Indian Springs Officially Opens

State, county and local officials participated in the dedication and ribbon-cutting ceremonies on Thursday, June 10 to mark the opening of Indian Springs Metropark, a new 1,681-acre nature-oriented site in Oakland County, located nine miles northwest of Pontiac in Springfield and White Lake Townships.

The entrance to the park is along Crosby Lake Road.

Charles R. Shafer, who represents Oakland County as a Metropark commissioner, welcomed dignitaries and presided at the day's ceremonies. Shafer, Chairman of the Michigan National Bank-Oakland, was assisted by state legislators, several members of the Oakland County Board of Commissioners, other county executives, and township officials from Independence, Springfield, Waterford and White Lake Townships.

Shafer said, "We are pleased to open this new Indian Springs Metropark, which features nature study, a solar-heated Nature Center Building and several nature trails. The most important factor in this site is the great natural resource -- the Huron Swamp, which will be the heart of the Interpretive Program at Indian Springs. The swamp provides one of the largest undisturbed natural areas remaining in Oakland County and we wish to preserve it for future generations."

Commissioner Shafer noted that the HC-MA has invested over $3,186,600.00 in Indian Springs Metropark since the project was started, including over $2.5 million dollars for land acquisition, and $638,600.00 for the solar-heated Nature Center building, entrance road, parking lot, nature trails, paved trail for the handicapped, site preparation, landscaping and utilities.

The Nature Center, which cost over $302,000.00 has exhibits, lecture areas, greenhouse, public restrooms, naturalist office and workspace. Solar energy provides much of the heat for the building through the greenhouse and "direct gain" skylight areas, while auxiliary heat is provided by a wood stove, and if necessary, a conventional oil furnace.

Inside the building -- exhibits, games and displays help create a better understanding and appreciation of this unique wetland, one of the last great natural areas in southeastern Michigan.

Insurance Agency

Each year, some 90,000 people fall off ladders, with resultant bruises, sprains, and broken bones. According to the Consumer Product Safety Commission, structural failure is to blame in only 5 percent of the cases; most of the time it's the user's fault.

New safety standards go into effect this month, and participating manufacturers may say that their ladders meet the voluntary standards if they have passed safety and strength tests.

The standards are not very stringent though, so wise shoppers will still check quality features. But new labeling will make it easier to choose the right ladder for the task and to use it safely.

Basic safety rule for stepladders: make sure the base is on a firm surface, and avoid standing or sitting on the platform.

The base of an extension ladder should be placed as far from the vertical support as one quarter of the unit's working length. It should be set up with at least three feet extending over the roof line and should be tied at support points.

Be careful. And, because accidents DO happen, be sure you've got the insurance you need. See

CAN MY FAMILY PARTICIPATE?

Family participation in funeral services is becoming increasingly common as more people realize that this is one way to make services more personal and at the same time allow mourners to express more fully their love for the deceased.

Family members, including children, can take part in funeral services in a variety of ways. These include readings or prayers, prose or poetry readings, or special music. Carefully considered and prepared, such personal contributions to the service help honor the memory of the deceased.

We have had quite a bit of experience with arranging funeral services unique to each situation, and we always follow your wishes exactly. If you would like to talk about family participation in services, please call us or stop by.

A Father's Day Message

Sometimes its better to put down the poison pen for a week or so, and pay tribute to those that help make life worth living. Certainly our fathers fits in that category.

Here's a short essay that I find particularly appropriate at this time of year:

What is a Father?

A father is someone who is forced to endure childbirth without anesthetic. Fathers usually growl when they feel good and laugh very loud when they're scared half to death. A father never feels entirely worthy of the worship in his children's eyes. But he keeps trying to be the hero his daughter thinks he is...the man his son believes him to be.

Sometimes fathers go to war. They don't want to. But, as always, they know that war is part of their most important job in life...which is to make the world a better place for their children that it has been for them.

Fathers grow old faster than other people. Because, they, in other wars, have had to stand at the train station and wave good-by to a son in uniform and while mothers cry where it shows, fathers have to stand and beam outside -- and die inside.

Fathers are men who give daughters away to other men who aren't good enough...so they can have children who are smarter than anybody's.

Fathers fight dragons almost daily. They hurry away from the breakfast table...off to the arena which is sometimes called an office or workshop. There they tackle the obstacles that stand in their way...schedules, hard work, and occasionally, the boss. They never quite win the fight but they never give up.

I don't know where fathers go after life, but I've an idea that a father doesn't just sit on a cloud waiting for the girl he's loved and the children she bore. He'll be busy there, too...repairing the stairs, oiling the gates, improving the streets, smoothing the way.

LETTERS

Where Was Flag?

To The Editor:

A letter like this is most difficult to write. Although the letter is based on what I seen or have been told.

All information I have, indicates a township Supervisor is the chief law enforcement officer or effort, plus he has the responsibility of demanding proper procedure in government.

Now can any one that reads this letter, tell me why J. Smith alleged to be Supervisor of Independence, has no respect for the dead? Decoration Day just passed, indicated a gross lack of respect on Smith's part, for the dead. As due those that died in service to the United States.

In checking the township flag pole at 90 North Main, Clarkston on Decoration Day I found no flag flying at half mast or otherwise or for a few days thereafter. Finally a few days after I went into the township hall and in aloud stentorian manner addressed the Township Hall Mob concerning the failure to fly the Stars and Stripes. I don't believe J. Smith was around. He don't seem to show up for work like he is supposed to. At his age and stage of hormone failure, how can you expect him to show up for work on time or at all? I sure wish he was hourly, so we could come closer to getting something for our tax dollars.

Smith is notorious for his Scout effort which has become legendary, due to some worshipful media space of the past. Anyway when you're in politics you climb on anybody and everybody, including kids. I sincerely hope Smith helped teach them to respect the dead.

I am willing to bet that Jimmy the Greek would come up with unusual odds on J. Smith's answer to his gross failure to respect and ignorment to the dead.

Sincerely
Lucky

P.S. If it happens again, I believe it would be the proper time for a recall. Well that might fail, he might aline his defense with the Communist Party, they don't believe in flying the Stars and Stripes

Dunaskiss Wants Citizens to Write

Dear Editor:

House Joint Resolution "BB", the Dunakiss Tax Limitation Amendment, which I introduced last week, has been sent to the House Committee on Taxation for consideration. I am urging all of those people who support HJR "BB" to join in my effort to win Committee approval of the resoltuion so that it can go to the House for a vote.

The Dunakiss Tax Limitation Amendment, if approved by the Legislature and a subsequent vote of the people, would roll the income tax rate back to 4.6 percent (the rate prior to the recent tax hike) and prevent any other increases without a vote of the people.

HJR "BB" will also incorporate Senator Kerry Kammer's HJR "O" which seeks to set aside a certain percentage of the state budget for educational funding. Senator Kammer and I will be working together in an effort to win approval of these constitutional amendments by the Legislature, in time for them to be placed on the November ballot.

Therefore, the input of concerned citizens is vital. I urge those who support HJR "BB" to write to the members of the House Taxation Committee, the State Capitol Building, Lansing 48909. The members of the Committee are:

Representatives Ryan (Chair), Virgil Smith, Mary Brown, Thomas Brown, Cushingberry, Emerson, Jondahl, Stabenow, Trim, Vanek, Buth, Dressel, Giese, Hillegonds, Lincoln, Roy Smith and Stacey.

The letters of support already received by my office will also be forwarded to the Taxation Committee.

Anyone desiring further information or having any questions should feel free to contact our District Office at 391-1040.

Sincerely,
Mat J. Dunaskiss
State Representative
The Sixty-First District

FRIEND OF THE COURT

by Roland C. Fancher, Esq.

Whichever parent is awarded custody of the minor child, and becomes the "custodial parent", the other "non-custodial parent" will probably be ordered to pay child support for that child. Many people still presume that if the father is awarded custody, the mother will not be required to assist in the financial support of the child. This is not the case. Both parents share the responsibility to assist in providing for the well being of the child.

In establishing the amount the non-custodial parent should be required to contribute to the support of the child(ren), the court will consider the income of the non-custodial parent, the income of the custodial parent, the needs of the child, and any other relevant factor. To assist them in establishing a support amount, the Oakland County Circuit Court Judges have established a formula to provide a guideline, based upon the net (after tax) income of the non-custodial parent. This is only a guideline, and not a hard and fast rule. The formula is as follows:

Number of children	Percentage of net income
1	20%
2	30% (20% & 10%)
3	40% (20% & 10% & 10%)
4 or more	50% (20% & 10% & 10% & 10%)

The percentage expressed in dollars is divided by the number of children and written into the judgment as so much per week per child, e.g. a $100 per week order for two children is expressed as "$50.00 per week per child."

Once the support order is established, you will be charged the amount ordered regardless of any change in circumstances until the stated amount is changed by the court. For example, if your income drops from $350.00 per week to $150.00 per week, you are still required to pay the same amount unless the Judge lowers the amount ordered. The decrease is not automatic. On the other hand, if your income increases, your support amount does not automatically increase. Again, the support order remains unless and until the court changes it.

Before a support order is established, the office of the Friend of the Court is generally asked to make a recommendation as to what amount of support should be ordered. The Judge does not have to follow this recommendation, although it is often used as a guideline by the court. The Friend of the Court attorney will make a recommendation based upon the available information. Therefore, if there is something you feel that the attorney should consider, provide the information before the recommendation is made. Many times, an aggrieved party will contact the recommending attorney and ask "Did you consider...?" If you did not provide the information, the attorney probably did not consider it. The recommendation will only be as complete as the information presented. Generally, if you question the importance of information, submit it. The attorney can weed out irrelevant information. Unsubmitted information cannot be considered.

If you have any questions concerning the operations of the Friend of the Court, address them to Roland C. Fancher, in care of The Reminder. Questions concerning individual cases should be submitted directly to the Oakland County Friend of the Court, 1200 North Telegraph, Pontiac, MI 48053.

SMALL TALK

by Rebecca Roberts

I have just returned from two very talkative events during which I heard the phrase 'action and reflection.' If we are to effect change, bring back some order in our messy human affairs, we must embrace both action and reflection. Reflection without action is ineffective. And action without reflection is dangerous.

The first event I attended was the Poetry Resource Center (PRC) Poetry Festival in Detroit. Carolyn Forché was their featured poet. Forché who is from Farmington Hills, has a book of poetry inspired primarily by her experiences in El Salvador, where she spent two years observing and recording. The book, The Country Between Us (Harper & Row), is essential. It awakens us to our dangerous delusions; and it chronicles not only what is happening in El Salvador, but what is happening within us. In her poem,

"The Visitor", Forché says, "There is nothing one man will not do to another."

A few days after the PRC festival, with only one day to catch my breath, I met Denise Levertov. She was our featured poet from the Detroit Poets' benefit for nuclear disarmament, Words Against Weapons. Levertov has long been speaking out, both in her poetry and her prose, against bad wars (are there good ones?) and against the peculiar insanity which allows humans to entertain their own destruction through the use of nuclear weapons. Her book Poet in the World (New Directions) is a collection of prose. Levertov, like Forché, tells us in clear terms what she has seen and heard. And she shows us in the course of that telling that there is a profound evil in the world that threatens to annihilate us. Within her words lies an irrepressible truth: If we do nothing to extinguish that evil, we nourish it.

Levertov's new book of poetry is called Candles in Babylon (New Directions); it is a book of reflection, haunting and cogent.

Both Carolyn Forché and Denise Levertov have gone out into the world and observed unflinchingly what is there; and just as unflinchingly they have told us about it.

The writing in these books is beautiful in form. The rhythms are like our own pulse. But a lot of what they are telling us is not easy to hear, even harder to know. But know we must, because if we refuse to know, we will refuse to act. Their stories are about us, the human race.

Action and reflection. We need to understand. And then we need to stand up.

TRIVIA

by Mike Morrow

High school graduation is sort of a mixed blessing for the parents of the graduate. On the one hand, you're glad he is graduating in under ten years, but on the other hand, that means you have to give him an open house.

To insure a successful open house there are certain things you should keep in mind.

1. Watch where you set the food. A bowl of potato salad left out in the hot sun will spoil quicker than you can say food poisoning. Ptomaine adds nothing to the party.

2. Volleyball should be played far away from where older members of the family are sitting unless you want Grandma knocked unconscious by a flying volleyball.

3. Limit the amount of beer your kid's fellow graduates consume. If allowed to drink too much a 17 year old who has been to ten other graduation parties on the same day as yours is likely to throw up on the patio and pass out under the picnic table.

4. Don't bother with an extensive menu. The less you serve, the less you will have to clean up when the picnic table gets knocked over by the same damn volleyball that got Grandma.

5. Keep track of the gifts as they come in, not that the graduate is going to write thank-you notes, but it is nice to know who has what...

6. Planning an outdoor party is almost as good of a way to insure rain as washing your car or hanging the laundry out to dry. Always have a spot indoors for when it starts pouring.

• 7. If you have a dog clean the yard ahead of time. Remember, this is the sandal and barefoot season and it is at best, an unpleasant surprise to slide in one of Rover's little presents.

8. Invite your neighbors to the party, that way they will be less likely to complain when a lawn dart sails through their kitchen window.

9. To let the guests who just won't leave know that the party is over, turn on the lawn sprinkler.

10. Never use real silverware unless you have time the next day to scour the neighborhood with a metal detector looking for it.

If you follow these simple rules I'm not guaranteeing you'll have a great party. Let's face it, you're going to work your rump off and the kid is going to make a fortune, but if you follow the rules, at least you will be likely to hope your next kid in line to graduate will drop out.

Vandals Destroy Lockers, Steal Gear

Late last Wednesday night, or early Thursday morning, vandals busted their way into Clarkston High School and walked off with baseball equipment and uniforms totaling $1135.00.

The vandals broke into several lockers and stole uniforms, cleats, mitts and hats.

The vandalism came as the Clarkston Wolves were preparing to do battle in the state baseball tournament. They were one of 16 teams left in the tournament.

The Oakland County Sheriff's Department is currently investigating the matter.

Softball Strikes Pitcher, Causes Heart Attack

Near tragedy was averted on the ball diamonds of Clintonwood Park last Thursday night when, Mike Yingling, a 26-year-old pitcher, was struck in the chest with a softball causing a heart attack.

Bystanders at the scene gave Yingling CPR until the Independence Fire Department arrived.

They in turn, took over the CPR procedure until Riverside Ambulance arrived and transported Yingling to Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital. Along the way, the ambulance was escorted by the Oakland County Sheriff's Department and Waterford Township Police.

Trim Opposes Closing of Clinton Valley Center

Representative Claude A. Trim (D-Davisburg), Chair of the House Mental Health Committee, announced that he is vehemently opposed to the proposed closing of Clinton Valley Center.

"Due to severe budget restraints, the Department of Mental Health is in the planning process of closing several institutions across the state, one of which will be Clinton Valley Center for the mentally ill," Trim announced.

"The closing of Clinton Valley Center will leave the citizens of Oakland County with virtually no public in-patient mental health facility. In light of the fact that Northville Regional Center, located in Wayne County, is also targeted for closure, the hardship of placing our mentally ill will be doubled," Trim stated.

Trim further commented, "It will be virtually impossible, in my opinion, for the citizens of Oakland County to receive in-patient mental health care. Private facilities are available but they are costly and the bed capacity will not meet the large demand for services."

"I am extremely concerned that these patients will be released from Clinton Valley Center with only one living alternative - roam the streets! Not only is this cruelly unfair to the patient but an additional burden will be placed on family, relatives, friends and neighborhoods," Trim said.

The Governor's Recommended Executive Budget for the Department of Mental Health is currently $531.7 million. The Senate is recommending a 1982/83 FY Budget of $528 million. Staff from the Department of Mental Health indicated that a minimum budget of roughly $552 million was needed merely to continue current operations.

Trim stated, "I have discussed this matter with Pat Babcock, Director of the Department of Mental Health and he, also, has expressed grave concern about the alternatives facing him. However, due to the present appropriation process and the state's apparent willingness to desert the mentally ill, there seems to be no other choices before us."

"Community mental health's 1982/83 FY Budget will be reduced by roughly $20 million. Their budget is current $130 million and that would reflect a continuation budget only. An additional $20 million dollar cut will be devastating as it occurs at a time when the demand and need for services will be increasing at a very rapid rate," Trim stated.

"In conversations with staff from the Department of Mental Health, I have been told that intensive planning is currently taking place regarding the closure of Clinton Valley Center. There are presently, roughly, 494 patients residing at Clinton Valley Center. Two-hundred and sixty of these residents will be transferred to other state facilities. At this point in time, there are no plans for the additional two-hundred and thirty-four residents. Staff indicated they would be in continuous contact with my office and would attempt to assist and cooperate with me in the best possible manner regarding the plight of Clinton Valley Center. Plans for transferring staff from Clinton Valley Center to other state institutions are also being developed," Trim said.

Indian Springs Opens in Springfield trails were students from the fourth and fifth grade of Oxbow Community School, of Union Lake, accompanied by their teacher -- Sue Moilanen.

There are approximately seven miles of nature trails that take visitors through parts of the swamp, woodlands, meadows and fields, which offer a first-hand encounter with the plants and animals of these diverse habitats.

There are three trails, labelled for self-guided hikes, including: 1. Woodland, covering 1 1/4 to 2 miles, primarily a swamp-land trails of towering trees and traces of past lumbering. It is best for spring wild-flowers and fall color. 2. Farmland Trail, which is 1 1/4 to 2 1/4 miles and consists of old fields, fence rows and some woodlands. It is well-suited to summer field flowers and cross-country skiing. And 3. Pondsides, only 1/3 of a mile, is a short, hard-surfaced trail offering choice views of the pond and its plant and animal life.

This is the fourth and newest Nature Center operated throughout the Huron-Clinton Metroparks system, with others at Stony Creek, Kensington and Oakwoods Metroparks. The system of Metroparks nature study programs was introduced through the efforts of William F. Hopkins, Chief Naturalist of the HCMA (now retired), who started the program at Kensington Metropark in 1957 and was present at today's ceremonies.

The staff of Indian Springs Metropark include Charles A. Damm, Park Superintendent; Stephen E. Horn, Supervising Naturalist; and David Cynar, seasonal naturalist. Thomas H. Smith is Chief of Interpretive Services for the HCMA.

During the year, the Nature Center will sponsor nature walks, workshops and special events for the public. In addition, lectures and field trips will be available to school and other civic groups by advance appointments during the school year (which are made through the Huron-Clinton Metro. Authority, 961-5865).

This summer, the Nature Center at Indian Springs Metropark will be open Wednesday through Sunday, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. (Closed Monday and Tuesday) and with a different schedule during the school year.

The first public announcement concerning

Indian Springs Metropark was made on December 6, 1972 by James Clarkson, President of First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Oakland, who then represented Oakland County on the HCMA Board.

Other Metroparks close to Oakland County residents include Stony Creek Metropark (4,435 acres) near Rochester, Marshbank Metropark (108 acres) southwest of Pontiac, and Kensington Metropark (4,340 acres) near Milford.

For additional information on this new project -- contact Indian Springs Metropark, 5200 Indian Trail, Clarkston 48016. Phone 625-2781.

DNR Wants Trout Pond Left Unchanged

by Brian Brooks

Community involvement is needed for the Davisburg trout pond, according to Al Stewart.

Stewart, a wildlife biologist for Michigan Department of Natural Resources, proposed Wednesday night during the Springfield Township meeting to close two of the three access drives to the wildlife area.

The state has owned the land since 1948 when it purchased the approximately 100-acre lot for $6500. The land was originally set up as a fishery but according to Stewart the DNR philosophy has changed concerning the trout pond.

"The land has great value as a wildlife area," said Stewart. Although in 1975 there was some controversy over whether the state should keep the area.

Springfield Township wants to purchase the land for $1 but Stewart proposes that it should remain with the DNR's control.

The DNR's main goal according to Stewart is to protect and maintain Michigan's natural resources. Some more specific goals regarding the Davisburg trout pond include the following: water control, general access restrictions, and developing a wildlife habitation.

The first one, water control, concerns the lake level recommendations in order to prevent flooding out the inhabitants of the pond area. Collin W. Walls, Supervisor for Springfield Township, suggested that the township should have someone responsible to adjust the water level.

Stewart wants to close most of the access roads to the wildlife area because of the garbage dumping and nightly partying. The main entrance is off of Davisburg Road and another is off Dilley Road. Stewart suggested closing both of the preceding roads but leave the access road by the dam open with a small parking lot available. According to Stewart, wildlife will probably increase after closing the excess roads.

One Springfield Township resident who lives by the wildlife area asked why not build a bigger parking lot for people who like to fish and hike in the woods.

Stewart replied, "Every piece of land that is used for parking lot takes up wildlife space."

Another resident's suggestion was to create hiking trails.

"We're not in the business of building trails," said Stewart. The state also cannot afford to build trails because of the economic conditions and the many layoffs in the DNR.

The last goal of developing wildlife would depend on community spirit more than anything else. Stewart suggested that youth should be encouraged to participate in the project. Groups such as the Boy Scouts and the Girl Scouts along with classrooms could be a big help toward improving the area. Such additions as shrubs and nesting structures would enhance the wildlife area.

Both Walls and Stewart agreed that if the state and Springfield Township residents work together on the wildlife area project everyone involved will be much happier.

Tony Moses 7th in Regionals

Local Gymnasts Best in State

Eleven-year-old Tony Moses placed 7th in the vault competition at the United States Gymnastics Federation's Regional Competition at Champaign, Illinois last weekend.

It's been a hectic month for the Davisburg Elementary student. Just a couple of weeks ago he qualified for the regional meet at the state competition held at Michigan State University.

At the state competition, Tony and eleven other team members of the High Flyers placed first in the state.

The team and Tony are coached by Nancy Hanes, who started the High Flyers about a year ago. Ms. Hanes has taught gymnastics at Davisburg Elementary for several years.

Tony seems to be her star pupil. Three times a week he and other team members travel to Hartland High School to work out in their gym. In addition Tony spends a lot of time in the Eastern Michigan University gym under the tutelage of Dr. Marvin Johnson, EMU gymnastics coach.

Tony has been practicing gymnastics for four years. The floor exercises are his forte, but, as exhibited at Champaign, he is coming on strong in the vault. Other events he must also compete in are still rings, parallel bars, the side horse and the high bar.

According to his grandmother, Tony is a born athlete. He is very good in little league baseball as well as other sports. Tony is a straight "A" student, having just completed the 6th grade.

His goal is to one day compete for the United States in the Olympics.

Rochester Hosts State Skating Championships

For most of us, rollerskating is considered to be a form of entertainment or recreation. Once or twice a year we pay a few bucks to skate around a large circle inside one of the four or five roller rinks in the area.

But to a few in the North Oakland area, rollerskating is a business. A business from which champions are born.

This weekend some of those champions will be crowned when over 600 rollerskaters compete in the 1982 Michigan State Amateur Roller Skating Championships held at the Rochester Skating Center.

Interestingly enough, many champions have originated from this area. Currently Rochester's Tim McGuire is the world class men's singles champion. He won his title in Ft. Worth, Texas last year with a flurry of well-executed jumps, spins and choreography, holding off a strong challenge from Rick Monuro of Ohio.

McGuire, who now skates out of Rollhaven in Flint, began skating in a group class taught by Rochester Skating Center head pro Virginia Darimont.

Mrs. Darimont has a long history of coaching successful skaters. Her daughter Cecelia Kelly (who now teaches with her mother) is a former national champion and winner of two gold medals. Cecelia's daughter Kris Kelly will be competing this week in the Michigan Championships.

Mrs. Darimont's second daughter, Sue Jones is manager of the Rochester rink. Sue's son Tommy will be competing in the speed skating portion of the Michigan Championships.

Although the success of North Oakland skaters has been phenomenal, that is not what is going to draw the several thousand skating enthusiasts into North Oakland this week.

Rather it will be skating exhibitions by McGuire and fellow champions Guy Aubin and Sylvie Gingras of Montreal, and the competition for state honors that will attract the audience.

The top four finalists in each division of the Michigan State Championships will be eligible to compete in the United States Amateur Confederation of Roller Skating Regional Competition July 3-9 at Cincinnati, Ohio. Top winners there go on to the national championships starting July 31 at Ft. Worth, Texas.

Spectator passes may be purchased at the door. For more information call Rochester Skating Center, 651-3031.

Wolves Mercied in Regional Play, Finish Season 15-12

by Ron Wagner
Unfortunately, the Clarkston baseball team had to end their season with a loss. But, then to end it with a win would require a State championship. The team was mercied 10-0 by Lapeer East in the first round of the Regional tournament. Pitcher Mark Piazza gave up eight hits during the game. Mike Howe was the only CHS player to get a hit.

"It was just one of those games," said coach Roy Warner. East went on to lose the next game 1-0 and Sterling Heights Ford came away as the Regional champion.

The Wolves had a record of 15-12 overall. Piazza, Howe and Joel Schrader were named to the All-League first team. Rich Schrader and Mike Dearborn were named to the second team and Dale Hesse and Bill Weeks were given honorable mention.

JV Wolves Heavy Hitting Wins GOAL

The Clarkston JV baseball team is once again league champion. They had an overall record of 10-6 and were 6-2 in the G.O.A.L.

"Hitting was the key to our success," said coach Kurt Richardson. Chris Bruce led the team in hitting and played left field. Mike Harbaugh hit .418 and led the team in RBI's. He was voted Most Valuable Player and was moved up to Varsity for the tournaments. Mark Ushman also hit over .400 and was voted the team's Most Improved Player.

The team was greatly aided by Greg Molzon's 4-0 record as a pitcher. Kurt Bottorf hit .304 and was the team's most consistent fielder. Jeff Swan led the team in stolen bases. Rob Mortimore was moved down for the final six games of the season and provided the team with added stability at catcher. He was also moved back up for the tournaments.

They Combine Experience, Quality

"We like to make our money the old fashioned way," claims Joe Cipriano. "By working for it."

Cipriano along with Jim Hunter own the Stop and Go Auto Clinic at the corner of Walton and Sashabaw in Drayton Plains. Both emphasize high quality work at reasonable prices as their number one goal.

Neither is new to the auto repair business. Cipriano, in fact taught auto mechanics for six years. As partners, they previously owned a Texaco Service Station on Elizabeth Lake Road in Waterford.

Cipriano says he is in the business "Because you can please people, be your own boss, and enjoy what we're doing."

He added, "A lot of our customers are older, elderly citizens. We are pleased that they feel they can come to us and know we'll take care of them."

The service station sells Gulf gas and oil, cigarettes, pop and various automotive items. The service portion of the business offers auto repair on all makes and models.

Stop and Go Auto Clinic is open from 6-10 Monday through Friday and from 8-10 Saturdays and Sundays.

Lifelong Dream Now Reality as Steve's Auto Center

Good service is what I feel our customers come back to us for, along with the fact that we take the time to "show" and "explain" what and why repairs are needed.

I think these things are very important, in that people can feel confident that the repairs to be performed are truly needed.

Steve Poniatowski, Jr. owner of "Steve's Auto Center & Towing, Inc.", 5805 Dixie Highway, Waterford, turned a life-long dream into a reality. In August we will celebrate our 5th year in business.

There have been a lot of changes along the way. We first opened our doors as manager for Boron Oil Company, with full facility auto repairs. In 1978 we began operation of our own 24-hour towing service. June of 1981 brought a big change, Boron renamed its gasoline portion "Gas & Go", became self-serve, and broke away from the repair end of the business. At that time we incorporated the Auto Center and Towing Service. But, through all of the changes we have maintained the same, high level of quality that goes into our every job. We do major and minor auto and truck repairs from 8-6 Monday through Friday, 9-2 Saturday. And will tow "anything - anywhere", 24 hours a day. We do contract towing for dealerships, and police towing for Waterford Township, Oakland County, and State, and welcome any new business with discounts to fleet towing and/or repairs.

Good service is what I feel our customers come back to us for, along with the fact that we take the time to "show" and "explain" what and why repairs are needed.

I think these things are very important, in that people can feel confident that the repairs to be performed are truly needed.
