Former Clarkston Youngster Dead No Leads in Brutal Slaying

Sheriff Johannes Spreen at the scene of the crime talks with detectives and reporters.

Oakland County Sheriff Johannes Spreen told The Reminder Monday that no new leads have developed in the murder of Robert Ogg.

Robert, a five year old Brandon kindergartener was found badly beaten and unconscious Friday. He died Saturday at 4:48 p.m. in Detroit's Childrens Hospital.

The son of Robert, Sr. and Diane, of 740 Granger Road, Ortonville, was waiting for the school bus in front of his home at 8:15 a.m. Friday morning.

His mother had been watching from the window but had to care for her eight month old son Bryon. When she returned Robert was gone and she assumed he was on the bus.

But Robert never got on the bus. When he failed to return from school Mrs. Ogg called the school and discovered he had not been there.

He was apparently abducted and left face-down in an area 75 yards from his home.

Sheriff's deputies were called to the scene at 11:35 a.m. They searched the area with tracking dogs and about 25 minutes later Deputy Don McClellan found Robert about 30 feet from Granger Road among trees and brush.

He was fully clothes, his belt was wrapped around his neck and his face and knees were bloody, said Oakland County Sheriff Johannes Spreen.

Robert suffered from a fractured skull and hypothermia. He underwent surgery Friday at Crittenton Hospital and was later transferred to Detroit's Childrens because they have a pediatric intensive care unit.

A jogger seen in the area that morning has been identified and is not a suspect.

Police are not speculating whether a telephone call on Wednesday to Mrs. Ogg is

HEADACHES WERE RUINING HIS LIFE

Manuel Tapia

Manuel Tapia had headaches so severe that he could not lead a normal life. "It was so bad, it was the only thing on my mind. The headache interfered with everything I tried to do."

Manuel had struck his head jumping into a pool and had experienced constant, throbbing pain since that time. "I was told that I couldn't be helped."

"I was very skeptical about being helped by chiropractic, but I had to get help from somewhere. After several adjustments, my headaches started going away and now they're completely gone. I'm very glad I tried Chiropractic."

A trauma to the head or neck region often results in headaches. The trauma frequently causes one of the seven small bones in the neck to become misaligned, which in turn puts a pressure on a nerve as it exits the spine. Automobile accidents and falls are common incidents which twist the bones of the spine out of their normal position.

Your Doctor of Chiropractic has had many years of training in locating and correcting these misalignments in the spine. Chiropractic is your answer to a better, healthier, happier life.

In addition the article said the two passengers that were killed were drinking. Jon Ebert and Timothy Michaels were not.

FINANCIAL PLANNING FOR THE 80's

Continuing with our systematic approach to COMPLETE financial planning, the next sub-topic is Business Planning. For the purposes of our analysis, this area can be looked at from three perspectives: 1) You and your business, 2) You and your employees, 3) You and your retirement.

You and your business deal with determining the proper structure of your business. Should it be a regular corporation, a subchapter S, a partnership, or sole proprietorship? Should you be on a cash or accrual basis? Should you be on LIFO or FIFO? What about continuity of the business. Will it be kept in the family at your death or sold to someone. Have the proper agreements been drafted or is the Probate system going to decide for you.

You and your employees deal with maintaining good morale and high productivity among your employees by making the most of the dollars you're spending on them. This area of fringe benefits planning is probably the most underutilized area in business planning. This is all the more remarkable when you consider that it's the largest expense for a business as well as being one where tax law has dramatically changed in the past six years.

You and your retirement is planning for the rewards you want to give yourself for the many years of hard work and sacrifice in building your business. Though most business owners have definite ideas in this area, by not properly planning for it, their economic welfare is totally dependent on the health of our economy at their time of retirement.

Please send your questions on financial planning to Ted Lakkides, Cygnet Financial Planning, P.O. Box 188, Waterford, MI 48095.

THE RIGHT WAY ...
THE WRONG WAY

Planning for a funeral can be done the right way . . . or, the wrong way. The wrong way causes unnecessary stress on a family already under great pressure from grief. The right way eliminates this burden.

What is the right way to plan a funeral? It's planning ahead, before circumstances force you to make rushed and difficult decisions at the time of need. By pre-planning a funeral, you gain several advantages.

Pre-planning provides peace-of-mind, knowing that all the arrangements have been made and your family won't have to worry about it. Pre-planning lets you make your personal wishes known, ensuring they will be carried out. We record your choices as to clergyman, music, Scripture readings, and the extent of the service, down to the smallest detail.

Finally, making these important decisions at a time when you are not under the pressure of grief means you can make rational, economically sound choices. It's a sensible way to approach funeral planning.

We can provide you with more information on funeral services and pre-planning. Call us . . . there's no obligation.

Halloween Poetry

from the students at Clarkston Junior High

Halloween is here once more and the moon is very bright,
so we get to see things that we can't see, on any other night.

Kids saying "Let's go play"
while others say "Go away",
Everybody is out to trick or treat,
Anywhere there is a street.

Ghosts and goblins,
and kings and queens,
walk all around
because it's Halloween!

They walk out tonight,
with all their might,
to get a bag of treats,
to give to all their friends they meet.

With a grin on their face
and a green pillow case,
they say "trick or treat,
give us something good to eat."

After the day is over and done,
everybody dreams of all their fun,
and all the dressed up people that they've seen,
on this very Happy Halloween!

What Happens on Halloween
As the whistling wind makes a screeching sound,
All the little trick or treaters are running around.
Going from house to house,
in hopes of a treat
Thinking of all the terrifying creatures they could meet.

Up above all the children are the vampire bats.
And in the bushes are the
dreadest black cats.
High above the graveyard fly the witches on brooms.
Looking and laughing at all their favorite tombs.

Walking from the graveyard are the creepy little ghouls, Who left their graves just for tonight but only took their souls.
Here come the swamp creatures who look very scummy
Walking with a skelton,
a demon and a mummy.

Now the gang's all here;
including ten ghosts and a spirit,
Then they all start howling, and when the children hear it,
They all run home screaming, in a horrendous state of fright,
And that is how the spooks get their kicks on Halloween Night.

by Michelle Pettit

There was a young witch on a broom,
Who flew through the sky in a gloom;
When someone asked why,
She said with a sigh,
"I'd much rather have a vacuum!"

Witches and cats are out
On this night, so you'd better beware;
For if by some chance you should doubt,
Be ready for quite a big scare!
by Michelle Sexton

Halloween is a scary season
And that is the reason
For the old green witches
And the ugly people that jump out
Of dirty ditches.
On Halloween night
Be shure to see the sight
Of witches on brooms
Or people in costumes.

We have known Claude Trim for many years and have worked with him on various issues. We can attest to the fact that he is dedicated, hard working, productive, and concerned for the citizens of our district, as well as for the citizens of the entire state. Set forth below are a few of the many priorities he has had in the eight years he has been in the House of Representatives.

1. He has worked with various pieces of legislation that will help to keep responsibility and open communication between local government and the people.
2. He has diligently pursued legislation that will allow fire departments in rural areas an incentive for hauling large quantities of water, that incentive being the lowering of insurance rates considerably.
3. He has consistently worked to reduce property taxes and to provide alternative funding for education.
4. He has worked tirelessly in the realm of public health, to provide that for once and for all times we have a mechanism for cleaning up the toxic waste sites in the State of Michigan. His legislation is now on the Governor's desk and it is being recognized as a national model.

Claude Trim has addressed these and many other issues and he has succeeded in working out solutions for the benefit of the state's citizens. We feel certain you will agree that we need to return Claude Trim to Lansing.

"I know of none in Lansing better qualified or more aware of the needs of the people he represents. Not only is Claude Trim a tireless, dedicated worker, he has gained the deserving recognition by his fellow representatives of being the 'CONSCIENCE OF THE HOUSE.'"

Trying to be a well-informed voter can sometimes be a very trying task. Next Tuesday we'll all be going to the polls to cast our votes for the candidates of our choice, but will we really know what those candidates stand for?

In compiling The Reminder's Election '82 Voter's Guide, we noted some interesting likenesses and differences we would like to share with you.

For instance, in the state representative races, Dunaskiss versus Trim and Seeterlin versus Nichols, the candidates are alike in many respects.

Dunaskiss and Trim both claim their experience in the State House as the number one reason why they should be elected. They both say their track record is best. In fact, with the exception of the unicameral legislature question, they agreed totally with each other's position. The one difference was that Trim favors a unicameral legislature and Dunaskiss thinks it would be too costly.

The same can be said for the Seeterlin-Nichols race. They do not vary significantly on any issue that we queried them about.

That matter changes, however, when one reviews the position of the candidates for county commissioner.

In the Fortino-Hampton race, it is difficult to find an issue that they agree upon. Fortino says the County Executive form of government isn't working; does not favor the Executive taking control of county departments like Children's Village and thinks the Safety Division should be merged with the Sheriff's Department.

On the other hand, her Republican opponent, Hampton, favors the County Executive form of government rigidly; thinks the Executive should have control of Children's Village and thinks the Safety Division should remain as it is. In addition, he feels commissioners should not be allowed to serve more than eight years, a rule that if in effect now, would mean Fortino would have to retire.

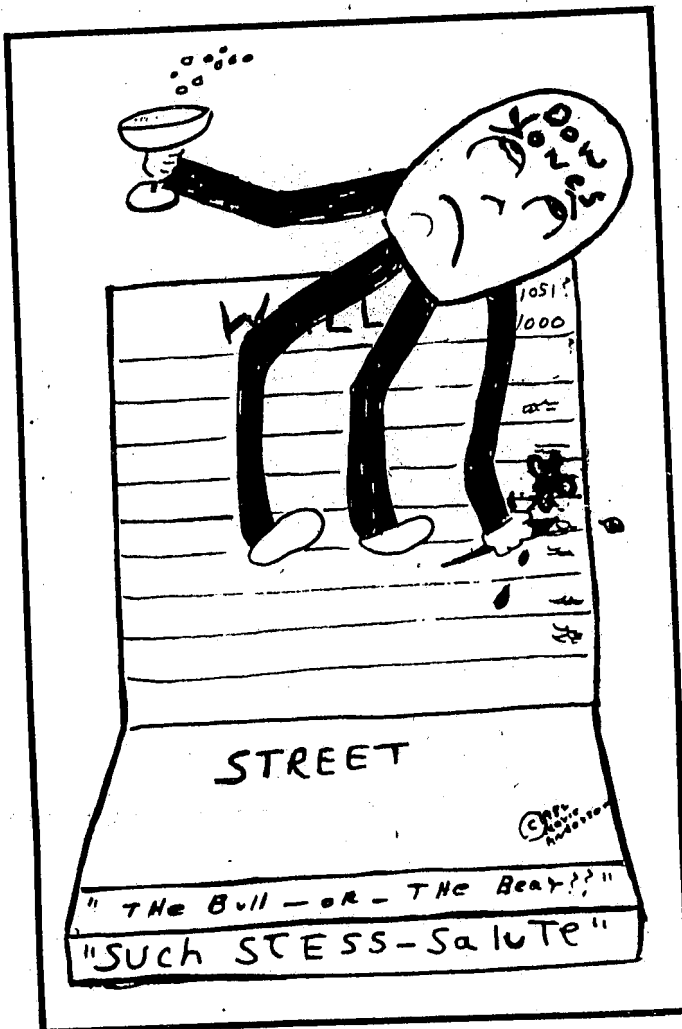

There's a great disparity in the Kuhn-Cybul race also. Although the two are next door neighbors, and very young in age and new to politics, they have several differences of opinion.

Kuhn thinks night meetings are a waste of effort; that the County Executive for the most part is doing a creditable job; and that the jail should not be expanded.

Cybul says his opponent does not like night meetings because he plans to attend law school; that the Executive is not doing such a hot job; and that inmates should be utilized to help build a jail addition.

TRIVIA

by Mike Morrow

The easiest way for a writer to make big bucks nowadays is to write either a self-help book or a diet book.

Since I weigh more than Shamu the killer whale, the diet book is out. That leaves a self-help book.

Because you've all been such faithful readers, I'm going to give you some free quotes and advice from what promises to be the next blockbuster self-help book.

The book is called "You can all go to hell, I only care about me".

CHAPTER ONE: SELF IMAGE

"... Too many of us have a poor self image. That's why I devised the following exercises to boost your ego. I call it the Erik Estrada Method. Start and end each day telling yourself in front of a mirror what a beauty you are and listing all your wonderful qualities. In-between the start and end of the day tell everyone you meet about all your wonderful qualities. Don't worry about boring them, because remember, the entire basis of the self help movement is that no one else matters."

CHAPTER TWO: FAMILY FIGHTS

"... The object of any fight is to win big and if possible, to ruin your opponent's entire day. This is especially true in family fights. The big rule here is to keep two notebooks. One full of a list of all the good things you've done for your family, the other full of the lousy things they've done to you. When a fight starts, whip out your lists. Depending on the family member, you could have them in tears in two minutes..."

CHAPTER THREE: SALESCLERKS

"... As a long time veteran of the self-help movement, I have truly adopted the philosophy "the world owes me a lot". This is never more true than when dealing with a salesclerk. To be effective you have to be rude, crude, obnoxious and demanding. And that's when you only want directions to the bathroom. The real fun starts when you return something..."

That's all I'm giving away for free. If you want to read more, you have to buy the book. You can find it in bookstores next to my other two books, "Get your own way or throw a hissy fit" and "Making people eat mud and like it".

A FREE CIRCULATION WEEKLY NEWSPAPER
SERVING WATERFORD, INDEPENDENCE AND SPRINGFIELD TOWNSHIPS.

Published every week by The Reminder Zone II Inc.,
6569 Dixie Hwy., Clarkston, MI 48016,
Phone: 625-9346.

Dear Editor:

Very rarely do we have a chance to affect the course of our country with our votes. In 1982, we in Independence Township have just such an opportunity if we elect Bob Carr to Congress. Bob is a candidate in the new 6th Congressional District, which stretches from Independence Township and Pontiac, west to Lansing.

Why do I support Bob Carr? Because I am personally aware of his record when he served in Congress from 1975 to 1981. His contributions on the House Interior Committee, as well as the House Judiciary Committee were often over shadowed, and rightly so, by his involvement on the Armed Services Committee and as a Congressional Advisor to the Strategic Arms Limitation Talks (SALT). These activities caused him to be considered by his peers in Congress as one of the nation's most respected voices for secure military and arms control policies.

I respect his thoughtful, honest and aggressive approach to the issues that mean the most to us in Independence Township.

Bob Carr strongly supports education. He is deeply concerned about the loss of $5 million in federal K-12 school aid to the 6th District in the past 2 years. He has offered a proposal to help states devise a new system of financing education by phasing out the burdensome property taxes.

Bob Carr was a leader in Congress of the successful campaign to give deserving students of middle-class families access to federal aid for higher education.

Bob Carr has voted consistently to preserve Social Security benefits for all retirees.

Bob Carr is a leading conservationist and is endorsed by the nationally-respected League of Conservation Voters and the Sierra Club. He understands that our natural resources are of extreme importance to us here in Independence Township.

Bob Carr has conceived a plan for the Michigan economy called a "Depression Tax Credit." This plan will keep more money in our pockets while creating up to 40,000 jobs in the State of Michigan.

Bob regularly voted against budget resolutions that showed a deficit during his 6 years in Congress.

As you can see, Bob Carr is an exciting candidate for Congress. He offers new visions of our possibilities and potentials for a better economy, quality schools, a safe, clean environment, and some peace of mind to senior citizens on fixed Social Security incomes.

Sincerely
Fred Ritter, Treasurer
Township of Independence

LETTERS

Letter to the Editor:

Party politics and Party labels may not be overly important in Township elections, but for every election above that level they are very important. If a legislator is going to be effective for his constituents he must have the support of his fellow Republicans or Democrats. This means that he will often vote the Party position.

Claude Trim's supporters have regularly claimed that he is really more Republican than Democrat. However, Mr. Trim has chosen to remain a Democrat.

Matt Dunaskiss is a Republican both in name and in philosophy. It is time that we elected a representative committed to both his Party and his people.

Matt is a sincere, dedicated and hard working legislator. He deserves your support. Please join me in making him our next representative in the Michigan House.

Dale A. Stuart

Dear Friends,

Because of a re-districting Jim Dunn is our new Congressman. I believe we were very fortunate to have had Bill Broomfield in the past as our Congressman. However, after working with Jim Dunn I am pleased to report that he will, I believe, represent us equally as well as Bill Broomfield did in the past. I believe Jim Dunn is well informed, honest, caring, and will fight for all of us both on the local issues and will become very key on national and international issues. Most important of all, a vote for Jim Dunn is a vote for jobs and a better future for the people of Michigan. Please vote with me for Jim Dunn.

Sincerely,

James A. O'Neill, M.D.

Should the Oakland County Safety Division be disbanded?

Fortino - It should be merged with the Sheriff's Department. There would be a definite cost savings. Two departments create an adversary role and deter morale.

Hampton - No. The Safety Division has its place in county government. It protects county properties. I'm not in favor of consolidating it with the Sheriff, either.

Hampton

Fortino

Please tell us what particular qualifications you have that make you best suited for the county commission?

Fortino - Served eight years on Board of Commissioners. One Hundred percent attendance. Have knowledge of budget that few commissioners have. B.S. from Eastern Michigan University.

Hampton - Successful businessman. Owner of Real Estate firm, that has survived, despite poor economy. Not afraid to make decisions.

What do you think of Oakland County government as a whole?

Fortino - In many ways we're second to none in the nation. Our computer division and Parks and Recreation facilities are outstanding. However, we still must tighten our belts by eliminating needless positions.

Hampton - I'm impressed. Oakland County is blessed with some very good talent. The County Executive exhibits real expertise and the Board is sharp.

The County Executive would like to take over several departments of county government including Children's Village. Do you favor this?

Fortino - No. Just because Act says the County Executive can take it over, doesn't mean we should allow it to happen. The County Executive should concentrate on his own departments. He has problems enough keeping track of the County's gas and food.

Hampton - Yes. It's part of the Act. Let him be accountable for it.

What particular ideas do you have that would make the commission more effective?

Fortino - The Board needs a research staff. Right now we have to struggle to get information from the County Executive. That's unfortunate. Also need to review the budget earlier. Hearings should start six months earlier than they do.

Hampton - Commissioners should not be allowed to serve more than eight years. After that time, they begin to build empires and forget who their constituency is.

YOU CAN TRUST HIM

...As you want to trust your commissioner...

- *To keep the commission as a "Servant to," not "Master Of" the people.
- *To vote to cut property taxes.
- *To reflect TOTAL integrity in office.

Kuhn - Political Science graduate, Oakland University, 1982. Actively involved in Republican party.

Cybul - Majoring in Business Administration at Oakland University.

What particular ideas do you have that would make the commission more effective?

Kuhn - The Board is dragging their feet on a lot of issues. I will introduce a resolution to lower property taxes and promote more efficient government.

Cybul - I would build an addition to the jail to alleviate overcrowding by utilizing inmates in a work program. I would also attempt to clean-up the Springfield and Rose Township toxic waste sites through the use of volunteer help.

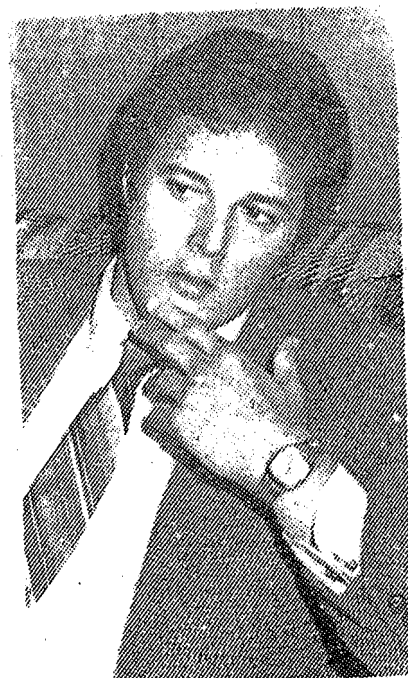

Do you favor the current form of county executive government?

Kuhn - Absolutely 100 percent! It's been very successful and the County Executive has done a fine job. There is, however, a need for the commissioners to have their own civil counsel and better access to information.

Cybul - In theory, it's sound. It's being applied incorrectly, however. There must be a better balance of power between commissioners and the County Executive.

Do you think the Board of Commissioners should hold several of their regular meetings at night?

Kuhn - I can't support night meetings. It will only cost taxpayers a lot more money. It doesn't bring in any more people, as the two night meetings this year have shown.

Cybul - I can't believe my opponent is against night meetings. It's all related to his intentions to attend law school at night.

The County Executive would like to take over several departments of county government including Children's Village. Do you favor this?

Kuhn - The probate judges have

What do you think of Oakland County government as a whole?

Kuhn - It's well run. The county executive form has been very successful. Yet the ongoing political infighting and the feud between the Sheriff, the County Executive and some commissioners is nothing more than political witchhunting. I think the Sheriff's done a fine job.

Cybul - I think it's about as good as can be.

done a fine job in operating Children's Village. Why change?

Cybul - Departments he has taken over are worse off. Unless he has some great ideas, he should not be allowed to take it over.

Please tell us what particular qualifications you have that make you best suited for state senator?

Fessler - My experience and my record thus far. The voters are not voting for an unknown quantity; I have a proven record of representation of the people of my present legislative district and their needs.

Howarth - I have a Doctorate of Law and have operated a small business for several years. I have the ability to influence people and have the imagination to come up with creative solutions when problems arise.

Brotherton - I'm a successful businessman with great imagination and leadership abilities. I'm not doing this to make a living because I'm financially secure.

Do you think legislators deserve more money?

Fessler - If you pay nothing, politics could become a rich person's endeavor only; the more you pay, the more people become interested, to a certain point. I think the pay must be high enough to attract people of varied skills, backgrounds and professions.

Howarth - No. Raising salaries in the past hasn't increased competence.

Brotherton - I think they deserve a lot less. I propose $100 every day they go to work and $30 for expenses.

Do you favor more aid to public schools, and if so, how would you implement it?

Fessler - I favor consistent aid to our public schools wherein the money promised from state government is delivered. The majority of school districts have a declining student population; however, the state should provide funding which would remove the primary burden from property taxes.

Howarth - Yes. As outlined above, I think the withholding tax, if it remained here in the state could provide a lot of money for education.

Brotherton - Education should be the state's No. 1 priority, but it should also be run better on the local level. School boards haven't negotiated contracts properly. We are paying some of the top salaries in the country.

What can the legislature do to bring Michigan's economy around?

Fessler - Alleviate the burden of unnecessary government rules and regulations on the business community in Michigan, provide for a one-stop licensing department in state government and revise the Unemployment Compensation Act and radically revise or do away with the single business tax.

Howarth - A feeling of self-reliance must be created. Too often government steps in and screws things up. We need to cut the salaries of all state employees by 15 percent; quit paying withholding tax on public employees and stop the drain of money from our pockets to the Federal Government.

Brotherton - Jobs. We have created a hostile environment for business. The single business tax, property tax, worker's compensation, unemployment compensation -- they all add up to a big burden on small business and less jobs for the people of this state. And when people are unemployed it also means less taxes paid.

QUESTION

Why do the six-year molars decay so easily?

ANSWER

The first permanent (6 year) molar, (like all molars), has an irregular chewing surface. The pits and fissures on the surface trap bacterial plaque that grows on the teeth. Since you cannot remove the plaque from these crevices, decay results.

Do you favor property tax reductions? If so, how much and how would you make up the reduction?

Fessler - Yes, I favor property tax reductions and have worked actively for years inside the legislative process and by way of petition drives to reduce property taxes and exempt senior citizens from paying property taxes on school operational millage. Earmark and allocate one percent of our present sales tax, which is equivalent to $450 to $500 million dollars of revenue, for 1982-83, and decrease property taxes similar to the method used in the State of Florida.

Howarth - I object to the Homestead Property Tax.

Brotherton - Yes. I favor rolling property taxes back to their 1980 level and then cutting them 15 percent each year for the next three years. We can do without the taxes. The answer is not more and more taxes. Take a look at California.

Do you favor unicameral legislation? How about a part-time legislature?

Fessler - I do not favor a unicameral legislature; those states that have one are much more homogeneous than Michigan. I would favor a part-time legislature; I co-sponsored legislation in 1976, which had it passed, would have implemented such a system: Sixty days in the winter and thirty days in the fall.

Howarth - I favor both. In fact I would like to eliminate the Senate. If elected I will put my salary and officeholder's budget towards a petition drive to eliminate the Senate.

Brotherton - I favor a part-time legislature. It's successful in 45 states. In fact I'm helping to form a convoy from here to Grand Rapids that will publicize our efforts to get a part-time legislature. It could save the state $20 million.

ney, City of Pontiac. Attorney 8 years.
Graduate Michigan State U., B.A. 1967;
Detroit College of Law, J.D. 1974.

What can the legislature do to bring Michigan's economy around?

Seeterlin - Must put people back to work by diversifying economy and retraining skilled labor. Must rework single business tax, which in its present form is disincentive to business.

Nichols - Must try to improve business climate. Businesses are moving to other states where regulations are more favorable.
Must deregulate and institute
business incentives.

Do you favor more aid to public schools? If so how would you implement it?

Seeterlin - Yes. The State is shirking its responsibility.
Education should be a top priority.

Nichols - Yes. I favor a plan that would increase the amount of aid to public schools by one percent each year until 30 percent.

Do you favor a unicameral legislature? How about a part-time legislature?

Seeterlin - I don't favor either.
The two houses offer a check and balance against one another. The legislature needs a great deal of overhauling and that won't be accomplished by working part-time.

Nichols - Both should be explored, and have the potential of saving taxpayers a lot of money.

Do you favor property tax reductions? If so how much and how would you make up the lost revenue?

Seeterlin - Yes. The property tax is a poor tax. Taxes should be based on the ability to pay.

Nichols - It certainly needs reform. There are many inequities between one district to the next. The circuit breaker provision is good, but doesn't come until after taxes are paid.

Do you favor the practice of placing mentally handicapped persons in foster care homes?

Seeterlin - Yes. It's a savings to the State, as well as an asset to the community if implemented right. There is a problem with implementation and I would favor a moratorium on community placement until implementation is working better.

Nichols - Conceptually, I favor it. There must, however, be a greater degree of local participation in the placement process.

Are there any other issues or concerns you would like to talk about?

Trim - Voters should compare my record versus my opponent's. I've served eight years and am serving on four committees. I am and will be a strong voice in Lansing. On the other hand, my opponent has served only one term and has not been able to pass one piece of major legislation.

Dunaskiss - I'm proud of my track record. I was a leader in the fight not to increase the income tax. We must do more to improve our economy.

Do you think legislators deserve more money?

Trim - I believe that I am adequately paid and would oppose any legislation to increase our

What can the legislature do to bring Michigan's economy around?

Trim - Must provide jobs by instituting public work programs. State's structure of taxation must be overhauled.

Dunaskiss - Must lower the cost of doing business.

Do you favor more aid to public schools? If so how would you implement it?

Trim - I have been a strong proponent and would favor a constitutional amendment to add one percent to the sales tax, specifically for education.

Dunaskiss - Yes, that's one of my major campaign themes. I've sponsored a bill called the Dunaskiss Income Tax Limitation. Would earmark 4.6 percent of state budget for education.

Do you favor a unicameral legislature? How about a part-time legislature?

Trim - I favor a constitutional amendment to form a unicameral legislature. I propose the legislature consist of 72 members, four from each Congressional District, and elected for four year terms. I favor this over a part-time legislature.

Dunaskiss - I'm not in favor of a unicameral legislature because it would cost more money than our present system. A part-time legislature may be a possibility.

Dunaskiss - I have placed last year's increase in a trust account. A salary increase at this time would be totally irresponsible.

More Letters

Dear Editor:

For the past few months I have been studying the records of our two candidates for Congress and have come to the conclusion that Jim Dunn deserves our support. He has effectively worked on behalf of the U.S. auto industry and pushed hard to bring federal dollars back to Michigan, and particularly the Sixth Congressional District. Dunn has supported reduced government spending, reduced taxation and reduced regulations which has had an impressive impact on inflation and interest rates -- the major factors which affect unemployment. During Dunn's first two years in Congress, the growth rate in unemployment is half of what it was during Bob Carr's last two years in office when he supported the failed policies of the Carter Administration nearly 100 percent of the time.

Jim Dunn has proven that he can cut through federal government red tape to help his constituents and consistently voted for measures to support business in our state. During Carr's tenure in office, he opposed a measure to ensure the U.S. foreign aid money would not be used to produce and export competing foreign steel and tires, both crucial to our auto industry. Dunn, on the other hand, introduced legislation designed to impose tough import fees on the Japanese, unless they reduce those costs to our cars going to that country.

In these tough economic times, we need someone in Congress who understands economics and who cares deeply about the future of Michigan. Jim Dunn will get my vote on November 2.

Dear Sir:

Speaking for the Dunaskiss Campaign Committee, we are totally dismayed about campaign signs which have been repeatedly damaged and torn down. Since no opponent would be doing this, it is obviously an act of vandalism. Another point is that supporters of the candidates have contributed both funds and labor to these signs.

Given these factors, it is and has been a long-standing policy of the Dunaskiss campaign that no tampering with signs of any opponent will be permitted. Any volunteers found doing so will be immediately removed from the Dunaskiss organization and their names be made available for prosecution.

So, we ask for equivalent fair play from those people bent on destroying our signs. Remember, if you will, not only have our supporters worked hard to pay for and erect them, but more importantly you seriously detract from the public's right to be informed as to the better choice.

Sincerely,
Michael Draving
Campaign Manager

Letter to the Editor,

As election day draws near, we'd like to express our reasons for deciding to vote for State Representative Mat Dunaskiss as our voice in Lansing.

Mat's positions on these issues, which we feel are important to us both locally and statewide, helped us make our decision:

1. Mat knows government must learn to live within its revenues; the size and cost of state government must be reduced.

2. Mat knows education is our most important investment in the future; education must become a top budget priority once again.

3. Mat knows Michigan must have more jobs; there must be a reform of the small business tax.

4. Mat knows local government must have more input and greater control over such things as landfills and toxic waste disposal.

If you, too, want a representative who is readily accessible and who will consistently vote for the issues we feel are of prime importance, we hope you will join us in re-electing Mat Dunaskiss on November 2.

SMALL TALK

by Rebecca Roberts

Voting day is next Tuesday, November 2nd. There will be a lot of names on the ballot, names of people we'll be expected to know at least as well as we know Johnny Carson.

But Johnny and television were made for each other. Our would-be or will-be governor, congresspeople, senators, etc., have had to be pushed and polished into television's unforgiving glare, so that they might appear kinder, softer, funnier, more dedicated.

What can we really tell about candidate Joe Jargon as he peers at us from cosmetically widened eyes, eyes riveted front and center, voice leavened with just the right mixture of stern indignation and ol' buddy intimacy as his otherwise controlled features wrinkle carefully with just the right degree of concern.

What do we really get as we gaze at J.J. down that long oblique tube that holds the closeup smile, nudges us with just folks' coziness, leads us to believe it, no matter what.

Today's political race is the race of the public relations' team, a race to see that the candidate is groomed, tuned and rearranged to conform to television's glassy square. A candidate must be more visible than his or her own beliefs. He must project the peculiar mien of a person schooled but not too schooled, brave but not brash, girdled and guarded in word and expression, so not to offend.

Television has changed forever the lay of the political land and we might as well know it and use it to our advantage. Debates are an excellent vehicle to capture the elusive but truer soul that lurks beneath a candidate's made-for-TV pose. Given an astute moderator and an aggressive panel who will drill the politicians about individual/party stands, there is a chance for humanness and real information.

As for the ads, information is not the point. Charisma is. When our friend Joe Jargon nails us with those eyes, his hands folded neatly and with great precision like a funeral director with our best interests at heart, we can try to look through those television eyes to the person beyond, to Joe Jargon's real self, watching the flinch of human flesh that is sure to come, listening for the gulp or the quiver, the unrehearsed lint that is invariably there.

The video pitches do tell us something, however glossy the packaging, and as the battle for election quickens, newspapers and magazines become telltale tabloids as each candidate races to get in his/her last word. As voters, we need to squeeze every word and picture offered, because, in the words of Joe Jargon, "my fellow Americans, at this point in time, well, it's all we've got."

Advice for the Trick-or-Treater

Be on guard...Many Halloween trick-or-treaters will not be as easy for drivers to see as these youngsters who heed the Automobile Club of Michigan's advice to wear bright costumes, have reflective tape on clothing and carry flashlights. The clown and the Indian chief also are wearing face makeup rather than masks which obscure vision. The football player makes one serious traffic safety mistake. He should not be wearing the vision-restricting helmet, especially while crossing the street. To help make this a safe Halloween for young trick-or-treaters, the Auto Club is distributing free "Light Up a Life" safety tip cards at its 56 offices statewide.

More Letters

To the Editor:

The race for the 61st District House Seat between Trim and Dunaskiss centers on experience, competence and leadership.

Trim has fourteen years as a public servant in government positions while Dunaskiss has only six. Claude worked for the auto industry and understands the problems of labor, especially auto workers better than a school teacher ever could.

As for leadership, in the legislature Claude has guided thirty pieces of legislature into law in contrast to Dunaskiss' four. Dunaskiss says that's not really reflective of the capability of a legislator. If a legislator is not elected to pass laws to help us then why is he in Lansing?

Dunaskiss has stated that one of the most important aspects of a legislator is working on individual concerns. Well, we can tell from our own experience and from the experience of many others that Trim excels in this area. Win or lose Claude will always be a winner because you will never find anyone who cares more about people and their problems.

Claude has stopped at our house many times to keep us informed on how matters are progressing in Lansing on our "backyard toxic dump". Thanks to Claude we have seen and continue to get results. We feel free to call him at anytime at home or in Lansing.

In the case of a severe mental health problem, we called Claude and he was to the home in fifteen minutes and spent hours phoning and getting help.

In the case of a teenager in trouble, Claude worked with Children's Village in Pontiac to pave the way for a young man to get the help he needed.

If you want competent leadership, one who has know-how and experience to get things done, then you will vote for Claude Trim.

Dear Editor:

Remember when - gasoline was 8 gallons for $1.00?

Remember when - bittersweet was just a pretty bunch of short-stemmed wild orange and crimson berries picked out in the woods or along a country-road back home?

Remember when - bittersweet was sold for 50¢ a "bunch" during the Depression?

Remember when - bittersweet was just plucked from the farmer's fence rows without even the permission of the landowner?

Remember when - bittersweet was stripped from state grounds and parks?

Well - these above don't happen any more! That wild American Bittersweet is rarely seen, if at all.

Michigan's Legislature had to pass a law in 1962 to control abuse of property owner's of bittersweet.

My American Bittersweet was wild 30 years ago. Now it is domesticated, fertilized, watered, pruned, protected from frosts, pampered and not cheap. Mine is just beautiful, brilliant in its orange and crimson berries on long stems and is the non-falling apart kind.

It is the best bittersweet anywhere. I say, like Chrysler's Mr. Iacocca, 'If you can find a better buy, but it.'

If you want the best, you will pay the best. This kind doesn't need to be sprayed with hair spray to hold it together, nor does it need to be glued into your arrangement.

Mine lasts for years. The sticker-shock upsets those people who would like Depression prices to be still in effect.

Friend of the Court

by Roland C. Fancher, Esq.

As indicated in my previous article, the Michigan Legislature has enacted the new "Friend of the Court Act." Since last writing, Governor Milliken has signed the law, and it becomes effective July 1, 1983. The act is designed to define and describe the powers and duties of the Friend of the Court, to insure that procedures of the Office protect the best interests of children in domestic relations matters, to encourage and assist the parties in voluntary resolution of disputes, to compel the enforcement of visitation, custody and support orders, and to reduce the financial cost to the State of Michigan of providing public assistance benefits for the care of dependent minor children.

Various duties are mandated for performance by the Office. For example, before a domestic relations matter is adjudicated, the Friend of the Court must first provide an informational pamphlet as discussed in the previous article. The parties must also be informed of the availability of domestic relations mediation if there is a dispute as to custody or visitation. If domestic relations mediation is refused or unsuccessful, the Office must conduct an investigation and make a recommendation regarding child custody and visitation. An investigation and report as to child support must be made only if ordered by the Court.

The procedures to be used and the impact of the new statute are being devised at the present time, and may be the subject of future articles. The procedures for domestic relations mediation may prove the most radical change which occurs. Proponents believe that it will reduce the use of courtroom time, reduce the hostility and bitterness inherent in custody and visitation disputes, and reduce the costs involved in litigation. Critics argue that it will have little impact, as the parties will prove incapable of resolving their differences, and that it will unnecessarily lengthen the divorce process by adding a further step. Both positions will likely prove correct. In some cases, the parties will resolve their differences through mediation. In others, they will not, and it will prove to be a wasted use of time, effort and money. The mediation process will be discussed in greater detail in a future article.

The investigative function now performed by the Office will remain largely unaffected by the new law. While more clearly defined in the new statute, the process to be used seems in accord with the procedures now used by the Oakland County Friend of the Court. Other counties may need to revise some of their operations, but I foresee no need to change those currently utilized by Oakland County.

If you have questions concerning the operations of the Oakland County Friend of the Court or the impact of the new statute, please address them to Mr. Fancher in care of The Reminder. Questions regarding individual cases should be sent directly to the Office of the Friend of the Court, 1200 N. Telegraph, Pontiac, MI 48053.

"If you are not satisfied, we are not satisfied."
 William Darking and his three sons Dave, Tom and Dan, have started a new business, Tidy Car, at 5904 Dixie Highway, Waterford, next to Harvey's Colonial Restaurant, to have you protect your car, airplane or R.V. investment, permanently from the Body Killers. Acid, rain, snow, air pollution and road salt all take a toll on your car.
 The Darking Family is trained to apply a "Preserv-a-Shine"® (never wax again) after thoroughly hand washing the entire car, including the wheels; removing grease and fine scratches and road tar. The interior is not overlooked either. After shampooing and reconditioning, "Upholstery Gard2"® is applied for fabric protection, also includes leather and vinyl.

The beauty of their business is mobility; they can work at "your place or theirs".

Tidy Car has over 2000 dealers nationwide and is in more than 40 countries worldwide. They belong to a dealer association in Michigan which numbers 50 at the present time. As Tidy Car dealers they are independent businessmen in your community. That's protection you can trust from people you know. And the fact that Tidy Car's exclusive processes are backed by the manufacturer means you have double assurance of quality and service.

The Darkings were located for two years in West Bloomfield and have many happy and satisfied customers. They attend seminars periodically sponsored by Tidy Car. Business hours are 8 a.m. - 6 p.m. Monday through Saturday. Evening and weekend appointments are welcomed also.

Waterford Fuel's Motto -- Dependable Service

Dependable service since 1932... that has been the motto of the Mohlberg family since the day Henry Mohlberg went to work for five well known men from the Waterford area.

Times were tough in those days and $10.00 per week was barely enough to feed a family of five. But, Henry Mohlberg began his work as manager of the Waterford Farm Supply Co., owned by Robert C. Beattie, Sr., Russell Walter, George Whitfield, Percy King, and George Kimball. He took a then family business and built it into a successful business of furnishing coal, food and farm supplies to customers in the Waterford and Clarkston area.

The name of the company was changed to Waterford Farm Supply & Coal Co. Ten years later a new office building was built to accommodate the expanded business. In 1944 Henry Mohlberg became an equal partner in the business.

Over the years, as the business grew, more than 120 cars of coal were sold each year. The feed business grew to more than 3 carloads per month (remember Kasco Feeds with the "dress print" bags?) women bought feed and made dresses out of the bags. It became a well known fact. Most everyone made dresses, aprons, and even shorts from those bags.

In 1952 fuel oil was added to the line and the name of the company was changed to the present "Waterford Fuel & Supply Co.", selling coal, feed, poultry supplies, fertilizers, seeds and fuel oil.

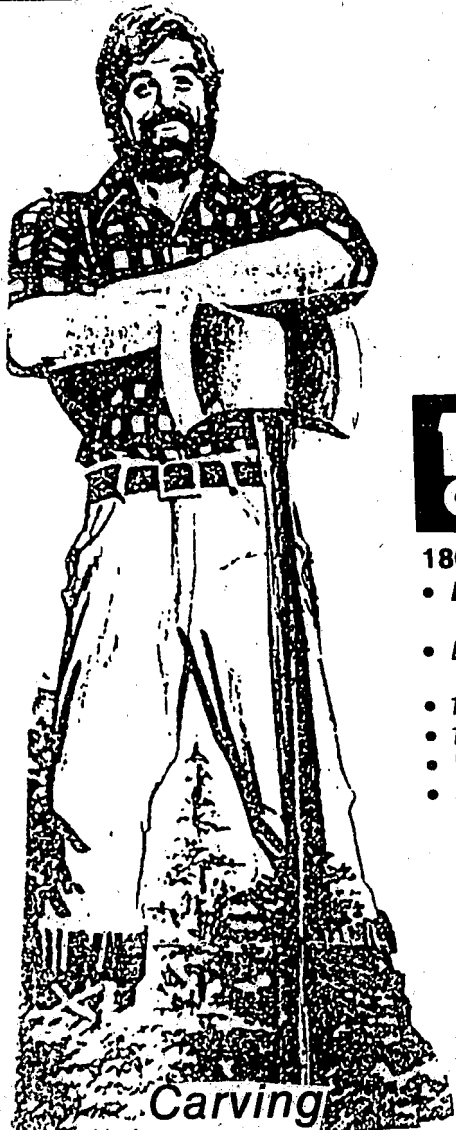

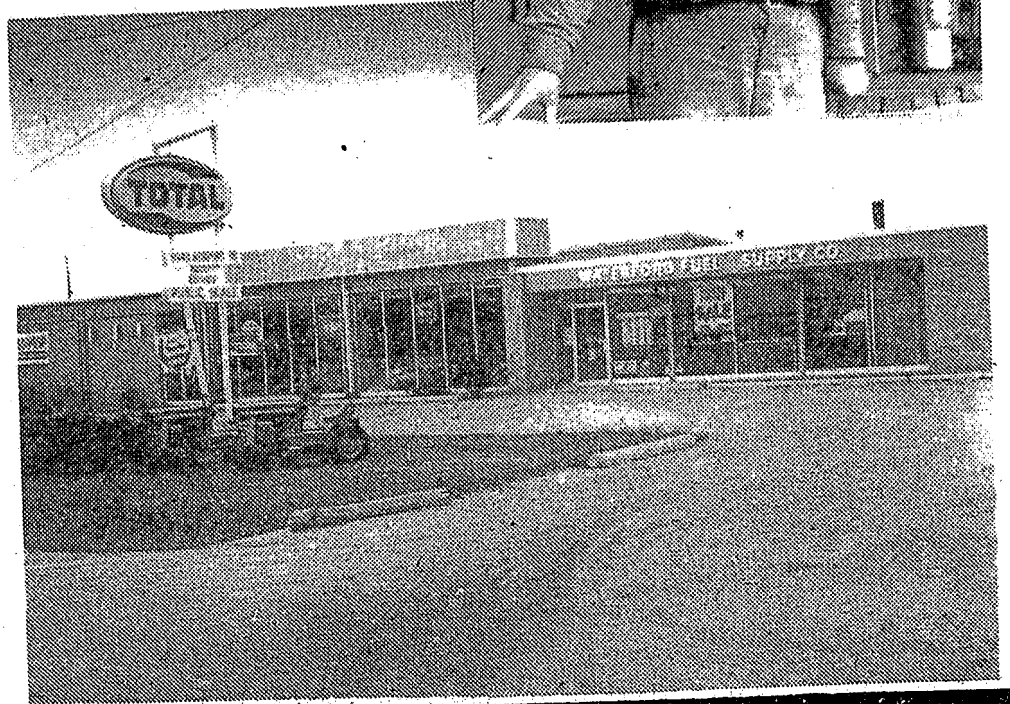

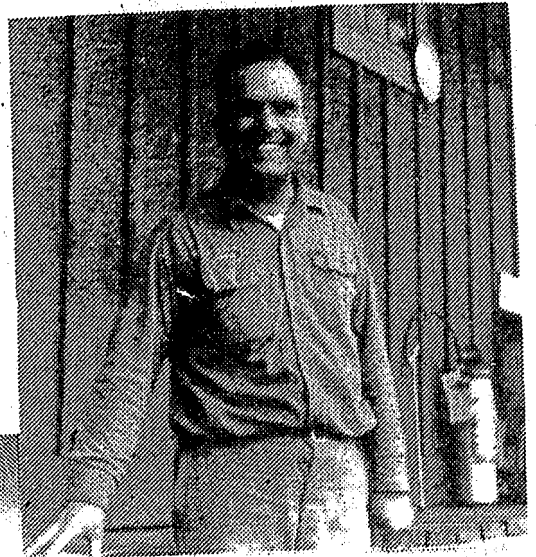

The business continued to grow and in 1960 ground was broken for the new and present location of the Waterford Fuel & Supply Co., at 3943 Airport Rd., Waterford, Michigan.

In 1961, Henry Mohlberg sold out his share of the business to his two sons, Robert and David, who are still the owners of the company. Since then, coal and feed have dropped from the line and lawn and garden equipment have taken their place, along with Martin Sons paint and Total gasoline, chain saws, and snow blowers.

A new 6,000 square foot addition has been added to the existing structure. The business now features such equipment lines as Toro, Snapper, Jacobsen, Yardman, Wheel Horse, Stihl, Poulan, as well as a full line of parts for the do-it-yourselfers.

Although the kind of business is entirely different today than when it all started in 1932, the motto and aim is still the same for the Mohlberg family... "Dependable Service."

Your VOTE Can Make a Difference

Please VOTE for the Candidates of Your Choice
on November 2.

There is a Proposal on the November 2nd ballot that could destroy our prospects for economic recovery in Michigan. IT'S CALLED PROPOSAL D

Proposal D Would

1. Raise utility rates.

Its most damaging provision prohibits Michigan's utilities from recovering legitimate operating expenses in a timely manner. The average delay — from 14 months to 2 years — would force utility companies to borrow at high interest rates just to continue to operate. This additional interest could add up to more than $150 million by 1984 — all of which would be included in costs to customers.

2. Drive business out of the state.

Because of Proposal D, Michigan's utilities were put on a "credit watch" by Wall Street, driving up interest rates and forcing utilities to tighten their belts. If proposal D passes, the result could be unstable energy supplies that would drive businesses and industries out of the state and keep new employers from moving in.

3. Cost Michigan desperately needed jobs.

When businesses and industries leave a state they take their jobs with them, and new employers don't move in. When one person loses a job, many more jobs are threatened. If Proposal D passes, there will be more and more people in Michigan on the unemployment rolls.
