics.

--This they understand. It's going to hurt them whether they think so or not.

--Mike, you're out in left field on this one! Even if other nations have no guts (moral courage) we should stand up and be counted! Better this way than with nuclear war.

the Northwest Oakland Vocational Education Center are concerned about ecology, the environment, conservation, and whales. With their own money they have joined seven national organizations this year all devoted to those areas of interest.

These organizations include The Whale Protection Fund, The Cousteau Society, The Nature Conservancy, Environmental Action, The Wilderness Society, Friends of the Earth, and the National Resources Defense Council, a legal organization.

This is the first year Keech's students have actually joined a number of conservation-oriented groups, but they have always been involved in environmental causes starting with the Ban the Aerosol campaign a number of years ago. Then they put together T-shirts and brochures.

Other class concerns, Keech said, include Pine Knob's plans for a hotel and now an amusement park, the proposed Stablex plant in Groveland, Springfield's dump sites and resulting water contamination, and the "bottle bill". They also worry about dredging and filling and the disappearing marshlands.

On Earth Day each year, the students clean up trash along stretches of Big Lake and Bridge Lake Roads near the school. Keech said the number of cans and bottles picked up has decreased considerably since passage of the "bottle bill". He's convinced it's working in spite of continued criticism. The trash cleanup also gives the students a greater awareness of the consequences of littering.

This group of commercial art students from the vocational school celebrate Earth Day by pianting a silver maple on the school grounds

CVP Has Ark, Will Travel "Two By Two"

The Clarkston Village Players were building an ark long before the rains of April came because it was necessary to their production of "Two by Two" opening this Friday at the Depot Theatre on White Lake Road.

"Two By Two" is the musical adaptation of a play by Clifford Odets called "The Flowering Peach" which he based on that well-known bestseller, the Bible. As you might have already guessed, the musical is about Noah and his ark.

Leading the boarding party as Noah is newcomer Roy Dennison. Appearing as his wife Esther is Judy Rood. Accompanying them are their three sons, Shem (Chuck Storey), Ham (Darwin Bragg), and Japheth (Larry Bate). The wives of Shem and Ham are Sandy Grider as Leah and Miriam Bate as Rachel, while Marcia Cybul provides added interest as the idol-worshiper Goldie.

While the Biblical story of Noah may be familiar, "Two By Two" offers a few embellishments on the original. For instance, Noah is most anxious to find a suitable wife for his youngest son before the flood comes. Shem, an enterprising fellow, manufactures manure briquettes in anticipation of having the only supply of dry fuel in the world. Ham, the middle son, complicates the situation by becoming interested in Goldie, the Golden Girl from the Temple of the Golden Ram, who has come aboard as a possible mate for Japheth.

These and other dilemnas confront poor Noah as he struggles to carry out the directive of God.

"Two By Two" is directed by Pat Thomas with the musical direction by Miriam Bate, Colwell is producing. The Denny choreography has been staged by Sandy Grider, Melissa Allen is the accompaniest.

Play dates are May 2, 3, 9, 10, 11, 15, 16, and 17. May 15 is a benefit performance for the Clarkston Area Youth Assistance. Tickets are $3.50 and available at Tierra Arts and Design. All performances are at 8:30 p.m. except Sunday at 7:30 p.m.

Hearing Impairment Doesn't Stop Auto Repair Specialist

This is a story about Mike Wilcox, a special person with a hearing impairment. Mike has hope and enthusiasm, a good outlook and best of all, a new job.

Although he has only worked for Clarkston, Auto Body a few weeks, his employer Paul Verhey says, "Mike is a hard worker an en-thusiastic employee and a very fast learner."

Wilcox, deaf from birth, has received hope and encouragement along the way from his family; James and Muriel Wilcox, Mike's mother and father and his sister and brother, Michelle and Mark, and from special agencies that have offered Mike training, schooling and opportunities.

Wilcox is 20 years old and graduates from the Lasher Hearing Impairment Program of Bloomfield Hills this June. Mike has gone to school since he has been 18 months old his hearing impairment was Mike began working with the Youth Employment Program in the kitchen at Lahser High School and expressed a desire to work with automobiles when shown a list of job possibilities. Mike then worked in the Vocational Center's auto body shop.

Although CETA previously only aided the economically disadvantaged in 1979 the Federal Government recognized the physically impaired and all handicapped as disadvantaged and began to train them in classrooms, then in on-the-job training situations in Vocational Centers then finally to actual jobs like this one for Mike at Clarkston Auto Body.

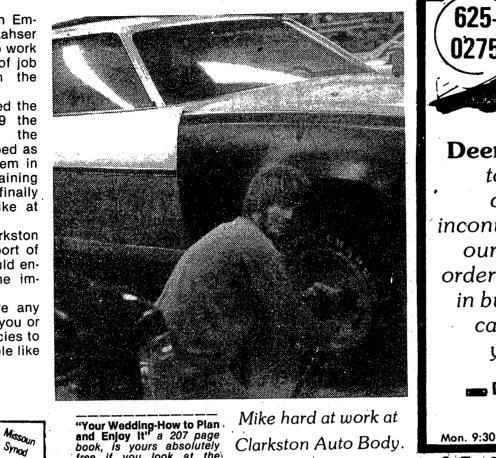

Mr. and Mrs. Verhey, owners of Clarkston Auto Body said they are in full support of Mike and this CETA program and would encourage other employers to give the impaired a chance.

Verhey says, "Call me if you have any questions, I would be glad to talk to you or put you in touch with the proper agencies to give everyone, especially special people like Mike a chance.'
