Springfield Officials Voted Raise

by Mike Wilcox

Electors at the Springfield Township Annual Meeting held last Saturday, treated their full-time board members to a $1200 raise. Part-time trustees were also voted higher paychecks.

The $1200 figure which passed by a margin of 66 to 46, came two hours and ten motions after the subject of salary increases was brought to the floor.

Over 125 residents packed the Springfield Township Hall, to witness what proved to be one of the most interesting annual meetings in years.

Many had come to hear why township officials were requesting raises in the neighborhood of 20 to 23 percent.

Supervisor Collin Walls did not let them down. He passed around a detailed comparison showing that Springfield's three full-time officials (Clerk J. Calvin Walters, Treasurer Patricia Kramer and Walls) were underpaid compared to Brandon, Milford, and Oxford Townships; the three local units of government most resembling Springfield in population.

In short, the Township Board was recommending the following increases:

	Current	Recommended
Supervisor	$20,500	$25,000
Clerk	19,400	23,600
Treasurer	17,600	21,400
2 Trustees	$600 plus $40/meeting	$600 plus $60/meeting

In stating the Township Board's position, Walls said, "We are aware that the state of the economy is bad. We understand that many are unemployed and others are taking concessions."

"Not getting a raise last year (salaries were frozen in 1981, raises had been granted the two previous years) was not the worst thing that ever happened," continued Walls. "But we believe in ourselves and our ability to do a good job."

Members of the audience voiced immediate opposition.

"I'm in business for myself and I am on a 40 percent salary cut. I can't possibly justify this kind of increase," said Ed Salter.

Jack Douglas agreed. "There's a lot of people on fixed incomes, yet our taxes are still rising. I think this is excessive."

And Bob Clark asked the question -- "We have lost Lardens. Systemation may close in June. Two houses have burned down. You are having less business, less housing. Why do you need more money?"

Township officials, weren't without support, however.

"I have got workers making as much as these people, even with their anticipated wage hike," claimed Robert Harding, owner of Clawson Tank. "These workers have no education, no responsibility. They come with a pair of overalls. We could have college graduates that wouldn't take these (township) jobs (because of low pay)."

And township attorney Gary Dove added, "The economic conditions have no bearing on what you pay your township officials. This township is financially viable."

However a motion was made to freeze all wages. It went down to narrow defeat, 54-44.

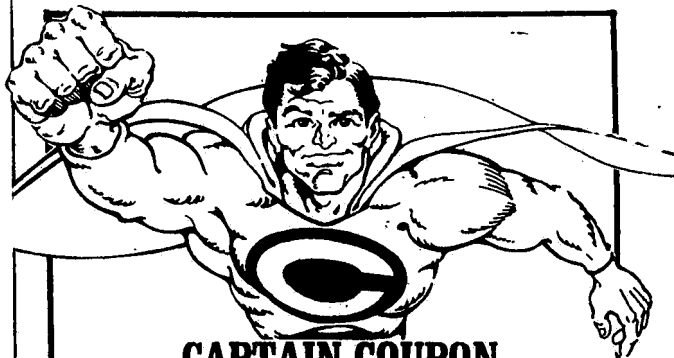

That was the first of ten motions on this issue. Defeated were motions to approve the recommended raises; to give a five percent increase; to give a 15 percent increase; to give a $1200 increase to full-time officials and a $20 a meeting increase to trustees; to give a ten percent increase; to give a 7½ percent increase; to give the supervisor ten percent, clerk nine percent and treasurer eight percent; and to give an eight percent increase.

Finally, winning, was a motion to give full-time officials a $1200 increase and trustees a $10 per meeting raise.

Also in attendance at the meeting was Oakland County Sheriff Johannes Spreen. His mission was to promote the establishment of a "scooter cop" in Springfield.

Spreen's attendance was the result of a meeting between he and Walls. Walls wanted to know what could be done about a noticeable increase of breaking and en-terings, particularly in the Ormond/Shindler/Shaffer and Big Lake areas.

Spreen claimed a savings of $7200 could be chopped off the normal deputy rate, by allowing the deputy to patrol on a motorcycle, rather than in a car.

Springfield's current contract, which specifies 1 1/2 officers to patrol the township, is woefully inadequate in Spreen's eyes.

"I would hope you might add another officer and put him on a motorcycle," he said. "We are talking about somebody who could get involved in the community. He might be like a local chief of police working more closely with you."

He continued, "He would be your community crime patrol officer. He would try to go where burglars were anticipated to be. I'd like to chase the hell out of Springfield Township."

Residents at the meeting agreed crime was a problem and that the township board should explore methods, including Spreen's, to alleviate it.

Electors also approved a $421,575 budget without changes and with very little discussion.

The approximately 125 people in attendance was a modern day annual meeting record for Springfield. Last year was considered great when nearly 60 people attended.

For more information call the Community Education Office, 634-7341.

Family Planning at St. Joe's

St. Joseph Mercy Hospital - Pontiac, will sponsor a two-part class on "Natural Family Planning".

The program, conducted in the hospital Board Room, will be held on Saturday, April 3 and Saturday, May 1, from 10 a.m. to noon.

The classes provide instruction in the use of the Billings Method, a natural means of determining fertility with a very high success rate.

Natural family planning helps couples become aware of their combined fertility potential and eliminates the danger of harmful side effects on the body.

The class is free and offered in cooperation with the Family Life Division of the Archdiocese of Detroit. For more information, call Sharon McClendon, St. Joseph Mercy Hospital at 858-3155.

Antique Show at Keatington

Keatington's Antique Village Antiques Show and Sale will be held April 3 and 4.

The Antique Show will be held in the Yellow Antique Exhibition Building. To get to Keatington Antique Village, take I-75 and exit Joslyn Road north/east 4 miles on Joslyn Road to Joslyn Court. It is north of Pontiac and south of Clarkston in Lake Orion.

Thirty exhibitors will display and sell their antiques.

OES Sponsors Dinner

Joseph C. Bird, Order of the Eastern Star, will be having a roast beef dinner on Sunday, April 4, from 12 to 3 p.m. at the Clarkston Masonic Temple, Clarkston.

AAUW Talks Computers

The Waterford Branch of the American Association of University Women will meet at 7:30 p.m. on Thursday, April 1, at Waterford Mott High School, 1151 Scott Lake Road.

Mr. Al Monetta, a Waterford Mott math and computer teacher, will give a mini-course in the use of computers.

All Waterford-Clarkston area women with a baccalaureate degree or higher are welcome to attend. For further information, call 625-9467.

Asthma Program April 6

"Medications and Asthma" is the topic of the April meeting of the American Lung Association's Family Asthma Program. The program, sponsored in cooperation with Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital, will be held April 6 at 7 p.m. in the hospital auditorium, 50 North Perry Street.

Gary Straffon, Pharmacist, will discuss the role of medications in the treatment and control of asthma. Parents will learn which medications are most effective and some of the common side effects in asthma drugs.

The Family Asthma Program is a free community service of the American Lung Association of Southeastern Michigan (ALASEM). The meetings are held the first Tuesday of the month at 7 p.m. at Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital and six other locations in the tri-county area. For more information on the program, call 961-1697.

Art Openings

Independence Parks & Recreation currently has openings in an art class for children in grades K-3. The name of the class is Explorations in Art. The focus of the class will be on the exploration and discovery of the visual arts. The primary concerns are learning to see, sense, and recall more, becoming more aware of the environment, and learning to express those vital concepts confidently through a variety of methods and materials. The class will start April 20, Tuesday, and run for 6 weeks at Sashabaw Junior High from 4:530 p.m. For more information, call 625-8223.

Park Hosts Oology Hike

Oology, the study of bird eggs, is the subject of a lecture and nature hike on Saturday, April 3 from 2-3:30 p.m. at Independence Oaks County Park.

The lecture and slide show will cover some of the history, legends, and folklore of eggs.

Pre-register by calling Kathleen Dougherty at 858-0903.

PTO to Meet

The North and South Sashabaw P.T.O. will held its General Meeting on March 30. It will be held at Sashabaw Junior High from 7 to 10 p.m. This meeting will include a Talent Show and election of P.T.O. officers. Many of the students will be participating in the Talent Show.

Clinics Feature Express

The Detroit Express soccer team will be giving some professional instruction to anyone interested in playing or coaching soccer. Pre-registration is required. Sign-up at Independence Parks & Recreation. The player clinic will be held April 17 at Bailey Lake Elementary, from 12-3 p.m., while the coaches clinic will take place April 14 at Bailey Lake from 6:30-8:30 p.m. For more information, call Independence Parks & Recreation, at 625-8223.

With

Funeral Director

WHO SHOULD SORT THE DECEASED'S BELONGINGS?

One of the most difficult tasks a recent widow or widower must face is sorting the departed spouse's belongings. Although a will often specifies that some articles should be given to friends and relatives, usually many items remain unmentioned.

It is tempting, in the difficult months following the death of a spouse, to let one's children or friends sort his or her belongings. But this is not advisable for two reasons.

First, one's possessions are important to him or her, and their disposal should be taken care of by someone very close. This insures that any decisions about what to keep and what to give away will be made according to the wishes of the deceased.

Second, sorting the belongings of a lost loved one is an important step in the grieving process for the surviving spouse. By reviewing one last time the material things associated with the deceased, the spouse can fully recognize that he or she is gone, and can accept that.

As funeral directors, we have had a great deal of experience with the process of grief. If you would like to talk with us about it, please call or stop by.

Status Quo Maintained At Independence Annual Meeting

by Brian Brooks
 "We've been in a very fluid situation on the budget this year," said Independence Supervisor James B. Smith Saturday at the annual meeting held in the Township Hall.
 During the meeting a variety of issues were discussed including the Sheriff and Fire Departments, Township Board salaries, yearly budget, solid waste site, senior citizens, home, cable TV contract and M-15 expansion.

"The police fund will actually build this year," said Township Clerk Christopher L. Rose. In fact $59,000 is added to the police fund. Rose assured citizens of Independence Township that most of the money will go toward crime prevention, citizens watch and rising administration costs. Oakland County has contracted each deputy with an additional $4,200, about $2,000 of this is a raise in their salary. According to Rose the extra money spent will be well worth it.
 Last year the Fire Department borrowed

$300,000 from the Water and Sewer Department to update some equipment. Smith commented, "The Fire Department went into this year in heavy debt," basically caused by the loan.

In regards to such decisions as the township board members' salaries and the yearly budget, Rose told the approximately 100 residents, "At this meeting every person has a vote." Rose also commented that the board members do not expect to receive a salary increase. One resident made a motion that all the salaries should remain the same as the previous year and the decision was unanimously passed.

The 1982/83 budget was also approved by a unanimous decision. The following is a list of some general fund expenses in Independence Township for the next year: recreation, $120,000; park, $88,000; cemetery, $44,000, and senior citizens, $28,000. Rose announced that Independence Township only increased its expenses eight percent over the last year.

A controversy in reference to a solid waste site has entailed many meetings over the past two years according to Ted Thomson. Thomson, chairman of the Solid Waste Site Committee, commented, "Nobody really wants a dump in their backyard." The Clarkston Community School property located on Rattalee Lake and Reese Roads is becoming an unofficial dump according to many area residents. A spring cleanup was suggested to stop additional dumping.

The Senior Citizens home is still in the planning process but will probably be located by Deer Lake. Further development of the plan will be discussed at a future date.

The cable TV committee for Independence Township is planning to hold a meeting to discuss the proposed contract on April 7th.

A consultant has been hired to investigate the expansion plan for M-15.

EDITORIAL

I've never been much of a proponent of annual meetings. I've been attending them for at least a half dozen years and not one, until last Saturday's Springfield get-together, was the least bit enlightening.

There are many who say the annual meeting is the last vestige of true Democracy. Last Saturday's meeting certainly would prove to be an able example.

The people spoke...and for the most part they spoke with intelligence and sensibility.

The 20-22 percent raises recommended by the Township Board were way out-of-line in my thinking, and apparently the majority agreed.

The much more reasonable $1200 raise eventually passed, but only after every citizen who wished to speak, had his say.

There was no shouting, no accusations. Everyone basically agreed the Board was doing an OK job. The atmosphere was friendly, despite the disagreement on salaries.

Even Oakland County Sheriff Johannes Spreen was impressed with the affair. He was scheduled to be at several annual meetings, but chose to stay the entire length of the three-hour Springfield meeting so that he could push his "scooter cop".

And despite his verbal harangues against the County Commission, Springfield residents stayed on to hear his proposal. It was far past the time most expected the meeting to last, but they politely listened.

Maybe these annual meetings aren't such a bad idea after all.

Mike Wilcox

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Wilcox,

Thank you for your valuable time and coming to our C.A.T. (Clarkston Academically Talented) and demonstrating how you put The Reminder together. We really appreciated you putting our own paper together, "CATs Gazette", printing and sending it to us. We also appreciate you answering our questions, and being interviewed.

Sincerely,

P.U.N.T. Protests Junk Food

Dear Editor:

Many concerned parents have recently rallied to try to improve the quality of food being offered to Clarkston students. Their primary concern is the sale of questionably nutritious supplemental foods during the lunch period, including Little Debbie Bars, ice cream, peanut butter fudge, potato chips, chocolate milk, and cookies. The introduction of these ala carte items has compelled the group to request a position on the School Board agenda for the April 5 meeting.

When the ala carte items were initiated into the lunch program, Pine Knob teaching staff and later the P.T.O., addressed letters to Mr. Mason, superintendent, to express their concern. At that time, one preselected item from the list could be purchased each day, with no limit on quantity. The teachers and P.T.O. Board had become aware of several children abusing the new policy by purchasing treat items rather than a complete, well-balanced meal. The instruction of the offer-vs.-serve lunch gave young children too many opportunities to choose a nutritionally deficient selection of foods. Behavioral changes, as well as reduced learning capacities, are evident in many children with poor dietary habits.

After stating their concerns, Pine Knob was chosen as a pilot school, where students could purchase all the ala carte items each day, again with no purchase limits. Consequently, the P.T.O. Board responded in a follow-up letter to Mr. Mason, requesting to be on the School Board meeting agenda.

The other P.T.O./P.T.A.'s have been contacted and much support is evidenced throughout the area. As more parents and concerned citizens become aware of the situation, the more supporters have come forward. Petitions are available at several locations in Clarkston: Dr. James O'Neill's office, Dr. Irving Kernis' office, Dr. Charles Munk's office, as well as the local library.

The group has recently been labeled P.U.N.T. - Parents United Nutritionally Together. Their goals in presenting their views to the School Board is to obtain a more stringent regulation regarding the sale of food items during the instructional day, and to limit the opportunities for the students to purchase ala carte items, hopefully having them opt to buy a more nourishing lunch. The group feels that young children have neither the awareness or maturity to make wise dietary choices, and is hopeful that the School Board will provide other means for the lunch program to obtain needed revenues. It may be true that the lunch program requires added money to operate its yearly budget, but P.U.N.T. urges them not to do so at the expense of a student's health. This action appears to be contradictory to a school system striving for an optimal learning environment.

For further information, contact your local elementary PTO/PTA Board. All interested persons are welcome to attend the April 5 meeting of the School Board at the administration office on Clarkston Road at 8 p.m.

New Sterilization Program

Dear Mr. Wilcox,

Your readers might be interested in a program offered by the Michigan Humane Society.

On March 23rd on "Kelly and Company", the director, David Wills, said that a low cost Sterilization Clinic will be set up. A doctor from Purdue University will head the surgical team. Those interested can make small monthly payments of, as little as two dollars. The number to call is 872-SPAY.

TRIVIA

by Mike Morrow

There was a story on the news recently about a dog show. It showed all different breeds of dogs bathed, brushed, and performing to perfection.

In comparison, my dogs look like skid row bums. The closest they come to a brush is when they chew up mine.

No matter how hard I tried, I couldn't imagine them being in a dog show.

First of all, neither one belongs to a particular breed. Between them, they are a mixture of about every known breed. They couldn't possibly win best of breed, only one of breed perhaps, but never best of breed. I can imagine having to fill out the entry blank where it says "check dog's breed": I would have to check every box. To put it nicely, my dogs' ancestors dated a lot.

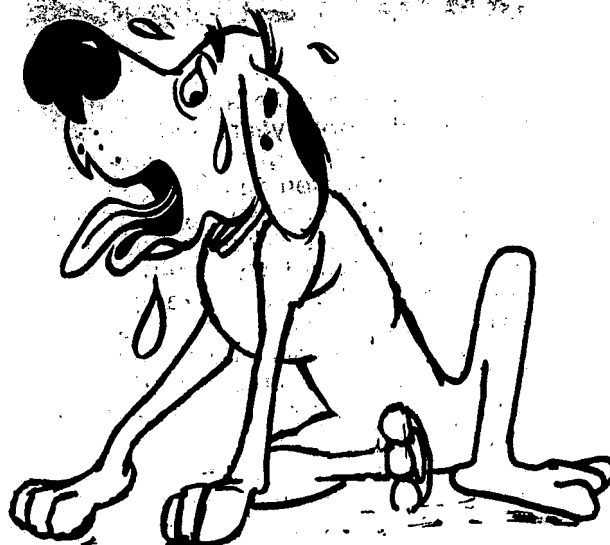

Of course even if I could get them into the show, the competition would wipe them out. My dogs won't even sit still to get gum cut out of their hair, let alone be groomed for hours on end. They would not do well up against dogs who spend two hours a day at the beauty parlor.

Even if for some reason, say heavy sedation, I was able to groom them, they still wouldn't do well with the judges. They are not well behaved, it took me a year to teach them not to bury the mailman every time he walked by.

I can picture it in my mind. All the dogs are in the arena sitting patiently, signing autographs and waiting for their turn before the judges, when suddenly there is an uproar from the back of the room. The sounds of barking, yelping and swearing filter in. The three of us walk in in a tangle of leashes, both dogs hopelessly tangled around my legs and trying to go in separate directions. Stopping dead, they spot the other dogs. In a split second they are across the room dragging me behind them. Snooper, the big dog, thinks other dogs were put on earth for her to beat up so she immediately starts a fight with anyone who will fight back and Bertha, with her weak kidneys, can't stand the excitement and has the room floating in under five minutes. All the while I would be shouting SIT! SIT! (I don't know why I would even try to tell them to sit since the only way I could ever do that is glue their rear ends to the floor.)

watching the dog show on TV, I guess I'm not that upset that I got the dogs who hide garbage under my pillow and dig up the flower borders instead of a dog who has his own agent. After all, who wants a dog who is more talented and better looking than its owner?

SMALL TALK

by Rebecca Roberts

I've been looking around hard lately for some happy people. The only happy ones I've found are a few store clerks. These few seem to have found the secret of a full and happy life.

At least they seem happy. They take my money, smile without blinking, and still smiling, tell me to have a Good Day.

Their smile seems permanently engaged. But never mind. They are smiling.

The rest of us seem to be cultivating what poet Denise Levertov calls "the fine art of unhappiness."

It's as though glumness is in, enthusiasm and gaiety out.

Well, gaiety in the old sense.

What is this attraction to glumness? How did we get to the point where the downward curve of the mouth is more fun than laughing?

Sadness has become recreational, each person putting his/her latest psychological crash against the next. It's sort of like wrist wrestling -- not much action, but a lot of grunting and groaning, with each burst of negativity bringing the opponent down and down.

All other things being equal (food in the belly, shelter overhead), I believe human nature seeks instinctively the greatest level of psychic comfort. If indeed this is so, then this trend toward awfulness is a perversity -- a backward going, upside down, bellyup kind in the fabric of human nature. We are getting comfort from calamity.

Human nature has become a grouch.

I wonder if this drift toward sourness is peculiar to Americans, or if Russians, Chinese, and Yugoslavs also are getting high on huff.

When the big picture began to emerge -- that is, when I began to realize that hardly anyone was shouting "Happy, O Happy! O Happy Happy Day!" -- I thought of moving. I thought, "This must be a local plague, a nasty business brought on by the changing winds, or something in the water."

But then, I talked to my sister in Fort Wayne. Fort Wayne isn't any happier than Clarkston. Neither is Owosso. Or for that matter, Palmdale, California. Or Seekonk, Massachusetts.

Everybody seems to be suffering the same malaise.

Except I'm thinking we're not really suffering. That we're liking every morose moment.

The latest rage is the latest rage.

Funk is fun.

Be bellicose -- and win!

More Letters Stand Up And Object to Taxes

Dear Editor:

Stand-up! Object! You have only to April 5, 1982.

A child can be sent to school, but if he does not study, others can't do it for him. A person can vote, but if he does not vote, no other can vote for him. A citizen has rights, but if he does not protect them himself, others can't protect them for him.

You have the right to object to the State of Michigan's proposed tax increase for 1982 on your home, your farm, your property. If you won't object, no one else can do it for you. It costs nothing to object.

The people who levied the tax increase are your employees. The Governor is your employee. The tax collectors are your employees. The assessors are your employees. All the people in government of every kind and level are your employees. The object of their increases in taxes is to keep the public trough filled so that they will have ample supply at your expense.

The security of your home, farm, and property is the most important element in the security of the State and Nation. If our homes, farms and property are not secure, there is no safety! - There is nothing!

The increases set up by the tax collectors including the Governor are not laws. Rather they are the result of Rule Changes made by our employees for their own benefit, (I.E.) big spending by government. That's how our employees profit for themselves to the loss and detriment of you and me.

When "State Equalized Valuation" started, they ruled a six month base because that had the highest prices - more taxes. Then they ruled a year's base for the same reason - prices had increased - more taxes. Now that property prices have decreased, they are ruling back to two prior years of high prices and also increasing the percentage - more taxes. In fact, exorbitant, unconscionable taxes on top of inflation, unemployment, recession, and high food prices. Your employees and mine are doing this to you and to me.

They are our employees and it's time right now that we told them what to do and make them do it!

If you won't do it for yourself, no one can do it for you.

William T. Sevald
Mary J. Sevald

C.A.T. Says Thanks

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Wilcox,

A belated thank you for your time and effort for our class. We feel children learn from their environment as well as academic books. We hope the students will be positive about newspapers but read them critically to understand the viewpoint of the reporter.

We thank you for the editorial comment which appeared in the newspaper. It is our hope to challenge and interest these students to actively participate in their world instead of just consume knowledge about the world.

Thank you again for your time and patience. All of the C.A.T. students enjoyed the C.A.T. Gazette.

World War I Vets Receive Good News

Clinton Valley Barracks Number 2803 Veterans of World War I and Auxiliary met at the Springfield Township Hall in Davisburg on Saturday, March 13 for their first meeting since December. A potluck dinner at noon and the celebration of Joe Hughes' birthday highlighted the day. The meeting, following the festivities, was opened according to ritual. Many communications were read, thank you notes from Veterans'

Hospitals, and dates for future activities, namely: District 5 meeting at Sweden House, Pontiac. Host Barracks is Rochester with the date set on Wednesday, April 7 at noon. Department Convention is scheduled for Kalamazoo June 6, 7 and 8.

But the best news of all was that the WWI Pension Bill was to leave the Committee and go to the floor for vote. This session of Congress may end the long wait, sixty-four years to be exact, for the Veterans of WWI to receive a pension. H.R. 1918 currently has the strong support of the traditional veterans organizations and the apparent encouragement of the Members of the House Veterans Affairs Committee. 380,000 of WWI veterans are still alive out of over two million who fought in WWI.

Meeting closed according to ritual with the next meeting on Saturday, April 10 at the usual place.

Clarkston Glass Relocates

Clarkston Glass recently moved its facility from Ortonville Road to Dixie Highway. In what was formerly Haus of Trailers.

Owners Don Short, Rick Wilson, and D.I. Pettingill, all residents of Clarkston, have been in the glass business for the past two and one half years. They handle all kinds of standard storms and screens and auto glass. In addition they specialize in wall mirrors and custom storms and screens.

Some of the larger jobs they have been involved in include the new addition at the Deer Lake Racquet Club, the new Moon Valley facility, and a new office for a consulting firm in Ortonville.

One of the unique aspects of Clarkston Glass is their mobile truck which is geared to come to your home or place of employment and replace your cracked windshield on the spot.

Clarkston Glass honors all insurance claims and offers a substantial discount to senior citizens. The business is open daily 8:30-5 p.m.

In the Case of Roving Dogs

Responsible Ownership Best Deterrent

Packs of roving dogs, biting children and killing domestic animals is not the picture being painted by most experts in the field of animal care, but there are some citations and incidents occurring already this year that involve dogs.

One person on Amy Drive in Independence Township claims dogs in her neighborhood are running loose and creating a nuisance. A similar situation exists in the Woodhull area of the same township, at least according to one resident.

But, isolated incidents don't make the problem widespread, and according to all authorities The Reminder talked to, nuisance dogs are being controlled.

According to Sergeant King of Oakland County Animal Control, there hasn't been a case of Rabies in Oakland County for three years. Three years ago someone in Rochester had been bitten by a skunk which had Rabies, but since then, nothing.

King expects his department will receive more complaints when school lets out for the summer. When kids begin to ride their bikes and people increase their jogging activity, we seem to notice an increase in reported dog bites said King.

Dr. Bruggeman of the Springfield Veterinary Clinic said dogs tend to move around more in the spring and in turn his clinic notices a dramatic increase in Parvovirus.

Both Drs. Bruggeman and Blogg

(of the Lake Geneva Veterinary Clinic) cited responsible pet ownership as the best way to curtail dog problems. In spring dogs begin to roam around, destroy property, get into garages, and kill livestock. It's up to the owners to keep them fenced in or chained up.

It's also the time of year when most municipalities require dog owners to purchase dog licenses.

Airman David M. Carver, son of Mary E. Hull of 10179 Graham, Clarkston, has been assigned to Keesler Air Force Base, Mississippi, after completing Air Force basic training.

The airman will now receive specialized instruction in the communications electronics systems field.

Four Students Win Scholarships

Four students from Clarkston have won Upperclass Achievement Scholarships at Oakland University for the 1982-1983 academic year.

The students will each receive $250 in recognition of their superior achievements. Winners must be undergraduates and have maintained at least a 3.50 cumulative grade point average (based on a perfect 4.0).

The winners, their majors, and addresses are listed below.

Anne L. Bennett, journalism major, 38 East Church; Robin Carey, medical technology major, 5110 Waldon Road; Colette Fortin, communication arts major, 6115 Maybee Road; and Mitzi Weyhing, psychology major, 5559 Sashabaw Road.

Silent Observer Pays Over $50,000

Earl A. Kreps, President of the Oakland County Chamber of Commerce, announced that the Silent Observer Program has paid $52,550 to date since its inception in 1971, including 17 murders. This amount represents 150 of the 397 Silent Observer cases reported to various police departments in Oakland County. Of the total amount paid, $7250 was paid in 1981 and $550 so far in 1982.

The Silent Observer Program pays for tips that lead to the arrest and conviction of crimes such as:

murder, armed robbery, breaking and entering, larceny from a building, sale of dangerous drugs, arson, etc. Persons giving information may remain anonymous if they wish. They can do so by telling the police department that they are a 'Silent Observer' and give a number that they can easily recall later when the case has been completed.

Do not call the Chamber with information, give that only to the police departments.

P.E., Junk Food Should Make Meeting Interesting

by Mike Wilcox

The April 5 meeting of the Clarkston Board of Education promises to be a dandy.

Proposals from two different groups of elementary parents are asking for the establishment of an elementary physical education program and an improvement in the quality of food being offered elementary students.

Carol Zorka, Nancy Deloney and Bev Palmer, volunteer coordinators of physical education at Bailey Lake and Clarkston elementary schools, will be asking board members to discuss an elaborate plan they've conceived to institute physical education in all elementary schools next year.

According to the three volunteers, Clarkston is the only school in Oakland County that does not offer an organized physical education program in elementary grades.

The physical education proponents say the cost to institute an elementary program could cost as little as $8000, or as high as $80,000 for the 1982-83 school year, depending upon the number of instructors hired.

They say for $80,000 the school district could hire five instructors, one for each school. For $8,000, a part-time instructor could be hired to coordinate a cadre of volunteers.

As far as equipment is concerned, the volunteers noted in their written proposal: "Much of the program can be conducted by

Study Shows Soil Contamination

The DNR has released data from the first phase of its hydrogeologic investigation of the Rose and Springfield Township dump sites. The data was obtained from surface-soil samples, soil borings, and groundwater samples from monitor wells on each site.

At the Springfield Township site, six preliminary surface-soil samples were taken (June 1980), 12 soil borings were done (August 1980), and four monitoring wells were drilled. At the Rose Township site, six preliminary surface-soil samples were taken, three soil borings were done, and eight monitoring wells were drilled.

The soil and groundwater samples were taken from areas where the greatest contamination was expected. As a result, several contaminants were found in the soil at each site. Because the subsurface geology at each site presents no barrier to downward migration, contaminants have been identified beneath the surface at both sites. The specific contaminants and the depths at which they were found varied between the sites.

This month the DNR hopes to decide on a contractor to continue this study, as early as spring of this year.

using the equipment already at each school. Special equipment designed for indoor use at a cost of approximately $200-$300 per school would be provided by the school's PTA or PTO."

Volunteers have been conducting physical education classes for two years. In the Bailey Lake program, 40 mothers work one hour a week in groups of two to three. Each group teaches two half hour classes.

The volunteers work from lesson plans prepared by Ms. Zorka and Ms. Deloney, both former elementary school teachers.

Although the volunteer programs at Bailey Lake and Clarkston have proved to be successful, Ms. Zorka, Ms. Deloney and Ms. Palmer feel the hiring of "a certified P.E. coordinator to organize a P.E. program for all the schools" would be more beneficial.

A second group that calls themselves P.U.N.T. (Parents United Nutritionally Together) also plan to ask for changes at the school board meeting.

PUNT's primary concern, according to Lynne Coxen, spokesperson for PUNT and also president of Pine Knob PTO, "is the sale of questionably nutritious supplemental foods during the lunch period including Little Debbie bars, ice cream, peanut butter fudge, potato chips, chocolate milk and cookies."

PUNT claims the introduction of the ala-carte items offers too many opportunities for young children "to choose a nutritionally deficient selection of foods." And according to Ms. Coxen, that can sometimes lead to reduced learning capacities.

Currently PUNT has petitions circulating to put a stop to the "junk food" selections at Pine Knob Elementary. The petitions are available at the offices of Dr. James O'Neill, Dr. Irving Kernis and Dr. Charles Munk.

"Our goal is to obtain a more stringent regulation regarding the sale of food items during the instructional day and to limit the opportunities for the students to purchase ala carte items, hopefully having them opt to buy a more nourishing lunch," said Ms. Coxen.

Questionnaire Indicates P.E. Proposal Popular

Below is a copy of a questionnaire given to the teachers at Bailey Lake and Clarkston Elementary. Here is a sample of their answers, indicating their interest in a Physical Education program.

Question 1: Do you feel that the time your children have participated in P.E. this year has been time well spent?

A. Very much so...definitely...very well spent...yes! And more is needed...very much so, wish it could have been more time.

Question 2: Please state your feelings concerning the P.E. activities presented this year.

A. The program has been organized and weekly planning has been very good...They have been varied, enjoyable...P.E. is a valuable and essential program that should be formally implemented...They have been geared from the developmental age of the group. There has been a wide range of activities...The children look forward to their P.E. time each week...It seems to help them stay alert on those afternoons.

Question 6: Do you feel that a physical education program is a necessary part of an elementary curriculum?

A. Yes, the physical training is part of the whole person...yes, but hope it can be funded without sacrificing teachers or class size...yes, when under qualified leadership...a well rounded, wholistic approach to education includes P.E....Yes, but not at the expense of purely academics areas but on a par with music...I feel many would be more alert if they had more exercise and an appropriate physical release for tension and energy...yes, and its value is increased when someone is planning and executing those plans. As a teacher, I would not take the time each week for this program...

CHS Picks Top Performers

by Ron Wagner

The 1982 Clarkston Winter Sports Banquets were held recently. On Tuesday, March 16, the Basketball teams, the Volleyball teams and the Cheerleaders had their banquets in the CHS cafeteria. In the following awards ceremonies Ray Kubani and Mike McCormick were named as the Basketball's team's Most Valuable Players. Rick Williams was awarded the Most Improved Player. The tri-captains for next year were also decided upon. Kubani, McCormick and Mike Dearborn share the honors.

The members of the Volleyball team voted Lanette Whitehead as its MVP. Coach Linda Denstaedt awarded Shaun O'Brien as the MIP.

On Thursday, the Wrestlers, Skiers and Pom Pom Girls had their banquets. The Skiers voted for all the awards and Fred Roeser and Bob Cattin were picked as MVP and MIP, respectively. From the Girls team, Angela Balzarini was voted MVP and Lynn Burkemo was chosen as the MIP.

The Wrestlers also voted for their Most Valuable Player and came up with Jeff Miracle. Miracle was given a second award for having the most pins for the season. Greg Ellis was designated as the Most Improved Player and Mike Conway was presented with the Coach's Award.

Meet Your Community Businesspeople:

Family Video Offers Movie Club

"Who would have ever known that two years ago, when we purchased our first video machine, that a year later we would be opening our own video movie club," said Jim Langs.

It didn't take long for Jim and his wife, Sandy, to realize that there was a great need in the area for a good video movie club.

After a lot of thought and discussion, Jim and Sandy decided to make that giant step and start a business of their own. One that they could be proud of and one that would fulfill a need to the community.

"Video just seemed to be the logical choice for us," said Jim. "Being your own boss means, not having to compromise yourself for other people's values," he added.

Being members of the community themselves, the Langs felt they wanted to get more into the mainstream of things, and at the same time make a living and have fun.

Their philosophy has been to offer something to families that they can have fun doing together and to give the consumer a break.

The idea behind a video club is for a person owning a VHS or BETA video recorder to come in and join the club, after that the member comes in and rents movies at a discounted rate. Rental seems to be the best choice for most video recorder owners because, to purchase a movie could cost anywhere from $59 to $100.

Video recorder owners love movies, but very seldom will go to a theater. Mainly, the cost for a family is just out of the question. Only with a video recorder can a family see a movie and have free popcorn for as little as $5.00.

A few of the services available at Family Video are, video machine repair, machine head cleaning, Atari video computer system repair, video machines and all around good general advice to anyone just getting into the world of video.

"We feel that video movie clubs are here to stay," said Jim. "For too long now the consumer has been told, when and what they are going to watch each evening, now with video, the select folks that are already into our club are making their own choices. Not only what they are going to watch, but when they watch it! Isn't that what freedom is all about, having a choice?" Jim enthusiastically adds.

Family Video has hundreds of movies available, starting with G rated to R rated. They would like to invite everyone in to look around, and possibly become another one of the growing number of videonuts.

Family Video hours are Monday through Friday 10 till 9, Saturday 10 till 8. They are closed on Sunday.

Grease Lightning Offers 10 Minute Oil Change

"We want people to realize they can stop without being tied up for an hour or two like most stations. Each employee has been trained to work specifically on oil changes and knows what to look for. No time is wasted," said the owners.

Grease Lightning takes the hassle out of getting your oil changed. In a matter of ten minutes you can bring your car in to the new business on Dixie Highway in Drayton Plains, and have your oil changed and a complete lube job.

In fact, owners Doug Edmonds and Andy Dematteo, are so confident in their ability to get the job done, they encourage customers to bring their cars in on the way to or from work, or after a shopping trip.

"We want people to realize they can stop without being tied up for an hour or two like most stations. Each employee has been trained to work specifically on oil changes and knows what to look for. No time is wasted," said the owners.

Before establishing their business Edmonds worked at a Chevrolet engine plant for 13 years and Dematteo has a background in business administration and accounting.

"We are looking to establish here and make a good name. We want to service each individual care to suit the owner," they said.

Edmonds and Dematteo say a unique aspect of their business is their extra special service. They claim they do a lot of little things that most service personnel would not think of doing. Things like lubing doors and washing windows are added touches they hope will give them a good reputation.

"The main reason we got into the 10 minute oil change was because it seems other places are getting out of service," claimed the owners. At Grease Lightning one guy can work underneath and one guy on top and you don't have to leave your car."

At Grease Lightning you don't need an appointment and American and import cars are gladly accepted.

Hours are Monday through Friday, 8-8 and Saturday 8-6.

"We designed our business and trained our people to accommodate 10 minute drive-thru service because we don't want to give you time to miss your car," concluded Edmonds and Dematteo.

Meet Your Community Businesspeople: Rademacher Stays Open Nights to Service Autos

Too many people ignore the safety campaign recall letters sent out by General Motors and their franchise dealers.

General Motors is constantly examining their product, looking for defective components. When a problem is found a decision is made as to whether it is a hazardous condition or not. If it is considered potentially dangerous to the driver, occupants, or the general public, a recall campaign is initiated. The persons involved in making such decisions are all highly skilled and very knowledgeable in their field. Once the decision has been made to recall a vehicle, General Motors and its franchise dealers spend an immeasurable amount of money to notify the owners of the recalled vehicles. The cost of notifying owners, coupled with the cost of the actual repairs, must be an awesome amount of money. We asked ourselves, why would anyone ignore such effort and expense to help them drive a safer vehicle?

Rademacher Chevrolet decided that a major cause was that some people simply could not be without their vehicles during the normal 7 a.m. to 5 p.m. work day. Since there are no dealers in the area open at night, those people were forced to take their chances.

Rademacher Chevrolet feels this represents a considerable potential hazard on our roadways, and decided to do something toward alleviating the problem.

Rademacher Chevrolet will open their service department between the hours of 5 p.m. and 9 p.m. on April 1st and April 8th for the sole purpose of completing safety campaign repairs, on any General Motors car or light truck. If you do not know if your GM vehicle is involved in a campaign recall, stop by and Rademacher's will check the GM computer banks for you. If this proves to be a successful program, Rademacher's intends to make it a regular part of their service operation.

Rademacher Chevrolet is located at 6750 Dixie Highway - at the M-15 and Dixie Highway junction - in Clarkston. The sales department is open Monday and Thursday 8 a.m. to 9 p.m. and Tuesday, Wednesday, and Friday until 6 p.m. The Parts and Service Department hours are 7 a.m. to 6 p.m. Monday through Friday. They are equipped to handle any and all of your automotive needs, including one of the finest body and paint repair shops in the area.
