Skepticism Grows Over Proposal A

Tax reformer Bob Tisch is joined by Oakland County Prosecutor L. Brooks Patterson in his dislike for Proposal A. Both attended a Anti-A rally on Monday morning in Milford.

by Dawson Bell

By now most people in Springfield and Independence Townships have received an affidavit in the mail to inform them of property tax breaks they may be eligible for if Proposal A passes on May 19. The affidavits are ostensibly designed to allow rapid implementation of the tax cutting measure upon approval.

State lawmakers say they also intended for the affidavits to clear things up both for taxpayers and local units of government.

But locally the consensus on the affidavits and on the proposal they are designed to elucidate seems to be that the issue is growing cloudier by the day.

What was hailed as a straightforward tax relief measure is becoming, in the minds of many, another legislative boondoggle. And what seemed to be fairly widespread support may be turning into fairly widespread skepticism.

Springfield Township Supervisor Collin Walls has come out strongly against Proposal A, discouraging its passage in front of civic groups and taking out a half page newspaper ad denouncing it as "not a tax cut...a tax shift and, in all probability, a tax increase."

Walls grates at the contention A will cut state spending. Legislative projections forecast a loss of over $250 million to the state's budget in the first year under the new tax structure.

But Walls says, "In a fairly short period of time they'll (the state) end up with more money."

He bases that belief on the "other" provision of Proposal A, the mandated increase in sales tax. The legislative intent, according to A's supporters, was to implement the 1.5 percent increase (from 4 percent to 5.5 percent) only on retail sales and only so the state would not go bankrupt from the cost of reimbursing local governments.

Walls says two things could happen to that intention, both of them bad. Either the legislature could get caught up in the language of its own resolution and find that it has created a value added tax, under which products are taxed all the way from raw

mike morrow's trivia

by Mike Morrow

Many people laugh at the heroines of Gothic novels. They say the authors make their heroines too perfect, too beautiful. This is precisely what makes them heroines. Face it, the authors can't use just anybody in lime green stretch pants off the streets. Oh no, it takes a special breed of woman. Here is a quiz given to all applicants which they must pass before they can even think about being a Gothic heroine.

1. My name is:
 - a. Wilma
 - b. Alice
 - c. Ralph (you've got the wrong test)
 - d. Princess Alicia Veronique
2. Last night I:
 - a. did my nails
 - b. burped my Tupperware

- c. cleaned the house
- d. was kidnapped, ravished and forced to start a new life across the sea with a dark, mysterious man.

3. I live:
 - a. in a small apartment
 - b. in the suburbs
 - c. from paycheck to paycheck
 - d. in a dark, mysterious castle on a cliff called Windrock Manor

4. My husband's nickname for me is:
 - a. dear
 - b. hey you
 - c. honey
 - d. my precious raven haired love slave

5. My eyes:
 - a. cross at will
 - b. are blue
 - c. don't match

- d. flash brilliantly when I'm angry
6. I was born:
 - a. in a taxi
 - b. prematurely
 - c. breech
 - d. to impoverished nobility

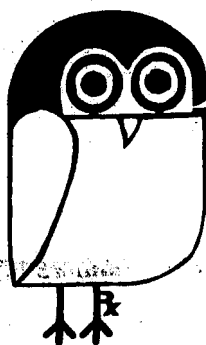

7. For fun I:
 - a. bowl
 - b. eat
 - c. make prank phone calls
 - d. try to escape from Windrock Manor to return to my homeland

Hopefully you know the correct answers in each case, if not you're in worse trouble than I thought. But just in case, the correct answer in each case was the last one. Here is the score chart.

0-1 oink oink
2-3 you will never be kidnapped by a dark, mysterious man.
4-5 cheater

6-7 let's be realistic, if you were that good you wouldn't be wasting your time on this dumb quiz, now would you?

editor's note

Proposal A as it appears on the ballot:
"Proposal to reduce property taxes, reduce city income taxes, limit growth of property tax revenues, return additional sales tax to local governments and schools and give state lottery profits to school-aid fund."

This proposed amendment would:

1. Reduce by 50 percent homestead property taxes used for operating schools and local governments. The reduction would be limited to $1,400 in 1981 and changed yearly as home values change.
2. Reduce by 50 percent local individual income taxes on first $40,000 of taxable income.
3. Make the state return to local governments all funds lost by above reductions.
4. Limit yearly property tax revenue growth to 6 percent by property type (i.e. commercial or residential) unless raised by local voters.
5. Raise sales tax from 4 percent to 5.5 percent. Revenues generated must be returned to local governments and schools.
6. Let farms and forests be assessed to use value.
7. Give state lottery profits to school-aid fund.

Should this amendment be adopted?

This Proposal A has me thoroughly confused. Nobody I talk to seems to like it, although many people claim, because it's better than nothing, they are voting for it.

On the face, if you read the proposal, it looks like a great tax cut, cutting property taxes by 50 percent. But those that oppose the measure tell us to beware of the increased sales tax, while tossing around complex terms like value added and 6 percent ceiling.

Is the State trying to pull a fast one on us? Will this so-called tax cut end up like the Headlee, we enthusiastically voted in in 1978? Is it a tax shift, rather than a tax cut?

These questions and many others just like them combine to make the average voter very confused. We are supposed to go to the polls May 19, and after considerable study, make an intelligent decision on what to do with Proposal A.

Well I've studied and studied, and still can't figure out what's best. Better luck to you people.

Next month we again go to the polls, this time to vote on increased operational millage to run Clarkston schools. School campaign strategists are already pondering the big question -- how to get the millage passed.

Well I have a suggestion that I feel should have been implemented long ago. Clarkston Schools, on the whole, desparately lacks a good public relations effort. Good students don't get recognized enough. Nor do good teachers.

Although not without their problems, Brandon Schools is a good example as a school that does a good job of recognizing outstanding accomplishments. Each week they flood our Ortonville newsroom with articles about school events, students and teachers.

Waterford Our Lady of the Lakes does the same. Each week we get several press releases from the school principal.

Now, I'm not suggesting Clarkston Schools go out and spend lots of money to hire a public relations man. But I am suggesting, that some of the administrators here, could help along future millage proposal quite significantly if they were to utilize their community newspapers for other things besides the honor roll.

Mike Wilcox

guest commentary

From the Office of Rep. William S. Broomfield

During the first 100 days of his Administration, the President twice appeared before a joint session of Congress to stress that the fundamental nature of the economy is a mess. What we need, he said, is less government and less government spending.

I agree and support his effort to restore our economy to its former vigor.

Michigan especially has felt the debilitating effects of our troubled economy. Our unemployment rate is nearly twice the national average.

Because of high unemployment, the impact of ruinous, double digit inflation, high interest rates, and many business failures is much greater than in some other areas of the country.

Recent attention has been focused on the debate in the Congress over the First Budget Resolution, and rightly so for that is the first major hurdle. But it provides only a guide and is not binding.

The binding budget with a fixed spending ceiling and revenue floor will not be acted upon until September.

In between these two budgets the real nuts-and-bolts fights will occur over actual spending authorized for the various federal programs and the funds actually appropriated.

During this period, we who support the President's efforts, will take on the real fight to cut back federal spending as the President outlined in his Economic Recovery Program; to consolidate the many federal programs into larger, more efficient, and more needs-oriented block grants; and to pass the President's proposal for a three-year cut in personal tax rates and an accelerated capital depreciation for businesses.

The President's Economic Recovery Program is the most important economic initiative since the 1930's. Moreover, the adoption of his program is essential for our economic recovery.

To The Editor:

On May 19 the electors of this State are being asked to vote on a so-called tax-cut proposal. It is my opinion that Proposal A is definitely not a tax cut. It is a Tax Shift and eventually will result in a Tax Increase.

Overall tax relief is absolutely essential for the citizens in the State of Michigan. Something must be done to grant property tax relief. Proposal A is definitely not the answer. Proposal A will not limit the continued growth in State revenues or expenditures. Proposal A will increase the power of a State government which has continually failed to recognize the cries of the people for relief.

During a time when our State is facing a deplorable employment and business climate, Proposal A offers no relief to businesses. Proposal A will not help generate jobs nor expand our overall State economy. It will increase the numbers of businesses closing and moving out of the State.

Proposal A does offer some property tax relief to home-owners, but it does nothing to change the assessment process nor to limit the rapidly escalating assessed values of our area. Proposal A creates many more questions than it answers. The Legislature has already discussed limiting the size of a homestead and redefining operating millages, which would reduce the amount of exemption available. They have discussed a sales tax on services. Does this sound like a State government interested in offering meaningful tax relief?

Proposal A will grant some relief on city income tax. However, this will result in all of the tax payers in the State contributing to the support of cities whether we live or work there or not. Sales tax is charged to all of us and sales tax receipts will be used to reimburse the cities whose tax revenues are reduced.

I believe Proposal A should be soundly defeated. No one can afford to stay home on May 19. Maybe the Governor and Legislature will get the message if the voters turn out in record numbers and vote No.

Sincerely,
Collin W. Walls

Oil Recycling Begins

Oakland County municipalities and volunteer groups will be meeting on May 13 to organize a county-wide volunteer used oil recycling program. Sponsored by the Oakland County Cooperative Extension Service, the program aims at encouraging do-it-yourself oil changers to bring their used oil to local businesses who are participating in the program.

Wayne Nierman, County Extension Director, states that the Oakland County program is part of a statewide effort to recycle used oil and to protect the environment from unsafe methods of used oil disposal.

The meeting will be held on Wednesday, May 13, from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m. in Conference Room 105, County Executive Building, 1200 North Telegraph Road, Pontiac, Michigan. The public is invited to attend.

For additional information, contact the Oakland County Cooperative Extension Office, phone 858-0880.

Report Cards Due

Clarkston Senior High School progress reports will be given directly to students to save mailing costs (to be hand carried home). Parents are encouraged to ask for the reports as all students will be evaluated by their individual teachers. Look for them on the 13th of May.

Bob Jones to Speak

Dr. Bob Jones, one of America's best-known Fundamental preachers of Gospel, will be the guest speaker at the Dixie Baptist Church, 5855 Dixie Highway, Clarkston on May 31 at 10:00 a.m. and 6:00 p.m. He will also be speaking Friday, May 29, at 7:00 p.m. at Springfield Christian Academy.

Dr. Jones is chancellor of Bob Jones University. In October 1978, on the 100th anniversary of Fundamentalism, the Greenville, South Carolina, educational institution was recognized by 2,000 persons attending the fifth annual Congress on Fundamentalism at Tabernacle Baptist Church in Virginia Beach, Virginia, for "its contribution for more than 50 years to Fundamental Christianity." The Congress states that "pulpits of most of the Fundamental churches throughout America are filled with BJU graduates." The Congress also presented Dr. Jones the award of "Mr. Fundamentalist."

Film at Pentecostal Revival

On Saturday, May 16, at 7:30 p.m. "The Road to Armageddon" a film featuring David Wilkerson (author of "The Cross and the Switchblade"), will be presented. It will be shown at the Pentecostal Revival Church, 3060 Seymour Lake Road, Ortonville.

No admission will be charged. Everyone is welcome.

WHAT NAME SHOULD A WIDOW USE?

A widow, until she remarries, should keep her husband's name. She should be addressed not as Mrs. Margaret Jones, but as Mrs. Joseph Jones.

If she were to remarry, she would have the option of using her first husband's name as a middle name or of dropping his name and using her own maiden name. If she'd been married a long time and if she had children, she would undoubtedly keep the name of the man with whom she spent many years and which identified her with her children.

Emily Post's Etiquette was and still is a cornerstone of proper behavior. It contains valuable information on proper behavior in most facets of today's life, including death and funerals. We will be glad to explain or elaborate on these proper behaviors as they fit our local scene. Call or stop by.

Sports Car Racing Begins

Waterford Hills will kick off its 23rd season of sports car racing this weekend.

More than 125 sports cars, sedans and formula cars are expected to be on hand Saturday and Sunday for the season's first event. They will be competing on the Waterford Hills sports car course, a 1½-mile circuit that bounds up and down hills and through 13 right and left turns.

Action starts at 10 a.m. Saturday, with practice and qualifying sessions. Saturday's schedule features seven races, starting at 1:30 p.m. Ten races are planned for Sunday, starting at 11:30 a.m.

This weekend's events will be the first competition for a group of more than 30 novices who attended the Waterford Hills competition driving school last month. They will be competing with Waterford's troop of seasoned race veterans for the same goal: the checkered flag.

Travel Club to Meet

Independence Parks and Recreation will be having a Travel Club Meeting on May 21, at 7:00 p.m. The meeting will take place at the Independence Senior Citizen Center. Independence Wrestles with Flood of Water Issues

by Dawson Bell

Independence Township is presently in the process of seeking a new engineering firm and if last week's township board agenda is a harbinger of things to come they better not waste any time.

The board was literally swept away in a "flood" of water related reviews, requests and controversies that show every indication of requiring engineering services for resolution.

The first item which came to the board's attention was a final preliminary plat review for Pine Bay Estates, a residential development north of I-75 between Allen Road and M-15.

Jim Scharl, a representative of Kieft Engineering, the firm handling the development plans, petitioned the board for approval of the plat which had received tentative sanction in October of 1980. The subdivision is laid out to accommodate 93 homes on lots sized at a minimum of 15,000 square feet.

But the issue the board became hung up on was the development's impact on water runoff from the site. Under the plans submitted by Kieft, runoff will be handled through three ponds on the property, two created by the developer and one presently extant. Exiting the site the water will be channeled under I-75 and into the Clinton River north of the village mill ponds.

Scharl claimed his review, the review of the township's engineers and the Oakland County Drain Commission had all indicated the development would not adversely effect water discharge.

"The whole area is draining there now anyway," he said. "(The development) won't change that at all."

But Scharl was challenged by several members of Tuesday's audience who said a similar drainage plan for Deer Lake Farms had resulted in excessive sedimentation into the upper Mill Pond. That question has been the subject of a study conducted by engineers retained by the Village of Clarkston.

The Independence Board, however, was not willing to tie the two issues together and with the suggestion that the village have their engineers examine the construction plans the final preliminary plat for Pine Bay Estates was approved. Trustee Larry Kozma cast the only dissenting vote.

Water continued to dominate discussion though as the board considered requests from the Clinton River Environmental workers to commission a hydrological study of the Clinton River headwaters, the area proposed for mining development by the Edward C. Levy Company.

Neil Wallace told the board he expected the Levy Company to shortcircuit its application to the State Department of Natural Resources (DNR) and return to the township. The move he said was anticipated because the DNR was unwilling to approve a project that had not been accepted locally.

He suggested the board prepare themselves for that eventuality by hiring hydraulic engineer, Ernest F. Brater, to examine some of the claims made in a study commissioned by the company.

"I think the township's success with major projects in the past has been because they were well prepared," he said. The Brater study would be designed to evaluate Levy Company claims that water levels in the Clinton River would not be affected by the mining activity.

The board concurred that Brater should be approached but did not act to fund the study until its necessity and scope could be determined.

The discussion then moved into the broad sphere of land use and its relationship to the watershed. Ruth Basinger, Clarkston Village Council representative on the Clinton River Watershed Council, introduced to the board the concept of a master stormwater drainage plan.

Such a plan, she said, would allow the township to adapt development plans to "existing water, and not try to adapt the water to the development." She called natural drainage mechanisms the cheapest and best way of controlling stormwater runoff.

The plan would be part of the watershed council's project SMART (Stormwater Management Assessment, Review and Training) which is presently underway throughout the Clinton River watershed. Basinger said West Bloomfield and Oakland Townships have already had the reports conducted.

The board seemed to agree that water studies were necessary, but was hesitant to commit on funding. Supervisor James Smith suggested the Brater report and the stormwater study might be incorporated.

No action is likely to be taken on a broad base until the township completes the process of selecting an engineering firm.

Because of dissatisfaction with the present firm, Johnson and Anderson, a committee of township officials have been soliciting bids. As of last Tuesday four had been received, among them one from Johnson and Anderson.

Liggett Elected to POAM Board

Deputy Larry Liggett of the Oakland County Sheriff's Department was elected to a full term on the Police Officers Association of Michigan (POAM) Executive Board at the organization's annual Delegates Meeting, held May 5 at the Lansing Civic Center.

The POAM is the state's largest labor union of law enforcement personnel with some 8,000 members in more than 100 different bargaining units.

Appointed to the 15-member Executive Board last August, Liggett has spent 12 years in law enforcement. He joined the Sheriff's Department in 1976 after having served on the Taylor and Brandon Township police departments.

In addition to his duties with the state-wide union, Liggett is currently president of the Oakland County Deputy Sheriff's Association.

He and his wife, Charlene, reside in Clarkston with their two sons, Larry Junior and Charles.

Clarkston Elementary's Ruth Webb battles with a tough one.

Two 5th Graders Emerge as Spelling Champions

The Clarkston Board of Education building was the scene of a three-hour showdown last Wednesday as thirty-five 5th and 6th graders met in the finals of the 1981 Clarkston Schools Spelling Contest.

Six contestants and one alternate from each of the district's five elementary schools all winners of class and building competitions, met in the finals.

Kelly Parker, of North Sashabaw Elementary, emerged as champion after correctly spelling "envisage". She outlasted runner-up Kathy Garascia from Bailey Lake. Both girls will receive an inscribed edition of Webster's Collegiate Dictionary.

The judges panel

VOTE NO

Last November the electors of this area spoke loud and clear that you wanted a TAX CUT. Proposal A IS NOT a tax cut. It is a TAX SHIFT and, in all probability, really an overall tax cut. Proposal A does limit the growth of revenues to local units of government. It DOES NOT limit the revenues or continued expenditures of the State while it limits the local units of government.

The Constitution currently requires a sales tax on retailers at the rate of 4 percent. Proposal A will add the language that "the Legislature shall impose additional sales and use taxes at the rate of 1.5 percent on the sale or use of tangible personal property." The result of this language could be a sales tax applied through each step of the manufacturing process from raw product to you, the ultimate consumer. This value added tax could be compounded far beyond 1.5 percent.

The State is telling us that this proposal is to simplify the taxing system. The exact opposite is true. This Proposal is very, very complex. It leaves the major decisions not to you, the voter, but to the Legislature and Governor.

The Legislature has already discussed limiting the size of a homestead and redefining operating millage, which would reduce the amount of exemption available. They have discussed a sales tax on services. Does this sound like a State government interested in offering meaningful tax relief?

I believe Proposal A should be soundly defeated. Something must be done to offer meaningful tax relief. Proposal A is not the answer. If passed, Proposal A will result in an eventual tax increase even though it is purported to be a tax cut. Proposal A will expand the power and authority of the State while it limits local units of government which are closest to the electors.

We cannot afford to stay home on May 19. We should go to the polls in record numbers and vote NO.

150 Clarkston High School students, members of Gary Nustad's social studies classes took part in "Sun-Day 81" last Friday, working to upgrade the school grounds.

The Sun-Day program was begun four years ago by Nustad in conjunction with the national, Carter presidency backed, solar energy day. The Clarkston event quickly became a sun and earth day as students planted grass, trees and flowers and in general tried to improve the appearance of their campus.

This year the work included the high school's three courtyards, the building's outside landscape and a clean-up of nearby playing fields. Area merchants, Bordines, Ritters, the Village Bakery, Coach's Corner, Rudy's Market and Anderson Peat Company, all donated materials.

Machus Aiming for July Opening

An official of the Birmingham-based Machus Restaurant Corporation said last week the company expected to sign a lease "any day" on the vacant restaurant property, formerly Jacob Petty's, in the Clarkston Mills Mall.

Machus has been in negotiation with mall owners Forrest Milzow, Edward Adler and Dr. Gary Welch for months since the restaurant closed in January. But as of last Friday Machus vice-president, Alan Wood, said no agreement had been reached.

He said though he expected any remaining difficulties to be worked out shortly at which time the plans for opening for a Clarkston Machus will proceed.

Wood said the earliest he could envision the restaurant opening for business was "mid to latter July."

Beach Pass Price Hike

Sunbathers and swimmers taking their recreation at the Independence Township owned Deer Lake Beach will be paying a little more for their pleasure this year. The rate schedule approved by the township board last Tuesday set charges of $10.50 for individuals, $14 for couples, and $16.50 for families.

Last year's passes went for $12 with no provision for number of users.

But director of parks and recreation, Tim Doyle, had asked the board for some kind of increase to offset the cost of operating and maintaining the beach, which is for Independence Township residents and their guests only.

The budget for 1981-82 approved by the board had tentatively set the rate at $15 across the board. Doyle suggested a consideration of graduated prices. An increase of some sort was necessary, he said, to get the facility's revenue closer to its expenditures.

But Doyle's recommendation was not met with complete support on the board level. Trustee Dale Stuart said, "I very strongly support keeping (the passes) at $12. I do not think that there is justified reason for increasing those passes...we're not providing any new facilities or services."

"Any one of these (considered) rate increases...decreases the use of the beach," he said.

Supervisor James Smith took the opposite tack. He pointed to the rising expense of operating the beach even at its present level, providing lifeguards, maintaining the fencing, etc. The rest of the board agreed.

The passes are expected to generate over $16,000 in revenue based on the number of passholders (763) from last year.

Seniors are eligible for discounted passes of $4.00 or $1.00 for members of the Independence senior center.

Township Head Quits

Independence Township Planning and Building Director, Tim Palulian, resigned last week. In a letter tendered to supervisor James B. Smith, Palulian indicated he will leave the office he has held since 1976 to pursue career opportunities in the private sector. The resignation will take effect May 29.

Palulian said he would be parting on amicable terms and with some regret but that he had always felt the government job was not, for him, a permanent position.

Palulian came to Independence in 1973 as the township's zoning enforcement officer. He became assistant building head and in 1976, when the township planner left, took over that position. In 1977 the two departments were merged and Palulian became the head of both planning and building.

His departure will leave the township in in the unenviable position of trying to deal with what is, in effect, two vacancies on a budget designed for only one salary. Township Clerk, Chris Rose, said he expected action on the impending vacancy "post haste".

Springfield Mother Still Missing

34-Year-Old Springfield Township mother of four, Cherie Lynn Albertson, is still missing this week, nine days after she was seen leaving the Shamrock Bar and Grill in Utica presumably to hitchhike home.

The Oakland County Sheriff's Department is treating Mrs. Albertson's disappearance as suspicious, although Deputy Kenn Hurst said Monday that the week long investigation had turned up no evidence of foul play.

"We don't know what happened," said Hurst. "She could have just walked away, but mothers don't usually walk away from their children."

Mrs. Albertson is described as 5'2" tall, 115 pounds, blue eyes with neck length brown curly hair. She was wearing a light brown suede jacket, dark blue slacks and beige sandals on the night she disappeared.

Mrs. Albertson is thought to have left Utica at approximately 2 a.m. on Saturday, May 2. She reportedly told a friend she was going to hitchhike home, a distance from Utica of more than 25 miles via M-59 and I-75.

Anyone with information on Mrs. Albertson is requested to call the Oakland County Sheriff's Department at 858-4978 or the Utica Police Department at 731-2345.

Local Officials Dubious of Proposal A Benefits

material to consumer. Or the economy could improve and the 1.5 percent jump in sales tax (even without value added) would provide the state with more revenues than they had before.

Of course, that is not likely to happen Walls points out if the business climate remains lousy, which he thinks it will as long as the legislature is so reluctant to provide "real" tax relief.

"I think the governor and the legislature are scared to death of a real tax cut because they don't know where to cut their programs," he says.

Supporters of Proposal A claim the state will not stand to gain by an upswing in economic activity anyway because one of the provisions of the proposal requires any extra revenue generated by the sales tax be transformed into further property tax breaks.

Nevertheless, some of the ramifications of the constitutional amendment and the legislation tied to it remain baffling and that is just what Walls, and others who seek simple tax relief, object to.

Dave Sherrill, Independence Township Assessor, resents having his office used by the legislature for political gamesmanship.

"These affidavits are coming in every day now and piling up in the corner and I haven't heard a word from Lansing or anywhere else about what I should do with them," he says.

Sherrill agrees with those who have contended the affidavits are designed more for promoting the tax proposal than they are for easing implementation.

Implementation looks to be no easy matter regardless of how many mailings are conducted. Collin Walls says, "I figure we'll have to make 72 different computations to make sure we don't go over the 6 percent ceiling."

That prospect also concerns Sherrill. "I was hoping for a simple proposal which would have reduced assessments; this is anything but simple."

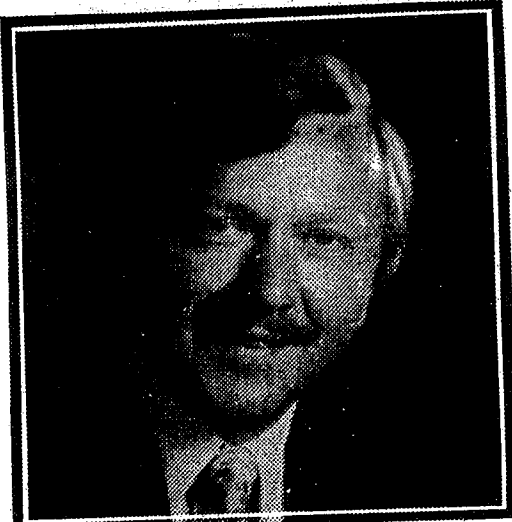

Despite their concern most local officials seem prepared to deal with the passage of Proposal A.

Independence Township did some last minute budget paring in anticipation of losses from the 6 percent ceiling. The fire department, which relies heavily on voted operational millage, was hardest hit.

And the Clarkston School Board, still unsure of how much revenue they stand to lose to the proposal, hedged their millage bets by adopting two prospective ballots for June 8 -- one, of 3.0 mills if A fails, and one of 6.0 mills if A passes.

No one seems willing to bet on the outcome of Proposal A at this point despite polls which indicate those in favor outnumber its critics. It is still carrying a slight edge among voters. The large number of undecided and the even imponderable question of how many will turn out at all make predictions risky.

If you, however, are one of the undecided with an inclination to find out more about the proposal from some people who have studied it show up for the GOP club debate at the Clarkston Junior High School cafeteria on the night before the election, Monday, May 18, at 8 p.m. Doug Roberts, the deputy director of the State's Department of Management and Budget, along with revenue tax analyst, Bob Kline, will present the pros. Ed Meissner, of the North Oakland Michigan Education Association, will speak against the proposal.

Proposal A - Pros and Cons

Backers Say It Helps Those Most in Need of Help

As has been the case with a whole series of property tax cuts, shifts and suggestions put before Michigan voters in recent years, Proposal A is loaded with implications that are impossible to quantify before the election. What follows is the bare facts as they have been presented so far.

Proposal A is an amendment to the constitution of the State of Michigan which

- Provide a 50 percent reduction in city income taxes up to $100 per half percent.
- Cap property tax revenue growth 6 percent per year by class unless more is approved by voters.
- Increase the sales tax from 4 percent to 5.5 percent.
- Apply to principal homestead and homestead farm property.
- Not limit assessments, only the revenue generated under the property tax.
- Change the language governing the sales tax and possibly allow for the implementation of a value added tax.

Supporters of Proposal A say it will effectively address the need for property tax relief in the areas it is needed most without destroying the ability of state and local governments to provide necessary services. It is not purported to be an across the board reduction of taxes, nor will it provide massive relief even for those who will benefit most.

But it will, backers say, substantially ease the tax burden for homeowners and farmers, maintain services and cap future increases for all classes of property.

Opponents claim the plan is merely a tax shift and could quickly become a tax increase. They say it will not stimulate business growth (business and personal property are not covered under A) and will in some ways hamper economic recovery.

The increases sales tax it is suggested will be especially hard on the automotive industry, adding more than $100 to the purchase price of a new car in the state.

They say that when ineligible residential and farm property, along with commercial and industrial property, is left out only 25 percent of the current tax roll will be affected by Proposal A.

The individual effects of Proposal A would have to be computed personally, based on property held, how it is classed, the operating millage in the area, income and a host of other variables.

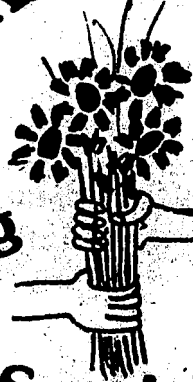

The following chart was drawn up by Citizens for a Tax Cut Now, a group which favors the proposal. To estimate your savings under Proposal A find your approximate income and property tax, draw a line through each on the chart. Where they meet gives a rough savings figure.

According to its formulators, the chart includes a sales tax and state property tax credit losses, but does not include city income tax gains or account for the 6 percent growth cap on property tax revenue growth.

Income	Annual Property Tax Bill
	$600	$900	$1200	$1800	$2400	$3000
	Estimated Tax Saving
$10,000	$60	$162	$216	$324	$462	$930
$15,000	$142	$169	$223	$331	$439	$832
$20,000	$165	$180	$231	$339	$447	$735

List of Lighting Donations Grows

The Clarkston Lighting Fund Committee held their first meeting in a month recently and again resolved to continue their drive to raise money for a new lighting system at the high school football field despite slower than expected progress towards their $60,000 goal.

The committee reports almost daily contributions are still coming in and remain confident the project can be completed before school begins in the fall.

Cash contributions, benefits and profits from the group's light bulb sales topped $28,000 last week. The cash on hand required to begin construction is estimated at around $40,000. Other expenses are being met through the donation of time and labor from area contractors.

NEW!

A Money Market Certificate at Michigan National

means interest on checking with NO MINIMUM BALANCE!

Right now when you buy or renew a money market certificate from Michigan National Corporation Banks you qualify for a no service charge Michigan Interest Checking™ account with free check storage.

That means you'll earn 5-1/4% annual interest on your checking funds and pay no service charge no matter what your balance. PLUS each month we can automatically transfer the interest from your certificate to your checking account where it is compounded continuously to earn extra interest on your interest.

Come into any office of a Michigan National Corporation Bank to open your accounts. You'll earn the highest rate possible on money market certificates and earn interest on your checking funds with no minimum balance requirement.

The newest way Michigan National gives you more money for your money.

Michigan National Bank - Mid Michigan

CLARKSTON OFFICE

A minimum $10,000 deposit is required. Federal regulations require a substantial interest penalty for early withdrawal and prohibit the compounding of interest on these certificates.

Citizens for Millage Host Meetings

The citizen's group heading up a June 8 millage drive for the Clarkston Schools is planning two informational meetings on the proposal, Wednesday, June 20 and Wednesday, June 27.

The first meeting will be held at Clarkston

Junior High, 6300 Church, at 8 p.m. The following Wednesday the presentation will take place at Sashabaw Junior High, 5565 Pine Knob Road at 7:30 p.m.

Both sessions are intended to inform voters on the school's millage request (either 3.0 or 6.0 mills depending on the outcome of the special statewide tax ballot of May 19). Jeanne Molzon, who is heading the drive, said each meeting would be addressed by at least one member of the citizen's campaign and one school board member.

The schools are seeking the additional millage to offset an anticipated budget deficit for 1981-82 of nearly $1 million.

Citizens Awards Ceremony Postponed

Due to a conflict in scheduling, the Civitan/Jaycee sponsored Michigan Week Awards Ceremony slated for May 28 at Spring Lake Country Club has been postponed. Chris Rose, spokesman for the sponsoring parties, said a last minute cancellation from the ceremony speaker and other complications prompted the delay. No new date has been set. For information, call 625-5948 or 625-3250.

forecast

by Robert C. Davis

The "greening of Michigan" occurred during April, with above normal rainfalls being recorded all across southeastern Michigan. Precipitation totals from my volunteer network for the month of April are as follows (with available calendar year totals to date in parentheses):

Elizabeth Lake/Waterford Township - 5.15" (11.27")

Oxbow Lake/White Lake Township - 4.47" (9.72")

Sullivan Lake/Tyrone Township - 4.34" (9.58")

Bishop Airport/Flint - 4.32" (7.44")

Eastern Clarkston - 4.32" (9.97")

Johnson and Anderson, Inc./Waterford Township - 4.23"

Northern Clarkston - 4.14" (8.65")

Fenton - 3.87" (8.41")

St. Clair Shores - 3.75" (8.05")

Davison - 3.70"

Detroit Metropolitan Airport - 3.44" (8.53")

Although precipitation was more than 1 inch above normal in the Clarkston area, we still did receive plenty of sunshine during April. The eastern Clarkston station recorded 16 days during the month with mostly sunny skies.

Snowfall during April was below normal, with the eastern Clarkston station reporting only 0.1 of an inch during the month. This is 2.1 inches below normal. Hopefully we have finally seen the end of the snowfall season. The total snowfall recorded at the eastern Clarkston station for the 1980-81 winter season was 56.4 inches, which is 11 inches above normal.

Temperatures were above normal across southeastern Michigan, with the Clarkston area reporting a mean temperature of 49.2 degrees. This is 3.0 degrees above normal, and marked the third consecutive month that temperatures have been above normal. Temperatures ranged from a low of 19 degrees on the 21st to a high of 73 degrees on the 17th and 18th. Daily high temperatures were in the 60's on 13 days and in the 70's on 5 days during April. For all of my gardening friends, the average date (50 percent chance) of our last spring frost occurs on May 9 in this area, but there is still a 10 percent chance of frost as late as May 24.

Wolves Win Some, Lose Some

Roy "Pop" Warner's baseball Wolves had an up and down time of it in five games last week, winning two and losing three. Two of the losses were non-league encounters however and the Wolves remained tied for the Greater Oakland Activities League (GOAL) lead at week's end.

On Monday Greg Lane's grand slam home run paved the way to a 13-3 trouncing of Milford. Ron Feneley picked up the win and also contributed with two hits. But the following day the Wolves were handcuffed by Rochester Adams hurler, Jim Zeubkus, who gave up only seven hits and struck out ten while handing Clarkston its second defeat of the season, 7-4.

Clarkston bounced back Wednesday, defeating Oxford 7-3. Only to fall the next day to Lake Orion in the two team's second meeting of the year, 7-4. That game also knotted the standings in the league race between the two teams at four wins and one loss apiece.

Pitching continued to plague the Wolves as they dropped their third game of the week on Saturday, falling to Birmingham Groves 13-3.

Clarkston had four games left in regular season play entering this week.

Softballers Climbing Win 3 in a Row

The Clarkston High School Softball team continued to improve last week, posting wins over Milford, Rochester, Rochester Adams and Lake Orion.

On Monday Carla Teare's troops handed Milford its second loss of the season as Becky Buhl drove in three runs with a bases loaded triple and Lisa Forsyth pitched flawless relief enroute to a 3-2 win.

Forsyth was the winning pitcher in three other games played last week too as the Wolves topped Rochester, 12-4, and Rochester Adams, 4-0, then beat Lake Orion 18-1.

The four wins one loss week improved their record from 5-5 to 9-6. They are 3-3 in the Greater Oakland Activities League race.

Dr. Romuald Szymanowski

The Otolaryngologist Is In

A lot of people need an otolaryngologist without ever realizing it. Put another way, a lot of people even go to an ear, nose and throat specialist without realizing he is an otolaryngologist.

But one thing people around here haven't been doing is going to one in Clarkston -- until the arrival of Dr. Romuald T. Szymanowski.

Szymanowski is one of the medical specialists lured to the Clarkston area by Drs. Charles Munk and James O'Neill and since last week he has been practicing in the new Clarkston Professional Plaza.

Szymanowski lends credibility to Munk's claim that he would bring to the Clarkston community some of the medical and dental specialties not previously available here. The doctor's credentials are impressive.

Trained as a specialist at Henry Ford Hospital in Detroit, Szymanowski is both certified by and a fellow of the American Academy of Otolaryngology, a fellow in the American College of Surgeons, former head of resident education at Henry Ford and current clinical staff instructor at the University of Michigan medical school. If that wasn't enough he is also an accomplished amateur photographer.

The move to Clarkston was a major career move for Szymanowski. He says he had long considered "satisfying (his) interest in private practice", but before being approached by O'Neill about the new medical facility in Clarkston had only seen the name on the expressway signs as he drove by on his way up north.

Now Dr. Szymanowski and his wife Patricia, who serves as his medical secretary, are anticipating bringing their residence to Clarkston also.

Life on the move is nothing new for the Szymanowskis however. Before Henry Ford, Romuald Szymanowski had traveled to Ottawa, Canada, where he attended college and met his wife, and, in 1966-67 to Vietnam, where he served as a flight surgeon in the United States Army.

The world has seen a lot of Romuald Szymanowski since he left Erie, Pennsylvania as one of three sons put through college and professional school by working parents. Now Szymanowski is hoping to see a lot of Clarkston.

The Bible According to Mary Fredal

Should We Help the Poor, Fatherless, Widow, Orphan & Stranger?
The new proposed Federal Budget touches programs that feed and care for the poor, widow, fatherless and orphans.

Programs like ADC, Welfare, Social Security,

School Breakfast programs, special work programs, and some Veteran's benefits, etc.
may be cut-back.

The questions are: Do we have an obligation to provide help? Who are the poor? Who is supposed to provide? How long are we to provide?

God directs His people throughout Scripture to feed, protect, defend, house and see that care is provided for the poor, needy, fatherless, widow and stranger in our land.
PS. 82:3, 4; Pr. 31:9, De. 27:19; Ze 7:10; Is. 1:17.
God instructed His people to leave some fruit in their fields and vineyards for the needy. Le. 19:9, 10, 23:22. After six years they were not to plant or work their fields and vineyards, but to let them rest the seventh year and allow the poor, stranger, widow and orphan harvest what grew up. Ex. 23:11.

God also had His people bring their foot tithes together every third year and allow the priestly tribe, widows, orphans, fatherless and strangers to come and eat until they were satisfied, and God blessed His people in all they did. De. 14:29.

We are to open our hands wide to the poor and lend them what is sufficient for their needs. De. 15:7-10, 10:18. God tells us not to be sad or give grudgingly, for God loves a cheerful giver, and will bless us in all we set ourselves to do. He which sows bountifully will reap bountifully in return. 2 Co. 9:6, 7.

God tells us whoever has pity on the poor gives to God when he gives to the poor. If we have a generous eye in giving we will be blessed, for he that gives to the poor shall not lack. Pr. 19:17, 22:9, 28:27; Lk. 14:13, 14.

The poor are those unable to find enough honest work to support themselves because of: age, completely disabling infirmities (eg:
mental retardation, physical deformity),
children who are orphaned or fatherless,
those who are strangers not settled yet), those who are working to the best of their ability but cannot find enough honest work to meet their basic needs and need to be supplemented.

If we choose we can include others as poor and needy. In addition to the direction already given in God's Word, we can develop other means of help, jobs or training. People able to work who receive help meant for those unable, should be stopped.

God tells us, every person who is able to work is supposed to provide for himself, and if they will not work, neither should they eat. 2 Th. 3:10. A man is to provide for his own relations, family and especially those of his own house. If he will not, then he has denied the faith, and is worse than an un-believer. 1 Th. 5:4-8. We, who are able, are told to care for the widows and poor of our own families, to reverence and help our parents when they are old, and to supply the needs of those who are weak and cannot work.

We are reminded that it is more blessed to give than to receive. Ac. 20:35; Ex. 20:12; Mt. 15:4-6. If we give it will be given back to us in good measure and running over; will gifts be given to us, for with the measure we give to others it will be given to us in return. Lk. 6:31-38. In all things, whatever we want people to do to us, we should do to them. Mt. 7:12.

In any area of doubt we live the law of Love. R. 13:8-10. Love the Lord your God with all your heart, soul, mind and strength; and love your neighbor as yourself. Ja. 2:3; Mt. 22:37-40.

Some ask, who is my neighbor? They are the ones we find in need whom we are able to help, wherever we may find them. We can help by letting them know we care about them and love them as God's children thus becoming their friend. We all need friends. And if their material needs are already being met, they may have unmet spiritual or emotional needs which we can help fill.

As a neighbor, we are instructed to be merciful and kind, even, as is possible, extending our help into the future. Lk. 10:27-37. For we give to God Himself as we give to the least of His people. Mt. 25:35-46.

God's law of Love is the fulfilling of all the law and prophets. All we owe to another is to love each other, for Love does not work ill to his neighbor. Ro. 13:8-10.

God tells us the poor will never cease, but will always be with us. Mt. 26:11; De. 15:11. We provide as long as is needed and as long as we are individually able. Then God will wonderfully provide for us.

For with the measure we give to others it will be measured to us again. We will be judged according to the extent of our knowledge of God's will, and to whom much is given, much will be required. Lk. 12:45.

Last night I was gloomy - felt sad for myself
"Oh boredom," I thought, "go see someone else!"
"I'm sick of this work never changing its face
Each day I must vacuum, wash clothes, clean this place.
I cook all the meals, make the beds,
mop the floors,
Help the kids with their homework,
wash their prints off the doors."
Depressed and lethargic, I went to my bed,
With rose-colored thoughts of escape in my head.

Today, as I wake, I know,
sure as can be,
That yesterday's dirt is all waiting for me.
But, oddly, today those old chores
aren't so bad!
The thought of my children makes my heart glad!
I fly through the day with a smile on my face
I find I'm quite fond of this crazy rat race!
Whatever has made such a change in my tune!
Spring came along - not a moment too soon!!

Fun 'n Fitness

Clarkston Elementary is sponsoring a Fun 'n Fitness seal class competition to assist in getting some very much needed gym equipment. The Grand Prize for the winning class is a clown and magic show featuring: "Cornee the Clown"!!

There are four local businesses sponsoring this event: Flower Adventure, C & J Wallpapering, Clarkston Cafe and Country Cords.

Parents can also support this program by saving the "Fun 'n Fitness Proof of Purchase Seal from: Post Cereals, Log Cabin syrup, the end of the Wonder Bread wrapper, Log Cabin pancake and waffle mixes, and the plastic tear strips from Awake or Orange Plus frozen orange juices.

The competition will end on May 22. Send Fun 'n Fitness seals to school with your children or mail them to Clarkston Elementary School.

Choice Plan For Small Home

© By W.D. FARMER

Entrance to this plan leads to large square living room. This provides maximum versatility in furniture placement.

The adjacent country kitchen is planned for excellent eating space for large families and/or guests. There are built-in appliances, generous cabinets and counter-top as well as a laundry area with cabinets above.

Three bedrooms are shown, the master having a private bath with shower or a half bath with dual access to kitchen area. Closets are wide and shown with horizontal sliding doors. Extra storage to attic is accessible from the central hall.

The plan may be built with single or double carport.

The exterior is cottage style with diamond-lite living room windows, plant area at bedroom end and vertical paneling combined with brick.

The plan is Number 147. It includes 1,097 square feet of heated area. All W.D. Farmer plans include special construction details for energy efficiency and are guaranteed to meet FHA and VA requirements. For further information write W.D. Farmer, P.O. Box 49463, Atlanta, Ga. 30359.

Enjoy a WELCOME WAGON® visit in your new home.

Your new home can be "Home Sweet Home" more quickly after a WELCOME WAGON visit.

Tips about our neighborhood. Tips about good places to shop. Useful gifts and invitations you can redeem for more gifts from civic-minded businesses. That's what my visit is all about and it's free.

A WELCOME WAGON call is easy to arrange and is such a special treat. We've been greeting people for over 50 years. Just call me.

Dr. Rumph Says:

DON'T LET ARTHRITIS PAIN

Take the Fun Out of Your Garden

Often the arthritic patient has a poorly functioning nervous system, causing direct or indirect spinal problems. The joints of the body need a strong, normal nerve supply to function properly. When arthritis involves the spinal column or the nervous system, chiropractic helps. Chiropractic is a natural healing science which maintains and restores good health by keeping nerve impulses flowing freely.

How does Chiropractic work?

Electrical change along a nerve membrane is called a nerve impulse. Nerve impulses transmitted along the nerve membranes generate body reactions that control proper body function.

Communication between the brain and the body is transmitted through the spinal cord and then into the individual nerve endings. The spine is composed of 24 bones, which when misaligned, can interfere with the normal flow of power through the body.

Chiropractors are specialists in locating and correcting the abnormal bone misalignment, which eventually affect the body's functions. These are factors that are considered in the case of arthritis.

See your chiropractor when arthritis attacks. Spinal adjustments will have you feeling better soon.

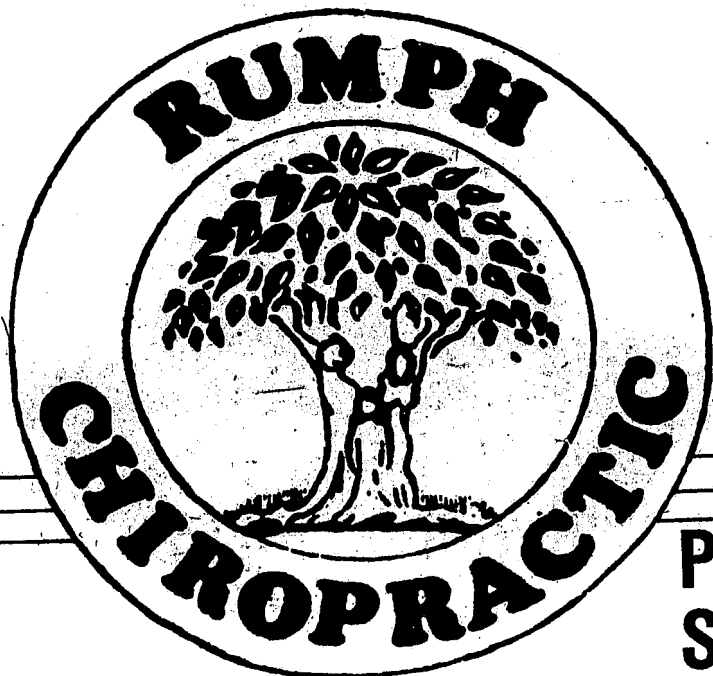

CHIROPRACTIC GETS RESULTS

Have you taken the opportunity to investigate chiropractic for yourself? Too many are still not aware of the tremendous benefit chiropractic care has for their general health. This may be due to lack of knowledge or inaccurate information. Won't you commit yourself to take the time NOW to learn more about this valuable health service? Don't neglect your most valuable asset. Your decision today may affect your quality of life for years to come.
