By BILL SLIGER

Brighter nights are here for Northville's business district. Installation of 24 mercury vapor lamps in the shopping area has been completed. They'll provide more than double the previous illumination.

The new lighting has been a pet project of Councilman-Merchandise Black, who started promoting the idea more than two years ago. Initially, it was believed that there would be an installation charge for the new lamps. So Black obtained pledges from fellow merchants to cover the anticipated $1,000 charge. It later developed that the city's lights were old enough to be replaced without cost by Detroit Edison.

Free or not, the lights were still mighty slow in coming. It was first announced that they would be installed for Christmas, 1965.

But patience and perseverance have paid off and congratulations are due Councilman Black. Well-lighted streets, parking lots and alleys are important improvements. And while it was slow in coming, the improvement was a well-timed addition to the community's "clean-up, paint-up, fix-up... light-up" campaign.

It was probably all in a day's work to Bud Hartner, Northville's director of public works. But one of his unpaid "reliable sources" relates the following experience that took place Monday night.

Hartner was called by the police dispatcher when it was reported that two small youngsters were stuck in mud at the creek behind the new Fairbrook apartments.

When he arrived he found one boy had pulled himself out, but the second was hopelessly stuck, waist-deep.

Bud plunged into the water and rescued the lad, who was deeply grateful. As he was taking the boys home, the one he had pulled from the creek asked "what is your name?"

Whereupon Hartner replied, "It's Bud, but if I catch you in that creek again, your name will be mud."

(Incidentally, the boys were both Clement road township residents. Bud probably never thought to ask first if they were city residents, which might indicate that city-township cooperation is possible and contrary to some reports at official levels, the city isn't all bad.)

Northville was well represented in the recent 40th anniversary celebration of the Michigan Seamless Tube Company in South Lyon. The occasion also marked the official dedication of the expanding company's corporate offices.

William G. Troy, vice president in charge of purchasing, Production Manager M. F. House and Chief Engineer E. A. Zywiec are all Northville residents and were principals in the planning and staging of the open house observance.

Michigan Seamless Tube began operations in South Lyon 40 years ago and now has grown from annual sales of a few thousand dollars to more than $50 million. The company, headed by William A. McHattie, also owns Gulf States Tube Company in Texas and Standard Tube Company of Detroit and Shelby, Ohio.

The open house ceremonies included tours of the plant as well as the modern, two-floor office building which provides some 8,000 square feet of space.

Perhaps the highlight of the official dedication was a gift of appreciation from the city of South Lyon. Presented by the city's general manager, John E. Noel, the gift was the remaining of Lawton street, which ends at the new corporate offices, to "McHattie street."

Later Mayor Noel bestowed the fact that he had forgotten to plant a little side remark in his speech to the effect that "if I had a street with my name on it, I'd sure see to it that it was paved!"

Top of the Deck

By JACK W. HOFFMAN

He's a little fellow; 60 pounds packed into an 11-year-old kind of frame that Norman Rockwell would paint with freckles around the nose, with curly black hair, and with a smile that winds up like a clock at five after eleven. He's a jack-in-the-box; bouncing up when the lid's off to chase a butterfly, to race around the yard brandishing a willow saber, to poop up wigging polywogs from the pond down the street, and to shimmy up a skinny Elm.

He's a walking question mark; wondering always why the grasshopper fits and falls while the bird dives and soars, why stars shine at night and not during the day, and why some people have a different "Christmas" but always the same Halloween.

And he's a faucet; dripping with hurts and happiness. Danny's a good deal like the boy in your neighborhood, in your home. A year ago he was a loner, a boy who waited for someone to open the lid, and a boy who held back a tear because there was no one to catch it.

He's a boy without a father. "The first few times he came to the house, he'd stand around with his hands in his pocket instead of sitting, walk instead of running. 'Danny, would you like a bottle of pop?' I'd ask him. He wouldn't reply or he'd say, 'Rope!' To him I was a stranger and, well, I guess he was a stranger to me. You couldn't blame him. He saw me as just another guy giving him a pitch about wanting to be a friend but who probably would shove him out of the way like a used-up toy. His life was full of guys like that. His real father was gone and he'd had a couple of others who didn't care and who didn't last."

Carl Johnson of Northville was speaking. He was telling about the boy who "worned his way into my home and took a piece of me. But I've got part of him, too, so I guess it's a fair trade."

Carl and Danny are brothers—not in the real sense of the word, but brothers in the boy-man relationship offered by the Big Brothers of America. Boy and man were introduced a year ago through the BBA office in Pontiac.

Danny was one of the hundreds of fatherless boys on the waiting list, and Carl figured he'd give the Big Brother a tryout.

"At first it was really more of a challenge than anything else. He was a good enough boy, but he'd been in trouble a few times. When the lid's off to chase a butterfly, to race around the yard brandishing a willow saber, to poop up wigging polywogs from the pond down the street, and to shimmy up a skinny Elm. "After a few months he started opening up, but even then he wouldn't put his full confidence in me. It didn't take an expert to see that he was testing me, probably wondering when I'd ditch him."

"I guess the first inkling that I had that he was changing was when his mother told me he was doing better in school and that whenever some question came up at home, Danny would say, 'Ask Carl.' "The boy and man spent about four hours a week together, going to basketball games, touring the airport and just chilling away time at the Johnson home. "Everything was going along just fine until I got a telephone call one day from him. He was crying. He said his family was moving from Wixom over near Detroit. 'He was afraid I'd drop him for sure. "So the relationship continued, and the bond that tied them together grew tighter. "But a new problem is developing, explains Carl, even though the problem is really a gauge of success. The Big Brother organization figures the boy-man relationship has served its purpose, that the Big Brother has done his job well when the boy starts preferring companionship with boys his own age. "But," says Carl, "it hurts a little when I call and ask him if he'd like to go to a game or something and he says, 'I'd like to Carl but Steve and I are going on a hike.' "Danny's not a loner anymore. "But," says Carl, "it hurts a little when I call and ask him if he'd like to go to a game or something and he says, 'I'd like to Carl but Steve and I are going on a hike.'"

Should he confess to a crime (withcraft) which he has not committed and save his life, or adhere to the truth? In an anguished final scene, performed with flair, Proctor chooses to die.

The most surprising performance, however, was turned in by Tuesday Weld, known only for her shallow parts as a zany nymphet. In "The Crucible" she takes the part of Abigail Williams, the emotional and diabolical housewife and does a bang-up job. Probably, for the first time, she is a serious actress of some magnitude.

There are two other notable performances, that of Colleen Dewhurst as Elizabeth Proctor and Melvyn Douglas as Governor Danforth. It is this cast that makes The Crucible come off as a forceful historical event.

Miller's particular problem is the contemporary milieu that give birth to the play, American had just shrugged off a witch hunt of its own—the McCarthy investigation of Communist conspiracy in the United States. Miller was one of those subpoenaed and implicated in the Communist plot. This prompted the playwright to search out an objective vehicle through which he could comment on the McCarthy persecution. Thus, "The Crucible."

Monday—Cubed beef gravy with mashed potatoes, buttered corn, bread and butter, rhubarb, and milk. Tuesday—Ravioli, cheese wedge, lettuce wedge, rolls and butter, fresh apple cake and brown sugar frosting, and milk. Wednesday—Swiss steak, mashed potatoes, peas and carrots, rolls and butter, apple sauce, and milk. Thursday—Sloppy joe on bun, lettuce, marshmallow, apple salad, lettuce wedge, grapefruit, and milk. Friday—Fish six, French fries, cole slaw, rolls and butter, cherry short bread, and milk. Alternate menu for each of these days includes hamburger on bun, French fries, salad, dessert, and milk. Featured in the soup line is split pea soup on Monday, bean on Tuesday, chicken noodle on Wednesday, vegetable on Thursday, and tomato on Friday.

Last week's performance proved that the play can stand alone, thanks to a strong cast, well chosen. Taking the lead was George C. Scott as John Proctor. This is basically his story and Scott made it come to life. Proctor is a fallen man, having committed adultery with his former house girl, Abigail Williams. She has since been dismissed by John's wife, Elizabeth, who knows of her husband's infidelity. When she is accused of witchcraft, her husband takes her part. He stands by her—and the truth—and goes to the gallows. This is Scott at his best. He projects the image of independent, gull ridden, uncompromising, yet human, John Proctor. He turns to his wife for advice.

Wixom Eyes Week Chock-Full of Fun

Saturday will mark the beginning of Wixom's annual Michigan Week celebration, which includes a big dance, mayors' exchange, a school play, a bicycle parade, an exhibit, a ball game and good things to eat.

Kicking off the round of festivities will be the Wixom Goodfellows dance from 9 p.m. Friday until 1 a.m. Saturday at the Wixom Hall on Wixom road. The dance is open to the public at a charge of $5 per couple. Snacks and refreshments will be served.

Highlighting Monday's Our Government Day will be the visit of Rufus Dodge, president of the village of Wolvenerine, a community of 300 people in the heart of northern lower Michigan's resort, deer hunting and trout area.

Dodge, who presently operates a dairy queen business in neighboring Charlevoix, will be accompanied by Trustee Jack Stonehouse. He is employed with Consumers' Power company.

Acting as official hosts will be Councilman and Mrs. Oscar Simmons, in lieu of Mayor and Mrs. Wesley McAttee who will be the guests of Wolvenerine village Sunday night and Monday, along with Councilman and Mrs. Donald Nissen.

Pupils to Elect King 'n Queen

Crowning of the Beautification King and Queen of Wixom elementary school will take place today (Thursday) at 2 p.m.

In addition, the Wixom beautification committee will select the two best beautification posters and award prizes to their sixth grade creators.

Selection of the King and Queen—kindergarten students. Trivially, to vote for their favorite kindergarten students must perform some act of beautification at home, such as cleaning the yard, planting flowers, etc.

The King and Queen will share the spotlight during Wixom's celebration of Our Government Day during Michigan Week by presenting the key to the city to the visiting dignitaries from Wolvenerine.

BUNDLE OF FUN—Orchard Hills elementary school played host to a jam-packed audience of young and old Friday for the annual Novi school fair. Like Jim Stevens here, 7-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stevens, 23919 Heartwood, children, parents, and visitors enjoyed a bundle of fun. What they didn't consume on the premises they took away in their arms in the way of prizes and good things to eat. And while everyone enjoyed themselves inside, Novi police faced a giant traffic problem outside in their all-out effort to get motorists in and out of the parking lot with the least bit of delay.

All were unanimously chosen. During the meeting, the Memorial Day parade and the annual Days in August were discussed.

The next meeting is slated for 7:30 p.m. May 18 at the Novi Community building. Final plans for floats and decorations for Memorial Day will be made. All organizations are urged to participate to make this the best year yet.

Development of the 284 adjacent acres as an industrial park is pegged at $500,000 and will be undertaken by Englehardt, Buettner and Holt of Royal Oak, industrial contractors. The property is jointly owned by the Highland Lake country club, a subsidiary of the contracting company, MGM Associates, Inc. and the Wixom investment company, Inc.

Mayor Foster Huber, Ionia's first Republican mayor in 18 years, will head the list of visiting dignitaries Monday on Our Government Day in Novi.

Accompanying the mayor on his drive to dusk activities will be his wife, Eleanor, Councilman Raymond Jamison and his wife, Rosa, and Councilman Vernon Pinnow and his wife, Mary.

They will be met on the expressway and escorted to the Novi village hall for introductions at approximately 9 a.m., after which coffee, cakes and doughnuts will be served.

Councilman James operates an insurance business and is serving his second two-year term as councilman, as is Councilman Pinnow, who is employed by Michigan Bell Telephone company.

There is just a city of 7,000 people, located west of Lansing, and founded in 1833. It is the site of three institutions: Ionia State hospital for the mentally ill, Michigan Reformatory, a maximum security prison, and Michigan Training Unit, a medium security prison and clubs in the city.

The most eagerly anticipated special event in Ionia is the Ionia Fair, held each year early in August and attracting over half a million people.

Journeying to Ionia will be Village President Philip Anderson, Councilman Leo Barrows and his wife and Councilman Donald Fuller and his wife.

Among the activities planned for the Novi delegation is an interview at the Ionia radio station, a tour of the city, a mock council meeting, a luncheon sponsored by various service organizations, tours of city departments, a social hour and dinner.

For 284 Wixom Acres Industrial Plans Told

Application for rezoning of approximately 342 acres on Pontiac Trail—284 for the proposed development of a giant industrial subdivision—was submitted to the Wixom city planning commission on May 8.

The commission promptly approved the request of Vernon Spencer and William Buettner. It asked that the property, located west of Wixom road and fronting on the south side of Pontiac Trail, be rezoned from residential to light manufacturing.

As recommended, the request is tentatively slated to come before the Wixom city council on May 23. At that time, the council will discuss merits of setting a public hearing.

A planning change paved the way for the commission's action. Earlier this year, planners decided to consider piecemeal rezoning to light manufacturing "in an orderly fashion" of all property lying south of the Grand Trunk railroad and west of Wixom road.

Spencer, who operates an airport on a portion of his 58 acres in Wixom, has no immediate plans for industrial development. "The right price," however, would bring a sale, Mrs. Spencer said.

Development of the 284 adjacent acres as an industrial park is pegged at $500,000 and will be undertaken by Englehardt, Buettner and Holt of Royal Oak, industrial contractors. The property is jointly owned by the Highland Lake country club, a subsidiary of the contracting company, MGM Associates, Inc. and the Wixom investment company, Inc.

Representing the developers, Buettner said they are making plans to subdivide the land into one and one-half to five acre parcels. They will be sold, leased or optioned to prospective industrial customers.

Pending favorable city action, actual construction will depend on sewer completion, Buettner said. The 284-acre parcel was purchased from Carl F. Ingraham.

And it is a problem. During the three month licensing period from December through February, Novi Township Treasurer Duane Bell reports that he issued 1,000 licenses, 400 more than last year. He estimates that approximately 15 percent were for dogs outside of Novi, but there are Novi residents whose dogs are not licensed.

"We know the owners of most of the dogs running loose in Willowbrook north of Novi," Buettner said, "but we have to catch them, in order to get action, Novic's about to. And people are reluctant to report their neighbors."

In other words, says the problem is personal as well as public. The only dog catching services available are offered by the county, but days and weeks might elapse before the understaffed county dog warden department is able to respond. Mrs. Fohman also lauded the Novi police department for the efforts it puts forth.

But as things stand, the problem is not being resolved.

On May 8, eleven Willowbrook motorists were cited for the local relief. They brought their problem before the Novi township board.

They were informed by Township Attorney Emery Jacques, however, that the township had no jurisdiction in the matter. The township, it was pointed out, does not have a dog ordinance, and if one were enacted, it would apply solely to township areas.

"This is the first time we were aware of it (the stray dog problem)," Township Supervisor Hadley Bachert commented. "It was apparently confused about jurisdictions of the township and village under Novi's dual government set up."

Willowbrook would fall under the state statute, Jacques pointed out, which provides for township or village dog ordinance or dog catching facilities, according to state law, as long

Residents Plead for Help Dogs Threaten Willowbrook

"We're scared to death to let our kids go outside. And with kids getting out of school in a few weeks, we're really alarmed."

"The other day I walked out to our garbage cans. A German Shepherd stood there, hair bristling and teeth bared. I threw a garbage can at him. But what about a child? He wouldn't know what to do."

"Dogs are running in packs of six and seven."

"Nobody has been bitten yet, but there's always the danger as long as this condition prevails."

Speaking was Mrs. B.C. Temple, secretary of the Willowbrook Civic association and one of many alarmed Willowbrook parents who have been seeking an answer to their dog problem since last October.

as the township is within 20 miles of a city (Detroit) with a population of 250,000 or more, the township is not obligated to provide a dog ordinance or services.

Before approaching the township board as a last resort locally, Willowbrook representatives sought help from Novi village and Oakland county.

"The village told us to go to the township," Mrs. Temple said.

In response to a letter, Dr. Frank R. Bates, director of the animal welfare division of Oakland county, wrote: "There is no Oakland county dog ordinance. The law we enforce is a state law which, when not enforced by the township—and in your township it is not—we answer complaints to the best of our limited manpower."

Financing Stymies Novi Sewer Action

With little adieu, the Novi council accepted the bid and approved the sale of special assessment bonds, amounting to $245,000. Cost will be spread over the 155 subdivision lots.

Submitting the low bid of $267,880 was Canzano Excavating company of Dearborn. Engineering fees of $21,953 and legal fees of $2,178 brought the total project cost to $292,000, $12,000 more than the original project estimate 18 months ago.

Prumpling the council to reverse itself was Village Manager Harold Ackley. He advised that the two issues—special assessment and general obligation—must be marketed concurrently. Furthermore, since the Michigan Municipal Finance Commission had not approved the GO bonds, sale of both issues would be delayed approximately 90 days.

Cruel, who originally favored the GO bond sale, balked at dipping into allocated reserve funds. He did motion, in form of amendment, that the $22,000 allocated for capital improvement in the 1967-68 budget be applied to Canzano's sewers. The amendment died for lack of support.

Unable to resolve the dispute, the council delayed final action. Five firms besides Canzano Excavating company submitted bids. Nick Merced and Son, Inc. of Detroit quoted a figure of $30,765; Benclay and Yager of Beaverton bid $347,567; Beam company of Livonia bid $363,059; S&S Excavating company of Wayne bid $389,157 and Ben P. Fye and Son, Inc. of Berkeley bid $401,880.

Three Join School Race

Three candidates will vie for the lone Novi board of education seat in June.

The battle lines were drawn Monday as three men pitched their hats into the election ring before the 4 p.m. deadline.

Squaring off in the June 15 election for the three-year term now held by Cyril Rowley will be J. F. Buck, 24350 LeBest; Elwood Coburn, 28075 Dixon road; and Russell L. Smith, 41025 McMathon.

Rowley will not seek re-election because he is moving from the community.

Coburn, a former school board appointee, lost an election bid last June.

Space Carnival Blasts Off Friday

All systems are "go" for Space Fantasy, Northville's 1967 PTA Carnival, to orbit at 4:30 p.m. Friday at the junior high buildings and grounds on West Main street.

Special attractions to complement the space theme of the carnival, William Heffner, chairman, announced this week, will be a six-foot rocket display by the U.S. Air Force and a Space Communications display by Michigan Bell Telephone company.

A new attraction at the junior midway will be a "Moon Gooey" game. For youngsters through the sixth grade, the junior midway will be located in the junior high girls' gymnasium in the school basement.

Date of the Northville junior high school band concert has been rescheduled for Wednesday, May 24. It will get underway at 7:30 p.m. in the junior high school gymnasium (Community Building).

Highlighting the performance by the 70 member band will be selections from the Broadway musical, Camelot.

THE result of "hours and hours" of work, there are now 26 of these trees blooming, each with about 35 coffee-cup size tissue flowers, ready for the carnival at the home of Mrs. Virgil Mathews.

Working in their homes and at a special workshop session the trees were created by Mrs. Ray Jackson, Mrs. Lee Zenoniani, Mrs. Dale Warming, Mrs. Roy Mattison, Mrs. Clyde Vagner, Mrs. Jack Slotnick and Mrs. Ben Kline.

Northville's cooperative nursery was asked to present a special exhibit on its woodworking facilities and projects Tuesday at the Michigan Council of Nursery Schools annual conference held at the Kellogg Center at Michigan State University in East Lansing.

Mrs. Frances Gatzky, nursery teacher, explains that in a recent year little boys outnumbered girls in the co-op and the woodworking projects were expanded.

Attending the session Tuesday were Mrs. Gatzky and Mrs. Glenn Deibert, nursery teachers, Mrs. Robert Cartwright and Mrs. Kenneth Kaefer (who also went to a Monday meeting).

Northville's cooperative nursery will be installed at the group's annual meeting, a picnic picnic supper to be held at the home of Mrs. Irvin Marburger, 20149 Whipple drive, at 6:30 p.m. Monday.

Assisting the hostess will be Mrs. Robert Yoder, Mrs. Robert Matthews, Mrs. George Zerbe and Mrs. Stan Schaefer. Life members have been especially invited to attend.

Annual reports will be presented at the business meeting. Officers for the April meeting will be installed.

Mrs. Donald Hamnabarger succeeds Mrs. William Davis as president. Other officers are Mrs. Cass Hoffman, vice-president; Mrs. H. O. Evans, recording secretary; Mrs. Al Wiest, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Harold Wright, treasurer.

A willing carnival and PTA worker, Joan Mathews last year also chairman of the popular abstract art booth where youngsters could produce quick masterpieces in paint. She hopes to repeat this Friday if proper supplies can be found.

Even though she was involved in building and moving into a new home on Holburn in Northville Estates this school year, Mrs. Mathews has managed to find hours to help in the junior high library. Serving as PTA junior high library chairman she has developed a "growing committee" of mother librarians.

Earlier this month when junior high librarian Miss Ione Palmer found it was necessary to have a detailed order list to participate again in the federal aid program that gave the library $800 last year. It was these mothers who rallied to compile and type. This volunteer work, Mrs. Mathews commented, is most worth while as she feels Northville has "a great junior high library."

Police to Open Doors to Public

A reminder that open house will be held at the Detroit post of the State Police on Wednesday, May 24, has been given by Sgt. Fay Johnson, commander.

This will be the 11th annual open house and is of special significance because this year the State Police are observing their 50th anniversary.

Annual open house is held in connection with Michigan Week, which extends from May 20 to May 27.

Working hours at the post will be from 10 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. and everyone is invited.

"We hope there will be a good turnout," Sergeant Johnson said. "This is a special opportunity to see how a post operates and the services performed. Officers will act as guides."

The post is located at Grand River and Seven Mile. In addition to the reception there will be an exhibit.

College Honors Leonard Frits

Twenty seven students, including one from Northville, representing approximately 3 percent of the student body at Lake Superior State college achieved a "B plus" or better average and were placed on the dean's list of academic excellence for the winter quarter, Dean of Students, Dr. Bernard Smith, announced recently.

Couples Exchange May Wedding Vows Couse-Stuber Wed Here

Mrs. Richard Arthur Stuber

Elsa Couse pledged her marriage with Richard Arthur Stuber in a springtime ceremony at 2 p.m. Saturday in Northville First Presbyterian church.

The petite bride, daughter of Mrs. Walter Couse of Arson drive and the late Mr. Couse, chose an Empire gown of ivory silk organza frosted with lace applique and seed pearls. It was fashioned with a portrait neckline and elbow length sleeves with the skirt extending into a chapel train. Her illusion veil also was elbow length. She carried a bouquet of miniature white calla lilies, lily-of-the-valley and white candy tuft.

Bouquets of candy tuft marked the church. The windows and altar were decorated with floral arrangements also. The Reverend Lloyd Brasu officiated at the ceremony in which Blake T. Couse gave his sister in marriage. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith of Orchard drive.

The bride's sister, Mrs. George Higgs, came from Honolulu to be matron of honor. Bridesmaids were the bride's young aunts, Miss Robin Couse, and Mrs. Duane Wasmuth, Mrs. Thomas Henson and Mrs. Richard Venus. They wore sleeveless, floor length gowns of blue crepe fashioned in an Empire line with a Dior bow at the shoulder. They wore bouquets of miniature pink-breasted calla lilies and pink candy tuft.

Flower girls were Miss Freda Higgs of Honolulu, niece of the bride, and Miss Kimberly O'Hara, niece of the bridegroom. They wore blue dotted swiss long dresses, styled like the bridesmaids.

Dean Kapp of Ann Arbor was best man. Usherers were Robert Smith and Robert Stuber, brothers of the bridegroom; Charles O'Hara and William Yarne. William G. Williams was soloist.

For the ceremony and reception following at Meadowbrook country club for 250 guests Mrs. Couse wore an ensemble of pink tree-bark silk with pink accessories. Mrs. Smith chose pale green embroidered linen. Out-of-town guests attended from Ann Arbor, Livonia, Detroit, Cleveland and New York.

Afterward the new Mrs. Stuber changed to a white ottoman dress with matching jacket. She attended Albion college and was graduated from the University of Michigan. Her husband attended M.I.T. and is a spring graduate of University of Michigan. They plan to make their home in the Northville area.

Vows Spoken in Florida

At a double-ring ceremony Saturday, May 13 in Christ Lutheran Church, Ft. Lauderdale, Florida, Patricia Ann Lemke became the bride of Walter Phillip Gruner.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Lemke of Lauderdale-by-the-Sea, formerly of Westview drive in Northville, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Gruner of Lauderdale-by-the-Sea.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an A-line floor-length gown of satin with an empire waist and circular train. The gown was trimmed in chantilly lace and white pearls, with a bow in the back.

Her fingertip veil was held in place by a crown of pearls and crystals. She carried a bouquet of cymidium orchids and staphenodites.

Matron of honor was Irene Engle, a Northville friend of the bride. She wore a pink dress with a white waist and a velvet bow in the back. Her veil was held in place by a pink rose and she carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Bridesmaids were Virginia Ragsdale of Ft. Lauderdale and Mrs. Marilyn Cousins of Dayton, Ohio, sister of the bridegroom. Their dresses and veils were identical to that of the maid of honor. They carried bouquets of deep pink carnations.

Chris Nightingale of Ft. Lauderdale served as best man.

Ushers were Jerry Cousins of Dayton, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, and John Brinn of Pompano Beach, Florida.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Lemke wore a beige lace over green tulle dress with green accessories and an orchid corsage. Mrs. Gruner chose a yellow ensemble with white accessories and an orchid corsage.

A reception was held at the home of the bride for 100 guests from Ohio, Michigan and Florida.

For their wedding trip to North Carolina, the new Mrs. Gruner wore a three-piece white blue suit, trimmed in white with white accessories and a corsage from her wedding bouquet.

For Michigan Week Plan Antiques to Cart Races

Specific activities and their sponsors that day include: Northville Historical Society and the Baseline Chapter of Quilters Antique and Heritage Society, emphasizing Our Heritage Day with an antique glass display and an antique bicycle display, respectively; Northville Chamber of Commerce, emphasizing Our Livelihood Day, with a display of Northville-made products; and a cart race for students, sponsored by the Northville Jaycees with emphasis on Our Youth Day.

In addition, the Newcomers club will feature an outdoor art exhibit by local artists (if it doesn't rain); a spinning and pottery demonstration by Mrs. Alice Eickert; a pottery wheel-demonstration by Roy Peterson at 2 and 4 p.m.; and a garlanding and furniture refinishing display.

Activities will get underway at noon and continue until 6 p.m. Refreshments will be served by the Newcomers assisted by the Daughters of The American Revolution.

While the activities are underway Saturday, decorations for a special Saturday night dance at The Gateway will take place elsewhere in the building. Called a Psychedelic Dance featuring a magic light show. It will get underway at 8 p.m. and conclude at 11:30 p.m.

Throughout the week, the Northville Senior Citizens club, under the direction of President Merritt Meaker, will sponsor a special display in the window of Del's Shoe Store.

Other days of Michigan Week are: Our Heritage Day, Tuesday; Our Livelihood Day, Wednesday; and Hospitality Day, Friday. Instead of activities on each of these days, the significance of each day will be played up in activities slated Saturday, May 27, at the community building, coordinated by the Northville Newcomers club as its part in emphasizing Michigan Day.

Schoolcraft Offers Musical Summer

Although registration for the Schoolcraft College Summer Music School is still more than a month away, area high school and college age musicians have responded quickly to an announcement for application to the school, according to Wayne Dunlap, director of the school.

"Early applications indicate a high level of interest," said Dunlap, who is also head of the music department at the college, as well as conductor of the Plymouth Symphony. "We can accommodate only a limited number of students on each instrument, so it behooves those musicians planning to attend to sign up early."

The summer session is scheduled for four weeks, from July 3 through July 28. Registration will be June 26 and 27, but students must indicate by June 15 their intention of enrolling, Dunlap said.

The curriculum will concentrate on chamber music, orchestral literature, ensemble techniques, contemporary music idioms and techniques, and style and musicianship.

"These are areas not ordinarily offered to the young, serious musician," Dunlap explained. "Of particular importance to this group, will be the classes in style and musicianship and the techniques of ensemble playing."

Students will study under a faculty composed primarily of members of the Detroit Symphony, who will also be available for private lessons. The daily class schedule calls for morning sessions in the announced curriculum, and orchestra rehearsals in the afternoons. Wednesday sessions will be devoted to classes in conducting, music theory for performers and topical music lecture series.

Tuition for the four-week school is $40, for the scheduled 100 class sessions.

"The tuition does not fully cover the instructional costs of the school," Dunlap explained. "A share of this cost is being subsidized by the college. The cost of private lessons with faculty members must be borne by the individual student, who will make his own arrangements with the faculty member. Lessons are available at $5 a lesson."

"Up to four hours of college credit is also available," Dunlap said. "Those taking the work for credit must matriculate at the college and pay a fee of $8.50 per credit hour."

1967 Season Boat Rentals Start at Kent

More than 100 aluminum boats are available for rent, $5 deposit required, 75 cents per hour, $1 minimum charge. Maximum charges are $2.50 weekdays and $4.50 on Sundays and holidays. Persons may supply their own motors, limited to 7 1/2 horsepower, for use on rented boats. Safety cushions are available for rent, however, they do not supply fishing tackle, bait or gasoline.

Schmidt Wins Prize In Lutheran Exhibit

Harold C. Schmidt, a Valparaiso university senior from Northville, was awarded an exhibition prize for his untitled sculpture which was recently exhibited in the 9th annual National Lutheran Student Art Award Program.

The program is sponsored by Lutheran Brotherhood, Fraternal Insurance society, Minneapolis.

Schmidt is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold W. Schmidt, 2017 Woodhill. He is an economics major and he is chairman of the Acolyte Guild at VU.

Other boating facilities at the park include two launching ramps and Canoe Island, ideal for overnight camping by persons with their own canoes.

There is no charge for boat launching, permitted daily at two ramps from sunrise to sunset at the 1,200-acre Kent Lake, which is one of the most popular fishing sites in southeastern Michigan. No water skiing is permitted on Kent Lake and there is a 10 mile per hour speed limit.

Bathers are required to obtain a boat launching permit, issued without charge and good for the 1967 season, prior to launching their craft. These are available at the park office when the ramps are unattended. Trailers, cars and boats are not permitted to remain in Kensington Park overnight, except for boats in slip rental spaces. The Michigan State Conservation Department has declared Kent Lake an open site for fishing and thus there are no restrictions. Fishermen may catch fish of all kinds, all sizes and without limit providing they have a valid fishing license.

CANOING—There is a campsite on Canoe Island in Kensington Park for canoeists on overnight trips, many of whom travel along the Huron River to Kent Lake and then on toward Ann Arbor. Permits for use of this campsite and the authority canoe campsite at Hamburg may be obtained by contacting the office at Kensington Metropolitan Park, 2240 West Bano road, Milford, 48042, or phoning 688-1581.

Persons traveling south to the Hudson Mills Metropolitan Park campsite along the Huron River northwest of Ann Arbor should contact the Hudson Mills Metropolitan Park, 880 North Territorial Road, Dexter, 48130, or call Hamilton 6-9211 for overnight use of the canoe camp.

Persons who rent canoes from private owners in Milford, or near Ann Arbor since the Authority has no canoe rental service.

Seek Blood Donors

If you're between the ages of 18 and 59, weigh 110 pounds or more and are in good health, you're made to order.

That's the word from Red Cross officials as they plan for Northville's community blood bank slated for Friday, May 26 at the First Methodist Church of Northville.

Explaining these qualifications for donating blood, officials noted that unmarried persons between the ages of 18 to 21 must have parental consent.

"If there is any question that a potential donor might not be 'at his best,' a physician will recommend that he or she return to a later bloodmobile."

The Red Cross bloodmobile will be at the church, located at 109 Dunlap from 2 to 8 p.m. It is open to the community. Eligible donors may donate to the account of their choice. For the sake of convenience, appointments can be made by calling 349-2361 after 3 p.m.

According to Mrs. C. C. Winter, chairman of the Northville community blood bank, there is an urgent need for new donors. "Many of our regular donors who had given generously through the years," she explained, "can no longer give for various reasons."

The Northville blood bank has always had sufficient blood to meet the demand of local residents, but that demand is increasing, Mrs. Winter said.

"Blood is used as medicine. Whole blood is used for treatment of shock, replacement because of excessive bleeding or during surgery, transfusion in RH babies, for severely burned patients, anemia and during heart surgery."

When there is a need, Northville residents may call Mrs. A. C. Carlson or Mrs. Winter and blood will be released immediately.

There were a record number of juvenile contacts - 70 - during the month of April. Detective Sergeant Richard Faulkner reported this week.

Of the 70 juveniles contacted, 56 were males, 14 were females. About one-third (24) were non-residents.

The previous high of 61 was reported in August of 1966.

Faulkner and his assistant, Officer Warren Thrushman, spent a total of 114 hours handling 48 juvenile complaints.

The children were involved in neglect cases and 42 in miscellaneous crimes such as larceny, stolen cars and malicious destruction of property.

OUR WANT ADS GET RESULTS

First Ball-Meyor Wesley McEate officially opened the season Monday for the Wixom team entered in the Walled Lake Industrial league by arching the ball (in flight) across the plate. Wixom went on to defeat Liberty Tool of Walled Lake, 4-3. The big blow was Don Goines' home run with one man aboard.

Coach to Gamble In Golf Tourney

Even golf's a gamble. Especially when you're in the predicament that Northville Coach Al Jones finds himself in.

Northville will enter the Michigan State golf regional Friday on the Glen Oak course at Farmington, then the Mustangs will take the trip to Pontiac golf course Monday for the Pontiac Press tournament.

From his roster of high school golfers, Jones must choose the top four, or more appropriately, the four who will shoot the best on a given day to give Northville a fighting chance in the tournaments.

That's a big order.

For one thing, only the top three teams in the regionals will qualify for the state golf tournament and there are over 200 class B entries. In the Pontiac tourney, there's no distinction made between the 25 class A and B teams entered.

For another thing, Northville hasn't been entirely consistent this year. "There always seems to be one erratic player," Jones said. "Now, I can pick the right four on the right day, we stand a chance."

It's not impossible, not the way Northville has been shooting late. The Mustangs knocked off two consecutive opponents to turn their season record to 4-1-1.

Northville opened Milford, 169-173, Friday at Duck Lake golf course at Milford, the second time this year the local linkers have done that.

Who led the Northville swingers? None other than Senior Mike Hohenoc, who has been having his troubles this year. He shot a blistering 93.

Furthermore, his teammates weren't far behind. Senior Keith Mueller fired a 42, and Junior Jerry Asher and Sophomore Tom Pagan carded 44's.

Livonia Franklin, another team Northville had beaten previously, was Northville's victim Monday at Meadowbrook Country club by a 179-181 margin.

This time it was Mueller who led the local golfers with a 42. Hohenoc shot a 44, Sophomore Billie Thomas a 46 and Sophomore George Nelson a 47.

Loss of Player Dims Chances Of Tennis Team

Northville suffered another blow to its hopes of repeating as Wayne-Oakland Conference tennis champions. Number two singlesman, Dane Alexander, quit the team last week. He offered no explanation, Coach Dick Norton said.

Earlier this year, Dane's brother, Mark, who was playing as the number two singles man at the time, was dropped from the team for disciplinary reasons. Dane had moved into the spot formerly held by his brother.

Despite the departure of the Alexander boys, Coach Norton isn't abandoning hopes of gaining a second consecutive league title. But he admits that much depends on the draw, held Tuesday, for Friday's league tournament at Bloomfield Hills.

"If we get some breaks," he said, "we might win."

Barring a dismal tournament show, Northville will be first, second or third in the league. The reason is the fact that points are awarded for league standings and the tournament.

Already, Northville has earned nine points for finishing second in dual meets. Undefeated Clarkston was awarded 10 points for first place.

In tournament play, 10 points are awarded for first place, eight for second, six for third, five for fourth, four for fifth, etc.

Norton has his lineup set. Jim Long, the defending W-O singles champ, will get top billing. Back of him in the singles will be Bruce Griestwick and Chuck Skean.

Northville's once-beaten doubles team of Ken Boerger and Randy Burnett will take on the league's best tandems. Bruce Cochran - Tom Eberhart and Mark Gazlay - Mark Sheffer are the other two doubles entries.

In a match Friday, Northville edged Holly, 3-2, minus the services of Dane Alexander.

Long won easily, 6-2, 6-3; Burnett, playing second singles, lost 4-6, 6-3; Boerger breezed to a 6-3, 6-1 victory; Durham-Eberhart won, 6-1, 6-0, and Griestwick-Skean lost, 1-6, 6-1, 1-6.

Imsland Slips At Kentucky

"Not bad, not good."

That's the way Jerry Imsland, former Northville high school star, summed up his performance this spring on the University of Kentucky football field.

Imsland was forced to play second string to fellow sophomore, Phil Thompson, a high school all-American. They're competing for the starting split end spot on the Wildcat varsity.

"I just didn't have a real good year this past year, especially raising funds, but I'll be all right," he added. "I'll have to work on my speed."

Spring training was climaxed by the annual Blue-White game, attended by Jerry's parents.

Kraus Writes Short Article

"Nathaniel West: A Further Biographical Note" is the title of an article by W. Keith Kraus, assistant professor of English at Shippensburg State college, that appeared in The Scriff, the Kent State University Library Quarterly in March of 1967.

Kraus' article is a short appendage of a longer article by William White, professor of journalism at Wayne State university. Due to be published next year (in American Notes & Queries) is an article by Kraus on Nathaniel West.

Kraus, a former Northville teacher, is presently on leave of absence from Shippensburg State college to pursue his doctorate in literature at Southern Illinois university.

Win 4 Straight

Northville Steps Up Bat Attack

Talking of escalation . . . There was good news on the home front.

The Northville Mustangs stepped up their assault on the opposition during the past week and bombarded four Wayne-Oakland Conference opponents for four consecutive victories.

The surge carried Coach Bob Kucher's diamond diamonds back into the thick of the league race with a 9-2 record. They're tied with Bloomfield Hills and trail 1-1 Clarkston by only one game.

Here's the week's casualty list:
Northville 4, Clarenceville 2
Northville 5, Holly 4
Northville 15, West Bloomfield 0
Northville 6, Brighton 2

It's the frontal bat assault that has the local fans thumping their victory drums. Preceding Saturday's 15-hit attack on West Bloomfield, Northville was sporting a lustrous 315 team batting average.

This is a better hitting team than last year's," Coach Kucher commented. "They can really stick the ball."

The pitching and defense had Kucher worried, but things seem to be ironing out with recent strong performances of Juniors Bill Skelly and Dennis Primeau, who shape up as Northville's one-two pitching punch.

Primeau was always a top-flight hurler, but need for a solid short stop force Kucher to pull him off the mound. Now, Larry Biddle, who was nudged out of his second base job by Sophomore Stan Nirlander, has shown that he's capable of fielding at short stop. That frees Primeau for pitching duty.

Northville batted out only seven hits - one of the lowest outputs this season - against Clarenceville, but six of those hits came in the first two innings when the Mustangs scored all four of their runs.

Rightfielder Chris Holman provided the key blow in the opening inning when he unloaded a bases loaded double down the left field line to score the first two Northville runs. Centerfielder Pat Hall, Primeau and Catcher Doug Swiss had singled ahead of Holman.

Third Baseman Doug Angella accounted for Northville's final two runs when he laced a 950-foot home run over the left field fence with Leftfielder Joe Donner, who had singled, on board.

Clarenceville collected only one hit off the slants of Pitchers Jeff Taylor and Skelly, but it was Mark Eberhart's double that scored men from first and second. They had reached base by via an error and a walk in the third inning.

The going was rougher against Holly Friday, but Northville came from behind for a 5-4 victory in nine innings.

Primeau, who came in on relief and was credited with the win, lined a double to left center to score Hall from first base to end the extra-inning tie.

Holly, which didn't threaten after the third inning, scored all its runs in the first and third innings.

Northville got two runs back in its half of the first. Swiss lined a home run over the left field fence with Hall on base, and Northville knotted the score at 3-3 in the second when Donner crossed the plate on a wild pitch.

In the third, Holly's Mike Carnes hit a home run over the 320-foot marker in left centerfield to once again put Holly ahead by one. Randy Pohlman's grounder to second scored three runs from third in the fifth inning and sent the game into extra innings.

"A little revenge motive" paced Northville to the 15-0 win over West Bloomfield Saturday.

Northville scored three runs in the second frame, two in the fourth, three in the fifth, five in the sixth and two in the seventh to even the score with the Lakers, who previously beat Northville.

In the onslaught, Donner had three for four, including a double for three RBIs. Primeau had three for five, including two doubles; Pohlman had two for five, including two doubles, two runs and three RBIs.

Anglin had one for three, including a two-run homer and three RBIs; Skelly had two for two and one RBI; Biddle had one for one and scored twice, and Hall, Holman and Nirlander had one hit apiece.

Skelly and Primeau combined to hold West Bloomfield to two hits.

Northville's victory over Brighton Monday was a lull moment affair in which the Mustangs capitalized on four errors.

Skelly, who worked the first five innings, was credited with his fourth win this season against only one loss. Primeau hurled the last two innings.

The big blow for Northville was Primeau's solo home run.

Trackmen Lose, but Sparkle; Harrison Sets School Mark

The Northville trackmen narrowed the gap against Clarenceville in their return engagement last Thursday, but the result was the same. Clarenceville won, 67-63.

Amid the ballyhoo of shaving 14 points off the previous margin of defeat, Northville had a record shattering performance.

Junior Bill Harrison ran the 800 yard run in 2:01, slipping by one-tenth of a second the school mark of 2:01.1, set in 1962 by Don Biery.

"We primarily improved in the field events," Coach Ralph Redmond pointed out.

Jim Peterson took first place in the high jump with a leap of 5'9", and Ron Gloetzer won first place in the pole vault. He went over the bar at 11'9".

At 10:30 a.m., Clarenceville's Jim Amick was the victor. His mark was 5'6" in the high jump and 11'6" in the pole vault. Gloetzer won the latter event by attaining the same height in less time.

Northville also picked up a first in the two-mile run when Clarenceville's durable Rick Adams was sidelined. John Pauli won the event in a time of 10:36. Second was Northville's Dale North in 11:10.

Grabbing off the only other Northville first was the mile relay team of Harrison, George D'Haene, Greg Marshall and Greg Carr. Their time was 3:44. Clarenceville's was 3:46.5.

Gloetzer once again won the most individual honors for Northville, besides carting off the pole vault, he placed second in the low hurdles in the time of 20.8 and in the high hurdles in 31.6.

In each event, Tom Harborne beat him out. Harborne was clocked in 20.4 and 31.5, respectively.

Other second place winners were Bill McDermaid in the shot put with a heave of 42' 1/4", Freshman Richard Lamp in the mile (5:00) and Jack Crawford in the 220 (23.2).

Finishing third for the Mustangs were Crawford in the long jump (18'4") and 100-yard dash (10.6), D'Haene in the 440 (55.3), Dale Price in the shot put (40' 1 1/4"), Mke Ratliff in the pole vault (11'), Chris Kline in the mile (5:05), Peterson in the high hurdles (216.9) and Phil Kennedy in the 800 yard run (2:17).

Volkswagen's unique construction keeps dampness out. For years there have been rumors about floating Volkswagens. (The photographer claims this one stayed up for 42 minutes!) Why not? The bottom of the VW isn't like ordinary car bottoms. A sheet of flat steel runs under the car, sealing the bottom from dirt and salt. That's not done to make a bad boat out of it, it's just a better car. The sealed bottom protects a VW from water, dirt and salt. All the nasty things on the road that eventually eat up a car. The top part of a Volkswagen is also very seaworthy. It's practically airtight. So airtight that it's hard to close the door without rolling down the window a bit. But there's still one thing to keep in mind if you own a Volkswagen. Even if it could definitely float, it couldn't float indefinitely. So drive around all the big puddles. Especially if they're big enough to have a name.

Hammond, Clerk; Trustees: Thomas Armstrong, Bernard Baldwin, Gunnar Stromberg, James Tallam, Attorney; John Ashton, Engineer; L. W. Mosher, Northville Record; Jack Hoffman, also 10 visitors from the township.

Minutes of the April 4, 1967 meeting were approved as submitted. Treasurer's report was presented and approved as submitted. Office Receipts, Water & Sewer Receipts, and Bills payable were reviewed. Tallam moved to pay all current township bills. Baldwin seconded. Ayes: All. Motion carried.

The Building Inspector's report was accepted as given by Mr. Lynch. The Planning Commission minutes for April 14 & 25, 1967, and the Appeal Board minutes for April 12 & 24, 1967 were reviewed.

Correspondence: A letter from W. Tyler was read, regarding the Committee of 100. A letter from the County Road Commission announced a public hearing on May 9, 1967 about the paving of Bradner road. Notice of this hearing is to be published in the two local papers, also.

A letter from the County Road Commission requested the board to sign a Pledge of Faith and Credit for the Bradner road paving. After discussion, Stromberg moved, seconded by Tallam, that the matter be tabled until the next meeting. Ayes: All. Motion carried.

A letter from the County Board of Supervisors regarding amendments to our zoning was placed on file. A communication from the Lapham Development Co. was reported. This company has filed a civil action suit against the Board of Appeals and the Township of Northville for denying them the use of their property for a Mobile Home Park. The matter was turned over to the Township Attorney. Old Business: The new township voting machines (Shop) have been delivered. The first meeting of the General Assembly of the Southeast Michigan Council of Governments will be held on May 4, 1967 at 5:00 p.m. at 2500 Evergreen road, Southfield. Lengthy discussion followed this announcement. Stromberg moved that the Board sign the Declaration of Intent to join this Council of Governments. Ayes: All. Motion carried.

Baldwin, seconded by Tallam, moved that Merriam be appointed as official delegate from our Township Board, with Mrs. Hammond as alternate. Ayes: All. Motion carried.

Baldwin moved, seconded by Lawrence, that Stromberg be appointed substitute delegate for this first meeting. Ayes: All. Motion carried.

A letter from Mr. Frank Ollendorf regarding disposition of the Fishery Land and buildings was read by Mr. Merriam. No action was necessary by the board as Merriam has already notified the government that we waive all rights to acquiring of the land.

A recommendation for a horse ordinance was presented by the Planning Commission and was accepted by the board.

Mr. Merriam reported that a letter has been received from Mr. Alex Nelson regarding our request to the School Board to build an addition to this building. A new request will be put to the school board at their next meeting, by Supervisor Merriam, because of the possibility of using a building which could be moved to this property and attached to provide additional needed space in this office.

The township is ready to take bids, on May 4, 1967 at 11:00 a.m., for the water main extension to the Smoker Company's Kings Mill project on the Northville road. The contract will be awarded after the Smoker Co. pays the necessary deposit.

The two year bond on the Shadbrook Subdivision sewer system has run out, and the sewer now belongs to the township. In referring to a proposed Trash and Garbage Ordinance, Mr. Ashton advised that the problem of numerous disabled (junk) vehicles could probably best be covered as a violation under the new zoning ordinance. A public hearing would have to be held in order to correctly proceed with the matter.

New Business: A letter from the City of Plymouth was read, regarding the use, by the City of Detroit, of Maybury Sanatorium land for a sanitary land fill. Use of land at DeHoCo has also been proposed for use as an incinerator site. Supervisor Merriam is very much opposed to any such use of Maybury, and indicated that he would say so, very strongly, in his answering letter to Mr. Blodgett. The board unanimously support the stand to be taken by Merriam. Seconded by Baldwin. Ayes: All. Motion carried.

Carl Pursell, President of the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce, showed slides explaining the action recently taken by a group of civic-minded citizens of Plymouth. Their intent is to engage the Citizens Research Committee to conduct a study on the value of Unification of the City of Plymouth and Plymouth township. Mr. Pursell stated that this project originally concerned only Plymouth and Plymouth township, but it had been suggested that perhaps the adjacent communities be included in the study, particularly those areas which are included in the same school district. The same program is to be presented to the city of Northville on May 15, 1967. Supervisor Merriam suggested that no action be taken until we learn how the City of Northville feels about this study.

Mr. Griger's inability to correct his sewage problem being the cost will be referred to the Wayne County Board of Health, and proper action will be taken. Two letters were received from the Wayne County Board of Health. One announced the closure of Sheldon road for repair and improvements, and the second one presented bids for the laying of dust on our township subdivision roads this season.

The Spermeteries in the area must be maintained by the township. Mr. Joseph Siprak has been hired to care for the Waterford cemetery. The Log Immunization clinic, held jointly each year with the City of Northville, will be held on May 13, 1967, from 9:00 to 12:00 noon. A letter was read from Constables Mitchell, Siprak and Nisam, making a request for a new vehicle. The present dog truck is not safe to drive. Clerk Hammond suggested that fees charged for dog licenses and fines be raised, as our present charges are inadequate to cover our dog control problem, and are much lower than those charged by neighboring communities. Figures on both the cost of a new vehicle and on licenses are to be prepared for the next meeting.

Merriam reported on vandalism which has been occurring under the new zoning ordinance. A public hearing would have to be held in order to correctly proceed with the matter.

Section 1, that ordinance #34 known as the zoning ordinance of the city of Wixom be and the same is hereby amended as follows: To change from RA-2 to M-1 strip, 1001 ft. wide, east and west, the western boundary of which is the city limit, the southern boundary is Pontiac Trail and the northern boundary is the present Northern boundary of the Spencer property which is CV261. The parcel to be rezoned is 1001.41 ft. east and west by 1298.50 ft. north and south and is part of CV261. Detailed survey map of property on file in the City Clerk's office.

Section 2, that all other parts of said ordinance remain in full force and effect.

Section 3, that this ordinance become effective 10 days from the date of its final passage by the City Council and after publication in the Novi News.

Made and passed by the Wixom City Council this 9th day of May with publication in the Novi News May 18, 1967. Wesley E. McAtee, Mayor Donna J. Thorsberg

Stromberg moved that the board appoint to the Board of Review for two years the following people: David Dodge, Helen Litsenberger, and Burton Williams. Seconded by Lawrence. Ayes: All. Motion carried. Clerk to notify the members of their appointment.

Treasurer Alex Lawrence tendered his resignation from the Board of Appeals, as of April 10, 1967. Armstrong moved that his resignation be accepted with regret. Seconded by Baldwin. Ayes: All. Motion carried. It was pointed out that two members of the township board may not validly serve on the Board of Appeals. One member of the Appeals Board must be from the Township Board, and the second member must be appointed by the Township Board from the township at large. The third member of the Board of Appeals must then be appointed by the first two. The township board will hear from the Board of Appeals at their next meeting as to who the third member will be. Meeting adjourned at 10:45 p.m. Eleanor W. Hammond Northville Township clerk

SPEAKING For The Record

By BILL SLIGER

There's a little "softening" in the township's announcement that it will reassess all property this summer.

Hedging, might be a better word. But for all the excuses that can be garnered, one irrefutable fact remains, if Northville township doesn't bring equity to its assessments... particularly the ratio between raw land valuations and developed property, the homeowner is going to continue to pay (heavily) for the right of others to own acres of under-assessed land.

All property owners are supposed to pay their school, county and township taxes based on millage levied against 50 per cent assessments.

When some are at 10 and 20 per cent and others at 40 per cent, those at the 40 per cent are "equalized" by a factor beyond the 50 per cent level.

In Northville township this year the equalization factor will be about 1.38. Next year it will be higher. The inequities will continue to become more severe.

The city of Northville has completed reassessment. Valuations have been increased to the level that the county says they must to avoid equalization factor. Therefore, all property owners are being taxed equitably - one compared to the other.

Because of its great areas of raw acreage, the township has a more difficult problem than the city in reaching equity.

But no one can successfully argue that doing nothing and permitting the equalization factor to grow is the answer to the problem.

More people are beginning to understand and realize this.

Just as Supervisor R. D. Merriam does.

There won't be any free ice cream bars at the conclusion of the Memorial Day ceremonies this year.

Reading that sentence over again makes me realize that it's a natural for a wise reply, unless you're from a small town, like Northville.

Hereabouts, a tasty treat following the parade down Main street and the proper tributes at both cemeteries and the Veterans Memorial plot has been a tradition for more than 20 years.

Con Langfield started the practice. He'd hand out hundreds to youngsters (and some not so young) as the crowd gathered alongside Northville Laboratories after the last volley had been fired and the final echo of taps had faded.

Moving in our household has become a habitual drug; it fires the imagination briefly and then triggers a despondent nightmare. We've moved so many times the phone company is running out of numbers. Our parents send us letters in care of my social security serial.

My boss used to remind me that whenever we moved we had another child. All five of our children were born in different cities - Flint, Saginaw, Ann Arbor, Northville and Wixom. We tripped him up the last time. Neighbors shiver, schools quake whenever we arrive in town.

So it was when we returned to Northville, our favorite haunting place. Moving day started as it usually does. "Wife," I said, "we move tomorrow. Get things packed, I'll line up the workers."

She's a good packer, really experienced. She still wears blisters from the last move.

And one of my good friends moaned that his back hadn't mended. But he and a couple of other husky brutes volunteered with the last loading.

I've nothing against moving vans but I figure a little periodic exercise tones the muscles. So the volunteers arrived bright and early. And when they tried to stuff our furniture into their cars I headed for the rear passenger. There, unfortunately, I learned that the renter must have a valid operator's license. Mine still carried my old address and, somehow, I'd neglected to have it reissued.

"Wife," I said, "I'm finding her resting after juggling the stove to the front door, 'this is no time to relax. You've got to get this truck."

So after the truck chugged to a halt before the door, I immediately set to work directing the operation. No one possesses my talents for directing trucks. It's a natural, in-born talent that spills over into some of my other pursuits.

"Okay, fellas, easy does it. Wife, you're dropping your corner." It flows like the second stanza of "O! Man River".

A couple trips and a few stanzas and the job's nearly done.

At the new place things are a little tougher. "To the basement with the tire, upstairs bedroom on the right with the mattress, down and to the left with that chair." Again it flows, but now the wife starts throwing her weight around, countering my orders and insisting upon her own special cubbyholing.

Why she insists on a special place for a piece of furniture is a mystery to me. It doesn't last anyway. Moving furniture is a daily ritual with her. I don't mind a change of pace, but do you ever come home late at night, fling yourself on the bed, and leave teeth marks on a maple dresser?

I'm lucky the toilet's stationary. And picture hanging. Not even completely in and she's banging pictures. It's a terrible the things she does to a wall. We had so many nails in the wall of our last place it took a spider a week to crawl from the floor to the ceiling. And when I finally put a stop to that she started buying those gummy labels. You know, they're the kind that require no nails. Now when she moves a picture it doesn't leave a nail hole. It just peels off a hunk of plaster.

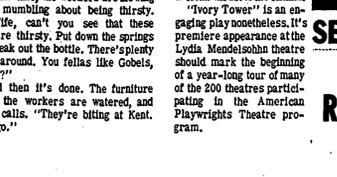

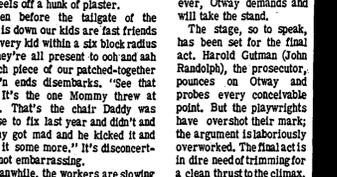

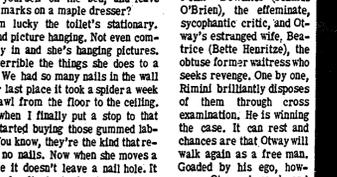

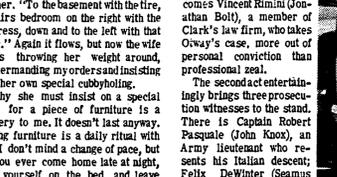

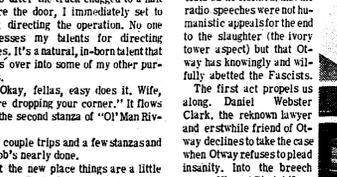

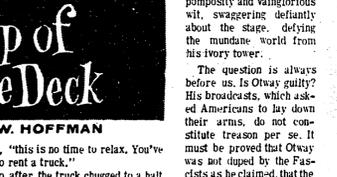

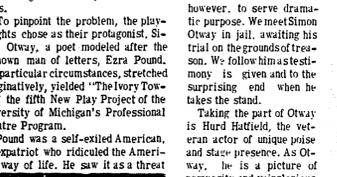

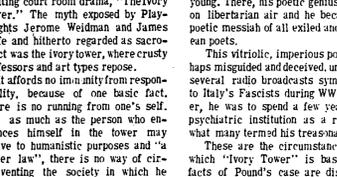

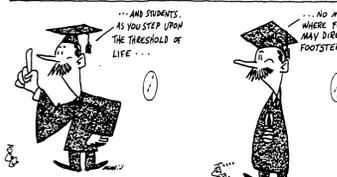

Even before the stalling, the truck is down our kids are fast friends and they're all present to ooh and aah as each piece of our patched-together odds 'n ends disembarks. "See that book, it's the one Mommy bought at Daddy. That's the chair Daddy was suppose to fix last year and didn't and Mommy got mad and he kicked it and broke it some more." It's disconcerting if not embarrassing.

Meanwhile, the workers are slowing down, mumbling about being thirsty. "Wife, can't you see that these guys are thirsty. Put down the springs and break out the bottle. There's plenty to go around. You folks like Gobeles, doncha?"

And then it's done. The furniture is in, the workers are watered, and Frank calls. "They're biting at Kent. Let's go."

So.

THE SEASON OF GRADUATES AND GREAT ORATORY

Smacks Yogi Bear For 'Delinquency'

To the Editor: I have just purchased a box of "Kellogg's Sugar Smacks" cereal and I was quite upset at the type of contest I found on the back. Yogi Bear's swindler is broken and you are given a choice of characters as to who did it. I, Mr. Mean, 2, Mr. Nogood, 3, Mr. Hungry, By picking together a puzzle, you come up with the answer that Mr. Hungry broke the window. The next step is to tell in 25 words or less why it was necessary for him to break it. This contest is aimed at children 16 years of age and younger.

I dislike the suggestion to my child that it is alright for her to break a window if she is hungry. Are we alone in our belief that in this free enterprise system of opportunity and plenty, being hungry does not give a person a license to destroy property and steal another person's food? Is it our imagination that this contest promotes sympathy and justification for a crime?

It is subtle education such as this that could tend to justify acts such as the recent episodes of school bus vandalism.

Mrs. Ann Norton

Novi Parade Slated For Memorial Day

Novi will join with other communities across the land on Memorial Day, May 30, in an annual parade and in paying tribute to its war dead.

Sponsored by the Novi Board of Commerce, the parade will assemble in the parking lot across from the Novi cemetery on Novi road at 9 a.m.

The parade is scheduled to get underway at 9:30 a.m. and will proceed north on Novi road to 12 Mile road.

Ceremonies commemorating those who died fighting for their country will take place at both the Novi cemetery and Oakland Memorial cemetery. En route, the Blue Star Mothers will place a wreath at the war memorial at the Novi Community building.

Parade Marshal Duane Bell will lead a host of entries, including the Novi high school band, cub and boy scouts, girl scouts, a restored fire engine, horses, bicycles and floats.

Three prizes will be awarded for the best decorated entries, from bicyclist floats.

Residents are urged to participate in the parade. Contact Parade Chairman Ray Warren, Parade Marshal Bell or Russell Taylor, president of the board of commerce.

Judge Dismisses Connemara Suit

A law suit against the village of Novi, which threatened to delay construction of Connemara Hills subdivision sewers, was nipped in the bud Tuesday.

Nick Merucci and Son, Inc. filed suit in Oakland county circuit court last week, citing the village of Novi for following irregular procedures in opening contract bids on May 11 in the offices of Johnson and Anderson, village engineering consultants of Walled Lake.

But Judge Frederick Ziem, after two days of hearings, dismissed the suit. "There was no fraudulent action," Village Manager Harold Ackley replied to the judge as saying. "I think," Ackley continued, "that the case was ridiculous. The grounds were terrible."

Specifically, the suit asked that the village show cause why it should not be restrained from taking final action in awarding the contract until after a court decision had been rendered.

The village council awarded the contract on May 15 to Canzano Excavating company of Dearborn, the low bidder at $267,880, pending conformance with certain details, a formality, Merucci was second low with a bid of $350,765.

The "irregularities" to which the case referred involved the postponement of bid openings for 10 minutes to enable Canzano to submit his bid. Charles Fenske, the suit said, had no authority to extend the time from 3 to 3:10 p.m.

Leading to postponement was the fact that Canzano and an aide appeared at the village hall at 2:40 p.m., thinking bids were to be opened there. After discovering his mistake, Canzano instructed his aide to call while he, Canzano, drove to the offices of Johnson and Anderson.

According to Bond, the assembled bidders stated they had no objection to delaying until 3:10 p.m. Within 30 seconds after the deadline, Canzano reportedly showed up and handed his bid to Fenske, who opened it first. The bidders did not object, Bond said.

Bond was served with the papers, notifying him of the suit, the following Wednesday, May 17. Bond said he secured affidavits and had the answer ready Thursday, but delayed filing it until the hearing commenced Monday.

In effect, he said, Merucci was asking for a temporary injunction until the court made a decision.

More Court Action Faces Village of Novi

The village of Novi is faced with three suits in Oakland county circuit court, two of which involve proposed trailer parks.

Two public hearings were held, but each time the council denied the request to rezone from industrial on the grounds that approval would constitute spot zoning. Adjacent property on the west side of Seelye road is zoned industrial.

Hearing of the Frank Davis suit, which has been in the courts for nearly three years, was postponed until June 27.

Davis is also claiming that the village acted arbitrarily in denying his request to rezone property on Beck road south of Nine Mile road from residential to mobile home.

At last Thursday's pre-trial hearing in cityhood, the court ruled that no factual issues were involved, that the case is a matter of law.

The court also ordered Village Attorney Howard Bond to draft a pre-trial statement, setting forth the eight issues to be resolved. The draft must be approved by the other council and must be signed by the court before court room litigation is resumed.

Library Officers Get New Terms

Richard Vykdyal has been re-elected president of the Novi public library and Dirk Groeneweg was re-elected vice-president.

Librarian Mrs. Robert Flattery announced that the story hour for pre-kindergarten children will conclude June 7. The story hour program is held each Wednesday from 2 to 3 p.m.

Novi residents were reminded of the new Saturday library hours - 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. The library is open Monday through Friday from 1 to 8 p.m.

New Business to Employ 200

Groundbreaking on a 70,000 square foot building to house four Detroit businesses that will employ more than 200 persons took place Thursday afternoon at the southeast corner of Nine Mile and Novi roads.

The new facility, expected to be ready for occupancy next winter, is located on extreme eastern section of a 40-acre site in the village of Novi but within the Northville school district. It will face Nine Mile road just west of the Knap cemetery.

Occupants of the new block and brick building will be ABC Photo Finishing and Supplies, Inc., Frank W. Kerry company, Consulting Services, Inc., and Kerr Chemical company, all of which presently share facilities at 1734 West Lafayette in Detroit.

Present for groundbreaking ceremonies were Novi Village President Philip Anderson, Novi Village Manager Harold Ackley, H. Samuel Greenawald, vice-president of Michigan Bank, William Davidson, president of Frank W. Kerry company, Erich VomSteeg, operations officer of Consulting Services, Inc., Oscar H. Feldman, attorney for the corporations involved, Warren Coville, president of ABC Photo, and Percy Williams, representing the building contractor, P. Williams & Sons.

Twice within the past 10 years these four companies, explained Coville, have outgrown their facilities. "This new building will double the capacity of the present building in

THE NOVI NEWS

OFFICIAL NEWSPAPER OF THE VILLAGE AND TOWNSHIP OF NOVI, AND THE CITY OF WIXOM
Vol. 14, No. 1, 20 Pages, Two Sections • Northville, Michigan—Thursday, May 25, 1967 • 10¢ Per Copy, $4 Per Year In Advance

Council OKs $439,841 Budget Wixom Hikes Millage

The Wixom city council passed a record budget of $439,841 Tuesday night. It exceeds the previous year's budget by approximately $139,797.

The two-part 1967-68 budget includes $244,041 outlay for operating expenses and $195,800 for sewer debt retirement.

Approximately one-half a mill increase will be levied on Wixom residents, bringing the total levy for city expenditures to 9.628 mills, as compared with last year's 8.973 mills.

The 9.628 mills exceeds the charter limitation of eight mills by 1.628 mills. Public act 185, which the council invoked Tuesday night in special resolution, permits the city to exceed the charter limitation in behalf of the health and welfare of its citizens and specifically, for sewer construction.

For general operation, 4.128 mills will be assessed on an estimated state equalized valuation of $35,703,500. To meet sewer debt, 5.5 mills will be levied.

William Huber. They are asking for rezoning from RA2 to M1 (light manufacturing).

---adopted an amendment to the survey and planning application for urban renewal. It includes more property east of the previous designated urban renewal area.

---appointed Mayor McAtee as Wixom's representative on the board of trustees of Traffic Improvement Association of Oakland county.

NEW OWNER-Municipal Judge Charles McDonald handed his lost cases for the city of Northville last week.

Two councilmen and two at-large citizens were appointed recently to the blue-ribbon committee which will evaluate Novi village employee jobs and pay.

They are Councilmen Donald Fuller and Raymond Harrison and Bruce Simmons and Fred Buk, Jr.

Specifically, it is the committee's responsibility to evaluate present job classifications and salaries with the view to drafting a new pay schedule for municipal employees.

The committee will recommend if and how $7,500 set aside in the 1967-68 budget for proposed salary and wage increases, will be spread among employees. Recommendations must then be approved by the village council.

Judging will take place next week by Mrs. Taylor and Acting Postmaster Elwood Grubb.

Blue-Ribbon Committee To Evaluate Novi Jobs

Completion of sewer construction this year is the reason for anticipated building revenue of $16,000. Building permits for the current fiscal year is estimated at $3,000.

Not until completion of the current fiscal year will exact figures be known, but Mayor Wesley McAtee predicts a surplus of approximately $50,000.

The only budget alteration made Tuesday night was a transfer of $1,050 from the Parks and Recreation account. Of this amount, $550 was put into the contingency reserve, bringing it to $15,550, and $500 was transferred to the street lighting account, bringing it to $4,100. Recreation outlay was reduced to $3,450.

Councilman Raymond Lahti objected to the lack of detail in the parks and recreation money request and Councilwoman Lottie Chambers questioned paying expense.

Prime sources of revenue are general property tax ($168,061), state revenue ($46,970) and services, fines and investments ($33,500).

The increase over last year of administrative expenses can be traced largely to increasing personnel costs. The city anticipates hiring a new typist, increasing the clerical outlay from $4,200 to $8,800. A pension plan costing an estimated $6,500 will be implemented.

Furthermore, police salaries will be boosted. The chief will receive a raise of $300 to $7,500 and patrolman will be hiked to $6,800 a year, a total expenditure of $27,200.

Last year, total patrolman pay amounted to $18,700.

Break Ground on Complex

Groundbreaking on a 70,000 square foot building to house four Detroit businesses that will employ more than 200 persons took place Thursday afternoon at the southeast corner of Nine Mile and Novi roads.

The new facility, expected to be ready for occupancy next winter, is located on extreme eastern section of a 40-acre site in the village of Novi but within the Northville school district. It will face Nine Mile road just west of the Knap cemetery.

Occupants of the new block and brick building will be ABC Photo Finishing and Supplies, Inc., Frank W. Kerry company, Consulting Services, Inc., and Kerr Chemical company, all of which presently share facilities at 1734 West Lafayette in Detroit.

Present for groundbreaking ceremonies were Novi Village President Philip Anderson, Novi Village Manager Harold Ackley, H. Samuel Greenawald, vice-president of Michigan Bank, William Davidson, president of Frank W. Kerry company, Erich VomSteeg, operations officer of Consulting Services, Inc., Oscar H. Feldman, attorney for the corporations involved, Warren Coville, president of ABC Photo, and Percy Williams, representing the building contractor, P. Williams & Sons.

Twice within the past 10 years these four companies, explained Coville, have outgrown their facilities. "This new building will double the capacity of the present building in Detroit. ABC Photo will be adding new film processing services, which due to the lack of space, have never been handled before. At least 50 new employees will be needed.

"The Frank W. Kerry company will be substantially broadening its product lines in the utilization of the larger facilities."

According to Coville, the remainder of the 40 acre site, all of which is zoned manufacturing, will be developed within the next two to five years. He did not elaborate.

ABC Photo was founded in 1956. Presently, 145 employees are engaged in the processing of amateur films, both black and white and color; motion pictures and slides. It is the largest photo-finishing operation in the state.

The Frank W. Kerry company was founded in 1913. With a volume in excess of $15 million, it is a highly mechanized drug warehouse operation representing the major drug manufacturers in the United States and servicing drug outlets throughout the area.

Consulting Services was one of the pioneers in the application of data processing to both the drug wholesaling and photo finishing businesses.

Kerr Chemical specializes in the sale of industrial drugs and chemicals.
