Budget Pinch May Force Fire Station Closing

by Cynthia Harrison

At the Independence Board meeting Tuesday night Frank Ronk, Independence Township Fire Chief, requested the board's support in closing one station beginning July 7th. The department will be short the appropriate number of men to operate all stations due to vacations and budget cuts.

William Vandermark, trustee, said Ronk has the better judgment, and "the board shouldn't dictate what to do with your men and equipment." The board granted full support in Ronk's decision, which has not been made at this time.

A petition to close Waldon Road at Transparent for a July 13 block party was submitted and approved by all members. This will leave Church Street and Snowapple Drive as alternative exits.

A fireworks permit was granted to James Neaderlander of Pine Knob Music Theatre. The fireworks were displayed after the Jackson Browne concert July 4th.

SCAMP requested the use of Clintonville Park on July 26 and 27 for a two-day baseball tournament. There will be food and beer sold to raise money for the program. The request was granted.

Funding by the OLHSA (Oakland Livingston Human Services Authority) for Site Hostess was submitted for a 25-hour work week during a three month trial period. If participation at the nutrition site does not increase the program will be cancelled. The board approved the offer under the submitted terms.

A 7:30 July 8th meeting was set for the Quarterly Budget Review.

editor's note

This week's Reminder includes a special section entitled Springfield: A Progressive Community. Some people, right away might laugh and insist Springfield is too far removed from the mainstream of the metro Detroit area to be labeled progressive.

That's not the case, however. According to 1980 unofficial census figures, population in Springfield has nearly doubled in ten years. That's one of the highest growth rates in Oakland County.

Unlike surrounding communities, the Swimming in Township

Riding the Méchanical
Bull

growth rate continues—ignoring housing trends. Building permits are up from last year and township meetings always seem to be visited by developers seeking to get approval of their proposed subdivisions.

Another reason Springfield reserves the "progressive" label is because of the increased commercial activity, particularly along Dixie Highway. New stores are opening and old stores are getting facelifts, at a time when most businesses are carefully watching every penny spent.

Also in this week's Reminder is a whimsical look at the "urban cowboy" scene.

Holly to Get Phone Public Hearing

Dear Editor:

I thought this might be of interest to you... I have been urging that this hearing be held at the earliest possible time, for some time. I am pleased to see that it has, at last, been scheduled.

On May 2, 1980, the Michigan Public Service Commission, on its own motion, issued the following minute action.

"In response to more than 100 complaints filed within the past two weeks by the citizens of Holly Exchange, the Commission hereby directs the Staff to investigate the reasonableness of establishing additional extended area service calling for the Holly Exchange, and conduct hearings to allow Michigan Bell Telephone Company and other interested parties to participate as is appropriate."

The complaints are generally of the nature that the radius of the Holly Exchange local service calling area is insufficient and that customers of that exchange cannot call in the same radius as people in other areas. Requests were made for extended area service to, but not necessarily inclusive of or to all of the following exchanges: Grand Blanc; Flint; Clarkston; Pontiac and Drayton Plains zones of the Pontiac District Exchange; Ortonville and Milford-White Lake; Goodrich; plus various other exchanges within a 30-mile toll rate distance.

The addition of exchanges to a local calling area, while increasing the number of stations that can be called without toll charges, will or may also increase monthly rates, change the availability to certain type of services being offered in the exchanges involved with increased monthly billing, may affect the present and future rate group classification, or have a combined effect of all of the above.

If Extended Area Service for the Holly Exchange subscribers is increased to include the specifically above-mentioned exchanges and zones, all subscribers in the Holly Exchange who are presently served in Michigan Bell's Rate Group B will be moved to Rate Group E. Based on present rates for basic local telephone service, that would mean an approximate increase of 15% for Holly residence subscribers. Business subscribers in Rate Group E exchanges also would have all local calls charged for at 6.7¢ per message. This does not include any CPI adjustment. The increase in monthly charges to subscribers of the Goodrich Exchange of Central Telephone Company cannot be approximated at this time.

The Michigan Public Service Commission may either increase or maintain the extended area service presently in effect, in whole or in part, or grant a lesser or greater increase in rates and charges than indicated above.

Special hearings for the purpose of taking statements and testimony of the public desiring to be heard on this matter will be held as follows: Holly - July 24, 1980 at 1:30 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. in the Auditorium of the Holly Senior High School, 920 East Baird.

Springfield Needs Tornado Warning System

Dear Senator Kammer and Editor:

I am sending you this note out of pure frustration. Because of the two businesses I own in Springfield Township, my wife and I moved into a mobile home in the township on a temporary basis 3½ years ago and we are still there, for several reasons, two of which are the high rate of interest and we just plain like the life style and the people. It is a fine way to live, I feel, if you have no children. The only drawback to mobile home living is the possibility of a tornado, of which we have had plenty of this season, rumbling through our park destroying everything and taking hundreds of unwarmed and unprepared lives of the men, women and children that live there.

At 1:00 a.m. last week there was a definite possibility of a devastating twister coming our way, without warning, while all slept. Groveland Township warned and evacuated to shelter all residents of "Oakhill Estates" while nearly 800 people in "Springfield Estates" slept, very possibly to their doom.

I understand that the leadership of Springfield Township turned down the "Early Warning System" being used so successfully in the rest of the county, because there are "not enough people" living in the township to "warrant the expense"...

No matter what the reason, it is well worth "the expense" if one adult or child's life is spared through an "Early Warning System" in that one location, if no where else.

Most of the people that live in these parks, do so as they have no other choice. That does not mean that they should have to live in a constant fear without some protection.

Special measures for a special situation are in order here. I feel that this is very very important, especially to those who live in this area as well as the rest of the community...

I plan on taking this problem to the streets, the newspapers, and even TV if possible, if in fact I cannot get satisfactory answers to this potentially grave problem. There are areas of more sparse population in this county that have this system. In Independence Township alone they have two units that are practically within shouting distance of each other, and in our township, we are left to fate. Look what happened in Nebraska and Kalamazoo and they had some warning. I wonder who will be willing to take the responsibility for 800 plus lives--you?

New PTA Exhibits Optimism

Dear Mr. Wilcox:

This letter is sent to you in the hope of having it printed in The Reminder. It is a note from me as the new PTA President of Bailey Lake School.

As the new Board met on June 25, optimism seemed to be present for the new school year. We hope to have the following fund-raisers if we can get the volunteers to help us. They are: Ice-Cream and Art Social, Winter Equipment Sale, Santa's Workshop, the annual Fair, and any other suggestions the parents might have.

This year's funds were spent on the purchase of three PET Computers which we hope will be enjoyed by all the students. We urge all parents to come to the September PTA meeting and want to inform them of the functions of this group. Also, we hope to look into the benefits of PTA versus PTO. Please come.

Will-O-Way Workshops

Aspiring Thespians and seasoned performers can help get their professional acts together by enrolling in a series of workshops sponsored by the Will-O-Way Apprentice Theatre in cooperation with the Michigan Council for the Arts.

Entitled "The Actor in the Marketplace," this series of career development workshops will be led by selected experts. They will teach actors and actresses the essential skills required to audition effectively for the stage and the electronic media, find an agent, break into New York's stage scene and create a professional resume, portfolio and composite sheet.

The workshops are scheduled for Wednesdays through late August and will be held at Lahser High School, 3456 Lahser Road, between Square Lake and West Long Lake Roads in Bloomfield Hills.

The next workshop will be "Auditioning for the Electronic Media," slated for Wednesday, July 9 at 7 p.m.

Other workshops planned include "The New York Scene-Pathways to the Professional Stage," "The Actor/Agent/Union Relationship," and "The Professional Resume".

Because enrollment is limited, interested performers are urged to contact the Will-O-Way Apprentice Theatre at (313) 644-4418.

WHY IS THE NURSE SO IMPORTANT?

The nurse may well be the person who gives the last comforting services to the dying patient. She can be a source of great comfort to his family as well.

The last days in a terminally ill patient's life present the nurse with one of the greatest, most difficult challenges in her nursing career, according to Nurses Claire Hoffman, Gladys Lipman, and Ella Thompson in their book, "Simplified Nursing".

The nurse knows and recognizes the needs of the patient. She learns to anticipate his requirements for comfort (i.e., a change of position, etc.). She is also alert to sense a patient's wish to talk to the clergyman or particular family members.

Nurses are schooled in dealing with the emotional stresses the patient (and family) is facing. Very often she takes special study classes in the care of the very ill for the sake of the patient and her own well-being. Like the doctor, the clergyman and funeral director, she is a very important member of the care-giving team.

It's Back in the Saddle for Area Residents As Urban Cowboy Scene Turns Them On

Hats and Boots Hot Stuff at Western Store

by Mike Wilcox

The current "urban cowboy" phenomenon has definitely got the greenbacks coming in to Western stores according to Ted Remke, owner of Timberline Western and Ski Co. of Clarkston.

In fact, Remke is taking advantage of the craze by opening a branch store in the A & W Rodeo Restaurant and Nightclub, where patrons are buying Western wear, particularly cowboy hats, so that they may look "truly cowboyish" during their night out at The Rodeo.

"We sell tons of hats down at The Rodeo," said Remke. "Sometimes we do more business down there than at the store."

In total Timberline has enjoyed about a 35% increase in business, and Remke expects more. "We're kind of riding the crest. It hasn't peaked out yet."

Remke has some definite ideas on the sudden popularity of "the cowboy look."

"People don't have to act cool. The disco scene had to be just right," said Remke. If you didn't act right, dress right and dance right, you were an outcast.

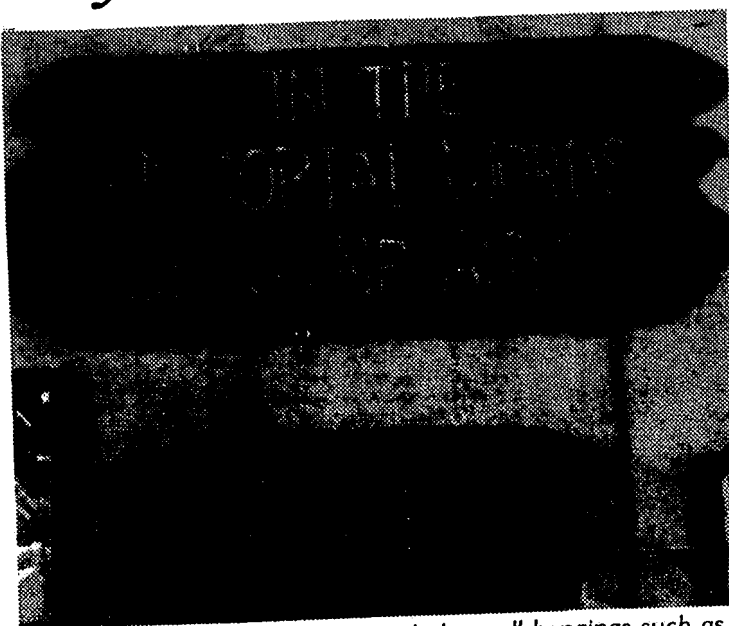

Remke admits the current scene is a craze or fad to some extent.

At Timberline, he marvels at the exotic boots and hats some people order from his catalogs. Leathers from elephant, shark, python and ostrich are used to make boots and Remke has had a customer for each.

Once the "cowboy craze" cools off however, Remke expects the popularity to Western clothing to continue.

"People start to wear it (Western clothing) a few nights to look cool, but once they start wearing them, they'll find them to be very comfortable," he said.

He continued, "The craze will peak out, but people will keep wearing them. Western clothes are here to stay."

Decor at the A.W. Rodeo Bar includes wall hangings such as this giving it a real cowboy feeling.

The afternoon sun filters through the bar room windows to rest on the customers waiting to try their hand at mechanical broncobusting.

Kind of Dumb, But Still Entertaining,

by Renee Voit

The critics say that John Travolta has now done for country music in "The Urban Cowboy", what he did for Disco in "Saturday Night Fever". After seeing it ("The Urban Cowboy"), I'd say that the status of the mechanical bull is more on the uprise than that of country music.

In "The Urban Cowboy", John Travolta plays a young man named "Bud" who moves in with his aunt and uncle in a Texan town in search of employment at a nearby plant. He soon discovers the hottest spot around - a 3 1/2 acre bar/nightclub called "Gilleys", and there he meets "Sissy" a fiery cowgirl portrayed by screen newcomer Debra Winger. Sissy becomes his wife a day or two later.

As soon as Gilleys newest plaything, the mechanical bull, is installed, Bud is instantly determined to become the King of the Mechanical Bull Riders. But Bud obviously isn't the only contender and it soon turns into a rather fun, yet occasionally serious kind of who-gets-the-girl/who-gets-the-trophy story that we all should know pretty well by now.

The acting is very good even though some of us are getting a little bored with the "dumb" roles that Travolta seems to be caught up in.

The dancing and the atmosphere of Gilleys is so realistically done that it seems to take ahold of the people in the audience.

As for the concept of who can ride a mechanical bull the best and the longest, I still find it hard to believe that grown men (and women) get so fascinated and hyped up by a large chunk of turbulent steel. The statement "I wanna ride it" used a couple of times throughout the movie kept reminding me of the little kids that line up in front of those mechanical rocking horses that are placed outside supermarkets and department stores. (I think they'll soon be replaced by little mechanical bulls.)

But we all have our preferences, so if you love country music, enjoy an occasional fight, and are intrigued about mechanical bull riding, this is your movie.

What Do You Think About the Urban Cowboy Scene?

by Kathy Rush

Ward Carpenter

"I love the cowboy life. I've been cowboying all my life. Since I've retired I raise horses and sell them."

Rose Jones
Independence Township

"I think it's fun and cute. I'm ready to go out and buy a cowboy hat. I've been holding out for a feminine-looking one."

Mark Fetter
Clarkston

"I always have liked the cowboy days and country music. I have a large collection of cowboy hats and boots."

Patti Becker

Springfield: A Progressive Community

by Kathy Rush

"In the last two years I have witnessed so much more community interest than in the past," says Collin Walls referring to the residents of Springfield Township. Who would know better than Walls since he has been Springfield Township Supervisor for three-and-a-half years now. The township meetings are commonly full, area civic groups are increasing and general community interest is rising.

Also, the development of the heretofore untouched, country land in the Davisburg area is on the upswing. Until 1976 approximately forty subdivisions had been built in this area. That is 140 years to construct just forty.

In the past four years the Township Board has reviewed and approved twenty-three subdivision plans of which most have been completed. The building permits average six per month.

"This is much more than many other communities closeby. Independence Township, for example, saw a drop last year in building permits, whereas Springfield Township keeps rising," said Walls.

Along with residential progress, there have been two industrial parks approved and are under construction. The Holly Greens Industrial Park which is located at Holly Road and Dixie Highway and Valentine's Industrial Park are two areas specially designed for the construction of commercial facilities.

Recently the Township Board voted to establish an Economic Development Corporation (E.D.C.). "This will allow us to both encourage and control commercial and industrial development," maintained Walls. EDC, being a funding mechanism which allows the sale of bonds to finance industrial building at a lesser rate of interest than standard mortgage rates, will encourage building in this category.

Moreover,, this new program will enable Springfield Township as a community to control the types and location of new businesses.

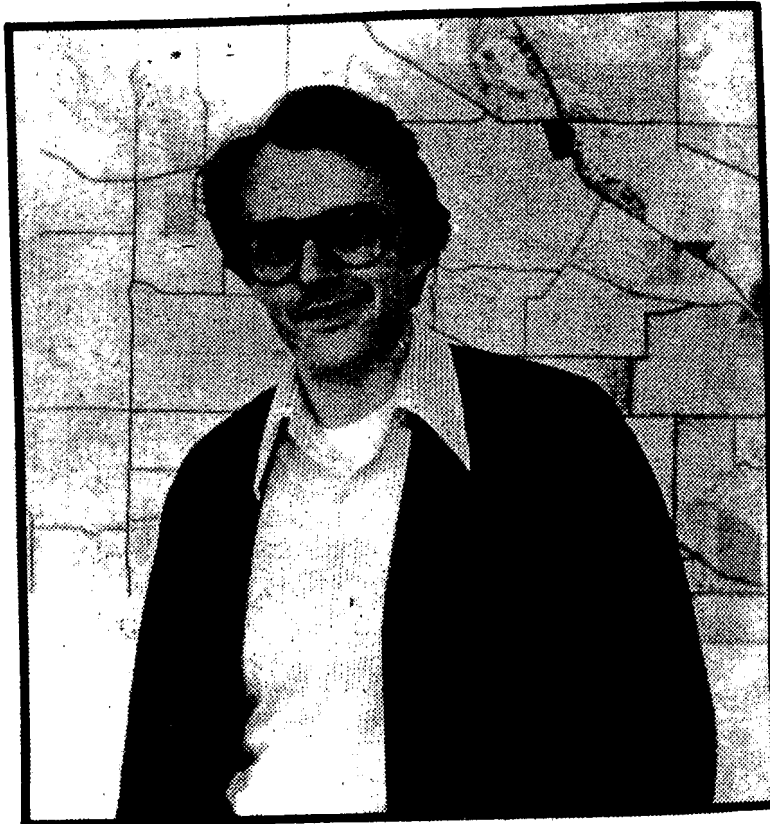

Springfield Township, in the past, has offered many community services, but like most communities these days are witnessing a funding problem. One impressive major service established in April of 1976 was the construction of the Springfield Township Library. The May report of this year showed over 1000 books checked out by residents according to Walls. "I think the library has shown beautiful growth."

Another development currently in progress is a vast, 2400 acre nature study area named "Indian Springs". The location of this area is encircled by Crosby Lake, Hillsboro, Big Lake and Andersonville Roads.

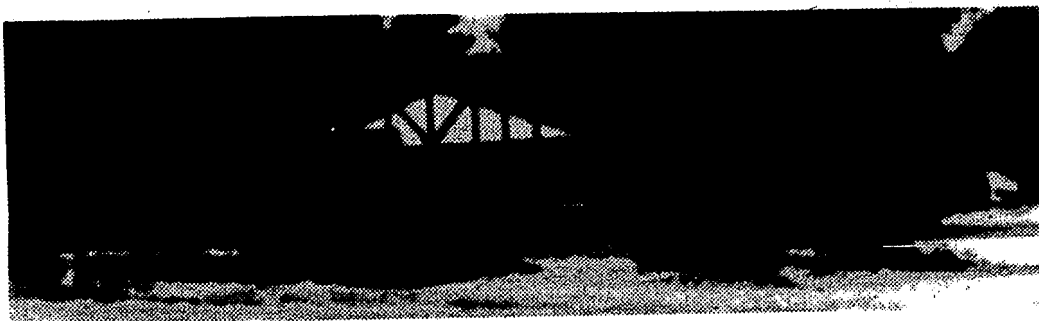

Springfield Township Board has "just recently completed revising the master plan for the community making a few minor changes which may seem major to the people they affect. There will be an even larger interest in protecting the natural resources of the area and an effort to minimize the need for sewers in the future," said Walls.

There are also plans to collaborate with the Oakland County Planning Commission to explore ways to "bring back" the Dixie Highway corridor to make it more economically viable.

Davisburg Historical Society Strives to Maintain Rich Heritage

by Kathy Rush

The Davisburg Historical Society is currently striving for acceptance in the National Register of Historical Places, a goal recently accomplished by the neighboring Clarkston Community Historical Society.

Belonging to the Register would accomplish Davisburg's recognition nationally as an area of marked architectural and historical value and allow private property owners to receive loans for restoring their homes at a low percentage rate. Businesses would also become eligible for Federal tax benefits should they restore their establishment to its original state.

The Davisburg Historical Society was established in 1973. During the past seven years, this group has been very fundamental in the preservation of the early American heritage of Davisburg. Two projects currently under way are the restoration of the Davisburg Harness Shop and the Davis house.

The Davisburg Harness Shop, otherwise known to many residents as the Shultz Building, is located at the northeast end of town. At one time this building was a combined harness shop, clock repair shop, barbershop and upstairs doctor's office. Last year, the Historical Society renovated the outside of the building and are presently doing the same to the inside.

The original intentions was to institute the shop as a historical museum. This idea has not been totally rejected but rather enlarged upon. Along with the museum there will also be a working tack shop including a harness maker plying his trade for all to see.

"We'd like to make it a usable building rather than having it just sit there idle," maintained Diana Walls, secretary for the Davisburg Historical Society.

Renewal of the Davis house, which for many years was the Golf Course Clubhouse, is being directed by Leone Stanaback, a natural choice since she was a childhood resident of this home. The Davis house, built in 1875, is located on Andersonville Road. Upon completion it will be used for tours.

The Society is funded through private donations and through the sale of memberships, which entitles one to free tours. Annual membership fees are $3.00 per person, $10.00 per family and $1.00 per student.

The current officers of the Davisburg Historical Society are: Marge Kirk, President; Oscar Haymond, Vice President; Diana Walls, Secretary; Bernice Miller, Treasurer; and Leone Stanaback, Corresponding Secretary.

Parks and Recreation Play a Major Role in Springfield's Progress

by Mike Wilcox

Part of Springfield Township's charm and appeal is its recreation land and facilities. The county developed Springfield-Oaks into the Detroit area's best activity center and a regional park system is planned to develop Indian Springs, thousands of acres of Springfield swamp.

But the core of Springfield's recreation effort starts at the township level, and for the past 4 or 5 years, those efforts have really accelerated.

Springfield Parks and Recreation programs are governed by an elected commission. That commission sets policy and recently hired a full-time superintendent.

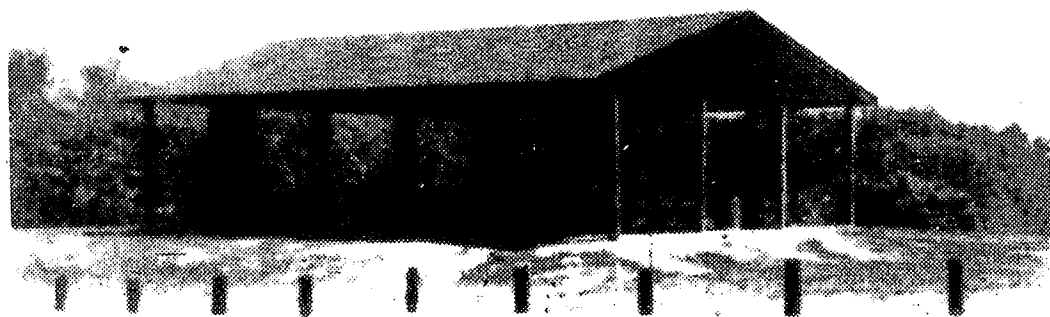

"The Parks and Recreation Commission here is really growing and getting involved. They have come a long way. It is absolutely a fabulous asset to Springfield Township," said Roxanne Graham, the new superintendent.

Ms. Graham, from Fenton, is a graduate of Michigan State University and admits this is her first full-time job. Her responsibilities include programming, land acquisition, hiring and supervising the Mill Pond beach program.

She has a $29,000 yearly budget to work with—a large portion of it used for development.

That development is readily visible at

Photos

Mill Pond Park
At right, the new pavilion at Dilley Park

Springfield: A Progressive Community

Dilley Park where ball diamonds have been groomed into tip-top shape and a brand new pavilion and picnic area are available for the public.

But according to Ms. Graham that's only the start of bigger and better things to come.

Ms. Graham is working on a proposal seeking township acquisition of the DNR Trout Pond on Davisburg Road. The township would like to set-up hiking trails and a nature center in the swampy area that was once a fisherman's haven, but is now all "fished out".

Another project is the building of a bathhouse adjacent to the garage at the Mill Pond Park. Ms. Graham estimates this will cost about $10,000.

Ms. Graham also has a few plans for the winter months at the Mill Pond. She expects to make an ice skating rink out of the Pond that is now crowded with swimmers. And in the garage, pool and ping pong will continue to be played—but alongside bingo gatherings.

poetry corner

Some are rich, some are poor,
Some have more than others
But the worse thing of all is -
Some have no Sisters, no Fathers or Mothers

Some may be wealthy with measure
Some may not have so much and yet,
Others enjoy health beyond its unknown pleasure.

Heaven is my home, God is my refuge
Whom shall I fear

I will cling to his guiding hand
Because I know he is always near.

He is watching and waiting, over each and every one Until this life here on earth is over with and done.

The clock on the wall may tell the correct time
You could be right or wrong
When in your Heart there could be a song.

Say may it be, but it is true between you and me.

Field, Vermilye, Lickey Springfield Appoints 3 to Planning Commission

by Cynthia Harrison
At the Springfield Township board meeting last Wednesday discussion was held on the development of the Bavarian Village condominiums. The township is required by law to assume ownership and maintenance of the sewage treatment plant. At this time the plant does not meet DNR (Department of Natural Resources) standards and development is at a standstill.

Springfield has made arrangements for Oakland County DPW (Department of Public Works) to maintain the plant. It was not decided when the township will adopt the plan.

A motion to drop the Joint Building and Code Enforcement Authority was passed. The code would have been established between Rose, Holly and Springfield Townships.

According to Patricia Kramer, Treasurer, "Springfield Township's Building Department is already established and I can't see any advantage."

Collin Walls, Supervisor, stated that he "...could not see nearly as much benefit to Springfield as Rose or Holly..."

Three terms have expired on the Springfield Township Planning Commission. Walls motioned to reappoint David Fields and Glen Vermilye. Rodger Horton did not wish to be reappointed. Rodger Lickey of Gibbs Road was nominated for his vacancy. The motion was carried and will be effective July 7th.

A letter was submitted from Bernard Wint of the Big Lake Restoration Board. The letter asked for a loan for advance funding on the Big Lake Restoration Project approved by the EPA (Environmental Protection Agency) early last week.

The EPA will pay 70% of the total cost of the project which is $46,862 leaving $14,058 to be funded by a special assessment tax to the residents of Big Lake. The loan will be repaid in a period of two years. The motion was carried.

A 1980 unofficial census report was reviewed. Springfield has an increase of 84% from 1970 in population and a 110% increase in housing.

A motion was passed to buy two reconditioned voting machines at $1650.00 for the November election.

Don't Miss Out! Order your Clarkston Community Telephone Book NOW!!! and get a Clarkston Area Directory FREE!

Don't you get tired of sorting through nearly three thousand pages (800 pages of yellow pages alone) everytime you want to make a phone call or find an essential service? I know I do, and with the encouragement of many businesspeople and consumers, The Reminder is preparing its first telephone book geared strictly to the Clarkston area.

The phone book, appropriately entitled, "The Clarkston Community Phone Book", will include all listings within Independence Township whether they be 625, 623, 391, 394 or 674 exchanges. It will also include a large advertising section in the back, categorized alphabetically by service headings.

The Clarkston Community Phone Book will also have pages of helpful information like who to call in case of emergency, a place to write frequently called numbers and separate listings for essential services.

Chambers Announces Candidacy.

Ralph A. Chambers of 6196 Paramus, Clarkston, has announced his candidacy for Independence Township Clerk on the Republican ticket.

Chambers has lived in the Clarkston area 25 years with his wife and 5 sons. He is a past school board member of Oakland Christian School, a board member of the Oakland County Child Evangelism Fellowship and a charter officer of the Clarkston Area Jaycees.

"Talk to land use people, builders and surveyors who are into real estate, and they will tell you the number one issue in the next four years is the expanding use of properties surrounding the expressway through our township. This acts like a challenge to our historically rural bedroom community," said Chambers.

"New building is down, too. Zoning has importance as to how a person may use his land and will be important to his neighbors also. We will need a fair and equitable value system these next few years, that will not infringe on the right of others not being offended by what and how we build in our neighborhood.

The safety in our homes and shops are of key importance. A rescue squad who puts out a fire that rages or brings peace without enforcement or harassment are of prime need."
