

Family Tradition Plays Wedding Role

Family tradition and sentiment played a large part in the wedding of Judith Ann Nauman and Dr. John Pereira DaSilva Saturday at Our Lady of Good Counsel church, Plymouth.

Father Robert Schaden officiated at the 9 a.m. service at the altar decorated with white furl mums and red-and-yellow daisies. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Philip Hall Nauman of Conemaugh drive and the late Mr. Nauman. She was given in marriage by her mother and brother, Robert P. Nauman.

For her wedding the bride wore a champagne-hued gown, designed and made by her sister, Mrs. Harry A. Christman of Frankfort. The Empire bodice and sleeves were of lace from her mother's wedding gown. The sheath skirt was of imported sheer wool. A tiny pillow held her fingertip illusion veil.

On the lace bodice Judy wore an antique diamond brooch, which had belonged to her great-grandmother and had also been worn by her sister at her wedding. She carried a cascade bouquet of bittersweet, centered with a Giamella. As an added bit of sentiment, she wore a lucky sixpence in her shoe, brought back from England recently by Mrs. William Crump.

Mrs. Christman, who was her sister's matron of honor, wore a floor-length gown of cranberry velvet styled with wrist-length bell sleeves. She carried bronze furl mums in a cascade of bittersweet.

Dr. DaSilva, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. P. DaSilva of Pawtucket, Rhode Island, invited Dr. Peter Corbett of New York to be best man. Both were associated with Bellevue hospital in New York city where the bridegroom was chief of oral surgery. Ushers were the bride's brother, Robert, and brother-in-law, Harry A. Christman. For the ceremony and dinner reception following at Hillside Inn in Plymouth, the bride's mother wore a rose brocade sheath with matching floral hat and a gardenia-and-bittersweet corsage. Among the 115 guests were out-of-town friends from New York, New Jersey, Lansing, Ann Arbor and Frankfort.

Among the guests was the bride's uncle, Bernard H. Smith, who was soloist at the wedding. He was joined by Judy's aunt and two cousins, who sang professionally as The Smithsons, as they led a serenade to the newlyweds at the reception.

In the wedding cake, made by the bride and decorated by her aunt, Mrs. George W. Nauman, were silver charms with wishes "from Judy and John."

The petite bride is a graduate of Western Michigan university and the University of Michigan from which she received her bachelor of science degree in nursing. Her husband was graduated from Tufts college and dental school in Boston. He now is in service, stationed at Camp Pendleton, California. For their car trip to California the new Mrs. DaSilva changed to a bittersweet corsage with red and white accessories. She wore a corsage of two Anthurium orchids. Their future home will be at 1807 South Meyers, Ocean-side, California.

In Our Town

By JEAN DAY

AN OUTSTANDING young woman in this area who has participated in community affairs "in ways which will endure" is being sought by the recipient of the second annual community service award from the Northville Jaycees.

The young woman the Jaycees are seeking to honor must be active in civic or educational life, be a resident of the area and be not less than 21 and not yet 36 years old by June 30, 1968.

The Jaycees have sent letters to local organizations asking for nominations. Nomination forms also are available through Mrs. Omar L. Harrison, 453-6442, committee chairman. They must be returned by the November 25 deadline.

Northville's winner then will be entered in the state contest in which four outstanding young women are selected from throughout the state.

Last year's recipient of the Jaycees auxiliary's first award was Mrs. Robert (Jean) Arlen, who was cited for her activities in the Republican party and in the Northville-Plymouth women's federation.

The Jaycees plan to honor this year's recipient at a coffee December 18.

OPERA ENTHUSIASTS and Northville workers for Detroit grand opera—Mrs. Ernest J. Shave and Mrs. Donald Ware—participated in the dawning of the silver anniversary year of grand opera in Detroit last Wednesday as they attended a general meeting and sherry party-and-luncheon at Grosse Pointe Hunt club.

Mrs. Ralph T. McElvenny, 1967-68 opera general chairman, was hostess for the party at which 80 women heard upcoming season plans, which include expansion of the popular Overseas service during March and April.

The association brings the Metropolitan opera from New York to Detroit for a week each spring. Mrs. Shave has been an active member of the committee working to achieve this musical treat every year. Last year she was joined on the area committee by a second Northville area representative, Mrs. Ware.

Both report they are happy to answer local questions about these presentations and to assist in getting tickets for the operas.

A TINY gold-and-enamel pansy pin, smaller than a dime, is the distinctive jewelry Mr. Levi Eaton is wearing this week. It was given to her by Kappa Alpha Theta to mark her 50-year membership in that organization.

Mr. and Mrs. Eaton and Mrs. Carl Bryan returned just a week ago from an extended cruise-tour of Europe. They left September 27 to join a Presbyterian tour that began with a 13-day cruise September 30 on the Italian liner, the Raffaele, which included the Canary Islands and Gibraltar on its ports of call.

After touring throughout Italy, Germany, Switzerland and France, there they embarked at Cherbourg for New York on the Queen Elizabeth. The trio was wished bon-bouage and then welcomed back by Dr. and Mrs. Harold Fredsell of Stamford, Connecticut. Dr. Fredsell was formerly pastor of Northville Presbyterian church and now is with the National Presbytery in New York.

ALSO JUST back from Europe are Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Whittington of Stratford court. A high point of their European trip was a visit to Budapest, Hungary.

Mrs. Whittington returned with just three days to prepare a display of Christmas crafts for the guest day dessert-meeting of the Northville branch, Michigan Farm and Garden association, Monday at Northville Presbyterian church. She credits her committee of eight with all the preliminary work.

A holiday workshop session will be held at the Whittington home November 27.

Moraine Troop 214 with Mrs. Michael Amstutz, leader, and Mrs. Roy Cohn, co-leader, meets Tuesdays. All troops meet at 8:30 p.m.

HOLIDAY DESIGNS for Thanksgiving and Christmas table centerpieces, mantels or for gifts were demonstrated at the Garden Club meeting by Dewey Gardner, assisted by Lila Collins.

Emphasis was placed on the use of artificial flowers and fruit, candles, dried materials and plants in conjunction with live flowers. When bright ornaments are used in a planter, Mrs. Collins pointed out, these later can be removed and the recipient still has a growing decoration.

Noting the increased cost of civic decorating for the holidays, the club voted to resume its donation to the Retail Merchants association and contribute $25 toward Christmas decorations.

Mrs. William Slattery pointed out that last year 3,000 children visited the workshop sponsored by the association.

Mrs. Slattery welcomed Mrs. Hiram Pacific as the club's newest member. Mrs. Donald Ware was named new social chairman, replacing Mrs. Reuben Jensen, who has moved to Indianapolis.

A PRE-THANKSGIVING open house, which has become a Sunday-before-Thanksgiving tradition with two main street merchants, Stone's Gamble store and Lila's flower and gift shop, this year also will include participation of The Barn Door antique shop a Main street neighbor.

Also participating for the first time in the holiday open house will be across-the-street merchants, Lapham's and Hugh Jarvis Gifts. Both will be displaying gift items and dispensing refreshments.

All will serve refreshments with Gamble's officially opening this year's Toyland. Special holiday arrangements and new decorations will be unveiled at Lila's, now owned by Dewey Gardner.

As betts an antique shop, the Barn Door will decorate with greens and serve wassail and cookies. All will be open from noon to 6 p.m. Sunday.

Seven Troops Of Brownies Open Season

This fall Northville has a record number of seven Brownie Troops organized and meeting. Mrs. Warner Krause, Girl Scout Brownie organizer for the Northville area, announced this week.

This is one additional troop over last fall's six groups, which set a record then. In all, Mrs. Krause said, the troops have enrolled about 145 second and third grade girls.

There are three troops meeting in the scout-recreation building, three at Amerman elementary school and one at Moraine school.

Amerman troops and their leaders are: Troop 149, Mrs. Richard David, leader, Mrs. David Blery, co-leader, Mondays; Troop 211, Mrs. Angelo Chinn, leader, Mrs. William Milligan, co-leader, Fridays; Troop 220, Mrs. Keith Pikeley, leader, Mrs. John Frew, Kathy Lister, co-leaders, Tuesdays.

Meeting at the scout building are Troop 205, Mrs. George Purcell, leader, Mrs. Daniel Swann, co-leader, Tuesdays; Troop 223, Mrs. Kenneth Beyer, leader, Mrs. Donald Ritener, co-leader, Tuesdays; a new troop with Mrs. Leroy Armstrong, leader, and Mrs. James Mahoney, co-leader, Mondays.

Moraine Troop 214 with Mrs. Michael Amstutz, leader, and Mrs. Roy Cohn, co-leader, meets Tuesdays. All troops meet at 8:30 p.m.

about WOMEN 'Helping Hands' Need More Help

Northville's Helping Hand program still is short-handed with volunteer mothers needed in town and in all areas of the township. Mrs. Peter Lindholm of the sponsoring Northville Jaycees auxiliary said this week in an appeal for more help.

Instituted this fall to help young school children who become confused,

MYI To Open 4th Season

Musical Youth International will open its fourth annual season on Saturday, at 2:30 p.m. in the Saline area high school.

The MYI 1968 tour group, concert band and chorus, representing more than fifty Michigan and Ohio high schools, are Mexico-bound for the month of July.

Dr. Lester McCoy, musical director, will introduce the current staff and outline the year's plans.

A special feature of the afternoon's program will be the annual presentation of awards to prize winners in the People-to-People essay contest, which Senator Bursley personally sponsors.

Margaret Becker of Northville won first prize in 1966. Laurel Montague of Detroit captured the highest award in the 1967 contest.

Search Continues For Junior Miss

Who will succeed Miss Lynn Tiliikka as Northville's Junior Miss?

The search is on once again for Northville's Junior Miss. Sponsored by the Northville Jaycees, the contest will culminate on December 2 when the winner is chosen in the Northville high school auditorium.

Announcement of the contest, a highly popular activity last year, was made by Joe Kluesner, co-ordinator of the Jaycee Pageant committee. The committee consists of F. Zillib, T. Schaal, C. Ely, R. Norton, H. Kern, D. Snow, and R. Kermozak.

The local Junior Miss title is given to the high school senior between the ages of 16 and 19 who best typifies the ideal American teenager. Judging includes personality, talent, scholastic achievement, and personal appearance.

The girl chosen as the local Junior Miss will be presented a scholarship and the Junior Miss trophy. She will also travel to Pontiac where she will compete in the state finals.

The state winner then will compete in the national finals in Mobile, Alabama. The national winner shares in the $40,000.00 America's Junior Miss scholarship fund.

Girls interested in the pageant are asked to contact Miss Florence Panatoni at the high school or Joseph Kluesner at 349-5019 for further details.

Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Roland G. Tabor, 537 West Main street, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Carole, to George H. Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Miller, 48018 Bloomer drive.

The bride-elect is attending Michigan State university. Her fiancé works with his father at the G. E. Miller Sales and Service in Northville.

A December wedding is planned.

News Around Northville

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Coykendall, 47150 Seven Mile road, have returned from a five-day visit with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Manning, and new granddaughter, Catherine Ann, in Belleville, Illinois. Mrs. Manning is the former Sherry Coykendall.

They attended the Red Wing-St. Louis hockey game.

Miss Florence Keith, 393 First street, returned last Wednesday from Goshen, Indiana, where she attended the funeral of her brother, Holt Keith. Interment was at Armour, South Dakota.

Mrs. Jim Spagnuolo, 113 East Main street, returned home last week from the hospital where she spent five weeks for surgery. One of her visitors while in Providence Hospital was her grandson, Eugene Melbourne of California.

Members of the Sarah Ann Cochran chapter, DAR, will meet for luncheon at noon Monday at the home of Mrs. Plymouth, formerly of Northville, are parents of a baby girl, Karen Lynn. She was born November 9 at Woman's hospital, Ann Arbor, and weighed 7 pounds, 6 ounces at birth.

Mrs. O'Brien is a former Main street elementary school teacher. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Stanowick of Des Plaines, Illinois, and paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Leo Quintall of Elk Grove Village, Illinois.

District Supports

vice-president of the board, two vice-presidents, and dean of technical vocational instruction, all from Schoolcraft. The citizens committee, as proposed, would include one board member, principal, businessman, industrialist, professional (not education), labor official and vocational director from each of the five districts.

Thus, the executive committee would include 12 members, the other 35 members.

In voting its support for such a study, the Northville board also reaffirmed its support of a similar study to be conducted by the Wayne county board of education. The board several months ago had approved support of the county study, which has not yet gotten beyond the planning stage, and at that time indicated its willingness to provide personnel assistance.

The proposed Schoolcraft study, though still in the planning stage, is considered in a better position to proceed rapidly because of the existing facilities and the personnel available to assist in its fulfillment.

Northville Secretary Glenn E. Delbert, while voting in favor of the Schoolcraft study, suggested that the proposed executive committee, which will eventually consider financing, include local citizen representation or local elected officials to better insure the study's successful implementation through public support.

Present at Monday's meeting to explain the proposed study were B. William Secord, Northville's representative on the Schoolcraft board of trustees, and Joseph Bergen.

The sermon at both services will be delivered by Layman Kenneth Knapp whose topic will be "Ambassadors for Christ."

At the 11:00 service the presiding layman will be Richard Norton; leader of responsive readings, L. M. Lancaster; reader of Scripture, John Hart; and prayer by Ralph Gallagher.

Layman's Day is celebrated throughout the Methodist church in October but in some churches other dates are selected.

Guest organist will be Gale Krammer of Ann Arbor.

School Board OKs Three Contracts, 2 Without Bids

Three contracts for services or equipment, two of which did not involve a bidding procedure, were approved by the Northville board of education Monday night.

One of the contracts sparked a abstention vote by Trustee Andrew Orphan because the purchase was not put out for bids.

Orphan abstained in the board vote to approve a $7,325.28 purchase of junior high science and social studies equipment from Nystrom Corporation of Chicago.

Superintendent Raymond Spear said the equipment purchase was not put out to bid because it would have meant disruption of the junior high school's attempt to provide equipment that complements existing equipment and the school's testing program.

The superintendent said a study of types of equipment that could best produce a coordinated program had been in the works for several months.

Orphan said he found no fault with the equipment itself or with Nystrom but voiced objection to purchasing equipment without bids.

Electrical services of Gillis Electric Company - to the tune of $2,590 - drew no objections, although no bids for this service item were sought. However, it was noted that an unwritten quotation of $3,000 had been secured from another company.

That higher quotation plus the fact Gillis Electric could provide immediate electrical service to the proposed new bus compound led to his recommendation that the contract be awarded Gillis, Spear indicated.

The same board vote authorized installation of additional lighting for the compound on a rental basis by the Detroit Edison company.

The low bid of $2,827.33 furnished by Wayne Fence and Supply for fencing of the compound also was approved by the board.

Concerning the junior high school equipment purchase, Business Manager Earl Busard explained that 48-percent of the cost will be reimbursed by the Federal government.

All bids for life insurance coverage, submitted by more than a half-dozen firms, were rejected because the companies did not have sufficient personnel data to submit bids based upon comparable formulas. New bids are to be sought with ages and sex of personnel to be included in specifications.

The administration was authorized to attempt again to secure Detroit Edison lighting service at Moraine elementary school and, in the event the company finds it still cannot provide the service, to secure bids from companies for installing the necessary electrical apparatus.

A snow removal agreement with the city of Northville at the rate of $15 per hour for salting and $12 per hour for plowing of school sites, was approved.

A special meeting of the board was set for 7:30 p.m. on Wednesday, November 22, for the purpose of opening bids and awarding the sale of notes on anticipated tax collections. Other action at this meeting, to be held in the old library building, is to include appointments to the board of canvassers.

While other board members voted to authorize the administration to seek applications for the board of canvassers, Secretary Glenn Delbert cast a negative vote, saying he objected to the fact that the board must appoint two Democrats and two Republicans to the board of canvassers.

He objected specifically to the fact that politics are involved. When reminded that the appointees must be political party representatives by law he said he objected to the law.

Because of this special meeting and because of the upcoming Thanksgiving holiday, the board voted to cancel its regularly scheduled special meeting on Monday, November 27.

Barking of Dogs Saves Sleeping Family from Fire

Two pet dogs were credited with preventing a tragedy early Friday morning when fire hit the home of Robert Moe, 728 Horton.

The dogs, housed in the utility-furnace room barked and scratched at the door, waking Mrs. Moe, who discovered the blaze and aroused her family.

Grabbing a fire extinguisher from his car, Moe battled the flames until heat and smoke forced him to call the fire department. Firemen brought the blaze under control within half an hour.

Fire caused extensive damage to the kitchen and utility room, while general smoke and water damage occurred in the remainder of the house. Heat from the blaze melted the wall telephone in the kitchen.

Cause of the fire, which apparently started near the furnace, has not yet been determined, according to Fire Chief Burl Harner.

Aid Boosts Teacher Studies

Superintendent Raymond Spear reported to the board of education Monday night that the district's policy of providing tuition reimbursements to teachers for 201 hours of credit is encouraging teachers to return to college and strengthen themselves and the district educationally.

In the summer of 1965, he said, 14 teachers were enrolled in colleges taking a total of 64 credit hours. The following summer, this figure increased to 26 teachers and 116 hours, and this past summer 33 teachers took college courses for 201 hours of credit.

The tuition policy, Spear concluded, is encouraging teachers to return to college and strengthen themselves and the district educationally.

Woman Hurt In Novi Crash

A Plymouth woman was seriously injured at noon last Saturday when the car she was driving crashed into a parked truck near the Novi road-Grand River intersection.

Taken to Boystown General Hospital, Mrs. Merry Lynn Madden of 14290 Northville road suffered chest injuries, police said. Hospital officials reported her condition as satisfactory Tuesday.

According to witnesses, Mrs. Madden was driving along the outside lane of northbound traffic and was prevented from moving into the inner lane by a pick-up truck traveling in the same direction.

The car struck the unoccupied truck with such force, police said, that cutting tools and a wrench were required to remove the driver and passenger, David Madden, her husband. Madden was uninjured.

Driver of the truck, Leonard Brish of Mattawan, Michigan was ticketed by police for illegal parking.

McDougalls At Conference

David McDougall and Mrs. McDougall are attending the American Legion's 41st Annual Midwestern Area Child Welfare Conference at Des Moines, Iowa.

Child Welfare leaders of The American Legion from twelve Midwestern states have convened to discuss Legion child welfare program plans for 1968 and to hear reports from distinguished child welfare leaders.

The theme for the conference is "Programming for Children in the Computer Age."

The McDougalls are members of Lloyd H. Green American Legion Post 147 and Auxiliary Unit 147 in Northville.

Gun Stolen From Store

Northville police are investigating the theft of a $125 Winchester rifle from the Northville Hardware store, 107 North Center street, about 9 p.m. last Saturday.

A customer reported seeing a man walk out with the rifle and get into a station wagon.

Two other larceny reports include the complaint of Mrs. Richard Puhaz, who said that she returned to 312 Griswold October 31 to find the door open, her desk drawer pulled out and $40 missing.

The other larceny was reported by Mrs. Elma Banks of Plymouth, who was attending a meeting November 10 in the Northville high school cafeteria and afterward found her tan winter coat missing.

GUESS WHERE—Believe it or not you're looking south along Center street from the Main street intersection. It's just one of the many pictures that members of the Northville Historical Society will see when viewing old copies of The Northville Record Tuesday at the home of Mrs. W. H. Confield, 404 W. Dunlop. The meeting will start at 8 p.m.

Edison Seeks Franchise

Township Voters Wield Shortcircuiting Power

When Northville township voters throw the switches in the election booths early next year they'll be wielding virtually enough power to short-circuit electric current to their homes.

And voters will have that power all because of requirements of the State Constitution.

Detroit Edison company representatives will appear before the township board next month to request that an election be held in January or February.

Under the Constitution electors of Michigan communities must decide this question once every 30 years.

Thirty years ago, in 1938, township voters approved the question. They'll get another crack at it next year.

According to Jack Menig, special agent for the Detroit Edison company, the special election, unfamiliar to many officials, is nevertheless a binding requirement that dates back to the 1909 Constitution. And the Constitution, he explained, made no provision to change the law.

"What it amounts to," he said, "is asking the people to approve the Edison franchise permitting our company to use public highways and alleys for transmission lines. We must pay all costs for the election."

Those communities having service prior to 1909 are exempt from the law. Among these, he said, are Detroit, Highland Park, and Grosse Pointe.

The 30-year franchise for the townships of Northville and Plymouth expires next year. The franchise for the cities of Northville and Plymouth expires in 1976. Expiration dates for Novi, Wixom, South Lyon and Salem fall due in 1971, Menig said.

Under the law, the franchise election cannot be held within two months of a regular election, he said, "so we'll try to get it set well before the November, 1968 election."

Has a community ever rejected franchise permission?

Rarely, said Menig, who could recall only one instance involving a small community in the Thumb area. Few people turned out to vote and a negative movement prevailed. Edison continued to service the community on a day-to-day basis until another election was held, he said.

"Our problem," he said, "is voter apathy. It's hard to get the people out for a special election of this kind. It's the only question on the ballot."

Mr. Westfall, who lived in the Plymouth-Northville area for 22 years, was a retired farmer. He was a member of St. Peter's Lutheran Church, Plymouth.

Survivors include three daughters, Mrs. Herbert (Bessie) Tarrow of Livonia, Mrs. Carl (Grace) Dethloff of Plymouth, and Mrs. Helen Meining of Livonia; two sons, Ernest of Redford and Alfred of Plymouth; 12 grandchildren, 31 great grandchildren, and one great great grandchild.

Funeral services were conducted November 14 from Casteline Funeral Home, Northville, on November 15, with the Rev. Ralph Martins of St. Peter's officiating. Burial was in Rural Hill cemetery.

Funeral services will be held at 1 p.m. Saturday for Otto Wittrick, 64, of 43155 Riggs road, Belleville, who died November 14 at St. Mary's hospital, Livonia, after a long illness.

In addition to his wife, Alice, he leaves four sisters, Mrs. Frieda O'Leary and Mrs. Esther Budd of Northville, Mrs. Elizabeth Simpson of Plymouth, Mrs. Dorothy Powell of South Lyon; two brothers, Henry and Walter of Northville. He was preceded in death by one brother, William.

Services will be from the Roberts Brothers funeral home in Belleville.

Municipal Court

Out of 16 cases before Judge Philip Ogilvie in Municipal court Tuesday, four were for minors in possession of alcohol (beer) and the remainder covered a wide range of violations.

Gary L. Sutherland, 19, of Detroit, whose arraignment was delayed so that his parents could be present, was fined $25 plus $2.50 costs, and James C. McIntyre, also of Detroit, $25 plus $2.50 costs for being minors in possession.

Ronald J. Jenkinson, 18, of Livonia, found guilty and fined $35 plus $3.50 costs along with Phillip W. Hottum of Farmington with the same fine and costs, both for being in possession on Main street between Center street and Hutton.

Found guilty of being drunk and disorderly were Charles A. Cherry of Royal Oak, who was fined $50 plus $5 costs, and Leon L. Frazier, 40100 West Eight Mile, who was fined $20 plus $2 costs.

Ruth Ann Davis, 44891 12 Mile road, was ticketed for disobeying a red light resulting in a property damage accident. She was fined $25 upon pleading guilty.

William C. Silger, 44, of 18439 Fermanagh court, paid fines totaling $10 for failure to stop at a stop street and speeding 30 in a 25 mph zone.

Joseph Kaveck of Farmington pleaded guilty to speeding 45 in a 25 mph zone and paid a $30 fine.

For careless driving, Harold W. Milton, Jr. of Troy was fined $25. Herman H. Rowe, Jr., 18 Woodland

Place, Northville also pleaded guilty to careless driving and received the same $25 fine.

William James, 2025 Ferry Park, Detroit, pleaded guilty of escaping from Detroit House of Correction January 2, 1967, and had 25 days added to his sentence. He was committed Tuesday.

Isabel Jean Funk of 1032 Allen drive, who was ticketed by Michigan State police for speeding 70 miles-an-hour in a 50-mph zone on Eight Mile road, pleaded guilty and was fined $15 and $15 costs.

For allowing an unlicensed minor to operate a motor vehicle on Seven Mile road November 4 William R. Miller of Detroit was fined $20 and $5 costs.

LaRoy S. Henley, 46, of Detroit was found guilty October 17 of interfering with through traffic at the Seven Mile cutoff and thereby causing a property damage and personal injury accident. Sentencing was deferred Tuesday when he paid a $35 fine.

After William Ward, Jr. of Livonia pleaded innocent to a charge of driving under the influence of liquor, the charge was dismissed and he pleaded guilty to the lesser charge of reckless driving and was fined $100.

Back in September when she still lived at 46906 Grasmere, Mrs. Marilyn Morian signed a complaint against Mrs. Eileen E. Wild, 21285 Summerdale Lane, Northville for allowing her coiled dog to run loose. According to the complaint, Mrs. Morian's three-month old puppy was severely injured in its own yard by the "wild dog" belonging to Mrs. Wild. Although she pleaded innocent to the charge, Mrs. Wild was ordered to pay a fine of $25 plus $2.50 costs.

For careless driving, Harold W. Milton, Jr. of Troy was fined $25.

Herman H. Rowe, Jr., 18 Woodland

Place, Northville also pleaded guilty to careless driving and received the same $25 fine.

TOP WINNER—David Earehart of 9666 Chubb road copped the 1967 championship in stock seat equitation Saturday at the annual high point championship dinner of the Justin Morgan Horse association held at Saginaw. David showed his three-year-old mare, Pebbles, and his 10-year-old gelding, Secor's Nine, in horse shows in Michigan and Ohio to accumulate the winning points. Pebbles also was honored by a first merit ribbon in the Western championship. Other Northville-South Lyon area winners present were Melanie Cole, second merit award in saddle seat equitation, and Eddie Earehart of Poplar Farm, who picked up merit awards for the stallions, Atomic Storm and Bay Dolphin.

Dick Talbot, Jr. Takes Turf Management Class

Richard Talbot Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Talbot of 40160 Fairway III drive is among 30 students enrolled in a technical training course in the turf grass management at Michigan State university.

Students are in residence at MSU for four terms and also receive six months of experience while in placement training.

The students will be trained to accept employment as golf course managers, highway and industrial grounds keepers, in sod production, and as salesmen for commercial turf suppliers, chemical firms and seed and lawn supply distributors.

The Turfgrass Management Program is offered by the Department of Crop Science in cooperation with other MSU divisions and the Institute of Agricultural Technology in the University's College of Agriculture and Natural Resources. More than 400 students are enrolled in Ag Tech courses at MSU this fall.

Mustangs To Meet Public Tuesday

Sports fans, parents and friends of Northville high school athletes and cheerleaders are in for a special treat next Tuesday night.

That's the night the Northville Boosters club stages its "Meet the Mustangs" program in the high school gymnasium, beginning at 8 p.m.

"These kids need all the support they can get," explained Athletic Director David Longridge, "so we're hoping the fans and parents don't let 'em down. Besides meeting the athletes they'll be given some colorful entertainment, too."

Members of Coach Jack Townsley's wrestling squad as well as the varsity, junior varsity and freshmen basketball teams will be introduced.

Although wrestling is an eight-year-old sport locally, relatively few people are aware of its rules, said Longridge, so a special wrestling demonstration will be staged with an explanation of the rules governing the sport.

Special guest at the program will be Pat O'Neill, basketball official, who will interpret

Federal Judge To Speak Here

All men in the Northville-Novl area are invited by the men of Northville's Our Lady of Victory Catholic church to attend an interfaith dinner in the church social hall at 7 p.m., December 7. New Federal Judge Damon Keith is to be the guest speaker. Judge Keith was appointed to his present post September 23, filling a vacancy which occurred when another Judge, Judge Wade H. McCree, was elevated to the sixth circuit district court bench.

This first-time event will be a spaghetti dinner. Tickets at $1.25 are available now through OLV Men's club president Cliff Hostler, 349-2290, or 349-0541.

were discussing the effects of smoking and, guided by their science teacher, assessing its health dangers.

Parents learned of the program at the opening P-TA in which 400 parents visited classrooms and inspected the new building Thursday night. In all three grades—sixth through eighth—Principal Donald Vaningen said, smoking is discussed and film strips showing cancer dangers are shown in both science and physical education classes.

On a statewide basis the P-TA currently is urging that the evils of smoking be taught at the junior high rather than senior high level. It points out that this has been a P-TA project for 20 years and that there is a Michigan law still on the books that calls for schools to teach the bad effects of smoking.

All interested parents and P-TA members are invited to attend a public workshop meeting at 7:30 p.m. today at the Edsel Ford high school.

At Recognition Dinner

Two Win Claude N. Ely Awards

For their interest in children and their participation in Northville's civic affairs, James L. McKinney and Wilson Funk were honored as the 1967 recipients of the Claude N. Ely memorial award at the city of Northville's eighth annual civic recognition dinner November 8 at First Presbyterian church.

In making the presentation Mayor A. Malcolm Allen mentioned this work "with our young fry," recalling Wilson Funk's activities in the recreation department and James McKinney's service as a school children's crossing guard at Baseline road. He presently is hospitalized in Ann Arbor.

They were given awards of merit and taken financial awards from the memorial which was established by public subscription at the time of Ely's death. He was the last president of the village of Northville and the first mayor of the city.

On the committee of school and civic leaders administering the awards are John Canterbury, Eugene Cook, Raymond Spear, Mayor Allen and A. Russell Clarke. Canterbury also served as master of ceremonies for the dinner.

Also honored at the recognition dinner were George Zerbel, for his 16 years as chairman of the Northville planning commission, and Levi Eaton, who has been in Europe, for his 20 years of volunteer work in the city.

A watch was awarded to Edward Austin, who could not be present because of illness, upon his retirement from the Northville Department of Public Works for health reasons after 19 years of service.

Also honored were three Northville policemen for their work in solving the breaking and entering at the George Miller dealership early this year. They are Roger Boukema, Edward Reeves and Earl VanCise, who now is a member of the Royal Oak police department.

A colorful beginning to the recognition program was the presentation of colors by the Northville police department.

Proclamation

A proclamation has been signed by Northville Mayor A. M. Allen designating November as community development month.

The proclamation is sponsored by the Northville Jaycees, an organization that challenges its members during the month to "re-examine the worth of his organization and pledge himself to do all within his power to assure his community grows and prospers through community development."

Community development is the number one program of the United States Jaycees and its local chapter.

At 35

Reared now but still amazingly healthy, a pair of youngsters on the Finest farm in Novi are more than 35 years old. In human terms that's an age of about 100. But in the twinkling eyes of Miss Iva Finest, the horses are "only babies" — still four years away from maturity. See story on Page One.

from the PASTOR'S STUDY

Father Edmund Battersby, Pastor
St. Joseph's Church, South Lyon

Fear is a terrible thing, yet it is common to each of us in varying degrees and for sundry reasons. Is there anyone reading this who is not afraid or has not been afraid? Fear it is said is the companion of Love. If we are not afraid for ourselves, we are afraid for those we love. There are great fears and little fears, real fears and imagined ones. We fear storms, traffic, war, sickness, exams, the future, old age, death. We fear because we are human and our Lord does not hold it against us.

A psychologist has said "All men need the feeling of security, inner security. Too often they try to obtain it by means that leave them even more deeply insecure. They make use of the means of the world." He goes on to say "The Spiritually Adult Person knows that he can find his security only under God and within himself. It is only on the basis of an active faith in the All Powerful God who holds us in the hollow of his hand that man is able to recognize and reject the false securities of this life."

Why are we afraid? Because of our little faith. Why the little faith? Because we do not know Christ. We do not really know Him as He is today. He is present to our minds only in the pages of history. He does not live now for us. But Christ does live now. This is the whole point of his miracles. This is what the idea of God implies. God is he who lives, he who loves, he who cares, who watches over his little ones, who will not allow any evil to come upon them but that which in the end will be for their good.

Orchard Hills Baptist Slates Billie Graham Film

Evangelist Billy Graham's motion picture "The Heart is a Rebel" the new feature-length color production stars Ethel Waters, Georgia Lee, and John Milford. It is scheduled for its local showing at Orchard Hills Baptist church, 23455 Novi road on Sunday, November 19 at 7:00 p.m.

Ethel Waters adds a luster to her long career in the role of the practical nurse who exerts a profound influence on the young couple during her day-by-day faith in God. A film highlight is Miss Water's inspiring rendition of "His Eye Is On The Sparrow" and the spiritual "Motherless Child."

The story is based on a conflict in the life of a modern young couple when the husband, an advertising executive, can't find a place in his scheme-of-things for his wife's sudden acceptance of the Christian faith. In a completely "down-to-earth" setting, the situation provides a dimension of reality seldom afforded a religious motion picture.

Plans Service For Thanksgiving

First Church of Christ, Scientist, Plymouth, will hold a thanksgiving service, open to the community, in the church edifice at 1100 W. Ann Arbor Trail, Thursday, November 23 at 10:00 a.m.

This service is a traditional one in Christian Science churches throughout the world. Branch churches in South America, Europe, Asia, and the Near East will observe the American Thanksgiving Day, November 23.

A specially prepared "Thanksgiving" lesson-sermon will be read at all these services. It will include passages from the Bible and the denominational textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy.

PURINA!

Horses really go for Purina. Now you can choose from two great Purina horse feeds—new Purina Horse Chow Checkers with built-in hay or Purina Omolene, a favorite of horsemen for almost 50 years. Purina Horse Chow Checkers are a revolutionary idea in feeding horses. The hay is built in, eliminating the fuss and muss of hay. For those who prefer to feed hay there's the horsemen's standby—Purina Omolene. We offer both of these research-developed Purina horse feeds in handy 50-lb. bags at our store with the Checkerboard Sign.

OUT OF THE PAST

One Year Ago...

Arguments for and against the proposed rezoning of 19 acres on Five Mile road from R-4 (single family residential) to R-M (multiple dwelling) were heard by the Northville township board and planning commission meeting in joint session.

...A poll taken at the Northville junior high school PTA open house revealed that the majority of parents attending prefer mixed dancing parties only at the senior high school level.

...Northville Torch Drive officials were full of smiles this week as both business and residential collections zoomed past UF goals before the deadline.

...Already threatened with abolition at the hands of the legislature, Northville municipal court received two directives further complicating the judicial process. One directive stated that the local court had to have a court recorder to transcribe all felony and misdemeanor cases and the second directed the court to appoint an attorney at government expense if the defendant cannot afford one.

...Hiring of a remedial reading teacher at the high school level was approved by the board of education, this in addition to two such teachers in the elementary school and a part-time teacher in the junior high school.

...Plans for solicitation of every resident within the Northville area were being readied as the "second push" in the drive to collect $12,000 for construction of the new Jennette Lawrence Scout-Recreation Building.

...The Northville township board appointed Clerk Hadley J. Bachert as supervisor of the township, replacing Fraser W. Staman, who resigned to seek an Oakland county road commissioner's post.

...Northville's board of education waded through a full agenda of business in a four hour session dealing with routine matters including problems concerning the new athletic field bleachers and policy on contests held at the field.

...Five Northville stores announced a "10 per cent night" when customers could save that much on nearly Christmas shopping. D & C Stores, E-Jay Lumber Mart, Northville Drugs, Stone's Gamble Store and Tevashbury Jewelers sponsored the one-night event.

...The Northville Town Hall and the Rotary Club both brought personalities to the community. Robert St. John spoke on the "Crisis in the Middle East" at Town Hall and Roman Wilhelmsen presented the "Legend of the Sierra Madre" to the Rotarians.

...Northville Township Supervisor George Clark announced his intention not to run for re-election and petitions were taken out by two potential candidates, Trustee R. D. Merriam and Mrs. Harold B. (Elsie) Price.

...Fifteen Years Ago...
...Permission to lay more than seventeen thousand feet of two and four inch gas main on 20 Northville streets was granted to Consumers Power Co. by the Village Commission.

...Recently appointed chairman of the Red Cross Northville Branch was Mrs. Arthur C. (Beatrice) Carlson, 201 Fairbrook Street.

...Plans to build a 100-bed hospital which would serve 43,000 persons in Northville, Livonia and Plymouth were made public in a statement released by a spokesman of the Livonia, Northville and Plymouth Hospital Authority.

...Forty-four-year-old Fred Scholtz, on his first year hunting trip, shot a 120 pound buck only thirty minutes after the season opened.

...Mrs. V. George Chabot of Sheldon Road was named chairman of the 1962 double-barred cross Christmas Seal sale in Northville, according to an announcement of the TB and Health Society.

...Guest speaker at the meeting of the Northville Women's Club was Mrs. Charley Crooks, antique collector of Farmington.

...Our Hearts Were Young and Gay" was the annual senior class play production presented at the Northville high school auditorium on Thursday and Friday.

...The estimated cost of paving and drainage on Center street from Main to Edward N. Hines drive was received from Wayne County Road Commission, at the request of Village President Conrad E. Langford.

...Twenty Years Ago...
...When Acting President Claude Ely was in the chair, the Village Commission acted on the town clock, tractor and building fund and the reinvestment of funds.

To Train Retarded Center Launches New Program

A new program in training retarded children was launched at the Wayne County Child Development center here with the opening of a residential cottage for 25 boys on Sunday.

The boys, ranging in age from seven to 15, all are newly admitted to the Center located in Northville.

This is the first time a cottage has been reserved exclusively for newly-admitted children, according to Dr. Pasquale Buonicontino, Center superintendent.

He said all the youngsters were screened by Dr. Robert Roman, new assistant superintendent and clinical director, to determine their potential ability to benefit from the new program.

Dr. Rabinovitch To Speak Here

Dr. Ralph D. Rabinovitch, director of Hawthorn Center at Northville State Hospital, will speak on "Adolescence: Problems in Identity," on the Schoolcraft college fall term lecture series in room F-530 in the Forum Building on the campus mall at 3 p.m., Friday, November 17.

Dr. Rabinovitch is a graduate of McGill University and has had psychiatric training at Toronto University and New York University. He has written on a wide range of topics related to the psychopathology of childhood and adolescence, and is particularly concerned with the integration of child psychiatry, education and social work on a broad community level.

Events on the Schoolcraft lecture series are open to the public at no admission charge.

With Our Servicemen

U. S. Army, Vietnam - Army Private Alex R. Class, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Class, 2248 Haggerty, completed eight weeks of advanced infantry training November 9 at Ft. Ord, California.

He received specialized instruction in small unit tactics and in firing such weapons as the M-14 rifle, M-16 machine gun and the 3.5-inch rocket launcher.

...Ft. McClellan, Alabama - Army Private Richard V. Wingard, 21, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Wingard, live at 9009 Toner road, completed nine weeks of advanced infantry training Nov. 3 at Ft. McClellan, Alabama.

The course, which simulates Vietnam conditions, includes training in such subjects as land navigation, communications, patrolling, guerrilla and survival techniques plus qualification with infantry weapons.

After giving them the best years of our life...

A GAS INCINERATOR!!

"Imagine... replacing us after we've set out here in the snow and rain for all these years. We were good enough until they heard about that young apparition that consumes rubbish and refuse indoors. Since then we've had nothing but complaints about flies, smoke and odor, and the unpleasant close of endpapers with rods and garbage. You'll see... replacing us with an automatic Gas Incinerator will make a big difference in their life!"

You, too, can end trash and garbage problems by switching to a new smokeless, odorless Gas Incinerator!

News Around Schoolcraft

A three-member visitation team of college educators has been appointed by the North Central Assn. of Colleges and Secondary Schools to make an on-campus inspection of Schoolcraft College by mid-January, as the college's application for accreditation by the regional association moves into its final phase.

Schoolcraft President Dr. Eric J. Bradner said he expected to hear shortly from the chairman of the visitation team on the date of the visit sometime between December 11 and January 15.

Members of the team are Dr. E. Steadman, director, Bureau of Institutional Research, University of Minnesota, chairman; Reed L. Buffington, superintendent-president of Chabot College, San Leandro, Calif.; and Prof. Kenneth Brunner, Southern Illinois University.

Dr. Bradner said that in compliance with another NCASC requirement the college had provided members of the team with a series of reports, publications and other material and information as background on the college prior to the visit.

Preliminary plans to remodel the Schoolcraft college library to meet the space requirements of a student body that has nearly doubled in three years were approved by college trustees at their meeting Wednesday night, November 1.

The project, expected to be completed by next summer at an estimated cost of $45,000, will add approximately 2,200 square feet of available space for book stacks and student reading area.

The needed floor space will be recognized by eliminating four of the eight existing classrooms in the library building. The other four will undergo slight remodeling so that they can be reassigned to strictly library functions.

Included in the project, which makes all of the 21,500 square foot building available for library purposes for the first time, are conversion of two classrooms into a single reserve book stack and reading room; conversion of another classroom into a slide viewing room; use of the present language laboratory as a record and tape listening room; and conversion of a faculty office bay into an audiovisual department.

At present, the library provides seating for 300 students and has stack space for 32,000 volumes. The library's present collection of 29,000 volumes approaches that figure. Stacks for another 12,000 volumes will be added by the project. The additional floor space will provide seating for another 150 to 200 students, based on present estimates.

College officials said they expected the remodelled library to serve the college's needs for the next three to four years. They pointed out, however, that continued growth of the college will require the construction of a new library.

SPEAKING for The Record

By BILL SLIGER

Municipal Judge Philip Ogilvie has informed city officials that he is working on a proposal for creating a probation department for the Northville court.

The idea is not unique, but Judge Ogilvie's approach is one that would establish a department tailored to the problems that are uniquely Northville's.

Admittedly, our community is not a hotbed of crime either at the juvenile or adult level. But there are offenses that are becoming more frequent, and offenders who are more regular.

The judge cites vandalism, malicious destruction of property and minors' possession of alcoholic beverages as the most often heard cases in the local court.

In many instances the offenders are not residents of the community, but as Judge Ogilvie points out, they become our responsibility because they come here and cause our problems.

Judge Ogilvie envisions a probation department directed by one, part-time official and manned by many volunteers, as needed.

In effect these volunteer probation officers would be acting as "big brothers." They would have been assigned to an individual case by the chief probation officer, and they would come from the ranks of interested community citizens.

The judge points out that the chief officer must have certain qualifications, probably chosen because of his fulltime profession in a related field. Judge Ogilvie believes such an individual could be attracted on a parttime basis for an annual salary of $1,200.

There are many obvious advantages to be gained from the service of such a department.

Initially, it's possible that the chief officer could provide the court with some pre-sentencing information containing background data on the offender and also offer recommendations to the court for consideration in sentencing.

If probation is elected, certain work details would be assigned the offender along with a "big brother" to see that his assignment is carried out.

"Moving the city hall yard for six weeks would be substituted for a fine and/or sentencing," Judge Ogilvie explains.

The acceptance of a probationary work program by the offender would give him the opportunity to have his case dismissed and remove the offense from his record.

Such procedure is needed primarily where parental guidance, control or interest is lacking. But there are instances, the judge notes, where concerned and interested parents welcome the role of the court and would prefer that probation officers take charge and enforce work assignments.

A local probation department recognizes that problems do exist, that there is a better way than fines or confinement to solve them, and that the community is willing to help to help itself towards that end.

My guess would be that Northville would have volunteer "big brothers" standing in line.

The idea of a Christmas Seal was conceived by a postal clerk in Denmark in 1904. The stamps, sold for a penny each, brought in enough money to build a children's TB hospital in Denmark.

About that time in the United States the "Brandywine Trail" is a small hospital built on the banks of the Brandywine River in Delaware and patterned after the Dr. Edward Livingston Trudeau theory that TB could be cured with plenty of rest, fresh air and good food, was about to be closed for the lack of $300.

At this point Miss Emily Bissell stepped into the picture. She copied the Denmark idea and designed an American Christmas Seal, had 50,000 printed, and launched a sales' campaign.

It was a flop. Sales hit $25 at the peak.

But Emily was determined. She took her seals to a daily newspaper in Philadelphia. The idea was snatched up and "Stamp Out Tuberculosis" became the slogan. Pictures of the seal were published on every page of the newspaper every day, the President of the United States, the Chief Justice and the Speaker of the House endorsed the campaign.

Emily had to rush out and order more stamps printed. The first campaign netted $3,000.

It's said that one of the first stamps was sold to a Philadelphia newsboy who said, "Gimme one - my sister's got it!"

Needless to say, Brandywine Shack was saved and American ingenuity was writing another story of success.

Since 1944 anti-TB drugs have made tremendous strides in the prevention and treatment of TB. But in the first 10 months of this year 2,312 new cases of TB have been recorded in the state of Michigan.

Last year there were 2,818 new cases and in 1965 a total of 2,483.

Right now there are 340 TB patients at Maybury Sanatorium. The average stay of each patient is six months. Thanks to the drugs, many victims can be treated at home or as out-patients of clinics.

But the crusade continues. There are many other respiratory diseases. And people like Dr. Howard and Judi Kuneman can tell you that your Christmas Seal contributions help save lives. And that's an important contribution. So stick them on your cards and gifts.

Readers Speak Grateful Business Offers Road Sign

EDITOR'S NOTE - The following letter was read at the monthly meeting of the Northville Township Board last week. Because of its uniqueness, it is reprinted here.

Board of Trustees
Township of Northville

We would like to take this opportunity to thank the Township of Northville and the Boards that represent it for the fine cooperation you have given us since we have been operating in the township.

We thought it might be interesting to you to know that we have become a source of summer time labor. Our force in 1967 consisted of the following: 9 High school students, 4 teachers, 5 retirees.

In addition, we thought you might be interested in the fact that the range has been used by most of the high schools and the Schoolcraft Community College as an "outdoor classroom" for teaching golf.

We are proud of the fact that we did not have one incident involving rowdiness, or bad conduct on the part of our customers.

Throughout the season we hosted 250 rounds of miniature golf by children from the Hawthorn Center.

We believe we are providing a recreation activity that is a credit to the township and a family type activity that permits all members of the family to participate.

We are most grateful for the fact that the Township of Northville has made it possible for us to do this.

As a token of our appreciation we would like to offer to have constructed and to place on the right-of-way or on our property a sign chosen by the Township of Northville identifying this as the Northville Township boundary and welcoming people. A safety slogan or a township motto might also be included.

If the Township Board feels that we would like to do this we would appreciate meeting with one of your designated representatives to work out the details of the sign.

Thank you again for your assistance.

Self Analysis Quiz

Do You Make Good First Impression?

by Jane Sherrod Singer

The impression you first make on someone you meet is often a lasting one and very difficult to change. Indeed, there are times when, if the initial introduction is not satisfactory, there is never another chance. Here are some keys. How many do you have on your chain in order to unlock the doors to acceptance and friendships?

- | | | |
|---|-----|-----|
| 1. Do you smile readily and often? | YES | NO |
| 2. Are you neatly (not necessarily expensively) groomed at all times? | () | () |
| 3. Do you have a firm handshake rather than offering what feels like a dead fish? | () | () |
| 4. Is your posture naturally straight, shoulders back, head high? | () | () |
| 5. When talking to a person do you look into his or her eyes? | () | () |
| 6. Do you speak clearly and audibly instead of mumbling? | () | () |
| 7. Do you show special respect, by standing, opening doors, etc., for people who are older than you? | () | () |
| 8. Can you stand still instead of shuffling your feet? | () | () |
| 9. Do you keep your hands away from your hair and face? | () | () |
| 10. Are your actions free from nervous mannerisms, such as chewing on something, biting your nails, clearing your throat, scratching, giggling, etc.? | () | () |
| 11. When a person is talking, do you give him or her your undivided attention? | () | () |
| 12. Are you genuinely interested in other people? | () | () |
| 13. Do you have a number of interests or hobbies? | () | () |
| 14. Is your language free from flippant errors, profanity and an over-use of slang? | () | () |
| 15. Is it habitual for you to use courteous expressions, such as "please," "thank you," "I beg your pardon," etc.? | () | () |

SCORING: Give yourself 2 points for each yes answer.

ANALYSIS: This is a difficult quiz to score, for a no on any one of these questions might discourage certain very critical people. In general, however, we have found the following analysis to be true.

25 to 30 points: You make a very good impression, one that encourages people to want to know you better. It is not difficult for you to land a job and, if you have the necessary qualifications, you'll keep it. Your associates admire you.

15 to 24 points: Like many of us, you are no paragon of grace. People tend to brush past you in their first meeting, and you have to prove your worth in their eyes. A little more polish would help you a great deal.

0 to 10 points: You are liked before you start and are indeed masterful in driving people AWAY from you. Since all these points have nothing to do with how beautiful or handsome you are and do not require a million dollars in your pocket, you can help yourself by practicing good manners and self-confidence.

Top of the Deck

by JACK W. HOFFMAN

If you've never seen a bulldog hitch up his pants, hook his thumbs in his belt and strain the buttons on his vest while delivering a growling speech chances are you've never met the likes of Charlie Ham.

A photographer's photographer who doesn't take pictures, as a guy holds down the job of picture editor at the Detroit Free Press where he grows at inefficiency and a corps of writing editors who never allow enough space for pictures.

"They're all stupid," he growled over at Hillside Friday night in describing editors and reporters in general and those at The Free Press in particular. They're stupid, he explained, because they deride the role of the photo journalist, can't write, and worse yet, can't spell.

That Ham can hold on to his job in the face of this venomous attack is not surprising because he's one of the finest picture editors in the nation. That, plus the fact his growing is really a disguise for an embarrassing tenderness, probably accounts for his longevity.

In the few times I've heard him speak, Ham's showmanship far outweighed the value of his words. But that showmanship means his speeches are never dull.

Friday night he was at his best, squaring off with an executive editor of The Toledo Blade in a debate over what is the newspaper's most important ingredient, stories or pictures. The poor guy from The Blade didn't have a chance; he was beaten before he started.

Who could argue with his conclusive evidence: No reporter can describe in writing a girl in a mini-skirt as well as a picture.

Press photographers are front-line soldiers; reporters bring up the rear 15-minutes after the battle to ask, "What happened?" reasoned Ham, and yet the story is published and the picture is scrapped.

Reporters can't write and not everyone can or wants to read what they write, he said. "But... they... can... see," he added while pointing the finger for emphasis. "And they like pictures!"

Ham speeded his talk with a couple of familiar stories that seem to get better with each telling. My favorite is about the photographer, who easily could be you or I, sent out to snap a picture of a cow.

Upon arriving at the pasture, the photographer backed up far enough to get the whole cow in the viewfinder. But he wasn't satisfied so he backed up to get a second cow in view. "He kept backing up like that until he got the whole herd, snaps Ham, and came back with a picture of ants. One of these days, I'll swear, he's gonna back right out the edge of the world."

Concerning ants, Ham contends the photographer must specialize - in ants if nothing else - if he wants to distinguish himself. "Shoot pictures of ants," Ham advises the fledgling photographer. "In your backyard, in the neighbor's yard, everywhere you go snap ants. And someday somebody's gonna rummage through your attic and find a stack of ant pictures and figure you were a nut but a brilliant one."

Like that gal in the mini-skirt, it's pretty difficult to describe Ham in words. But I defy Charlie to come up with a picture that better illustrates a bulldog hitching up his pants.

'Missouri Plan' Would Minimize Politics in Selection of Judges

LANSING—Michigan judges could be selected with a minimum of political involvement under a "Missouri Plan" amendment to the 1963 State Constitution proposed by a citizens' group.

Patterned after the "Missouri Plan," now used in 12 states, the proposal calls for judicial candidates to be nominated by a bi-partisan panel of lawyers and laymen.

Such plans call for seven panel members: three attorneys appointed by the state bar association; three citizens appointed by the governor; and a judge who serves as chairman. When a vacancy opens on the bench, this panel screens possible replacements then puts forward a slate of three or more whom it considers the best qualified candidates. The governor fills the position from the recommended slate.

THE APPOINTED judge serves for three years. He is then required to stand for election on his record only and without opposition. For example, voters in Missouri are confronted with this simple judicial ballot: "Shall Judge X of the Blank Court of Missouri be retained in office? YES, NO (scratch one)."

Before each election, lawyers conduct a poll within their profession on the candidates' qualifications for retention. Results receive wide publicity in local news media. Newspapers also publish biographies, record of reversals, and conduct in office.

Voters then decide whether to retain the judge on the basis of qualification and performance rather than popularity, political activity or a famous last name.

IF RETAINED by voters, the judge serves until he dies, retires or resigns. If voters do not approve his tenure, another slate of candidates is offered by the panel and another three-year appointment is made by the governor.

Coupled with the proposal for bench selection is machinery for removing or disciplining judges for misconduct or malfeasance in office. A commission is established to investigate complaints about the courts at all levels. Upon recommendation by the commission, the Supreme Court may hold a public hearing and remove a judge.

Any attorney, public official, litigant or private citizen can report a judge for a disability or dereliction. If the commission staff finds that the complaint has merit, it immediately investigates.

Such a program has been working well in California since 1960. Called the Commission on Judicial Qualifications, the group there is composed of five judges, two laymen and two lawyers. In seven years of existence, the commission has investigated more than 400 complaints, induced 30 judges to resign or quietly retire and recommended one removal.

Resignations and retirements have strengthened the courts, but the power of investigation is also a prod stimulus to judges to conduct themselves as the office demands.

MICHIGAN NEEDS such a program as now exists in Missouri and California, the citizens' group feels. Sponsored by the Michigan Citizens' Committee for Judicial Selection and Tenure, the League of Women Voters of Michigan, and the American Judicature Society, the group will attempt to obtain 350,000 signatures on petitions by next June to get the proposal before voters in the November, 1968, election.

At a recent conference in Grand Rapids the citizens' committee pointed out that all state judges except the Wayne County District Court Judge are elected by popular vote.

Edward L. Cushman, conference chairman, said, "If we are going to attract the high quality of judges I know our state can produce, we have to assure our judicial candidates that they won't be knocked around like a football football every six or eight years."

AN EDITORIAL in the Kansas City Star sums up the proved benefits of such a plan: "A judge doesn't have to borrow and spend money to conduct a campaign. He is not forced to make political promises to men who control votes. He does not have to answer to a political boss, nor does he need to accept campaign contributions from lawyers who will practice in his court. It is by far the best plan yet devised to keep the bench out of partisan campaigns."

The citizens' committee said it will enlist "maximum participation" by individual citizens and organizations throughout the state to support the enactment of the proposed constitutional amendment.

NEW LOOK—Northville fans attending the Meet The Mustangs program, to be sponsored by the Northville Boosters club next Tuesday night at 8 p.m. in the Northville high school gymnasium, will get a preview showing of the new uniforms

Students Boost Newspaper Issues

"This year's staff is interested, enthused, and hardworking." These are the sentiments expressed by Mr. Ralph Redmond, Northville high school journalism teacher and advisor to the school newspaper, The Mustang.

As for publications themselves, Mr. Redmond comments: "The first two issues were not too bad, but they were not that good either. We were not striving for perfection."

The first issue was a welcome back issue so that newcomers to NHS knew there was a school paper; the second publication was put together by both experienced personnel and fledgling reporters who were learning the various techniques of newspaper production.

The Mustang will come out eight times this year, which is an increase of two publications over last year. The Mustang is in its fourth year of existence.

Despite the obstacles incurred by a minimum number of publications, Mr. Redmond contends the "staff has a fairly good scheduling to work with, both for good news stories and advertisements to be based around."

The third issue of The Mustang goes on sale at NHS today, and it, (as well as the first two publications), shows a great change over last year in its news coverage. Mr. Redmond points out that "because The Mustang is seldom published, the staff members are diminishing past news coverage in an effort to project future news elements."

Projected news stories add the needed essence to a school newspaper, whereas, past news only cheapens the quality of a newspaper, he notes. Mr. Redmond points out some of the shortcomings The Mustang staff must contend with, "We need a working area set apart from the classroom as it is now set up in the Ensemble Room. We could also use a press in the school."

Copy reader: Marg Wojdenchowski. Columnists: Penny Anchors, Bob Heme, Daryl Holloman, Sandy Kishmaul, Claudia Nieber, Pat Roth, Don Sasse, Linda Williams.

Student Writer: Rod Braun.

Advisor: Mr. Ralph Redmond. Principle: Mr. Fred Holdsworth. When Editor-in-Chief Virginia Round was asked of her impression of this year's newspaper, she commented, "I think that this year's paper is the best Northville has put out, mostly because of our staff. As editor, I find our staff very co-operative and enthusiastic. Thus, I think our paper improves with every issue."

Parents Examine Jr. High Classes

Ida B. Cooke Junior High School's open house, November 9, proved to be both successful and an overall enlightening experience.

Parents were given their children's class schedules, the purpose being to visit their child's classes and learning exactly what each teacher is trying to accomplish within his class subject. The following are a few of the various classes and what their teachers are striving to accomplish:

Mr. Lawrence Rodgers, eighth grade math — "I'm trying to serve most of the youngsters on the material of mathematics, more in the ways of solving the problems than in just the answers. I try to involve students in the discovery approach, and the assignments are given with the idea that most of it can be done during the class period."

Mrs. Susan Sysma, seventh grade English — "Communication Arts and reading are emphasized. An individualized approach to reading for pleasure is employed. The weekly reading in class is one of the greatest responses I've ever gotten, and we also spend a great deal of time writing in school."

Mrs. Jennie Donnelly, eighth grade social studies, employed a different approach in presenting her program to the parents by having two students in each class do the speaking and presentation. John Wilson and Eric Johnson were two such speakers.

John Wilson — "Every student writes his own history book by taking notes from reports given in class. Students volunteer to give these reports on either a state, (its population and products etc.), or a president, (what he did in his term of office and what was transpiring in the world during his term)."

Eric Johnson — "We are constantly reminded that the future of the country is ours. We outline chapters for our history books, and discuss current events every day."

Mr. Norman Hanenwald, seventh grade science — "Seventh grade students are interested and want to learn. They can come in, sit down, and relax because I only call on the volunteers... everyone is contributing something to the class. They can develop their interests and I try to get them to do it here."

Mrs. Kathryn LaPointe, home economics — "The students make aprons, and will be sewing skirts and blouses. They have gone through the good grooming unit, and will go into the nutrition unit when we get the three ranges that were ordered. They also give reports and demonstrations on the different sections, (units)."

Mr. Larry Krabill, sixth grade science-math and Michigan Civics — "We are currently working with magnets in science, and studying fractions in math. In Michigan Civics, they're given some idea of Michigan and its products and government. We have a lot of fun, and they know when to study... and if we couldn't have a little bit of humor, I'd be ashamed to be a teacher."

FTA Club Sparks Teaching Interest

The purpose of the Future Teachers of America club at Northville high school is to get students both interested in teaching, and with all the aspects of the teaching profession.

According to FTA sponsor, Mrs. Ann Osborn, "We enjoy what we do and have a good time doing it." This is Mrs. Osborn's second year as the sponsor of the national organization's Northville chapter.

Mrs. Osborn pointed out that last week was American Education Week. "Monday, we gave each teacher, secretary, and principal an apple. Tuesday, 10 students helped the teachers at American elementary school. Wednesday, we gave the teachers a tea. Tonight, (due to last Thursday's junior high open house), we're serving as guides for the high school's P-TA open house."

Other projects for the coming school year include a Christmas project, a service project at Our Lady of Providence to help the mentally retarded children make cards and baskets for their parents during the Easter season, and taking two field trips to two Michigan colleges during FTA Day to get acquainted with colleges and with the teaching profession in each member's school of interest.

The following are the members of FTA, (the members that are starred designate those who helped out at the American school during American Education Week):

President Evelyn Budington*, Vice-President Karen Stefanski*, Secretary-Treasurer Jackie Wallace*, Gregg Balbo*, Lauri Batzer, Pam Burden*, Bob Byrd, Bill Christensen*, Susan Delsley*, Diane Holdsworth*, Karen Loudy*, Lynn Macri, and Kyle Stubenovi*.

Scholarships are awarded to the two most deserving seniors for club service and high scholastic standing.

Church Services Tonight Usher in Thanksgiving

Two union worship services, one involving both Catholics and Protestants, are among those scheduled by area churches as they give thanks for the blessings of God.

In Northville, the traditional Thanksgiving union service of Methodists and Presbyterians will be held at the First Presbyterian Church tonight (Wednesday) beginning at 8 p.m.

The Rev. S. D. Kinde, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Northville, will deliver the sermon, entitled "Thankful," while the Rev. Timothy C. Johnson, assistant Presbyterian minister, will conduct the worship service.

Special music will be presented by the Presbyterian Chancel Choir and the Youth Bell Ringers. Serving as ushers will be college students home for the holiday.

The Rev. David Strang, pastor of the Evangelical Lutheran Church of the Epiphany of Northville township, has announced that members of his congregation will join with both Catholics and Protestants in a union service at the First Methodist Church of Plymouth tonight at 7:30 p.m.

Presenting the Thanksgiving message will be the Rev. Paul Thompson, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Plymouth, whose talk will be "For This We Give Thanks."

The union service in Plymouth, like the one in Northville, is conducted an-nally, but this year marks the first time that Catholics will join with Protestants in the service.

"The Terms of Thanksgiving," taken from First Timothy 1:12, is the topic of the sermon to be delivered by the Rev. Charles Boerger, pastor of St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran church of Northville, Thanksgiving morning at 10:30. The choir will present music with a Thanksgiving theme.

The regular mid-week service will be held at Orchard Hills Baptist church tonight beginning at 7 p.m. The Rev. Fred Trachsel announces that his talk will carry a Thanksgiving theme.

A Thanksgiving Mass will be said at 9 a.m. tomorrow at Our Lady of Victory Catholic church, according to the Rev. Father John Witbeck, pastor. A special collection by the St. Vincent de Paul Society to help the poor and needy of the parish, will be taken.

While mother's Thanksgiving turkey is roasting at home, the junior and senior high youth groups of Willowbrook Community Church of Novi will present an 8:30 a.m. Thanksgiving breakfast at the church. Besides sponsoring the breakfast, according to the Rev. S. V. Norris, pastor, the youth also will conduct a short worship service following the breakfast.

A potluck supper, followed by a Thanksgiving praise and prayer service, will be held at the church.

VILLAGE OF NOVI

Dollar Volume Up As Building Soars

After last year's slowdown in building activity here, because of tight financing, giant increases in the past five months suggest the building boom is on again.

In Northville township, a larger dollar investment was recorded in the past five months than in any entire year in history. During the past five months, the township issued 111 permits representing $9,059,299. That's $1,066,688 more than the total dollar volume throughout 1964—the last record year.

A permit issued to Greenspan Building company for Five Mile road apartments ($340,000) and another for expansion of the King's Mill development on Northville road ($858,311) accounted for the lion's share of the five-month volume.

Interestingly, the number of permits issued has not kept up with the financial investment. For example, Northville township issued six fewer permits in September, 1967 than it did in September, 1966.

Novi continued to show solid increases in construction, although not quite so spectacular as Northville township. A large percentage of the building in the Novi area is industrial or commercial development rather than residential.

2 Police Shot By Homeowner In Walled Lake

Two Walled Lake policemen were slightly injured by shotgun pellets early Saturday morning fired by a Walled Lake homeowner in reply to the officers' command to drop his gun.

In the ensuing gun battle between Raymond Fugate and a total of 10 officers from surrounding communities who had responded to a general alarm, the man was finally subdued by gun wounds in the leg and groin and taken to the Pontiac General Hospital.

Two Walled Lake patrol cars were dispatched to the Fugate home at 1392 Appleford in response to an appeal for help phoned in by Fugate's daughter at 2:05 a.m. Saturday. She said that her father had been drinking and had threatened her mother, police reported. When the police officers arrived they found Fugate standing in his front yard, waving a shot-gun.

When Fugate refused to surrender his gun and fired at the police they radioed for help. Patrol cars from Novi, Wixom, West Bloomfield, Wolverine Lake and Oakland County Sheriff's Department converged on the scene.

In the gun battle that followed, Fugate was dropped and rushed by ambulance to Pontiac.

Fugate's condition had improved enough Monday to remove him from the intensive care section.

issued by Novi for the five-month period in 1966 was $3,111. This figure grew to 126 in 1967, with August and October leading the way.

Dollar volume during this period was increased from $1,730,990 to $2,927,019.

Novi's biggest month in the last two years was June, 1967 when permits were issued for $1,002,696 in new construction. Included in this total were a $96,752 stable and riding arena on 14 Mile road west of Hagerty road and the ABC Photo plant and office complex on Nine Mile road valued at $850,000.

The $556,700 Novi building volume in September of this year included a nursing home, valued at $398,000, on Meadowbrook road north of 10 Mile road.

Although the number of permits issued in Wixom for the five-month period through October are down from 24 in 1966 to 15 in 1967, the dollar volume doubled from $129,001 in 1966 to $259,500 in '67.

Big month for Wixom was June of this year when $204,000 worth of building activity was logged. An addition to the Ford plant, pegged at $54,000, and a new plant and office for the Micro-police corporation for $150,000 made up the total.

Awards Nite Set

The fifth annual School Bus Drivers Awards Nite of the Wixom Kiwanis club will be held at Aunt Jemima's Kitchen restaurant next Tuesday night beginning at 6:00 p.m.

A buffet dinner will precede the awards program in the Colonial Room. Each year the Kiwanis club honors school bus drivers of the Novi and Walled Lake school districts with a dinner.

A plaque is awarded to a driver chosen as the outstanding driver of the year. The top winner is picked by fellow drivers, not the Kiwanis club.

Yesterday the Kiwanis club program, under the direction of Fraser Staman, included a "look into the future," with the showing of a Detroit Edison company film.

Men of the area who wish to join the Kiwanis club, which serves Novi and Walled Lake as well as Wixom, are invited to attend anyone of the Tuesday evening meetings. They are held at 8:30 p.m.

Mayor Wesley McAtee suggested that now was a bad time to start such work which would account for the high figures. Councilman Raymond Lahti wondered whether the minimum standards required for such work caused the increased rates. They agreed that the county minimum of "curbs and gutters" was desirable for Wixom but that other requirements such as depth of base might be reviewed.

The city engineer Pate Hitt and Bogue, was ordered to make such a study and that a new invitation be made for bids.

Citizens in the audience inquired about plans for repairing holes in some city streets. DPW Director Robert Trombley indicated that the County Road commission would only "patch" holes in black-top from now until next spring.

Mayor McAtee and council members discussed with Trombley the need for part-time help on building inspection. To help solve this problem, City Attorney Gene Schmeitz was directed to draw up an agreement with Mr. Calvert, part-time Walled Lake building inspector to provide this additional service in Wixom on a job-fee basis.

In answer to a request from Marlin Campbell representing owners of the Liberson property who had been turned down by the planning commission for rezoning, Council set December 12 as the date for public hearing.

In a letter from the Oakland County Ambulance association the council was informed of new higher rates to go into effect the first of next year. The association also said it planned to invoice local governments for payment of fees they are unable to collect from individual patients.

Lahti moved that the letter be referred to the city attorney for checking and a report to the council.

Another letter to the council brought some smiles of appreciation.

Thurman and Lynda Bryant of 3031 Grouse road wrote to thank the city in general and the DPW crew in particular for the fine job done on repair of a culvert in front of their home. They were pleased also with how much improved the drainage was in the area as a result of the work.

Draft of the new police manual was tabled until the next meeting of the council and copies of the sewer ordinance and operating agreement were to be mailed to council members for examination in preparation for discussion at a later meeting.

Planning commission minutes of October 2 meeting were accepted after a brief discussion of a letter to the commission from the Detroit Finnish Camp association. This letter affirmed that being of Finnish descent was a requirement for membership in the association and not a qualification for purchase of property in the subdivision.

An amendment to the city's "small offenses" ordinance was requested by Police Chief D'Arcy Young. Modified after legislation requested by Ford

Road Bids Too High; Wixom Restudies Job

Two paving bids considered too high by Wixom council members were rejected at the Tuesday night meeting and plans were made to invite new bids.

Last month the council opened bids, ranging from $143,191.75 to $147,632.25, for improvement of Theodore, Flamingo, and Fairbury-Bogle streets. The bids were considerably higher than the $85,162 budget surplus that led to council decision last month to reacquire the road improvement program.

Mayor Wesley McAtee suggested that now was a bad time to start such work which would account for the high figures. Councilman Raymond Lahti wondered whether the minimum standards required for such work caused the increased rates. Motor company the amendment has already been incorporated into the ordinances of Dearborn and Livonia.

The addition would make it a misdemeanor for an unauthorized person to park his car or trespass in a privately owned parking lot. Police would act only upon request of the lot owner. In enforcing the new amendment. The council approved the amendment after an explanation of its effect on police patrols by Police Chief Young.

Giant Development Planned Novi Rezoning Hearing Set

Two proposed zoning changes, one concerning 80 acres on the east side of Meadowbrook between Nine and 10 Mile roads, will come up for public hearing next month as a result of action taken by the Novi planning board last week.

The hearing is slated for Monday, December 11. Rezoning is being sought for the 37-acre farm on Meadowbrook road and 4.3 acres for the present farm site and more than 12 acres for lake and parks.

The lake portion is a former gravel pit on the property.

A preliminary plan for the Meadowbrook property to the board Monday—one that calls for single and multiple dwellings as well as for commercial and parks development.

Specifically, he requested that 36 1/2 acres be zoned residential (R-1A), 22 1/2 acres for multiple dwellings (R-2A), and two acres for commercial. In addition, Michael's plan called for 4.3 acres for the present farm site and more than 12 acres for lake and parks.

Following an explanation of Michael's plan and a lengthy discussion, the planners decided to recommend that the full 80 acres be zoned R-1A except for 22 1/2 acres for an R-2A designation.

At the request of O. H. McCullum and after a survey by planners Victor Rust and Willis Miller, the board decided to seek rezoning of the three Grand River lots from C-2 (commercial) to M-1 (manufacturing) to produce a more uniform zoning of property along Grand River.

Jim Carpenter, a Detroit visitor Northville, just couldn't believe his eyes when he saw this field of turkeys at the Raymond C. Honsinger farm. When the photographer challenged him to "help himself," Jim sat down and ordered a 20-pounder. The turkeys were undisturbed by the fuss...and unaware that they were seeing a preview of tomorrow.
